Chapter 2150 – Lord Pavilion Master

“W-W-What’s going on?” Wang Qiang asked in a puzzled manner.

“Hey, brats, are the two of you trying to die? You must kneel and kowtow to the people of Luyang’s Pavilion when they pass by. If you do not wish to kneel, you must hide yourself immediately.”

Suddenly, from not far away, an old middle-aged man with sideburns shouted at Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

Although that man had the appearance of a middle-aged uncle, his actual age was at least two hundred years old. He had already surpassed the age range of the younger generation.

“W-What? W-We need to k-kneel and k-kowtow just from t-them passing by? T-They a-are this a-arrogant?”

“I r-refuse. I-I’m not going to k-kneel. I s-shall see w-w-what they can do t-to me,” Hearing the advice from the middle-aged uncle, Wang Qiang instead decided to go against it. He placed his hands on his hips and held his head high up. It was a fearless appearance.

“The hell! You ugly fellow without clothes on, have you truly grown tired of living?” Seeing that Wang Qiang was refusing to hide, and instead revealed such an arrogant appearance, the middle-aged uncle grew worried.

“A-Aiyah! W-Who a-are you calling u-u-ugly?” Wang Qiang was immediately displeased by the middle-aged uncle’s insult. As he spoke, he began to walk toward that uncle.

Seeing that, Chu Feng started to shake his head with a smile on his face. He was able to tell that Wang Qiang did not really plan to beat up that uncle. After all, he had warned them out of kindness.

Wang Qiang was merely giving himself a reason so that he could get off the stage. He actually also wanted to hide.

As for Chu Feng, as he was not familiar with what that so-called Luyang's Pavilion was, he would naturally not take risks. After all, they had just arrived in this place. As such, they should do things with care.

Thus, Chu Feng followed Wang Qiang and arrived at that uncle's hiding place.

“What is this? You're planning to attack me after I warned you out of kindness?”

“Come, come, come. Although I am not fond of bullying the weak or the young, I, Liu, will not pamper such a shameless bastard as you.”

That uncle was not made afraid by Wang Qiang walking toward him aggressively. He placed both hands on his waist, raised his neck and emitted the aura of a rank three Half Martial Emperor.

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself, and secretly laughed. Both him and Wang Qiang had seen through that uncle's cultivation long ago.

However, that uncle was actually still showing off his aura at such a time. It was clear that he was very confident in his cultivation.

At the very least, he did not place Chu Feng and Wang Qiang in his eyes.

“Uncle, please don't be m-mistaken. I am n-not planning to f-fight you. I have m-merely come to r-r-reason with you.”

“T-Tell me, t-there are n-neither g-grievances nor g-grudges between us, w-why w-would you a-attack me personally a-after j-just meeting me?” Wang Qiang said with an expression of unreconciliation.

“My, what is this? I can't speak the truth?” The uncle was also unreconciled. However, his expression suddenly changed. With a lowered voice, he said, “Brat, we'll settle this later.”

After he finished saying those words, the uncle carefully turned his gaze toward the sky. At the same time, he started to hide himself even further away.

Seeing that, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang also turned their gazes toward the sky.

At this moment, not only was the ear-piercing bell growing louder and louder, a large group of troops were moving about in the sky in a majestic manner.

This group of people were covered by purple clouds. It was simply impossible to see through the clouds. Other than the many Luyang's Pavilion's banners that fluttered in the air, one could only hear the grandiose sound of footsteps. Those footsteps were from people walking in the air.

However, after Chu Feng unleashed his Heaven's Eyes, he was able to see through everything.

Monstrous beasts and humans were traveling together in the purple clouds. However, regardless of whether they were monstrous beasts or humans, they were all wearing the same sort of outfit. From this, it could be seen that they should be from the same power.

Merely, in the Holy Land of Martialism, the monstrous beasts and humans possessed their respective powerful factions. Only very rarely would there be a power composed of both monstrous beasts and humans.

Furthermore, the people in this power all possessed very powerful cultivations. Regardless of whether they were monstrous beasts or humans, they were all Martial Emperor-level experts. Furthermore, there were more than eight thousand of these sorts of experts in total.

A total of over eight thousand Martial Emperors. Just thinking about it, one could very well imagine how terrifying this sort of disposition of forces was. Furthermore, the overall quality of these Martial Emperors was not low either. In fact, many among them were peak Martial Emperors, existences a single step away from becoming Half Martial Ancestors.

In addition, there were several tens of war chariots among this group of people. Furthermore, all of the war chariots were headed by Half Martial Ancestors.

Among the war chariots, one was the most dazzling. It had the appearance of a mobile castle. Through his Heaven's Eyes, Chu Feng was able to see that the war chariot was truly splendid and majestic.

Not mentioning the precious ornaments all around the chariot, there were also several tens of beautiful young women around it.

Those women were wearing exposing clothing. Their cultivations ranged all over. Generally, they were all not very powerful.

Furthermore, there was a common aspect to them; they were all very young. Even the oldest among them should not be more than thirty. As for the youngest, they were only in their teens.

These women were either serving tea or showing their grace. They were all surrounding a single man.

To be exact, it was a young man wearing gorgeous clothing. His appearance was very distinguished and elegant. Although Chu Feng was unable to see through his cultivation, he had a faint sensation that man's actual age was most definitely not as young as his appearance. That man was most definitely an old codger that had lived for hundreds of years.

A several hundred year-old man was actually being served by this many young women. Chu Feng felt truly disgusted by it.

It would be one thing if he took care of the women serving him. However, Chu Feng was able to tell that this man viewed the women to be nothing more than playthings.

“That is?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s gaze shone.

He was shocked to discover that the man was wearing an unusual headdress, That headdress should be a treasure. Most importantly, on that headdress was a single character.

The character ‘Chu!!!’

At the moment when Chu Feng revealed an astonished expression, the crowd kneeling on the ground started to shout in unison.

“We pay our respects to Lord Pavilion Master!!!”

“We pay our respects to Lord Pavilion Master!!!”

“We pay our respects to Lord Pavilion Master!!!”

The people from Luyang’s Pavilion came rapidly and left rapidly.

In merely a short moment, they were already far away in the distance. Hearing the tolling of the bell grow further and further away, the people kneeling on the ground began to stand back up.

“I wasn’t chosen again. If this is to continue, I’m not kneeling again.”

At this moment, some of the people who had knelt on the ground earlier sighed and complained. However, for the great majority of them, they reacted as if nothing had happened, and continued on with what they were doing earlier.

They actually did not feel the slightest humiliation in kneeling and kowtowing to the people from Luyang’s Pavilion. It was as if what they had done was only natural.

“Hey, u-uncle, w-what’s going o-on here?” Wang Qiang asked that uncle.

“The two of you have just arrived, right?” That uncle was frowning as if he had seen a monster as he looked to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

“Y-Y-Yep,” Wang Qiang nodded his head with on his face. That fellow’s attitude changed extremely fast.

It was no wonder that he would end up being knocked around in the Sealing Ancient Village even though he was extremely powerful. At this moment, Chu Feng truly pondered whether Wang Qiang was someone fond of being mistreated.

Chapter 2151 – Eating With One’s Life On The Line

“Since you’re newcomers, I will not bicker with you.”

“Forget about it, I’ll explain to you two what happened. What just passed by us is the strongest power in this place, Luyang’s Pavilion.”

“Furthermore, when that bell sounds, it means that the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master is passing by.”

“When the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master passes by, everyone must greet him by kneeling and kowtowing. Furthermore, they must loudly shout, ‘we pay our respects to Lord Pavilion Master.’”

“Else, if they are to be discovered by the people from Luyang’s Pavilion, they will be killed on the spot.”

“Thus, if one does not wish to kneel, one must hide. To stand in the middle of the crowd like the two of you were doing earlier would simply be akin to courting death, understand?” The middle-aged man said.

“So that’s the case. T-Then, I must thank you for your warning, u-uncle.”

“W-Wait, s-something’s amiss. Since a-all those that do not wish to kneel have hidden t-t-themselves, why w-would those kneeling be so h-happy? H-Hell, a-aren’t they d-d-demeaning themselves?” Wang Qiang said with a confused expression.

“As I said, Luyang’s Pavilion is the strongest power here. Many people want to join them. After all, they would be able to strut around should they be able to join.”

Pavilion.”

“Those people that were kneeling were all people that wanted to join Luyang’s Pavilion,” The middle-aged man said.

“I u-understand. I-Indeed, they w-were demeaning t-themselves,” Wang Qiang said in disdain.

“Uncle, may I ask who it is that created that Luyang’s Pavilion?” Chu Feng asked curiously. He was unable to forget the headdress that man was wearing.

After all, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had also worn one such headdress. However, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master’s headdress had the character Ying on it.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that the headdress with the Ying character on it meant that the person wearing it was from the Ying Heavenly Clan.

If so, it might be possible that the man wearing the Chu character headdress would be from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

“Hehe, speaking of the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master, he is truly an amazing character. He is someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan,” That uncle said.

“Chu Heavenly C-Clan?” Hearing those words, Wang Qiang immediately opened his mouth and involuntarily turned his gaze to Chu Feng.

Chu Feng had already told Wang Qiang the fact that he was someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan on their way to the Outer World. Thus, Wang Qiang already knew about the complicated relationship Chu Feng had with the Chu Heavenly Clan.

“Ugly fellow, don’t tell me you don’t even know about the Chu Heavenly Clan? They are the rulers of an Upper Realm. They are an existence that controls countless Ordinary Realms and Lower Realms. To us, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan are not humans. Rather, they are gods. Do you understand?” The middle-aged man said to Wang Qiang.

“G-Got it, got it. H-How could I not e-even know about the Chu H-Heavenly Clan?” Wang Qiang said with a teehee laughter.

“With how fearless and ignorant the two of you were acting, it is truly possible that you do not know about the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Well, it is fate that brought us together. Thus, I’ll give you two this advice. While you can offend anyone, you must not offend the people from Luyang’s Pavilion.”

“In truth, Luyang’s Pavilion was not able to become the hegemon of this place because they possessed absolute strength. Rather, it was precisely because the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master is from the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Thus, there were barely any powers that dared to fight him head on. Upon finding out that he planned to proclaim himself hegemon over this region, many powers capable of contending against him decided to leave this region. That is how he managed to become the hegemon here,” The middle-aged man said.

“Uncle, w-where d-do you find the tastiest f-food here?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Ugly fellow, are you listening to me or not?” Seeing that Wang Qiang was not paying much attention to the many things he said, the middle-aged man revealed an expression of anger.

“U-Uncle, I am l-listening to you. M-Merely, I am t-truly hungry,” Wang Qiang held his stomach and exclaimed miserably.

“How could martial cultivators be hungry? The way I see it, you’re feeling gluttonous, no?” The middle-aged man said with disdain.

“Hehe, y-yes, yes, yes,” Wang Qiang did not bother to refute him, and nodded his head repeatedly. He was smiling very shamelessly.

“If you want to eat fine food, then it would naturally be the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant. The food there is the most delicious.”

“Unfortunately, the food there is also truly expensive. Even I am unable to afford it. As for you two brats, you are even more unable to afford it,” The middle-aged man said.

“N-N-Nonsense! T-This person here is a r-rich fellow. How c-could we not even b-be able to afford f-food? U-Uncle, lead the w-way, we’ll t-treat you,” Wang Qiang said while pointing to Chu Feng.

“Are you for real or just joking around?” The middle-aged man revealed a skeptical gaze.

“T-Truly. U-Uncle, we are truly a-able to afford t-the f-f-food,” Wang Qiang said.

“No, what I’m asking is whether or not you two are really going to invite me to a meal,” The middle-aged man said.

Hearing those words, Wang Qiang’s expression immediately changed. He thought to himself that this uncle was actually a glutton.

“Uncle, what is the most important thing between people?” Chu Feng asked the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man was puzzled. Thus, he asked, “What is it?”

“It’s trust. The two of us are both honest and good young men. As such, we will not deceive you,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn, boy, you appear to be more trustworthy, much more trustworthy than that stutterer.”

“Very well, I’ll lead the way for you two,” The middle-aged man said.

“The hell! T-This is d-discrimination!” Wang Qiang had a displeased expression.

However, the middle-aged man ignored Wang Qiang and started to chat with Chu Feng.

As they chatted, they arrived before a restaurant.

That restaurant was very extravagant. It was the tallest restaurant in the city, with a total of a hundred floors.

Furthermore, all of the tiles, bricks and ornaments were red. It possessed a very distinguished characteristic.

This was the famous Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant.

Most importantly, several tens of guards stood at the entranceway of the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant. Furthermore, the majority of them were peak Half Martial Emperors.

Their leader was actually a Martial Emperor-level expert. Although his cultivation wasn't very high, it remained that he was a Martial Emperor.

A Martial Emperor that could move about unhindered in the Holy Land of Martialism actually ended up being a gatekeeper in this place.

From this, one could tell that the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant possessed quite a remarkable background.

“See, I didn't deceive you two. This Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant is ran by our City Master. If you two don't have the money, it's best that you not dine in there.”

“The reason for that is because our City Master is vicious and merciless. He is not someone that the two of you can afford to offend. If you are to offend him, you will be killed,” The middle-aged man started to panic slightly after seeing the guards. He began to urge Chu Feng and Wang Qiang to go elsewhere.

Chu Feng smiled calmly. After chatting on their way here, he had already come to know that this middle-aged man was called Liu

Yue. He was a native to this city, and did not belong to any sect or power. Although his cultivation was relatively decent, he possessed no status in the city.

Chu Feng felt that this Liu Yue possessed a good nature, and was a character with integrity. Else, he would not be one of those people that refused to kneel to Luyang's Pavilion.

Furthermore, as he was the first person Chu Feng and Wang Qiang got to know after entering into the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, Chu Feng truly wished to invite him to a proper meal.

"Chu Feng, think about it properly. This is truly not a joke," Liu Yue was still not at ease. After all, from what had happened earlier, he felt that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were being overly confident.

"Uncle Liu, have you forgotten what is the most important between people?" Chu Feng asked.

"Forget about it. At the very most, I'll just die. Come, I'll show you two the way," Liu Yue agreed half doubtingly. Uncertainty still filled his heart.

Thus, even though Liu Yue was walking toward the entrance of the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant confidently, he was mumbling nonstop, "This is truly ridiculous. For the sake of a meal, I'm gambling even my life."

Chapter 2152 – Looking Down Upon Others With Dog's Eyes

“Stop!” However, right after Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Liu Yue approached the restaurant, several tens of guards blocked their path.

The guard with the Martial Emperor-level cultivation was standing at the forefront of the guards. He had a very fierce and ill-intended gaze.

“Liu Yue, is this a place where someone like you can set foot? Scram!” It turned out that those people had not come here for Chu Feng. Rather, their target was Liu Yue.

“Is this the way that such a big restaurant does business, the way that it entertains its guests?” Chu Feng’s eyebrows narrowed as he asked coldly.

“We would naturally be refined and courteous when entertaining guests. However, for little bandits like you who only plan to stir up trouble, there is no need for us to show you any etiquette,” Seeing that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had arrived together with Liu Yue, the guards also did not place them in their eyes.

Suddenly, the leading guard shouted at them, “Scram immediately. If you don’t scam immediately, do not blame us for being impolite!”

“Chu Feng, let’s go,” Seeing that, Liu Yue became even more panicky. He grabbed Chu Feng and Wang Qiang with his hands and tried to pull them out of this place.

However, the moment he grabbed them, Liu Yue was startled. He was surprised to discover that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were standing firmly like Mount Tai; he was simply unable to move them at all.

“I shall see how you all are going to be impolite,” Chu Feng said coldly.

“Truly one who refuses a toast only to be forced to drink a forfeit. You are courting a beating,” In response, the leading guard snorted coldly. Then, a layer of boundless oppressive might swept forth.

“Huuu~~~”

The oppressive might of a rank two Martial Emperor swept across. Immediately, violent whistling wind could be heard. Like a fierce tiger descending from the mountain, the surrounding space started to distort.

After that oppressive might was revealed, the corners of that guard’s mouth lifted involuntarily.

Naturally, this oppressive might was not the limit of his power. However, he felt that this oppressive might was more than sufficient to blow Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Liu Yue rolling and crawling on the ground and leaving them bruised and bloodied.

Not only would they suffer external injuries, they would also suffer internal injuries. Without at least eight or ten years, they would not be able to recover from those injuries. In fact, it might even be possible that their future prospects would be ruined.

However, that guard did not feel that he was being excessive at all. The way he saw it, this was the consequence of offending him. Chu Feng and the others had brought this upon themselves.

However, after that powerful oppressive might dispersed, the guards present all revealed astonished expressions. This was especially true for that Martial Emperor-level guard; he was so shocked that his mouth was wide open. His expression was uglier than even someone who had just been fed swine feces.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were not moved in the slightest; they were not at all affected by his oppressive might. Furthermore, even Liu Yue, a mere Half Martial Emperor, was completely unharmed.

“Are you done?” Chu Feng asked.

“Ah?” That guard’s expression changed. He was at a complete loss.

“Then it’s my turn,” As Chu Feng spoke, coldness flashed through his eyes. Then, his rank one Half Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might swept forth.

“Boom~~~”

Immediately, heaven and earth started to tremble. The guards present were all like fallen leaves as they were knocked flying by the shaking. Ruthlessly, they crashed into the Hundred Levels Red Sparrow’s Restaurant.

The powerful impact caused even the Hundred Levels Red Sparrow’s Restaurant to tremble violently. As for those guards, they all vomited out mouthfuls of blood; they were seriously injured.

“T-T-T-This...” At this moment, Liu Yue was struck dumb. No matter what, he had never expected Chu Feng, a mere young man, to be this powerful.

After all, he knew very well that the leader of the guards was a Martial Emperor, an actual Martial Emperor.

Chu Feng was actually able to send a Martial Emperor flying with merely his oppressive might. He was truly stunned by this.

“C-Crap, quickly, we need to escape,” Seeing that old man, Liu Yue revealed a frightened expression. He turned around and tried to leave.

As someone from this place, he knew how powerful that old man was. He was the master of the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant, the City Master of this city. He was the strongest person in this city.

Since Chu Feng had actually injured his subordinate, it was obvious that Chu Feng would end up suffering.

Even though the aura Chu Feng emitted was extremely powerful and had deeply astonished Liu Yue, his cultivation was too low. Thus, he was simply unable to tell that Chu Feng's aura was that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

Thus, the way he saw it, regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be, he would not be more powerful than that City Master. If they did not escape now, the only thing that awaited them would be death.

“Insolent fools, you are truly filled with overwhelming audacity!”

However, right at this moment, that City Master suddenly turned around and angrily berated the guards lying on the floor.

Not only did he berate them, he even raised his hand and gave the guards resounding slaps to their faces, leaving them with bloodied noses and swollen faces.

“Quickly, apologize to the three guests immediately!” The City Master shouted.

“Dear guests, please spare us, please spare us,” The guards did not dare to hesitate. They immediately crawled back up while grunting with pain, and then kneeled before Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Liu Yue. With snot and tears, they began to kowtow and beg for forgiveness.

It was a truly wretched and miserable scene.

However, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang completely ignored the begging from the guards. It was as if they did not even see them.

The two of them knew very well that dogs like them who would threaten others based on their master's power were unworthy of their sympathy.

“You bunch of dogs who look at others with contempt with your dog eyes, continue to kneel!” Seeing that, the City Master shouted again. Then, he put a smile on his face, turned to Chu Feng and said, “Dear guests, please come in. The inconsiderate reception of the guards was my fault. Today, the meal's on me. Please, eat as you wish.”

At this moment, Liu Yue was completely baffled. He thought to himself, ‘What the hell is this? The fierce and vicious City Master had always been someone who shields his people. If anyone dares to attack his subordinates, he'd definitely skin them alive.’

‘What Chu Feng did just now most definitely triggered the anger of the City Master. Yet, why did what I anticipate not happen? Instead, everything's turned around. The City Master is actually greeting them with a smile on his face?’

“That's more like it,” Chu Feng had an expressionless face as he walked into the restaurant.

Although Liu Yue was confused by why the City Master was acting in such a servile manner, Chu Feng knew why very well.

That City Master had noticed the disturbance outside the moment the guards had blocked their path.

Merely, he had not concerned himself with it. From this, it could be seen that the City Master was also looking down on Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Liu Yue, and was deliberately allowing his guards to drive them away.

As for his current behavior, it was naturally because he was scared by Chu Feng's strength.

Although that City Master was also a Martial Emperor, he should know very well how meek his status was before Chu Feng, a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. He knew very well whether or not he could afford to offend Chu Feng.

Then, that City Master personally led the way for Chu Feng and the others. He brought them to the most luxurious room in the restaurant.

“Dear guests, what might you all wish to eat? All of the food that we serve here is made with the best quality materials. We then have Royal-cloak World Spiritists create medicinal pellets that our top-notch cooks use to make the food.”

“Not only is our food delicious, it also smells extremely good, and can strengthen one’s body and replenish one’s martial power,” the City Master introduced his restaurant.

“Y-Y-You g-got dumplings?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Naturally. Dumplings are a specialty of our restaurant. We have all kinds of dumplings,” The City Master said proudly.

“G-Good, b-bring me a s-shit load,” Wang Qiang said.

“This...” Hearing those words, the City master started to frown. He said, “I’m sorry, while we have all kinds of dumplings, we do not possess excrement dumplings.”

“Puu...” Hearing those words, the tea that Chu Feng just drank was sprayed out with his laughter. Furthermore, by pure coincidence and unlucky seating, his tea was sprayed directly onto Wang Qiang’s face.

The way Wang Qiang said large amount sounds exactly the same as saying number two.

Chapter 2153 – Wang Qiang’s Charm

“Bang~~~”

Wang Qiang slammed his palm onto the table. Then, he used his sleeve to wipe away the tea Chu Feng had sprayed all over his face.

With an angry expression on his face, he looked to the City Master, “W-W-What is w-with your comprehension a-ability?”

“I’m t-telling you to bring me a l-lot of dumplings, not to b-bring me dumplings with e-excrement filling.”

“Did you t-take me a-as a c-crazy man? W-W-Why would I e-eat excrement dumplings?”

“Eh... it is this old man’s fault. I will go and prepare the dumplings right away. Dear guests, please wait.”

At this moment, that City Master’s face turned green with fear. Evidently, not only was he afraid of Chu Feng, he was also very afraid of Wang Qiang. Thus, even though he had yet to ask what Chu Feng and Liu Yue wanted to eat, he immediately left to escape from Wang Qiang’s anger.

As for Chu Feng, he was laughing nonstop. He felt that Wang Qiang was truly amusing. Traveling with him truly made the journey a lot more fun.

Then, a server arrived so Chu Feng and Liu Yue could order their food. Chu Feng was completely unrestrained, and practically ordered all of the delicious specialties this place offered.

However, even with this being the case, the City Master still added many additional delicious delicacies for Chu Feng and the others.

When the delicacies began to arrive, filling the table and piling up like a small mountain, even Chu Feng nearly drooled. It must be said that the aroma of the food was truly good.

As for Wang Qiang, he began to eat large mouthfuls of food. That fellow did not even use chopsticks when eating. He was actually grabbing the food with his hands. Even when drinking his soup, he would use his hand. It was truly a disgusting sight.

That being said, Liu Yue, who had been very offended and carefree earlier, appeared to be very awkward and silent right now.

“Uncle Liu, don’t be afraid. This City Master will not dare to do anything to you today. Likewise, he will not dare to do anything to you in the future,” Chu Feng managed to guess what Liu Yue was worried about.

“Chu Feng, Wang Qiang, may I know exactly what sort of origin the two of you possess?” Liu Yue asked. As he spoke those words, he took a deliberate glance at Wang Qiang.

Evidently, he was not only afraid of the City Master, he was also scared of Wang Qiang. After all, he had been very rude toward Wang Qiang earlier, and even declared him to be ugly and a stutterer. It could be said that he had insulted Wang Qiang’s shortcomings without any restraint.

It was as Wang Qiang said, what Liu Yue had done was make discriminative personal attacks.

Originally, Liu Yue had not cared about insulting Wang Qiang. However, after he realized that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were not simple, he began to regret his decisions. In the end, he was worried that Wang Qiang would take revenge on him.

“Our origins are not important. What is important is that we are your friends.”

“Wang Qiang, say, am I correct?” Chu Feng was able to see through what Liu Yue was worried about. Thus, he used his hand to push Wang Qiang.

“R-Right, U-Uncle Liu, it’s a-all thanks to you. If n-not for you, we w-w-would not have been able to find t-this much good f-food,” Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile. As a carefree individual, Wang Qiang did not hold a grudge against Liu Yue.

Seeing Wang Qiang’s reaction, Liu Yue smiled in a relieved manner.

“Come, Uncle Liu, let me offer you a toast of wine,” Chu Feng raised his wine cup.

“I-I-I’ll offer you a t-toast too,” Wang Qiang also joined in.

“Good,” In response, Liu Yue raised his own wine cup too.

After drinking the wine and several more cups of wine, Liu Yue let go of all the worries in his heart and became more and more merry.

As the saying goes, after wine, one’s true nature will show. Liu Yue was a typical such individual. After several cups of wine, he became very talkative and started to say all sorts of things.

“Chu Feng, Wang Qiang.”

“Listen to me. I can tell that the two of you are extraordinary people. It is no wonder that you are so bold.”

“However, I must still advise the two of you. This place is not a safe place at all.”

“Not mentioning Luyang’s Pavilion, a demonic woman also appeared here in recent days. That demonic woman is extremely malicious. She goes around to seduce men all over the place. Then, she’ll eat the flesh of those men. The two of you must be careful.”

“Especially you, Chu Feng. Look at how soft-skinned and tender-fleshed you are. It’s not safe at all out there.”

“By comparison, Wang Qiang would be much safer,” Liu Yue said drunkenly.

“The hell! Uncle Liu, what are you i-i-implying with that? A-Are you s-saying that I am n-not as handsome as C-Chu Feng?" Hearing those words, Wang Qiang was displeased.

"I'm not trying to insult you. Merely, you are truly not as handsome as Chu Feng," At this moment, Liu Yue was extremely bold. He spoke without any worry.

"A-Aiya, if y-you say it like that, I'll be u-u-un-unhappy. I don't know about Chu Feng, but i-in terms of being charming, I, W-Wang Qiang am definitely the first under heaven."

"Here, l-let me e-explain it like this. I-In this world, t-there is no woman t-that I, Wang Qiang, c-cannot handle. Not t-to mention a demonic w-woman, even if it is a woman that is as b-beautiful as a flower, she w-would not be able to e-escape should I, Wang Qiang, w-want to c-c-capture her," Wang Qiang smirked while patting his chest.

"Puu..." Hearing those words, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself and burst into laughter.

Although the time Chu Feng and Wang Qiang knew one another could not be considered an extremely long time, it was not short either.

Thus, Chu Feng knew whether or not that fellow was popular with women.

At the very least, Chu Feng knew that Wang Qiang had tried to hit on Xian Miaomiao, Tantai Xue, Bai Ruchen, Sima Ying and even the Misty Peak's Chun Wu, Xia Yu, Qiu Zhu and Dong Xue, all those beautiful women.

Merely, not a single one of them felt a favorable impression toward Wang Qiang.

Even when conversing with Wang Qiang, they only did so because they were unwilling to offend Wang Qiang, as he possessed a high level of cultivation and was Chu Feng's friend.

In fact, for Xian Miaomiao, she would rain ruthless insults at Wang Qiang should he dare to approach her. She would refuse to even give him the chance to approach her.

Thus, Chu Feng knew very well that Wang Qiang was boasting.

He simply possessed no fate with women.

“C-C-Chu Feng, y-you’re actually laughing at me? I h-have considered you a b-b-brother in vain,” Seeing Chu Feng bursting into laughter, Wang Qiang was displeased.

“Wang Qiang, I am truly not laughing at you. I am just unable to contain myself,” Chu Feng said while laughing.

Wang Qiang sighed. “It would a-appear that you w-will not trust me u-unless I s-show you some proof.”

“S-Since that is the c-case, I, W-Wang Qiang, will s-show great k-kindness and b-broaden y-your horizons t-today,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he took out a box from his Cosmos Sack.

Although Wang Qiang’s outfit was extremely tattered, that box was extremely exquisite. After Wang Qiang opened that box, a red jade bottle appeared within it.

“H-Here, the two of you, l-look carefully. M-Make that e-extremely carefully. T-This is my t-treasure.”

“W-With this, r-regardless of how p-proud and aloof a w-woman might be, even if she is fond of w-women and p-possesses no interest for m-men, s-she will still f-fall for m-me completely once I u-use this treasure. F-For the rest of h-her life, s-she will re-refuse to leave me,” Wang Qiang held the bottle and said proudly.

“Puu~~~” Seeing that jade bottle, Chu Feng burst into more laughter. Even Liu Yue burst into laughter.

The reason for that was because the red jade bottle had a slip of paper pasted onto it. On that paper were several words. The handwriting of the words was extremely ugly. However, that was not the important aspect. Most importantly was the content of the words:

‘Whoever this hits shall fall in love with me!!!’

Chapter 2154 – That Is The Demonic Woman

“F-Fuck! Chu Feng, U-Uncle Liu, the two o-of you a-are truly r-refusing to believe me here.”

“F-Forget about it. If you d-don’t believe me, so b-be it. T-Those with s-strength do not necessarily need to p-prove themselves.”

“I, Wang Qiang, am a l-low-key i-individual,” Wang Qiang placed away the bottle.

Chu Feng and Liu Yue seemed to have anticipated this action from Wang Qiang. Thus, the two of them did not bother to expose him. However, they were still unable to contain their laughter.

“No, i-it would s-seem that I must prove m-myself.”

“E-Else, the t-two of you w-will really t-t-take me, Wang Qiang, as s-someone who boasts.”

As Wang Qiang spoke, he moved to the window and looked outside. Evidently, he was planning to find a beauty to test out his charm so that he could prove himself to Chu Feng and Liu Yue.

Originally, Chu Feng did not take Wang Qiang’s action to heart at all. Based on his understanding of Wang Qiang, he determined that Wang Qiang was putting on an act, that he would not do anything.

Even if he did do something, it would only be a farce. In fact, he might end up concluding with a tragedy.

“Wow, t-that beauty, s-she’s beautiful enough,” However, not only was Wang Qiang becoming more and more serious, he even started to shout loudly.

“Where? Let me see,” Seeing that, Uncle Liu also stood up and rushed to the window.

“Aiyah, when did such a beauty appear in our city? This is the first time I’ve seen someone like her,” To Chu Feng’s surprise, even Uncle Liu reacted with excitement.

With both of them acting like this, Chu Feng became curious too. Thus, Chu Feng walked to the window to look. He discovered that a large group of people were standing around the city gate.

The great majority of them were men. Densely packed, they formed a small sea of people. In the center of that sea of people was a woman.

That woman was truly beautiful, devastating beautiful, in fact. Her enchanting figure and curvy outline could be said to be perfect. Her fair and exquisite skin seemed to be extremely soft.

A rarity. She was truly a rarity. Especially when she wore that red dress, she appeared extremely hot and sexy.

“Haha, the h-heavens a-are helping me. T-That girl is m-mine,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he planned to leap out through the window.

“Wait,” However, Chu Feng grabbed Wang Qiang. He said, “Something’s fishy about that woman. With how beautiful she is, why would she be standing there and exposing her beauty to that many men? Someone like her should be extremely conceited. Ordinary men should not be able to enter her discerning eyes.”

“Aiya, y-you’re o-overthinking it. I-Isn’t a w-woman’s beauty f-for men to s-see? D-Don’t tell me that t-their beauty is for t-themselves to see,” Wang Qiang brushed it off.

“That’s only one of the reasons. Most importantly, I am unable to see through her cultivation,” Chu Feng said solemnly.

“Doesn’t matter. Just w-watch my p-performance.”

“N-No m-matter how powerful she might be, t-today, I, y-your brother am going t-to conquer her,” Wang Qiang leapt out through the window of the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant and landed in the sea of people.

Then, Wang Qiang passed through the crowd and arrived at the center of the crowd. Suddenly, he shouted, “Ahhh!!!”

Not only did his shout successfully capture the attention of that woman, he also captured the attention of everyone around him.

Although that red-dressed woman was extremely beautiful, Wang Qiang's outfit was truly strange. Thus, his appearance caused the crowd's gaze to shine with shock.

Right at that moment, Wang Qiang started to look at that red-dressed woman with an adoring gaze. Slowly, he began to walk toward that woman one step at a time.

Not only was he walking toward her, he was even reciting poetry as he walked toward her.

“Ahh!!!”

“M-M-My d-dear beauty.”

“I am w-willing to b-be t-turned into a s-stone bridge and endure five h-hundred years of wind, sun and r-rain. I w-wish for n-nothing m-more than you w-walking over me so t-that I might s-see the color of y-your p-panties.”

Wang Qiang's words stunned not only the surrounding crowd, but even Chu Feng and Liu Yue who were still far away.

“The hell!? A hoodlum!”

“Scoundrel! Animal! Simply a pervert!”

Immediately, the crowd burst into an uproar. The men present were all enraged. They rolled up their sleeves and planned to attack Wang Qiang.

They had the appearance of masses beating up a hoodlum to help out a beauty.

However, that red-dressed woman did not reveal the slightest trace of anger. Instead, her eyes narrowed into two beautiful crescents as she asked Wang Qiang, “To dare speak to me like that, do you not fear death?”

“To d-die by a t-t-tree peony, e-even in d-death, I w-will f-feel accomplished,” Wang Qiang said proudly.

“What about you all?” The red-dressed woman looked to the other surrounding men.

“I’m also willing to die for you.”

In response, the men all began to shout their willingness to die. They even began to swear upon the heavens to express their determination.

“Very well. Since you all are willing to die for me, then go ahead and die for me,” Suddenly, that red-dressed woman’s eyes shone with crimson light, revealing a frightening killing intent.

At the same time, her beautiful body started to change.

Her alluring figure immediately grew fatter by more than tenfold. Her fair skin turned fiery red.

Her black hair turned red as well, and started to flutter about everywhere in a demonic manner.

Her delicate, ruby-lipped mouth became enormous. As she opened that mouth, sharp teeth were revealed.

“This is bad,” Seeing this scene, Chu Feng’s expression immediately changed. His body shifted, and he began to fly toward where Wang Qiang was standing.

“Roar~~~”

However, right at the moment Chu Feng moved, a beast-like roar sounded. Then, a violent wind began to sweep around in all directions.

Faced with that violent wind, Chu Feng was actually unable to approach it. In fact, he was pushed back repeatedly.

After the violent wind passed, Chu Feng was shocked to discover that many of the buildings in the city had collapsed. There were countless casualties.

The men that had surrounded that red-dressed woman earlier had all disappeared.

This included Wang Qiang.

“Damn it!”

Chu Feng flew into the sky and used his Heaven’s Eyes and spirit power to survey the surroundings. However, he was simply unable to find that red-dressed woman nor Wang Qiang.

The woman had disappeared. Wang Qiang had also disappeared, along with all of the men that had surrounded that woman.

In that moment of chaos, Chu Feng suddenly recalled what Liu Yue had mentioned earlier. He said that a demonic woman that specialized in capturing men had appeared in this area in recent days.

Thus, Chu Feng returned to the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant and asked Liu Yue, “Uncle Liu, was that woman earlier the legendary demonic woman?”

“I, I, I don’t know either. Merely, that seemed to resemble it,” At this moment, Liu Yue was deeply frightened. After all, the might emitted by the red-dressed woman earlier had been truly frightening.

“Dear guest, that was indeed that demonic woman,” Right at this moment, the Hundred Levels Red Sparrows Restaurant’s owner, this city’s City Master, appeared.

“You know about that demonic woman?” Chu Feng asked.

“Dear guest, this old man does know a bit about that demonic woman,” The City Master said.

“Tell me about it,” Chu Feng said.

“No one knows whether that demonic woman is a demon or a ghost. All we know is that woman originates from the Darknight Ghost Forest,” The City Master said.

Chapter 2155 – Move Aside

“The Darknight Ghost Forest is a very frightening place. It possesses many spirit formations from the Ancient Era. It is simply impossible for ordinary people to set foot in there. Thus, no one dares to enter that place. It is a forbidden area.”

“In truth, other than that demonic woman, practically no living creature could survive in the Darknight Ghost Forest.”

“The demonic women have always been feeding on young men. It seems to be capable of increasing their cultivation. However, no one knows exactly why they need to do that.”

“Wait a moment, you said they? There’s more than a single demonic woman?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. However, the number of demonic women is not a lot either. One would generally appear once every several hundred years,” The City Master said.

“One every several hundred years? Could they be the same one?” Chu Feng asked.

“That shouldn’t be possible. The reason for that is because all of the demonic women that appeared before were killed. Thus, it’s impossible for them to be the same demonic woman.”

“Furthermore, even though the demonic women that appeared before were strong, they were still at a level that we could handle. However, the demonic woman that has appeared this time around is exceptionally powerful.”

“Dear guest, I am able to tell that you are a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. However, you should have also sensed that demonic woman’s strength earlier. She is most definitely not an ordinary Half Martial Ancestor,” The City Master said.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng nodded. Earlier, as he was worried for Wang Qiang’s safety and only wanted to save Wang Qiang, he had forgotten about that.

With his strength, if he were to truly fight against that demonic woman, he might really be no match for that demonic woman.

After all, that demonic woman was able to capture that many people in front of Chu Feng without him being able to do anything. Instead, Chu Feng was shook back several meters by a single scream from that demonic woman.

From that, it could be seen that that demonic woman was extremely powerful. Her strength greatly surpassed Chu Feng's.

At this moment, Chu Feng started to frown. He couldn't just ignore Wang Qiang. After all, Wang Qiang was his friend.

However, with how powerful that demonic woman was, Chu Feng would be no match for her. As such, how was he to save Wang Qiang?

"Dear guest, although the demonic woman that appeared this time around is much more powerful than the ones that appeared before, the demonic women that appeared before were all very strong too."

"Actually, there is a method to eliminate demonic women," That City Master said.

"What is the method?" Chu Feng asked.

"Across from the Darknight Ghost Forest is a mountain called Radiance Immortal Mountain."

"Inside Radiance Immortal Mountain is a spring. That spring is called the Demon Subduing Spring."

"The water of the Demon Subduing Spring is capable of restraining the demonic women."

"As long as you sprinkle the spring water from the Demon Subduing Spring onto the demonic woman, the demonic woman's strength will decrease enormously," The City Master said.

“Where is that Radiance Immortal Mountain?” Chu Feng asked.

“Dear guest, please wait a moment,” As the City Master spoke, he took out a map. He marked three locations on the map with circles. Then, he drew a line and handed the map to Chu Feng. He said, “Dear guest, please have a look. This is where our Red Sparrows City is located. As for this here, it is the Radiance Immortal Mountain. Opposite from the Radiance Immortal Mountain is the Darknight Ghost Forest.”

“The demonic woman is in the Darknight Ghost Forest. That place has always been their lair. No one knows how the demonic women are able to survive in the Darknight Ghost Forest.”

“As for the Demon Subduing Spring, it is located in the Radiance Immortal Mountain. Merely, its exact location is very hard to tell.”

“The reason for that is because the location of the spring changes constantly. Thus, no one knows its exact location.”

“Furthermore, dear guest, if you plan to go there, you must be careful. Although the Radiance Immortal Mountain might sound very upright, there are many ferocious beasts living in it. Many of the ferocious beasts even possessed Half Martial Ancestor-level cultivations. It is a truly dangerous location,” The City Master said.

Chu Feng put away the map, and then asked, “Why are you helping me?” Chu Feng had already managed to see through the nature of the Red Sparrows City’s City Master and knew that he did not seem to be an individual who would help others out of kindness of his heart.

“That demonic woman is extremely cunning. Instead of committing her crimes in the vicinity of the Darknight Ghost Forest, she instead came here to commit her crimes.”

“It’s actually very simple. She is afraid of the powers in the vicinity of the Darknight Ghost Forest and the Radiance Immortal Mountain. That is why she came to bully us, who are weak.”

“Dear guest possesses the cultivation of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor at such a young age. It means that Dear Guest most definitely possesses an extraordinary origin. If you are willing to help take care of that demonic woman, it would be a blessing for us.”

“As for me, I have not done much. I have only provided dear guests a bit of useful information,” The City Master explained himself in a very deferential, honest and sincere manner.

Chu Feng smiled indifferently. He stared at the City Master with his sharp gaze and said, “I hope that what you have said is the truth.”

“Uncle Liu, let’s go,” After Chu Feng said those words, he turned around and a light wind swept through the room. Then, Chu Feng and Uncle Liu disappeared.

Right after Chu Feng left, that City Master’s complexion turned deathly pale. Pea-sized beads of sweat began to drip down his face like rain.

Then, his body grew weak and, with a ‘putt,’ he fell to his butt. He began to involuntarily and violently tremble.

“Lord City Master, what’s wrong?” Seeing that, a large amount of guards rushed in.

“I’m fine,” The City Master waved his hand. Then, he said, “Today, you all have nearly brought forth a great calamity for me. You bunch of bastards with no eyes. We are not people that can afford to offend just anyone.”

“Lord City Master, exactly who is that man?” Some curious guards asked.

“I also do not know exactly who he is. However, he is most definitely not someone that we can afford to offend. Not to mention the power that might be standing behind him, merely he himself with his cultivation of rank one Half Martial Ancestor would be able to completely destroy our Red Sparrows City with a wave of his sleeve,” The City Master said.

Hearing those words, the guards all revealed expressions of fear. One by one, they began to feel lingering fear.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing?”

After moving several miles away from the Red Sparrows City, Liu Yue held a Cosmos Sack and looked to Chu Feng with an excited yet embarrassed expression.

That Cosmos Sack was given to him by Chu Feng. Contained within it were weapons, cultivation resources and a large amount of treasures.

To Liu Yue, the things in that Cosmos Sack might be things that he would not be able to gather in his entire lifetime.

At this moment, Liu Yue finally realized why even the Red Sparrows City’s City Master was afraid of Chu Feng. Chu Feng was no ordinary person.

Merely, Liu Yue felt embarrassed to accept such an enormous gift. After all, he and Chu Feng were neither related nor friends. Furthermore, he had not provided any enormous assistance to Chu Feng. They were merely strangers that only recently became acquainted with one another.

“Uncle Liu, my identity might end up bringing you disaster in the future. Take that Cosmos Sack and move far away from Red Sparrows City, far away from this place,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he turned around and left without waiting for Liu Yue’s response.

While Chu Feng and Liu Yue had only recently been acquainted, he did not wish for this short while of knowing him to bring harm upon Liu Yue.

Chu Feng knew that although he was still a nobody right now, he would one day have enemies.

Perhaps, at that time, wanted posters for Chu Feng would be spread all over. If Liu Yue were to continue to stay in Red Sparrows City, someone like the Red Sparrows City's City Master might end up selling Liu Yue out for the sake of personal benefits.

Chu Feng journeyed according to the map and passed over mountain ranges. He traveled without sleeping or eating.

He did so because he wanted to arrive at Radiance Immortal Mountain quickly. He wanted to rescue Wang Qiang; he did not want Wang Qiang to be eaten by that demonic woman.

Suddenly, Chu Feng stopped. He looked to the vast and limitless mountain range before him. A surprised expression appeared in Chu Feng's gaze.

That mountain range could be said to be the most enormous mountain range Chu Feng had encountered so far. Even the giant continuous mountain ranges in the Holy Land of Martialism were not as vast as the one before him.

As for this mountain range, it was that Radiance Immortal Mountain.

"Move aside!" Suddenly, a shout sounded from behind Chu Feng.

Chapter 2156 – Bizarre Ferocious Beast

Chu Feng turned around and discovered that there were several hundred silhouettes on the distant horizon. They were speeding toward him through the air.

Those people were all riding a sort of horse-like animal. However, those were not horses, nor were they monstrous beasts. Instead, they should be a sort of special mount. The mounts possessed extremely fast speed; they were actually able to reach the speed of Half Martial Ancestors.

Thus, although they were very far away when they shouted at Chu Feng, they were already less than ten thousand meters away from Chu Feng after a mere moment passed.

“Hey, are you deaf or what? I said move out the way, can you not hear me?!” The woman leading the group shouted at Chu Feng angrily.

That woman appeared to be only eighteen or nineteen years old. Her appearance could be said to be very young. That said, she was quite a beauty. However, her eyes were filled with hostility.

Chu Feng completely disregarded that woman. The reason for that was because she was only a rank one Martial Emperor. Although that cultivation was very strong for someone her age, she could not amount to anything before Chu Feng.

However, although that woman was weak, the people following behind her were all very strong.

The great majority of them were peak Martial Emperors. However, there were also Half Martial Ancestors among them. The strongest in the group were two white-haired old men.

Those two old men possessed the exact same appearance. They should be twin brothers. Although they were wearing ordinary clothing, they were unable to contain their extraordinary air. The two of them were rank six Half Martial Ancestors.

“Is this place your home? Why must I move aside just because you demand it?”

“Furthermore, with how vast the sky is, why don’t you all move around me? Why must you move through where I am standing? Are you all fine in the brain?” Chu Feng ended up refuting them.

Although there were two rank six Half Martial Ancestors among his opponents, and their overall strength was very strong, likely originating from an extraordinary power, Chu Feng was not scared of them.

Although Chu Feng was not fond of stirring up troubles, he was not one to cower from troubles. Chu Feng would not tolerate someone picking a fight with him.

“Aiyo, you have truly grown tired of living. Do you know who I am?”

“Kneel immediately. Else, I’ll break your legs,” That woman raised her whip and lashed at Chu Feng.

“Paa~~~”

As there was a distance of ten thousand meters between her and Chu Feng, her whip would naturally not reach Chu Feng. However, after martial power was instilled into the whip, it turned into a ten thousand meter-long golden whip. Like a giant dragon, the whip lashed toward Chu Feng.

However, how could such an attack possibly injure Chu Feng?

“Humph.”

Chu Feng stood where he was without moving at all. He merely snorted coldly.

“Huu~~~”

Immediately, the oppressive might of a Half Martial Ancestor swept forth. The ten thousand meter-long giant golden whip was instantly shattered by Chu Feng's oppressive might.

“Rank one Half Martial Ancestor?”

Sensing Chu Feng's aura, the expressions of many of the people in the group changed. Even the two white-haired old man who stood aloof and remote from the group turned their gazes toward Chu Feng. A trace of surprise was present in their eyes.

Evidently, they had not expected someone of Chu Feng's age to have that sort of cultivation.

“You dare go against my younger sister? I shall cripple you!”
However, a robust black haired man shouted angrily.

Once he said those words, other than the two white-haired old men with cultivations of rank six Half Martial Ancestor, the rest of the Half Martial Ancestors all unleashed their dense killing intent. They were planning to attack Chu Feng.

They were planning to kill Chu Feng.

“Roar~~~”

However, right at this moment, an ear-piercing roar sounded from the depths of the Radiance Immortal Mountain.

Once that roar was heard, the mountain range started to tremble, and thousands of birds soared into the sky. It was a magnificent sight.

Seeing this scene, the robust man immediately shouted, “It's the Ghostfiend Beast.”

“Heeah!!!”

He kicked the saddle of his mount fiercely, causing it to rapidly run toward the direction of that roar.

“Heeah!!!”

.....

Following that, the others also kicked their saddles and rushed into the Radiance Immortal Mountain.

In the blink of an eye, the furious crowd had all rushed into the vast Radiance Immortal Mountain.

“Humph,” Seeing this scene, Chu Feng snorted coldly.

The way Chu Feng saw it, those people were lucky to leave.

If they were to truly fight earlier, Chu Feng would likely massacre all of them.

As they had already aimed their killing intent at Chu Feng, if Chu Feng didn’t kill them, he would instead be killed by them.

Furthermore, Chu Feng would have had to eliminate all of them. Else, if they were to escape to their power, they would cause him no end of trouble.

However, they left, and Chu Feng was not someone who planned to pursue them relentlessly. After all, he was not someone who refused to spare others.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng’s body shifted. He also entered the vast Radiance Immortal Mountain.

Wang Qiang was captured by that demonic woman, and might end up being eaten by her at any moment. As such, Chu Feng was in a battle against time. He had to find that Demon Subduing Spring quickly.

After entering the Radiance Immortal Mountain, Chu Feng spread out his spirit power and activated his Heaven’s Eyes to survey his surroundings. He wanted to quickly find that Demon Subduing Spring.

However, the Radiance Immortal Mountain was too enormous. It was larger than even the ten Nine Provinces Continents.

With how enormous that mountain range was, it would be very difficult for even Chu Feng to search for something.

In the blink of an eye, three days and night passed. However, Chu Feng... had yet to discover anything.

“Mn?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s eyebrows moved.

He discovered a ferocious beast.

This Radiance Immortal Mountain was just like the Red Sparrows City’s City Master had described it. There were a lot of ferocious beasts in here. Over the course of the past three days and nights, Chu Feng had encountered a lot of ferocious beasts.

Generally, Chu Feng would not waste time on them. Thus, he would conceal his aura and dodge the ferocious beasts.

Merely, this ferocious beast was somewhat different.

Although it was not very large, being only around ten meters tall, it had a very fierce appearance.

Its body was completely pitch-black, and looked like a metal frame. Just by looking at it, one could tell that it was very strong.

Especially that face, it was like that of a ghost; it was extremely frightening.

Furthermore, this ferocious beast also possessed a very strong cultivation. It was emitting the aura of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

At this moment, that powerful and strange ferocious beast was currently eating. Upon careful inspection, it was actually eating a person.

It was a ferocious beast that fed on people.

Ferocious beasts were very commonly seen. It was also very common for ferocious beasts to eat people, let alone someone who was already dead.

However, Chu Feng was still very surprised. The reason why Chu

Feng was so surprised was because he discovered that the flesh of that ferocious beast was cultivation resource.

Furthermore, the Natural Energy contained in its flesh was extremely dense. If Chu Feng were to eat its flesh, he would be able to gain a great amount of Natural Energy.

Even though Chu Feng already possessed enough Natural Energy to break through to rank three Half Martial Ancestor in his dantian, Chu Feng could not be too relaxed because of that.

Instead, he had to continue to accumulate Natural Energy. He could not let any opportunity to accumulate Natural Energy slip by him. Thus, he would naturally not let this ferocious beast get away.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng’s body shot forth rapidly like an arrow leaving a bow. He was rushing toward that ferocious beast.

“Woosh~~~”

To Chu Feng’s surprise, after that ferocious beast sensed Chu Feng approaching it, it did not charge to attack Chu Feng like the other ferocious beasts.

Instead, that ferocious beast actually turned around and rapidly fled. Furthermore, its speed was extremely fast.

It had actually managed to throw Chu Feng far behind.

Sound of telling one’s horse to run.

Chapter 2157 – To Save Or Not

“Zzzzz~”

Upon seeing that, lightning flashed in Chu Feng’s eyes as his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared on his body.

With the assistance of the power of the Divine Lightnings, Chu Feng’s cultivation increased by two levels in succession. From rank one Half Martial Ancestor, he became a rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

After his cultivation increased, Chu Feng’s speed also increased enormously. His speed was many times faster than lightning itself.

However, even with that being the case, he was unable to close the distance between him and that strange ferocious beast.

The speed of that ferocious beast was simply astonishing. It had already surpassed the speed that it should possess based on its cultivation.

“Roar~”

Suddenly, a roar sounded from the forest, alarming the vicious ferocious beasts inside the forest and causing them to flee in all directions.

At this moment, a majestic, enormous azure dragon appeared underneath Chu Feng with overwhelming imposingness.

That was his Supreme Secret Skill, the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique.

After Chu Feng unleashed the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique, his speed immediately increased by many times.

At this moment, Chu Feng stood on the head of the azure dragon. The azure dragon turned into a ray of azure light that shuttled rapidly through the forest. It was so astonishingly fast that it could raise one’s hackles.

Under this sort of situation, the distance between Chu Feng and that ferocious beast finally began to shorten. After a short moment, the distance between them was less than a thousand meters.

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

.....

However, to Chu Feng’s surprise, right after he caught up to that ferocious beast, the ferocious beast suddenly turned around, opened its fierce mouth and shot forth many black bodies of light that appeared like black meteors at Chu Feng.

Those bodies of light all possessed very strong Ancestral-level martial power. After they approached Chu Feng, they exploded on the spot, scattering their power everywhere. Their might was extremely shocking.

“Rank four Half Martial Ancestor with a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation?”

Seeing that, Chu Feng started to frown. He finally understood why that ferocious beast was so fast that he could only catch up to it after unleashing all of his strength.

It turned out that this ferocious beast’s battle power surpassed that of ordinary Half Martial Ancestors by two levels of cultivation.

One must know that when compared to ordinary Martial Emperors and Half Martial Ancestors, Chu Feng possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

As for that ferocious beast, it possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation, one level less than Chu Feng. This meant that this ferocious beast was a special and powerful foe. It was no wonder that it stood out.

At this moment, Chu Feng started to rejoice. He rejoiced at the fact that ferocious beast was only a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. If it was a rank five Half Martial Ancestor, it would be very difficult for Chu Feng should he encounter it.

After all, this ferocious beast possessed the cultivation of rank four Half Martial Ancestor, and a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation. When added together, it possessed the same battle power as an ordinary rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

That level of battle power was equally matched to Chu Feng when he went all-out. If that ferocious beast possessed a higher level of cultivation, Chu Feng would be no match for it.

“Regardless of what sort of origin you might have, your life will be mine today.”

As Chu Feng spoke, the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader appeared in his hand. Then, while standing on the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique, he brandished the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader and began to attack the ferocious beast head on.

“Roar~~~”

However, that ferocious beast was not to be outdone. Seeing that it could not escape Chu Feng, it brandished its two sharp claws and pounced at Chu Feng. It was planning to meet Chu Feng with force.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

In an instant, rumbles and energy ripples sprang up everywhere. The ferocious power caused enormous waves that wreaked havoc through their surroundings.

The battle between the two lasted for an entire hour. The surface area of the forest that was destroyed by their battle was simply incapable of being estimated. The only thing visible were surging black smoke and enormous toppled trees.

However, in the end, that ferocious beast was still defeated by Chu Feng. One thing worthy of mentioning was that Chu Feng did not unleash his Incomplete Ancestral Armament to defeat this ferocious beast with battle power on par to him. He had used merely the Furious Coiling Dragon Beheader to defeat it.

However, without a doubt, for this ferocious beast to force Chu Feng to this state meant that it was very extraordinary.

That was definitely a very powerful ferocious beast.

“How strange. It would be one thing for a ferocious beast to not attack others of its own initiative, but its flesh is actually a cultivation resource too.”

“Oh, how great it would be if I could encounter a couple more,” Chu Feng mumbled.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at this moment, rumbling sounded from the distance. Chu Feng began to feel trembling from his feet nonstop.

In response, Chu Feng turned around and used his Heaven’s Eyes to survey what was happening in that direction.

Under the Heaven’s Eyes, everything became clear. In a forest like this, there was practically nothing capable of blocking Chu Feng’s line of sight. Even though the distance was very far, Chu Feng was still able to clearly see what was happening.

Upon seeing what was happening with his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng’s gaze changed. He was surprised to discover that a group of ferocious beasts was pursuing several tens of martial cultivators.

At this moment, the ferocious beasts held absolute superiority. They were killing those fleeing cultivators.

While being pursued as they ran away, cultivators were dying nonstop. As for those people, they were the same ones that had gotten into a quarrel with Chu Feng outside the Radiance Immortal Mountain.

That woman who had held the whip with the intention to lash Chu Feng earlier was also among them.

The rest of the cultivators were all giving their lives to protect that woman. Merely, the difference between their strengths was too wide. If this were to continue, all of them would be eliminated by the ferocious beasts.

“Serves you right,” Chu Feng mocked.

From the actions of those people earlier, he was already able to tell that they were scum who would bully others using their superior status and strength.

The continued existence of these people might cause countless innocent people to suffer by their evil hands. The way Chu Feng saw it, it was better that they die.

Although Chu Feng did not act to save them, he continued to survey them with his Heaven’s Eyes. Chu Feng wished to see exactly how they would meet their deaths.

“Mn?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s gaze changed slightly.

He was surprised to discover that the woman was crying. Tears were rolling down her eyes and fluttering everywhere as she ran for her life. Chu Feng seemed to be able to hear the sound of her weeping. That sort of sensation caused Chu Feng to feel soft-hearted.

Had it been before, for people like her, Chu Feng would not be touched even should they start crying.

However, at this moment, when Chu Feng saw the tears filling that woman’s face, he began to enter a mental struggle as to whether he should save them or not.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng could read the woman's lips as she cried. Chu Feng was able to tell that she was not crying for help, but instead urging.

That crafty and unruly woman was actually urging the people that had pledged their lives to protect her to escape without her.

This thawed Chu Feng's ice-cold heart.

Chu Feng felt that a woman like her should be extremely selfish, that she would not be someone who cared about the lives or deaths of others. However, it would appear that that woman was not like that.

"Sure enough, I am still unable to ignore those that need help."

Suddenly, Chu Feng stood up. He put the corpse of the ferocious beast away in his Cosmos Sack. Then, he turned into a ray of light and rapidly charged toward the direction of that group of people.

"Everyone, quickly, save yourselves! Do not concern yourselves with me! Quickly, run away!"

Sure enough, that woman was shouting for the others to escape. It was as Chu Feng had seen. She was urging the people that had pledged their lives to protect her to disregard her and escape.

"We shall protect young miss with our lives. All those behind, stop and hold them back!"

"Those in the front, quickly bring the young miss away! Do not fly in the sky, but run, run through the forest! It'll be easier to escape that way!"

However, the urging from that woman only caused her guards to be even more determined to protect her with their lives. One by one, they began to fiercely fight against the ferocious beasts. Even if they were badly mutilated by the ferocious beasts, they would refuse to cower.

Those people were most definitely using their lives to buy time for their young miss.

Chapter 2158 – Become My Bodyguard

---

“Quickly, save yourselves. Do not throw away your lives for nothing because of me.”

Seeing that everyone was staking their lives for her, that woman started to cry even more desperately. Her sparkling tears and expression of self-blame did not seemed to be a disguise.

“Roar~~~”

Suddenly, a roar was heard. Following the roar, a rank one Half Martial Ancestor-level ferocious beast rushed out. It broke through the barricade of guards and, with its bloody mouth wide open, pounced toward that woman.

“On no!” Seeing this scene, the expressions of the guards all changed enormously. Even that woman was so frightened that her body started to tremble.

The strongest among the group of people they had here were peak Martial Emperors. Practically none of them could stop a rank one Half Martial Ancestor-level ferocious beast. All of them would end up dying here.

“Buzz~~~”

However, at this moment of imminent peril, an invisible power suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

That power was so strong that it was simply capable of reversing heaven and earth, toppling all living things. It was so strong that... it caused all of the ferocious beasts present to freeze on the spot.

Regardless of whether they were currently brandishing their sharp claws or leaping into the air, all of the ferocious beasts were frozen in place, as if petrified.

“What’s going on?”

“What is this?”

“The heck’s going on?”

The sudden change stunned all of the people present. They were all at a loss as to what was going on.

“Animals that dare harm people shall be killed.”

At the moment when the crowd was confused, a voice suddenly sounded. After that voice was heard, a boundless killing intent appeared.

“Bang, bang, bang~~~”

Suddenly, all of the ferocious beasts started to explode. They turned into puddles of blood. They were all killed by someone with a single strike.

At this moment, the woman revealed an incomparably shocked expression.

She had noticed the person that had attacked the ferocious beasts. However, she had never expected that person to be him.

That person was naturally Chu Feng.

Immediately after her, all the rest of the people present noticed Chu Feng too.

At the beginning, they were shocked, as they had not expected Chu Feng to be this powerful.

However, their shocked expressions soon turned into expressions of fear.

They had not forgotten their clash with Chu Feng several days ago. When recalling that clash now, they realized how unlucky they were.

If Chu Feng were to attack them now, all of them would definitely be killed.

Panic. Not to mention the guards, even that woman revealed panic in her eyes.

“I was the one that attacked you that day. It is not related to them. If you wish to kill someone, then kill me alone.”

Surprisingly, at such a time, that woman actually stood before the rest of the people and planned to shoulder all the blame from that day.

“Tsk~~”

However, Chu Feng ignored them and snorted lightly. Then, he turned around and prepared to leave.

Seeing that Chu Feng did not plan to attack them, that woman summoned up her courage and asked, “Why did you save us?”

“You wish to know?” Chu Feng turned around.

“Mn,” That woman nodded.

“A sudden impulse, that’s all,” Chu Feng left those words and prepared to leave again.

“Wait a moment,” However, that woman rushed toward Chu Feng and asked, “I’m sorry. I was in the wrong earlier. I hope that you will not mind it.”

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed lightly. He said, “If a single sorry is all that was required, would you not look further into it should I kill your family and then tell you sorry afterward?”

“I...” That woman bit down on her lip tightly. She did not know how to respond.

“Forget about it, I am not a narrow-minded individual,” Chu Feng did not wish to make things difficult on her. He casually waved his hand to express his intention of not planning to do anything to her.

“May I know your name?” That woman moved toward Chu Feng again.

“My name is none of your concern, for you and I are only strangers,” Chu Feng said.

“If you refuse to tell me your name, I’ll address you as Lord Benefactor.”

“Lord Benefactor, I am called Tang Ying. I am from the Flowing Stream City’s Tang Family. I am sorry that I offended Lord Benefactor earlier. As Lord Benefactor has saved me, I must repay you.”

“If Lord Benefactor needs my assistance in the future, you can come to our Tang Family to find me. Regardless of what it might be, I will definitely assist you,” That woman said in a very sincere manner. Her attitude was completely opposite from the time when she first encountered Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed lightly at the woman’s hundred-and-eighty-degree change in behavior.

Originally, he had planned to dismiss her. However, Chu Feng suddenly thought of his purpose in coming to this place: to find the Demon Subduing Spring.

It had been several days now. Yet, Chu Feng have yet to discover anything. It would not do for him to continue on like this.

Chu Feng had saw the map and knew that the Flowing Stream City was located not far away from this Radiance Immortal Mountain. Perhaps they would know about the location of the Demon Subduing Spring.

Thus, Chu Feng turned around and asked, “Do you know where the Demon Subduing Spring might be located in this Radiance Immortal Mountain?”

“Lord Benefactor, you’re searching for the Demon Subduing Spring Water?” Hearing those words, Tang Ying’s expression immediately turned to one of joy.

Seeing Tang Ying revealing an expression that seemed like she knew about it, Chu Feng continued to ask, “Mn, do you know where I can obtain it?”

“I do, I do. However, if you wish to know about it, you must first tell me your name,” Tang Ying said while putting her hands behind her back.

“Hey! Didn’t you say that you would help me regardless of what it might be? Is this how you treat your benefactor?” Chu Feng said with a frown.

“Of course I’ll help. But, Lord Benefactor, you should at the very least have some trust in me, no? It would be too narrow-minded for you to refuse to tell me even your name.”

“Unless... you are a narrow-minded individual, and are still angry from what happened several days ago.”

“I doubt that’s the case, right? After all, you’re a grown man, and thus should be a magnanimous individual, right?”

“Furthermore, although I attacked you, my attack did not reach you,” Tang Ying looked to Chu Feng with a beaming smile. Her smile was quite beautiful. However, that gaze of hers was simply one of contempt.

At this moment, Chu Feng started to frown even more. He discovered that this girl by the name of Tang Ying was not as simple as he thought her to be. She was most definitely someone hard to deal with.

However, for the sake of saving Wang Qiang, Chu Feng had no choice but to compromise with her. Thus, he said, “Chu Feng.”

“Chu Feng, your name is quite pleasant to hear,” Tang Ying nodded in a satisfied manner. After hearing Chu Feng’s name, she smiled even more happily.

“Enough of this, tell me about the Demon Subduing Spring,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, I’ll address you as Chu Feng. Chu Feng, the Demon Subduing Spring that you are searching for can only be encountered by chance, and not sought after.”

“The Demon Subduing Spring is naturally in the Radiance Immortal Mountain. However, if you wish to search for it, it will all depend on luck. If you are lucky, you might find it just by turning around. If you are not lucky, you might not be able to find it even after searching for eight or ten years.”

“The reason for that is because the location of that Demon Subduing Spring is ever-changing,” Tang Ying said.

“It’s actually that difficult to find?” Chu Feng was able to tell that Tang Ying didn’t seem to be lying to him. However, it was precisely because she was not lying to him that Chu Feng became even more anxious.

After all, Wang Qiang had been captured by that demonic woman and could end up losing his life at any moment. Chu Feng did not have time to waste. Any moment he wasted could lead to Wang Qiang being killed by that demonic woman and becoming her meal.

At this moment, Chu Feng could only pray, pray that the demonic woman would think Wang Qiang to be too ugly, and eat the other men she had captured first, leaving Wang Qiang for last.

“However, there’s good news too. The people from our Tang Family have encountered the Demon Subduing Spring by chance before. Furthermore, we have collected a lot of the Demon Subduing Spring Water.”

“Thus, there is a lot of Demon Subduing Spring Water in our Tang Family.”

“If you want some, you can accompany me to the Tang Family. However, there will be a condition for that,” Tang Ying said.

“What is the condition?” Chu Feng asked.

“You must become my bodyguard and protect me,” Tang Ying said.

Chapter 2159 – Ghostfiend Beast

“Is this how you repay your benefactor? If I had known this was what you were going to do, I would’ve let the ferocious beasts eat you alive,” Chu Feng said in a displeased manner.

He felt that since Tang Ying’s family possessed Demon Subduing Spring Water, she should be giving him some should she really want to repay him. Yet, she had actually brought forth another condition. Her actions were truly too excessive.

“Aiyah, don’t get angry. I’m not asking for much. You merely need to protect me for ten years,” Tang Ying said.

“Don’t even think about it,” Chu Feng said.

“One year.”

“One month. One month should be fine, no?”

“You must know that it’s the Demon Subduing Spring Water that I’m talking about here. It’s extremely precious. If you do not do something that would assist me, I will not have any excuse to ask my father for it,” Tang Ying said with a difficult expression.

“Fine, I’ll agree to it. However, I will only protect you for a month, and not a day more.”

“Furthermore, you must bring me to retrieve the Demon Subduing Spring Water right now. I need it urgently,” For the sake of Wang Qiang’s safety, Chu Feng decided to compromise.

“Haha, great, this is truly great.”

“But, you must wait a moment. After my Third Brother returns, we can go together,” Tang Ying said.

“How long must I wait? I do not have too much time to waste,”

Chu Feng said.

“We already sent out the signal for help when we were being hunted by the ferocious beasts earlier. I believe that they will soon arrive,” Tang Ying said.

“If that’s the case, I’ll wait for a bit,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he sat down cross-legged and closed his eyes.

He was actually planning to comprehend the way of martial cultivation, and see if he could attempt to reach a breakthrough the bottleneck. After all, as long as he broke through the bottleneck, he would reach a breakthrough in his cultivation, becoming a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

Although Chu Feng was already a Half Martial Ancestor now, he knew that a rank one Half Martial Ancestor would not amount to much in the Outer World. As such, he must quickly reach a breakthrough in his cultivation.

“You all, take this medicine. It will be able to cure your injuries,” Right at the moment when Chu Feng planned to attempt to comprehend the way of martial cultivation, he discovered that Tang Ying was treating the injuries of her guards.

As those people had been injured by ferocious beasts, their injuries were absolutely not limited to superficial wounds. The way Chu Feng saw it, even though the medicinal pellets that Tang Ying took out were decent quality medicine, they were not sufficient to heal those people’s injuries quickly.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng extended his finger, pointed to the distance and made a circular motion with it. He drew a circle on the distant ground, pointed to it and said, “All of you, enter that circle.”

“Eh... sir, w-what are you planning to do?” Hearing those words, the guards were startled.

Although Chu Feng could be considered to be someone in their camp now, they were still unable to accept it that easily. As such, they were still on guard against Chu Feng.

“Aiya, just do as you’re ordered. Go, go, go, don’t dillydally around,” Tang Ying said.

Those people seemed to not dare to go against Tang Ying. One by one, they entered the circle Chu Feng had drawn on the ground.

“Chu Feng, exactly what are you planning to do?” Then, Tang Ying asked curiously.

However, Chu Feng ignored her, instead looking directly to those people.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

After all the people entered the circle, Chu Feng’s hands began to change in rapid succession. Many rays of boundless spirit power began to fly toward the circle, entering it and forming a spirit formation.

“Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spirit Power?”

After seeing the spirit power that Chu Feng had unleashed, the crowd present were all stunned.

However, Chu Feng did not bother with them. Instead, he wholeheartedly continued to set up his spirit formation. It was a healing spirit formation.

Being within that healing spirit formation, those people’s badly mutilated bodies were soon healed. Furthermore, their pain also completely disappeared. It could be said that their injuries had been completely healed.

“Done,” Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and that spirit formation vanished like smoke in thin air.

At this moment, the people inside that circle were all healthy and energetic. They possessed even more vigor than when before they had been injured.

“Many thanks,” At this moment, those people hurriedly clasped their fists to express their thanks. They all had slightly ashamed expressions on their faces.

After all, they were on guard against Chu Feng earlier when Chu Feng was actually doing so to treat them.

“Wow, Chu Feng, you’re amazing. Not only is your martial cultivation strong, you’re actually also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. Amazing, you are simply my idol. For me to have such a powerful bodyguard, I have truly picked up a treasure!” Tang Ying ran toward Chu Feng and shouted excitedly.

“Can you quiet down?” Chu Feng cast an eye at her. Then, he added, “At most an hour. If your brother does not come in an hour, you must bring me to your Tang Family.”

“Okay, okay, okay, that’s no problem,” Tang Ying said with a beaming smile. After knowing that Chu Feng was a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, her impression of Chu Feng grew even more favorable. In fact, there were even traces of adoration in her gaze.

Not long after, over a hundred figures flew over from the sky.

These were all people that Chu Feng had seen before; they were the people from the Tang Family that Chu Feng had run into several days ago. Merely, this group of people were composed of a lot of experts. Practically all of the Half Martial Ancestor-level experts were in that group. Those two old rank six Half Martial Ancestors were also present.

“Little sister, you have truly scared me to death. When I saw that distress signal that you sent out, I thought that something had happened to you.”

“Eh? Why are there so few people? Where did they all go?” The black-haired robust man was evidently the third brother that Tang Ying had spoken of. After he approached them, he immediately started to question her nonstop.

Suddenly, his gaze landed on Chu Feng. After he discovered Chu Feng, boundless killing intent immediately surged forth.

He pointed at Chu Feng and shouted, “So it was you!”

“Kill him!!!”

Once his order was spoken, those Half Martial Ancestor-level experts all unleashed their weapons and prepared to attack Chu Feng.

Upon seeing that, Tang Ying hurriedly said, “Big brother, what are you doing?! He is my savior!”

“What?!” Hearing those words, not only was that robust man surprised, the others that had just arrived with him were also surprised.

“Big brother, he indeed saved us. Furthermore, he has become my bodyguard,” Tang Ying said.

“Little sister, what are you talking about? Why am I unable to make sense of what you’re saying?” That robust man revealed an expression of confusion.

Then, Tang Ying began to explain all that had occurred to that robust man.

Merely, even after he learned of what had happened, the impression that robust man had of Chu Feng did not change. There was still hostility in his gaze. Furthermore, he said to Tang Ying, “Little sister, our Tang Family is currently under special circumstances. How could we bring such an unknown stranger to our Tang Family?”

“Big brother, isn’t our Tang Family raising an army right now? Haven’t those two people also been invited to our Tang Family?” Tang Ying pointed to the two old rank six Half Martial Ancestors.

“Nonsense! Who are these two seniors, and who is that boy? How could he possibly compare to these two seniors?” The robust man spoke with a low voice. From his words, one could tell that he looked down on Chu Feng deeply.

“Humph,” The two old men also uttered light snorts. It was as if they were agreeing to that robust man’s words.

However, as Chu Feng only cared about saving Wang Qiang, he simply did not take their words to heart. Instead, he stood up and said, “Hey, Tang Ying, since your brother has arrived, we can go now, right?”

“Go? Where?” The robust man spoke with an unpleasant tone.

“Big brother, I have already promised Chu Feng that we will immediately set off for the Tang Family after you arrived,” Tang Ying explained.

“That won’t do. We have yet to capture the Ghostfiend Beast. We cannot return like this,” The robust man said.

“Why are you all trying to capture that Ghostfiend Beast?” Chu Feng asked.

“That is none of your concern,” The robust man spoke coldly.

“Big brother, how could you speak to Chu Feng in such a manner? He is someone that saved me,” Tang Ying cast a side eye at her brother. Then, she said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, we have actually come here with the intention of capturing the Ghostfiend Beast.”

“I know that. I’m asking why you all want to capture that Ghostfiend Beast,” Chu Feng said.

“To cure my father. My father is seriously injured. Only the Ghostfiend Beasts’ bone powder can cure him,” Tang Ying said.

“In that case, does it mean that as long as that Ghostfiend Beast is captured, we will be able to return to your Tang Family immediately?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right,” Tang Ying nodded.

“Tell me the characteristics of that Ghostfiend Beast,” Chu Feng said.

In response, Tang Ying hurriedly began to explain what she knew of the Ghostfiend Beast to Chu Feng.

After hearing what Tang Ying said, Chu Feng immediately revealed a joyous expression. Actually, he had already guessed that the so-called Ghostfiend Beast that Tang Ying and the others were talking about might be the strange ferocious beast he had killed.

After Tang Ying explained its characteristics and appearance to him, Chu Feng was certain that the strange ferocious beast he had killed was that Ghostfiend Beast.

“That makes it simple. We can leave for the Tang Family now,” As Chu Feng spoke, he placed his hand on his Cosmos Sack.

“Yoh, based on your words, you seem to be indicating that the Ghostfiend Beast is easy to capture? It is not that I am looking down on you. But, with your mere cultivation of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor, a single spit from the Ghostfiend Beast would be able to drown you alive,” The robust man mocked Chu Feng.

The two old rank six Half Martial Ancestors also snorted disdainfully as they looked to Chu Feng with gazes of contempt.

“Oh?” Chu Feng was not angered by those words. Instead, he sat on the ground and said, “In that case, go and have it spit a mouthful of saliva to drown me to death.”

“What did you say? Say it again?” The robust man thought that Chu Feng was provoking him and became enraged. He had the appearance of wanting to attack Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored that man’s words. Instead, he retrieved a Cosmos Sack from his waist, and tossed it upward. As light flickered from the Cosmos Sack, a loud “boom” was heard. Then, something crashed onto the ground.

Upon seeing the thing that was on the ground, all the people present, including even the robust man and the two old men, revealed stunned, tongue-tied expressions.

Chapter 2160 – Terrifying Everyone

Upon seeing the silhouette on the ground, the crowd all blurted out together, “Ghostfiend Beast?!”

They all managed to recognize that it was the Ghostfiend Beast that they had been painstakingly searching for.

“D-d-did you kill it?” The robust man asked while looking at Chu Feng with an astonished expression.

“Who else then? You?” Chu Feng sneered as he cast an eye at the robust man. Chu Feng had managed to return all the mockery from that robust man with merely that one sentence.

Hearing those words, the robust man’s expression changed to one of awkwardness.

After all, he knew very well that he would not be able to kill the Ghostfiend Beast with the strength that he possessed.

“Wow, Chu Feng, aren’t you too powerful? Do you know how much effort we have put into capturing that Ghostfiend Beast? Even when senior Luo Tian and Luo Di encountered the Ghostfiend Beast, it still managed to escape from them multiple times.”

Tang Ying had an excited expression. As for the Luo Tian and Luo Di that she spoke of, they were naturally the twin rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level old men.

“Humph,” Hearing those words, the two brothers snorted coldly. Evidently, they were displeased by Tang Ying’s words.

Then, that Luo Tian even said to Chu Feng, “Little friend, one must be honest.”

“What are you implying?” Chu Feng asked.

“You know very well what I’m implying. You know very well that the Ghostfiend Beast is not only a rank four Half Martial Ancestor, it also possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation. Its true battle power is on par with rank six Half Martial Ancestors.”

“As for you, you are merely a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. Although it is very inconceivable that you would be able to obtain that level of cultivation at your age, that is not a cultivation level where you can kill the Ghostfiend Beast.”

“Tell the truth, who was it that killed the Ghostfiend Beast, and where did you manage to find the corpse of that Ghostfiend Beast?” Luo Tian asked with a cold tone. Earlier, he had completely disregarded Chu Feng. However, after Chu Feng took out that Ghostfiend Beast, he completely viewed Chu Feng as his enemy.

“That’s right. Although he is strong, that Ghostfiend Beast is stronger. It is impossible for him to have killed that Ghostfiend Beast,” At the same time, the others present also managed to react. One by one, they expressed their disbelief that Chu Feng had killed the Ghostfiend Beast.

At this moment, Chu Feng, who had been sitting on the ground, slowly stood up. He gently patted away the dust on his buttocks, and then began to walk toward the twin old men, Luo Tian and Luo Di.

When Chu Feng was less than two meters from the brothers, he stopped and said, “I collected this corpse in the Radiance Immortal Mountain. As for the person that killed that Ghostfiend Beast... he stands before you.”

“Hahaha, little friend, it is truly not that I am looking down on you. Rather, your strength is clearly present before us. There is an enormous disparity between your strength and that of the Ghostfiend Beast.”

“It is not that us two brothers do not believe you. Instead, go and ask the crowd present; who would possibly believe you?” Luo Tian and Luo Di burst into loud laughter. Their laughter was filled with mockery.

“Hahaha...” Following their laughter, the people from the Tang Family that had arrived late all burst into loud laughter.

“Zzzz~~~”

However, right at this moment, lightning flashed in Chu Feng’s eyes. When the Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared, Chu Feng’s aura increased from rank one Half Martial Ancestor to rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

Immediately after that, a loud ‘bang’ was heard as a powerful oppressive might swept forth from within Chu Feng. That oppressive might directly smashed toward Luo Tian and Luo Di.

Due to the fact that they were so close to one another, and Chu Feng’s oppressive might was so powerful, the two old men were directly struck by Chu Feng’s oppressive might, and knocked several meters away before they even managed to react.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

Like arrows shot out from a bow, the two aged bodies were shot forth explosively. They pierced through all the boulders and trees that they crashed into, leaving a complete mess behind them.

However, even with this being the case, the two old men were still knocked several hundred thousands of meters away before crashing to a stop.

“Heavens!!!”

This sudden scene caused everyone to open their mouths wide with shock. When the crowd looked back to Chu Feng, not to mention the others, even the robust man who had looked down on Chu Feng earlier revealed a very serious expression.

After all, those two old men were actual rank six Half Martial Ancestors. However, they were knocked flying by Chu Feng’s oppressive might.

Furthermore, the Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings on Chu Feng's body astonished the crowd even more.

While no one recognized Chu Feng's Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings in the Holy Land of Martialism, this was not true in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Practically everyone knew that the Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, as well as that heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, were the symbols of people from Heavenly Clans. They were abilities that only the wielders of Heavenly Bloodlines possessed.

How powerful were the Heavenly Clans? In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, all of the Heavenly Clans were huge monsters ruling over a region.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that regardless of how powerful the Tang Family might be, when compared to Heavenly Clans, they would be nothing more than little brooks against vast seas; they were simply incapable.

It was precisely because of that that the people from the Tang Family were this startled. Not to mention Chu Feng's heaven-defying battle power, merely his background was already capable of terrifying them endlessly.

At this moment, many of the people from the Tang Family were already shivering in fear with their legs gone soft.

After all, they had planned to kill Chu Feng earlier. Yet, he was someone from a Heavenly Clan, someone that they could not afford to offend.

“Bastard brat! Today, this old man shall dismember your body to ten thousand pieces!”

Suddenly, a roar filled with overwhelming anger sounded. At the same time, boundless killing intent swept forth, covering this region.

It was the twin old men, Luo Tian and Luo Di. They were rapidly rushing over. Before they even arrive, their voices and killing intents have already arrived.

Although Chu Feng's oppressive might had beaten them back, he had merely beaten them back, and not really injured them.

Thus, although they might not be completely uninjured, they had only suffered light wounds.

However, to be knocked flying by a member of the younger generation, and for it to have been done before their employers on top of that, caused the two old men to feel completely humiliated. As such, they wanted to teach Chu Feng a lesson.

“If you wish to fight, I do not mind. However, let me tell you this beforehand. I do not have the time to bother with you. If you insist on making me fight, I will do so with the intention to kill,” Chu Feng spoke coldly. At the same time, intense killing intent emerged in his eyes.

“What an arrogant brat. You dare boast this shamelessly? Very well, let us experience what abilities you might possess. We shall see how you will kill us.”

The voices of Luo Tian and Luo Di sounded once again. At this moment, their voices did not sound from afar. Instead, they had already approached Chu Feng, and were in his and the crowd's line of sight.

“That is?!!!”

However, when they saw the current Chu Feng, Luo Tian and Luo Di were immediately stunned, as if they had been petrified.

Not only did the two men immediately retrieve their overwhelming killing intent, the two of them also revealed astonished and terrified expressions.

Someone from a Heavenly Clan. If the Tang Family feared them, then the two brothers also feared them.

“Puu,” Seeing this scene, Tang Ying hurriedly covered her mouth with her hand. She had nearly burst out laughing.

While Luo Tian and Luo Di were people that they had hired using a great amount of wealth, those two old farts were extremely arrogant. They could be said to consider everyone beneath themselves. Those two old farts would refuse to even look at her and her third brother face-to-face.

However, at this moment, after the two old men saw Chu Feng, they actually revealed gazes of fear.

Furthermore, the two old men had been shouting that they would teach Chu Feng a lesson, that they would dismember Chu Feng to ten thousand pieces. Yet, at this moment, they were filled with cowardice. The way Tang Ying saw it, this was simply too funny.

“What’s wrong? Why aren’t you attacking me?” Chu Feng said without a trace of politeness.

“I...” The brothers Luo Tian and Luo Di were at a loss as to what to say. However, they did not dare to say anything like teaching Chu Feng a lesson again.

Humiliating. Even without others pointing it out, Luo Tian and Luo Di both knew that they had been humiliated right now.

However, there was nothing they could do about it. After all, the two of them truly did not dare to offend the people of the Heavenly Clans.

Chapter 2161 – Distinguished Guest Treatment

“Aiya, this is a misunderstanding, truly a misunderstanding.”

“I truly never expected Brother Chu Feng to be this powerful. It would appear that the Ghostfiend Beast was indeed killed by Brother Chu Feng.”

“Earlier, it was my fault. I have no eyes, and wrongly accused Brother Chu Feng. I shall apologize to Brother Chu Feng here,” The robust man saw the awkward situation and stood forward to try to mediate the situation.

However, even though he was nodding and bowing to apologize to Chu Feng, Chu Feng was still in no mood to bother with him.

“Brother Chu Feng, I am called Tang Yong. I am the third young master of the Tang Family. To be able to get to know Brother Chu Feng here today, it is truly a honor for me, Tang Yong, and our Tang Family.”

“I hope Brother Chu Feng would not take offense at my rudeness earlier,” That Tang Yong’s skin was extra thick. Even though Chu Feng was ignoring him, he still continued on.

His current expression was completely different from before. Seeing that eager smile on his face caused Chu Feng to feel disgusted. Someone like him was simply too fake.

If it wasn’t for Wang Qiang, Chu Feng would truly not want to deal with these people. However, for the sake of Wang Qiang, Chu Feng could only force himself to reluctantly deal with them.

Although he felt surprised by it too, Chu Feng began to feel that the person he had the worst impression of at the beginning, that Tang Ying, appeared to be a lot more favorable compared to the rest of them.

“Can we return to the Tang Family now?” Chu Feng continued to ignore Tang Yong and asked Tang Ying.

“Third brother, can we go?” Tang Ying did not dare to make her own decision. Thus, she turned to Tang Yong.

“Merely, this Ghostfiend Beast. Brother Chu Feng, what sort of price are you planning to sell it to us for?” Tang Yong asked. Perhaps he might have tried to seize the Ghostfiend Beast from Chu Feng earlier. However, he would not dare to do so now, and could only offer to purchase it from Chu Feng.

“You all only need the bones, right?” Chu Feng asked.

“Ehh...” Tang Yong was at first startled by those words. The reason for that was because, according to his knowledge, although Ghostfiend Beasts were hard to find, only their bones were precious. Other than the bones, the rest of the Ghostfiend Beast was simply worthless.

Although he did not understand why Chu Feng would ask such a useless question, Tang Yong still smiled and nodded. “Yes, we only needed the bones.”

“Then I shall given them you all for free,” Chu Feng said.

“H-How could we accept such an enormous...?” At this moment, not to mention Tang Yong, even Tang Ying, Luo Tian, Luo Di and the rest of the people from the Tang Family had an enormous change in their expressions.

“I said that I’m going to gift the bones to you all. If you think that you cannot accept it for free, then go ahead and present me with some more Demon Subduing Spring Water.”

“However... the meat of the Ghostfiend Beast must be handed to be in perfect condition. Understand?” Chu Feng said.

“Yes, that’s absolutely doable,” Tang Yong nodded his head repeatedly. At the same time, the rest of the people from the Tang Family also revealed smiles on their faces.

They themselves knew best how much their Tang Family needed the Ghostfiend Beast's bones right now.

If Chu Feng were to attempt to profit from their misfortune and demand a sky-high price for the bones, their Tang Family would still be willing to accept his demands should they be within their capabilities.

Yet, Chu Feng actually only wanted Demon Subduing Spring Water. They had truly never expected this.

Afterward, Chu Feng and everyone else began to proceed toward the Tang Family.

The city that the Tang Family was located in was much larger than Red Sparrow's City. At the same time, it was also much more majestic and flourishing.

As for the Tang Family, they occupied half of this vast city. The region that the Tang Family occupied was all sealed off with spirit formations and tightly guarded. Ordinary people were simply unable to set foot in there.

Furthermore, this Tang Family could truly be said to possess countless experts. If it were to be placed in the Holy Land of Martialism, practically no one other than the blind old man and the other Chu Clan's servants would be a match for them.

However, Chu Feng was able to sense that although the Tang Family was powerful, they could not be considered to be a huge monster in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. They could only be considered as a family that occupied a region.

From this, it was no wonder that Dark Hall's Hall Master looked down on the people in the Holy Land of Martialism like he had. It was true that the Holy Land of Martialism simply could not compare to even the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

As Chu Feng began to meet more and more people from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he began to realize what was meant by the saying ‘beyond the heaven are higher heavens, beyond the person are stronger people.’

After arriving in the Tang Family, Chu Feng handed the Ghostfiend Beast to the people of the Tang Family. Furthermore, he had gotten to know that Tang Ying’s father, the master of the Tang Family, was seriously injured, and was waiting for the bones of the Ghostfiend Beast to cure his injury.

After finding out that Chu Feng was an extraordinary individual, the people from the Tang Family naturally treated Chu Feng extremely well. They did not dare to neglect him in the slightest.

However, Chu Feng was not fond of noise. Thus, he drove all of the servants that were dispatched to serve him out. However, he was unable to drive out Tang Ying no matter how hard he tried.

“Chu Feng, I truly never expected that you were someone from a Heavenly Clan, that you were a wielder of Heavenly Bloodline.”

“Wow, it is no wonder you’re this powerful. I’ve seen many people with Heavenly Bloodlines before. But, this is still the first time I’ve met a member of the younger generation as powerful as you.”

“In your clan, you must be an extraordinary person too, right? Could it be that you are the strongest member of the younger generation in your clan?”

“Oh, that’s right, Chu Feng, exactly which Heavenly Clan do you belong to?”

“You wouldn’t be from the Chu Heavenly Clan, right? Could it be that you’re someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan that was dispatched to train in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Tang Ying chattered nonstop beside Chu Feng. The gaze with which this girl was looking at Chu Feng was filled with even greater adoration now.

Chu Feng ignored her. His eyes were closed as he continued to comprehend how to break through the bottleneck to rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

“Haha, I’m joking with you. I know that you definitely wouldn’t be someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan. If you were, you would’ve mentioned it already.”

“You should be from one of the other Heavenly Clans, right? But, which one though? You should be from the Ying Heavenly Clan right? After all, the Ying Heavenly Clan is the closest to this place,” Although Chu Feng was ignoring Tang Ying, Tang Ying continued to talk to herself nonstop.

“Is the Ying Heavenly Clan very close to this place?” Chu Feng opened his eyes and looked to Tang Ying. While Chu Feng was not interested in other things, he was very interested in the Ying Heavenly Clan.

After all, Chu Feng knew that the Dark Hall’s Hall Master that had nearly destroyed the entire Holy Land of Martialism was from the Ying Heavenly Clan.

“They could be considered to be the Heavenly Clan closest to this place,” After Tang Ying said that, her expression changed. She asked, “Eh, in that case, you’re not from the Ying Heavenly Clan then? Then which Heavenly Clan are you from?”

“Mn, let me guess,” Tang Ying placed her hands behind her back and began to waver left and right. She entered deep contemplation.

“Fifth Young Miss, the Ghostfiend Beast’s meat that Lord Chu Feng requested is here,” Right at this moment, a message sounded from outside the palace hall.

“Good, bring it in,” Tang Ying ordered. Then, someone pushed in a large basin of meat.

“This should have been prepared by a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, right?” Chu Feng asked. Looking at that large basin of Ghostfiend Beast meat, he was able to tell that it was most definitely the work of a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

The reason for that was because even Half Martial Ancestors would not be able to cut the meat this delicately. Although the bones had been removed, the meat had not been harmed in the slightest.

It was a bone removing technique. Although it appeared to be simple, it was actually very hard to accomplish. It was something that only a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist would be able to accomplish.

“That’s right, for the sake of curing my father’s injury, we have invited the assistance of a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“It is that Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist that declared my father’s illness to be very difficult to treat, and that he could only provide treatment after father swallowed a powder ground from a Ghostfiend Beast’s bones,” Tang Ying explained.

“You needed to invite a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist? A power like your Tang Family does not possess a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist?”

Chu Feng was a bit surprised. He had originally thought that the Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist was from the Tang Family.

However, after hearing what Tang Ying said, it was clear that this was not the case.

However, if a power like the Tang Family was placed in the Holy Land of Martialism, they would be an major existence that not even the Ancient Era’s Elves could match up to. As such, how could they not even have a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist?

Could it be that Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists were as rare in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm as they were in the Holy Land of Martialism?

Chapter 2162 – The Tang Family’s Great Enemy

“Of course. All of the Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists are extremely conceited. It is generally very difficult to request their assistance. To have one join our Tang Family would be even harder.”

“As for someone like you who became a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, it is even more rare.”

“Chu Feng, you are the strongest person I’ve seen in my life; you are simply my idol.”

“Exactly how did you cultivate to become this powerful?” Tang Ying asked with an expression of admiration.

“Am I allowed to light a fire here?” Chu Feng asked.

“Light a fire? That’s no problem at all. What is it you’re planning to do?” Tang Ying asked.

“Roast meat to eat,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, with a wave of his sleeve, a fire spirit formation was ignited in the palace hall.

Then, Chu Feng clenched his fist and formed a fork with martial power.

Chu Feng pierced the fork into the Ghostfiend Beast’s meat, sat before the fire spirit formation and began to roast the meat.

This fire spirit formation was one used especially for roasting meat. This, the intensity of the fire was very fierce. Placing the meat on top of it, the meat would be cooked very fast. However, it would not be charred.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? You couldn’t possibly be thinking about eating that Ghostfiend Beast’s meat, right?” Tang Ying asked with a shocked expression.

“Why else would I be roasting it? Do you want to have a try? However, you are only allowed a single small bite at most,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

It was not that Chu Feng was stingy. Rather, the meat of the Ghostfiend Beast contained Natural Energies. Logically, Chu Feng would not spare a single bite. He was already very generous to be willing to have Tang Ying a small bite of the meat.

“Chu Feng, are you crazy? The meat of the Ghostfiend Beast cannot be eaten. It contains a deadly poison,” Seeing that Chu Feng was truly planning to eat the Ghostfiend Beast’s meat, Tang Ying was so frightened that her face turned pale.

“Is that so?” Chu Feng examined the Ghostfiend Beast’s meat carefully. It was only then that he discovered that the meat of the Ghostfiend Beast really did contain poison. Furthermore, the poison was hidden very deep, and was extremely toxic.

However, after Chu Feng discovered the poison, he still opened his mouth and took a large bite of the meat before beginning to chew it.

“Holy mother!!!”

“You’re really eating it!!!”

At this moment, Tang Ying, who stood beside Chu Feng, was terrified by him. She grabbed her hair wildly.

As for Chu Feng, the speed at which he ate the meat was very fast. In merely a short moment, the large basin filled with meat all entered Chu Feng’s stomach.

The current Chu Feng was no longer an ordinary human. No aspect of him could be compared to ordinary humans. As long as he wished to eat it, not to mention a basin of meat, even if it was several tens of elephants, he would still be able to eat all of it.

After eating all the meat of the Ghostfiend Beast, Chu Feng felt that the Natural Energies in his dantian had become much more ample. Although it was not enough for him to break through to rank four Half Martial Ancestor, it was not very far away from it.

Thus, at this moment, Chu Feng revealed a satisfied smile.

“Y-Y-You’re actually fine?” Seeing that Chu Feng was not only completely unharmed after eating the meat, but his complexion even grew rosy, Tang Ying opened her mouth wide in shock.

“However, you can’t eat it even if you wish to do so now, since it’s all gone now,” Chu Feng wiped his mouth while smiling mischievously.

“Heavens, you are simply abnormal! The meat of the Ghostfiend Beast is extremely poisonous. How could you be fine? Could it be that you possess a body immune to poison?” Tang Ying looked as if she had seen a monster as she began to size up Chu Feng.

“Enough of the nonsense. I’ve handed the Ghostfiend Beast to you all. Now, where’s my Demon Subduing Spring Water? Why is it still not here?” Chu Feng asked. After all, saving Wang Qiang had been Chu Feng’s goal the entire time.

“The Demon Subduing Spring Water is a bit special. It need to be contained in special containers. Thus, it is slow going to retrieve it.”

“Furthermore, I know that you most likely want the Demon Subduing Spring Water to take care of that demonic woman in the Darknight Ghost Forest. Our Tang Family possesses a special artifact to take care of it. It would be very difficult for the demonic woman to resist should you use the Demon Subduing Spring Water with the special artifact.”

“Merely, it is even more time-consuming to fill that artifact with Demon Subduing Spring Water. Just wait patiently for a bit longer. I would not deceive you,” Tang Ying said.

Chu Feng felt that Tang Ying really didn’t seem to be deceiving him.

Furthermore, after the Tang Family learned of his identity as a person from the Heavenly Clans, they acted extremely respectful toward him, and did not dare to offend him.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that the rest of the Tang Family would also not try to deceive him. As such, he asked, “Tell me, who it is that your Tang Family managed to offend?”

“How did you know that?” Hearing those words, Tang Ying’s eyes went wide open. She expressed an expression of shock.

“How complicated could it be? Your city is extremely huge. I can tell that there are a lot of other powers and ordinary families in this city other than your Tang Family.”

“However, on the way here, I noticed that other than some individual powers, many of the powers and ordinary commoners in the city have disappeared. Furthermore, they seemed to have just left not long ago.”

“Furthermore, your Tang Family is concealed within your formations. Not only have you all activated all of the defensive formations and spirit formations, the people of your Tang Family also have nervous expressions. It is as if a great enemy is about to arrive.”

“Furthermore, other than the people from your Tang Family, you all have also invited over a lot of outsiders. Furthermore, they are all expert martial cultivators.”

“All of this signifies that your Tang Family is facing a great enemy. Likely, someone will come to invade soon.”

“Am I right?” Chu Feng asked.

“Wow, Chu Feng, you are simply amazing. You actually managed to discover all that just through observation?” Tang Ying revealed an amazed expression.

“After I finish what I must do, I will abide by my promise and become your bodyguard for a month.”

“Since I am going to protect you, I must first know the situation that your Tang Family is facing right now, as well as who exactly it is that your Tang Family has offended.”

“Thus, exactly what happened? Tell me the truth,” Chu Feng said.

“It’s the Cao Family. Like our Tang Family, the Cao Family is a subsidiary power to Luyang’s Pavilion,” Tang Ying spoke honestly.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart was startled. The reason for that was because the Pavilion Master of that Luyang’s Pavilion was someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan. Thus, Chu Feng was particularly interested in that Luyang’s Pavilion. After all, that was the first person from the Chu Heavenly Clan that he had seen since his arrival in the Outer World.

However, Chu Feng did not interrupt Tang Ying, nor did he reveal any change in expression. Instead, he continued to listen.

“Our Tang Family and the Cao Family both govern over a region. Originally, our two families always minded our own business. Furthermore, due to the fact that we were neighboring powers, our relationship was pretty decent too. We were friends of hundreds of years.”

“However, after Luyang’s Pavilion came to rule over this place, an enormous change occurred. Due to the fact that Luyang’s Pavilion demands a lot of tribute every year, our Tang Family and the Cao Family ended up having constant friction with one another for the sake of contesting for benefits.”

“Especially the past two years. Our Tang Family and the Cao Family have become absolute enemies,” Tang Ying said.

“Wait a moment, didn’t you say that your Tang Family and that Cao Family were both subsidiary powers to Luyang’s Pavilion? If that's the case, why would Luyang's Pavilion let your two families have this sort of friction without doing anything?" Chu Feng asked.

"Luyang's Pavilion has never once bothered itself with these things. They only care about their own interests. As for their subsidiary powers, it is a battle for the survival of the fittest. They have never once involved themselves with the battles between their subsidiary powers," Tang Ying explained.

After hearing that, Chu Feng's gaze grew deep. His impression of Luyang's Pavilion grew worse yet again. However, he did not express that. Instead, he said, "Continue."

"With the relationship between our Tang Family and the Cao Family having worsened to this degree, our friendship of many years has long since been cast aside. We have become genuinely hostile powers."

"However, the most disgusting aspect is that our Tang Family and the Cao Family already set up an arranged marriage for me before I was even born."

"I am to be married to the Cao Family's youngest son."

"However, no one expected that the Cao Family's youngest son would be retarded at birth. No matter how they tried to cure him, they were unable to do so. As such, how could my father be willing to marry me off to him?"

"Furthermore, as we are already hostile powers, my father decided to meet with the Cao Family to withdraw the marriage agreement."

"However, none of us expected that the Cao Family would declare war against our Tang Family with the reason being that we broke our promise of marriage."

"They had already planned and schemed for this battle for a very long time. Before they even declared war, they had already invited many outside experts. Thus, our Tang Family was caught completely unprepared.”

“When we discovered that the situation was amiss, it was already too late.”

“Right now, although the overall strength of our Tang Family and the Cao Family does not differ by much, it is the Cao Family that holds the advantage. If we were to truly enter a battle, it would definitely be our Tang Family that would end up losing.”

“As my father does not wish to be defeated, he began to invite experts from all over. Several days ago, he went to ask one of his good friends to lend us a hand.”

“However, never did we expect that his good friend had already been bribed by the Cao Family. He actually joined hands with the Cao Family and mounted a sneak attack against my father.”

“That is why my father ended up being seriously injured,” As Tang Ying mentioned this matter, she gnashed her teeth angrily.

Chapter 2163 – The Situation Turning Bad

“Is your father the strongest person in your Tang Family?” Chu Feng asked.

“My father is a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. He is indeed the strongest person in our Tang Family,” Tang Ying said.

“Your father is the strongest person in your Tang Family. Yet, he was injured from the sneak attack. Thus, why did the Cao Family not seize this opportunity to attack your Tang Family? Why would they give your father time to heal his injuries?” Chu Feng asked in a very puzzled manner.

“It’s my father’s good friend. Perhaps his conscience got to him after he injured my father and was unable to continue.”

“It was him who pleaded to the Cao Family to spare my father. Furthermore, he also requested for time for my father to heal his injuries. Else, he declared that he would fight for our Tang Family instead.”

“However, should the Tang Family present my father time to heal his injuries, he would no longer involve himself in this matter,” Tang Ying said.

“That’s right, it’s very melodramatic. However, it remains that if it wasn’t for my father’s good friend, my father would’ve already been killed by the Cao Family that day,” Tang Ying said.

“This thing is interesting. It is truly quite a drama,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he asked, “Then, what is the length of time the Cao Family gave your father to heal his injuries?”

“We still have another month,” Tang Ying said.

“Then there should be enough time,” Chu Feng said.

“Enough time for what?” Tang Ying asked.

“I must go and eliminate that demonic woman first. However, since I’ve promised to be your bodyguard for a month, I must protect you.”

“This is especially true when your Tang Family is faced with your great enemy. At that time, you should be in greater danger. As your bodyguard, how can I not be by your side?”

“However, if it’s a month, I should be able to finish eliminating the demonic woman, and then come to protect you,” Chu Feng said to Tang Ying. Chu Feng was someone who abided by his promises. As such, he would definitely do as he had promised.

“Chu Feng... I...” Suddenly, Tang Ying’s expression changed. She started to suck in her lips. It was as if she was feeling some sort of grievance.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Feng asked.

“I am sorry. When I first saw you, I deliberately tried to pick a quarrel with you,” Tang Ying said.

“I know,” Chu Feng said with a smile, “Even a fool could tell that you were deliberately picking a quarrel with me. After all, you could have travelled through any region in that vast sky. Yet, you insisted on traveling where I was standing.”

“That is why I need to apologize to you. I picked a quarrel against you for no reason at all. Yet, not only did you not hold a grudge, you even saved me and the many guards of our Tang Family.”

“As you are my savior, my benefactor, I should have repaid your kindness unconditionally. However, when you mentioned that you wanted to find the Demon Subduing Spring, I brought forth conditions, and demanded that you be my bodyguard.”

“Not only did you agree to it, you are actually also this diligent towards it, and are thinking about my safety.”

“But, I have clearly treated you like that, yet you have still treated me this good. I... I... wuu... I am truly a wretch.”

As Tang Ying said those words, tears were already present in the corners of her eyes. Then, like water from the Yellow River, the tears were unstoppable, breaking through the dams and surging out from her eyes.

In the end, Tang Ying was still only a girl that had just reached the age of adulthood. However, her temperament was still only that of a girl.

It was because there were not many people that had treated her with sincerity in her life that she ended up being moved to tears when she encountered someone like Chu Feng.

“Hey, hey, hey, don’t act like this. Anyone that doesn’t know what happened might think that I did something to you,” Chu Feng urged with a smile.

“Wuu!!!” However, Tang Ying started to cry even louder.

“Stop crying. If you continue to cry, I’m going to act,” Chu Feng suddenly said.

“Act, what?” Tang Ying started at Chu Feng with a bewildered expression.

“Your Tang Family possesses all those experts. What if they decide to put me to death from anger?”

“If I had truly done something to you, my death would be justified. However, I have not done anything. Tell me, would my death be wrong or not?”

“Thus, if you continue to cry, I’m going to be shameless and bring you to the bed. I will have you have a taste of my ability.”

“Like that, even if your Tang Family were to kill me, I would not have died with grievances,” Chu Feng said with a mischievous smile across his face.

“Puu...” Hearing what Chu Feng said, that Tang Ying not only stopped crying, she even burst into laughter. She looked to Chu Feng and said, “When I first met you, you were quite cold. Never would I have expected that you’re actually a hoodlum.”

“All men are hoodlums. However, I will only act like a hoodlum toward people that I have a favorable impression of.”

“However, don’t take my words to heart. I was merely joking around with you,” Chu Feng spoke with righteousness.

“You...” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Tang Ying, who was confident in her charm, was naturally somewhat angered. However, after thinking about it a bit, she did not break out with her bossy young miss temperament.

Instead, she forced down her anger and spoke to Chu Feng gently. “Chu Feng, I am actually not the type of person like the me that you first met. I was only angered because of this matter of the arranged marriage with the Cao Family.”

“The reason for that is because my eldest brother and second brother said that if my father is not healed by the time the Cao Family attacks us, I must, for the sake of preserving our Tang Family, marry that retard.”

“Do you wish to marry that retard?” Chu Feng asked.

“Of course not. I’ve never even met him before,” Tang Ying said as she shook her head.

“Then don’t,” Chu Feng said.

“But, this matter is already not something that I can decide,” Tang Ying said.

“What’s there to fear? I’m with you,” Chu Feng said to Tang Ying with a beaming smile, “I’ll protect you.”

Hearing those words, Tang Ying’s expression grew sluggish again. She felt as if she did not dare to believe what she just heard.

However, as she looked at Chu Feng who had an expression of sincerity across his face, she started to smile happily and said, “Okay.”

She did not understand why. However, after Chu Feng said those words, she started to believe him deeply. She felt that Chu Feng would truly be able to protect her.

“Young miss, this is bad!” Suddenly, a servant girl rushed in.

“A’cai, aren’t you supposed to be serving my father? Why would you run over here?” Tang Ying asked impatiently.

“Young miss, this is truly bad. You must escape immediately.”

“That Grandmaster Kangping has fed Master the Ghostfiend Beast’s bone powder. Yet, he is still unable to cure Master’s injury.”

“I heard the Eldest Young Master’s discussion with the Second Young Master. They said that they planned to marry you to the Cao Family before they attacked the Tang Family so as to resolve the conflict with the Cao Family,” The servant girl said.

“How could this be?!” Hearing those words, Tang Ying collapsed onto her butt. She had a completely dejected expression on her face.

“Do you want me to bring you away?” Chu Feng asked.

“I naturally want to run away. However, I cannot disregard the safety of the Tang Family,” Tang Ying’s voice grew very low. It went without saying that she was feeling very depressed.

“Since that’s the case, bring me over so that I can have a look at your father. I am also a world spiritist. I also possess some understanding of healing techniques. Perhaps I might be able to provide some assistance,” Chu Feng said.

“How could I have forgotten about that? Very well, let’s go over immediately,” Tang Ying stood up, grabbed Chu Feng and began to rush out.

“Young miss, you cannot go over there. Have you forgotten that Master has personally ordered that you are not allowed to enter his sleeping chambers?” The servant girl said.

“We have no time to worry about that,” Tang Ying ignored the servant girl, tightly grabbed Chu Feng and rushed out with quick steps.

At that moment, Chu Feng was the last straw for her to clutch at. She had placed all of her hopes onto Chu Feng.

Kangping → Peace and Prosperity. Not sure if it's his name or title yet.

Chapter 2164 – Gazes Of Despise

Following Tang Ying, Chu Feng soon arrived at the sleeping chambers of the Tang Family's Family Head.

Several figures were gathered in the sleeping chambers of the Tang Family's Family Head. Among them was Tang Ying's third brother, Tang Yong.

There were two other men. Those two men were much older than Tang Yong. The oldest among them was actually over five thousand years old.

“Little sister, why would you be here?”

“Didn't father order that you were not allowed to enter this place?”

After seeing Tang Ying and Chu Feng, not only did that Tang Yong walk toward them and address Tang Ying as 'little sister', the two other men also walked toward them and addressed Tang Ying as 'little sister' as well.

Chu Feng was surprised by this scene. He had truly never expected Tang Ying's older brothers to be this old. Judging by this, Tang Ying's oldest brother was over five thousands years older than her.

An age gap this enormous would simply be impossible to be spoken of as siblings in a small power. Instead, it should be the relationship of one's ancestor and one's descendant.

For example, the founder of the Azure Dragon School, the Azure Dragon Founder, was only over a thousand years old. Furthermore, if it wasn't for the treasures left behind by Qing Xuantian, he would not have been able to survive for over a millennium. After all, his cultivation was very weak.

However, Tang Ying's three older brothers had all been able to live for at least ten thousand years or longer. The reason for that was because they were all Half Martial Ancestor-level experts.

This was the disparity between cultivation realms. Not only would one's cultivation increase one's strength, it would strengthen all aspects of oneself.

As for Tang Ying's oldest brother, he was a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. He possessed the strongest strength among the Tang Family siblings.

Although he was over five thousand years old, when compared to the experts in the Holy Land of Martialism, he would be seen as extremely amazing to have been able to obtain his current level of cultivation in a mere five thousand years. In fact, he could be considered to be a martial cultivation genius.

However, Chu Feng felt that he would not be considered to be a genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. At the very most, he would be considered to be gifted.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had heard from his father that only people that possessed extraordinary heaven-defying battle power would be considered geniuses in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. An example of such would be the Heavenly Clans.

"Eldest brother, second brother, third brother, this is Chu Feng. He is the one that killed the Ghostfiend Beast."

"Not only does Chu Feng possessed overwhelming strength, he is also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. He said that he wished to help treat father's injury," Tang Ying hurriedly said.

Tang Ying's oldest brother used his deep gaze to size up Chu Feng. Then, he revealed a light smile, and said with a tone that was neither servile nor overbearing, "Nice to meet you, Brother Chu Feng. I am Tang Ying's oldest brother, Tang Long." One could tell that he was a person of experience.

"Brother Chu Feng, I am Tang Ying's second brother, Tang Hu. I have heard of you from my third brother.”

“Those two were truly insensible. I hope that you do not take their offense to heart.”

Tang Ying’s second brother also walked toward Chu Feng to speak to him. Compared to Tang Ying’s oldest brother, her second brother was much more enthusiastic and polite. By the same manner, he also appeared to be more fake.

Although Chu Feng was young, he had experienced a lot. Thus, his sense of perception was very strong. He was generally capable of distinguishing whether people were treating him with sincerity or putting on an act.

As for Tang Ying’s oldest brother and second brother, it was evident that they were not welcoming Chu Feng with sincerity.

“There’s no need to mention things that happened in the past anymore. May I have a look at the Tang Family’s Family Head?” Chu Feng asked.

“Little friend, are you really a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist?”

Right at this moment, an old man with long blonde hair who was wearing a Royal Cloak World Spiritist Cloak slowly walked out from within the depths of the sleeping chamber.

That old man’s cultivation was not very strong; he was only a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. However, he was extremely old. He was likely over ten thousand years old.

At his age, his face should be filled with wrinkles and aged spots. However, he had no such thing.

Not only did his face have no wrinkles or age spots, it was also extremely rosy, comparable to an infant’s skin. In fact, his entire body was glimmering. It was as if he was a living Immortal.

Without having others mention it, Chu Feng knew that he must be that Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist Tang Ying had spoken of, that so-called Grandmaster Kangping.

“Grandmaster Kangping, Chu Feng is truly a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist,” Tang Ying said.

“Indeed, my little sister and our Tang Family’s many guards have all experienced Brother Chu Feng’s abilities,” Tang Yong added.

“Oh?” However, that Grandmaster Kangping began to size up Chu Feng with a gaze of disbelief.

Sure enough, it was as Tang Ying had said, this Grandmaster Kangping was extremely conceited. Although his cultivation was only that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor, there was a dense amount of disdain in the gaze with which he looked to Chu Feng.

Seeing that the attitude of that Grandmaster Kangping was not good, Chu Feng did not face him with a smile either. Instead, he coldly said, “What’s this? Do I need you to inspect and verify whether or not I’m a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist?”

“Haha, there’s no need for that. Merely, little friend, this old man has trained in world spirit techniques for no less than ten thousand years.”

“Since I began to train in world spirit techniques, I have meticulously studied healing techniques. That is the reason why I ended up delaying my martial cultivation. Else, it would be impossible for me to only be a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.”

“However, my painstaking efforts were not in vain. Right now, no one in the territory governed by Luyang’s Pavilion does not know about me, Kangping.”

“While I do not dare to boast about anything else, I dare say that I, Kangping, am second to none in terms of healing others.”

“The injury to the Tang Family’s Family Head is too serious. It is not that I cannot heal him. Rather, it is that I am unable to completely heal him within a month’s time.”

“When even I am unable to cure him, little friend, are you really certain that you want to attempt to cure him?” Grandmaster Kangping said to Chu Feng.

“Just because it’s an injury that you cannot cure, does that mean that others cannot cure it too?” Chu Feng refuted.

Once Chu Feng said those words, the expression of that Grandmaster Kangping changed. A displeased expression appeared in his gaze.

However, he did not reveal his displeasure. Instead, he smiled and said, “If little friend wishes to attempt it, I will naturally not stop you.”

“Merely...” Grandmaster Kangping looked to the Tang Family’s four siblings, “your father’s injury is very serious. It has already injured his soul. I was only able to stabilize his injury through a spirit formation I’ve formed with meticulous effort. Although I am unable to cure him within a month’s time, it remains that I have preserved his life.”

“However, if someone decides to take their own initiative and destroy what I have set up, your father might end up losing his life in the process.”

“At that time, I will not take responsibility for it.”

“This...” Hearing those words, Tang Long, Tang Hu and Tang Yong all revealed difficult expressions. As it concerned their father’s life, they would naturally not dare to act recklessly.

“Brother Chu Feng, we thank you for your kind intentions.”

After hesitating for some time, Tang Long said to Chu Feng with a smile, “It is not that we are looking down on you. Merely, Grandmaster Kangping is truly someone who has great knowledge of healing techniques. Thus... I think it is better to listen to him.”

“In merely two hours, I will be able to completely cure your father. If I am unable to accomplish that, you all can do as you wish to my life,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, what are you saying? There’s no need for you to risk your life like this, no?” Hearing those words, Tang Ying was extremely shocked. She hurriedly moved toward Chu Feng and advised him against it. After all, she did not wish for Chu Feng to lose his life because of her family matters.

“Rest assured, I possess certainty of success,” Chu Feng lightly patted Tang Ying’s hand that was grabbing him. He was indicating to her to not worry.

“...” Seeing Chu Feng acting this confident, Tang Long and his brothers also revealed surprised expressions.

However, compared to Tang Yong, Tang Long and Tang Hu’s gazes contained a bit of doubt.

The two of them did not know much about Chu Feng, nor had they seen his abilities. Thus, they were uncertain as to whether Chu Feng was truly capable or whether he was boasting.

Chapter 2165 – The One Courting Death Is You

“Little friend, you are truly one who dares to say anything.”

At that moment, Grandmaster Kangping smiled coldly. Then, he turned to Tang Long and said, “Eldest Young Master Tang, although your father’s injury is unstable, I am still capable of containing it. Since this little friend is so confident, why don’t you let him give it a try?”

“Grandmaster Kangping, is it truly fine?” Tang Long revealed a difficult expression. He truly did not believe in Chu Feng.

As he was someone who had lived for thousands of years, he was naturally able to tell that Kangping wanted Chu Feng to try healing his father because he wanted Chu Feng to die. However, he did not wish to use his father as a test subject.

“Big brother, just let Chu Feng make an attempt. Or could it be that you really want me to marry into the Cao Family?”

“Right now, father is seriously injured with an injury that is hard to treat. It is the perfect timing for the Cao Family to eliminate our Tang Family.”

“Even if I am to be married off to them, it would still be very unlikely that the Cao Family will spare our Tang Family.”

“Only by improving the condition of father’s injury will our Tang Family have a chance to survive,” Tang Ying urged.

“This...” Tang Long was placed in an even more difficult situation. Thus, he entered deep contemplation. Perhaps because he felt that what Tang Ying said was very reasonable, he ended up saying to Chu Feng, “Little friend Chu Feng, please be careful.”

“Rest assured,” As Chu Feng spoke, he moved past the others and entered deeper into the sleeping chamber.

Deep inside the sleeping chamber was a special bed. That bed was formed through a combination of spirit formations and over ten thousand kinds of medicinal herbs. It was especially useful for healing injuries.

At that moment, an old man was lying on the bed. This old man barely had any hair. His entire body was filled with wrinkles and age spots. Fortunately, he was still breathing. Else, he would practically be no different from a dried corpse.

It was likely that this old man was more than ten thousand years old. Even if his injuries were capable of being cured, he would likely not be able to continue to live for long.

As for his cultivation, it was not weak at all. He was a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. This old man... was naturally the Tang Family's Family Head.

Actually, Chu Feng had been secretly observing the Tang Family's Family Head after he entered the sleeping chamber. He only said those words after he determined that he would be able to treat him.

At that moment, Chu Feng spread open his hands. Many streams of Dragon Mark Royal-level spirit power began to appear. Chu Feng was planning to begin his treatment.

After seeing Chu Feng's world spirit power, the people present, with the exception of Tang Ying, were all surprised.

The reason for that was because it was the first time for all of them to see Chu Feng unleashing his world spirit techniques. Even though they already knew that Chu Feng was a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, they remained shocked after personally seeing him in action.

After all, it was extremely rare for there to be such a young Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

Right at that moment, that Grandmaster Kangping suddenly said, “Little friend, I’ll say what must be said first. If something is to happen to the Tang Family’s Family Head, even if you wish to live, you will not be able to do so.”

Chu Feng turned around and said, “Unfortunately, my life and death is not decided by you,”

“Of course, it will not be me, but instead the people of the Tang Family,” Grandmaster Kangping said.

“Wrong,” Chu Feng smiled indifferently, “only I get to decide my life and death.”

“Oh, you’re truly arrogant.”

“If you are capable of healing the Tang Family’s Family Head, this old man shall cripple his cultivation,” Grandmaster Kangping revealed an expression of anger. He had finally completely revealed his displeasure toward Chu Feng.

“You must honor your words then,” Chu Feng said.

“I, Kangping, am always one to keep my word,” Grandmaster Kangping spoke confidently. He possessed absolute confidence that he would be able to live.

“Since you wish to cripple yourself like this, I shall help you accomplish your aim.”

Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, his hands began to move as he began to form his spirit formation. Soon, a grand spirit formation appeared and covered the entire area around Chu Feng and the Tang Family’s Family Head.

Once that spirit formation appeared, the expression of that Grandmaster Kangping changed enormously. He was shocked to discover that even he was unable to see through the spirit formation Chu Feng had set up.

Although he felt extremely unreconciled, a trace of panic appeared in his gaze.

Merely, that trace of panic persisted for merely an instant before disappearing. It was replaced with his former confidence.

Following that, the corners of Kangping's mouth rose slightly. Then, he leisurely sat on a seat to the side and began to drink his tea.

"Grandmaster Kangping, is this truly fine?" Tang Long and his brothers asked nervously.

"Humph, how would I know," Kangping sneered. Although he said it like that, it could be determined from his confident gaze that he firmly believed that Chu Feng would definitely fail.

"Tang Ying, I'll say the unpleasant words first. If something is to happen to father, do not blame me, your older brother, for being rude toward your friend," Tang Long said to Tang Ying fiercely.

At the same time, Tang Hu and even Tang Yong began to send voice transmissions to Tang Ying.

They were all trying to shift their responsibility. Like that, even if something were to happen to their father, they would not have to shoulder any blame.

At that moment, Tang Ying became increasingly nervous.

She was not afraid that her older brothers would punish her. Rather, she was afraid that Chu Feng would fail. If Chu Feng failed, then, with the temperament of her three older brothers, they might really end up killing Chu Feng.

Although Chu Feng possessed a special status, it remained that the Tang Family was faced with a great enemy and on the brink of a crisis.

Under these sort of circumstances, the people of the Tang Family would not have any apprehensions. They were extremely bold. Even if Chu Feng was someone from a Heavenly Clan, if Chu Feng were to truly harm their father, they would not spare him.

Under those sort of circumstances, Tang Ying felt that time was dragging past. This short period of two hours felt like multiple days to her. It was a torture to her psyche.

Fortunately, after a period of one hour finally passed. The spirit formation that covered the surroundings was also lifted.

When the spirit formation was lifted, the crowd present all revealed surprised expressions.

Not only was Chu Feng standing there, even the Tang Family's Family Head was standing there. Furthermore, the Tang Family's Family Head was radiating health and vigor; how could he possibly resemble someone that had been seriously injured?

Needless to say, they had guessed wrong. Their father had managed to recover. Chu Feng had succeeded.

“Damn it!” At the moment when the people from the Tang Family were rejoicing, that Grandmaster Kangping's expression changed. He turned around and tried to escape.

“Woosh~~~”

However, before he could escape, a figure blocked his path. It was Chu Feng.

“Grandmaster Kangping, didn't you say that you would honor your words?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

“You are courting death!”

Grandmaster Kangping flipped his wrist and revealed an Imperial Armament. With frightening Ancestral-level martial power, he thrust his Imperial Armament at Chu Feng's dantian.

That ferocious killing intent caused the surrounding space to shatter. He was not only planning to cripple Chu Feng's cultivation, he was planning to kill Chu Feng.

However, not to mention the Ancestral-level martial power, even if that Imperial Armament were to directly land onto Chu Feng's body, it would not be able to cause Chu Feng any harm.

Chu Feng was like an impenetrable wall; even grand Imperial Armaments would not be able to penetrate his body. In fact, they would not even be able to cut through his clothing.

“The one courting death is you.”

Suddenly, coldness flashed through Chu Feng’s eyes as his oppressive might swept forth. “Boom,” that Grandmaster Kangping was knocked flying. Then, he firmly crashed into the palace wall.

Chu Feng’s attack was truly ruthless. When Kangping fell to the ground, his body was covered completely with blood, and his health was so weak that he was only a breath away from death.

“Brother Chu Feng, what are you doing? Grandmaster Kangping is our guest,” Seeing this scene, the three Tang Family brothers all started to panic.

Especially Tang Long and Tang Hu. Their bodies shifted, and they arrived before Kangping, blocking him. They were afraid that Chu Feng would attack Kangping again.

As for what Grandmaster Kangping had said earlier, they did not take it to heart. After all, many people already knew that they had invited Grandmaster Kangping to heal their father. If Grandmaster Kangping were to die in their Tang Family, it would ruin their Tang Family’s reputation once the news spread.

Furthermore, in addition to their own interests, Grandmaster Kangping was also a good friend to the Tang Family’s Family Head.

With how special their relationship was, they would naturally not let Chu Feng kill Kangping.

“What am I doing? He wished to kill me, are you saying that I shouldn’t kill him?” Chu Feng spoke coldly.

“Even if he is in the wrong, you shouldn’t be this ruthless,” Tang Long spoke very furiously.

However, right at that moment, an angry shout sounded. “Shut up! You unfilial sons, how could you speak to little friend Chu Feng this rudely?” That shout caused the entire sleeping chamber to tremble violently. It was the Tang Family’s Family Head.

“Father, you!!!” The three Tang brothers were bewildered by how their father was standing on Chu Feng’s side and berating them.

In fact, it was not only the three brothers that were confused; even Tang Ying revealed a puzzled expression.

They all knew very well that Grandmaster Kangping possessed an extraordinary relationship with their father, that they were close friends of many years.

Even if Chu Feng had cured their father’s injury, with the relationship their father had with Kangping, their father should be speaking on Kangping’s behalf.

So, why was he speaking on Chu Feng’s behalf?

Chapter 2166 – Jackals Of The Same Tribe

---

“Kangping, I have considered you my friend in vain. Never would I have expected that you would go and help the Cao Family harm me like this,” Just when the four siblings were puzzled, the Tang Family’s Family Head turned his ferocious gaze toward Grandmaster Kangping.

“Grandmaster Kangping, you... exactly what did you do to my father?”

Hearing those words, the expressions of Tang Long and Tang Hu changed immediately. They were already able to determine that the situation was amiss from what their father just said. They drew their weapons and pointed them at Grandmaster Kangping.

At the same time, seemingly as if they had heard the commotion in the area, a large group of Half Martial Ancestor-level guards from the Tang Family rushed in. They all drew their weapons and aimed them at Kangping as well.

One thing worthy of mention was that the Tang Family’s eldest son, Tang Long, was not using an Imperial Armament. Rather, his weapon was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

Although it was not an excellent quality weapon, being inferior to the Magma Emperor Sword that Chu Feng had refined, it remained an actual Incomplete Ancestral Armament. The might of his weapon greatly surpassed that of Imperial Armaments.

“Hahaha, since you all have discovered it, I will no longer conceal it either.”

“The Cao Family has already guessed that you will definitely come to find me should you want to heal your injuries. Thus, the Cao Family found me a step earlier.”

“What I must do is very simple: I merely need not heal your injuries,” Grandmaster Kangping said.

“Not heal his injury? Is it really that simple?” Chu Feng sneered, “You used tricks to make the Tang Family’s Family Head enter a deep state of unconsciousness, losing all ability to fight.”

“Furthermore, you placed many poisonous formations inside his body at the location of his injury. If someone else were to attempt to heal his injury and accidentally triggered those hidden poisonous formations, they would cause the death of the Tang Family’s Family Head.”

“As for the reason why you refused to let me heal the Tang Family’s Family Head earlier, it was because of your ego as a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. You thought that your medical expertise would be insulted should I be allowed to treat him.”

“As for why you decided to allow me to treat the Tang Family’s Family Head later, it was because you wanted to borrow my hands to kill the Tang Family’s Family Head. Like that, you would also be able to eliminate me, who you despised, and thus kill two birds with one stone.”

“However, you must not have thought that I had already seen through all the things that you did. before I even began treatment of the Tang Family’s Family Head. I had already planned on how to undo the hidden poisonous formations and the other tricks you’d done to the Tang Family’s Family Head, as well as how to heal the Tang Family’s Family Head. Two hours just happened to be enough time to accomplish all of that.”

After Chu Feng said those words, the eyes of the crowd present all shone. They did not expect that Chu Feng had actually seen through everything.

“It was indeed all thanks to little friend Chu Feng. Else, I’m afraid that this old man’s life would sooner or later, have ended by your hands,” The Tang Family’s Family Head was also filled with gratefulness.

“Bastard, if it wasn’t for you, this old man’s plan would’ve succeeded,” Suddenly, coldness flashed through Kangping’s eyes. He actually planned to attack Chu Feng.

“Puu~~~”

“Puu~~~”

However, right after he unleashed his killing intent, before he could even attack, two streams of blood squirted out of his body.

It was the brothers Tang Long and Tang Hu. The two men had both pierced through Kangping’s body with their respective weapons, nailing him to the wall.

“Haha, humans will die for riches just as birds will die for food, go ahead and kill me,” Sensing that he would not be able to escape, Kangping did not beg for forgiveness, and instead burst into loud laughter.

“I have considered you a senior in vain. For you to harm my father like this, even killing you would not be able to alleviate the hatred in my heart.”

“I must properly torment you first,” After Tang Long said those words, the Incomplete Ancestral Armament in his hand trembled. As a strange power entered Kangping, he began to scream miserably, as if his heart and lungs were being split open.

“Long’er, it’s enough. Although he was heartless toward me, I cannot be unrighteous toward him. Considering our many years of friendship, let him die comfortably,” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

“Tang Haichuan, enough of your pretended righteousness. Don’t you think that I do not know what you did in the Immemorial Beast’s remnant. If it wasn’t for you, I...”

“Boom~~~”

Before Kangping could finish his words, his body exploded into a mist of blood.

He was killed. Not by the brothers Tang Long and Tang Hu. Rather, he was killed by the Tang Family's Family Head.

“Truly one who refuses the face that is given to him,” After killing Kangping, the Tang Family's Family Head said those words fiercely.

Seeing this scene, the three Tang Family brothers all revealed unrestrained expressions. They all felt that Kangping should be killed.

However, Tang Ying revealed a face filled with shock. She was confused, because her father seemed to have implied that he would leave Kangping an intact corpse earlier. Yet, he had then personally shattered Kangping's body.

At that moment, although there was no change in Chu Feng's expression on the surface, in his heart, he had a whole new understanding of the Tang Family's Family Head.

It was clear that the Kangping had not secretly attacked the Tang Family's Family Head without reason.

It was very possible that the Tang Family's Family Head had done something to wrong Kangping years ago, causing Kangping to harbor hard feelings against him. Then when the Tang Family's Family Head was seriously injured, and the Cao Family was willing to back him, he found the opportunity to take revenge against the Tang Family's Family Head.

From this, it could be seen that the Tang Family's Family Head was not a good fellow either. Compared to that Kangping, they were simply jackals of the same tribe.

However, even with this being the case, Chu Feng still had to save the Tang Family's Family Head for Tang Ying's sake.

“You three, why are you still standing here? Go and apologize to little friend Chu Feng immediately. If it wasn't for little friend Chu Feng, I would've been killed by that Kangping."

"And you three, you were actually stopping little friend Chu Feng from treating me earlier. You all are simply fools out-and-out," The Tang Family's Family Head berated the three Tang brothers angrily.

"Father, we were foolish."

"Brother Chu Feng, please forgive us for our rudeness earlier," Tang Long and his brothers all had ashamed expressions on their faces. They first admitted their wrongs to their father, then bowed and apologized to Chu Feng.

"It's fine, your actions were all understandable," Chu Feng said with a light smile.

"Little friend Chu Feng, it is truly all thanks to you this time around. If it wasn't for you, it would not only be me, instead, likely our entire Tang Family would have..." The Tang Family's Family Head sighed.

"Little friend Chu Feng, for you to be able to have your cultivation and exquisite world spirit techniques at such a young age, may I know which Heavenly Clan managed to nurture such an outstanding genius like yourself?" The Tang Family's Family Head asked.

"If I were to tell you that I do not belong to a clan, would you believe me?" Chu Feng asked instead of answering.

"Haha, of course. Why would I not believe you?" The Tang Family's Family Head burst into laughter. He naturally knew that Chu Feng was not speaking the truth. However, he also understood that Chu Feng did not wish to tell him which Heavenly Clan he was from. Thus, being tactful, he did not continue to ask.

"That said, little friend Chu Feng, not only have you saved my life, your actions are equivalent to saving our entire Tang Family. As such, I must thank you properly."

“What is it that you wish? Go ahead and tell me without any hesitation. As long as it is something that our Tang Family possesses, I will definitely provide you with it,” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

“It would do if you could provide me with some more Demon Subduing Spring Water,” Chu Feng said.

“Demon Subduing Spring Water?” The Tang Family’s Family Head was startled by those words. He was confused as to why Chu Feng would need something like that.

Although the Demon Subduing Spring Water was precious, it remained only capable of being used against the demonic woman, and not much else.

“Father, it’s like this...” Seeing that, Tang Ying stepped forward to explain why Chu Feng needed Demon Subduing Spring Water to her father.

“Since that’s the case, why are you all still standing here? Quickly, go and order people to prepare the Demon Subduing Spring Water,” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

In response, a guard clasp his fist and reported, “Master, actually, we have already prepared the Demon Subduing Spring Water that Young Miss had us prepare. Merely, we did not dare to bring it into your sleeping chamber, and were waiting for Young Miss to receive it.”

“Quickly, have it delivered here,” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

Then, a guard walked in. He held a special bottle in his hand. Chu Feng received the bottle and opened it to look. Sure enough, there was special spring water inside it.

Although it was the first time he had seen this sort of spring water, he felt that it should be the Demon Subduing Spring Water.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt joy in his heart. He finally saw some hope to save Wang Qiang's life.

Chapter 2167 – Chu Feng, Quickly, Escape

---

“Thanks,” Chu Feng received the Demon Subduing Spring Water and expressed his thanks to the Tang Family’s Family Head. Then, he turned to Tang Ying and said, “I will go and eliminate that demonic woman first. After that, I will return and uphold my promise to be your bodyguard for a month.”

“Tang Long, Tang Hu, prepare men to help little friend Chu Feng eliminate that demonic woman,” The Tang Family’s Family Head ordered.

“There’s no need for that. I myself am sufficient,” Chu Feng said. The way he saw it, other than the Tang Family’s Family Head, no one in the Tang Family was stronger than him.

As for the Tang Family’s Family head, he would definitely stay to oversee the Tang Family. As such, it would be impossible for him to go and assist Chu Feng in eliminating that demonic woman. Thus, rather than bringing a bunch of burdens with him, it would be better for Chu Feng to go alone.

“Merely, little friend Chu Feng, for you to go alone, I fear...” The Tang Family’s Family Head was worried.

“Father, please rest assured. Chu Feng was able to kill even the Ghostfiend Beast. No matter how strong that demonic woman might be, she would not necessarily be a match for Chu Feng,” Tang Ying declared proudly.

“Oh?” Hearing that, the Tang Family Family Head revealed a surprised gaze. Although the people from Heavenly Clans were all very powerful, he evidently had not expected Chu Feng to be so powerful that he could even kill a Ghostfiend Beast. After all, he also knew that Ghostfiend Beasts were extraordinary existences.

“Since that’s the case, then, little friend Chu Feng, I wish you luck on your journey,” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

When this old man saw the Tang Family’s Family Head after rushing in, he immediately revealed an overjoyed expression. Happiness appeared on his panicking face.

“Master, y-y-you’ve actually recovered? This is truly great! Even the Heavens are looking out for our Tang Family!” said that old man.

The Tang Family’s Family Head noticed that something was amiss. Thus, he asked, “What happened?”

“Master, the Cao Family has refused to comply with their agreement. They have led their army to attack us before the promised time. Right now, the Cao Family’s army is already outside the city; they have already sealed off our Tang Family, and are planning to besiege the city,” The old man reported.

“What?!” Hearing those words, the crowd present all revealed surprised expressions.

“Rumble~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

.....

.....

Right at that moment, rumbles began to sound from outside. Someone was attacking the Tang Family’s defensive formation.

Chu Feng immediately activated his Heaven’s Eyes. After he looked outside, he discovered that a dense amount of people had already entered the city. From all directions, they had tightly sealed off the Tang Family.

There were a lot of experts among them. Especially the leading old man; his age was about the same as the Tang Family’s Family Head. He was an extremely thin old man.

Not only was this old man thin, his stature was also very short and small. His height was only around a hundred and sixty centimeters. He was shorter than even ordinary women.

However, this old man's eyes gave off a shrewd light. Furthermore, he emitted the powerful oppressive might of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Without even having others introduce him, Chu Feng was able to guess that that old man must be the Cao Family's Family Head.

At that moment, that Cao Family's Family Head was unleashing nonstop attacks at the Tang Family's defensive formation.

The might of an Incomplete Ancestral Armament being used by him, a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, could be said to be extremely frightening. Cracks had already started to appear in the Tang Family's defensive formation; it would soon be destroyed.

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion sounded. The Cao Family's Family Head had managed to shatter the Tang Family's defensive formation.

After destroying the defensive formation, the Cao Family's Family Head shouted, “Soldiers of the Cao Family, listen up. Kill all the people from the Tang Family!!!”

“Yes Milord!!!”

Following his shout, an elite army of several tens of thousands entered the Tang Family's territory following the Cao Family's Family Head.

Their oppressive Ancestral-level oppressive might arrived before them. Countless palaces and towers were shattered by their oppressive might. In merely an instant, thousands of people from the Tang Family were killed.

In response, the Tang Family's Family Head shouted, “All those from the Tang Family that are alive, prepare to face the enemy!!!”

Then, he soared into the air and charged into the sky.

“Tang Haichuan? You’re actually fine?” The people from the Cao Family were shocked by the appearance of the Tang Family’s Family Head.

“Unfaithful vile bastard, did you consider the promise of a month’s time to be fart?!” The Tang Family’s Family Head’s anger was overwhelming. As he cursed at the Cao Family’s Family Head, he held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and charged to attack the Cao Family’s Family Head.

At the same time, the elites from the Tang Family also soared into the air and collided with the Cao Family’s army.

“Unfaithful? You are the one who decided to violate the marriage agreement first. Yet you dare to say that I am unfaithful? How shameless can you be?” The Cao Family’s Family Head said coldly.

“Do you not fear Zhao Chengxing?” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

“Hahaha. You’re talking about Zhao Chengxing, that man who mounted a sneak attack against you and left you with a serious injury?”

“Truth be told, the reason why I dared to come and attack your Tang Family is because I have already eliminated him.”

“Today, your Tang Family shall be eliminated,” Once the Cao Family’s Family Head declared that, the void started to tremble. It was as if he was completely confident that he would be able to eliminate the Tang Family.

“What shameless boasting!!!” The Tang Family’s Family Head was so enraged that his complexion turned red. At the same time, his attacks grew more and more ferocious.

However, the Cao Family’s Family Head was not afraid in the slightest. As the two men fought, their attacks engulfed their surroundings. The others simply did not dare to approach them.

“Brother Chu Feng, I’m sorry to inconvenience you, but please protect my little sister. If you are able to find an opportunity, please bring her away from here.”

“Please!” After Tang Long said those words to Chu Feng, he soared into the sky and joined the battle.

“Chu Feng, what should we do?” Tang Ying looked at Chu Feng with a panicky expression.

“Don’t panic, your Tang Family will not necessarily be defeated,” Chu Feng said.

“Really?” Tang Ying felt disbelief.

“I have already observed the situation. Although the Cao Family is very strong, your Tang Family is not weak either. In the amount of people and overall strength, your Tang Family is equally matched with the Cao Family. Thus, your Tang Family might not necessarily be defeated,” Chu Feng said.

“But, according to our reliable sources, the strength of the Cao Family should surpass that of our Tang Family,” Tang Ying still felt disbelief.

“There’s only one explanation for this. That is, the Cao Family has really taken care of your father’s old friend before coming to attack the Tang Family. This is why their strength has suffered some damage,” Chu Feng said.

“Clap, clap, clap, clap, clap~~~”

“Not bad, your analysis is very good.”

“However, as long as I am here, the Tang Family will definitely be defeated.”

Right at that moment, the sound of clapping was heard. Following that, an indifferent voice was heard.

This person was wearing the outfit of the Cao Family. He had the appearance of a young man. However, Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that this man had lived for at least several hundred years.

This man's cultivation was not weak either; he was a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, his aura was much stronger than that of ordinary rank four Half Martial Ancestors; he was an existence that possessed heaven-defying battle power. Although his heaven-defying battle power was only capable of surmounting one level of cultivation, he remained stronger than ordinary Half Martial Ancestors.

“What arrogance,” Chu Feng laughed mockingly. Although his opponent was a rank four Half Martial Ancestor that possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting one level of cultivation, Chu Feng did not place him in his eyes at all.

Although Chu Feng was not afraid, Tang Ying turned pale with fear after seeing that man. She began to step back repeatedly. It was as if she had just seen a demon. Chu Feng was able to sense that Tang Ying was shivering from head to toe.

“Haha, it would seem that you do not know who I am,” That man laughed out loud.

“I could care less who you are,” Chu Feng said.

“Hahaha, you are truly young and ignorant,” That man was not angered by Chu Feng's words. Instead, with a smile on his face, he looked to Tang Ying, “Tang Ying, tell this ignorant fool exactly who I am.”

After hearing those words, Tang Ying suddenly pushed Chu Feng away and shouted, “Chu Feng, quickly, escape. Do not concern yourself with me.”

Chapter 2168 – Huge Change In Expression

---

Chu Feng was surprised by the intense reaction from Tang Ying. He realized that this man seemed to be truly extraordinary.

However, Chu Feng remained calm and collected. With a smile on his face, he said to Tang Ying, “Have you forgotten that I am your bodyguard? How could I abandon you?”

“But... Chu Feng,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Tang Ying immediately revealed a touched expression. However, she was still worried about Chu Feng.

“There’s no but. Regardless of who it is, as long as they pose a threat to you, I will protect you from them,” Chu Feng said.

“Oh, this is truly a story of love. It is no wonder that Tang Ying would refuse to marry into our Cao Family. It turns out that she has an affair with her bodyguard,” The man sneered. However, Chu Feng noticed dense killing intent in that man’s smiling gaze.

“You’re still here? It would seem that you are truly planning to die by my hands,” Chu Feng’s eyes narrowed, revealing a dense amount of chilliness.

In a battle between two armies, the soldiers would fight for their own masters. Although this man was smiling, daggers were hidden in his smile.

Chu Feng had already sensed his killing intent; that man was determined to kill Chu Feng. Thus, there was no need for Chu Feng to act leniently toward someone like him. Even if he wanted to escape, Chu Feng would not allow him to escape.

“Yoh, what shameless boasting. No matter what, I am a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Where did you, a mere rank one Half Martial Ancestor, obtain the courage to hoot at me like that?” Finally, mockery appeared in that man’s smile.

“Rank one Half Martial Ancestor? Are you certain of that?” As Chu Feng spoke, lightning flashed in his eyes. As lightning serpents intertwined with one another, his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared. At the same time, Chu Feng's aura increased from that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor to that of a rank three Half Martial Ancestor instantly.

“You're someone from the Heavenly Clans?” The man's expression changed to one of surprise upon seeing Chu Feng's current appearance.

However, his surprised expression persisted for merely a moment. Soon, he smiled again, “Since you're from the Heavenly Clans, it would mean that you possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. In other words, your true battle power is on par with ordinary rank six Half Martial Ancestors. No wonder you're this confident.”

“However, it would appear that you might not have known that I have killed people from the Heavenly Clans before too. Thus, do not think that I will spare you just because you're from the Heavenly Clans.”

“For you must know that I am the Third Young Master of the Cao Family, the renowned Cao Yuxuan!!!”

When he spoke that last sentence, that man suddenly started to shout his words. His voice spread through the entire Tang Family. Even the people outside the city heard his voice.

“It's really him! Why would he be here?” After the crowd used their various methods to verify the status of the man far away from them, their expressions became even uglier.

Noticing the reaction from the people of the Tang Family, Chu Feng felt that the situation was amiss. Thus, he turned to Tang Ying and asked, “Tang Ying, tell me about this Cao Yuxuan.”

“Chu Feng, Cao Yuxuan is the Cao Family’s third son. He is a Divine Body. Although he is a rank four Half Martial Ancestor, he possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting one level of cultivation. Furthermore, his Divine Power is capable of increasing his cultivation by another level. Thus, his actual battle power is that of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.”

“He is the strongest genius to appear in the Cao Family in the past twenty thousand years. My eldest brother fought against him before. However, he was defeated from a single strike.”

“Most importantly, he is part of Luyang’s Pavilion, one of the three personal disciples of Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master. Even in Luyang’s Pavilion, he possesses an extremely high status. Even my father does not dare to act rudely toward him.”

“Originally, he should have been in closed-door training in Luyang’s Pavilion. Furthermore, he also declared that he would not participate in the struggle between the Tang Family and the Cao Family.”

“However, it is evident that he has gone against what he had declared before and is planning to participate in this struggle.”

“But... with his special status, practically no one would dare to fight against him. I’m afraid that our Tang Family will...”

“Chu Feng, quickly escape from here. You are unrelated to our battle to begin with. I do not want you to be implicated,” Tang Ying said.

“Are the people of your Tang Family actually stupid?” Black lines filled Chu Feng’s forehead.

When the Cao Family possessed such a trump card, their Tang Family should have given in to them sooner. Yet, the Tang Family did not do that, and even believed that this Cao Yuxuan would not participate in his family’s battle.

How could that possibly be real? One must know that that was his family. How could he disregard the life and death of his family? How could he not use his special status?

At that moment, Chu Feng had no choice but to admire the intelligence of the Tang Family. The reason for that was because the overall intelligence of the Tang Family was truly low.

It was no wonder they were so passive in all respects in the battle against the Cao Family, no wonder they have ended up in such a state.

“But, Luyang’s Pavilion has never participated in this sort of thing. Who would’ve thought that Cao Yuxuan would...?” Tang Ying said with grievances.

“Fool, Cao Yuxuan is part of the Cao Family. How could he disregard the life and death of the Cao Family?” Chu Feng said with an expression of helplessness.

“Yoh, judging from your tone, it seems that you’re afraid?”

“If you’re scared, you can scram right now. I will spare your life.”

“However, rest assured, even if you are to scram right now, I will also not kill Tang Ying.”

“No matter what, Tang Ying was the fiancée of my younger brother. Although our Cao Family will not take her as our bride again, we will also not kill her.”

“I will bring her to our Cao Family as a slave, and make her the plaything of our Cao Family’s servants.”

“Tang Ying, I will let you know the consequences of breaking the marriage agreement,” Cao Yuxuan stared at Tang Ying with a beaming smile. Coldness filled his gaze.

“Are you done speaking?” Chu Feng asked calmly.

“So what if I have, and what if I haven’t?” Cao Yuxuan said.

“If you are done, it is time to send you on your way. If you are not, I will give you time to say some more.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng moved. With a flip of his palm, he directly unleashed his Magma Emperor Sword. Then, he charged toward Cao Yuxuan to attack him.

“Come, arrogant Heavenly Clansman. Today, I will let you know that the people of the Heavenly Clans are not unequalled.”

With a loud shout from Cao Yuxuan, blue gaseous substances began to spread from his body.

After the blue gaseous substance appeared, it turned into a blue dagger that hovered above Cao Yuxuan’s forehead. At that moment, Cao Yuxuan’s aura began to rapidly increase. His cultivation increased to that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor.

“Haah!!!”

Cao Yuxuan then flipped his palm, and a giant silver axe appeared in his hand; It was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

“Boom~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng collided with Cao Yuxuan.

The battle between the two men caught the attention of practically everyone from the Tang Family and the Cao Family. Even the two Family Heads that were going all-out to kill one another would take glances at the battle between Chu Feng and Cao Yuxuan from time to time.

After all, Cao Yuxuan possessed a special status and powerful strength. He brought fear to the people of the Tang Family.

As for Chu Feng, his status of a member of the Heavenly Clans also caught the attention of the people from the Cao Family.

If he were someone else, they would not be afraid. However, as he was someone from the Heavenly Clans, they would, to a greater or lesser degree, feel fear.

“I truly never expected that you all would be able to request the assistance of someone from the Heavenly Clans,” The Cao Family’s Family Head said.

“Are you afraid now? The Heavenly Clans are not something that your mere Cao Family can offend,” The Tang Family’s Family Head said.

“Hahaha, our Cao Family would naturally not dare to offend the Heavenly Clans. However, our Yuxuan is able to.”

“Don’t forget that our Yuxuan is someone that has killed people from the Heavenly Clans before. After all, behind him is Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master,” The Cao Family’s Family Head said proudly.

“That little friend is surnamed Chu, are you not afraid that he might be from the Chu Heavenly Clan?” The Tang Family’s Family Head asked.

“Ridiculous! The Chu Heavenly Clan is that noble, how could your mere Tang Family be able to request their help?”

“Cao Haichuan, do not be carried away with your wishful thinking. Today, you will be killed by me, and your Tang Family will be eliminated by my Cao Family.”

“Even that Heavenly Clan brat will be killed by my son, Cao Yuxuan. All of you will be killed,” The Cao Family’s Family Head said ruthlessly.

Furthermore, the Cao Family’s Family Head spoke those words very loudly. Practically everyone heard his words.

After hearing his words, the people from the Cao Family fought even more vigorously. At that moment, they started to overwhelm the Tang Family.

Evidently, their morale was strengthened by their Family Head’s words. They felt that they would definitely win today.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right at that moment, a loud explosion was heard.

After hearing that loud explosion, everyone turned their gaze to the battle between Chu Feng and Cao Yuxuan.

“This... this is impossible!!!”

Upon seeing the scene, the expressions of the crowd all changed enormously. They were all stunned.

Chapter 2169 – You’re Mistaken

If one must describe what had happened, then all the people that were able to see what was happening over at Chu Feng’s side were all stunned.

This was especially true for the Cao Family’s Family Head. As he was absolutely confident in his son, it was even more difficult for him to accept the truth before him.

Cao Yuxuan, the pride of their Cao Family, had been defeated. He had only fought Chu Feng for a short moment, but had already been defeated.

Just then, he had collapsed onto the ground. The Incomplete Ancestral Armament he had held in his hand before was currently in Chu Feng’s grasp. However, he was unable to take back his Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

The reason for that was because not only was he covered in blood, his aura was also extremely weak, and his body was shivering nonstop. He had completely lost his ability to fight.

The only thing that he could do was stare at Chu Feng fiercely.

“If I knew that you were this useless, I would not have gone all-out from the very beginning.”

“You have truly disappointed me,” Chu Feng was saying what he was really feeling.

After hearing how Tang Ying had described Cao Yuxuan, and seeing the reaction from the crowd, Chu Feng had truly thought that this Cao Yuxuan before him was an exceptional genius with overwhelming strength.

Thus, Chu Feng did not wish to waste time on him, and also did not want to be careless against him. Therefore, he had unleashed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament from the very beginning, and also used his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

However, the result was that while the two fighters both possessed heaven-defying battle power on par with rank six Half Martial Ancestors, Chu Feng managed to easily triumph over Cao Yuxuan.

“Cao Yuxuan was actually defeated?!”

At that moment, the crowd finally came to believe what they were seeing. One by one, they revealed a whole new level of respect as they looked to Chu Feng again.

This was especially true for the people in the Tang Family; they had truly never expected that Chu Feng would be this powerful, so powerful that he could defeat Cao Yuxuan.

As both of their families served Luyang’s Pavilion, they both knew very well how powerful Cao Yuxuan was. Cao Yuxuan was practically unequaled among those of the same battle power.

Back then, their Tang Family’s Eldest Young Master had fought against that Cao Yuxuan, only to suffer a crushing defeat by his hand.

Their Eldest Young Master was someone that had trained in martial cultivation for over five thousand years. Yet, Cao Yuxuan was someone who had only trained in martial cultivation for several hundred years. From this, it could be seen how enormous the disparity between the two men’s talent was.

If the appearance of Cao Yuxuan had caused the people from the Tang Family to become extremely depressed, then Cao Yuxuan’s defeat by Chu Feng’s hands had lifted the spirits of the people from the Tang Family by the same extreme degree.

Instantly, all kinds of noises began to resound nonstop. There were even those from the Tang Family that were bold enough to start insulting Cao Yuxuan, saying that he was not up to much either.

Cao Yuxuan was burning with fury as he shouted while pointing at Chu Feng, “Damned bastard, return my Incomplete Ancestral Armament!!!”

“Do you know what is meant by spoils of war? This Incomplete Ancestral Armament is my spoil of war from defeating you,” As Chu Feng spoke, he smeared the Incomplete Ancestral Armament with his palm.

“Puu...” Immediately, Cao Yuxuan vomited out a mouthful of blood. Immediately after, his aura became even weaker. He appeared like someone on the verge of dying.

“You damned bastard! You dared to sever my connection with my Incomplete Ancestral Armament! I will kill you!!!” Using all his strength, Cao Yuxuan stood up and pounced toward Chu Feng.

However, how could the current him be a match for Chu Feng? Chu Feng raised his leg and kicked. “Bang,” Cao Yuxuan was kicked to the ground.

Then, Chu Feng held his Magma Emperor Sword and pointed it at Cao Yuxuan’s dantian. While looking in the direction of the Cao Family’s Family Head, he shouted, “Cao Family, immediately surrender yourselves without fighting. Else, I will kill your Cao Family’s Third Young Master.”

“Delusional,” The Cao Family’s Family Head said.

“Puu~~~”

Chu Feng waved the Magma Emperor Sword he held in his hand and hacked off one of Cao Yuxuan’s arms.

“Ahhh!!!”

With his arm hacked off, Cao Yuxuan let out a miserable scream. He screamed so miserably in pain not only because of the pain he felt from losing his arm. Rather, Chu Feng’s slash caused even his soul to suffer damage. An unbearable pain was tormenting him from the place where he had lost his arm.

“I’ll kill you!!!”

Seeing that Chu Feng had actually attacked his son, the Cao Family’s Family Head immediately surged with overwhelming killing intent. He moved his palm and gathered boundless Ancestral-level martial power with the intention of attacking Chu Feng.

However, right after his Ancestral-level martial power was gathered, another surge of Ancestral-level martial power appeared and blocked it. It was the Tang Family’s Family Head.

“Little friend Chu Feng is our Tang Family’s honored guest, how could I allow your Cao Family to injure him?” The Tang Family’s Family Head spoke coldly.

“Tang Haichuan, if something is to happen to my son, even without my Cao Family doing anything, Luyang’s Pavilion will definitely eliminate your Tang Family,” The Cao Family’s Family Head roared angrily.

Hearing those words, the Tang Family’s Family Head’s expression changed slightly. He naturally knew of Cao Yuxuan’s special status. While their Tang Family could kill anyone from the Cao Family, Cao Yuxuan was someone that they absolutely could not kill.

Merely, if they were to allow the Cao Family to attack Chu Feng, their Tang Family would likely also be unable to escape from a calamity after Chu Feng’s death. At that moment, the Tang Family’s Family Head was stuck between a rock and a hard place.

“The person that injured your son is me, Chu Feng. The one that is tormenting your son is also me, Chu Feng.”

“This matter is unrelated to the Tang Family. If you wish for revenge, aim it at me, Chu Feng. I, Chu Feng, will keep you company at any time,” Chu Feng spoke loudly.

“Chu Feng, you...”

At that moment, not to mention Tang Ying, the rest of the people from the Tang Family also revealed surprised expressions.

They had truly never expected Chu Feng to be such an upright and loyal individual. He actually planned to shoulder all the responsibility himself.

“Ahh~~~”

Right at that moment, Cao Yuxuan let out another miserable scream. Chu Feng had actually hacked off his other arm.

“Bastard! Do you know who my son is?! He a personal disciple of Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master!”

“You dared to injure him! You will definitely have to bear the consequences of your actions!” The Cao Family’s Family Head shouted.

“Is Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master that amazing?” Chu Feng sneered. If it were another power, Chu Feng might be scared.

However, that Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master was a person from the Chu Heavenly Clan. Chu Feng possessed resentment toward the Chu Heavenly Clan to begin with.

Furthermore, after he knew about the conduct and deeds of that Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master, Chu Feng felt great antipathy toward him.

Thus, while using the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master to threaten others might do, it was completely useless against Chu Feng.

“You are called Chu Feng, right? Let me ask you, are you someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan?” The Cao Family’s Family Head asked.

“No,” Chu Feng answered without the slightest hesitation. The reason for that was because he was truly not a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan right now.

“There we go. I knew that you wouldn’t be.”

“However, I believe that you should know what sort of existence the Chu Heavenly Clan is. They are rulers from the Upper Realm!”

“Regardless of which Heavenly Clan you might be from, you will never be able to compare to the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan. As for the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master, he is someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan,” The Cao Family’s Family Head declared.

“Haha...” Chu Feng laughed. He truly never expected for the Chu Heavenly Clan to have such a grand reputation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

If he were still someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan, perhaps he would truly have much fewer obstructions should he announce the title of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

However, he could not. After all, he was someone who had been discarded by the Chu Heavenly Clan, someone driven out of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

It was precisely because of that Chu Feng felt it to be very laughable. He was laughing at himself for being so lamentable.

At the same time as he felt pity for himself, Chu Feng’s heart surged with resentment, resentment toward the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Right at that moment, Cao Yuxuan began to threaten Chu Feng while gnashing his teeth angrily. “Continue laughing, there will be a day when you cannot laugh anymore.”

“Brat, I will give you two options. You can either kneel, kowtow and apologize right now, and I might be in a good mood and consider sparing your life.”

“Else, you can go and kill me right away. However, my master will definitely not spare you. Not only will you die, all those around you will die too.”

“At that time, you will come to regret, regret everything that you’ve done today. Unfortunately, there is no medicine for regret.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s eyebrows narrowed. He did not expect that Cao Yuxuan, a fish on the chopping block, would dare to threaten him like this.

This caused Chu Feng to become very furious. He was very furious because this guy only dared to act this arrogantly because he was relying on a single scum from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

“Did you think that I wouldn’t dare kill you?” Chu Feng pointed the Magma Emperor Sword at Cao Yuxuan.

“If you truly consider the consequences, you will definitely not dare,” Cao Yuxuan said fiercely. His eyes were emitting absolute confidence.

“Bang~~~”

However, right after his words left his mouth, the Magma Emperor Sword pierced downward. The sword penetrated his heart and let out overwhelming Ancestral might. As flame surged forth from the sword, Cao Yuxuan was turned to ash instantly. He had been utterly killed.

“It would appear that you were mistaken,” Chu Feng said coldly.

Chapter 2170 – Treachery

---

Seeing that Chu Feng had actually killed Cao Yuxuan, everyone revealed stunned expressions. Regardless of whether they were people from the Tang Family or the Cao Family, they all stood there blankly.

At that moment, it was as if space itself had frozen.

Tang Ying, who stood behind Chu Feng, was so frightened by Chu Feng's action that her face turned pale and her mouth opened wide.

“Noo!!!!!!!”

After a moment of silence, the Cao Family's Family Head let out a hysterical and painful snarl.

After all, Cao Yuxuan was the most outstanding genius to have appeared in the Cao Family in many years. Practically everyone from the Cao Family had placed their hopes onto Cao Yuxuan. They all hoped that Cao Yuxuan would one day lead the Cao Family to emerge in power and become a region's hegemon.

However, Cao Yuxuan had actually been killed. This was equivalent to their Cao Family's hopes being extinguished. This result was something that the people from the Cao Family could not accept, something that they were unwilling to accept.

“You damned animal! Today, I must dismember your body into ten thousand pieces!!!”

After his furious howl of grief, the Cao Family's Family Head let out a soaring killing intent. He ignored the Tang Family's Family Head, turned around and flew toward Chu Feng with the intention to kill him.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right after the Cao Family's Family Head started to fly toward Chu Feng, a figure immediately followed after him and began to unleash fatal attacks at him.

That person was naturally the Tang Family's Family Head.

"Tang Haichuan, my son is the personal disciple of Luyang's Pavilion's Pavilion Master. Now that he has been killed, are you planning to protect the person that killed him?"

"Can your Tang Family shoulder this responsibility?" Being blocked by the Tang Family's Family Head, the Cao Family's Family Head could only bring up Luyang's Pavilion to threaten the Tang Family's Family Head.

After all, he also knew that if the Tang Family's Family Head were to insist on getting in his way, he would have no opportunity to kill Chu Feng.

Furthermore, with how powerful Chu Feng was, if he were to continue to help the Tang Family fight against the Cao Family, the Cao Family might really end up being eliminated today.

"You are the great enemy of our Tang Family. Even if it wasn't for little friend Chu Feng, I would still kill you, let alone when little friend Chu Feng is our Tang Family's honored guest," The Tang Family's Family Head declared.

"Since you're insistent on this, your Tang Family shall die together with that animal," Seeing that his threats were useless, the Cao Family's Family Head began to unleash ferocious attacks at the Tang Family's Family Head. He planned to quickly kill the Tang Family's Family Head.

"Soldiers of the Tang Family, listen up. Kill all of these unwanted guests from the Cao Family," The Tang Family's Family Head seemed to be determined. With a single order, he increased the morale of the Tang Family's fighters, leading them to enter a fierce battle against the people of the Cao Family again.

"Chu Feng, quickly, leave this place."

“The identity of Cao Yuxuan is truly extraordinary. If people from Luyang’s Pavilion were to come, you will be met with a disaster,” Tang Ying urged Chu Feng to escape.

“You wish to leave? I fear that it’s too late now,” Right at that moment, an aged voice sounded. Following that, an old man appeared before Chu Feng.

That old man had a head full of black hair, a sinister expression and a frightening appearance. Especially that pair of eyes, they were murderous-looking. How could he possibly resemble a human? His appearance was simply akin to that of an oni.

After this old man appeared, Chu Feng started to frown. The reason for that was because not only was the aura that this old man emitted very strong, that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, the outfit that he was wearing was also that of Luyang’s Pavilion.

It was very clear that old man was someone from Luyang’s Pavilion.

“Tang Haichuan, Cao Kuofeng, how much longer are the two of you going to continue with your internal strife?!!!” After that old man appeared, he shouted loudly, and caused space and the void to tremble. The echoes of his voice resounded nonstop.

“Elder Yuan Zhen?” Upon seeing that old man, the expressions of the Tang Family’s Family Head and the Cao Family’s Family Head both changed. They both revealed expressions of surprise.

“Elder Yuan Zhen, the Tang Family has colluded with that Heavenly Clan child to kill my son. Please, you must obtain justice for my son,” The Cao Family’s Family Head declared.

“Elder Yuan Zhen, don’t listen to his crazy and unfounded ravings. Although it is true that Cao Yuxuan was killed by Chu Feng, it is completely unrelated to my Tang Family,” The Tang Family’s Family Head declared.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s gaze immediately changed. He did not expect that the Tang Family's Family Head, who had acted in righteousness and declared that Chu Feng was his honored guest earlier, would immediately distance himself the moment someone from Luyang's Pavilion appeared.

The Tang Family's Family Head's actions had verified the opinion that Chu Feng had of him before. Sure enough, the Tang Family's Family Head was no loyal individual.

"If you are truly unrelated, go and personally kill that child to prove your innocence."

"As long as you kill that child, I will guarantee that the Cao Family will not be allowed to make your Tang Family enemies again," That Elder Yuan Zhen said.

"Elder Yuan Zhen, there are neither grudges nor grievances between our Tang Family and the Cao Family to begin with. Yet, they decided to attack our Tang Family with such a large force, leaving a disastrous amount of casualties in our Tang Family. We cannot just settle this matter like this," The Tang Family's Family Head declared.

"Although the Cao Family is indeed in the wrong this time around, it remains that Cao Yuxuan has died in your Tang Family's territory. Although he was not killed by someone from your Tang Family, your Tang Family cannot escape responsibility. You know this very well in your heart."

"Right now, you have two choices. You can continue to protect that child. However, if you are to do so, it would mean that you have decided to go against our Luyang's Pavilion. How much longer could your Tang Family continue to exist if that were to happen? You should have a very clear idea of that."

"As for your other choice, you are to immediately settle your grudges with the Cao Family and then personally kill that child. As for the damages the Cao Family has caused your Tang Family, I will ask Lord Pavilion Master to order the Cao Family to compensate your Tang Family for it.”

After Elder Yuan Zhen said those words, he looked to the Cao Family’s Family Head and added, “Cao Family’s Family Head, do you have any objections?”

At that moment, the Cao Family’s Family Head was filled with unwillingness. However, he did not dare to disobey Elder Yuan Zhen. Thus, he nodded and said, “If the Pavilion Master is to order it, I am willing to compensate the Tang Family. However, Tang Haichuan must personally kill that Chu Feng.”

“Tang Haichuan, the Cao Family has declared their position. It is your turn now,” Elder Yuan Zhen said to the Tang Family’s Family Head.

“Little friend Chu Feng, excuse my offense.”

Suddenly, coldness flashed through the eyes of the Tang Family’s Family Head. Then, while holding his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, he flew toward Chu Feng.

At the same time, the other people from the Tang Family also understood their Family Head’s intentions. Thus, one by one, they unleashed their weapons and surrounded Chu Feng from all directions.

“Stop!” Seeing this, Tang Ying hurriedly spread open her arms and stood before Chu Feng.

“Lil’ Ying, move aside!” The Tang Family’s Family Head shouted. He had already approached Chu Feng.

“Father, you cannot do this. Chu Feng only killed Cao Yuxuan for the sake of our Tang Family.”

“Chu Feng is the benefactor of our Tang Family. If you are to do this, you will become a treacherous betrayer. If news of this matter were to spread, what face would our Tang Family have left to exist with? You absolutely must not do this,” Tang Ying said while crying.

She had truly never expected things to turn out this way. Chu Feng had only disregarded consequences and killed Cao Yuxuan for the sake of helping their Tang Family.

Yet, her father, the Tang Family's Family Head, actually wanted to personally kill Chu Feng for the sake of their Tang Family's interests, their Tang Family's existence. She was truly unable to accept this.

"Tang Haichuan, your daughter's heart has already run into the grasp of an outsider. For the sake of the Tang Family's future, I suggest you... place righteousness before family," That Elder Yuan Zhen spoke coldly.

At that moment, he acted as if he was a spectator. He did not plan to personally attack Chu Feng. However, he very much wanted to personally see the Tang Family's Family Head kill Chu Feng.

"Lil' Ying, move aside immediately. Are you truly planning to go against your father for a mere outsider? Are you really planning to disregard the safety of the Tang Family?" The Tang Family's Family Head's sharp gaze narrowed. Dense killing intent appeared in his eyes.

Bee used the character ghost. It is the same character as the Japanese oni. While there are many different kinds of ghost appearances, I felt that this man's appearance would resemble that of an oni.

Chapter 2171 – Heaven-Defying Battle

“Father, you...” Tang Ying began to cry in an even more heart-broken manner. She truly never expected that her father would be this sort of person.

“Tang Ying, go ahead and move aside,” Right at that moment, Chu Feng pushed Tang Ying to the side. Not only did he push her aside, he also used a spirit formation to restrict Tang Ying’s movements.

He was already able to determine that if Tang Ying still refused to move, the Tang Family’s Family Head, that vicious and merciless old fox, would really disregard the fact that she was his daughter and personally kill her.

“Chu Feng, you have courage. Tell me, which Heavenly Clan are you from, for you to dare to kill our Pavilion Master’s personal disciple,” Elder Yuan Zhen asked.

“Haha, what’s this? Are you also afraid? What a bullshit Luyang’s Pavilion. Turns out you’re afraid of my identity too.”

“This is the reason why you do not dare to personally attack me, right? You also fear that you will offend the power behind me should you kill me, isn’t that right?”

“That is why you want the Tang Family and the Cao Family to kill me instead. Like that, even if the power behind me is to come and demand justice, you will have scapegoats to excuse yourselves from all responsibility.”

“Most laughable of all is that this Tang Family is actually so stupid. They are actually willing to become the scapegoat. Hahaha!!!”

“It is no wonder your Tang Family would end up in its current state. I can only say, serves you right,” Chu Feng laughed mockingly.

Hearing those words, the expressions of the everyone from the Tang Family changed. Originally, they were confused as to why Elder Yuan Zhen refused to personally kill Chu Feng.

However, they now finally realized the reason why. It turned out that Elder Yuan Zhen was afraid of Chu Feng's identity. That was why he did not dare to personally kill Chu Feng.

However, Elder Yuan Zhen demanded that the Tang Family kill Chu Feng. This was simply equivalent to having their Tang Family become his scapegoat.

At that moment, the expressions of everyone from the Tang Family became very unsightly. After all, no one was willing to become a scapegoat.

"You're very smart. Unfortunately, there's nothing you can do," Elder Yuan Zhen laughed mockingly. Then, he looked to the Tang Family's Family Head and said, "Tang Haichuan, kill him."

"Father, have you not heard what Chu Feng just said? Luyang's Pavilion is simply exploiting you. They are planning to make you their scapegoat," Tang Ying shouted loudly.

At that moment, the Tang Family's Family Head was once again stuck between a rock and a hard place. He had actually already guessed Elder Yuan Zhen's intentions.

Merely, there was nothing he could do about it. For the sake of the continued existence of his Tang Family, he could only choose to rely on Luyang's Pavilion. After all, Luyang's Pavilion's Pavilion Master was someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Originally, he had already made the firm resolution to kill Chu Feng. However, Chu Feng had declared to everyone what Elder Yuan Zhen's intention was, that their Tang Family would become the scapegoat should they kill Chu Feng.

If he continued to choose to kill Chu Feng at such a time, not only would he be a treacherous betrayer, he would also be an utter fool.

Thus, this left him hesitant to kill Chu Feng.

“Tang Haichuan, if you refuse to kill that Chu Feng today, your Tang Family will definitely not be able to continue to exist.”

“However, if you are to kill that Chu Feng, I will guarantee you that your Tang Family will achieve meteoric success in the future; your Tang Family will become the Pavilion Master’s trusted aide,” Elder Yuan Zhen said.

“Elder Yuan Zhen, is what you said for real?” asked the Tang Family’s Family Head. He knew very well that Elder Yuan Zhen, although having the same cultivation as him, was a trusted aide to the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master. As such, there was a lot of weight behind his words.

“How could I, Yuan Zhen, a trusted aide to the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master, deceive you?” Elder Yuan Zhen spoke in a displeased manner.

“I was ignorant. Elder Yuan Zhen, please forgive me,” Seeing that Elder Yuan Zhen was angered, the Tang Family’s Family Head hurriedly apologized.

“Truly great dog material,” Chu Feng mocked with a sneer. If he had known that the Tang Family’s Family Head was this sort of person, Chu Feng would definitely not have healed him.

“Courting death!”

At that moment, the Tang Family’s Family Head suddenly pointed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament at Chu Feng, and an oppressive might that contained surging killing intent shot toward him.

“Roar~~~”

However, right at that moment, a dragon’s roar suddenly sounded. Not only had Chu Feng dodged the Tang Family’s Family Head’s attack, he was also standing atop the Azure Dragon.

Not only was Chu Feng's speed extremely fast, his might was also very powerful. The inescapable net formed by the people from the Tang Family was instantly broken through by Chu Feng.

Although Chu Feng had broken through the net, the surroundings of the Tang Family were sealed off by a spirit formation. As such, it would be difficult for Chu Feng to easily break through the spirit formation barrier in a short period of time. If he wished to escape, there would only be a single path to escape. That was through the direction where the Cao Family had come from, through the breach in the spirit formation opened by the Cao Family's Family Head.

"Where do you think you're escaping to?" Seeing that Chu Feng was flying toward him, how could the Cao Family's Family Head sit and watch without doing anything? He held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and rushed to attack Chu Feng.

"Did you think you can stop me just because you're a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor!" Chu Feng shouted loudly. Then, holding the Magma Emperor Sword in hand, he sliced at the space before him.

"Rumble~~~"

Immediately, a slash of flames appeared out of thin air. The might of that slash seemed to be capable of slicing through space itself.

That was not an ordinary martial skill. Rather, it was a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

Seeing such a powerful attack, the expression of the Cao Family's Family Head changed. Regardless of how much he detested Chu Feng, he had to admit that Chu Feng's strength was truly heaven-defying.

Even though Chu Feng's battle power was clearly only on par with ordinary rank six Half Martial Ancestors, the attack that he had unleashed right now caused even the Cao Family's Family Head, a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, to feel life-threatening danger.

In such a situation, even that Cao Family's Family Head did not dare to act carelessly toward Chu Feng. He hurriedly unleashed a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill to block Chu Feng's incoming attack.

“Rumble~~~”

The two Heaven Taboo Martial Skills collided with one another. Immediately, they turned into surging energy ripples that began to spread in all directions. However, the two attacks were at a stalemate.

“Both you and your son will die by my hand.”

After that attack, not only did Chu Feng not seize the opportunity to escape, he instead unleashed another Heaven Taboo Martial Skill aimed at the Cao Family's Family Head.

“What shameless boasting!” The Cao Family's Family Head was not to be outdone. He also held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and rushed to attack Chu Feng.

Before the two men actually approached one another, violently surging energy ripples were already wreaking havoc through their surroundings. However, once again, their attacks ended up in a stalemate.

Chu Feng was fighting against a grand rank seven Half Martial Ancestor with his cultivation of rank three Half Martial Ancestor and a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

At that moment, not to mention the people from the Tang Family, even the people from the Cao Family were stunned. None of them anticipated for Chu Feng to be this powerful.

“Tang Haichuan, join hands with me to kill this child. Not only will our Cao Family settle all grudges with your Tang Family, I am also willing to compensate your Tang Family immediately,” The Cao Family’s Family Head shouted.

At the beginning, he was unwilling to compensate the Tang Family when Yuan Zhen demanded that he do so. However, after having fought against Chu Feng and discovering that Chu Feng was much stronger than he had imagined, fear emerged in the Cao Family’s Family Head’s heart.

As Elder Yuan Zhen would not interfere, the Cao Family’s Family Head could only ask the Tang Family’s Family Head to join him in killing Chu Feng.

“You must keep your word,” The Tang Family’s Family Head needed to kill Chu Feng to begin with. It was only after he saw the Cao Family’s Family Head attack Chu Feng that he decided to watch with folded arms.

However, now that the Cao Family’s Family Head had spoken those words, he would naturally not continue to watch with folded arms. He held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament in hand and joined the battle.

At that moment, two rank seven Half Martial Ancestors were fighting against Chu Feng.

Although Chu Feng was pushed into a disadvantaged state after the Tang Family’s Family Head entered the battle, there was still no sign that he would be defeated.

“This Chu Feng, how could he be so powerful?”

At that moment, the people from the Tang Family and the Cao Family were all stunned. After all, Chu Feng was fighting against both of their Family Heads by himself.

Being a dog = a servant/slave.

Chapter 2172 – If I Survive

---

“The Half Martial Ancestor realm is indeed different from the Martial Emperor realm,” At that moment, Chu Feng was also frowning.

Back when he was a Martial Emperor, not only was Chu Feng peerless among those of the same battle power, he was able to defeat even those with battle power that surpassed him by a level.

However, when Chu Feng was now facing two rank seven Half Martial Ancestors, not to mention defeating them, he felt enormous pressure just fighting them.

Although Chu Feng possessed another trump card, as he had not yet used his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, Chu Feng was not certain as to whether the Cao Family’s Family Head and the Tang Family’s Family Head would have any more trump cards.

After all, this place was the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and his opponents were actual rank seven Half Martial Ancestors. Since they even possessed Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, it would not be impossible for them to have learned Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

Furthermore, other than those two Family Heads, there was also that Elder Yuan Zhen, who was standing to one side like a tiger watching its prey.

Although that Elder Yuan Zhen was also a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor like the two Family Heads, Chu Feng was able to sense that his aura was stronger than that of the Tang Family’s Family Head and the Cao Family’s Family Head.

Currently, he had yet to do anything, because he did not want to shoulder the responsibility of killing Chu Feng, a responsibility that might lead to trouble in the future.

However, Chu Feng was able to sense that he was not planning to let him escape. If the Cao Family's Family Head and the Tang Family's Family Head were truly unable to defeat him, then that Elder Yuan Zhen would definitely act to take care of him.

“Exactly who is that Chu Feng?” Seeing that the two Family Heads were unable to defeat Chu Feng even after joining hands, that Elder Yuan Zhen started to frown. His deep gaze grew increasingly colder.

Although Chu Feng was a person from the Heavenly Clans, could activate his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings to increase his cultivation to that of a rank three Half Martial Ancestor, and possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, his battle power should only be on par with ordinary rank six Half Martial Ancestors.

However, according to what he knew about the Heavenly Clans, it would be difficult for ordinary Heavenly Clansmen to defeat rank six Half Martial Ancestors even if they could increase their battle power to be on par with rank six Half Martial Ancestors after using their various abilities like Chu Feng had.

After all, their power was something that they had obtained by relying on their Inherited Bloodline, and not their actual cultivation.

However, not only did Chu Feng easily kill Cao Yuxuan, who also possessed a battle power equivalent to that of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, he was even fighting against two actual rank seven Half Martial Ancestors right now.

He was simply too heaven-defying. Chu Feng had already surpassed the comprehension Elder Yuan Zhen had of Heavenly Bloodlines.

Thinking of that, Elder Yuan Zhen's body shifted. He began to approach Chu Feng and the two Family Heads. At the same time, his wrinkled old hand began to move toward his Cosmos Sack.

It was as Chu Feng had anticipated; Elder Yuan Zhen was not planning to spare Chu Feng, regardless of which Heavenly Clan he might be from.

If the two Family Heads were truly unable to kill Chu Feng, he would immediately act to kill Chu Feng.

“Puu~~~”

Right at that moment, a ray of blood flashed in the sky. Then, Chu Feng’s body moved back explosively.

At that moment, Elder Yuan Zhen’s eyes began to shine. A trace of joy appeared in his previously grave gaze.

The reason for that was because a bloody wound had appeared on Chu Feng’s left shoulder. That wound reached deep into his bone. Not only had Chu Feng lost a huge chunk of his flesh, a large scar was left on his shoulder bone. Currently, a large amount of blood was rushing out from that wound. It was a truly frightening sight.

“That Chu Feng is injured. He was injured by the two Family Heads,” Seeing this, the people from the Tang Family and the Cao Family, the two powers that were fighting one another before, actually started to cheer.

“It would seem that you’re only this much too,” Seeing that they had successfully injured Chu Feng, the Tang Family’s Family Head revealed a relaxed smile.

As for Chu Feng, not only did he have a painful expression on his face, he was also glowering angrily. He tightly clenched onto his Magma Emperor Sword as he swept his gaze at the Tang Family’s Family Head and the Cao Family’s Family Head. Gnashing his teeth, he said fiercely, “If I, Chu Feng, survive today, I will definitely extinguish your Tang and Cao families!”

“What arrogance! Unfortunately, you will not have the chance to do so, because you will definitely die today!” Right after the Tang Family’s Family Head said those words, he once again started to unleash an attack at Chu Feng.

The Cao Family's Family Head also held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and rushed to attack Chu Feng again.

“Boom!!!”

“Boom!!!”

As if they followed up on their victory and pressed home the attack, the Cao and Tang Family Heads both unleashed their Heaven Taboo Martial Skills simultaneously.

The two Heaven Taboo Martial Skills were one fire-based and the other water-based. As they interweaved with one another, not only did they not decrease one another's strength, their might even increased enormously.

“Come!” Furious, not only did Chu Feng not dodge the attack, he instead raised the Magma Emperor Sword he held in his hand and unleashed a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill composed of both wind and lightning toward the two Family Heads.

“Rumble~!!!!”

The three Heaven Taboo Martial Skills collided with one another. The powers of wind, lightning, water and fire turned into surging energy ripples that swallowed the entire region.

“Ahhh!!!!”

A scream was heard from within the rumbling. It was Chu Feng's voice.

At that moment, all of the Half Martial Ancestor-level experts revealed joy on their faces. After Chu Feng's scream stopped, they were no longer able to sense Chu Feng's aura.

This was especially true for the two Family Heads that had their attention fixed onto Chu Feng the entire time. They were able to sense that Chu Feng's body had exploded into pieces after his violent scream.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, a blazing sword fell from the sky, piercing the ground. It was Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword.

Seeing that, the Tang Family and Cao Family’s Family Heads immediately waved their sleeves to disperse the energy ripples.

At that moment, the crowd present were all overjoyed. The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s figure was no longer capable of being seen in the sky.

This meant that Chu Feng had been killed. Furthermore, he had been killed without even a corpse remaining.

“Noo!!!!”

Seeing this scene, Tang Ying knelt onto the ground with tears flooding out from her eyes uncontrollably.

“Chu Feng, I am the one who caused your death, it is all because of me.”

At the same time, Tang Ying began to ruthlessly slap herself.

Self-blame. Extremely pained self-blame. The way she saw it, if it wasn’t for her, Chu Feng would not have died.

“Little sister, what are you doing? That Chu Feng was extremely daring, and actually killed Lord Pavilion Master’s personal disciple. His death is the fault of his own crimes. Do not harm yourself for someone like him. It is unworthy of you.”

Seeing that, Tang Long removed the spirit formation that had restricted Tang Ying and used his own power to completely seal off Tang Ying’s movements. He feared that she would continue to inflict harm upon herself due to self-blame.

“Release me! Release me! I no longer want to be part of the Tang Family! I no longer want to stay in such a despicable family!” Tang Ying shouted hysterically.

“What did you say? Say it again!” Hearing those words, Tang Long who was deeply distressed for his younger sister earlier immediately revealed an expression of anger.

“I said that I refuse to stay in a family that breaks faith and abandons right, I will no longer be a part of the Tang...”

“Paa~~~”

Before Tang Ying could finish her words, a resounding slap landed on her face. That slap knocked her fiercely to the ground.

After that slap, blood began to flow from Tang Ying’s face. That slap was from Tang Ying’s eldest brother, Tang Long. His slap was many times more powerful than the slaps which Tang Ying had given herself earlier.

“You insolent fool! How long did you even know that Chu Feng?! Yet, for a mere outsider, you actually plan to disregard the family that has given birth to you and raised you?!”

“Since you are that shameless and are willing to leave our Tang Family for a mere outsider, I might as well beat you to death today, so that you don’t shame our Tang Family anymore!” Tang Long pointed at Tang Ying and spoke in a very fierce manner.

Chapter 2173 – The Cicada Sheds Its Carapace

“Big brother, don’t be like this. This is only a sudden impulse from our little sister.”

Upon seeing this, Tang Hu and Tang Yong hurriedly rushed over. No matter what, they were unable to watch as Tang Long beat Tang Ying to death.

The scene of the Tang Family’s four siblings was seen by the people from the Cao Family. Furthermore, they were immensely enjoying themselves. The way they saw it, this was merely a rare show.

However, at the moment when the Tang Family’s four siblings were making a ruckus, Elder Yuan Zhen slowly walked toward the Magma Emperor Sword.

“This Incomplete Ancestral Armament is no small matter. Through this Incomplete Ancestral Armament, that Chu Feng’s origin can be determined.”

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Elder Yuan Zhen extended his hand and grabbed. Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword was pulled into his hand.

When speaking of it pleasantly, he wanted to use this Incomplete Ancestral Armament to determine Chu Feng’s origin. However, he had actually just planned to seize it for himself.

“This...” However, right after he grabbed the Magma Emperor Sword, Elder Yuan Zhen’s expression changed enormously. Then, he clenched his fist, and with a “boom,” the Magma Emperor Sword was shattered.

“How could this be?!” Seeing this scene, many people revealed shocked expressions.

After all, that was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Regardless of how powerful that Elder Yuan Zhen might be, with his cultivation, he would not be able to so easily destroy an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

“Crap! We’ve been deceived!” At that moment, the Tang Family and the Cao Family’s Family Heads were the first to react.

At the moment when the Magma Emperor Sword was shattered, they had realized that the Magma Emperor Sword was not an actual Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

However, as they had fought against Chu Feng earlier, they knew very well that the weapon Chu Feng had used was an actual Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

For the situation at hand to occur, it would only mean one thing — that Magma Emperor Sword was a fake created by Chu Feng, whereas the real one was taken away by Chu Feng.

In other words, Chu Feng had not died. Instead, he had seized the opportunity to escape.

Merely, no one noticed how Chu Feng had escaped.

“Why are you all still standing there? Quickly, go and chase after him! If that Chu Feng isn’t killed, all of you will have to suffer the consequences!” Elder Yuan Zhen shouted angrily. After he finished saying those words, he disappeared.

He had left the area through the breach in the spirit formation that was created by the Cao Family to search for and capture Chu Feng.

“Damn it!” In response, the Tang Family’s Family Head and the Cao Family’s Family Head’s bodies shifted as they rushed in pursuit of Chu Feng.

At that moment, only the people from the Tang Family and the Cao Family remained. They all had bewildered expressions on their faces.

Even though Elder Yuan Zhen had not declared it clearly, they were able to realize that it seemed that Chu Feng had not died, and had instead escaped.

Upon thinking that they had tried to kill someone from the Heavenly Clans, only to end in failure and with that person's escape, everyone became extremely frightened. In fact, those that were more cowardly even started to shiver.

Even though they were all martial cultivators, and should have great wisdom and the capability to withstand shock, it remained that they were filled with endless fear when they thought of how there would be people from the Heavenly Clan coming here to attack them.

After all, what they would face at that time would be the calamity of certain death.

“Chu Feng is alive?” However, at this moment when the great majority of people were filled with fear, Tang Ying revealed an expression of happiness.

Even though she knew that the Tang Family would be in an extremely dangerous situation should Chu Feng escape alive, that her family might face fatal dangers, she still wished for Chu Feng to be able to escape alive.

She did not want Chu Feng to die.

As for Chu Feng, he was naturally alive.

Chu Feng had utilized the undying and indestructible property of his body that he had gained after fusing with the Five Elements Secret Skills. He had dispersed his body into the five different energies of wind, lightning, water, fire and earth.

Then, using his world spirit techniques, he had altered the aura of the energies, as well as how evident they appeared to be.

Then, taking advantage of the energy ripples formed by the collision of the three Heaven Taboo Martial Skills that engulfed the entire surrounding area, he snuck into the energy ripples and secretly escaped from the Tang Family.

As for the reason why Chu Feng had decided to escape, it was because he did not possess absolute certainty in being able to defeat the Tang Family's Family Head, the Cao Family's Family Head, and that Elder Yuan Zhen, those three rank seven Half martial Ancestors.

Today, the Tang Family had decided to betray Chu Feng, their benefactor, for the sake of their own self-interest. Chu Feng was determined to obtain revenge.

Thus, for the sake of his vengeance, Chu Feng had to escape. When he held certainty of being able to defeat the Tang Family's Family Head, he would return to take care of the Tang Family.

In short, Chu Feng would absolutely not swallow what was done to him here today. He would definitely teach the Tang Family a ruthless lesson.

Furthermore, it would not only be the Tang Family. Chu Feng would also not spare that Cao Family.

Chu Feng had not been joking around when he said that he would eliminate the Tang and Cao Families.

.....

After escaping the Tang Family, Chu Feng proceeded for the Darknight Ghost Forest directly. Although Chu Feng should have hidden himself, as he had just escaped danger, and should be escaping as far away from the Tang Family as possible, Chu Feng had not forgotten about Wang Qiang's safety.

Since he had already obtained the Demon Subduing Spring Water, Chu Feng must proceed for the Darknight Ghost Forest immediately to search for that demonic woman and save Wang Qiang.

Else, Chu Feng feared that if he were to delay too long, Wang

Qiang would be killed by that demonic woman.

The Darknight Ghost Forest was located opposite the Radiance Immortal Mountain. Although its area was not as vast as the Radiance Immortal Mountain, the Darknight Ghost Forest was still very large.

Most importantly, the trees inside the Darknight Ghost Forest were very special. Not only were the branches and leaves like sharp blades, they were also pitch-black in color.

Furthermore, there were no living creatures in the Darknight Ghost Forest. Even the wind was unable to penetrate the forest. That place looked as if it had been cursed. It was so quiet that it was scary.

As Chu Feng walked in the forest, the place could be said to be pitch-dark. Even though this sort of darkness was unable to block Chu Feng's vision, the stifling sensation still caused Chu Feng to feel uneasy.

“Wang Qiang, you disappointing fellow, you must stay alive.”

At that point in time, Chu Feng had already been searching in the Darknight Ghost Forest for several days now. However, he was still unable to find any traces of Wang Qiang or that demonic woman.

This caused Chu Feng to feel even more uneasy. After all, that demonic woman was said to feed on men. The more time passed, the greater the possibility that Wang Qiang would be killed by her.

“That is?!!!”

Suddenly, Chu Feng revealed a stunned expression as terror and unease appeared in his eyes.

Immediately afterward, Chu Feng's body shifted as he rapidly flew forward.

Soon, Chu Feng arrived at a very dangerous forest. There were many Ancient Era's formations in that place. Furthermore, they were hidden very well. It would be simply impossible for ordinary people to discover them. Furthermore, if they were to trigger those Ancient Era's formations, they would definitely be killed.

After Chu Feng passed through the Ancient Era's formations, he arrived at the central region of the vast forest. In that place, Chu Feng saw a whole bunch of bones.

The current state of those bones were all exactly the same; all their source energies had been refined. They were extremely frail.

Due to the fact that the bones had already deteriorated, Chu Feng was unable to determine the cultivations that the owners of the bones had possessed when they had been alive, nor was he able to determine their genders.

However, Chu Feng was able to tell that it had not been a long time since the owners of the bones had been killed. If he had to calculate the time of their death, Chu Feng felt that they must be the group of people that had been brought away together with Wang Qiang that day.

Chapter 2174 – Wang Qiang's Dead?

Other than the bones, there was also a small bed formed by piling up trees. Furthermore, there were traces of a campfire.

All of this signified that someone had been living here before.

What sort of people would have lived in this sort of place? Naturally, it would definitely be that demonic woman.

Thus, Chu Feng was certain that this place must be that demonic woman's base, that the bones here were the remains of the people captured by that demonic woman that time.

However, as the bones were already deteriorated, Chu Feng was unable to determine which set of bones were Wang Qiang's. However, he must determine whether or not Wang Qiang's bones were among this pile of bones.

It would be fine if Wang Qiang's bones were not present in the pile of bones. However, if Wang Qiang's bones were present, it would mean that Wang Qiang had died by the hands of that demonic woman. As for that, it was something that Chu Feng did not wish to happen.

With no other alternative, Chu Feng decided that he would count the number of bones present. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had realized that the situation was amiss when Wang Qiang decided to harass the demonic woman. At that time, Chu Feng had subconsciously paid attention to all the people present at that time.

Intentionally or otherwise, Chu Feng remembered the number of people captured by that demonic woman.

Thus, through counting the number of bones, Chu Feng could have a rough determination as to whether or not Wang Qiang's bones were present here.

Although there was no reliable basis for his theory, Chu Feng felt that Wang Qiang would be the last to die among that group of men captured.

“Damn it!”

“Damn it!!”

“Damn it!!!”

Suddenly, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously, and he began to gnash his teeth in anger. At the same time, an intense sense of grief surged forth in his eyes.

“God damn it!”

Then, Chu Feng clenched his fist and ruthlessly smashed it down onto the ground. He caused the earth to tremble as if an earthquake had hit. The trembling continued.

Chu Feng had counted the pile of bones. Their numbers was actually the same as the amount of people captured that day. This meant that Wang Qiang’s should also be among them.

However, those were bones. If Wang Qiang’s bones were also among them, it would mean that Wang Qiang was definitely dead.

“Why am I this weak? Why am I this weak?”

“I’m useless, I’m truly useless! When I am unable to even protect my friend, how am I supposed retrieve my dignity?”

“Trash! Chu Feng, you are simply trash! Through and through, you are trash!!!”

Chu Feng started to shout hysterically. He was truly heartbroken and filled with sorrow in that moment. Although he did not shed tears, he was feeling extremely pained.

While Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had not known each other for a very long time, Chu Feng felt that Wang Qiang was someone that could be befriended ever since he had first met him.

After knowing that Wang Qiang had protected him in the shadows before, Chu Feng felt extremely grateful toward him.

Especially when Wang Qiang told him that he only felt Chu Feng to be pleasant, Chu Feng was determined that Wang Qiang would be his brother.

Yet now, Chu Feng saw Wang Qiang being captured by the demonic woman, but was powerless to do anything about it. Due to him being unable to do anything, Wang Qiang ended up being eaten alive by that demonic woman.

When he thought of how Wang Qiang would've been skinned and had his tendons pulled by that demonic woman before being eaten one large bite at a time and dying miserably, Chu Feng felt enormous hatred for that demonic woman. At the same time, he detested himself for being useless, for being weak.

Suddenly, a dull voice sounded. "Was a relative of yours eaten by that demonic woman?"

Chu Feng abruptly stood up upon hearing that voice. He cast his fierce gaze toward the direction of the voice.

However, upon seeing it, Chu Feng stood there in a stunned manner. It was actually an old monk.

This old man was very thin, and his outfit was extremely worn. There were a lot of patches on his already worn-out cotton clothes, causing him to look like a beggar.

However, although his clothes were worn, they were very neat and tidy; they were actually untainted by even a speck of dust.

Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that this shriveled old monk was no ordinary person.

The reason for that was because he possessed no cultivation, and appeared no different from an ordinary person that had never embarked on the path of martial cultivation. However, how could an ordinary person reach such a dangerous place?

"Who are you?" Chu Feng held down his sorrow over Wang Qiang's death and questioned the old monk cautiously. However,

Chu Feng did not address that old monk as ‘senior.’

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was unable to ascertain whether this old monk was friend or foe. In fact, he was unable to determine whether this old monk was even human or not.

After all, this place was not only the Darknight Ghost Forest, it was also the demonic woman’s base. As such, there would be no reason for this old monk to come here for no reason at all.

“Judging from the reaction you had earlier, I know for certain that you must have a relative that died by that demonic woman’s hand.”

“However, if you wish to find that demonic woman for revenge, I’d urge you to leave this place as soon as possible. Even if you have brought Demon Subduing Spring Water with you, the disparity between your cultivations is still too enormous. As such, it is impossible for you to be a match for that demonic woman,” The old monk said calmly.

“You know that demonic woman?” Chu Feng asked.

“What if I do?” The old monk asked.

“Quickly, tell me where that demonic woman is ,” Chu Feng flipped his wrist and revealed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, the Magma Emperor Sword.

At the same time, he unleashed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. Chu Feng’s boundless aura soon engulfed the entire surrounding region.

However, even when faced with such a Chu Feng, the old monk’s expression remained unchanged. Instead, he smiled lightly and said, “Not to mention that I do not know, even if I did, I would not tell you.”

“Taking the side of evil, you also deserve to die!” The anger Chu Feng had held back with great difficulty exploded. He gripped his Magma Emperor Sword and rushed to attack the old monk.

“Woosh~~~”

The old monk waved his sleeve and caused a light burst of wind. That wind actually blew Chu Feng back repeatedly. Not only was Chu Feng blown back, even his oppressive might and killing intent was dispersed by that gentle breeze.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt a chill in his heart. Although he had already guessed that the old monk might be a cultivation expert, Chu Feng did not expect that he would be so powerful.

If Chu Feng were to fight against the demonic woman straightforwardly, he would be no match for her.

Likewise, if Chu Feng were to fight against this old monk straightforwardly, even a hundred Chu Fengs would not be enough to kill this old monk.

“Seeing that you have only done such a foolish action due to your grief over the death of your relative, this old monk will not bicker with you today,” The old monk said calmly.

“Are you a human or not?” Chu Feng asked.

“So what if I am, and so what if I’m not?” The old monk refused to answer.

“That demonic woman willfully slaughters innocents. How can you ignore her actions?” Chu Feng asked. He was trying to pry into whether the old monk was on the side of the demonic woman or not.

After all, that old monk’s strength was definitely above that demonic woman’s. If he wanted to kill that demonic woman, it would be impossible for that demonic woman to survive.

“Willfully slaughter innocents? If the death of humans would be innocent, then what about the deaths of ferocious beasts and monstrous beasts?”

“Even the grass and trees have lives. Your casual steps will easily trample countless living things.”

“A single martial skill from you would destroy an innumerable amount of lives. Are you to say that you are not willfully slaughtering innocents?”

“If I must eliminate evil in the world, then this old monk should eliminate all the people in the world,” The old monk said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart sunk. Even though the old monk was using sophistry, what he said was not without reason.

After all, it was true that flowers, plants and trees were all living things. When experts fought with one another, merely an energy ripple from them could destroy a region; a single martial skill would cause the death of countless flowers, plants and trees.

If innocents must be mentioned, those flowers, plants and trees had never offended anyone. Thus, their deaths would truly be very innocent.

“Since we have met, it would mean that it is fate. As you are feeling aggrieved and heartbroken from the death of your relative, it would mean that you are an affectionate and honest individual. As such, I will give you a word of advice.”

“To obtain revenge, one must first have the strength to do so. As for comprehending the path of martial cultivation to reach successive breakthroughs, one must have a calm heart.”

“Thus, you are hopeless the way you are,” The old monk said. After he finished saying those words, he stepped into the air and began to walk away. Although his footsteps were very slow, his speed was extremely fast. In merely a blink of an eye, he had reached the sky.

“Senior, exactly who are you?” Chu Feng shouted.

Although that monk did not have any intention of eliminating the demonic woman, he also had no intention of attacking Chu Feng. Even though Chu Feng had lost his reasoning from anger earlier and attacked the old monk while also offending him repeatedly, the old monk still did not harm Chu Feng.

Instead, he provided Chu Feng with advice. It could be said that he had indirectly helped Chu Feng. Thus, regardless of whether the old monk was a human or not, he had earned Chu Feng's respect, earned the title of 'senior.'

"I am merely a nobody. Pretend like you never met me. Do not mention me to anyone else, it will be of no benefit to you," The old monk's voice sounded. However, his figure had already disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 2175 – Rank Two Half Martial Ancestor

“Exactly who was that person?” Chu Feng’s gaze grew complicated.

Even though he didn’t know who that old monk was, Chu Feng had decided to follow his advice, and began to put forth great effort to pacify the grief and indignation he was feeling.

Chu Feng had to do his best to comprehend the way of martial cultivation so that he could break through to rank two Half Martial Ancestor as soon as possible.

As long as he became a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng would be able to take care of the Cao and Tang Families. Even if he were to encounter that Elder Yuan Zhen again, Chu Feng would also not be afraid.

However, there was one thing that Chu Feng did not listen to the advice of the old monk on; he did not leave the Darknight Ghost Forest.

Wang Qiang had died by the hands of that demonic woman. Chu Feng absolutely could not leave the matter at that. In fact, Chu Feng was unable to wait; he was impatient to kill that demonic woman. Else, the regret and hatred in his heart would not be alleviated.

Thus, Chu Feng set up many layers of spirit formations around the residence of that demonic woman. As long as the demonic woman returned, Chu Feng would be able to discover and track her.

Simply put, Chu Feng was planning to ambush her.

While Chu Feng was hiding in the Darknight Ghost Forest, training and lying in wait for the demonic woman, Luyang’s Pavilion had already gained news of what had happened in the Tang Family.

In a certain sleeping chamber in Luyang's Pavilion, Elder Yuan Zhen was kneeling on the ground. In the direction that he was kneeling toward was a large bed.

The square-shaped bed was over a hundred times the size of an ordinary bed. Special gauze cloth dangled on the four sides of the bed.

Within the gauze cloth, one could not clearly see what was happening on the bed even when using world spirit techniques to do so.

Although one could not see what was happening on the bed clearly, one could faintly see through the gauze with one's naked eye that there were several tens of women absolutely naked on the bed. They were all serving a single person. As for that person... he was the Luyang's Pavilion Pavilion Master.

"If he's dead, then let it be. After all, I have only ever taken on three personal disciples because of a sudden urge."

"Merely, that fellow by the name of Chu Feng absolutely cannot be allowed to escape. I must let the people of the world know that, not to mention a disciple of mine, a disciple of this Chu Luyang, even if it's a dog of mine, no one can be allowed to kill them," From the bed sounded the voice of the Luyang's Pavilions Pavilion Master, Chu Luyang.

"Merely, Lord Pavilion Master, since that Chu Feng is surnamed Chu, could he be from your Chu Heavenly Clan?" Elder Yuan Zhen asked.

"Chu Feng? I do not recall there being a person by that name in our Chu Heavenly Clan," After Chu Luyang said those words, his tone suddenly changed. He added, "No, there seems to have been one by such a name."

"There is someone by the name of Chu Feng?" Hearing those words, Elder Yuan Zhen's expression changed enormously. At that instant, he was covered with sweat as fear and nervousness filled his face.

The people from the Chu Heavenly Clan were not people that a minor character like himself could afford to offend. If Chu Feng was truly someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan, he feared that even his Lord Pavilion Master would not be able to protect him.

“Indeed, there is a fellow by that name. However, he has long since died. Furthermore, even if he were alive, it would be useless. The reason for that is because he was trash that did not even possess a Heavenly Bloodline.”

“Hahahaha...” Chu Luyang burst into sudden laughter, “If you hadn't mentioned it, I would've forgotten about that father and son. They are the greatest joke to our Chu Heavenly Clan. Hahahaha.”

Chu Luyang laughed frantically. It was as if he had truly recalled a very funny joke.

However, Chu Luyang's laughter caused Yuan Zhen to feel completely baffled. He truly did not understand how a single person would make Chu Luyang indulge in such laughter.

“Lord Pavilion Master, even if that Chu Feng is not a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan, he is most definitely someone from another Heavenly Clan.”

“For him to have escaped, I fear that there will be trouble in the future,” Elder Yuan Zhen said worriedly.

“Oh Yuan Zhen, I have nurtured you for this long, how could you not even understand something as simple as this?” Chu Luyang said.

“Please forgive this subordinate for his ignorance,” Elder Yuan Zhen lowered his head.

“Let me ask you, if you were someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan, would you not declare the name of the Chu Heavenly Clan should you encounter trouble?”

“Even if you are not from the Chu Heavenly Clan, but instead from another Heavenly Clan, you would still declare your Heavenly Clan’s name should you encounter trouble, no?” Chu Luyang said.

“Lord Pavilion Master is very wise. This subordinate would indeed do so,” Elder Yuan Zhen nodded.

“It would not only be you, any normal person would do so. However, did that Chu Feng ever mention his clan?” Chu Luyang asked.

“He did not,” Elder Yuan Zhen replied.

“There you go. Why did he not mention his clan?” Chu Luyang asked.

“Could it be, that even if he declared his clan, his clan would not help him?” Elder Yuan Zhen asked.

“That’s right. If his clan would protect him, why would he not bring forth his clan’s name?”

“Thus, do not tremble with fear whenever you encounter someone with a Heavenly Bloodline.”

“There are a lot of people in the Heavenly Clans. As for bastards that possess Heavenly Bloodline but not the acknowledgement of their clans, they are even more numerous,” Chu Luyang said.

“This subordinate understands,” Elder Yuan Zhen came to a sudden realization. His expression turned to one of joy.

At that moment, he finally realized why Chu Feng had the name Chu Feng even though he was not part of the Chu Heavenly Clan. The reason for that was because he simply did not belong to any Heavenly Clan. Instead, he was a bastard renounced by his Heavenly Clan.

“It’s good that you understand. Furthermore, remember this: even if he is someone from a certain Heavenly Clan, my Luyang’s Pavilion will still have no fear.”

“You can withdraw now,” Chu Luyang said.

“This subordinate shall take his leave,” Elder Yuan Zhen bowed respectfully. Then, he turned to leave.

“Wait,” Suddenly, Chu Luyang’s voice sounded.

“Woosh~~~”

Then, a title plate flew out from the bed and landed in Elder Yuan Zhen’s hand.

“Lord Pavilion Master, this is?” Upon receiving that title plate, Elder Yuan Zhen immediately revealed an overjoyed expression on his aged face.

That was a title plate that allowed one to mobilize Luyang’s Pavilion’s elders. In other words, it was an emblem of power. With that title plate in hand, even those with strength greater than Elder Yuan Zhen would have to follow his orders obediently.

“After you capture that Chu Feng, do not kill him immediately. You must properly torture him,” Chu Luyang said.

“Lord Pavilion Master, could it be that you know who he is?” Elder Yuan Zhen asked.

“Know who he is?”

“How could I know some trash like him? I merely dislike his name. That’s why I will not let him have a comfortable death. This is the price he must pay for having the wrong name,” Chu Luyang said.

“This subordinate understands. I will definitely not disappoint Lord Pavilion Master,” Elder Yuan Zhen vowed.

.....

Chu Feng had no idea what had happened in Luyang's Pavilion. The entire time, he had been in the Darknight Ghost Forest waiting for the return of the demonic woman while painstakingly training.

Just like that, several more days passed in a flash...

Although the demonic woman had never returned, Chu Feng's training had not been in vain.

Currently, Chu Feng was sitting in a concealment formation. He was concentrating fully.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, a boundless aura spread out from Chu Feng's body. If it wasn't for the fact that his spirit formation had stopped the spreading of the aura, it would definitely have created a huge commotion.

The very next moment, Chu Feng opened his eyes. Not only were his eyes brightly spirited, they were also sharper than before.

However, at the same time, ice-cold killing intent emerged in Chu Feng's eyes.

He slowly clenched his right fist and sensed the surging power in his body. Suddenly, he looked to the direction of the Tang Family and declared with a low voice, “Tang Family, it is time for you all to pay.”

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng's body shifted. His speed was many times faster than before.

It turned out that Chu Feng's current cultivation was no longer that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. Instead, he had become a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

After several days of laborious training, Chu Feng had finally managed to break through the barrier, and become an actual rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

The name Luyang... lu → land. Yang → as in yin and yang. Yang is the male/positive/hot principle.

Chapter 2176 – Lingering Fear

---

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly appeared in the place near where Chu Feng was previously meditating.

It was actually that mysterious old monk.

At that moment, the old monk's gaze was fixed to the sky. Astonishment filled his deep gaze.

If others were to look at the sky that he was looking at, they would not discover anything special about it. However, the old monk saw a scene, a scene that surprised and even astonished him as he looked to the sky.

“That seemed to be the legendary Divine Tribulation.”

“But, ninety percent of its power is still lingering in the sky. Such a frightening power, but only a tenth actually descended?”

“Could it be that it's because only a tenth of its power descended that the might of the Divine Tribulation did not appear?”

“How did he accomplish that? Not only does he train in the legendary Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, he also managed to make the legendary Divine Tribulation weaken its power to use only a tenth of its power to punish its cultivator?”

Suddenly, the old monk turned his gaze toward the direction that Chu Feng had left in. His gaze remained in that direction for a very long time. He had started to ponder.

“That child, exactly what is his origin?”

“Chu Feng; could it be that he's from the Chu Heavenly Clan?” The more he pondered, the more complicated the old monk's gaze became.

If someone who recognized this old monk saw his current gaze, they would definitely feel disbelief.

The reason for that was because very few people had ever managed to make him reveal that sort of gaze, let alone a young man.

.....

“Father and grandfather are truly amazing. If it wasn’t for the experience that they have imparted me with, breaking through would definitely be as difficult as scaling the heavens.”

Chu Feng was concealed in the void as he flew toward the direction of the Tang Family. Even though he was already a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, he was feeling lingering fear.

The reason for that was because while his breakthrough appeared to be normal, it was anything but normal. It was not as simple as Chu Feng having reached a breakthrough from rank one Half Martial Ancestor to rank two Half Martial Ancestor. In addition to that, he had also experienced the cleansing process of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

Merely, the first cleansing process was not as world-shaking as the legends had it. In fact, it could be said that it did not cause any change to the world.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still felt as if he had just survived a calamity.

When Chu Feng first broke through his bottleneck, before he even broke through in cultivation, Chu Feng sensed a very frightening power appearing in the sky. Furthermore, that power was aimed at him. That was the power of the Divine Tribulation.

Chu Feng felt that if all of the power of the Divine Tribulation were to land, he would definitely die without even his soul remaining.

However, the power of the Divine Tribulation did not all descend upon him. In the end, only a tenth of its power descended upon him.

As for the reason why this was the case was all thanks to his father Chu Xuanyuan and his grandfather Chu Hanxian.

At the same time when Chu Feng's father had imparted the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique to Chu Feng, he had also imparted to him the method to handle the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

After all, the power of the Divine Tribulation was capable of causing massive destruction. The higher a cultivation one tried to reach a breakthrough in, the more frightening the power of the Divine Tribulation. Although one needed a very powerful willpower when facing the Divine Tribulation, it would simply be impossible for one to withstand the power of the Divine Tribulation should one try to meet it head-on.

Thus, if one wanted to withstand the might of the Divine Tribulation, there needed to be a certain method of doing so. The easiest method of doing so would be to temper oneself. Through the power of the Divine Tribulation, one could cleanse one's body so that it could adapt to the power of the Divine Tribulation.

With each breakthrough, one could gradually increase the strength of the cleansing process so as to be able to take on an even more powerful Divine Tribulation.

However, it remained that the Divine Tribulation was extremely frightening. If one did not undergo any treatment before receiving all of the Divine Tribulation's powers, not to mention adapting to it, one might directly be killed by the Divine Tribulation.

As for this time, Chu Feng had received the Divine Tribulation's first cleansing. The reason why he had only received a tenth of the Divine Tribulation's power was precisely because of that concealment formation.

No one would've thought that a mere concealment formation would be able to misguide the Self-punishment Mysterious Formation and let the legendary Divine Tribulation only descend with a tenth of its power.

However, Chu Feng knew about it. As for the reason why he knew, it was all thanks to his father and grandfather.

“The Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique truly possesses a well-deserved reputation. It would appear that my future cultivation journey will be very difficult,” Chu Feng frowned slightly. After the Divine Tribulation’s first cleansing, the always confident Chu Feng was no longer that confident anymore.

Although a tenth of the Divine Tribulation’s power might not appear to have created any commotion, to the point where even the grasses and trees in the surrounding region were unaffected, that didn’t mean that a tenth of the Divine Tribulation’s power would be extremely weak.

On the contrary, the power was not weak at all. In fact, it was much more frightening than the complete power of the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique.

The reason for that was because all one-tenth of the Divine Tribulation’s power had struck Chu Feng. Not a single bit was wasted.

Even though Chu Feng had managed to withstand it without suffering any injuries, he had done so with great difficulty. Thus, this allowed him to know that what had happened here today was merely the beginning, that his next breakthrough would definitely be even more challenging.

The reason for that was because even if he were to use a concealment formation when attempting his next breakthrough, it would be impossible for the Divine Tribulation to only descend with a tenth of its power.

The power of the Divine Tribulation that would strike him the next time would be twenty percent.

Furthermore, the power of the first Divine Tribulation would be incomparable to that of the next one. After all, the stronger one's cultivation was, the more powerful the Divine Tribulation would be.

Most importantly, when the power of the Divine Tribulation that descended upon Chu Feng surpassed fifty percent, it would no longer be formless. Instead, it would become visible to everyone.

At that time, not only would its power be boundless, it would also have enormous momentum.

In other words, if Chu Feng did not wish to create a grand commotion when attempting to break through to rank six Half Martial Ancestor, he must find a hidden location to conduct his breakthrough.

Else, he would most definitely create an enormous commotion.

Furthermore, when Chu Feng attempted to break through to rank two Martial Ancestor, the concealment formation will lose its effectiveness.

At that time, what Chu Feng would have to withstand would be the entire power of the Divine Tribulation.

Thus, before that, Chu Feng must grow accustomed to the boundless power that the Divine Tribulation possessed. Else, he would definitely be killed.

All of those things combined to determine that Chu Feng's future path of martial cultivation would be filled with difficulties.

"This Tang Family truly did not place me in their eyes."

In merely a blink of an eye, Chu Feng had arrived at the Tang Family. He discovered that the Tang Family had not even activated their defensive formation, and their security was extremely lax. Compared to the time when they had fought against the Cao Family, it could be said to be a difference of heaven and earth.

"Could it be a trap?" Chu Feng's gaze changed. In the end, he decided to conceal his aura and secretly infiltrate the Tang Family.

Because what the Tang Family did to him was truly too excessive, no matter what, Chu Feng was unable to contain the anger and hatred he held toward them.

At the beginning, Chu Feng was very cautious after infiltrating the Tang Family. However, he soon discovered that he was overthinking things. There was simply no trap at all. Rather, the Tang Family truly did not place him in their eyes.

The reason for that was because not only was the Tang Family's security extremely lax, none of the experts had remained in the Tang Family. Of the people from the Tang Family that remained, there was actually not a single Half Martial Ancestor.

Suddenly, Chu Feng saw a servant girl. Chu Feng recognized that servant girl. It was the same servant girl that had secretly reported to Tang Ying that her two older brothers were planning to marry her off to the Cao Family.

Chu Feng felt that this servant girl could be considered to be Tang Ying's trusted aide. Thus, he captured her when she was off guard and brought her to a secluded area.

“Lord Chu Feng, it's you?!”

To Chu Feng's surprise, the frightened servant girl's fear disappeared the moment she saw Chu Feng. Furthermore, she even revealed a delighted expression.

Chapter 2177 – The Pitiful Tang Ying

---

“Don’t address me as ‘Lord,’ merely Chu Feng will do,” Chu Feng said with a light smile.

“Lord Chu Feng, d-did you return with reinforcements? Have you come to eliminate our Tang Family?” That servant girl asked.

“If you’re talking about the group of people in the Tang Family now, then no, I, Chu Feng, will not kill them. I, Chu Feng, am not one who kills the weak,” Chu Feng shook his head. To Chu Feng, the people remaining in the Tang Family right now were all powerless individuals. As such, Chu Feng would not kill them.

“Lord Chu Feng, you are truly a good man. I-In that case, can you save our Young Miss?” The servant girl begged Chu Feng.

“Your Young Miss? Are you talking about Tang Ying?” Chu Feng asked.

“Yes, it’s our Young Miss Tang Ying,” That servant girl said.

“What happened to Tang Ying? Quickly, tell me about it,” Chu Feng asked.

The servant girl did not conceal the matter from Chu Feng, and began to inform him of everything that had happened.

“Tang Haichuan, you are truly bold. For the sake of preserving your Tang Family, you actually refuse to let off even your own daughter,” Fury immediately emerged in Chu Feng’s eyes after knowing what had happened.

It turned out that after Chu Feng escaped, although Elder Yuan Zhen was furious that the Tang and Cao Families allowed Chu Feng to escape, he did not violate his promise, and really made the Tang and Cao Families reconcile with one another. Furthermore, at the same time, he made the Cao Family compensate the Tang Family for their loss. He also made them hand over many territories to the Tang Family.

After that battle, although the Tang Family's loss was great, the benefits they had obtained were much greater than their losses.

To the Tang Family, this was truly a profit from a disaster. However, Elder Yuan Zhen had a demand. That was, he wanted the Tang Family's Family Head to marry his youngest daughter Tang Ying to the Cao Family's Family Head's youngest son, that retard.

Faced with that decision, the Tang Family's Family Head chose the interests of the Tang Family without the slightest hesitation, and sold his own daughter to the Cao Family.

When speaking of that matter, it was quite a coincidence. The Alliance Ceremony between the Tang and the Cao Families was to be held in several days' time. At that ceremony, Tang Ying would officially be married off to the Cao Family.

"Lord Chu Feng, the reason why Elder Yuan Zhen disliked our Young Miss is precisely because she pleaded for you that day."

"Right now, our Young Miss can be said to be completely isolated; the people that were closest to her have betrayed her."

"Right now, the only person that could save our Young Miss would be you, Lord Chu Feng."

"Lord Chu Feng, I beg of you, please, please save our Young Miss."

"If our Young Miss is truly to be married off to the Cao Family, she might end up dying there. That Cao Family most definitely plans to torture our Young Miss."

"After all, Cao Yuxuan was killed by you, and all the people in the Cao Family know that you possess an extraordinary relationship with our Young Miss. They will definitely aim their hatred for you at our Young Miss," When she spoke to this point, the servant girl fell to her knees before Chu Feng. Her cheeks were already covered in tears.

“You are very loyal to your Young Miss. Rest assured, I will save her.”

“However, do not mention that you have seen me to anyone. Pretend like I never appeared, because it will only serve to harm you.”

Hearing Chu Feng’s words, the servant girl raised her head and planned to express her thanks. However, to her surprise, she discovered that Chu Feng was already gone. Furthermore, there was a floating Cosmos Sack where Chu Feng had previously been standing.

After receiving that Cosmos Sack, the servant girl’s expression immediately turned sluggish. The reason for that was because the riches and treasures contained in the Cosmos Sack were things that she would find very difficult to obtain in her entire lifetime.

Chu Feng traveled rapidly. He managed to arrive at the Cao Family before the Alliance Ceremony of the Tang and Cao Families.

For the sake of the marriage, the Cao Family had invited a vast amount of guests. Not only had the nearby powers arrived, even some of the people from Luyang’s Pavilion had arrived. Elder Yuan Zhen was naturally among their ranks.

Tomorrow was the day of the Tang and Cao Families’ Alliance Ceremony. It would also be the day that Tang Ying would be married into the Cao Family.

Chu Feng planned to save Tang Ying beforehand. He absolutely could not allow Tang Ying to undergo that marriage ceremony with the Cao Family’s youngest son.

However, to Chu Feng’s surprise, the Tang Family had already handed Tang Ying to the Cao Family at an earlier date. They had truly and completely sold Tang Ying away.

After a series of inquiries, Chu Feng finally found out where Tang Ying was located. Not only did she not receive the treatment of a bride, she was even imprisoned in an underground prison.

The prison was very heavily guarded. It would simply be impossible for ordinary people to enter it. However, this posed no threat to Chu Feng.

In order to not alarm anyone, Chu Feng did not kill anyone. Instead, he used a special technique to render the people inside the underground prison unconscious. It was only then that he entered the prison.

Before Chu Feng even reached the cell that Tang Ying was held in, Chu Feng was already able to see Tang Ying being held inside the prison.

At that moment, Tang Ying was tightly bound by spirit formation ropes. Not to mention moving, she was unable to even speak.

Although Tang Ying was not crying, her reddened eyes were already swollen. This meant that she had cried for a very long time before.

Her eyes were dispirited. It was as if she had no more longing for living anymore; it seemed she was determined to die.

The way Chu Feng saw it, if it wasn't for the fact that her movements were restricted by spirit formation, she would've likely killed herself by now.

After all, she had been betrayed by her closest people, her family.

When Chu Feng saw the scene in the underground prison, what emerged in his heart was not only pain, but also anger.

The reason for that was because Tang Ying was not the only person in that prison cell. Standing before her was a woman.

That woman was quite good-looking, and was dressed quite gorgeously. In a revealing outfit, she appeared very alluring.

However, although this woman might appear to be young, Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that she was at least a thousand years old.

“Why aren’t you speaking? You damned bitch, tell me why you decided to break the promise of marriage, why did you refuse to marry my son? Is it because of that Chu Feng?”

“Speak, speak! Oh, I nearly forgot, you are unable to speak. Even your ability to speak has been taken from you by your family members.”

“However, you cannot blame your family. After all, you are so shameless.”

“Hehe, I might as well tell you this. Cao Yuxuan’s death by that Chu Feng’s hand is also related to you. Cao Yuxuan’s mother will definitely not spare you. Sooner or later, you will die.”

“However, there is simply no need for Cao Yuxuan’s mother to take care of you. The reason for that is because I will not spare you. Your decision to break the marriage with my son before is simply an insult to my son.”

“Thus, don’t you think that you will really become our Cao Family’s daughter-in-law because we allowed you to be married to my son.”

“After the marriage ceremony tomorrow, it will be the time of your death, Tang Ying. However, I will not let you die easily. I will make you first wish that you were dead.”

“I have already gathered a hundred homeless wanderers, as well as a hundred of the ugliest monstrous beasts. I will have them rape you in succession.”

“You want to remain chaste? You want to look down upon my son? I’ll have you suffer torment, pain and ruin before you die!!!” That woman pointed to Tang Ying and said fiercely.

After hearing those words, Chu Feng knew that this woman was most definitely the Cao Family's youngest son's mother.

Being insulted like that, Tang Ying would naturally also be furious. However, as she was unable to speak, she could only glower at the retard's mother.

“Bitch, you dare glare at me?!” The retard's mother was immediately furious. She raised her hand and made to swat Tang Ying's cheek.

Chapter 2178 – Friends

“Paa~~~”

After a crisp sound, that woman’s expression immediately changed. The reason for that was because not only did her slap not land on Tang Ying’s face, it was instead caught by someone.

Naturally, the person who had blocked her slap was Chu Feng.

“W-Who are you?” Evidently, this woman did not know who Chu Feng was. She had an extremely startled expression.

“I am Chu Feng,” Chu Feng declared.

“What, y-y-you are Chu Feng?” Hearing those words, that woman immediately turned around to flee. However, her hand was still in Chu Feng’s grasp. As such, how could she possibly escape?

“Men! Help! Chu Feng is here!” In panic, the woman started to shout for help.

“Humph,” However, Chu Feng merely snorted coldly. Then, with a flip of his sleeve, he knocked that woman into the corner of the prison.

Then, with another flip of Chu Feng’s sleeve, he undid the spirit formation sealing Tang Ying.

“Punish her however you wish. For someone like her, there is no need to show any mercy,” Chu Feng said as he pointed to that woman.

“No, don’t!” Upon hearing that, the woman immediately screamed in terror. However, her voice grew weaker and weaker. It was not only her voice that became very weak; even her aura became very weak. She was completely restricted by Chu Feng.

“Who are you calling a bitch?! If you want to talk about bitches, you’re the bitch. Who doesn’t know about your actions of inciting the Cao Family's Family Head?"

"In order to be married to the Cao Family's Family Head, you even killed your twin younger sister. You are simply inhuman!"

Tang Ying was finally able to unleash her anger now. Unrestrained, she started to beat up the woman, leaving her face completely bruised and lacerated.

Tang Ying beat her unconscious.

After seeing that she had lost consciousness, Tang Ying finally ceased her attacks. Her anger seemed to have been alleviated, as the anger that she had shown previously was substituted by nervousness.

"Chu Feng, why would you be here? The Cao Family and the Tang Family are searching for you all over," Tang Ying said to Chu Feng nervously.

"I have naturally come here to save you. Don't forget, I am your bodyguard," Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

"But..."

"There's no but. I'll ask you this: if I were to bring you away, would you be willing to leave with me?" Chu Feng asked.

"The current Tang Family is no longer my, Tang Ying's, family. As for the people in the Cao Family, they are determined to torture and humiliate me. I would naturally want to leave. But..."

"There's no but. If you wish to leave, I can bring you away now. Although you will have no relatives from this point on, you will have friends," Chu Feng said to Tang Ying with a smile.

"But..." As Tang Ying spoke, she looked to the place where she had been tied up earlier.

Her intentions were very clear. If she were to leave, the Cao Family would definitely discover that she had escaped. If that were to happen, the situation would be bad.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly extended his finger and pointed at that woman.

With each flick of his finger, a strand of spirit power entered that woman's body.

In the blink of an eye, an enormous change occurred to that woman's body. Not only did her facial appearance turn into Tang Ying's appearance, even her clothes turned into Tang Ying's clothes.

Then, with a wave of Chu Feng's sleeve, that woman ended up at the place where Tang Ying had previously been tied up. Even the spirit formation that had been restraining Tang Ying, that had been canceled by Chu Feng, once again reemerged.

Merely, the spirit formation ropes were no longer tying up Tang Ying. Instead, they were tying up that woman.

However, to others, it appeared just as if the ropes were tying up Tang Ying.

“Chu Feng, you couldn't possibly...” Seeing this scene, Tang Ying immediately thought of something. She was both startled and delighted.

“That's right. I'm going to have that retard marry his deranged mother. I'll completely humiliate the Cao Family,” Chu Feng declared.

“I truly never expected for you to be this malicious,” Although Chu Feng's plan was extremely crazy, Tang Ying supported it absolutely. Just thinking about the expression the people from the Cao Family would have caused Tang Ying immense satisfaction.

“Malicious? When facing good people, I, Chu Feng, will be the best person. However, when facing bad people, I, Chu Feng, will be the worst person.”

“Perhaps I will not be able to compare to others in terms of goodness, but in terms of evilness, I, Chu Feng, will not lose to anyone,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing what Chu Feng said, Tang Ying felt warmth in her heart. This was especially true as she had just been betrayed by her family, by the people that she had trusted most in her entire life. She felt so extremely warm that tears began to roll down her eyes.

“Hey, hey, hey, stop crying. This is the way life is. This is the nature of your family. Although it might be cruel for you to see their true nature today, it remains a good thing. As for why, you will understand in the future,” Although Chu Feng’s words were a bit harsh, he had also raised his hand to personally wipe away Tang Ying’s tears.

At that moment, Tang Ying felt extremely glad. She was glad that she had decided to go to the Radiance Immortal Mountain that day. She was glad to have met Chu Feng.

Before, she felt that there was nothing left for her in this world. However, she now discovered that that wasn’t the case.

At the very least, she had a true friend. As for that person, it was Chu Feng.

Although she and Chu Feng had only known one another for a short time, Chu Feng was willing to brave dangers for her.

Then, Chu Feng brought Tang Ying out of the Cao Family.

As for the guards of the underground prison, Chu Feng naturally woke them back up. The guards did not know that they had lost consciousness earlier. However, they felt that something was amiss. Thus, the first thing they did was to run to the prison cell that Tang Ying was imprisoned in to survey her.

It was only after they opened the prison cell and discovered that Tang Ying was still there that the guards breathed a sigh of relief.

Suddenly, the warden asked. “Eh, this is strange, when did the Sixth Madam leave?” He only remembered when the Sixth Madam arrived at this place, and did not remember the Sixth Madam leaving.

“She should have just left, right?” In response, the various guards started to hurriedly lie.

Naturally, they would not dare to say that they did not know when the Sixth Madam had left.

The reason for that was because if they said it like that, it would mean that they had neglected their duty, something that they would be punished for.

“Mn, it’s good that that’s the case. Sixth Madam has been in a bad mood recently. We cannot afford to offend her,” As the warden spoke, he began to lead the guards out.

“Wuu!”

“Wuu!!”

“Wuu!!!”

Right at this moment, that woman suddenly regained consciousness. When she saw the prison guards, she tried to cry for help. However, she was surprised to discover that not only was she unable to speak, she was also unable to move in the slightest. All she could do was let out muffled groans.

In panic, tears started to roll down her cheeks.

“Damned bitch, the fuck are you shouting about?!” The warden walked into the prison cell, raised his hand and ruthlessly slapped that woman.

“Milord, is this really fine? After all, she is to be married off to our Young Master tomorrow,” The other guards were all startled to see this.

“The hell are you all afraid of? Do not forget that I, your lord, know world spirit techniques,” The warden said. As he spoke, he began to use his world spirit techniques to heal that woman. Soon, the cheek with the bloody handprint was healed.

“Haha, Milord, you’re truly amazing,” In response, the guards started to flatter their warden.

“Of course,” The warden had a proud expression. As he spoke and laughed, he walked out of the prison cell.

However, he had no idea that the woman he had hit earlier was not Tang Ying. Rather, it was the Sixth Madam that he did not dare to offend.

Chapter 2179 – Retarded Sex Fiend

---

At that moment, Chu Feng had already brought Tang Ying to a place far from the Cao Family. Not only did he prepare sufficient travel expenses for Tang Ying, he had also used his world spirit techniques to help her alter her appearance.

Unless one was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it would simply be impossible for anyone to see through Tang Ying's altered appearance.

“From today on, your name can remain Ying. However, your full name cannot be Tang Ying, understand?”

“Furthermore, I can only bring you here. You will have to travel the rest of your journey yourself. Get as far away from here as you can and do not return here,” Chu Feng instructed Tang Ying.

“Chu Feng, will we be able to meet again in the future?” Tang Ying asked.

“If fate wills it, we will definitely meet again,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, will you eliminate all the people of our Tang Family?” Tang Ying asked.

“It would be best that you do not ask about this matter. I fear that the answer will make you feel uncomfortable,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, Tang Ying grew silent. She knew that Chu Feng would definitely not spare the people of the Tang Family.

Even though the people from the Tang Family had betrayed her, it remained that they were her relatives. The affection of many years was not something that could be erased so easily.

Upon thinking that her father and old brothers would all be killed, she felt very pained and reluctant.

However, she did not know how she could persuade Chu Feng to spare them. After all, the Tang Family had indeed wronged Chu Feng enormously.

Furthermore, she owed Chu Feng enormously.

“No matter what, I must still thank you,” Tang Ying said to Chu Feng.

“Stop acting this foolishly. In the future, you must make sure to not believe people that easily. Remember, you must take care of yourself,” Chu Feng said to Tang Ying with a smile.

“Mn,” Tang Ying nodded.

“Go on, I’ll see you off from afar,” Chu Feng said.

Tang Ying smiled sweetly. She did not wish for Chu Feng to see a sad expression on her during their separation; she wished to leave behind a good impression for Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because she knew that this separation might be a separation of a lifetime.

Tang Ying walked away. Gradually, she disappeared from Chu Feng’s line of sight.

As for Chu Feng, he felt even more sadness in his heart. In one’s life, one would meet many people that would end up separating. Tang Ying was one such person for him.

However, he wished that Tang Ying would be able to live a better life in the future. The reason for that was because Chu Feng could imagine how painful it must be for her to be betrayed by the family that that she loved the most.

After silently looking at the direction in which Tang Ying had left for a very long time, Chu Feng turned around and began to proceed toward the direction of the Cao Family.

Tang Ying’s guess was correct, Chu Feng would spare neither the Tang Family nor the Cao Family.

Tomorrow, at the Alliance Ceremony held at the Cao Family, it would be the time for Chu Feng to dispense justice on the Tang and Cao Families.

.....

The next day, the Alliance Ceremony between the Tang and the Cao Families began as scheduled. All of the people who were able to enter this place could be considered famous and powerful existences in the area.

Even though both the Tang Family and the Cao Family were actually unwilling to enter this alliance – the two families were, after all, killing one another not long ago, and both had suffered casualties in the process – they had to appear very merry, as there were this many guests, and even Luyang's Pavilion's Elder Yuan Zhen and many other experts present.

After seeing the merry appearance of the Tang and Cao Families, the guests that had arrived were all quite surprised. After all, they had heard that the Tang and Cao Families were at each other's throats not long ago.

Originally, many people were skeptical when they heard the news that the Tang and Cao Families would be allying with one another. They had come here with doubt in their hearts. However, to their surprise, the Tang and Cao Families were actually really going to become allies.

Even though they had questions in their hearts, it remained that people from Luyang's Pavilion were present. As such, the guests did not raise any mood-dampening questions. Instead, they all pretended to be very happy.

With this being the case, this Alliance Ceremony naturally became even livelier. It had reached what the Tang and Cao Families had hoped for.

During the lively excitement, no one noticed that an uninvited guest had infiltrated this Alliance Ceremony. This person was naturally the person that the Tang and Cao Families were secretly searching for, Chu Feng.

Chu Feng had been surveying the strength of the people from Luyang's Pavilion the entire time.

The reason why Chu Feng was only surveying the strength of the people from Luyang's Pavilion was because he was already capable of ignoring the Tang and Cao Families' forces.

The reason for that was because even their strongest Family Heads would not be a match for Chu Feng now.

Chu Feng also did not place that Elder Yuan Zhen in his eyes. Between those with the same battle power, Chu Feng did not fear anyone.

However, Chu Feng knew that the power of Luyang's Pavilion was most definitely not limited to this. Although Elder Yuan Zhen's status might be high in Luyang's Pavilion, his strength was definitely not overly strong.

Thus, Chu Feng was focused on surveying the others from Luyang's Pavilion. After surveying the others from Luyang's Pavilion, Chu Feng felt relief.

The reason for that was because of the people from Luyang's Pavilion that had come to this Alliance Ceremony, the strongest person was actually Elder Yuan Zhen. The others were weaker than even Yuan Zhen. As such, Chu Feng would naturally not have to be afraid of them.

However, even after he determined that the people present in the Alliance Ceremony would pose no threat to him, Chu Feng did not act immediately. The reason for that was because he wanted to enjoy a great show first.

As for that, it would be the scene of the Cao Family's Family Head's Sixth Madam being married to the Cao Family's youngest son.

From Tang Ying, Chu Feng came to find out that even though the Cao Family's youngest son was retarded, he was extremely perverted, and had defiled many women.

In fact, even many children had ended up being captured by his vile hands. Most disgustingly, he would even defile boys who were young and tender-looking.

Furthermore, many of the children were killed by him from the rape due to being too young. He was most definitely an animal.

As for that animal's mother, that so-called Sixth Madam, she was not a good person either.

Originally, the person the Cao Family's Family Head had grown fond of was actually the Sixth Madam's twin sister. However, for the sake of position and wealth, the Sixth Madam had personally caused the death of her twin sister.

The Cao Family's Family Head also knew about this matter. However, it remained that the dead could not be brought back to life. Furthermore, the Sixth Madam's appearance was exactly the same as her twin sister's. Thus, not only did the Cao Family's Family Head not kill her, he instead took her as his wife.

After the Sixth Madam married into the Cao Family, she immediately started to incite trouble. Any servant she was not fond of was killed by her immediately. She was extremely cruel.

Thus, Chu Feng did not feel any sense of guilt when doing such a thing to that mother and son. Instead, he felt that it was what they deserved. After all, he felt that what he schemed could be said to be helping the heavens do a good deed.

Moreover, his actions would completely disgrace the Cao Family, and also humiliate the Tang Family. As such, this could be said to be killing three birds with one arrow.

The Alliance Ceremony continued without a hitch. It was merely a ceremony that caused one to feel sleepy.

After the Alliance Ceremony ended, Chu Feng's highlight of the day, the marriage between Tang Ying and the Cao Family's youngest son, finally appeared on stage.

When Cao Yu appeared on stage, many people wanted to laugh. That fellow was extremely ugly. It was as if he was soft in the head. His mouth was crooked, and his eyes were slanted. Furthermore, saliva was dripping from his mouth nonstop.

His appearance resembled neither the Cao Family's Family Head nor his mother.

However, if that was all there was to it, the crowd would not have wanted to laugh. Most importantly, he was being helped up to the stage by two servant girls.

Furthermore, as he walked, his eyes were fixed onto the servant girls' chests nonstop. The more he looked, the more saliva he began to drool. His pervertedness was extremely obvious.

Seeing Cao Yu acting like this, the rumors of his outrageous lust were verified. When thinking of a retard that lacked intelligence and did not even know who his parents and siblings were, yet would have such lust and think about doing perverted things all day, how could one not feel the urge to laugh?

Chinese people are not PC at all. They would only be PC if the person is in front of them or the person is of a higher status than them. So yeah... when judging this from a Western POV, what Bee wrote is definitely not something publishable in the 21st century. But China? Still there.

Chapter 2180 – Outrageous Boldness

Naturally, it was Chu Feng who spoke. However, no one knew that it was Chu Feng. After all, Chu Feng had disguised his appearance.

“What’s going on? Did the Cao Family really bind Cao Yu’s limbs? Why did they do that?!”

Hearing those words, the crowd were all surprised. However, upon closer inspection, they noticed that while Cao Yu’s hands were covered by his special groom’s outfit, they were completely motionless. It seemed as if they were truly bound.

At this moment, the crowd finally realized why Cao Yu did not do anything even though he was nearly driven mad with lust by the two servant girls supporting him.

It turned out, his hands were bound. Even if he wished to move... he would not be able to.

“Haha, my youngest son was inattentive when he was training a martial skill several days ago. It led to his hands being injured. That is why his arms are not moving,” The Cao Family’s Family Head explained.

“So Young Master Cao Yu also knows martial skills. This is the first time I’ve heard of that, hahaha!!!” Chu Feng laughed mockingly. Furthermore, his laughter was very loud. It practically filled the entire Cao Family.

While others might be scared of the Cao Family, Chu Feng was not afraid of them.

After Chu Feng said those words, many people present also had the urge to laugh. The reason for that was because they all knew that even though Cao Yu possessed cultivation, it had been instilled in him by the Cao Family using special methods, that he simply did not know how to cultivate.

Thus, it was most definitely utter nonsense for the Cao Family's Family Head to declare that Cao Yu had injured his hands because he was training in a martial skill.

Furthermore, upon thinking that the Cao Family's Family Head lied because he was trying to conceal the fact that his son was too perverted, the people present felt it to be even more laughable.

However, out of respect for the Cao Family, not a single person dared to laugh. One by one, they all swallowed their laughter.

“Hahaha, little friend, you truly know how to crack jokes. There is no one in our Cao Family who does not know how to train in martial cultivation, let alone when it's my son,” The Cao Family's Family Head said with a beaming smile. Although he spoke pleasantly, the gaze with which he looked to Chu Feng contained a trace of killing intent.

He was using his killing intent to threaten Chu Feng. Furthermore, voice transmissions were entering Chu Feng's ears.

Those were voice transmissions from the people of the Cao Family. Some were asking who Chu Feng was, and others were telling Chu Feng to watch his words. In short, like the Cao Family's Family Head's gaze, they were all threatening Chu Feng.

All the things that were happening right now were things that had Chu Feng anticipated.

Of course, Chu Feng was not afraid of this sort of situation. The reason for that was because even if the Cao Family did not try to do anything to him, he would still not spare them.

In fact, it was not only the people of the Cao Family who disliked Chu Feng, the people from Luyang's Pavilion also felt disdain for

Chu Feng.

No matter what, the Cao Family was a subsidiary power to Luyang's Pavilion. For Chu Feng to incite troubles for the Cao Family like that meant that he also did not place their Luyang's Pavilion in his eyes.

However, to Chu Feng, he did not care about any of this. The reason for that was because he was not planning to spare either the Cao Family, the Tang Family or Luyang's Pavilion today.

"Go and invite the bride out. Do not hold up this ceremonious occasion," Elder Yuan Zhen said. He spoke those words in order to alleviate the awkward situation.

"Yes," The people from the Cao Family understood Elder Yuan Zhen's kind intentions. Without hesitation, they soon brought the other main character today, Tang Ying, onto the stage.

When Tang Ying was brought to the stage, her head was covered by a veil. The veil was very special, and capable of blocking all sorts of observation methods. Thus, no one was able to see her facial appearance.

Actually, even if the veil was removed, no one would be able to discover that it was not Tang Ying. After all, the facial alteration spirit formation that Chu Feng had set up was still there. Only Chu Feng was able to lift that spirit formation.

Thus, at this moment, the person that was doing the ritual kneeling and bowing to heaven and earth with Cao Yu, the person that was marrying him, was not Tang Ying. Rather, it was Cao Yu's biological mother.

"First bow to the heaven and earth!!!"

"Second bow to one's parents!!!"

"Husband and wife, bow to one another!!!"

When the marriage director shouted the final instruction, Cao

Yu, with the assistance of the servant girls, bowed to Tang Ying.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that Tang Ying was being supported by a strong Cao Family servant girl during the kneeling and bowing ceremony.

The reason for this was naturally because they were afraid that Tang Ying would refuse to do the ceremony. However, no one would've expect that the person kneeling and bowing with Cao Yu was simply not Tang Ying at all. Rather, it was Cao Yu's own mother.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng waved his sleeve. Suddenly, a surge of wind suddenly swept forth and moved directly toward the wedding stage.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

In response, the Cao Family's Family Head who sat on the stage also waved his sleeve, and unleashed his aura of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. He planned to use his own strength to suppress that wind.

“Huu~~~”

However, the wind suddenly accelerated. Even though the majority of the wind was suppressed by the Cao Family's Family Head, there was still a gust of wind that reached the bride on the stage. That wind blew away the red veil covering the bride's face.

When the red veil was lifted, the expressions of the crowd all changed to ones of shock. This was especially true for the people of the Cao Family. They stood there as if petrified; they were completely stunned. Soon... their complexions turned ashen.

“That... that seems to not be the Tang Family's Young Miss, right?”

Tang Ying could be considered to be a celebrity in the surrounding region. Thus, many people recognized her. When they discovered that the woman on stage was not Tang Ying, they were all surprised. After all, today was the wedding ceremony between Tang Ying and Cao Yu.

Suddenly, a cry of surprise sounded from the crowd. “I-I-Isn’t that the Sixth Madam?”

“What? The Cao Family’s Sixth Madam? Isn’t she Cao Yu’s biological mother?”

The crowd were all shocked upon hearing those words. Although not many people had met the Cao Family’s Sixth Madam before, a lot of people knew that the Cao Family’s Sixth Madam was Cao Yu’s mother.

“Heavens! It really is the Sixth Madam! This means that Cao Yu has undergone a marriage ceremony with his own mother!”

“Heavens! Exactly what is going on here?! Why would the Cao Family’s Family Master betroth his own wife to his son?!”

The crowd were all stunned and confused as to what the Cao Family was thinking.

As for the people of the Cao Family, they felt that they were completely disgraced. This was especially true for the Cao Family’s Family Head; his complexion turned from blue to purple, and then from purple to green. He was nearly driven insane.

“Tang Haichuan, what is the meaning of this?!” In anger, the Cao Family’s Family Head looked to the Tang Family’s Family Head. He thought that this was caused by the Tang Family.

“Why are you shouting at me?! Didn’t I already hand my daughter to your Cao Family? Why are you demanding things from me now?” The Tang Family’s Family Head immediately shifted responsibility away from himself.

“Yoh, yoh, yoh, what’s this? Before the marriage even began, you’ve already sent your daughter away? What is the meaning behind that? Family Heads, why am I confused?” Right at this moment, Chu Feng's voice sounded again.

“Insolent! The person that caused the wind earlier was you! Exactly who are you?! You dared to come stir up troubles in my Cao Family?!” The Cao Family's Family Head pointed at Chu Feng and shouted angrily.

At this moment, the crowd present all turned their gazes to Chu Feng.

From the very beginning, Chu Feng had been creating troubles for the Cao Family. The people present also wanted to know exactly who this outrageously bold man was.

Chapter 2181 – Merely A Single Sword Strike

---

“Cao Family’s Family Head, what’s wrong? How could you have forgotten about me this quickly?” Chu Feng laughed lightly. Then, he flipped his sleeve and removed the clothes he wore.

At this moment, not only did Chu Feng reveal his true appearance, his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings also covered his entire body.

Upon seeing Chu Feng, not only were the people from the Tang and Cao Families shocked, even the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Elder Yuan Zhen was shocked.

His expression changed enormously as he stood up nervously.

“Those Thunder Wings and that Thunder Armor...”

“He... he... he is someone from the Heavenly Clans!!!”

“Heavens! Judging by his age, he should be a member of the younger generation. A member of the younger generation actually possesses this level of cultivation, exactly which Heavenly Clan managed to nurture such a genius?”

In addition to the people from the Tang and Cao Families, many of the people that did not know who Chu Feng was also revealed shocked expressions. In fact, they were much more astonished than the Tang and Cao Families.

Many people did not know about the conflict between Chu Feng and the Tang and Cao Families. That said, it didn’t change the fact that they revealed astonished expressions upon seeing Chu Feng.

The reason for that was not only because Chu Feng had revealed that he had a Heavenly Bloodline, the cultivation that he had obtained at his young age also caused countless people to gasp with admiration.

“Everyone, I bet you all do not know who I am.”

“To make a long story short, I am called Chu Feng. Days ago, when the Cao Family was attacking the Tang Family, I received a request from the Tang Family’s Young Miss Tang Ying and fought for the Tang Family.”

“In that battle, in order to save the Tang Family, I killed the Cao Family’s Third Young Master, Cao Yuxuan.”

“Precisely because of that, Luyang’s Pavilion decided to interfere in this matter, and demanded that both the Tang and Cao Families to lay down their personal grudges to join hands and take care of me.”

“As for the Tang Family, for their own interests, they decided to break faith and aim their weapons at me, who had been helping them the entire time.”

“Everyone, I ask of you all, is this the way one should act?” Chu Feng spread his hands and asked the crowd.

At this moment, the crowd had burst into an uproar. The reason for that was because what Chu Feng had said was truly too astonishing.

Merely his declaration that he had killed Cao Yuxuan caused the crowd to gasp in surprise. After all, Cao Yuxuan’s reputation had not been falsely obtained.

Chu Feng had helped the Tang Family kill Cao Yuxuan. Yet, the Tang Family instead kicked their benefactor in the teeth. This came as an even greater disbelief for the crowd.

“Chu Feng, never would I have expected that you would dare to come here alone,” Suddenly, Elder Yuan Zhen laughed and walked out.

When he first saw Chu Feng, he was frightened. He became extremely nervous because he feared that Chu Feng had brought reinforcements.

However, after he observed his surroundings, he discovered that Chu Feng had not brought any reinforcements with him. Instead, he had arrived by himself. Upon discovering that, his nervousness was immediately cast away, and replaced with a mocking smile.

The reason for that was because he was able to ascertain that Chu Feng was a so-called ‘bastard child’ that Chu Luyang spoke of. All of the Heavenly Clans had a lot of bastard children. As for those bastard children, they simply did not have any backing.

Right after Elder Yuan Zhen said those words, the expressions of the surrounding crowd changed once again. After all, Elder Yuan Zhen did not declare what Chu Feng had said to be false. Since he did not deny it, it indirectly verified what Chu Feng had said.

Upon thinking that Chu Feng had actually killed the Cao Family’s genius Cao Yuxuan, and that the Tang Family were actually ingrates, the crowd became even more astonished.

“Haha...” At this moment, Chu Feng laughed. He said, “Taking care of you bunch, I myself will suffice.”

“What shameless boasting,” Elder Yuan Zhen snorted coldly. Then, he said to the Cao and Tang Families’ Family Heads, “Tang Haichuan, Cao Kuofeng, I will present you two with an opportunity to redeem yourselves. This time, do not let him escape.”

“Elder, please rest assured. We will definitely not give him the opportunity to escape again.”

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

As they spoke, Tang Haichuan and Cao Kuofeng unleashed their respective Incomplete Ancestral Armaments and charged to attack Chu Feng.

Their actions immediately caused their Ancestral-level martial power to scatter in all directions.

At the same time, two enormous surges of power surged toward Chu Feng.

They were extremely powerful, and definitely not ordinary martial skills. They had already surpassed Heaven Taboo Martial Skills.

Being utilized with their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, they turned into two sinister and enormous ferocious beasts. The two ferocious beasts roared nonstop. It was as if they were going to devour everything. Their might was simply unstoppable.

Those were two Emperor Taboo Martial Skills. As Chu Feng had anticipated, the two Family Heads really had grasped Emperor Taboo Martial Skills. Although their mastery over their Emperor Taboo Martial Skills was not comprehensive, it remained that they were actual Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

“This sort of sensation!!!”

“Could those be legendary Emperor Taboo Martial Skills?!”

The expressions of many people changed enormously. Astonishment filled their eyes.

From the two martial skills' might, they were able to determine that those were Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

However, regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be, his battle power remained only at the level of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor after he used his various abilities. The crowd truly did not understand why the two Family Heads, two rank seven Half Martial Ancestors who could clearly kill Chu Feng effortlessly, would have to unleash such powerful attacks against him.

Why would they use their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments and Emperor Taboo Martial Skills? Even if their opponent was someone from the Heavenly Clans, wouldn't this be too excessive still?!

“Today, you will undoubtedly die!”

When the two Family Heads successfully unleashed their Emperor Taboo Martial Skills and sealed off Chu Feng's path of escape with their Emperor Taboo Martial Skills, they revealed complacent smiles.

The way they saw it, they had allowed Chu Feng to escape last time out of carelessness.

However, this time around, they had unleashed their strongest attacks right away. As such, there was no way for Chu Feng to escape.

However, they had no idea that even though Chu Feng appeared to still be a rank one Half Martial Ancestor that had increased his battle power to that of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor through his various techniques, Chu Feng's actual cultivation was already that of a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

After using his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, Chu Feng's cultivation had already increased to that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Adding on his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, Chu Feng's actual battle power was equal to that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was practically unrivaled among those of his same level of battle power. Even though the two Family Heads had unleashed their strongest attacks, Chu Feng still possessed no fear of them.

Merely, Chu Feng had deliberately concealed a level of cultivation. His intention was precisely to make the two Family Heads become careless.

“Rumble~~~”

At this moment, the Emperor Taboo Martial Skills the two Family Heads unleashed with their Incomplete Ancestral Armament struck from the sky.

Before the two martial skills actually reached Chu Feng, they had already caused space itself to rumble nonstop. The might of these attacks were simply akin to the arrival of doomsday.

Merely sensing their might could cause one to feel enormous fear. Their frightening might was fixed onto Chu Feng.

“Heh...”

However, even though he was faced with such a frightening might, Chu Feng smiled and stood there motionlessly. It was as if he was waiting for death.

“Rumble~~~”

Finally, the two Emperor Taboo Martial Skills struck Chu Feng. They turned into two violently surging energy ripples that began to sweep out in all directions.

At this moment, the entire region was engulfed in primal chaos. Countless innocent people met their miserable deaths in this place. They were utterly destroyed by the energy ripples.

At the same moment, Chu Feng’s aura also disappeared.

“Haha...”

The Tang Family and Cao Family’s Family Heads, the two former enemies, were unable to contain themselves, and started laughing.

The way they saw it, Chu Feng would definitely be killed by them this time around. Finally, they had eliminated a hidden danger.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at this moment, the sound of wind began to be heard from the frightening energy ripples.

A great wind swept forth. In an instant, it completely dispersed the frightening energy ripples.

At the same time, five elemental energies of wind, lightning, water, fire and earth started to rapidly fly toward the two Family Heads.

“What is that?!”

Seeing the bodies of elemental energies, the expressions of the two Family Heads changed enormously. The reason for that was because they sensed fatal danger from the five elemental energies.

Furthermore, the speed of those five elemental energies was extremely fast, so fast that they were simply impossible to dodge.

“Woosh~~~”

When the five bodies of elemental energy managed to approach the two family heads, they actually began to condense together.

At this moment, enormous shock appeared in the two Family Heads’ alarmed gazes.

The reason for that was because those five bodies of energies fused together into a humanoid shape. Furthermore, that person was Chu Feng.

At the time when Chu Feng regained his body, he was less than three meters from the two Family Heads. He slashed with the Incomplete Ancestral Armament Magma Emperor Sword that he held in his hand.

“Boom~~~”

A blaze of fire swept forth through the air. Tang Haichuan and Cao Kuofeng, the Family Heads of the Tang and Cao Families, were chopped in two.

Chapter 2182 – Massacring The City

---

With merely a single strike, the two Family Heads' bodies were hacked in two from the blazing slash.

The two bodies were destroyed. However, the two Family Heads were not actually dead. Instead, they turned into two spirit bodies and flew to escape.

However, Chu Feng spread open his hand, and a boundless attractive force spread forth.

The two spirit bodies were rapidly sucked toward Chu Feng's palm. Furthermore, they were rapidly decreasing in size. Finally, like two rats, they were being firmly held by Chu Feng.

At this moment, the two Family Heads were struggling nonstop. However, they were simply unable to escape Chu Feng's grasp. This caused their faces to be filled with panic.

“Tang Family's Family Head, when you decided to kick your benefactor in the teeth and attack me that day, did you think that you would see this day?” Chu Feng asked with a cold voice. Dense killing intent emerged in his eyes.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please spare me, please spare me. Please take Lil' Ying into consideration and spare my life,” The Tang Family's Family Head began to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness nonstop.

“You still have the nerve to mention Tang Ying to me?” Upon hearing him mention Tang Ying, the killing intent in Chu Feng's eyes increased instead of decreasing.

“Elder Yuan Zhen! Elder Yuan Zhen, save me!!!” Sensing that the situation was amiss, the Tang Family's Family Head immediately turned to plea Elder Yuan Zhen for help.

“Today, no one will be able to save you.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he clenched his fist. “Puchi,” Tang Haichuan and Cao Kuofeng’s spirit bodies were smashed to pieces. They had been utterly killed.

Seeing this scene, many of the surrounding people were startled. None of them expected Chu Feng to be this powerful, for him to be able to easily kill the two Family Heads.

“So you were hiding your cultivation.”

At this moment, Elder Yuan Zhen’s eyes were shining. He had noticed that Chu Feng’s cultivation was that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor after activating his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. However, he had clearly only been a rank three Half Martial Ancestor earlier. This made him realize that Chu Feng had deliberately hidden his cultivation earlier, that he had intentionally let the two Family Heads become careless.

“You only realized that I had concealed my cultivation now? I’m afraid that it’s already too late,” Chu Feng smiled coldly. Then, he swept his gaze over his surroundings and said to the people present, “Today, I, Chu Feng, will massacre this city. Those of you who are unrelated to this, leave immediately.”

Once Chu Feng finished saying those words, surging killing intent sprang forth. The boundless killing intent flowed into the air and turned into black clouds that filled the sky. The black clouds resembled savage ferocious beasts that galloped in the sky. Their frightening aura filled the region.

“Run away!”

Sensing the killing intent and seeing Chu Feng’s abilities, the crowd all realized that Chu Feng was not joking around. Thus, many people began to soar into the sky and fly far away to escape this place. They were deeply afraid that they would be implicated in the battle that was about to take place.

After all, the attacks the Tang and Cao Family Heads had unleashed at Chu Feng earlier had already killed many innocent bystanders.

Although the people had escaped from the Cao Family, they had not actually escaped from the city. After all, they were all curious, and fond of watching lively excitements.

Although this lively excitement could not be viewed from nearby, these people felt that they must still view it from afar.

“People of the Tang and Cao Families, listen up. If you all wish to get away, you can still do so right now.”

“Else, do not blame me, Chu Feng, for being ruthless later. If you must blame someone... you all can only blame yourselves. I have given you all the chance to escape, it is only you all that refused to take it,” Chu Feng said coldly. There was not the slightest trace of emotion in his words.

“You have killed our Family’s Family Head, we will definitely not leave the matter at that. Chu Feng, we will take your dog life!”

“Chu Feng, you son of a bitch, you damned animal, I will dismember your body to ten thousand pieces, I will destroy you!”

“Chu Feng, I will excavate your ancestral tomb and kill all of your descendants! I will end your family line!!!”

As the Family Heads of the Tang and Cao Families had just been killed by Chu Feng, the people from both families were filled with fury. As such, how could they be afraid of Chu Feng? Many among them were pointing their fingers at Chu Feng as they rained curses upon him. Their curses were more and more vulgar and offensive.

“Boom~~~”

Right at this moment, Chu Feng suddenly waved his sword. Immediately, a slash swept through the void and landed on a group of people that were cursing at him.

Immediately, as the blazing slash flew past, blood sprayed in all directions. The people that were cursing at him earlier were all killed by Chu Feng. Not a single person survived his attack.

“Truly, you are people who refuse the face that is given to you,” After killing those people, Chu Feng snorted coldly. He did not feel the slightest sympathy for them.

Although Chu Feng was not a cold-blooded murderer, he was not a overly-sensitive individual either. He would give people a choice before killing them. However, if his opponents refused to escape, Chu Feng would definitely not spare them.

At this moment, even though there were still a lot of people from the Tang and Cao Families that felt endless hatred for Chu Feng, they were also afraid of Chu Feng after seeing how he had massacred so many of their clansmen.

At this moment, the countless people from the Tang and Cao Families present all turned mute. Very few among them dare to insult Chu Feng again.

In fact, many of them were shivering from fear. Before, they had yet to discover, had yet to realize, that this gentleman-like young man was actually a cold-blooded demon.

His declaration of massacring this city seemed to not be just a farce.

“Chu Feng, did you really think that you would be able to kill everyone present just because you were able to kill Tang Haichuan and Cao Kuofeng?” Elder Yuan Zhen asked with a cold, mocking laugh.

Although Chu Feng had unleashed his overwhelming might earlier, Elder Yuan Zhen still felt Chu Feng to be nothing than a joke.

“I, Chu Feng, am always one who can do what I say. I declared that day that if I, Chu Feng, survived, I would definitely eliminate the Tang and Cao Families,” Chu Feng said.

“Ignorant fool who doesn’t know the immensity of heaven and earth. While you can behave atrociously toward the Cao and Tang Families, our Luyang’s Pavilion will not allow for it,” After Elder Yuan Zhen said those words, he flipped his wrist and revealed an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

It was a giant blue ruler. It was a very good quality Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Compared to the Incomplete Ancestral Armaments that the two Family Heads had, it was much better.

There was no need to mention how powerful that weapon was. Once that weapon was unleashed, it immediately affected the weather with strong wind that moved the clouds.

“Roar~~~”

After the enormous blue ruler appeared, Elder Yuan Zhen tossed it toward the sky. A roar was heard, and then an enormous wave surged into the sky. The wave began to spiral in the sky. Soon, it turned into an enormous water beast.

That monster resembled a giant turtle. However, its size was truly enormous; it was as if it could support both the heavens and the earth. As it lay horizontally in the sky, it was like a Divine Beast had descended upon the world.

“Roar~~~”

Suddenly, that enormous water beast opened its mouth and shot out a stream of water toward Chu Feng. The might of that attack was very powerful.

“Buzz, buzz, buzz~~~”

Seemingly sensing the provocation of that Incomplete Ancestral Armament, the Magma Emperor Sword Chu Feng held in his hand actually began to tremble nonstop.

That was right, it was trembling in excitement to battle. It was impatient to fight against that enormous water beast. It was as if the Magma Emperor Sword was unwilling to allow two tigers to live on the same mountain.

“Go ahead, Magma Emperor.”

Seeing that, Chu Feng lightly tossed the Magma Emperor Sword. “Boom!” The Magma Emperor appeared.

“You dare to hoot before this Emperor? Today, this Emperor shall teach you a proper lesson, you damned turtle bastard.”

The Magma Emperor was like an unchained fierce tiger. It was extremely ferocious, and managed to actually split apart the ferocious stream of water with its body. Then, it began to attack that enormous water beast.

That enormous water beast was not to be outdone. It opened its mouth and began to bite at the Magma Emperor. At the same time, it used its claws to claw at the Magma Emperor.

At this moment, two huge monsters were fighting in the sky. As water and fire were incompatible with one another, the two huge monsters were fighting to determine a victor and loser.

Chapter 2183 – All Shall Be Killed

---

The two Incomplete Ancestral Armaments fought busily in the sky.

As for Chu Feng and Elder Yuan Zhen, they started to observe the battle like spectators.

The two of them both had the intention to have their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments fight by themselves to determine which among them was stronger.

After all, the strength of one's weapon would also represent the strength of the weapon's master.

“It's useless, water is the antithesis of fire to begin with. Furthermore, Elder Yuan Zhen's Wave-calling Heaven-piercing Ruler is a very high quality Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Thus, it is impossible for ordinary Incomplete Ancestral Armaments to contend against it.”

“That's right. After all, Elder Yuan Zhen is a trusted aide to Lord Pavilion Master. That Wave-calling Heaven-piercing Ruler was personally bestowed to Elder Yuan Zhen by Lord Pavilion Master. That weapon is definitely not something ordinary Incomplete Ancestral Armaments could compare to.”

“That Chu Feng actually dares to fight against Elder Yuan Zhen? He is most definitely one who does not know the immensity of heaven and earth.”

At this moment, although the other experts from Luyang's Pavilion did not join Elder Yuan Zhen in fighting against Chu Feng, their tongues were wagging. At the same time, they revealed confident gazes.

They were confident in Elder Yuan Zhen. Even though Chu Feng had managed to easily kill the two Family Heads who possessed the same level of cultivation as Elder Yuan Zhen, they knew very well that even though Elder Yuan Zhen was also a rank seven Half Martial Emperor, his strength was not something that Tang Haichuan and Cao Kuofeng could compare with.

According to what they knew, Elder Yuan Zhen was practically unparalleled among those with the same battle power.

Thus, they felt that even though Chu Feng was powerful, he would absolutely be no match for Elder Yuan Zhen.

Furthermore, Elder Yuan Zhen was an actual rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, whereas Chu Feng was only someone who had increased his battle power to that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor after using his various abilities and adding his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. They felt that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to be a match for their Elder Yuan Zhen.

“Roar~~~”

However, right at this moment, roars, screams and anguished wailing suddenly sounded from the sky.

When they looked up, not to mention the people from Luyang’s Pavilion, even the people from the Tang and Cao Families were stunned.

In the sky, the battle between the two huge monsters had come to an end. The outcome of the battle had been determined.

Merely, the outcome was something that people found difficult to accept. The reason for that was because the Magma Emperor was currently violently beating up that enormous water beast. Its beating was causing that enormous water beast to howl in grief nonstop. Waves of water were spraying from its body like blood.

“It would appear that your Incomplete Ancestral Armament is the same as you, completely useless,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Humph, a comparison of weapons cannot be regarded as one’s true ability. Since you’re a martial cultivator, if you wish to compete, you should naturally use your own strength to do so,” Elder Yuan Zhen snorted coldly. Then, he extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. The enormous water beast immediately turned back into that enormous ruler and returned to his hand.

“Heeaahh!!!” Then, he shouted loudly and unleashed a slashing attack at the Magma Emperor.

That attack was no ordinary attack. The power of that attack was much more powerful than that of the Incomplete Ancestral Armament itself. The speed of that slash was so fast that the Magma Emperor was simply unable to dodge it.

“Boom!” A loud explosion. With that slash, that Elder Yuan Zhen actually managed to hack the Magma Emperor back to its original form, back to that enormous fiery sword.

Seeing this scene, the people from Luyang’s Pavilion were immediately overjoyed. However, before they could cheer for their Elder Yuan Zhen, they were shocked to discover that a figure had appeared before that Magma Emperor Sword and grabbed it.

The very next moment, that figure turned into a flash of light and rapidly charged toward Elder Yuan Zhen.

“You’ve finished your slash. It’s my turn now.”

Chu Feng held the Magma Emperor Sword and raised it up high. Then, coldness flashed through his eyes as he unleashed the overhead slash at Elder Yuan Zhen.

“Boom~~~”

A flame strike was unleashed. Like the Tang Family’s Family Head and the Cao Family’s Family Head, that Elder Yuan Zhen was hacked into two.

The only difference was that those two Family Heads were separated at the waist, whereas Elder Yuan Zhen was separated from head to groin.

“How could this be?!?!”

Seeing this scene, the people present were all terrified. None of them expected that Chu Feng would be this powerful. After all, Elder Yuan Zhen was no ordinary rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

“Damn it!” Even though his physical body was destroyed, Elder Yuan Zhen had yet to die. Instead, he had escaped to a distance as a spirit body.

His current appearance was simply exactly the same as that of the Tang and Cao Family’s Family Heads. As for his end, it would naturally also be the same.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng opened his hand. Immediately, a frantic attractive force was shot forth. Then, Elder Yuan Zhen’s spirit body, like the two Family Heads before him, was sucked into Chu Feng’s grasp.

However, his spirit body did not shrink. Instead, he was captured by Chu Feng in his normal state. Thus, Chu Feng’s hand was grabbing him by the neck.

At this moment, Elder Yuan Zhen was struggling violently and attacking Chu Feng’s hand.

However, as his physical body was already destroyed, and his dantian alongside it, even though his cultivation and soul had fused together to form this spirit body, he was much weaker than before.

Thus, not to mention struggling free from Chu Feng, even his attacks at Chu Feng were unable to cause any harm.

“Chu Feng, release me! I am the trusted aide to the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master! If you release me right now, I can let bygones be bygones!”

“However, if you do not release me right now, I’ll definitely make you suffer the consequences of your actions! I will make you wish you were dead! I'll make you regret all that you've done today!" Although Elder Yuan Zhen was captured by Chu Feng, he did not admit defeat. Instead, he began to fiercely threaten Chu Feng.

In response, Chu Feng lifted his other hand and gave Elder Yuan Zhen's spirit body two resounding slaps.

The two slaps left Elder Yuan Zhen's head completely distorted. Even though he was already a spirit body, he still grimaced in pain from the slaps.

"What makes you think that you're qualified to threaten me now?" Chu Feng said.

"Chu Feng, if you dare, then go ahead and kill me! You damned son of a bitch! You bastard child of the Heavenly Clans!"

"If you dare, then go on, kill me! I will make you know what the consequences of killing me are!" Elder Yuan Zhen snarled angrily.

"I have already heard those words from Cao Yuxuan."

"As for you, your end will be the same as his. You will also be killed by me, like that Cao Yuxuan."

After Chu Feng finished those words, a surge of boundless martial power was emitted from his palm. "Bang!" Elder Yuan Zhen's spirit body exploded.

After killing Elder Yuan Zhen, Chu Feng retrieved Elder Yuan Zhen and the two Family Heads' Incomplete Ancestral Armaments and Cosmos Sacks. Then, he turned his murderous gaze toward the people present.

"Run away!" Regardless of whether they were people from the Luyang's Pavilion, the Cao Family or the Tang Family, they all immediately turned around and began to escape.

The person that they were relying on had been killed. At this moment, if they did not escape, what awaits them would only be death. They... did not want to die.

“I have declared that I will massacre this city. Did you all think that I was joking?”

As he looked to the fleeing people, the killing intent in Chu Feng's eyes grew more and more concentrated. Then, he began to swing with the Magma Emperor Sword in nonstop succession. Fiery slashes began to drop from the sky in all directions.

Although the slashes were formed with flames, they were extremely sharp, and simply unstoppable. Not only were the people sliced through by them, many buildings were also sliced apart.

At this moment, as if it was raining, blood was sprinkling down all over the Cao Family. The buildings were all destroyed and collapsing.

Miserable screams resounded nonstop. A tragic sight filled one's line of sight.

However, to Chu Feng, he felt that all these people deserved to die.

Chu Feng had already presented them the opportunity to escape earlier. However, they had not escaped. The reason for that was because they felt that Chu Feng would not be able to win. In other words, they were looking down on Chu Feng.

Yet now, after Elder Yuan Zhen was killed, they actually turned around and started fleeing right away. This meant that they simply did not have any moral backbone or spirit of loyalty at all. Their so-called declarations for revenge were nothing more than empty words.

If there were people that dared to stand and fight Chu Feng without escaping at such a time, Chu Feng might actually have spared those people out of consideration for their loyalty.

Unfortunately, there was no such person in the enormous Cao

Family. This was equally true for all the guards from the Tang Family. Even the grand and powerful Luyang's Pavilion did not have one such individual.

They all say that birds of a feather flock together. In this place ruled by Luyang's Pavilion, what Chu Feng saw was lamentable.

At the very least, the people following Luyang's Pavilion that Chu Feng had encountered thus far were nothing more than scum.

The way Chu Feng saw it, powers like them were no different from demon sects. It would be better to kill them than to leave them alive.

As he thought of it, Chu Feng grew more and more ruthless in his killing. It was as if the people that he was killing were scum rather than people.

He felt as if he was not massacring, but rather helping the world eliminate evil.

Chu Feng had kept his word, and ended up killing a lot of people.

Not a single person from Luyang's Pavilion was spared. The elites from the Tang and Cao Families were also all killed.

However, the old, weak, young and disabled were all kept alive. The way Chu Feng saw it, this battle was simply unrelated to them. Although they were part of the Cao Family, Chu Feng felt that they were no different from the group of weak people left behind in the Tang Family; he felt that they were all innocent.

Chu Feng was not afraid that the people from the Cao and Tang Families that he spared might come to retaliate against him in the future.

If these people were capable of retaliation against him, it would only mean that he was too weak. In that case, he would deserve the retaliation.

Chapter 2184 – Loss

At the time when Chu Feng began his massacre, the innocent people had already escaped the city.

It was only after the rumbling stopped that the people dared to venture back into the city.

After the people saw that Chu Feng dared to kill even the people from Luyang's Pavilion, they were stunned by Chu Feng's boldness to make Luyang's Pavilion his enemy.

However, when the crowd saw that Chu Feng left many alive even after killing all of the Cao Family's elites, and that many of those that he left alive were children and members of the younger generation, the crowd's astonishment surpassed their astonishment toward Chu Feng's massacre.

After all, in the world of martial cultivators, massacres were common occurrences. If one didn't kill another, one would instead be killed by others. To be lenient toward one's enemy would be equivalent to being cruel to oneself.

That was why massacres were such a common occurrence. Killing all of one's enemy's family was nothing extraordinary either.

However, what Chu Feng had done, leaving people alive after a massacre, was something very rarely seen.

After all, if one did not eliminate the roots, it would cause no end to future trouble.

However, it was precisely because Chu Feng decided to spare the roots that he caught the attention of a group of people.

At this moment, those people were secretly following Chu Feng.

Suddenly, Chu Feng who was walking in the sky suddenly turned around and shouted with a cold voice, "Who is it?!"

After his shout left his mouth, from the seemingly empty sky behind him appeared thirteen silhouettes.

There were men, women, old and young among these people. However, they all possessed a common feature; that was, they all had very ordinary appearances.

They were the sort of people who would be very hard to notice when placed in a crowd of people.

As for their cultivation, they were not very strong either. The weakest among them were Martial Kings, while the strongest were only Half Martial Emperors.

However, it would be impossible for them to tail Chu Feng with their cultivation. This meant that these people had used special methods to conceal their cultivations.

Their actual cultivations were definitely not as simple as what Chu Feng could determine.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had a sensation that the gray-clothed old man who led that group of thirteen was definitely capable of killing him instantly, that he was an absolute peak expert.

“Little friend, please don’t misunderstand. We are from the Red Butterfly Society. Thus, we hold absolutely no malice toward you,” That leading gray-gowned old man said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile. His attitude was very amiable.

“Red Butterfly Society?” Chu Feng revealed a confused expression.

“You don’t even know about the Red Butterfly Society?” Seeing that Chu Feng actually did not know about the Red Butterfly Society, a young man from the group revealed a displeased expression.

Although that man appeared to be around Chu Feng’s age, Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that he was at least ninety years old.

Although someone at that sort of age would still be considered a member of the younger generation in the world of martial cultivators, he would be a dying old man when considered among ordinary commoners.

As the attitude of that man was nasty, Chu Feng would naturally not respond with amiability. Thus, he asked disdainfully, “Must I know about the Red Butterfly Society?”

“You bastard, you truly do not know the immensity of heaven and earth!!!” Seeing Chu Feng’s attitude of disdain, that young man immediately revealed an ominous glint.

In response, that gray-cloaked old man shouted, “Zhao Xiao, do not be rude!”

“Lord Elder, I...” Being shouted down by that old man, that man by the name of Zhao Xiao was very displeased. However, in the end, he did not try to refute him, and instead moved to the side and spoke no more. It could be seen that he deeply feared that old man.

With a smile on his face, the old man asked Chu Feng, “Little friend, your name is Chu Feng, right? May I address you by your name?” His attitude was still very courteous.

“Of course, a name is meant to be addressed. Senior, how should I address you?” Chu Feng asked courteously.

“This old man is surnamed Liu, and named Chengkun. I am one of the Red Butterfly Society’s management elders.”

“As for the Red Butterfly Society, it could be considered a special power. Our existence is so that we can confront the vicious powers that take advantage of their position to prey on the weak.”

“As for Luyang’s Pavilion, it is our main target. I can tell that you, Chu Feng, seem to have conflict with Luyang’s Pavilion.”

“Thus, I have come with the identity of the Red Butterfly Society’s management elder to invite you to join our Red Butterfly Society so that you can confront Luyang's Pavilion together with us," Elder Liu Chengkung said to Chu Feng.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's tensed heart was set at ease. Although he did not know what the Red Butterfly Society might be, it remained that they were, at the very minimum, not his enemies.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still shook his head apologetically and said, "Thank you for your kind intentions. However, I do not plan to join any power."

This was a decision that Chu Feng had already made at an earlier time. He did not want to join any power because he did not wish to repeat the past and bring about harm to any power he joined.

He knew that he would definitely make enemies in the future. In fact, he had already made enemies.

Thus, he does not wish for any power he joined to be targeted after he escaped from his enemies.

"Chu Feng, are you truly not planning to consider it? Luyang's Pavilion is very powerful. As for that Yuan Zhen, he is Chu Luyang's trusted aide. Although his cultivation was not strong, he held a very high status that few in Luyang's Pavilion could match. He was definitely not something that Cao Yuxuan could compare to."

"Perhaps you might have still had a way out after killing Cao Yuxuan. However, after killing Yuan Zhen, Chu Luyang will definitely come for revenge even if he must dig three feet underground to find you."

"In this sort of situation, it will be truly too dangerous for you to take on Luyang's Pavilion alone."

"However, if you are to join us, we can guarantee your safety," Elder Liu Chengkun said.

"Elder Liu, I am truly sorry," Chu Feng shook his head. He was able to tell that Elder Liu Chengkun held good intentions. However, Chu Feng was determined. Thus, he would not accept the invitation.

“You are truly one who cannot tell good from bad!” In response, that man by the name of Zhao Xiu pointed at Chu Feng and shouted angrily.

“Zhao Xiao, shut up!” In response, Elder Liu Chengkun once again shouted at Zhao Xiao.

Furthermore, he fiercely stared at Zhao Xiao. Then, he turned back around and said to Chu Feng, “People have their own ambitions. Since little friend Chu Feng does not wish to join our Red Butterfly Society, I will also not force you to do so.”

“Merely, I hope that little friend Chu Feng will not mention the fact that we have come to find you today.”

“Rest assured, I understand these sorts of things. Merely, Elder Liu, you really should properly discipline your subordinate,” As Chu Feng spoke, he looked to Zhao Xiao. Then, he added, “His manners are truly lacking. You must know that not everyone will not bicker with him like the way I am.”

“You!!!” Zhao Xiao wanted to say something. However, after sensing Elder Liu Chengkun’s gaze, he swallowed the words that he wanted to say. That said, he was so furious that his complexion turned deep red and an unconcealed hostile coldness filled his eyes.

“Haha...” Faced with Zhao Xiao’s fierce and malicious gaze, Chu Feng laughed disdainfully. If Elder Liu Chengkun wanted to do something to him, Chu Feng would definitely be scared. After all, there was an enormous difference in strength between them.

However, someone like Zhao Xiao was nothing more than a minor character. Chu Feng simply did not place him in his eyes at all.

“Elder Liu, farewell. I hope that you all will stop following me,”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he turned around and left.

“Little friend, take care,” This time around, Elder Liu Chengkun did not continue to follow Chu Feng.

After Chu Feng left, that Zhao Xiao said, “Lord Elder, that man by the name of Chu Feng simply did not place us in his eyes. We must teach someone like him a lesson. How could we let him leave like that?”

“Firstly, it is us who decided to invite him. As such, he had the right to refuse us.”

“Secondly, our Red Butterfly Society is very low-profile to begin with. Furthermore, that Chu Feng is obviously not someone from this region. Thus, it is normal for him to not know about us.”

“Lastly, we are not Luyang’s Pavilion. The objective of our Red Butterfly Society is to get rid of evil for the people of the world, and attack those vicious powers that bully the weak.”

“If we are to attack Chu Feng just because he refused to join us, how will we be different from Luyang’s Pavilion?” Elder Liu Chengkun asked.

“...” Hearing that question, Zhao Xiao became speechless. Thus, in the end, he could only nod in an ashamed manner. “Elder, I was foolish.”

Even though he appeared to have admitted to his wrong, it could be seen from the expression in his eyes that Zhao Xiao did not feel that he was wrong.

As for Elder Liu Chengkun, he was looking at the direction that Chu Feng had left in the entire time. It was only after a long time passed that he shook his head and said, “That child is most definitely not an ordinary person. In the future, his achievements will be inestimable. It is the loss of our Red Butterfly Society to fail in inviting that child into our Red Butterfly Society.”

Chapter 2185 – Treasure

“Loss?” Hearing that word, the expressions of the people present changed.

“Lord Elder, is that Chu Feng really that powerful?” A yellow-haired man asked in a very astonished manner.

“There’s no mistake. That child will continue to mature. His future accomplishments will be immeasurable,” Elder Liu Chengkun said.

Hearing those words, the rest of the crowd all revealed astonished expressions. The reason for that was because Elder Liu Chengkun rarely praised someone in such a manner. However, since he praised Chu Feng like that, it meant that Chu Feng was definitely extraordinary.

“Lord Elder, are you not overestimating that Chu Feng? Why is it that I am unable to see anything exceptional about him?” Zhao Xiao said with an unreconciled expression.

Elder Liu Chengkun smiled lightly. Then, he said to Zhao Xiao, “Without mentioning cultivation, in terms of one’s temperament, you are much inferior to that Chu Feng.” After he finished saying those words, Elder Liu Chengkun waved his sleeve, entered the void and left.

Seeing that, the expressions of the crowd all turned sluggish. They were all able to tell that their Lord Elder was truly angered.

“Zhao Xiao, although we were unable to personally kill Yuan Zhen and the others because of that Chu Feng, it remains that Yuan Zhen and the others have died. Thus, it could be said that we have accomplished our mission.”

“I will give you a month of vacation. Go and properly rest yourself,” The yellow-haired man said to Zhao Xiao.

After he finished saying those words, he also entered into the void. Following after him, the others also began to enter the void and leave.

After everyone left, Zhao Xiao revealed an incomparably furious expression. He looked to the direction that Chu Feng had left in and started to gnash his teeth with a murderous gaze.

.....

Cao Family. At this moment, a large group of people had arrived.

They were not only limited to the experts from Luyang's Pavilion, they were actually being led by the Pavilion Master of Luyang's Pavilion, Chu Luyang.

Chu Luyang was wearing golden armor with a black cloak. He appeared extremely domineering and gave off extraordinary airs.

However, Chu Luyang had an extremely ugly expression on his face.

Rolling black clouds and flickering lightning filled the dark sky. It was a frightening doomsday-like sight. It was caused by the influence of Chu Luyang's mood.

It turned out that Chu Luyang had just so happened to pass by this area today. He recalled that Yuan Zhen was here, and decided to come to this city to have a look while also demonstrating his might to the Tang Family, the Cao Family and the others present.

Unfortunately, he had come a step too late. He had arrived right after Chu Feng massacred the people of the Cao Family.

As for Chu Feng, he had just left not long ago. It was precisely because of that moment of difference that caused Chu Luyang to feel enormous fury.

One must know that Yuan Zhen was able to become his trusted aide even though his cultivation was weak was because the two of them possessed a special relationship.

Thus, Chu Luyang possessed special sentiments for Yuan Zhen.

Else, it would have been impossible for Yuan Zhen to have such a high status in Luyang's Pavilion.

Yet, someone as important as Yuan Zhen was actually killed by Chu Feng. How could Chu Luyang possibly accept this?

“Lord Pavilion Master, our Family Head has died miserably. Please, you must uphold justice for us.”

The people from the Cao Family that survived the massacre were all kneeling all around Chu Luyang and lamenting nonstop.

Suddenly, Chu Luyang shouted, “All of you, shut up!”

“Wuaah~~~”

The people from the Cao Family that surrounded him were all knocked flying. Those that suffered light injuries ended up vomiting blood, whereas those that suffered heavy injuries died on the spot.

“A bunch of useless trash. If it wasn't for you all, how could Elder Yuan Zhen have died?”

After Chu Luyang said those words, he waved his sleeve. Immediately, his oppressive might surged forth and engulfed his surroundings. “Bang, bang,” sounds of firecracker-like explosions began to be heard in succession.

When the explosions ended, all of the people from the Cao Family, regardless of age or gender, were killed.

It turned out that those explosions were the sounds of people from the Cao Family exploding.

Vicious. Compared to Chu Feng, Chu Luyang was truly ruthless. He was someone who viewed human lives like grass, someone who would kill whoever he wanted to kill. Even if they were his subordinates, he would still show no mercy.

However, when faced with this scene, the experts from Luyang's Pavilion did not show any change in expression.

They had already seen too many of such scenes. It was already a common occurrence to them.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, several figures flew over from all directions. They all landed onto the ground and then kneeled around Chu Luyang.

All of those people were experts from Luyang’s Pavilion. Among them, the person with the lowest cultivation was a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

“Lord Pavilion Master, we are incompetent; we were unable to find traces of that Chu Feng,” An old man that lead the group of experts said while trembling with fear.

“Trash!!!” Hearing those words, Chu Luyang was immediately furious. His gaze shone, and his oppressive might was unleashed once again. Before his oppressive might, the Half Martial Ancestor-level experts were blown away like leaves. When they crashed into the ground, they were all seriously injured.

“Lord Pavilion Master, the dead cannot be revived, please restrain your grief and accept what has happened,” A fair-skinned man sporting a head of long, blazing hair stepped forward and tried to console Chu Luyang.

“Hong Xi, do you know why I am this furious?” Chu Luyang turned to that man called Hong Xi.

“Elder Yuan Zhen was your competent subordinate. For him to be killed, you should naturally be furious,” Hong Xi said.

“That is only part of the reason, but not all. In addition to that, it is because everyone in this world knows that I regard Yuan Zhen highly. Yet, that Chu Feng still killed him. He simply does not place me in his eyes at all.”

“I am not furious only because Yuan Zhen was killed. More than that, it was because someone dared to not place me in their eyes in my territory,” Chu Luyang spoke in an extremely furious manner.

“That man indeed deserves to die. If he is to end up in my hands, I will definitely make him wish he was dead,” Hong Xi said.

“Hong Xi, I will hand that Chu Feng to you. Even if you have to dig three feet underground, you must still find him.”

“Remember, I want him alive. I will make him personally kneel before me. Then, I shall personally pull out the tendons of his hands and feet before crippling his cultivation. I will torture him and make him wish he was dead,” Chu Luyang spoke with fuming rage between gritted teeth.

“Lord Pavilion Master, please rest assured, this Hong Xi will definitely capture that Chu Feng alive for you,” That man by the name of Hong Xi spoke very confidently.

“You have never disappointed me,” Chu Luyang nodded. He knew Hong Xi’s abilities very well.

“Oh, that’s right, eliminate that Tang Family for me too. After all, Yuan Zhen’s death is also related to them,” After Chu Luyang finished saying those words, his body shifted, and he soared into the sky.

Following closely behind him, the rest of the experts from Luyang’s Pavilion all soared into the sky in succession. In the rolling black clouds were many enormous palace-like war chariots of Luyang’s Pavilion.

Leading his peak experts, Chu Luyang left. However, that man by the name of Hong Xi and his subordinates remained in the Cao Family. They were still kneeling on the ground.

It was only after Chu Luyang left far away with his subordinates that they stood back up.

“Milord, what should we do?” An old man walked forward to ask Hong Xi for instructions. Even though he was a rank eight Half Martial Ancestor, he was extremely respectful toward Hong Xi.

“Go to the Tang Family first. There are definitely clues there,”

Hong Xi said.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Once he said those words, wind immediately appeared under his feet. Then, he disappeared. Following closely behind him, those subordinates of his also disappeared.

.....

As for Chu Feng, he did not know about what had happened in the Cao Family.

After he left the Cao Family, he returned to the Darknight Ghost Forest.

He had not forgotten about Wang Qiang. He was determined to avenge him.

As he did not know the demonic woman's whereabouts, Chu Feng felt that guarding and waiting in the Darknight Ghost Forest for her appearance would be his best option.

Unfortunately, after Chu Feng had painstakingly waited for several days, there was still no fruit.

At the same time, Chu Feng did not make any headway in terms of his martial cultivation either.

Even though he was racking his brains to comprehend the way of martial cultivation day and night, he was unable to break through to rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

In this sort of situation, Chu Feng felt increasingly vexed, and even a bit at a loss.

At this moment, the sky had already darkened. He was standing on the peak of a black tree as he looked to the night sky.

As he looked to the many stars in the sky and the beautiful scenery, Chu Feng revealed an increasingly worried expression.

“Eggy, if you were here, then perhaps I would not be this distressed,” Chu Feng took a deep sigh. His longing for Eggy was growing more and more.

“Mn?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s expression changed. Standing high up, he looked downward and discovered a trace of strange motion.

There was no sign of that motion. However, Chu Feng was able to sense it with his intuition as a world spiritist. Sensing that something was amiss, Chu Feng unleashed his Heaven’s Eyes.

Once he unleashed his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng’s expression revealed deep shock.

A faintly visible abnormal sign was forming in the direction in which Chu Feng had noticed the motion. That place was most definitely extraordinary. Chu Feng felt that even if there wasn’t a Natural Oddity there, there would definitely be some sort of treasure present.

Chapter 2186 – Immortal-cloak World Spiritist

---

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng’s body shifted as he rapidly rushed toward that place. After he descended to the ground, he discovered that there didn’t seem to be anything abnormal on the surface.

However, Chu Feng’s Heaven’s Eyes were not deceiving him. Thus, Chu Feng used special methods to enter deep underground.

After passing through layers of soil, it was as Chu Feng had anticipated, he discovered an entrance to a tunnel with his Heaven’s Eyes deep underground.

Chu Feng passed through the entrance, and discovered that even though the tunnel was very well-hidden, it was also very crudely made. It was as if it was a hole dug by an enormous mole, without any sign of being polished.

Although it was not polished, this place was sealed off by a layer of powerful and invisible spirit power. The only way to enter would be through the entrance that Chu Feng had discovered; it was impossible to enter this place by digging directly underground.

In short, this place was most definitely not formed by nature. Else, this place would not have been sealed off by such a powerful spirit formation. Furthermore, even though the spirit power in this place was invisible, Chu Feng was able to sense that it was very strong and ancient.

Even though Chu Feng was unable to see the spirit power, Chu Feng knew that the spirit formation here was most definitely not created by a Royal-cloak World Spiritist. Instead, this should be the work of an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Suddenly, Chu Feng's expression changed.

As that place was created by someone, there should naturally be a lot of hurdles. However, Chu Feng had been completely unhindered in his journey so far.

The reason for that was not because there were no hurdles set up in this place. Instead, Chu Feng could tell that there used to be a lot of hurdles here. Merely, they were all broken through by someone.

Furthermore, the hurdles were only just recently broken through.

“Someone has come here before me?”

“Who could it be?”

Chu Feng revealed a doubting gaze. Even though the hurdles were broken through, he became increasingly cautious.

He felt that it was very possible that someone had been to this place before. It might even be possible for that person to still be in here.

However, faced with the enticement of treasures, Chu Feng was unwilling to let such an opportunity slip by him so easily. Thus, he decided to gamble, and chose to continue onward.

Finally, Chu Feng reached the end of the tunnel. His surroundings were no longer the narrow tunnel. Instead, it was a vast space.

There was a coffin in the center of that place. Surrounding the coffin were all sorts of treasures. Not only were there a lot of cultivation resources, there were also a lot of treasures useful for world spiritists. All of those things were useful for Chu Feng.

Merely, surrounding the coffin and the treasures was an ancient grand formation.

That spirit formation was extremely dangerous. The way Chu Feng saw it, it was simply an impregnable fort. Not to mention undoing that formation, Chu Feng believed that he would be instantly killed by that spirit formation should he approach it.

However... to Chu Feng's greatest surprise there was a person before that grand formation. That person was the old monk Chu Feng had met before.

At that moment, that old monk had also set up a spirit formation. He was using his spirit formation to undo the ancient spirit formation surrounding the coffin and treasures.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

As Chu Feng looked at the spirit power composed of gold and red colors, that spirit power that seemed like the multi-colored twilight of a sunrise or sunset, he was able to determine that the old monk was definitely an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

The reason for that was because the spirit power that he was emitting was something that Chu Feng had never seen before. Furthermore, merely by sensing it, Chu Feng was able to tell that that spirit power was many times more powerful than his own Dragon Mark Royal-cloak world spirit power. In fact, the two spirit powers were simply incomparable to one another.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that it was most definitely Immortal-cloak world spirit power.

“That veined pattern, it's Dragon Mark. He's... actually a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

Upon closer inspection, Chu Feng was even more shocked. Dragon Marks filled that sunset-colored world spirit power.

This meant that the old monk was not only an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he was also a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt something that he rarely felt – lingering fear. After all, when he had first encountered the old monk, Chu Feng had attacked him. However, looking at it now, he was merely trying to strike a stone with an egg.

At that moment, Chu Feng finally understood the words spoken by the old monk that day. That day, he truly had been foolish.

“Scram!”

Right at that moment, a boundless killing intent appeared. Following that, a hundred enormous figures appeared before Chu Feng.

Those... were actually a hundred world spirits from the Demon Spirit World. Merely, these hundred world spirits from the Demon Spirit World were much more powerful than all the world spirits Chu Feng had seen before.

They were all wearing armor, and appeared very ferocious. Any one of them would possess sufficient power to kill Chu Feng.

Chu Feng was unable to sense the cultivations of those world spirits. However, he was able to guess that those hundred world spirits were all Martial Ancestor-level experts at the very minimum. In fact, he felt that they might even be existences that surpassed Martial Ancestors.

The reason for that was because the oppressive might and killing intent they emitted made Chu Feng feel as if he had stepped into the gates of hell.

With a single thought, Chu Feng would be killed instantly.

Standing before Chu Feng, they simply did not appear like ordinary world spirits. Instead, they appeared more like a hundred Grim Reapers.

“Do not be rude.”

Suddenly, that old monk’s voice sounded. He did not look in Chu Feng’s direction, and instead continued to wholeheartedly set up his spirit formation. However... it was evident that he had noticed Chu Feng’s arrival.

“Buzz~~~”

After the old monk said those words, the hundred Demon Spirit World's world spirits all disappeared.

Chu Feng was able to tell that the hundred Demon Spirit World's world spirits had not actually disappeared. Instead, they had just concealed themselves, and were still in the surroundings.

“Senior, this is...” Chu Feng wanted to ask.

“Hush, speak later. I'm about to succeed,” As the old monk said those words, he still did not look at Chu Feng.

Chu Feng understood the old monk's intentions. Thus, he moved to the side and spoke no further. Instead, he began to carefully observe the old monk's spirit formation.

The more Chu Feng observed, the more afraid he became. The spirit formation this old man was setting up was simply too exceptional. It was a spirit formation that had surpassed Chu Feng's understanding of spirit formations.

That was a grand spirit formation that Chu Feng had never seen before. As he observed the spirit formation, Chu Feng grew obsessed with it.

To world spiritists, a powerful spirit formation was akin to a work of art.

Not only was it capable of fascinating others, one would also be able to obtain many benefits should one possess a good sense of comprehension.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt an unprecedented sensation from the spirit formation. Chu Feng faintly felt that a new gate was appearing in his world spirit space.

That was a gate that could connect to Immortal level world spirit power. Merely, even though the gate had appeared, it had yet to open.

This was the same as how Chu Feng had gathered sufficient Natural Energy to break through to rank three Half Martial Ancestor, but was unable to do so due to the bottleneck blocking his path.

However, Chu Feng was still overjoyed. Even though he was unable to open the gate leading to Immortal level spirit power, he was, at the very least, able to sense that gate. Before... he was unable to even sense it.

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion was heard. Surging spirit power began to engulf the surroundings like a magnificent army with thousands of men and horses.

Suddenly the impregnable tunnel started to shake nonstop. Even Chu Feng was forced back repeatedly by that violently surging spirit power.

“Success? That ancient spirit formation was actually broken through?”

Even though Chu Feng was blown away by the surging spirit power, he still revealed a joyous expression. The reason for that was because he was able to sense that the ancient grand spirit formation that sealed the mysterious coffin and treasures had been broken.

The mysterious old monk had broken through the ancient spirit formation.

Chapter 2187 – Demonic Woman's Origin

---

After the ancient spirit formation was broken through, the old monk stood up.

After he stood up, a total of a hundred world spirit gates appeared beside him.

The next moment, the hundred Demon Spirit World's world spirits that had concealed themselves all started to appear. They began to enter the world spirit gates in succession.

After he finished doing those things the old monk walked toward the coffin. After the coffin was opened, Chu Feng discovered that a woman was lying in the coffin.

This woman was very pleasant and sweet-looking. She was wearing a red muslin skirt, and appeared very natural, unrestrained and gave off a refined air. She was a rarely-seen beauty. However, she was already dead.

Even though her corpse was undamaged, Chu Feng was able to tell that she had been dead for a very long time, completely dead.

However, compared to the woman, Chu Feng was more surprised by the pearl she held between her hands.

That pearl was very large and could only be carried with two hands. That was also the reason why Chu Feng was able to notice it immediately.

The outside of the pearl was transparent. However, inside the pearl was a vortex.

That vortex was slowly revolving. It was somewhat strange. Furthermore, it was emitting an incomprehensible aura.

Although Chu Feng was unable to determine the usage of that pearl, Chu Feng was able to ascertain that the pearl was a treasure, a treasure more precious than all of the treasures outside of the coffin.

“Do you wish to know who she is?” The old monk asked Chu Feng.

“Who is she?” Chu Feng asked.

“She is the demonic woman that you want to kill,” The old monk said.

“How could that be? She has clearly died a long time ago,” Chu Feng said while pointing to the corpse in the coffin.

“Indeed, she has died a long time ago. However, that does not mean that she is not the demonic woman that you want to kill,” The old monk said with a smile.

“Senior, exactly what is going on?” Chu Feng asked.

“You wish to know?” The old monk asked.

“Yes,” Chu Feng nodded.

“This demonic woman is called Zhao Hong. She is the daughter of the Reincarnation Sect’s Sect Master, the ruler of the Reincarnation Upper Realm. She was a rarely seen martial cultivation genius.”

“When she was only twenty years old, she replaced her father, who was over ten thousand years old, and became the new Sect Master of the Reincarnation Sect. At the same time, she also became the number one expert in the Reincarnation Sect.”

Upon hearing that, Chu Feng felt shock. The Reincarnation Sect was actually the ruler of a world, and that Zhao Hong was actually the number one expert in the Reincarnation Sect. In other words, this meant that this woman by the name of Zhao Hong was an Upper Realm’s strongest expert.

She was someone who became the strongest expert of an Upper Realm at the mere age of twenty. Oh how powerful of an existence she must be.

At that moment, Chu Feng finally realized what it meant to be a genius. When compared to an actual genius, he was simply not worth anything.

“As Zhao Hong possessed outstanding talent, she would naturally also be proud and arrogant. As such, not a single man in the Reincarnation Upper Realm was able to catch her eyes.”

“However, by coincidence, she arrived at the All Heaven Upper Realm, and got to know the strongest genius of the All Heaven Upper Realm, Liu Shou.”

“Zhao Hong and Liu Shou were the ideal couple. Furthermore, they fell in love at first sight. Soon, the two of them entered the river of love.”

“However, Zhao Hong was taught by her father since she was a child to be wary of outsiders. As such, she was not someone who would trust easily.”

“Even though she knew that her love for Liu Shou was real, she was still on guard against him the entire time.”

“It was only on the day of their marriage that Zhao Hong completely lowered her guard against Liu Shou. However, she never would’ve thought that she would end up being poisoned by Liu Shou on the night of their marriage.”

“It turned out that Liu Shou possessed exuberant ambitions, and was never truly in love with Zhao Hong. He had approached her all for the sake of obtaining the Reincarnation Pearl.”

“Zhao Hong was in enormous grief after discovering the truth. She felt enormous hatred toward Liu Shou’s deceit. Thus, she refused to tell Liu Shou the whereabouts of the Reincarnation Pearl.”

“With that being the case, that Liu Shou decided to use all means to obtain his goal. He began to cruelly torture Zhao Hong’s family members in front of her, leaving them in miserable states, yet not allowing them to die.”

“Finally, enraged by the lack of results, Liu Shou decided to kill all of Zhao Hong’s family members right in front of her. His method were so very cruel that one’s hackles would rise just by thinking about it.”

“At the moment when Zhao Hong’s father was killed, Zhao Hong’s bloodline suddenly exploded. She managed to overcome the poison that had erased her strength, and destroyed the spirit formation that had sealed her cultivation.”

“However, that Liu Shou was very powerful. Even though Zhao Hong had managed to overcome the poison, she was still only equally matched with Liu Shou. In the end, it concluded with both fighters injured and no victor to be seen.”

“Zhao Hong knew that this tragedy was caused by the Reincarnation Sect’s Sect Protection Treasure, the Reincarnation Pearl.”

“She did not wish for the Reincarnation Pearl to cause more harm. Thus, while she was still barely alive, she disappeared with the Reincarnation Pearl and concealed herself in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“In the end, Zhao Hong ended up dying. She died here. However, the power of the Reincarnation Pearl caused her to rise from the dead.”

“Zhao Hong was reborn with grievances. After she was reborn, she lost all her memories, and her appearance became extremely ugly, resembling that of a monster.”

“It is because the grievances of her past life are too strong that she began to detest men like she does now. She began to take joy in killing men, and started to eat their flesh.”

“Strangely, as Zhao Hong ate more men, her cultivation began to subsequently increase. Even though it was only her first resurrection, she had already reached a state where no one could stop her.”

“Fortunately, an expert from an Upper Realm passed by this region by coincidence and beheaded her.”

“However, after killing the demonic woman, that expert was also seriously injured, and ended up dying. However, before dying, he used a special formation to turn his body and remaining power into a spring with water specializing in curbing evildoers.”

“As for that... it became the Radiance Immortal Mountain’s Demon Subduing Spring Water.”

“However, the demonic woman possessed the Reincarnation Pearl on her actual body. Thus, after her death, she was reincarnated. It could be said that she possessed an undying body.”

“Although she did end up losing all of her power with each resurrection, and had to cultivate all over again, her talent remained the same. This made it so that her cultivation speed was extremely fast.”

“Furthermore, even though she forgot everything about her previous life with each resurrection, she still possessed the same sort of grievance. Thus, after she gained a certain amount of cultivation, she would start to instinctively hunt men, and repeat what she did in her previous lives,” The old monk explained.

“In that case, that means that the demonic woman cannot be killed?” Chu Feng asked.

“She can. As long as I take away that pearl, she will not be able to resurrect after she is killed again,” As the old monk spoke, he extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. The Resurrection Pearl entered her hand.

“Crash~~~”

After the Resurrection Pearl entered his hand, the demonic woman’s undamaged body instantly turned into dust. Not even her bones remained.

“With this, she will no longer be able to resurrect,” said the old monk.

Then, he turned to Chu Feng and said, “That demonic woman could be considered to be a pitiful individual. However, she is also abominable. If you plan to kill her, I will not stop you. Merely, your current strength is greatly insufficient.”

“Thank you, senior, for your advice,” Chu Feng clasped his fist and expressed his thanks.

“You do not have to thank me for this. For the two of us to be able to meet twice here, it can be considered fate,” The old monk said with a light smile.

“Senior, since you are a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, might you be willing to help this junior with one thing?”

“Although this junior is unable to repay senior now, as long as you are willing to help me, this junior will definitely repay you in the future,” Suddenly, Chu Feng said.

“What is it?” The old monk asked.

“I possess a special world spirit in my body that has been sealed with a special formation. I have attempted to help her undo that spirit formation. However, she has entered deep sleep ever since.”

“I do not know when she will be able to wake up. However, I am very worried, since she has been asleep for so long. If possible, I hope that senior could help me attempt to remove that seal, help me wake her up,” Chu Feng said.

“That is an insignificant matter. I am able to help you. Furthermore, I do not need you to repay me. I merely want you to answer a question of mine. However, you must answer truthfully,” The old monk said.

“Senior, please ask away,” Chu Feng said.

“You are most definitely not from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Exactly which Heavenly Clan are you from?” The old monk asked.

“Senior, if I were to say that I do not belong to any Heavenly Clan, would you believe me?” Chu Feng asked.

“I would,” The old monk smiled lightly. Then, he said, “In that case, let me rephrase my question; which Heavenly Clan does your Heavenly Bloodline belong to?”

“The Chu Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng did not conceal the matter. After all, he had a request for the old monk. Thus, since the old monk had only asked such a simple question, he would definitely answer honestly.

“So it was the Chu Heavenly Clan,” Hearing Chu Feng’s answer, the old monk nodded. Then, he said, “It is the loss of the Chu Heavenly Clan to not treat you well.”

This old monk was very intelligent. Merely from Chu Feng’s answers, the old monk had determined that even though Chu Feng had come from the the Chu Heavenly Clan, he should be someone abandoned by them.

Chapter 2188 – Bad News

“May I ask another question? If I can, I am willing to give all those to you,” The old monk pointed to the treasures surrounding the coffin.

Chu Feng started to think about it. In the end, he nodded and said, “Senior, please ask away.”

He was able to sense that the old monk does not seem like a bad person. At the very least, he did not possess any malicious intentions toward him. If he did, he could simply force Chu Feng to tell him what he wanted to know. There was no need for him to conduct an exchange with Chu Feng.

Furthermore, there were a lot of treasures that Chu Feng did not possess among the treasures there. Those were treasures that would be useful for Chu Feng to set up spirit formations, refine weapons and concoct medicinal pellets with.

Most importantly, there were a lot of cultivation resources among the treasures. Should Chu Feng refine all of the cultivation resources, he would definitely benefit from them. It might even be possible for him to gather sufficient Natural Energies in his dantian to break through to rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

“Is your father called Chu Xuanyuan?” The old monk asked.

“Senior, how did you manage to guess that?” Chu Feng’s expression changed. After all, he had never mentioned this matter to anyone.

“Haha, there are a lot of people that knew of Chu Xuanyuan. However, only a few people knew that Chu Xuanyuan is someone that trained in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. Coincidentally, I happen to be one of those few people.”

“As for you... you are someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan, and also someone who trains in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. Thus, the greatest possibility would be that you're Chu Xuanyuan's son."

"After all, it is impossible for others in the Chu Heavenly Clan to be qualified to train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique," The old monk said with a light laugh.

"Senior, could it be that you are my father's friend?" Chu Feng asked.

"Friend?" Hearing that question, the old monk actually revealed a wry smile. He said, "I do wish to become your father's friend. Unfortunately... this old monk is not qualified."

Chu Feng was startled to hear those words. He was able to tell that the old monk was not joking around.

Yet, an expert as powerful as him was actually not qualified to become his father's friend? Then, how powerful must his father be?

"Forget about it, let me have a look at that world spirit," The old monk said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng did not hesitate, and immediately brought out the sleeping Eggy.

"It's actually an Asura World Spirit?" After seeing Eggy, the old monk revealed a surprised expression. Then, he smiled and said to Chu Feng, "You are truly extraordinary. Not only do you train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, you're also an Asura World Spiritist."

"Merely in terms of world spirit techniques, you will be stronger than your father. However, it will likely be extremely difficult for you to reach your father's heights. The path of martial cultivation is not something where one's accomplishments will be determined by mere talent alone."

"Haha, I've spoken too much," The old monk laughed. Then, he waved his sleeve and Immortal-level spirit power flowed from him. His Immortal-level spirit power covered Eggy.

“This?!” However, after the old monk’s world spirit power came into contact with Eggy, his expression changed.

Chu Feng noticed an awkward expression in the old monk’s deep gaze.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the old monk waved his sleeve repeatedly. He actually withdrew his spirit power that covered Eggy. After his spirit power returned to his body, he turned to Chu Feng and said, “This old monk owes you a favor. I can only help you in the future.”

“Senior, what do you mean by that?” Chu Feng asked.

“I am powerless against the spirit formation that has sealed your world spirit,” The old monk said.

Actually, Chu Feng had anticipated that the old monk might be unable to remove the spirit formation sealing Eggy the moment he saw the old monk’s reaction. Merely, when it was determined that that was truly the case, Chu Feng still felt very disappointed.

However, even though that was the case, Chu Feng still smiled as he said to the old monk, “Senior, you are being too courteous. I cannot thank you enough for being willing to help me.”

The old monk sighed in embarrassment. Then, with a shift of his body, he disappeared.

“Senior?!”

“Senior?!” Chu Feng called out for the old monk repeatedly. However, there was no response. From that, Chu Feng knew that the old monk must’ve left.

Merely, Chu Feng had never expected that old monk to leave so hurriedly, so hurriedly that he did not even bother to bid farewell.

Suddenly, Chu Feng looked at Eggy. At that moment, he seemed to have realized something.

He determined that the old monk must've left so hurriedly because he was embarrassed that he had agreed to remove the spirit formation sealing Eggy, only to discover that he would not be able to do so after attempting to do so.

“Mother, it would seem that your world spirit techniques must be above those of an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” Thinking of that, Chu Feng revealed a smile on his face. It was a smile of pride.

Even though that monk was extremely mysterious, so much so that Chu Feng didn't even know his name, Chu Feng had a faint sensation after chatting with the old monk that his father and mother were both extremely powerful.

throughout the world, how could there be people that did not want their parents to be powerful? Chu Feng was naturally no exception.

After that, Chu Feng returned Eggy to his world spirit space. Then, he went and gathered all of the treasures around the coffin.

Of course, the cultivation resources were an exception. Chu Feng did not take them into his Cosmos Sack. Instead, he directly refined them.

To Chu Feng's surprise, after he completely refined those cultivation resources, the amount of Natural Energies in his dantian were so abundant that he could reach rank five Half Martial Ancestor.

Chu Feng was overjoyed such an outcome. After all, back when he was in the Holy Land of Martialism, it was very difficult for him to even gather enough Natural Energies to reach a single breakthrough in cultivation.

He had only been in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for a short time. Yet, he had already gathered so much Natural Energy. This was truly something that he had never expected.

At the same time, it also allowed Chu Feng to realize the benefits of the Outer World.

Chu Feng continued to comprehend the way of martial cultivation over the following days. He wanted to reach rank three Half Martial Ancestor as quickly as possible.

After all, that old monk had clearly indicated to him that his current strength was insufficient to be a match against that demonic woman. Thus, if he wanted to avenge Wang Qiang, he had to increase his cultivation.

In the blink of an eye, several more days passed. Chu Feng was still unable to break through his bottleneck. This caused Chu Feng to realize the difficulty in martial cultivation that others had to go through.

After all, before he trained in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, Chu Feng was able to break through all bottlenecks and reach a breakthrough in cultivation should he simply possess sufficient cultivation resources.

“Ji, ji, ji~~~”

Suddenly, bird cries were heard. Furthermore, those cries were very ear-piercing.

Hearing the sound, Chu Feng immediately stood up and revealed a cautious expression.

After all, he was still in the Darknight Ghost Forest. The Darknight Ghost Forest was a place with no living creatures. As such, how could there suddenly be bird cries?

Confused, Chu Feng looked toward the direction from where the cries sounded. Upon looking, Chu Feng discovered that it was a special sort of bird. Although its cry sounded like that of a little bird, its voice was very loud and clear. Even though it was very far away, Chu Feng was able to hear it clearly. Furthermore, it was the size of a northern goshawk.

Most importantly, there was a spirit formation on the bird.

Dandelion-like bodies of light were spreading from that spirit formation nonstop.

As that bird flew past rapidly, it spread those bodies of light all over the places it passed.

Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that those bodies of light contained a special sort of message.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng extended his hand and unleashed a suction force.

One such body of light that was over ten thousand meters away was sucked to Chu Feng’s fingertips. Then, it merged into Chu Feng’s fingertips.

“Damn it!” After Chu Feng received the message, he immediately revealed a furious expression.

The reason for that was because that message was related to him.

To put it simply, the message was meant to be passed to Chu Feng.

As for the reason why Chu Feng was furious, it was because it was not good news for him.

Chapter 2189 – To Proceed While Braving Death

---

The message was being spread by a person from Luyang's Pavilion by the name of Hong Xi.

It was unknown what sort of method that person had used. However, he had managed to capture Tang Ying, as well as that servant girl by the name of A'cai.

He wanted Chu Feng to show up at the Tang Family within ten days so that they could capture him. Should Chu Feng not appear in ten days' time, he would skin Tang Ying alive.

Furthermore, judging by the time, the time limit was about to arrive. If Chu Feng did not hurry to the Tang Family, Tang Ying's life would likely be lost.

However, Luyang's Pavilion had most definitely come prepared this time around. With Chu Feng's current strength, he would definitely be courting death should he go there.

“How did this happen? Could it be that servant girl by the name of A'cai led them to Tang Ying?”

“Truly foolish! Didn't I tell her to run far away? Why would she still be captured?”

Chu Feng was uncertain as to what sort of method Hong Xi had used to capture Tang Ying.

However, Chu Feng felt that the person called Hong Xi was most likely not lying.

The reason for that was because he was able to tell that there was more than a single bird spreading the message. Likely, there were a lot of them.

After that news spread, there would definitely be a lot of people that would proceed toward the Tang Family to watch the show. If Tang Ying was not present then, that Hong Xi would have humiliated himself and the people of Luyang's Pavilion would be looked down upon by others.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng's body shifted and he began to fly toward the Tang Family.

Even though he knew that proceeding to the Tang Family would be disastrous...

Even though Chu Feng did not have a deep relationship with Tang Ying, and they were merely acquaintances...

Even though Chu Feng had already saved Tang Ying three times and had been meticulously virtuous and dutiful toward her...

Even though Chu Feng had only provoked Luyang's Pavilion because he had helped that Tang Ying...

For some unknown reason, Chu Feng was actually unable to contain his desire to save Tang Ying.

Thus, even though he knew that it was a trap, Chu Feng was still determined to go there.

The reason for that was because he was truly unable to abandon Tang Ying, he was unable to let her be killed because of him.

The reason for that was because there was something that flowed in Chu Feng's body that was haunting him.

As for that something, it was called the ‘unyielding and upright nature of a man’!!!”

.....

Chu Feng's guess was correct. Tang Ying had indeed been captured. Furthermore, other than Tang Ying and that servant girl by the name of A'cai, the rest of the Tang Family had all been massacred by the people from Luyang's Pavilion.

As for how Tang Ying was captured, it was more or less what Chu Feng had already deduced. Hong Xi had used the servant girl by the name of A'cai to find Tang Ying.

Currently, that servant girl and Tang Ying were both suspended atop a thousand meter-tall iron pole and tied with thorny vines.

The sharp thorns had already pierced through the two women's tender flesh and blood was flowing from their skin nonstop, dyeing their clothes red. The health of the two women had become extremely poor.

"Young Miss, I have let you down. It is all my fault. I am the one that has harmed you. My death cannot atone for my crimes, my death cannot atone for my crimes."

The servant girl was crying. Her tears were falling like rain. It was not because of the pain she felt. Rather, it was because she felt that she had implicated Tang Ying.

"A'cai, stop crying. This is not your fault. I have heard about that Hong Xi's ability from father and the others. Practically no one could withstand his tortures. As such, it is natural for you to give in."

"Furthermore, you only mentioned the location where my mother was buried."

"Actually, it is all my fault. I was the one who did not listen to Chu Feng's advice to quickly leave this place," Tang Ying said.

"Young Miss, it is not your fault. After all, you just wanted to pay your respects to your mother before leaving," The servant girl said.

"That's right. I decided to pay respects to my mother. However, because of this, I've implicated Chu Feng now," Tang Ying said.

"Could it be that Lord Chu Feng will really come?" The servant girl asked. She did not feel like Chu Feng would come. However, she wished that Chu Feng would come.

Even though she knew that Chu Feng would likely die should he come here, it remained that there would be a chance of survival for them should Chu Feng come. However, if Chu Feng were to not come, they would definitely be killed.

“I hope that he will not come,” Tang Ying said.

“If he doesn’t come, you will die. If he comes, you will still die,” Suddenly, a man appeared out of thin air and stood before Tang Ying. This person was Hong Xi.

“Kill me!!!” Tang Ying shouted.

“Don’t be in such a rush. I will soon let you reunite with your family. Merely... I’m afraid that your family will not treat you well even if you are to meet them in the netherworld. After all, you are a traitor to the Tang Family. Hahaha!!!” Hong Xi laughed frantically.

“You damned demon! You shall die miserably! Chu Feng will not spare you! He will definitely not spare you!” Tang Ying shouted furiously.

She knew that all the remaining people of her Tang Family were killed by that Hong Xi. He did not spare even the children. All those that he killed were innocent people.

“You couldn’t possibly really be thinking that Chu Feng will show up, right? You’re thinking that he will brave dangers for an insignificant nobody like you?” Hong Xi sneered.

Tang Ying grew silent upon hearing those words. Even though there was not much of a change to her expression, her heart was extremely hurt.

After her family betrayed her, she felt that there was only a single person she could rely on in this world—Chu Feng.

Merely, would Chu Feng really show up? Would Chu Feng throw his life away for her, someone that he barely knew?

Even though she did not wish for Chu Feng to come, she would still feel sad should Chu Feng really not show up.

“Truth be told, I never hoped that Chu Feng would come to save you. The truth is, he will absolutely not come,” Hong Xi said.

“Then why did you do this?” Tang Ying asked in confusion.

“I am doing this all to ruin that Chu Feng’s reputation. I will let everyone know that while you treat that Chu Feng as your friend, that Chu Feng will still refuse to come save you,” As Hong Xi said those words, he looked into the distance.

There were a lot of silhouettes in the distant sky. Those were all people that had received the message Hong Xi had spread, and arrived to watch the show.

After all, Hong Xi had let out more than a single bird to spread his news. Thus, practically everyone knew that Luyang’s Pavilion was planning to use the Tang Family’s Young Miss as a threat to make that Chu Feng show himself.

In the beginning, many people did not know what sort of grudges and grievances there were between Chu Feng and Luyang’s Pavilion.

However, it remained that there were no wind-proof walls in the world. Thus, as the crowd gathered, the people that knew about what had happened began to narrate the course of events to the crowd.

At that moment, practically everyone present knew about the grudges and grievances between Chu Feng and Luyang’s Pavilion.

Even though they had all come here for the sake of watching the show, the great majority of them did not feel that Chu Feng would really come for a mere Tang Ying.

“Woosh~~~”

Just then, a golden light flashed past the sky, and entered the city.

“Boom~~~”

After that golden light entered the city, it began to rapidly change, and turned into the figure of a man.

“Chu Feng?”

Seeing that person, Tang Ying’s expression immediately changed. The reason for that was because that person was none other than Chu Feng.

Merely, that was not Chu Feng’s actual body. Rather, it was a clone formed with a world spirit formation.

“Do not bother surveying your surroundings anymore. With merely the bits of perception that you all possess, it is simply impossible for you all to find my actual body,” Chu Feng said to Hong Xi.

He was able to tell that Hong Xi and the experts from Luyang’s Pavilion were all using their perception to try to find him. Merely, they were simply unable to find him.

“And here I thought that you would actually be daring enough to come. Turns out, you actually only dare to come forth with your clone. You couldn’t possibly be thinking that you would be able to kill all of us and save Tang Ying with that mere spirit formation clone, right?” Hong Xi laughed mockingly.

“Hahahaha!!!” The others from Luyang’s Pavilion also burst into loud laughter.

In fact, many of the bystanders unrelated to Luyang’s Pavilion also started to laugh mockingly.

Even though the clone Chu Feng had formed with a spirit formation was much inferior to his actual body, it still gave off the aura of his actual body.

Thus, everyone was able to tell that Chu Feng was only a rank two Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, even if he were to show his actual body, it would still be impossible for him to be a match for Hong Xi and the others. As such, how could a mere clone possibly be a match for them?

“Release Tang Ying and A’cai. If you are to do that, I will show myself immediately,” Chu Feng said.

“What did you say?” Hearing those words, Hong Xi’s expression changed immediately.

In fact, the expressions of everyone present changed.

None of them had expected that Chu Feng would truly come to save Tang Ying.

Chapter 2190 – Whole New Level Of Respect

---

“I said, release Tang Ying, and I’ll show myself immediately,” Chu Feng repeated himself.

“Heh, do you take me as a fool? Do you think that I will be toyed around with by you that easily?” Hong Xi said mockingly.

“You have no other choice,” Chu Feng said.

“No other choice? I think you’re mistaken here,” Hong Xi laughed coldly. Then, he extended his palm and grabbed at Tang Ying. Immediately, a boundless oppressive might appeared out of nowhere, covering Tang Ying and the servant girl.

The moment Hong Xi acted, everyone was able to sense Hong Xi’s aura. He was a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. In other words, he was a peak Half Martial Ancestor-level expert, someone only a step away from becoming a Martial Ancestor.

For someone as powerful as him, he would be able to kill Tang Ying and her servant girl with a single thought. There was simply no need for him to use his oppressive might to do so.

“Show yourself immediately. Else, I will kill them right now,” Hong Xi threatened fiercely.

“Hong Xi, I know that you possess Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists among your subordinates. However, you should also know that it would be simply impossible for you all to determine where I’m located with your strength.”

“If you dare to kill Tang Ying and A’cai, I will definitely not show myself. I dare to guarantee you that you will never be able to accomplish the mission that your master gave you.”

“However, if you are to spare them, I will immediately show myself. I will definitely keep my word.”

“Today, I have already given you the chance to kill me. The choice is up to you now.”

“Of course, if you choose to insist on killing Tang Ying and not spare them, then it would mean that you are extremely cowardly. The person that will be mocked and ridiculed by the people of the world would not be me, Chu Feng. Instead, it will be you, Hong Xi.”

“However, if I am to not show myself after you released Tang Ying, the person mocked by the people of the world will instead be me.”

“Furthermore, if you choose the former and make it so that you will never be able to capture me again, I believe your master will also not be happy with you.”

“Thus, you should know what to choose,” Chu Feng said confidently. It was as if he had already seen through Hong Xi.

“Heh... you are quite smart,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Hong Xi suddenly burst into laughter. He was no fool, and was naturally able to weigh the pros and cons.

In this sort of situation, he truly appeared to have no other choice but to release Tang Ying as Chu Feng had said. However, he was unwilling to do so. The reason for that was because it would mean that he had lost to Chu Feng in this contest should he do as Chu Feng wanted.

However, he also did not wish to let go of this opportunity to kill Chu Feng, nor did he want to be punished by his master and mocked by the people of the world for letting Chu Feng go.

Thus, in the end, he waved his sleeve and destroyed the thorny vines tying Tang Ying and the servant girl up.

At that moment, Tang Ying and the servant girl had regained their freedom.

“You can go,” Hong Xi said.

Tang Ying and the servant girl were both bewildered by this scene. They seemed to be at a loss as for what to do, whether to escape or not.

However, they then turned around and began to hurriedly flee toward the distance. Their rear views were very sorry in appearance.

“Tell your men to release their tracking,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, Hong Xi’s expression changed. However, in the end, he looked to the men beside him.

In response, the men’s expressions changed. Even though there was not a lot of change to their appearance, a lot of people present knew that those men were world spiritists.

As such, they must’ve used special techniques to lock onto Tang Ying and her servant girl’s aura. Thus, no matter where Tang Ying and her servant girl were to flee to, they would still be captured by Hong Xi’s subordinates.

However, their tricks were seen through by Chu Feng. Thus, at that moment, Hong Xi’s subordinates had no choice but to stop what they were doing. With that, as long as Tang Ying and A’cai fled far enough, it would be extremely difficult for Hong Xi to find them again.

Even though the people from Luyang’s Pavilion did not chase after Tang Ying and A’cai, and had also released their tracking of them, some of the bystanders began to have the idea of tracking them.

In fact, some people had already entered the void, and were tailing Tang Ying from the shadows.

After all, they all knew how powerful Luyang’s Pavilion was. If they were able to find Tang Ying to hand to Luyang’s Pavilion, they would definitely be able to gain many benefits.

“The people present, listen carefully: If any of you dare to think about doing anything to Tang Ying and her servant girl, I will definitely make you all wish you were dead,” Chu Feng’s voice sounded again. Even though it was only from his clone, his voice contained great killing intent, and was extremely chilly.

At this moment, the expressions of the people who thought about tailing Tang Ying all turned sluggish. They no longer dared to move.

Even though they all felt that Chu Feng was powerless to even protect himself now, they, for some reason, felt that Chu Feng’s words were no joke. It was as if he was truly capable of doing what he said.

They felt that if they were to do something to Tang Ying today, they might really end up dying by Chu Feng’s hands. As such, in the end, not a single person dared to tail Tang Ying from the shadows.

At that moment, many people started to have new opinions of Chu Feng.

His simple sentences had demonstrated his perceptive ability, as well as his careful frame of mind.

Even though it was a path to his own destruction for Chu Feng to come here, he had already planned everything out.

Before this, no one would’ve truly thought that a mere member of the younger generation would be able to accomplish all this against a major power with strength greatly surpassing his own.

In fact, many people felt that Chu Feng would not show up, that it would mean that Chu Feng was a fool should he show up, that not only would he die, but Tang Ying would also die.

However, looking at it now, the crowd felt that they had truly underestimated this Chu Feng before.

The current situation was that Tang Ying had been released. If Chu Feng were to not show himself, Hong Xi would have lost enormously.

In fact, many people felt that Chu Feng would not show himself.

The reason for that was because the people that he wanted to save today had already been saved. Furthermore, he was able to get away safely. Thus, Chu Feng had already won.

Most importantly, no one would give up their lives for the sake of their reputation. The crowd automatically felt that Chu Feng would not do so either.

“They have already gotten far away. They are safe now. You can show yourself,” Hong Xi said.

“Don’t be in such a rush. Wait a bit longer. The two of them have low levels of cultivation. You must give them a bit more time,” Chu Feng said.

“Could it be that you do not dare to show yourself?” Hong Xi said coldly.

“Are you afraid?” Chu Feng asked with a smile.

“Nonsense! Me, afraid?” Hong Xi started to frown as he replied with a cold voice.

“You fear that I will not show myself because you will end up losing enormously should that be the case. Furthermore, you will be ridiculed by the people of the world,” Chu Feng said.

“Ridiculous, even if someone is to be ridiculed, it will be you. You will be the one who will be ridiculed for breaking your promise. As for I... how could I possibly be ridiculed?” Hong Xi said.

“Indeed, I will be ridiculed. However, you will also be ridiculed. If people were to ridicule me for breaking my promise, they would also ridicule you for being extremely stupid.”

“You!!!” Hong Xi revealed a furious expression. He finally realized that he had been made a fool of. If Chu Feng were to really not show himself, he would end up losing enormously.

At that moment, Hong Xi was filled with regret. He regretted his impatience in wanting to kill Chu Feng that caused him to lose his calm and be exploited by Chu Feng.

“Look, didn’t I say that you were afraid?” Chu Feng laughed.

Suddenly, Hong Xi shouted, “Vile bastard!!!” Then, he raised his hand and shot out a palm strike. “Boom!” Chu Feng’s clone was destroyed by him.

Chapter 2191 – Chu Feng’s Appearance

---

Seeing Hong Xi destroying Chu Feng’s clone caused the expressions of many people present to turn sluggish.

This ending seemed to represent that Chu Feng would truly not show himself.

Even though they had already anticipated this, the crowd were still disappointed to see that things would end this way.

After all, if this was truly the case, this show would truly have been too dull.

At the same time, it would also mean that Chu Feng was, like the great majority of people, a spineless coward.

“Everyone, you’ve all seen this. I, Hong Xi, am straightforward and upright. I have kept my word.”

“As for that Chu Feng, he is extremely despicable; he is someone that goes back on his word.”

“Actually, I, Hong Xi, already expected that he would not show himself. I also know that he is despicable and shameless.”

“However, I still gave in to his demands. The reason for that is because I wanted everyone to see his true colors. I wanted everyone to know that there’s a despicable man by the name of Chu Feng in our Luyang’s Pavilion’s territory.”

“Everyone, you must be careful when you encounter that child. Do not be entrapped by him. The reason for that is because that child is a fully deserving vile bastard,” Hong Xi feared that the people would truly think that he was stupid. Thus, he began to find excuses for himself.

Most ridiculous of it all, though it was unknown as to whether the crowd wanted to flatter Hong Xi or what, but many of them actually took what Hong Xi said to be the truth and began to nod.

In fact, many among them even started to applaud Hong Xi.

“Who said that I, Chu Feng, am someone who goes back on my words, that I will not dare to show myself?”

Suddenly, right at that moment, a figure flew over and entered Hong Xi and the others’ line of sight.

Upon seeing that man, the people present, including Hong Xi, were all startled. The reason for that was because that person was Chu Feng, the real Chu Feng and definitely not a clone.

“Chu Feng?!” Upon seeing Chu Feng, even Hong Xi revealed a surprised expression. He seemed to not dare to believe that Chu Feng would really show himself.

“What’s wrong? Hong Xi, as one of the six grand Vice Pavilion Masters of Luyang’s Pavilion, could it be that you cannot tell whether I am here with my actual body or as a clone?” Chu Feng mocked with a smile.

He was never one to do something without certainty of success. Before coming here, he had already thoroughly investigated that Hong Xi.

Hong Xi was not only a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, he was also one of the six most powerful individuals in Luyang’s Pavilion underneath Chu Luyang.

His strength was most definitely not limited to merely that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Reportedly, even ordinary rank one Martial Ancestors would not be a match for him.

It was not because he possessed heaven-defying battle power that surpassed ordinary people. Rather, it was because he was a special monstrous beast. He possessed a special Inherited Bloodline that could allow him to increase his cultivation by a level.

In other words, even though his actual cultivation was that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, his cultivation would increase to that of a rank one Martial Ancestor should he activate his Inherited Bloodline.

“Hahaha, I truly never expected this. Chu Feng, not only are you bold, you’re also very astute. You actually dared to appear by yourself.”

“You couldn’t possibly think that I wouldn’t dare to kill you, right?” After Hong Xi confirmed that it was Chu Feng’s actual body, he was immediately overjoyed. All of the displeasure that was on his face before disappeared, and was replaced with a sense of superiority.

The way he saw it, as long as Chu Feng showed himself, he would be the victor. The reason for that was because Hong Xi felt that Chu Feng would undoubtedly be killed by him because of the difference between their strengths.

Pleasure. He felt extreme pleasure. He felt so much pleasure, that Hong Xi actually forgot himself.

“Who told you that little friend Chu Feng came alone?” However, right at that moment, an old man’s voice sounded.

Following that, the space beside Chu Feng started to fluctuate like water. Soon, an old man appeared from that space and stood beside Chu Feng.

Upon seeing this person, the expressions of the great majority of the people present changed. The reason for that was because this old man was one of the Red Butterfly Society’s management elders, Elder Liu Chengkun.

Furthermore, Elder Liu Chengkun was not concealing his aura. Instead, he had unleashed his aura, his cultivation.

His aura greatly surpassed that of Half Martial Ancestors. Sensing that aura, people felt fear from it. The reason for that was because that Elder Liu Chengkun was actually a Martial Ancestor.

A rank one Martial Ancestor, an actual Martial Ancestor-level expert, an expert that had truly grasped the strength of Ancestral-level martial power.

However, compared to others, Chu Feng did not reveal any trace of surprise after Elder Liu Chengkun appeared.

The reason for that... was because before Chu Feng had appeared, he had already known that this Elder Liu Chengkun would come to help him.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you can rest assured. I have already ordered my men to receive Tang Ying and her servant girl. They are already safe now,” Liu Chengkun said to Chu Feng through voice transmission with a beaming smile.

“Thank you, Elder Liu, for your assistance,” Chu Feng replied through voice transmission. His tone was filled with gratefulness.

Actually, the reason why Chu Feng dared to show himself was precisely because he had discovered Elder Liu Chengkun after arriving to this place.

in the beginning, Chu Feng had merely sent a voice transmission to Elder Liu Chengkun to ask him whether or not he could help him get Tang Ying after they escaped.

At that time, he was uncertain of whether or not Elder Liu Chengkun would help him. After all, he had refused Elder Liu Chengkun’s invitation not long ago.

However, to Chu Feng’s surprise, not only did Elder Liu Chengkun agree to help him without the slightest hesitation, he even told Chu Feng to not quietly leave, and instead show himself after Hong Xi released Tang Ying.

He told Chu Feng that his reputation would be ruined should he escape. At that time, it would become a stain throughout his life. Furthermore, he would be ridiculed all his life for it. Even if Chu Feng managed to obtain an extremely high level of accomplishment in the future, there would still be people that would dishonor him using that.

At that time, Chu Feng realized that Liu Chengkun would definitely show himself to help him should he show himself.

Actually, even if Liu Chengkun had not said such a thing to Chu Feng, Chu Feng had not planned to escape without a trace either.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew that he not only carried his own reputation, he also carried his father Chu Xuanyuan and his grandfather Chu Hanxian's reputations.

Not only could he not afford to shame himself, he could not afford to shame his father and grandfather.

Thus, no matter what, Chu Feng would show himself. Even if he could not defeat Hong Xi, he would still fight him. He had decided to place all of his hopes onto his Evil God Sword.

However, as Liu Chengkun had decided to help him, Chu Feng felt more confident.

Merely, it remained that he did not have much of a relation with Liu Chengkun. They had only met each other once. Furthermore, Chu Feng had refused his invitation.

Thus, Chu Feng truly felt extremely grateful that Liu Chengkun was willing to help him unconditionally.

"So, Chu Feng was actually a part of your Red Butterfly Society? No wonder he's bold enough to go against our Luyang's Pavilion."

"This is the perfect opportunity. Liu Chengkun, I have yet to settle my debt with you from last time," Hong Xi said fiercely.

"I think you are mistaken. Little friend Chu Feng is merely a like-minded individual to us. However, he does not actually belong to our Red Butterfly Society," Elder Liu Chengkun explained on behalf of Chu Feng.

Liu Chengkun's simple explanation caused Chu Feng's impression of him to increase greatly.

Originally, Chu Feng had wanted to explain. However, it remained that Liu Chengkun had helped him like this. Thus, Chu Feng decided not to explain.

Yet, Liu Chengkun had actually decided to explain for him. This meant that Liu Chengkun was truly a good individual.

“Enough of your superfluous words. Today, both of you shall die,” Once Hong Xi said those words, his eyes immediately turned red as an overwhelming killing intent emerged.

Immediately afterward, Hong Xi’s face started to change. Crimson scales began to bore out of his skin. Soon, his clothes ruptured, and his body size increased by threefold.

Even though he still had the appearance of a human, his body was completely covered with crimson scales. Sharp and strong black fingernails appeared on his fingers and he looked very much like a monster.

Most importantly, his aura had increased. He was no longer a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Instead, he had become a rank one Martial Ancestor.

Chapter 2192 – Trapped In Danger

---

“Come. Today, the two of us shall settle the grudges we have from the past.”

In response, Liu Chengkun waved his sleeve. Stepping on the air, he began to walk calmly toward Hong Xi.

At the moment he waved his sleeve, a little crystal bowl was tossed toward Chu Feng.

After that little crystal bowl approached Chu Feng, it began to rapidly increase in size. From the size of a palm, it increased to the size of a washbowl. In an upside-down manner, it hovered on top of Chu Feng’s head and spun slowly.

As it spun, a faint light began to sprinkle down from the bowl like a waterfall of light.

In the end, a defensive barrier was formed. That defensive barrier surrounded Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, your life is mine!!!”

At that time, the other experts from Luyang’s Pavilion all rushed toward Chu Feng and surrounded him. They all unleashed their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments and began to attack Chu Feng.

Ferocious martial skills and frightening blade rays, they were all incomparably powerful. To Chu Feng, all of those attacks were capable of taking his life should he be struck by them unprepared. Even if he managed to survive, he would be seriously injured.

However, being underneath the crystal bowl, Chu Feng was completely unharmed.

Regardless of how powerful their attacks were, regardless of whether they were the attacks of rank seven Half Martial Ancestors, rank eight Half Martial Ancestors or even rank nine Half Martial Ancestors, none of the attacks were capable of breaching the defensive barrier formed by the crystal bowl.

The crystal bowl was a defensive treasure. Chu Feng was absolutely safe should he stay inside it.

Unless that Hong Xi were to act, none of the current people from Luyang's Pavilion would be able to bring any harm to Chu Feng.

Unfortunately, that Hong Xi was simply unable to do anything to Chu Feng right now. The reason for that was because he was locked in a busy battle against Elder Liu Chengkun.

Hong Xi was holding a large crimson blade. That blade was ten meters long, and emitted a very strong bloody odor. It was as if the blade was made of blood.

With each movement, the blade would let out a frightening snarl. His weapon was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. However, it was an extremely powerful one.

From the discussion of the surrounding crowd, Chu Feng came to know that the crimson sword was an extremely famous Incomplete Ancestral Armament. It was called the Infernal Bloodsoul Blade.

It was indeed a blade formed by the condensation of blood. That was the reason why it reeked so strongly of blood, and emitted an intense killing intent.

Furthermore, the Infernal Bloodsoul Blade was forged by a demonic beast world spiritist. Thus, when it was being used by a demonic beast, the Infernal Bloodsoul Blade would be more powerful than when it was used by a human.

As for Elder Liu Chengkun, he had also unleashed his own Incomplete Ancestral Armament. When compared to Hong Xi's Incomplete Ancestral Armament, Elder Liu Chengkun's Incomplete Ancestral Armament looked even more special.

His Incomplete Ancestral Armament was actually a picture scroll. The picture scroll had a painting of a sea. That sea was so vivid and lifelike; it was actually surging in the picture scroll.

The picture scroll was not being held in Elder Liu Chengkun's hand. Rather, it was completely revealed. Like a special dragon, that picture scroll hovered around Elder Liu Chengkun to fight for him.

From the conversation of the surrounding crowd, Chu Feng found out that that picture scroll also possessed an extraordinary origin.

It was formed by refining a vast sea. Thus, the sea inside the picture scroll was not fake. Rather, it was an actual sea.

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

“Boom~~~”

At this moment, the battle between the two men grew increasingly more intense. Even though they were equally matched, Chu Feng started to frown.

With his sharp perception and intuition, Chu Feng felt that Elder Liu Chengkun was already going all out, and had unleashed his strongest strength in the fight.

However, as for Hong Xi, Chu Feng kept feeling that he still had hidden tricks up his sleeve. If he were to truly go all out, Elder Liu Chengkun would definitely be no match against him.

Suddenly, Hong Xi shouted, “Emperor Taboo: Blood Lizard Transformation!”

Then, crimson gaseous flames began to emit from his body. The gaseous flames started to rapidly transform. In the end, the gaseous flames turned into a giant thousand-meter-long red lizard.

The giant red lizard appeared to be a spirit body, as it was translucent. However, it was emitting an extremely powerful aura, and was controlled by Hong Xi.

At that moment, its bloody mouth was wide open as it moved to bite at Elder Liu Chengkun.

Before the mouth even arrived, the might of the attack was already extremely terrifying.

“Emperor Taboo: Great Tidal Wave!”

Elder Liu Chengkun was not to be outdone. He, too, unleashed a very powerful Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

Immediately, violent waves of water that contained extremely powerful Ancestral-level martial power began to surge in the sky. It looked like a vast sea had appeared in the sky.

Elder Liu Chengkun was very experienced in battle. At the same time as he started to attack Hong Xi from afar with his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, he was also moving backwards and maintaining his state of superiority against Hong Xi.

“As expected of a Martial Ancestor. They are not people that can be compared with someone who obtained the cultivation of Martial Ancestor through abilities.”

Seeing the successive tidal waves swallowing the giant red lizard, the great majority of the people present, with the exception of Chu Feng, all felt that Elder Liu Chengkun was going to win.

“Old fart, quite a good technique you have there. However, do not think that you will be able to stop me with only this.”

Suddenly, Hong Xi’s voice sounded from within the surging waves in the sky. Following that, Hong Xi’s figure reappeared.

Merely, when Hong Xi’s enormous figure reappeared, there was an enormous change when compared to before.

If the enormous lizard from before was only a phantom image, then the current Hong Xi’s entire body was rapidly increasing in size.

Hong Xi’s body was fusing with his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. As this situation continued, the aura that Hong Xi was emitting grew more and more powerful.

“Crash, splatter~~~”

At that moment, Hong Xi began to move forward while braving the waves. He had managed to withstand the overflowing giant waves from Elder Liu Chengkun, and was closing the distance to him. Furthermore, his speed was growing faster and faster. It seemed like he would be able to overtake Elder Liu Chengkun.

“Crap!”

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng started to frown even deeper. His ill premonition had happened.

Elder Liu Chengkun had already unleashed all of his power. And now, Hong Xi had unleashed his final trump card.

However, Hong Xi's trump card was yet to be completely revealed. If he were to reveal it completely, the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill that Elder Liu Chengkun had unleashed with his Incomplete Ancestral Armament would likely not be a match for Hong Xi.

Hong Xi had relied on his Inherited Bloodline and that Incomplete Ancestral Armament specialized for Monstrous Beasts. As such, his might surpassed that of Elder Liu Chengkun.

“How could this be? Hong Xi, he's actually this powerful? He was actually able to reverse the battle?”

At that moment, the people who thought that Elder Liu Chengkun was going to win all revealed expressions of shock. None of them had anticipated that Hong Xi would be so powerful, so powerful that he could reverse the situation.

“Reverse the situation? You all are overthinking it. Our Lord Hong Xi is someone unequalled among those with the same level of battle power to begin with. That Red Butterfly Society's Liu Chengkun only managed to fight our Lord Hong Xi to a draw before because our Lord Hong Xi was deliberately going easy on him,” The people from Luyang’s Pavilion said proudly.

“So that was the case?! Lord Hong Xi is truly amazing!!!”

“In that case, it would seem that not only will that Chu Feng not be able to escape today, that Liu Chengkun will also end up meeting a calamity today?!”

At that moment, the crowd all cast glances at Chu Feng. Then, they looked back to Liu Chengkun. Inevitably, there was a slight amount of pity in their gazes.

After all, if Liu Chengkun hadn’t come for Chu Feng, he would not have involved himself with this mess. If he hadn’t involved himself with this mess, he would not have ended up in such a dangerous situation now.

Hong Xi’s name literally means Red Lizard.

Chapter 2193 – The Power Of Asura

---

“Senior Liu Chengkun, please do not worry about me. You should leave right now!” Chu Feng shouted. He did not wish to implicate Liu Chengkun.

However, Liu Chengkun smiled lightly at Chu Feng’s urge to leave. He said, “Little friend Chu Feng, a man should not give up so easily.”

“Although I, Liu Chengkun, am quite old, I am still a man. Furthermore, our Red Butterfly Society possesses numerous grudges and grievances with this Luyang’s Pavilion to begin with. Furthermore, I, Liu Chengkun, also possess a great personal hatred against this Hong Xi.”

“Thus, this is not simply a matter that concerns you alone. No matter what, I will not let this Hong Xi get away today. Even if it must end in mutual destruction, I must still kill him.”

After saying those words, Elder Liu Chengkun shouted loudly. After that shout, his Incomplete Ancestral Armament began to shine brightly. At the same time, Elder Liu Chengkun’s aura also became much more powerful.

Subsequently, the Emperor Taboo: Great Tidal Wave unleashed by Elder Liu Chengkun also became much more powerful. Successive enormous waves shattered space itself. Once again, they began to drown Hong Xi, making it extremely difficult for him to continue onward.

Willpower and killing intent.

Elder Liu Chengkun had completely unleashed all of his power. He had already reached his limit. However, he was still able to increase his power. He had only managed to accomplish all that by relying on his willpower to kill Hong Xi.

“Humph,” Hong Xi snorted mockingly. He seemed to have already seen through this fact. Thus, he sneered, “Merely an arrow at the end of its flight. I shall see how much longer you can persevere.”

“Damn it. This wouldn’t do if it is to continue like this,” At that moment, Chu Feng was extremely nervous.

Even though Elder Liu Chengkun had declared that he possessed personal hatred with that Hong Xi, and that his death would be unrelated to Chu Feng, Chu Feng would still blame himself should Elder Liu Chengkun really die here today.

“I can only give it a try,” Suddenly, a determined expression flashed through Chu Feng’s eyes. He placed his palm onto his Cosmos Sack.

He was planning to use the power that he could not control, the Evil God Sword!!!

Even though the Evil God Sword appeared to only be an Imperial Armament, it was most definitely not a mere Imperial Armament. Else, it would be impossible for even his father to warn him about using the Evil God Sword.

The power of the Evil God Sword was extremely frightening. Chu Feng did not have the ability to control it. If things went wrong, Chu Feng might even end up being killed by the Evil God Sword.

However, that power that he could not control was the only thing that Chu Feng could rely on. After all, there was such an enormous difference in cultivation between him and that Hong Xi. It would simply be impossible for Chu Feng to defeat Hong Xi with his own strength.

“Chu Feng, don’t worry,” However, right at that moment, a soft and gentle voice entered Chu Feng’s ears, advising him against using the Evil God Sword.

Chu Feng’s body trembled upon hearing that voice. His heart tensed up. At that moment, he felt as if he had been struck by lightning.

However, the sensation he felt was not one of pain. Rather, it was one of immense joy. He was truly and immensely overjoyed. It was as if the greatest thing had happened in this world.

The reason for that was because that voice he heard sounded very familiar. It was Eggy's voice, the voice of Her Lady Queen.

After hearing Eggy's voice, Chu Feng immediately cast his awareness into his world spirit space. He wished to see what had happened there.

Upon reaching his world spirit space, he was even more incapable of controlling his emotions, and revealed an ecstatic expression.

Eggy, Her Lady Queen, had woken up.

Wearing a black dress, she was still as exceptionally beautiful as she always was. With a smile on her face, she looked at Chu Feng.

"Milady Queen, you're finally awake."

"Is it really you? I'm not dreaming, right?" Chu Feng was truly overjoyed. He did not expect that Eggy would wake up at such a time.

"Hey, hey, hey! Where are you touching? Are you deliberately taking advantage of this Queen?!" Eggy curled her lips and cast a disdainful gaze at Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was not behaving honestly at all. Not only had he hugged the little beauty into his bosom, he was also rubbing her nonstop with his hands. He was so bold that he was using his hands to touch Eggy's exquisite and perfect cheeks.

However, even though that was the case, Eggy merely called Chu Feng out for his actions, and did not push him away.

"Haha, Eggy, it is truly you. Do you know how much I missed you?” Chu Feng said.

“Enough of this disgusting behavior. This Queen did not really fall asleep. I have heard all of your soliloquies throughout these days.”

“In the future, if this Queen is not present, you must not say those sorts of things. Else, even if I am fine, I will be disgusted by your words to the point where I will not be fine,” Eggy said with her lips curled.

Even though she revealed a disgusted facial expression, her beautiful eyes were displaying happiness.

“In that case, you know about all the things that happened?” Chu Feng asked.

“I remember them even better than you,” Eggy raised her head and spoke proudly.

“Then, the spirit formation my mother placed on you, did you...!!!” Chu Feng asked.

“I know. Although your mother sealed my cultivation, that spirit formation was indeed beneficial to me. As such, I am unable to blame her.”

“If you don’t believe me, look,” Eggy smiled sweetly, then unleashed her aura.

At that moment, Chu Feng was able to clearly sense the cultivation of Her Lady Queen Eggy. She was many times more powerful than before.

It was as his father had declared, Eggy was a Half Martial Ancestor now. Not only that, she had also surpassed Chu Feng’s cultivation.

Chu Feng was merely a rank two Half Martial Ancestor. However, Eggy was already a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

“Let’s go. Let this Queen out. I will personally teach that ignorant stinky lizard.”

“This Queen will make him know that not just anyone can be bullied by him. That you, Chu Feng, are under the umbrella of this Queen.”

Eggy waved her fists around angrily. Even though she had just regained consciousness, she knew all about what Chu Feng had experienced. Thus, she was impatient to teach that Hong Xi a lesson.

“Of course. No... wait.”

“Milady Queen, although your cultivation is strong, you are only a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. That Hong Xi, on the other hand, is a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, he has reached rank one Martial Ancestor after using the power of his Inherited Bloodline. Would you... really be able to contend against him?” Chu Feng asked with a frown. He was worried for Eggy.

“Really be able to contend against him? What sort of words are those? Who are you looking down on? Are you looking down at Your Lady Queen, or are you looking down at me?” Eggy asked with a furious expression.

“This...” Chu Feng did not dare to answer.

“Haha, look at your expression. I am only toying with you,” Eggy smiled proudly. Her smile was extremely beautiful. Looking at that smile, Chu Feng was nearly intoxicated.

“Rest assured, regardless of how powerful that Hong Xi’s cultivation might be, his battle power is too weak. As for this Queen, my battle power is capable of surmounting seven levels of cultivation.”

“No, that’s wrong. If, according to what your father said, all Martial Emperors and Martial Ancestors possess battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, then this Queen’s battle power, when compared to theirs, is capable of surmounting four additional levels of cultivation.”

“However, even if it is only surmounting four levels of cultivation, the Queen is still able to contend against ordinary rank one Martial Ancestors. Furthermore, ordinary rank one Martial Ancestors are definitely no match for this Queen. Thus, you don’t have to worry.”

“This Queen will definitely teach that Hong Xi a lesson so bad that he will cry and go look for his mom,” Eggy said proudly.

“Heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. Milady Queen, you are truly amazing,” Hearing those words, Chu Feng revealed a joyous expression.

He knew very well that Her Lady Queen was someone that never lied. Since Her Lady Queen declared that she possessed a battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, that meant that she most definitely did.

Before, Chu Feng had guessed that Her Lady Queen’s heaven-defying battle power would be much stronger than his own. However, it turned out that Her Lady Queen’s heaven-defying battle power was even more amazing than he had guessed it to be.

Chu Feng had only managed to obtain his current heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation after breaking through to the Half Martial Ancestor realm. However, Her Lady Queen’s heaven-defying battle power was even stronger than his still.

“This Queen was also only able to increase my battle power after my cultivation increased to the Half Martial Ancestor level. If this Queen is able to reach Martial Ancestor level, my battle power will increase by another level,” Eggy added proudly.

“Heh, since that is the case, it is time to let them experience how powerful Milady Queen is,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“No,” Eggy shook her head.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Feng asked in a surprised manner.

Eggy smiled sweetly. She said, “What this Queen will let them experience is the power of Asura.”

Chapter 2194 – Prepared To Kill You

---

“Rumble~~~”

Explosions began to sound in the sky nonstop.

Following the rumbles, surging waves began to spray in all direction like ferocious waterfalls.

At that moment, torrential rain covered the sky. The rain shattered the mountain stone and destroyed the city. In fact, many of the cultivators outside the city were forced to retreat far away. They did not dare to involve themselves in the matter.

It was Hong Xi. At that moment, Hong Xi's body had completely fused with that martial skill. He had turned into an actual giant monster that reached the sky.

Even his Incomplete Ancestral Armament had changed. It had turned into a demon-like crimson giant creature that fought alongside Hong Xi.

The giant creature that the Incomplete Ancestral Armament had turned into did not possess a complete body, as its body was changing nonstop. However, one would be terrified with a single glance at its eyes streaming with killing intent.

Furthermore, that giant creature possessed a strength on par with Hong Xi.

At that moment, Hong Xi was simply unstoppable. He was suppressing Elder Liu Chengkun and forcing him into a state of constant retreat.

A difficult expression was clearly present on Elder Liu Chengkun's face.

Everyone could tell that Liu Chengkun would likely not be able to last for much longer.

“Emperor Taboo: Holy Spirit Army!”

Forced to such a situation, Liu Chengkun shouted. He had unleashed another Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

Once that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was unleashed, a total of eight thousand bodies of light shot forth. Merely, those bodies of light did not fly toward Hong Xi to attack him. Rather, they flew toward Chu Feng.

“Heeaahh!!!”

After the bodies of light approached, they began to transform. One by one, they turned into armored soldiers three meters tall holding spears in their hands.

Those soldiers all possessed cultivations of rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Once they appeared, they immediately started to attack and kill the people from Luyang’s Pavilion that surrounded Chu Feng.

This caught the people from Luyang’s Pavilion that surrounded Chu Feng off guard. They were powerless to defend themselves. In fact, other than the rank nine Half Martial Ancestors, the rest of them were all killed by the Holy Spirit Army.

“Chu Feng, quickly, escape!!!”

Right at that moment, a voice transmission entered Chu Feng’s ears. That voice transmission was from Liu Chengkun.

“Trying to let him escape? I’m afraid that you won’t be able to do so.”

Upon seeing that, Hong Xi sneered. He had already seen through what Liu Chengkun was planning to do. Thus, with a thought, the crimson monster formed by the Incomplete Ancestral Armament turned around and started flying toward Chu Feng.

“Rumble~~~”

The crimson monster broke free from the tidal waves and began to charge toward Chu Feng to attack him. Wherever it passed, the sky would turn crimson. It was as if a life-seeking demon was proceeding toward Chu Feng to demand his life.

“Crash~~~”

Before that crimson monster even managed to approach Chu Feng, an enormous sky-shadowing tidal wave came from behind it and trapped the crimson monster.

It turned out that enormous wave was unleashed by Elder Liu Chengkun’s Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Not only did the wave arrive, Elder Liu Chengkun’s Incomplete Ancestral Armament had also arrived. At that moment, the two Incomplete Ancestral Armaments started fighting one another.

At that moment, Chu Feng had just returned his awareness to his body and was startled upon seeing the scene before him.

After Liu Chengkun let go of his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, the might of his Emperor Taboo: Great Tidal Wave decreased enormously.

As for Hong Xi, even though he had also let go of his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, his strength was still as ferocious as before. At that moment, he had already managed to close a lot of the distance between them, and was less than a hundred meters away from Liu Chengkun.

“Heeaaahh!!!”

Liu Chengkun shouted. Then, he clenched his teeth and increased the strength of his waves, barely managing to stop Hong Xi’s incoming attack. However, anyone could tell that Liu Chengkun would not be able to last for much longer.

“Puu~~~”

Suddenly, Liu Chengkun sprayed out a mouthful of blood and stained the lapel of his clothes.

This scene verified to the crowd that Liu Chengkun was truly unable to persist for much longer.

“Chu Feng, escape now!!!” Liu Chengkun suddenly shouted.

This time around, he was no longer sending Chu Feng a voice transmission. Instead, he was shouting out loud at him. After all, everyone was already able to tell that he was planning to let himself be killed here in order to let Chu Feng escape safely.

Chu Feng was extremely moved by Liu Chengkun’s actions. Even though he was clearly powerless to defend himself, he was still thinking about Chu Feng’s safety.

It could be seen that Liu Chengkun was truly willing to give up his life for Chu Feng.

However, it was clear that he had only met Chu Feng once before.

Feeling extremely moved, Chu Feng said, “Senior Liu Chengkun, I have troubled you.”

“Just leave the rest to me.”

“What?!” The people present were all startled by those words. They all looked to Chu Feng with confused expressions.

What was this?

Liu Chengkun had risked his life in order to obtain an opportunity for Chu Feng to escape. Yet, Chu Feng was not only not planning to escape, he even said those things. Could it be that he had gone insane?

“Chu Feng, what did you say? I dare you to say it again!” At that moment, Hong Xi, who had held absolute superiority, no longer continued to press on toward Liu Chengkun. Instead, he turned his gaze toward Chu Feng.

Merely, his current gaze could be said to be filled with mockery. His gaze simply did not appear to be a gaze of someone looking at another person. Rather, it was the gaze of someone looking at a fool, a moron, an idiot.

In his eyes, the current Chu Feng was a fool, a moron, an idiot.

“Say, what is coming up will be the time of your death,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Time of my death? Even the rank one Martial Ancestor Liu Chengkun is no match for me. You are but a mere rank two Half Martial Ancestor, where did you obtain your confidence from?”

“Oh, I nearly forgot. You are a possessor of Heavenly Bloodline. Your Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings are capable of increasing your cultivation to rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, compared to ordinary Half Martial Ancestors, you possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.”

“After using all your various techniques, you will be able to fight against rank seven Half Martial Ancestors. Thinking of it, you are truly quite amazing.”

“However, do not forget that I am an actual rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, after activating my Inherited Bloodline, my cultivation has increased to that of a rank one Martial Ancestor.”

“Not to mention activating my Inherited Bloodline, even if I do not use my Inherited Bloodline’s power, I will still be able to easily kill you.”

“Before me, you are nothing more than an ant,” Hong Xi said.

“Oh? You’re actually that powerful? In that case, why am I still alive?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

“If it wasn’t for Liu Chengkun’s obstruction, you would already be dead,” Hong Xi said.

“Haha...” Chu Feng laughed lightly. Then, he looked to Liu Chengkun and said, “Since that Hong Xi is that confident, Senior Liu Chengkun, please do not stop him. We should allow that Hong Xi to reveal his might. I also want to see how he shall kill me.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, what are you...!?” Liu Chengkun was completely puzzled. He did not understand what Chu Feng was thinking.

“Senior Liu, I know that you possess many grudges and grievances against that Hong Xi. However, today is the day for me to settle my debt with that Hong Xi.”

“Thus, Senior Liu, please,” Chu Feng said to Liu Chengkun while claspng his fist.

Chu Feng’s intentions were very clear. He wanted Liu Chengkun to step aside. Regardless of what Hong Xi might do to him, he did not want Liu Chengkun to interfere.

“This... okay then,” Liu Chengkun had an expression of helplessness as he sighed. Then, he retrieved his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and actually moved to the side.

Even though he felt that Chu Feng’s request was very unfathomable, Liu Chengkun saw Chu Feng’s confident gaze and felt that he was truly able to contend against Hong Xi.

Thus, he also wished to see if Chu Feng truly had even more tricks up his sleeve.

At the same time Liu Chengkun moved to the side, Hong Xi also stopped his attacks and retrieved his Incomplete Ancestral Armament. However, he did not immediately attack Chu Feng. Instead, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Old fart Liu, do not be anxious. After taking care of this little bastard that does not know the immensity of heaven and earth, I will come and take care of you.”

Once those words were said, the expressions of the crowd present all changed. What Hong Xi inferred with those words was that it would only take him but a moment to take care of Chu Feng.

It was true that with the difference in strength between the two men, it would not take Hong Xi a lot of time to take care of Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, are you prepared to die?” Hong Xi held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and shouted at Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng lightly laughed. He said, “I have not prepared myself to die. However, I have prepared to kill you.”

Chapter 2195 – Asura World Spiritist

---

“Senior Liu Chengkun, please take back this bowl. I plan to take care of this Hong Xi,” Chu Feng said to Liu Chengkun.

Once Chu Feng said those words, not to mention Hong Xi, even many of the bystanders started laughing.

It would be impossible for a mere rank two Half Martial Ancestor, even if he was someone who possessed a Heavenly Bloodline, to be a match against Hong Xi. Exactly where did Chu Feng gain the confidence to say those sort of words?

However, even with this being the case, Liu Chengkun still retrieved his crystal bowl. He might be the only person present that still had some expectations of Chu Feng.

“You are truly one who will not shed a tear until you see your coffin. Originally, I had thought about giving you a straightforward death. However, it would appear that... I must teach you a lesson today.”

“Else, you will not know how frightening I, Hong Xi, am.”

Hong Xi began to attack. He unleashed a special sort of martial skill. His Ancestral-level martial power turned into countless crimson bats.

Those bats were very small. However, they possessed sharp teeth and claws. Furthermore, they were very powerful. It was impossible for anyone below the Martial Ancestor level of cultivation to withstand their attacks.

Most importantly, there were a lot of such bats. They covered the entire sky, and were simply capable of swallowing up a vast city.

At this moment, those bats were flying toward Chu Feng. They were going to devour all of Chu Feng’s flesh and drink all his blood!

That was not a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill, it was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. In fact, it was not even a Taboo Martial Skill. Instead, it was a rank three martial skill.

“That is, the Blood Bat Cursed Soul Technique!!!”

However, that mere rank three martial skill caused Liu Chengkun’s expression to change enormously.

He knew very well how cruel and ruthless of a person Hong Xi was. He was one of the most outstanding confessive, extortive, homicidal demons in Luyang’s Pavilion, and possessed countless methods to torture others.

Although the Blood Bat Cursed Soul Technique was only a rank three martial skill, it was one of the most powerful torture methods Hong Xi possessed.

In the past, there was a very unyielding rank nine Half Martial Ancestor-level expert from the Red Butterfly Society that ended up confessing to the location of a Red Butterfly Society branch due to the torture from that Blood Bat Cursed Soul Technique.

This led to the Red Butterfly Society’s branch being completely wiped out.

From this, it could be seen how frighteningly powerful Hong Xi’s Blood Bat Cursed Soul Technique was. After all, that expert was a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. When even he failed to withstand the torture, could Chu Feng really be able to withstand it?

Thus, after recognizing that it was the Blood Bat Cursed Soul Technique, Elder Liu Chengkun prepared himself to act. The reason for that was because he was unable to watch as Chu Feng suffered torment before him.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, a world spirit gate appeared before Chu Feng.

After that world spirit gate appeared, black gaseous flames began to billow from the gate. Soon, the black gaseous flames covered the sky, and turned into a wall that separated heaven and earth. The wall stood in front of Chu Feng.

“Ji, ji, ji~~~”

At the moment the black gaseous flames appeared, the bats of Hong Xi’s Blood Bat Cursed Soul Technique that previously covered the sky started to charge toward the black gaseous flames explosively.

Right at that moment, a shocking scene occurred. After the crimson bats entered the black gaseous flames, not the slightest amount of energy ripples appeared. As if they were sand and stones being tossed into the sea, they disappeared completely.

“Roar~~~”

Soon, a strange roar sounded from the black gaseous flames. After that, a frightening killing intent began to spread all over.

“This sort of sensation, what is going on?”

“Heavens! What is that? Why would that aura be so frightening?!”

Sensing the frightening killing intent, the expressions of the crowd all turned sluggish. In fact, some of the more cowardly individuals turned pale and started to shiver with fear.

The very next moment, the black gaseous flames that covered the sky began to condense together. Soon, a figure appeared.

“Wow! What is going on?!!!”

Seeing the beautiful woman that had appeared before them, not to mention the men present, even many women’s eyes started to shine. In fact, many people were unable to contain themselves, and sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

Beautiful, truly too beautiful. The beauty of her Lady Queen was capable of attracting countless gazes, and causing people to drool regardless of where she might be.

“Who is that beauty?” The crowd began to discuss Eggy spiritedly. After all, no one had seen Eggy appear. Thus, they did not know where she had come from. In fact, they had all forgotten about the world spirit gate Chu Feng had opened.

“Asura World Spirit, Chu Feng... could it be that you’re an Asura World Spiritist?” At that moment, it was Liu Chengkun who spoke first. Furthermore, at that moment, Liu Chengkun was extremely emotional.

By chance, Liu Chengkun had met an Asura World Spiritist before. As such, he had also seen an Asura World Spirit.

Thus, at the moment when the black gaseous flames began to spread, he was extremely astonished. The reason for that was because the sensation he felt from the black gaseous flames greatly resembled that of the Asura World Spirit he’d seen before.

After seeing Eggy, he was even more certain that Eggy was an Asura World Spirit. As the world spirit gate was opened by Chu Feng earlier, Liu Chengkun became certain that Chu Feng was most likely an Asura World Spiritist.

At that moment, Liu Chengkun was truly overwhelmed with excitement. Before this, he had never thought that Chu Feng would be an Asura World Spiritist.

“Senior Liu, please excuse my humble performance. Indeed, this junior is an Asura World Spiritist,” Chu Feng smiled lightly and admitted his identity.

“For real?! Chu Feng... he’s actually an Asura World Spiritist? In that case, that beauty is not a human, but a world spirit? Furthermore, she is an Asura World Spirit, the most savage and cruel world spirits of the Seven Spirit Worlds?”

At that moment, the people present were all unable to remain calm. After all, even to them, Asura World Spirits were akin to legends.

In the Lower Realms, Asura World Spiritists were rarely seen. After all... Asura World Spiritists were the rulers among world spiritists. They were existences that all the powers wanted to recruit into their ranks.

“You’re actually an Asura World Spiritist?” At that moment, even Hong Xi started to frown.

As a Vice Pavilion Master of Luyang’s Pavilion, Hong Xi naturally knew about how powerful Asura World Spiritists were. Without mentioning their strength, merely their identity as Asura World Spiritists would cause countless powers to try to recruit them regardless of price.

Chu Feng was actually an Asura World Spiritist. To their Luyang’s Pavilion, this was not good news at all.

“Yoh, you’re already scared before the actual battle has even begun?” Chu Feng mocked with a smile on his face.

“Scared? It’s merely a rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level world spirit. She’s not much more powerful than you. Why would I be afraid?”

“Are you even capable of making me scared?” Hong Xi sneered disdainfully.

Even though Hong Xi was indeed a bit scared, he could not reveal his fear, because he was a Vice Pavilion Master to Luyang’s Pavilion. Otherwise, he would end up bringing shame to Luyang’s Pavilion.

In fact, Hong Xi knew very well that he was unable to stop now. Even if Chu Feng was an Asura World Spiritist, he must still kill Chu Feng. Else, Chu Feng would cause no end of trouble.

“Even if this Queen only possesses the cultivation of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, it will still be extremely easy for me to kill you,” Eggy said.

“Sure enough, like master like world spirit. Both of you only know how to boast shamelessly.”

“That said, you are quite attractive. Taking your beauty into consideration, I will not kill you. Instead, I will capture you alive and make you my plaything. Every night, you will serve me on the bed,” Suddenly, Hong Xi smiled viciously. Then, he prepared to attack Eggy.

“Courting death,” In response, coldness flashed through Eggy’s eyes. Then, as her skirt fluttered, boundless black gaseous flames erupted from her body like a volcanic explosion.

In the end, the black gaseous flames turned into an enormous black claw and grabbed at Hong Xi.

“Noo!!!” Seeing that scene, Hong Xi actually shouted.

The reason for that was because he was actually unable to move before the black claw. He could only watch helplessly as the black claw that held a fatal threat moved to grab him.

Chapter 2196 – The Savage Queen

---

The black sharp claw covered the sky. It was even more enormous than Hong Xi, who had turned into a giant monster.

Furthermore, even though the sharp claw was coming from the front, Hong Xi was unable to dodge it.

In the end, he was captured by the claw and tightly held by it. The sharp nails pierced through his enormous body, causing his monstrous beast blood to splatter all over.

“Ahhh!!!” After being captured by the sharp claw, Hong Xi let out a miserable scream.

At the beginning, the crowd was confused. It was merely being captured and injured by a claw, was there really a need for him to cry so miserably? For an expert of his level, there shouldn't be a reason for him to have such a low level of endurance, no?

However, upon closer inspection, the crowd discovered that they had wronged Hong Xi. The reason for that was because Hong Xi's current situation was truly extremely miserable.

Hong Xi's body was being torn apart. Piece by piece, his flesh was breaking away from his body.

As for the flesh that broke away from his body, it was immediately refined. The sight was truly too horrible to watch.

“Stop, stop!!!!” As Hong Xi screamed in pain, he shouted for Eggy to stop.

However, how could Her Lady Queen possibly pay attention to him? Not only did she not stop, her attacks grew even more ferocious.

“Bang~~~”

Suddenly, an explosion sounded from Hong Xi's body. Hong Xi's instrument to pass on his lineage had actually exploded.

“Ahhh!!!!” At that moment, Hong Xi screamed even more miserably. Tears were even rolling out of his eyes.

It was not only him, all of the men present felt a pain in their lower parts upon seeing that scene.

At that moment, they all had the same sort of opinion. That is, one must not harass a beauty like that.

The reason for that was because if they were to encounter a celestial fairy-like beauty who was actually a ruthless demoness, they would definitely end up in the same sort of miserable state as Hong Xi.

“Damned bitch! You actually destroyed my little brother! I’ll kill you! I’ll kill you!!!” Hong Xi snarled with grief.

He knew very well that Eggy had used a special method to destroy his partner. Thus, his partner was completely destroyed. No matter what he did, he would not be able to restore it.

Not to mention that he would soon die, even if he were to somehow survive this ordeal, he would still not be able to pass on his lineage for the rest of his life.

As a man, as a male lizard, that was something that he could not accept.

“It would seem that the lesson that I gave you is still insufficient. In that case, I shall let you experience how frightening Asura is.”

Eggy smiled coldly. The coldness in her eyes grew stronger. Then, black gaseous flames began to appear from the black claw. The black gaseous flames were like sharp blades as they dug into Hong Xi’s body.

“Ahhh!!!” Under such a situation, Hong Xi’s screams grew more and more miserable. Hearing his screams, the bystanders felt their blood run cold.

Even though the crowd did not know exactly what those black gaseous flames that entered Hong Xi's body were doing, they were certain that they could not imagine what sort of pain Hong Xi was suffering right now.

At that moment, many people started to sigh. Hong Xi had tortured people his entire life. Yet now, he ended up being tortured by another instead.

However, Eggy remained quite humane toward Hong Xi. After she tore apart Hong Xi's body and refined his source energy all while he was still alive, she killed Hong Xi.

Actually, after Eggy refined his source energy, even if she didn't kill him, Hong Xi would not be able to survive.

After ruthlessly killing Hong Xi, Eggy happily returned to Chu Feng's world spirit gate. She did not bother to stay outside.

However, at that moment, the bystanders were all stunned. At that moment, the surroundings were absolutely silent. It was so quiet that it was frightening.

It was not that the people here did not wish to speak. Rather, they were truly scared after seeing Eggy's ruthlessness and overwhelming might. They feared that Eggy might start to dislike them and then leave them in a state the same as Hong Xi.

Asura. The legendary Asura World Spirit. Today, they had finally experienced one.

At this moment, they all understood why Asura World Spirits were said to be the most powerful and ruthless existences among the Seven Spirit Worlds.

"Little friend Chu Feng, you have truly broadened my horizons!!!" At the moment when the crowd were all stunned, Elder Liu Chengkun walked toward Chu Feng in midair. He had an excited expression on his face.

"It is all thanks to senior today. Else, I fear that I, Chu Feng, would have met my end here," Chu Feng clasped his fist to express his thanks. After what happened here today, Chu Feng had an extremely good impression of Liu Chengkun.

Liu Chengkun sighed. “Speaking of it, I am ashamed. Little friend Chu Feng never needed my assistance. However, I insisted on getting involved. I am truly ashamed,” Elder Liu Chengkun said with an ashamed expression.

The way he saw it, with how powerful Chu Feng’s world spirit was, even if he had not involved himself, Chu Feng would have still been able to kill Hong Xi. Instead, it was because he insisted on involving himself that he ended up delaying Chu Feng from killing Hong Xi.

“Senior, if it wasn’t for you buying time for me, I would not have been able to defeat Hong Xi,” Chu Feng said.

Liu Chengkun’s expression changed. Curiously, he asked, “Oh? Why is that?”

“It is hard to explain with few words. Senior, let’s leave this place first. I will slowly explain things to you after,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, let’s go,” Liu Chengkun nodded his head repeatedly. Then, his body shifted as he entered the void.

Chu Feng also entered the void and the two of them began to journey in the shadows to quickly leave that place.

“Heavens! Exactly who is that Chu Feng? How could he be so powerful?”

“Powerful, too powerful. He simply does not need to do anything. Merely a single world spirit of his was able to kill the renowned Hong Xi. One must know that Hong Xi is a Vice Pavilion Master of Luyang’s Pavilion.”

“Isn’t that Asura World Spirit too frightening? She was clearly only a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. How was it that she was able to kill a rank one Martial Ancestor?”

“Her heaven-defying battle power is truly too ridiculous. Wouldn’t this mean that she possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, more powerful than the people of the Heavenly Clans?”

“Four levels of cultivation? No, it should be more. Else, how could she kill Hong Xi that easily? The way I see it, she must have a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.”

After Chu Feng and Liu Chengkun left, the people present were like freed horses. Immediately, they let loose all their emotions and started to let their tongues run wild.

They had to speak and unleash all the words that they had contained in their stomach, and all the shock they had felt in their hearts. Else, they would stifle themselves ill.

The reason for that was because what had happened had truly broadened their horizons. Likely, they would remember a name for the rest of their lives. As for that name, it would be Chu Feng.

As for Chu Feng, he was also overjoyed right now. Eggy’s strength was too powerful. Even though she only possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, rank one Martial Ancestors were simply unable to withstand Eggy at all.

Thus, even though Eggy was only a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng felt that she would be able to fight against even rank two Martial Ancestors.

A rank six Half Martial Ancestor capable of fighting against a rank two Martial Ancestor? Likely, no one would believe that something like that was possible. After all, it was truly too heaven-defying.

“Milady Queen, exactly what sort of origin do you possess? Are you the only one that’s this powerful? Or could it be... that all of the Asura World Spirits are as powerful as you?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

Chapter 2197 – Not Killed By Me

---

Eggy curled her lips and said, “You wish to know? Well, that’s simple. You merely need to summon a couple more Asura World Spirits. Wouldn’t that solve the problem then?”

“Forget about it. What use is there in summoning that many world spirits? Eggy, you alone are enough for me,” Chu Feng said.

“Are you serious or are you lying?” Eggy said with an expression of disbelief. However, she had a slightly delighted expression in her eyes.

“Of course it’s real. You are enough for me, my treasured Eggy,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Pah, enough of trying to take small advantages of me. Call me Queen,” Eggy said.

“Yes, Milady Queen,” Chu Feng hurriedly said.

“That’s more like it,” Eggy smiled sweetly. It could be seen that her mood was very good.

“Eggy, after refining a rank one Martial Ancestor, did you manage to make any progress in your cultivation?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Rank one Martial Ancestor? That guy’s actual cultivation was only that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Although rank nine Half Martial Ancestors might appear to be decent, they are simply unable to increase this Queen’s cultivation at all. After all, I killed him that easily. Thus, how could he possibly be able to help me increase my cultivation?”

“If you want me to increase my cultivation, you must seize the moment to quickly increase your cultivation. Only with you becoming stronger will I be able to become stronger. You don’t want me to protect you all the time, right?” Eggy said with a beaming smile.

“Of course,” Chu Feng nodded. Indeed, he did not want Eggy to protect him all the time. Instead, he wanted to protect her.

“Well then, concentrate on your journey, and chat with that old man a bit more. This Queen is going to rest now,” After Eggy finished saying those words, she laid down in the world spirit space.

“Rest well,” Although Eggy had gone to rest and refused to continue to chat with Chu Feng, the smile on Chu Feng’s face did not decrease in the slightest.

The sensation of Her Lady Queen being here was completely different to the sensation of her not being here. As long as Her Lady Queen was there, Chu Feng’s heart would not feel empty.

Actually, what Chu Feng had said to Her Lady Queen was said with sincerity. It was not that Chu Feng did not possess the capability to summon more world spirits. On the contrary, as long as he wished to summon more, not to mention a couple, even several hundreds of thousands would be of no issue to him.

However, Chu Feng did not wish to do that. After all, everyone knew that world spirits needed to refine source energies in order to increase their cultivation in this world. As for obtaining source energies, one must enter a path of constant killing.

Chu Feng would not go and kill people for no reason or cause. Killing powerful experts would be difficult. As for killing weak people, the world spirits would not be able to gain much of a benefit should he do that.

Thus, even though he only had a single Eggy, it was already very difficult for him to support her needs. If he were to summon more world spirits, there would be a problem when the time came to distribute the source energies after killing people. As Chu Feng did not wish to treat Eggy unfairly, he wanted to give her all of the source energies.

However, if he were to summon more world spirits, it would be unwise for him to be too prejudiced. As such, Chu Feng decided that he might as well not summon any more.

Apart from that, there was another reason. Chu Feng felt that even though they might all be Asura World Spirits, they would likely be inferior to Eggy in terms of strength.

His mother had spent meticulous effort to seal only Eggy and that Xue Ji in his body. There was most definitely a reason for that.

Thus, rather than summoning world spirits inferior to Eggy, Chu Feng felt that he might as well not summon any world spirits.

It was just like Chu Feng's Five Elements Secret Skills. Should the Five Elements Secret Skills be summoned, they would come out with cultivations one level above Chu Feng's.

For example, Chu Feng was currently a rank two Half Martial Ancestor. Should he summon the Five Elements Secret Skills, they would come out as five rank three Half Martial Ancestors.

While this might make them appear to be more powerful than Chu Feng, it was actually not the case.

Chu Feng possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. With his cultivation of rank two Half Martial Ancestor, he would be able to easily kill rank five Half Martial Ancestors and even fight against rank six Half Martial Ancestors.

That was the power of his Heavenly Bloodline. Everyone with a Heavenly Bloodline possessed that heaven-defying strength.

However, the Five Elements Secret Skills were different. At the Half Martial Ancestor level, they did not possess any heaven-defying battle power that surpassed other Half Martial Ancestors. At the very most, they would only be able to fight against experts of their same level of cultivation. In fact, they might not necessarily be able to defeat those experts.

After all, no matter how strong they might be, they remained merely Secret Skills, whereas their opponents were actual martial cultivators.

Thus, at that moment, the Five Elements Secret Skills were only able to provide Chu Feng with an undying and indestructible body against those with a relatively same level of battle power as him. They had practically no use in actual battle.

Right at that moment, Elder Liu Chengkun who was traveling together with Chu Feng suddenly said, “Chu Feng, your Asura World Spirit is extremely powerful.”

“Although her cultivation is not as strong as the Asura World Spirit I met before, for her to be able to kill Hong Xi that easily, her heaven-defying battle power is definitely at least capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, or even five levels of cultivation.”

“As for the Asura World Spirit I saw before, he only had a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.”

“Senior Liu, you’ve met other Asura World Spirits before?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“I have. This old man was fortunately able to see an Asura World Spirit once. That Asura World Spirit was released by a certain Upper Realm’s world spiritist, and was extremely powerful.”

“However, I feel that you will one day become a world spiritist even more powerful than him. The reason for that is because you have your cultivation at such a young age. I have never seen someone as powerful as you at your age.”

“Furthermore, your world spirit is also more powerful than that Asura World Spiritist’s world spirit. At the very least, her battle power surpasses that of the other world spirit.”

“Thus, I feel that your future accomplishments will definitely surpass that world spiritist's. The Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm will not be able to contain you," Liu Chengkun said.

'Sure enough, Milady Queen is extraordinary,' Chu Feng smiled a brighter smile. What Liu Chengkun said had already verified Chu Feng's guess. Among Asura World Spirits, Eggy was an existence more powerful than normal.

At that moment, the sweet voice of Her Lady Queen, who had clearly stated that she would be going to rest, suddenly sounded once again, "Never would I have expected that there would be Asura World Spiritists here too. Doesn't this mean that I will have the chance to fight against the fellows of our Asura Spirit World again?"

"That's true. I also wish to experience how powerful Asura World Spiritists might be," Chu Feng said in anticipation.

As they spoke, Chu Feng and Elder Liu Chengkun arrived at a mountain range. This mountain range was not very large. However, both the mountain range and the surrounding several tens of miles were completely uninhabited.

However, hidden in the mountain range was an underground palace. Without even Liu Chengkun saying anything, Chu Feng already knew that this must be the Red Butterfly Society's territory.

Merely, there was actually not a single person in the underground palace. It was as if this place was already abandoned.

"Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~"

Right at that moment, three figures suddenly flew out from the depths of the underground palace.

The person leading the group was a yellow-haired man. Chu Feng had met him before. He was also someone from the Red Butterfly Society. Back then, that man had used special methods to conceal his cultivation. However, he did not do so today. Thus, Chu Feng was able to sense that he was a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Although his strength was inferior to Liu Chengkun's, he was still extremely powerful.

As for the other two individuals, they were Tang Ying and her servant girl, A'cai.

Earlier, when Tang Ying and A'cai had escaped, Liu Chengkun had secretly dispatched his men to receive them. As for the person who had received them, it was that yellow-haired man.

Upon seeing Chu Feng, Tang Ying and A'cai both revealed pleasantly surprised smiles. Evidently, neither one of them had expected that Chu Feng would be able to survive.

"I pay my respects to Lord Elder!!!" After that yellow-haired man approached them, he immediately greeted Liu Chengkun respectfully. Then, he turned to Chu Feng and greeted him respectfully too, "It is a pleasure to meet you, little friend Chu Feng."

"Senior, you are being too courteous," Chu Feng hurriedly returned his greeting. He was able to tell that this yellow-haired man was much older than him. He, too, was someone who had lived for thousands of years.

"Chu Feng, let me introduce him to you. He is called Huang Luo. He is one of our Red Butterfly Society's elders," Liu Chengkun introduced.

"Chu Feng pays his respects to Senior Huang," Chu Feng clasped his fist again.

"Little friend Chu Feng, please don't. I, Huang Luo, am unable to bear your respect," Huang Luo laughed. It could be seen that he had a very good impression of Chu Feng. Else, he would not be this courteous.

"Lord Elder, it seems that you've succeeded in killing that Hong Xi?!" Huang Luo asked with an excited expression.

“He has indeed been killed. However, he was not killed by me. Instead, it was little friend Chu Feng who killed him,” Liu Chengkun said.

“What?” Hearing those words, not to mention Huang Luo, even Tang Ying and A’cai revealed stunned expressions.

Chapter 2198 – Not Wanting To Become A Burden

---

“You all must still not know that little friend Chu Feng is an Asura World Spiritist, right?” Liu Chengkun said to the three people with a smile on his face.

“Asura World Spiritist?!!!” Sure enough, after hearing those words, Huang Luo, Tang Ying and A’cai were all startled.

If it were someone else that said those words, the three of them would definitely not believe it. However, Liu Chengkun was not someone who joked around. Thus, all of them believed him.

However, they still found it difficult to believe. After all, Asura World Spiritists were so very rare.

“Chu Feng, you’re too amazing, no? You’re actually an Asura World Spiritist? Why didn’t you mention it sooner?!” Tang Ying was wild with joy. She already knew that Chu Feng was a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. However, she did not know that he was an Asura World Spiritist too.

One must know that Asura World Spiritists were no small matter. For example, if there were two Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, the value of the one that was an Asura World Spiritist would greatly surpass that of the other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

“You never asked me about it,” Chu Feng smiled lightly.

“But, even if little friend Chu Feng is an Asura World Spiritist, it shouldn’t be possible for him to have defeated Hong Xi. Could it be that little friend Chu Feng, you’re concealing your cultivation?” Huang Luo asked curiously.

“You’re mistaken. Little friend Chu Feng’s Asura World Spirit is extremely powerful. With merely that one world spirit, little friend Chu Feng killed Hong Xi.”

“Furthermore, Hong Xi simply did not have the ability to fight back,” Liu Chengkun explained.

“Ssssss~~~!!!!”

Hearing those words, the three individuals were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

From what Elder Liu Chengkun said, they were already able to tell that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to defeat Hong Xi by himself, and that it was Chu Feng’s world spirit that had killed Hong Xi.

However, generally, one’s world spirits would always be weaker than oneself. At the very most, they would possess the same level of cultivation as their master.

However, Chu Feng’s world spirit was actually even more powerful than him. This indirectly showed that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques were very strong. Else, how could he possibly be able to control a world spirit more powerful than himself?

“Tang Ying, A’cai, what do you two plan to do? Are you planning to leave this place of troubles, or do you two plan to join the Red Butterfly Society?” Chu Feng asked Tang Ying. He had actually only followed Liu Chengkun here for Tang Ying’s sake.

“Join the Red Butterfly Society?” Hearing those words, Tang Ying and A’cai’s eyes shone.

“I have consulted with Senior Liu. As long as the two of you are willing, the Red Butterfly Society is willing to offer shelter to you two,” Chu Feng said.

“That is indeed the case. If you two are willing, our Red Butterfly Society shall become your home,” Liu Chengkun nodded.

“Thank you, Senior, for your kind intentions. Also, thank you Chu Feng. However, the two of us really do not wish to trouble you all any further.”

“Especially you, Chu Feng. We are but mere strangers that have only known one another for a short period of time. Yet, you’ve already saved me countless times. Furthermore, after you clearly instructed me that I must quickly leave this place, I still allowed myself to be captured by Hong Xi, and ended up implicating you. I truly...” As she spoke to that point, Tang Ying had an expression of guilt.

“Do not mention the things of the past anymore. Don’t forget, we are friends. Furthermore, I am your bodyguard,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Chu Feng, thank you. You are the best person I, Tang Ying, have ever met in my life. However, I truly do not wish to trouble you anymore,” Tang Ying said.

“In that case, it seems that you plan to bring A’cai far away from here?” Chu Feng already understood Tang Ying’s decision.

“Mn,” Tang Ying nodded.

“If that’s the case, I’ll help change your appearances again. Remember, this time around, you must get further away from here,” Chu Feng said. Last time around, he had already altered Tang Ying’s appearance before parting with her. However, she was still captured by Hong Xi. Furthermore, her appearance was also transformed back.

Thus, this time around, Chu Feng prepared to take his time altering her appearance so that even Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists would not be able to see through her altered appearance.

“Chu Feng, change our appearances to ones that are more ordinary,” Tang Ying said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s expression changed. Although Tang Ying could not be considered to be an absolute beauty, she was still very good-looking. Even A’cai was quite good-looking.

As the saying goes, everyone loves beauty. As for women, it was even more so for them.

Yet, Tang Ying actually voiced such a request. This meant that she was truly prepared to live the rest of her life ordinarily.

“Okay then,” In the end, Chu Feng nodded his head. Then, he began to alter Tang Ying and A’cai’s appearances. Chu Feng was extremely meticulous this time around. Even Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists would not be able to see through their altered appearances.

Merely, the current appearance of the two girls was inferior to even a tenth of their original appearances. Chu Feng felt very sorry to look at them.

This was especially true for Tang Ying. After all, she was the Young Miss of the Tang Family, someone who had possessed both status and wealth before. She used to be blessed. Unfortunately... people were unpredictable.

“Chu Feng, thank you,” After seeing their altered appearances, neither Tang Ying or A’cai felt any sense of loss. Instead, they were very happy.

After all, to the two of them, this was equivalent to a chance for them to be reborn.

“Let’s go. I’ll see you two off,” Chu Feng said. He was still worried for Tang Ying and A’cai. Thus, he wished to personally escort them far away from the area controlled by Luyang’s Pavilion.

“Chu Feng, I truly do not wish to trouble you anymore,” Tang Ying shook her head. She added, “Let us leave alone.”

“Since that’s the case, allow me to see you two off then,” Huang Luo said.

“There’s no need, truly no need. I do not wish to trouble everyone. After all, I am also a martial cultivator. I was born into this dangerous world of martial cultivation. You all will be able to protect me for the time being, but will not be able to protect me forever. Let us leave by ourselves. It is also time for me to mature,” Tang Ying said.

Hearing Tang Ying saying it like that, Liu Chengkun and Huang Luo didn't know what to say. The two of them both looked to Chu Feng. After all, Tang Ying... was Chu Feng's friend.

“Very well. Tang Ying, A'cai, the two of you must take care of yourselves,” Chu Feng did not force Tang Ying.

“Chu Feng, seniors, I will forever remember your assistance to us. Farewell,” After saying those words, Tang Ying and A'cai both bowed to Chu Feng, Liu Chengkung and Huang Luo respectively.

Chu Feng and the others did not refuse them. They all knew that Tang Ying had a knot in her heart. Doing this would instead make her feel more comfortable.

After that, Tang Ying and A'cai left. Even though Tang Ying was hiding her state of mind, Chu Feng was still able to tell that she was feeling very reluctant to part.

She was reluctant, yet she still insisted on leaving. The reason for that was because she did not wish to become Chu Feng's burden.

“Seniors, thank you two for your help today. I, Chu Feng, am unable to return the favor of your assistance today. Please accept these Incomplete Ancestral Armaments,” Chu Feng took out four Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. They were the weapons from the Tang Family's Family Head, the Cao Family's Family Head, Elder Yuan Zhen and that Hong Xi.

“Chu Feng, it is actually you who saved me today. I absolutely cannot accept those,” Liu Chengkun refused.

“Senior, we are but strangers who met by chance. Yet, you were willing to brave fatal danger to your life to rescue me. If you do not accept these, I, Chu Feng, will feel always feel uncomfortable,”

Chu Feng said.

“If that really is the case, then you really do not have to do this. Little friend Chu Feng, I merely have a single request for you,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Senior, please speak,” Chu Feng said.

“Could you join our Red Butterfly Society?” Liu Chengkun said.

“...” Chu Feng revealed a difficult expression upon hearing those words. He really did not wish to join any power, because he possessed hidden difficulties.

“Haha, little friend Chu Feng, do not take it to heart. I was merely joking,” Seeing Chu Feng’s difficult expression, Liu Chengkun started to laugh as if he was joking.

However, as he laughed, Liu Chengkun’s complexion suddenly changed. Then, his mouth opened wide, and he sprayed out a mouthful of blood. The blood landed directly onto Chu Feng.

After vomiting that mouthful of blood, Liu Chengkun’s body started to twitch violently. Soon, he lost consciousness. However, even though he had lost consciousness, his body was still twitching nonstop.

Chapter 2199 – Accidental Discovery

---

“Senior!!!” Upon seeing that, Chu Feng hurriedly set up a healing formation. He had Liu Chengkun lay onto the healing formation, and then began to infuse his spirit power into Liu Chengkun’s body to diagnose and heal him.

“Dang! That old man is truly too tired of living. You have merely refused him once more. Yet, he actually decided to mutilate himself?” Eggy said in a very surprised manner.

“No, he is not self-mutilating, nor is he injured. Rather, he is ill,” Chu Feng said.

“Ill?” Hearing those words, Eggy’s expression changed. She did not understand why Liu Chengkun would be ill all of a sudden.

“Yes, he is indeed ill. Furthermore, he is extremely ill. This should be a relapse of his illness,” After Chu Feng said those words, he grew silent, and started to set up another spirit formation to help Liu Chengkun treat his illness.

The spirit formation he set up this time around was very powerful. Chu Feng even added a lot of rare healing medicinal herbs into his spirit formation. He was planning to use that spirit formation to treat Liu Chengkun’s illness.

Unfortunately, that illness was truly too difficult to cure. It took an entire day and night of effort for Chu Feng to stabilize Liu Chengkun’s illness.

However... he had only managed to stabilize it. Chu Feng was shocked to discover that he was simply unable to cure Liu Chengkun’s illness. In fact, he was incapable of even helping Liu Chengkun regain consciousness.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you are truly amazing. Even our Society President needed at least two days and night to stabilize Elder Liu’s illness. Never would I have expected that you would be able to stabilize his illness in a single day,” Huang Luo stepped forward and said to Chu Feng.

“In that case, you all already know of Senior Liu’s illness?” Chu Feng asked.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I will not conceal this from you. What Elder Liu has is an incurable disease. Only Immortal-cloak World Spiritists would be able to treat his illness.”

“However, even for Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, they must still treat him on a daily schedule. Furthermore, they must continue to do so for an entire year in order to cure his illness.”

“For existences like Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, how could they possibly be willing to spend an entire year to treat the illnesses of people like us? That is why Elder Liu’s illness could be said to be an incurable disease.”

“In fact, Elder Liu’s illness has already entered the terminal stage. He will not be able to continue to live for much longer.”

“That is also the reason why his illness relapsed so quickly. His situation is truly becoming more and more unstable,” Huang Luo said in succession.

After knowing about that matter, Chu Feng’s heart sunk. Even though Chu Feng had not known Liu Chengkun for long, he greatly admired Liu Chengkun and felt indebted to him.

Upon thinking that a good man like him would not be able to live for long because of his illness, Chu Feng felt truly unreconciled.

“Chu Feng, it is actually not a coincidence that we appeared at the Tang Family. Rather, Elder Liu deliberately brought me there with him.”

“He had received the news, and deduced that you might go to save Tang Ying. That is why he wanted to help you.”

“Elder Liu truly thought very highly of you. He deeply hoped that you would be able to join our Red Butterfly Society. He even declared that it was the loss of our Red Butterfly Society for you to refuse to join us.”

“At the same time, he also declared that even if you were to refuse to join our Red Butterfly Society, he still did not wish for a talent like you to fall at the hands of Luyang’s Pavilion.”

“Speaking of it, I am ashamed. After Elder Liu made that decision, I even urged him not to bear dangers because of you.”

“The reason for that was because I am very certain that even Elder Liu would not have certainty in being able to defeat Hong Xi. Merely... he refused to listen to my advice.”

“Thus, Chu Feng, Elder Liu was truly prepared to sacrifice himself to help you before he even left for the Tang Family,” Huang Luo said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng felt even more unwell.

“Chu Feng, I can tell that you are a passionate person. I also know that you will definitely feel uncomfortable after knowing about all this.”

“However, you actually do not have to feel too uncomfortable. The reason Elder Liu was willing to sacrifice himself for you is also because of the fact that he knew he would not be able to live for long.”

“Rather than being tormented to death by his illness, he was more willing to die with meaning. To him, dying to save you was something very meaningful,” Huang Luo said.

“Senior, you don’t have to say it like that. Since you said that his illness is curable by Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, it means that Senior Liu will not necessarily die,” Chu Feng said.

“While it is true that Immortal-cloak World Spiritists will be able to cure him, and we have also attempted to find him an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to heal him. But...!” Huang Luo did not finish his words, and started to sigh.

Chu Feng was actually trying to tell Huang Luo that he would one day become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. If Liu Chengkun was still alive then, he would be willing to treat Liu Chengkun's illness.

Merely, Chu Feng did not wish to boast. After all, he was not yet an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. He also did not know how long it would take for him to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. That was the reason why he did not say those things.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the underground palace suddenly started to shake. A large motion came from the surface above.

“Crap! Could it be that people from Luyang's Pavilion have pursued us here?” Huang Luo's expression immediately changed.

“Senior Huang, wait here first. I'll go out and have a look,” As Chu Feng spoke, he flew out of the underground palace. After concealing his aura, he soared into the sky.

Merely, after he soared into the sky and looked to the mountain forest down below, Chu Feng was unable to find any trace of people from Luyang's Pavilion. In fact, he did not even discover any destruction to the mountain below.

Unable to find anything, Chu Feng decided to cast his gaze toward the direction where the quake originated from.

“That is?”

After using his Heaven's Eyes to observe his surroundings, Chu Feng was shocked to discover that a soft light had appeared at the location where the quake had originated from.

That light was very beautiful. However, he was only able to see it when using his Heaven's Eyes.

“That light is strange. I did not see it before I coming here. It is definitely man-made.”

Chu Feng was unable to determine what that light was. However, he wanted to go and investigate it. Thus, he hid himself in the void, then began to carefully proceed toward the location that the light covered.

Finally, Chu Feng entered the location covered by the light. It was a lake in the mountain range.

That light invisible to the naked eye was covering the entire lake.

After entering the lake, the light grew more and more concentrated.

Inside the dense concentration of light, Chu Feng’s spirit power actually lost its effectiveness. Likewise, his Heaven’s Eyes also lost their effect.

“Could it be a treasure?”

At that moment, Chu Feng had a faint sensation that the light should be coming from some sort of treasure. Else, it would be impossible for it to isolate his spirit power and even his Heaven’s Eyes’ power of observation.

Although Chu Feng was unable to determine what sort of treasure it was, Chu Feng was certain that it was most definitely not caused by the people from Luyang’s Pavilion.

‘Who came here?’

‘Who used this sort of treasure?’

‘What is their intention? Could it be that there are treasures in the lake?’

With many questions in his mind, Chu Feng continued onward. However, the further he proceeded, the less Chu Feng could see.

In the end, Chu Feng was only able to see things within ten meters of him. For everything more than ten meters away, he could only see indistinct shadows.

In such a situation, Chu Feng did not dare to be careless. Although he had concealed his aura, he decided that he would take out his Magma Emperor Sword. After concealing the light emitted by the blazing Magma Emperor Sword, he proceeded onward even more carefully.

Chu Feng had a sensation that he was growing closer and closer to that treasure.

Finally, Chu Feng saw an indistinct silhouette. It was growing closer and closer, closer and closer. Finally, that silhouette came within ten meters of Chu Feng's line of sight.

“Sssss!!!”

Upon seeing that figure, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself, and sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

He saw a woman. She was very beautiful. Although her beauty could not compare to Eggy's, she was definitely not someone that Tang Ying could compare with.

Her straight and lifted nose, her lush and soft lips, and that sexy oval face. It could be said that this woman's facial features were extremely good.

Furthermore, in addition to her exquisite facial features, that woman also had an extremely good figure. She had curves all at the right places. It could be said that she possessed a demon-like figure.

Furthermore, that woman's skin was extremely good. Not only was her skin fair like snow, her skin was also sparking and translucent like a pearl.

Most importantly, such a beauty was actually wearing nothing right now.

Just like that... completely naked, she appeared before Chu Feng's line of sight.

Chapter 2200 – Free Treatment

---

She didn't seem to be bathing. Rather, it seemed like she was treating her injuries. The reason for that was because she was sitting in the water with her legs crossed. Surrounding her was a spirit formation. Furthermore, her eyes were tightly closed. Only her long eyelashes were trembling slightly.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, that woman's tightly closed eyes suddenly opened. When she saw Chu Feng, she immediately revealed an astonished expression.

Evidently, she was startled. However, immediately after that, her shock and astonishment were replaced with killing intent.

“Drop dead!!!”

Seeing Chu Feng, the woman shot forth a fist strike. As Chu Feng was within ten meters of her, that strike arrived instantly.

Rank one Half Martial Ancestor. This woman's age should be about the same as Chu Feng's. However, she possessed the cultivation of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. That sort of strength at her age was truly not weak at all.

Furthermore, she possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation. In other words, even though she was only a rank one Half Martial Ancestor, she actually possessed the strength of a rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

Merely, although her strength was very strong for someone of her age, she could not be considered very strong for Chu Feng.

At the very least, she was simply unable to injure Chu Feng.

“Crash~~~”

With a single thought from Chu Feng, the incoming fist's power was neutralized.

“It was an accident,” After Chu Feng said those words, he immediately flew away and distanced himself from the lake.

Chu Feng had wanted to leave to avoid the problem. However, he kept feeling that it was inappropriate for him to do that. After all, he had managed to see a young girl’s naked body.

Whether he did it intentionally or not, it remained that he owed her for seeing her naked body. As such, Chu Feng decided to stand at the surface of the lake and wait for the woman to appear.

“Buzz~~~”

Sure enough, the multicolored sunset-like light began to rush toward the lake. Soon, it completely disappeared.

“Splatter~~~”

Following that, a wave surged into the sky, and a figure appeared before Chu Feng.

It was that woman. She was wearing clothes now. Her long light green skirt made her resemble a spirite.

However, for some unknown reason, even though this woman was already wearing clothes, her completely naked appearance kept appearing in Chu Feng’s mind as he saw her.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, a sharp sword appeared in the woman’s hand. That sword was only a meter long. It was also light green in color. However, once the sword appeared, a boundless might appeared alongside it. That was not an ordinary sword. Rather, it was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

“Even if you are to use your Incomplete Ancestral Armament, you will still be no match against me. How about we solve this peacefully?” Chu Feng said.

“Bastard sex fiend, tell me your name!” That woman pointed her sword at Chu Feng and shouted angrily.

“Sex fiend? I think you’re mistaken here. I did not look at you on purpose.”

“Furthermore, if I were truly a sex fiend, would there be a need for me to escape? Your strength is inferior to my own. I am completely capable of raping you. As such, why must I only look at your naked body?” Chu Feng said.

“You!!!” Hearing those words, the woman’s face turned deep red. However, she seemed to feel that what Chu Feng said was not without reason.

“Enough of your quibbling. If you did not do so for the sake of seeing my naked body, why did you appear here?” The woman asked.

“I was resting in the mountain, it was you who caused the mountain to shake. I thought something happened, and thus stepped into the sky to check things out.”

“After seeing the light, I felt that something was strange. Thus, I came here to investigate what was going on,” Chu Feng explained.

“You can see the light?” The woman asked.

“Yes,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Then, how did you manage to break through the layer of light?” The woman asked.

“Break through? There was simply no obstruction. Thus, how could there be a need to break through it?” Chu Feng said.

“What? You did not encounter the defensive spirit formation?” The woman asked.

“Evidently not,” Chu Feng shrugged.

“That damned old fart. He actually dared to deceive me,” Suddenly, the woman became furious. As she spoke, she took out a crystal ball and tossed it far away.

In response, Chu Feng extended his palm and caught the crystal ball.

“The twilight that could seal off spirit power was released by this crystal ball?” After inspecting the crystal ball carefully, Chu Feng asked the woman, “Where did you obtain this?”

“Why do you care? Return it to me,” The woman extended her hand.

“You don’t even want it anymore. Thus, since I’ve picked it up, it’s mine now,” Chu Feng said jokingly.

“Who said I didn’t want it? I was merely playing with it by tossing it around,” The woman quibbled.

In response, Chu Feng smiled. Then, he tossed the crystal ball back to the woman. He said, “That crystal ball is indeed capable of spreading out a fluctuation capable of stopping spirit power. However, it simply does not contain any defensive formation.”

“Damned old fart, he indeed deceived me,” After hearing what Chu Feng said, the woman grew even more furious, and began to gnash her teeth angrily. However, she still put the crystal ball away.

Suddenly, the woman’s expression changed. It turned fiery red. It was as if she was broiling. At the same time, heat began to spread from her.

At the same time, her body became incomparably weak. It was as if she would die in the very next moment.

“Damn it,” The woman immediately turned around and rushed back into the lake.

In response, Chu Feng started to frown. His gaze began to change. In the end, he also entered the lake. He had decided to follow the woman.

“Why are you following me? Have you not seen enough?” Upon seeing Chu Feng, the woman asked in a displeased manner.

“With your world spirit techniques, even if you were to strip yourself naked and soak in the lake, you would not be able to cure your illness. I, on the other hand, am able to help you,” Chu Feng said.

What Chu Feng said was the truth. He had already managed to discern the change that was happening to the woman’s body, and determined that she had a special sort of illness.

Chu Feng was able to associate her being naked in the water to a sort of healing technique.

Unfortunately, that woman’s world spirit techniques were insufficient; she was merely an Insect Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. For a world spiritist of her level, it would be very difficult for her to cure her illness in a short period of time.

“You’ve actually managed to discern that I am ill?” The woman revealed an astonished expression. At the same time, she was on guard against Chu Feng.

“I accidentally saw your body earlier. However, I most definitely did not do that on purpose. If you wish to blame someone or something for it, you can only blame your lousy crystal ball.”

“If you didn’t use it to let out a light that only a world spiritist could see, I might not have been able to find you. However, as you have used it, it attracted me toward it.”

“However, regardless of how it came to be, it remains that I have seen your body. Thus, I feel that I must apologize to you for it. Furthermore, as a compensation, I am willing to stabilize your illness for free,” Chu Feng said.

“Enough of your nonsense. My illness is something only a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist or those above them would be able to stabilize in a short period of time,” The woman said.

“That’s why I can,” Chu Feng said.

“Liar. At your age, how could you possibly be a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist?” The woman revealed an expression of disbelief. In fact, she even felt deep contempt toward Chu Feng. She felt that Chu Feng was boasting.

“Do you believe me now?” With a thought from Chu Feng, a strand of Dragon Mark Royal-cloak spirit power was emitted from his body and started to spiral around him.

“You’re actually really a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist?!” Upon seeing that, the woman’s eyes opened wide as she revealed an astonished expression.

“So, do you want me to help? If I am to help you, you will not have to undress. However, if you plan to rely on yourself, I’m afraid you’ll have to undress again. Furthermore, you will not be able to stabilize your illness in a short period of time.”

“Furthermore, with how things are with you now, you will not be able to leave this place, and must stay in the lake to treat your illness.”

“If someone is to pass by this place and see you like I did, I wouldn’t dare to guarantee that they would be a man of honor like myself, and not do anything to you,” Chu Feng said.

“You!!!”

“I’ll tell you this, I am the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Management Elder Su Jingrui’s personal disciple.”

“If you dare to do anything to me, I will have you suffer the consequences of your actions,” The woman threatened Chu Feng fiercely.

Chapter 2201 – Absolute Trust

---

“Since you don’t want my help, then forget about it,” Chu Feng stood up and prepared to leave the lake.

“Hey, hey, hey! Who said that you could leave? I’m telling you to help me treat my illness. But... you must not think about doing anything ulterior to me,” The woman said loudly.

“Do I look like that sort of person?” Chu Feng asked.

“You do,” The woman nodded without the slightest hesitation.

“You truly have a pig brain,” Chu Feng sighed helplessly. Then, with a wave of his sleeve, his world spirit power began to appear.

Then, Chu Feng’s hands began to change rapidly. His world spirit power also started to transform nonstop. In merely the blink of an eye, he created a golden-bright and dazzling spirit formation that surrounded the woman’s body.

“This guy!!!” After seeing the spirit formation Chu Feng had created, the woman revealed an astonished and admiring gaze.

As a fellow world spiritist, she had never expected Chu Feng to not only be a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, his world spirit techniques were also this skillful.

After seeing Chu Feng’s abilities, the woman began to cooperate with Chu Feng. Thus, it became much easier for Chu Feng to treat her illness.

With Chu Feng’s meticulous effort, he finally managed to stabilize the woman’s illness. At the very least, her illness would not relapse for the time being.

However, even though this woman’s illness had been stabilized rather quickly, her illness was actually even more serious than Elder Liu Chengkun’s illness. Likely, even Immortal-cloak World Spiritists would find it very difficult to cure her illness.

Chu Feng truly did not know how this woman had contracted such a powerful illness. Most importantly, her illness seemed to be something she had been born with. In other words, it had been destined that she would contract this illness since she was born.

“Never would I have expected that you actually do have some real skills. Hey, what’s your name?”

“Which power are you from? How come I’ve never heard of a character like you? You’re so young, yet you already possess the cultivation of a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, and also a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. You are simply capable of comparing with that bunch of bastards from the Heavenly Clans. However, I feel that you are even stronger than them.”

“Furthermore, most importantly, you are a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. Furthermore, your world spirit techniques surpass all of the other Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists I’ve met before. Tell me, exactly who are you?”

“Someone like you cannot be a nameless nobody.”

After the woman’s illness was stabilized, she began to ask Chu Feng questions in succession. She had completely forgotten the matter of Chu Feng seeing her naked.

“Could it be that you don’t know that you should tell others your name first when asking for their name?” Chu Feng said.

“I am called Xu Yiyi. I am a disciple of the Sunset Cloud Valley,” The woman said.

“I am called Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said.

“What? You are that Chu Feng?” Hearing those words, that Xu Yiyi woman once again revealed an astonished expression. Merely, her astonishment this time around was even greater than all her previous astonishments combined. She was so shocked that her mouth even hung open.

“You know me?” Chu Feng asked.

“I don’t. However, I’ve heard of you. You didn’t go save your friend?”

“That’s reasonable too. With your cultivation, if you had gone to save your friend, your life would definitely be lost,” Xu Yiyi said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng realized what was going on. For the sake of capturing Chu Feng, Hong Xi had spread the news of Tang Ying’s capture everywhere. Likely, this Xu Yiyi had received that news.

“I have only managed to stabilize your illness, and not bring it under permanent control. I urge you to quickly continue with your journey. Else, your illness might act up again. After all, not everyone is as kind-hearted as me, not everyone will not take advantage of others, and even lend a helping hand,” Chu Feng said.

“Hey hey hey! Judging from your tone, it seems that you’re not happy? Is it because of the fact that I said that you didn’t go save your friend, that I indirectly said that you are not loyal to your friends, that caused you to be angry?” Xu Yiyi said with a ‘teehee’ laughter.

“The two of us are already even. Farewell,” As Chu Feng spoke, he entered the void.

After all, he had only come out to inspect the situation outside. Huang Luo might be very worried right now. Thus, Chu Feng felt that he should return quickly and explain what was going on to Huang Luo.

In response, Xu Yiyi shouted, “Hey hey hey, wait! I have a gift for you,”

However, Chu Feng had only helped her to make it up to her for accidentally seeing her naked. Now that he had compensated her for his action, he no longer owed her anything. As such, he would naturally not accept anything from her.

Thus, Chu Feng heard her calls but did not wish to accept her gift.

“What a petty man. I can’t even crack a joke with you.”

“I didn’t even do anything to you after you saw me naked. Why did you run away right after I cracked a joke?”

Seeing that Chu Feng had left, Xu Yiyi pouted her lips in a displeased manner. She opened her hand and looked to the title plate on her palm and shook her head, “It’s you who was too narrow-minded. It’s not me that didn’t want to help you.”

After saying those words, Xu Yiyi’s petite body moved. Like a cyan light, she soared into the clouds and began to fly toward the distance. As for that direction, it was the direction of Luyang’s Pavilion.

As for Chu Feng, he naturally did not notice the direction that Xu Yiyi had left in. At that moment, he had returned to the underground palace.

“Senior Liu, you’ve awakened?!!!” After returning, Chu Feng immediately revealed an overjoyed expression. The reason for that was because Liu Chengkun had awakened.

“Chu Feng, I have heard from Huang Luo what happened. I truly do not know how to thank you for stabilizing my illness,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Senior, that is merely something that this junior should do. How are you feeling now?” Chu Feng asked in a deeply concerned manner.

“I am not exaggerating at all. Compared to all the other times when I wake up from my illness, this time around is the most comfortable.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, your world spirit techniques are truly exceptional. Although you are a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, your world spirit techniques have already surpassed those of our Society President. Little friend Chu Feng, you are truly worthy of being an Asura World Spiritist,” Liu Chengkun praised.

“Senior, if you continue to flatter me like this, I will grow conceited,” Chu Feng scratched his head awkwardly.

“Chu Feng, it seems that the motion earlier was unrelated to Luyang’s Pavilion?” Huang Luo asked.

After seeing that Chu Feng was not worried at all after returning, he had managed to guess the result of Chu Feng’s inspection. However, he wanted to ascertain his guess.

“It was merely a passerby, and not someone from Luyang’s Pavilion. Furthermore, her cultivation was only that of a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. She poses no threat to us,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s great,” Huang Luo nodded in relief.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this old man has a presumptuous request. I don’t know if you might come to our...” Liu Chengkun said.

However, before Liu Chengkun finished his words, Chu Feng interrupted and said, “If Senior Liu wants to invite me to be a guest to the Red Butterfly Society, you don’t have to mention it anymore.”

“Eh...” Hearing those words, Liu Chengkun was placed in an awkward situation and unable to continue his words.

Huang Luo was also placed in an awkward situation. They had both thought that Chu Feng would refuse. However, they had not expected that Chu Feng would refuse so bluntly.

“The reason for that is because even if Senior Liu doesn’t invite me, I would’ve asked Senior Liu to bring me to the Red Butterfly Society to have a look,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

Hearing those words, Liu Chengkun and Huang Luo both revealed overjoyed expressions. They truly never expect that Chu Feng would... take such a long pause between his sentences.

Furthermore, they had not expected that Chu Feng would actually agree to be a guest of the Red Butterfly Society.

“Hahaha, this is great. It is our Red Butterfly Society’s blessing to have an honored guest like little friend Chu Feng.”

“Our Society President will definitely be extremely fond of you after seeing you,” Liu Chengkun was very happy. He was simply wild with joy.

“Senior, please stop flattering me. Those words should be things that I should say,” Chu Feng was telling the truth. As matters stood, he possessed a certain amount of understanding of the Red Butterfly Society.

The Red Butterfly Society’s range of activity was only in the territory controlled by Luyang’s Pavilion. It was a power that dared to meet Luyang’s Pavilion head-on.

The Red Butterfly Society was also what Luyang’s Pavilion wanted to eliminate. Thus, the various branches and headquarters of the Red Butterfly Society were all constructed in places that no one knew about. Furthermore, their movements were also very secretive. Only the people from the Red Butterfly Society knew of their locations.

This was especially true for the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters. Their headquarters was their greatest secret. In fact, the location of the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters would always change after a certain period of time. Furthermore, members of the Red Butterfly Society without sufficient qualifications would not know of the location of their headquarters. This was even more so the case for an outsider like Chu Feng.

However, right now, Elder Liu Chengkun had actually invited Chu Feng to their headquarters as a guest. This was simply absolute trust in Chu Feng.

Chapter 2202 – Deliberately Making Things Difficult

---

After deciding, Chu Feng followed Liu Chengkun and Huang Luo until they directly arrived outside of a small city.

Although the small city was not very large, that was only so when compared to the other cities in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. If this city were to be placed in the Nine Provinces Continent, it would be considered a small country with countless tangled and complicated powers.

According to Liu Chengkun, the strongest person in the city was the master of the city. As for his cultivation, it was only that of a peak Half Martial Emperor.

Being managed by the city master, the small city was very neat and tidy. The ordinary commoners in the city could be said to be living in peace and working happily.

However, no one would've imagined that this unremarkable looking city actually possessed an underground city below it. Furthermore... that underground city was the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters.

At that moment, Chu Feng had followed Liu Chengkun and Huang Luo into the underground city.

Although it was considered an underground city, due to powerful world spirit techniques, there was a blue sky, white clouds and a blazing sun in that underground world. Furthermore... not only was the sun emitting blazing heat, it would also rise from the east and set in the west everyday.

Looking at it, that place resembled a completely different world. However, with a single glance, Chu Feng was able to tell that all of these were done by a world spiritist. To put it simply, this underground palace could be said to be an independent space created by a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

Furthermore, in that independent space were many powerful defensive formations and slaughtering formations.

If one wished to bypass those spirit formations, one must pass through a spirit formation gate. However, outside of the spirit formation gate stood a total of a hundred Half Martial Ancestor-level experts.

Those guards all possessed grave expressions. They were on high alert as they surveyed the surroundings. Furthermore, they all held Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. They were truly well-trained guards.

At the very least, this was the first time Chu Feng had seen guards as earnest to their task as them.

“We pay our respects to Lord Elder.”

Right after those guards saw Liu Chengkun, they all immediately revealed respectful gazes. One after another, they began to greet him respectfully.

Furthermore, the guards also hurriedly opened the world spirit gate.

“Thank you all for your troubles,” Liu Chengkun said to the guards. He did not put on the airs of arrogance that elders generally had. Instead, he was concerned for the guards from the bottom of his heart.

“No, not at all,” The guards replied in unison. Their voices were very loud and clear. It could be seen from their attitude that they respected Liu Chengkun from the bottoms of their hearts.

“Yoh, isn’t this Elder Liu? You’ve finally returned.”

Before Liu Chengkun, Huang Luo and Chu Feng even entered the world spirit gate, a voice sounded from within the gate.

Turning his head toward the direction of the voice, Chu Feng’s expression immediately changed. There were two men. One had the appearance of a middle-aged man, whereas the other had the appearance of a young man.

Chu Feng had seen that young man before. It was that fellow that had disliked Chu Feng on the day Chu Feng had first met Liu Chengkun and the others. Chu Feng even remembered his name to be Zhao Xiao.

As for that middle-aged man, he possessed an appearance that resembled that Zhao Xiao. Chu Feng felt that middle-aged man to most likely be Zhao Xiao's father.

Neither of the two men were hiding their cultivation. Zhao Xiao possessed a cultivation the same as Chu Feng's, he was a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

As for Zhao Xiao's father, he possessed the same cultivation as Elder Huang Luo, a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

"Mn?" Suddenly, Zhao Xiao's father noticed Chu Feng. His expression changed immediately. He pointed at Chu Feng and shouted, "Who is that man?"

"Father, that man is that Chu Feng," Zhao Xiao said. His 'father' verified that Chu Feng's guess was correct, that the middle-aged man was indeed his father.

"Chu Feng? How could someone like him be allowed to enter our Red Butterfly Society's headquarters? Men! Capture that Chu Feng!" Zhao Xiao's father shouted.

"Who dares?!" Elder Liu Chengkun shouted coldly. Once he said those words, not a single guard dared to move.

"Elder Liu, how could you bring someone like him to our Red Butterfly Society's headquarters?"

"As an elder of the Red Butterfly Society, have you forgotten even the most basic rule that we have? Not to mention an outsider like him, even for the people of our Red Butterfly Society, they would not be allowed to enter our Red Butterfly Society's headquarters without a significant amount of contribution to our Red Butterfly Society!" Zhao Xiao's father shouted loudly.

"Impudent! Have you forgotten your status?! How dare you speak to me in such a manner?!" Liu Chengkun was angered. Not only that, he even unleashed his own oppressive might.

Once his rank one Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might was unleashed, not to mention Zhao Xiao, even Zhao Xiao's father's expression changed enormously.

Even if he was a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, an existence a step away from becoming a Martial Ancestor, it remained that he was not yet a Martial Ancestor. When faced with the oppressive might of a rank one Martial Ancestor, he would not be able to withstand it.

"In that case, what if I am to say that to you?!" Right at that moment, a sneer sounded from within the world spirit gate. Following that, a boundless oppressive might appeared.

Not only did that oppressive might instantly neutralize Liu Chengkun's oppressive might, it also caused Chu Feng to frown deeply.

The reason for that was because that oppressive might was much more powerful than Elder Liu Chengkun's oppressive might.

That was not the oppressive might of a rank one Martial Ancestor. Instead, it was the oppressive might of a rank two Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, that oppressive might was very vicious. It was not simply there to frighten someone.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt that his body was about to be crushed, his breathing was about to stop and blood was about to burst out. Then, unable to contain himself, a mouthful of blood sprayed from Chu Feng's mouth.

Following that, "snap, snap" sounds began to be heard from Chu Feng's body nonstop. Chu Feng's bones were being shattered by that oppressive might.

“Zhao Ruofan, what are you doing?! Little friend Chu Feng is an honored guest invited by me, how could you injure him like this?!” In response, Liu Chengkun, who was also in a very difficult state started to shout.

“Haha...” Soon, a laugh was heard. At that moment, an old man had appeared at the world spirit gate.

“We pay our respects to Lord Vice President,” Upon seeing that old man, the guards hurriedly clasped their fists to greet him. Even Huang Luo, who was also being crushed by the oppressive might's pressure, bore the pain from the oppressive might and greeted that old man respectfully.

“Grandfather, Elder Liu, he actually... unleashed his oppressive might at father and I for the sake of an outsider. Grandfather, you must uphold justice for us,” After seeing that old man, Zhao Xiao revealed an expression of grievance. He was on the verge of crying. He truly had the appearance of a grandson.

His ‘grandfather’ explained the identity of the old man. Evidently, he was not only the Red Butterfly Society's Vice President, he was also closely related to Zhao Xiao and his father.

“Rest assured, as the Vice President of the Red Butterfly Society, I have always handled things justly. I will definitely not allow anyone to violate the rules of our Red Butterfly Society,” After Zhao Ruofan said those words, he suddenly pointed to Chu Feng and said, “Men! Capture that outsider!”

“Who dares?!!!” Liu Chengkun was so furious his eyes turned red.

“I dare!!!” Zhao Ruofan shouted. His oppressive might increased.

His surging oppressive might suddenly descended. Not only did his oppressive might overwhelm Chu Feng to the ground, it also made Liu Chengkun fall on his knees with a loud “putt.”

“Lord Vice President, please be lenient. Elder Liu is seriously ill,” In response, Huang Luo hurriedly started pleading for mercy.

“Seriously ill? How many years ago has it been since he was declared to be seriously ill? However, he’s living better off than anyone else.”

“You have returned together with him. As such, you are his accomplice. Thus, you must kneel too,” Seeing that Huang Luo was begging for mercy for Liu Chengkun, the anger in Zhao Ruofan’s eyes increased. Using his oppressive might, he forced Huang Luo to also kneel before him.

Then, Zhao Ruofan swept his cold gaze at the guards. “What’s this? Are you all not even listening to the orders of your Vice President?”

At that moment, how could those guards possibly dare to continue to stand there? One by one, they hurriedly moved forward to capture Chu Feng.

“Liu Chengkun, listen carefully. Don’t think that you can strut around in the Red Butterfly Society just because you’re the Society President’s master.”

“In this Red Butterfly Society, I, Zhao Ruofan, hold the highest authority after the Society President!” Zhao Ruofan pointed at the kneeling Liu Chengkun and spoke fiercely.

“The Society President has arrived!!!”

Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded from within the world spirit gate.

Hearing that voice, the expression of Zhao Ruofan, who had been wearing an expression of complacency, suddenly changed.

Grandson is also a derogatory term.

Chapter 2203 – Society President

---

At the moment the declaration of the Society President's arrival was heard, Zhao Ruofan hurriedly removed his oppressive might that was crushing Chu Feng, Liu Chengkun and Huang Luo.

Escorted by a group of Red Butterfly Society experts, Chu Feng managed to see the Red Butterfly Society's President.

Merely, Chu Feng was surprised to find out that the mysterious Red Butterfly Society's President was actually a female.

The Lady Society President appeared to be very young. She could not be considered extremely beautiful. However, she was very dignified and charismatic.

Furthermore, she was much younger than Chu Feng had imagined the Society President would be. She was actually not even a hundred years old. Strictly speaking, she was still only a member of the younger generation.

However, her strength was not weak at all. Chu Feng was able to tell that she was a rank one Martial Ancestor.

This was the first time Chu Feng had seen a member of the younger generation with the cultivation of Martial Ancestor.

However, Chu Feng felt that her strength was not only limited to that of a rank one Martial Ancestor. Else, she wouldn't be qualified to become this Red Butterfly Society's President or make Zhao Ruofan, a rank two Martial Ancestor, fear her like that.

That's right, he was afraid. Even though Zhao Ruofan had managed to conceal his fear very well, Chu Feng was able to tell from Zhao Ruofan's flickering gaze that he was panicking and feeling uneasy.

"I pay my respects to Lady Society President!!!"

Sure enough, after adjusting himself, Zhao Ruofan hurriedly stepped toward that Lady Society President to respectfully greet her.

In response, the others also greeted her respectfully. Even Liu Chengkun and Huang Luo, who had been forced to kneel on the ground, hurriedly stood up to greet her respectfully.

“Vice President Zhao, what are you doing? Why did I see my master and Elder Huang kneeling on the ground earlier? Furthermore, not only is my honored guest lying on the ground, he is also seriously injured,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President asked.

“Honored guest?” Hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan’s expression turned sluggish, and more fear appeared in his gaze.

“Chu Feng is the honored guest that I had my master go invite,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“This subordinate deserves to die. This subordinate did not know that Chu Feng was invited here by Lady Society President. That is why I acted to stop him, and accidentally injured him,” The Vice President hurriedly kneeled to the ground.

However, Chu Feng noticed that even though he was very afraid and had made the appropriate apologetic actions, he was not kneeling on the ground completely. If it were someone else, they would definitely kneel with both of their knees. However, he was only kneeling with one knee.

“There is no fault to Vice President Zhao in strictly upholding the rules I set. However, my master is ill. I hope that you do not make him kneel the next time you try to display your might.”

“Although in terms of status, you are above my master, my master is your senior in terms of seniority,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Yes, what Lady President said is extremely correct. This subordinate will definitely remember that. I will not dare to act rudely toward Elder Liu again,” Zhao Ruofan nodded repeatedly.

As for Zhao Xiao and his father, they stood to the side and did not dare to even raise their heads. It could be seen that they feared the Red Butterfly Society’s President even more than Zhao Ruofan.

Truly, what one fears will come. After the Red Butterfly Society’s President finished warning Zhao Ruofan, she cast her gaze toward Zhao Xiao and his father. She said, “I’ve heard that the two of you... were actually also stopping my master and the others?”

“Lady Society President, we were wrong,” In response, Zhao Xiao and his father immediately kneeled to the ground. As for the two of them... they were kneeling with both knees.

To be exact, they were on all fours, and did not dare to even raise their heads. This was especially true for Zhao Xiao, as his body was actually shivering with cold. He seemed to be extremely scared of that Society President.

“Vice President Zhao is our Red Butterfly Society’s Vice President. As per his post, he is qualified to question my master’s actions.”

“However, Zhao Xuan and Zhao Xiao, is there a need for me to mention your statuses?”

“Yet, the two of you actually also dared to question my master’s actions? Do you know what is meant by seniority?” After saying those words, the Red Butterfly Society’s President unleashed her powerful oppressive might, flipping them over on the ground.

Even though the two of them were only forced to roll several times in the ground and did not suffer any substantial injuries, the actions of the Red Butterfly Society’s President were sufficient to demonstrate her anger.

“Lady President, we were wrong. Please have mercy.”

In response, even though Zhao Xiao and his father had already been publicly shamed, they still hurriedly crawled back up and kneeled on the ground. They did not dare to show the slightest bit of disrespect.

“To offend one’s superior is unpardonable. Men! Imprison Zhao Xuan and Zhao Xiao,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said coldly.

“Yes,” Faced with the order from the Red Butterfly Society’s Society Master, no one dared to not comply. The Red Butterfly Society’s guards began to step forward to tie up Zhao Xiao and his father, then speedily, escorted them away.

In that sort of situation, not only did Zhao Xiao and his father not dare to beg for forgiveness, even their grandfather Zhao Ruofan, the grand Red Butterfly Society’s Vice President, did not dare to ask for leniency.

“Vice President Zhao, is there anything else you need?” The Red Butterfly Society’s President asked Zhao Ruofan.

Hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan’s body grew stiff, and his expression grew slightly ugly. After all, even a fool could tell that the Red Butterfly Society’s President was driving him out.

However, even though he knew that that was the case, he did not dare to show any bit of inappropriate behavior. Instead, he hurriedly made a respectful gesture and said, “This subordinate shall leave now.”

“Wait,” Right at that moment, Liu Chengkun suddenly spoke.

“Elder Liu, is there something that you still need?” Zhao Ruofan asked.

“You injured little friend Chu Feng earlier. Although it was only a minor injury, it remains that little friend Chu Feng is an honored guest. Are you planning to leave without even apologizing for your actions?” Liu Chengkun said.

“This...” Zhao Ruofan revealed a difficult expression. If Liu Chengkun were to have demanded that Zhao Ruofan apologize to him, he would be willing to do so. After all... Liu Chengkun currently possessed the backing of Lady Society President.

However, he was truly unwilling to apologize to Chu Feng, an outsider. Thus, he turned his gaze to the Red Butterfly Society's President.

He thought that since his son and grandson were already being punished, the Lady Society President should be willing to give him some face.

"I feel that what master said is very reasonable," The Red Butterfly Society's President said.

The words spoken by the Red Butterfly Society's President caused not only Zhao Ruofan but also the guards present to have a change in expression.

As the Vice President of the Red Butterfly Society, Zhao Ruofan was someone with status below a single person and above everyone else. Even their Lady Society Master would not deliberately make things difficult for him. Generally, should he make any minor mistakes, she would simply laugh it off.

However, the behavior of their Lady Society President was completely different in this instance. If it was because of Liu Chengkun, they could understand. After all, he was her master. However, she actually wanted the Vice President to apologize to Chu Feng. This was something that the guards were truly unable to understand.

However, as the matter was already decided, Zhao Ruofan would also not dare to put forth any excuses. As such, he could only clasp his fist at Chu Feng unwillingly as he said, "Little friend Chu Feng, this old man did not know that you were Lady Society President's honored guest. Please forgive me for my offense."

"Vice President Zhao, you are overly courteous. As Lady Society President said, there was no wrong to your action in upholding your duty. Thus, how could I find fault with you?” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile. Even though he was clearly injured by Zhao Ruofan, he did not express the slightest bit of anger.

Hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan, who was originally feeling very unpleasant, started to sneer in his heart.

After knowing about the matter between Chu Feng and Luyang’s Pavilion, he had thought Chu Feng to be some sort of extraordinary thorn. But it turned out that he was also one that feared consequences. Even though he had made Chu Feng kneel on all fours, Chu Feng did not dare to blame him in the slightest.

At that moment, Zhao Ruofan truly thought that this brat by the name of Chu Feng was scared of him.

Chapter 2204 – Might Be Alive

---

“However, Vice President Zhao, you remain the Vice President of the Red Butterfly Society. As someone holding a status below only a single person, it is not suitable for you to make conclusions without prior investigations.”

“While it is fine for me, after all, I am an outsider, and it was reasonable for you to attack me, it is different for Senior Liu.”

“Even if we do not mention how he is your Red Butterfly Society’s management elder and how you should possess basic trust in him, he is also seriously ill. ”

“Yet, you insisted on punishing him, and even forced him to his knees. Is that not too excessive?”

“Furthermore, it would be one thing if you were really doing so to uphold your duty. But, earlier, you deliberately said to Senior Liu ‘Don’t think that you can strut around in the Red Butterfly Society just because you’re Society President’s master.’”

“I don’t know if I am overthinking things, or if you hold some resentment toward Senior Liu to begin with. Might you have only used my presence here to deliberately make things difficult for Senior Liu so as to show off your might as the Vice President?”

“It is truly not me, an outsider, being too meddlesome. Merely, as Senior Liu is Lady Society President’s master, even if he possesses a status inferior to yours, his seniority is much higher than yours.”

“I truly feel that even if you are the Vice President, you should treat Senior Liu with more respect. It is truly wrong for you to borrow your status as the Vice President to deliberately attack Senior Liu.”

“After all, his health is truly unwell,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, you!!!” Hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan’s expression turned green. When Chu Feng was saying those words, he had wanted to interrupt Chu Feng the entire time. Merely... Chu Feng had refused to give him the opportunity to do so.

In fact, the expressions of Liu Chengkun, Huang Luo and the others also changed. Involuntarily, they looked at Chu Feng with a whole new level of respect.

Chu Feng's words were truly ruthless. Even though he was only attacking Zhao Ruofan indirectly, he had informed the Red Butterfly Society's President of Zhao Ruofan's wicked conduct.

As everyone knew, their Lady Society President was someone who respected her master very much.

"Vice President Zhao, is that true? Did you really say those things when you had my master kneel?" Sure enough, the Red Butterfly Society's President currently had a furious expression on her face.

In fact, those were things that she knew about even without Chu Feng mentioning them.

Merely, it remained that she had arrived later. Thus, it was unsuitable for her to do anything to Vice President Zhao.

Yet now, Chu Feng had declared those things. As the Society President, she now had to do something about Vice President Zhao's actions.

"Lady Society President, I... that was truly not my intention. I merely..." Zhao Ruofan started to panic slightly. After all, what Chu Feng had declared had actually happened. They were things that all the people present had witnessed. Thus, it was difficult for him to explain himself.

"You don't have to say anymore. I only hope that this is the last time something like this will happen. If this is to happen again, I fear that the our Red Butterfly Society's Vice President seat will have no choice but to be given to someone else."

"I truly do not wish for our Red Butterfly Society's Vice President to be someone who will use his position for private interests and private revenge,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said coldly.

Her words let Chu Feng realize that Zhao Ruofan and Liu Chengkun should possess personal grudges and grievances. Else, the Red Butterfly Society’s President would not have used those words to describe Zhao Ruofan’s conduct today.

“Lady Society President, I... I...” Hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan’s expression grew even more unsightly. He was at a loss as for what to say. He had never expected things to become this serious, for Lady Society President to have the intention to remove him from the Vice President position.

“Say no more, you can leave now,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President waved her hand coldly.

“This subordinate will leave now,” Zhao Ruofan did not dare to say anything, and could only retire from that place.

Although the people from the Red Butterfly Society felt that the warning of their Lady Society President was already very strict, Chu Feng felt that the Red Butterfly Society’s President was too forgiving to only give Zhao Ruofan a verbal warning, and not any substantial punishment.

Although Chu Feng did not know why she would be this forgiving, he knew that there must be a reason for it. It was because of that secret reason that the Red Butterfly Society’s President did not dare to actually do anything to Zhao Ruofan.

Afterward, Chu Feng really received the honored guest treatment, and was situated in an excellent palace in the Red Butterfly Society to rest.

Not only was the palace very excellent, there were also many servant girls to serve him. In fact, he even had personal cooks.

From this, it could be seen that Chu Feng received very good treatment here.

However, Chu Feng noticed that the Red Butterfly Society’s

President did not completely trust him.

Although he was treated very well, there was a spirit formation around the palace. Inside the spirit formation, ordinary people were simply unable to inspect the situation outside.

However, the spirit formation was unable to shield Chu Feng's Heaven's Eyes. Merely... it remained that Chu Feng was here as a guest, and a guest should comply with the wishes of the master.

Furthermore, as Chu Feng did not have too much interest in the Red Butterfly Society, Chu Feng did not bother to waste time inspecting the situation and the strength of the Red Butterfly Society.

After all, he had only decided to come here as a guest to give face to Liu Chengkun and repay him for helping him.

Chu Feng did not plan to stay here for long. After all, he had still not avenged Wang Qiang. That was something that had been preoccupying his mind the entire time.

"Eggy, if we are to encounter that demonic woman, are you confident in being able to take care of her?" Chu Feng's awareness was in his world spirit space. He was sitting on the ground with Eggy and chatting face to face.

"I am also uncertain as to exactly what level of strength that demonic woman possesses. However, I felt that she was at least a Martial Ancestor. At the very most, I am only thirty percent confident in being able to defeat her," Eggy said.

"Thirty percent? That demonic woman is that powerful?" Chu Feng frowned. He knew that he did not possess sufficient strength to take care of that demonic woman. Thus, he could only place all of his hopes onto Her Lady Queen.

However, even Her Lady Queen said that she only possessed thirty percent confidence in being able to defeat that demonic woman. Then, wouldn't it mean that avenging Wang Qiang would be something that was very distant?

Suddenly, Eggy said, “Chu Feng, I feel that your head is muddled by hatred, that you’ve turned foolish.”

“Eggy, why would you think such a thing of me?” Chu Feng asked.

“While it is true that Wang Qiang was captured by that demonic woman, how are you so certain that Wang Qiang is dead?”

“Although I do not know much about that stutterer Wang Qiang, I feel that he is not a simple man. That is especially true after the two of you started to travel together. I felt even more certain then that he was not simple.”

“Would a guy like him be so easily killed?”

“Don’t forget, he is someone that grew up in an Ancient Era’s Remnant,” Eggy said.

“But, the number of bones in the Darknight Ghost...”

Before Chu Feng could finish, Eggy interrupted, “It’s easy to explain those bones. Perhaps the demonic woman had already left that pile of bones before she went to capture Wang Qiang and the others. It is also possible that she captured more people afterwards.”

“Although the amount of bones was the same as the number of people she captured that day, that does not mean that Wang Qiang’s bones would definitely be among them.”

“I have actually also thought of that. But, it remains that I have received no news of Wang Qiang,” Chu Feng said.

“While it is very suspicious for there to be no news of Wang Qiang, it is also true that there has been no news of that demonic woman. Do you not feel that to be even more suspicious?” Eggy asked.

“Indeed, what you say is very true,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Although I also feel that it would be unlikely for that stutterer Wang Qiang to still be alive, it remains that there is still a chance that he might be alive.”

“Thus, do not make yourself look this miserable all day, do not immerse yourself in the death of your brother all day long. If he turns out to have never been dead to begin with, wouldn’t you have grieved for nothing?”

“Rather than feeling sad for Wang Qiang, you should think about how to take care of that old fart,” Eggy said.

Chapter 2205 – Chat Between Master And Disciple

---

“Old fart? Eggy, are you talking about that Red Butterfly Society’s Vice President?” Chu Feng asked.

“Who else other than him? Do you not feel him to be someone that is extremely detestable?” Eggy said.

“Indeed. However, it remains that it is a domestic matter of the Red Butterfly Society. There does not seem to be a reason for me to get involved,” Chu Feng said.

Eggy stood up emotionally and said to Chu Feng in a disappointed manner, “Oh please. There’s a lot of reason for you to be involved, okay?”

“Indeed. Senior Liu has treated me very well. Furthermore, the Red Butterfly Society’s President is his disciple. For the sake of Senior Liu, it does seem like I have a reason to help them take care of that Vice President. Merely, it remains that I am not someone from the Red Butterfly Society.... If...”

“Fool, that’s not what I’m talking about,” Eggy interrupted Chu Feng.

“What other reason could there be then?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“What other reason?” Eggy placed her hands on her waist, “He has injured you. That is enough reason for you to kill him.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng suddenly burst into laughter. Then, he stood up and said, “Indeed, that is a reason.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, a trace of coldness appeared in Chu Feng’s gaze.

Today, it was clearly the first time he met that Zhao Ruofan. There was simply no hatred nor grievance between them. Yet, that Zhao Ruofan had attacked him. Not only did he injure him, he also forced him onto all fours.

Indeed, Chu Feng could not disregard such hatred. Furthermore, Chu Feng felt that Zhao Ruofan's character was not good at all. Moreover, he had noticed that Zhao Ruofan was extremely hostile toward Liu Chengkun.

Thus, Chu Feng had decided that he might as well go and eliminate that Zhao Ruofan. After all, leaving him alive would only cause disaster.

"That's more like the Chu Feng I know," Seeing Chu Feng's reaction, Eggy smiled sweetly.

As Eggy knew Chu Feng very well, she was able to tell that killing intent had emerged in Chu Feng's heart. As such, that Zhao Ruofan would die sooner or later.

Actually, Eggy was deliberately inciting Chu Feng. She was able to tell that Chu Feng was reacting as if his hands and legs were tied because of his refusal to join the Red Butterfly Society.

Had it been before, if someone had dared to attack Chu Feng and even forced him to the ground on all fours, Chu Feng would have definitely not spared that individual.

However, this time around, Chu Feng had not looked deeply into the matter. The reason for that was because that Zhao Ruofan was part of the Red Butterfly Society. Chu Feng felt that he was not qualified to involve himself in the business of the Red Butterfly Society, and that he should not attack someone from the Red Butterfly Society, as he had not joined them.

As for the reason why he reacted in such a manner, it was because he felt guilty toward Liu Chengkun. After all... he had refused Liu Chengkun's invitation repeatedly.

However, Chu Feng had now been awakened by Eggy. Eggy let him know that he did not have to overthink things if he wanted to take care of a single person. As long as he possessed a simple justification, it would suffice.

At the same time. In an extremely hidden forbidden area in the Red Butterfly Society. The Red Butterfly Society's President and Liu Chengkun were together.

"Lady Society President, it was truly all thanks to your assistance today. Vice President Zhao was determined to make things difficult for me. If it wasn't for your arrival and declaration that Chu Feng was invited by you, I fear that it would truly have been extremely hard for me to disentangle myself," Liu Chengkun said with a grateful expression.

"Master, there are no outsiders here. You do not have to address me as Lady Society President. Just address me by my name," The Red Butterfly Society's President said.

"Lady Society President, regardless of whether or not there are other people present, you are still the Society President. As such, it is only natural that I address you as such," Liu Chengkun said respectfully.

"But master, this position of the Society President should have been yours. After all, this Red Butterfly Society was personally established by your mother. You..." When mentioning this matter, the Red Butterfly Society's President became emotional. She seemed to be feeling injustice for Liu Chengkun.

Liu Chengkun sighed. "I know my body best. Over these years, had it not been for your constant treatments, I would have already died. As such, how could I succeed the Red Butterfly Society?"

"Furthermore, you possess the strength. No one will dare refuse you as the Society President. Even that Zhao Ruofan has no choice but to comply."

"However, if I were to become the Society President, how would the people be willing to accept me? The Red Butterfly Society would end up being ruined by my hands,” Liu Chengkun said with a wry smile.

“Master, your cultivation is only affected because of your illness. If it wasn’t for the fact that you were born with that illness, how could your cultivation only be that of a rank one Martial Ancestor? It would not be strange for you to be a rank five Martial Ancestor now,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“This is fate. No matter what one says, it’s useless,” Liu Chengkun waved his hand.

“No, master, this is not fate. One’s fate is determined by oneself, and not the heavens.”

“I have thought of a way to completely cure your illness. If you don’t trust me, look at this,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President took out two title plates with a beaming smile across her face.

The two title plates appeared to be very normal. They were merely two wooden title plates.

However, the two title plates were anything but normal. Both of them were emitting a faint glimmer. That glimmer was no ordinary glimmer. Rather, it was world spirit power. Furthermore, it was Immortal-level world spirit power.

This was especially true for Liu Chengkun after he saw the four words on the title plates. Immediately, his expression changed enormously.

The four words were: ‘Golden Crane True Immortal!!!’

“Golden Crane True Immortal, Xiaoli, you managed to obtain the Golden Crane True Immortal’s invitation title plates?!” Liu Chengkun asked extremely emotionally. <sup>2</sup>

“Master, you’re finally willing to call me by my name,” At that moment, the Red Butterfly Society’s President was smiling beautifully. Then she nodded and said, “Indeed, these are invitation title plates given to me by the Golden Crane True Immortal.”

“Master, you also know that only Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are capable of healing your illness. As for that Golden Crane True Immortal, not only is he an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he is also a True Immortal-level expert. His world spirit techniques are definitely not something that ordinary Immortal-cloak World Spiritists could compare with,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

As for Liu Chengkun, he was nodding his head repeatedly. He naturally knew how powerful True Immortals were; they were existences above Martial Ancestors.

If the Martial Ancestor realm could be said to be the limit of the human body, then True Immortals were beings that had surpassed the limits of the human body.

“Although it would be impossible to have the Golden Crane True Immortal treat master’s illness, the Golden Crane True Immortal personally created a grand formation at the Immortalization Assembly conducted on the Mount Cloud Crane. Upon entering that spirit formation, Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists will obtain the opportunity to comprehend and contact Immortal-level spirit power.”

“As for these invitation title plates, they are the entrances ticket to the assembly. I have decided that I will go there with Vice President Zhao. The two of us are both Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists. Even if I am unable to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it might be possible for Vice President Zhao to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“As long as one of the two of us is able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, we will be able to completely treat master’s illness.”

“After master is healed from your illness, it will not be an issue for you to live for another five thousand years. Your future accomplishments will definitely surpass Vice President Zhao's. At that time, I will have master become the Society President," The Red Butterfly Society's President said excitedly.

At that moment, the previously excited Liu Chengkun grew silent.

"Master, what is wrong? Are you not happy with this?"

"Indeed, I have purchased these two invitation title plates from others using a great amount of wealth and damaged our treasury."

"But, master, I have done all this for your sake," The Red Butterfly Society's President said.

"Xiaoli, your master knows of your kind intentions. As such, how could I blame you? Furthermore, you are the Society President. Thus, you are qualified to make all kinds of decisions."

"Merely, is it possible to change the person that will go to Mount Cloud Crane with you?" Liu Chengkun said.

"Change a person?" The Red Butterfly Society's President frowned. She said, "Master, please forgive this disciple for being unfilial and saying things that I should not say."

"I know that you possesses deep grievances with Vice President Zhao. However, when considering the greater good, among our Red Butterfly Society's Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, only he and I are capable of becoming Immortal-cloak World Spiritists."

"If someone else is to go instead, I fear that we will end up wasting... the invitation title plate that I spent a great amount of our wealth to purchase."

Golden Crane, or Jin He, could be both a title or a name because Jin(gold) is a surname. But, It is highly unlikely that someone would name their child 'crane,' the bird. Thus, I feel that it is more likely a title. Also did some search on baike, he is a Daoist. More likely to be a title than a name.

Her name means Little Jasmine.

Chapter 2206 – All Out Recommendation

---

“Xiaoli, I naturally know that there is no one more suitable than him in our Red Butterfly Society. However, there are individuals that are more suitable than him outside of our Red Butterfly Society,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Master, I don’t understand what you mean by that,” the Red Butterfly Society’s President said with a confused expression.

“Chu Feng, the honored guest I invited here today, his world spirit techniques most definitely surpass Zhao Ruofan’s,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Chu Feng?” The Red Butterfly Society’s President revealed a skeptical expression. She said, “Master, you’ve seen that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques? It is not that this disciple does not trust you, rather, that Chu Feng seems to be truly young. He is no different from a child.”

“For him to have his cultivation of rank two Half Martial Ancestor at his age, it would mean that he is very talented. However, it also means that he has focused wholeheartedly on martial cultivation.”

“How could someone who has wholeheartedly focused on martial cultivation like him possibly be a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist? How could his world spirit techniques possibly surpass Zhao Ruofan’s who has trained for thousands of years?”

“Not long ago, my illness had relapsed ahead of time.” Liu Chengkun said. “It was Chu Feng who stabilized my illness. As for the time it took him, it was a day and night.”

“A day and night?” Hearing those words, the Red Butterfly Society’s President revealed an astonished expression.

After all, she was the one who had been stabilizing Liu Chengkun’s illness every time it relapsed. Furthermore, it would always take her at least two days and nights to stabilize Liu Chengkun's illness.

Yet, Chu Feng had actually only used a single day and night. As such, how could she not be startled? However, after being astonished, she became even more skeptical.

“Although you might not believe me, that is the truth. Huang Luo can bear witness to it.”

“Asura World Spiritist?!” Hearing those three words, the Red Butterfly Society's President's expression changed enormously.

It was not that she had a low tolerance for shock. Rather, this matter was no small matter. After all, Asura World Spiritists were extremely rare.

“Master, are you certain of that?” The Red Butterfly Society's President asked.

“I saw it personally. Else... how could a rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level world spirit be able to kill Hong Xi?” Liu Chengkun said.

“You're saying that Chu Feng used his world spirit to kill Hong Xi, and that his world spirit is only a rank six Half Martial Ancestor?!” The astonishment in the Red Butterfly Society's President's eyes grew stronger and stronger.

“That's right,” Liu Chengkun nodded. Then, he added, “Furthermore, the aura of his world spirit is without a mistake that of an Asura World Spirit.”

“Sssss~~~” At that moment, even the Lady Society President was unable to contain herself, and sucked in a mouthful of cold air. Then, a smile appeared on her astonished face. She said, “In that case, this Chu Feng could be considered to be a gift to our Red Butterfly Society by the heavens.”

Hearing what the Red Butterfly Society's President said, Liu Chengkun's expression changed. He said, "Xiaoli, I have indeed invited Chu Feng to join our Red Butterfly Society. Merely... he did not wish to do so."

"Master, you're saying that Chu Feng does not wish to join our Red Butterfly Society?" Hearing those words, the smile on the face of the Red Butterfly Society's President immediately froze.

"That is indeed the case," Liu Chengkun shook his head.

"Master, if that Chu Feng is truly as you described him to be, I am willing to have him replace Vice President Zhao and accompany me to Mount Cloud Crane."

"After all, he is an Asura World Spiritist. It would be understandable for me to nurture him. Merely... if he isn't a part of our Red Butterfly Society, how could I have him accompany me?"

"Master, please try to advise that Chu Feng again. As long as he is willing to join our Red Butterfly Society, I am most definitely willing to bring him with me," The Red Butterfly Society's President said. Judging from her appearance, it seemed like she would definitely refuse to give Chu Feng the opportunity should he refuse to join their Red Butterfly Society.

"You don't have to mention this matter anymore. He doesn't want to join, and I do not want to force him," Liu Chengkun said.

"That is truly too much of a pity then," The Red Butterfly Society's President sighed. It could be seen that she really wanted Chu Feng to join their Red Butterfly Society.

"Xiaoli, do you know why I thought so highly of Chu Feng after seeing him once?" Liu Chengkun asked.

"Master, that is actually also what I wanted to ask," The Red Butterfly Society's President said.

"His moral quality. He helped the Tang Family take care of the Cao Family. Yet, the Tang Family decided to kick their benefactor in the teeth, and joined hands with the Cao Family to take care of him.”

“Logically, he should feel hatred for all of the people in the Tang Family.”

“Yet, Chu Feng did not. Even though the Tang Family was unrighteous and unjust toward him, Chu Feng still decided to brave dangers to save the Tang Family’s Young Miss Tang Ying. From this, it could be seen that he is a person that is able to clearly distinguish grudges and grievances, someone who is affectionate and true.”

“Do we really need someone like him to join our Red Butterfly Society? Even if he doesn’t join our Red Butterfly Society, he will definitely come to our aid should our Red Butterfly Society be in danger in the future,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Master, what you say is reasonable. However, that is merely your hypothesis,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Indeed,” Liu Chengkun smiled. He did not deny that. However, he still continued, “Then, let me ask you this. If there was an unrivaled grand character, someone that surpassed the Golden Crane True Immortal, would you want to befriend that person or not?”

“If possible, I would definitely try to befriend that person. Merely...”

Before the Red Butterfly Society’s President could finish her words, Liu Chengkun interrupted her, “Merely, if you are to wait for that person to become a grand character to befriend that person, your actions will be akin to boot-licking. At that time, he will not truly befriend you. At the very most, he will take into consideration that you were his former acquaintance and act politely toward you.”

“However, if you were to befriend him before he matured, he would definitely treat you extremely well after he becomes a grand character.”

“Xiaoli, you must remember this. What people need the most is not to add flowers to a brocade. Rather, it is to send charcoal in snowy weather.”

“.....” Hearing those words, the Red Butterfly Society’s President grew silent. She found what her master had said to be very sensible.

“But master, there are a lot of different kinds of geniuses. Many of them are people that ruled over a region in their youth. However, not many of those geniuses were actually able to mature in strength. Instead, the majority of them ended up dying young,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“I understand what you are thinking. However, I dare to guarantee that the genius Chu Feng will definitely not die young,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Master, I have already declared to Vice President Zhao that we’ll be going, if I am to go back on my word now, wouldn’t it be...?”

“After all, Vice President Zhao is a distant relative to a management elder in the Sunset Clouds Valley,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Xiaoli, I, your Master, has watched you grow up. I naturally understand what you are thinking.”

“Actually, it is also because of Zhao Ruofan’s distant relative in the Sunset Cloud Valley that you acted so leniently toward him.”

“You must be thinking that he will be able to curb Luyang’s Pavilion. After all, Luyang’s Pavilion relies on the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“But, Xiaoli, I can tell you this with certainty. In the future, Chu Feng is someone that not even a hundred thousand Luyang’s Pavilions would be able to compare to,” Liu Chengkun said.

At that moment, the Red Butterfly Society’s President grew silent. She was placed in a difficult situation. Liu Chengkun did not say anything. Just like that, he stood there looking at his disciple.

“Master, since I have till tomorrow to announce this matter, allow me to consider it a bit more,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Very well,” Liu Chengkun nodded. He revealed a disappointed expression in his aged gaze. Based on his understanding of his disciple, he knew that it would be hopeless to make her bring Chu Feng with her to Mount Cloud Crane.

“Lady Society President, this subordinate is a bit tired. I will return to rest,” Liu Chengkun bowed respectfully. Then, he turned and left.

“Master,” Seeing Liu Chengkun leaving, the Red Butterfly Society’s President wanted to say something. After Liu Chengkun left, she muttered with a low voice, “Master, I am thinking for the sake of the Red Butterfly Society. I hope that you will one day understand your disciple’s pains.”

Add flowers to a brocade → adding things to something that’s already perfect. Aka. flattering someone. Sending charcoal in snowy weather → helping someone in their time of need.

Chapter 2207 – Above Martial Ancestor

---

After Liu Chengkun left the forbidden area, he did not return to his own residence. Instead, he arrived at the palace that Chu Feng was resting in.

Liu Chengkun was currently sitting face to face with Chu Feng. Deeply concerned, he asked, “Chu Feng, how are your injuries?”

“Senior, please rest assured. They were merely some light injuries and, have already healed,” Chu Feng said indifferently. He was worried that Liu Chengkun would feel guilty for his injuries.

“It’s great that you’re fine,” Sure enough, after seeing that Chu Feng was fine, Liu Chengkun revealed a smile. Then, he said, “Chu Feng, there is good news.”

“What is this good news?” Chu Feng asked.

“Do you know of the Golden Crane True Immortal?” Liu Chengkun asked.

“I do not” Chu Feng shook his head.

“He is a True Immortal-level expert,” Liu Chengkun said.

“True Immortal-level expert, could it be a cultivation realm above Martial Ancestors?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

The reason for that was because this was the first time he was hearing the words ‘True Immortal.’

In fact, even Eggy grew spirited. The reason for that was because her understanding of martial cultivation also stopped at the Martial Ancestor level. She truly had no idea of martial cultivation above Martial Ancestor.

Both Chu Feng and Eggy were able to deduce that it was very possible for True Immortal... to be the cultivation realm above Martial Ancestor.

“Chu Feng, you actually don’t know of the True Immortal realm?” Seeing Chu Feng’s confused expression, Liu Chengkun was extremely surprised.

Although very few people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm were capable of becoming True Immortals, everyone knew of the True Immortal realm.

“Senior, truth be told, I am from a Lower Realm. At our Lower Realm... the Half Martial Ancestor cultivation realm is already the limit. There are simply no Martial Ancestor-level experts. Thus... I simply do not know of the cultivation realms above Martial Ancestor,” Chu Feng said.

“So you’re actually from a Lower Realm. It’s no wonder I’ve never heard of you before. But... if you’re from a Lower Realm, you must definitely reveal your talent on the Hundred Refinements Stage. Could it be that you’ve refused all of the invitations from the various major powers?” Liu Chengkun revealed an astonished expression.

He knew very well that all of the people from the Lower Realms would have to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage. Furthermore, there would always be talented individuals who appeared in the Hundred Refinements Stage. Every year, the various powers of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would always proceed for the Hundred Refinements Stage to invite the excellent talents from the Lower Realms.

Liu Chengkun had also been to the Hundred Refinements Stage on behalf of the Red Butterfly Society. The way he saw it, someone like Chu Feng was most definitely the most powerful existence in the Hundred Refinements Stage.

A person like him would be someone that all the powers would fight over. At that time, it would not be a question of whether or not he would want to join a power. As such, how did Chu Feng manage to arrive here safely?

“Due to a certain reason, I was unable to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage,” Chu Feng said.

“Ssss~~~” Hearing those words, Liu Chengkun was unable to contain himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. He discovered... that Chu Feng was more and more remarkable.

“Senior Liu, can you explain the True Immortal realm and the cultivation realms above it to me?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Of course. If Martial Emperors are capable of unleashing their body’s full potential, then Martial Ancestors are capable of unleashing the limits of their body’s power. However, both of them are still limited by their human bodies.”

“However, True Immortals, that realm above Martial Ancestors, are cultivators who have transcended the limits of their bodies.”

“In other words, once one reaches True Immortal Realm, they will no longer be humans. Rather, they will become immortals.”

“Very few people in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm are capable of reaching the True Immortal realm. However, it is reported that there are a lot of True Immortal realm experts in the Upper Realms.”

“For example, after you reach the Upper Realm, it is very possible that an island in the sea or a city in the wilderness are all not real. Instead, they would be things created by True Immortal-level experts,” Liu Chengkun said.

“In that case, True Immortals have already transcended their physical bodies, and can change their forms at will?” Chu Feng was very shocked. The reason for that was because it would mean that their cultivation, Source Energy and dantian had combined into one, causing even their souls to transform to a higher level.

To put it simply, a person would then be able to change into any sort of object as long as they wanted to do so. Thus, it would not be too excessive to declare those people as ‘Immortals.’

“That is indeed the case,” Liu Chengkun nodded.

“Then, what about the cultivation realms above True Immortal?” Chu Feng asked.

“The True Immortal realm is merely the introduction toward Immortality. Above the True Immortal realm is the Heavenly Immortal realm. And above the Heavenly Immortal realm is the Martial Immortal realm.”

Chu Feng was extremely entranced. He firmly remembered the three realms of cultivation in his heart.

True Immortal, Heavenly Immortal and Martial Immortal.

“If True Immortal is the introduction, then Heavenly Immortal would be the transformation, and Martial Immortal would be the actual integration with Immortality,” Liu Chengkun continued.

“I have heard that even in the vast and omnipotent Upper Realms, very few people are able to become Martial Immortals. Furthermore, all of the Martial Immortals are unsurpassed existences.” When mentioning the Martial Immortals, Liu Chengkun had an expression of reverence filling his face.

“Then, what about the cultivation realms above Martial Immortal?” Chu Feng continued to ask.

“The path of martial cultivation is never-ending. There are naturally cultivation realms above Martial Immortal.”

“Exalted; that is the realm above Martial Immortal. Although that is a legendary realm of cultivation, there has been people that have reached that realm.”

“For example, the Mount Cloud Crane where the Golden Crane True Immortal is living at right now was created by an Exalted.”

“Thus, Mount Cloud Crane could be said to be one of the most famous wondrous locations in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Liu Chengkun said.

“As for the cultivation realms above Exalted, next would be the Utmost Exalted. Above the Utmost Exalted is the Martial Exalted.”

“Furthermore, it seems like there are cultivation realms above Martial Exalted. Merely, even I have never heard of those cultivation realms.”

“However, I feel that since Exalted is already akin to legend, Martial Exalted would be a myth. As for the cultivation realms above Martial Exalted, they would be existences akin to gods,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Perhaps that might be the case,” Chu Feng nodded his head in agreement. Even though those realms of cultivation were very distant from him, he had managed to tell how magnificent of a scale the world of martial cultivation was merely from those cultivation realms. At the same time, he had also realized how far from the top he really was.

‘Exalted, Utmost Exalted, Martial Exalted. I wonder what level of cultivation my father is?’ Chu Feng thought to himself.

Although Liu Chengkun had said that Martial Immortals were already unsurpassed in the Upper Realms, Chu Feng felt that his father’s cultivation should have surpassed Martial Immortal, that he would be at least an Exalted.

“Senior Liu, what is with the Golden Crane True Immortal you mentioned to me earlier?” Chu Feng asked.

“The Golden Crane True Immortal is not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, no one knows which Upper Realm he is from. He appeared three years ago and occupied Mount Cloud Crane, which was created by that legendary Exalted.”

“Although the Golden Crane True Immortal only appeared three years ago, his fame has already spread through the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He is an existence feared and revered by the various powers. He is a true grand character, an absolute expert that stands at the apex of our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Furthermore, not only does the Golden Crane True Immortal possess a very powerful cultivation, he is also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Moreover, he is planning to host an assembly in the upcoming days.”

“He is planning to use his world spirit techniques to assist our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists become Immortal-cloak World Spiritists.”

“Our Red Butterfly Assembly has used a great sum to purchase two invitations from others. I want you to accompany our Lady Society President there,” Liu Chengkun said.

Chapter 2208 – The Descent Of A Crisis

---

“Really?” Chu Feng was overjoyed after hearing what Liu Chengkun said.

Naturally, he was overjoyed at the chance to be able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

However, it was not because of the fact that he would become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, an extremely amazing existence, but rather because he would be able to treat Liu Chengkun’s illness after becoming an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Should that happen, Chu Feng would be able to undo a knot in his heart.

“Of course. Tomorrow, I will invite you to the grand hall, and Lady Society President will publicly announce this matter,” Liu Chengkun said.

“Thank you senior,” Chu Feng felt very grateful. Even though he did not know about the details, he was able to guess that the invitation must have been very difficult to obtain. He knew that Liu Chengkun must’ve pulled a lot of strings to get that invitation for him.

After all... he was not a part of the Red Butterfly Society.

However, Chu Feng had no idea that Liu Chengkun had not managed to obtain the invitation for him.

“There’s no need to be this courteous toward me. Go on and rest yourself. I will personally come to get you tomorrow,” After Liu Chengkun said those words, he left.

“That old man treats you truly well. You should just join the Red Butterfly Society,” At that moment, even Eggy urged Chu Feng to join the Red Butterfly Society.

“Indeed, Senior Liu treats me extremely well. However, Eggy, you should know the reason why I do not wish to join any power,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s why I was just saying it. It’s a joke. Don’t take it to heart,” Eggy laughed mischievously.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng felt even more disconcerted. The more Liu Chengkun treated him well, the guiltier he felt for refusing Liu Chengkun’s invitation.

At that moment, in another area within the Red Butterfly Society.

Zhao Ruofan was not alone in his palace; his son Zhao Xuan and his grandson Zhao Xiao were also present.

“Grandfather, you are truly amazing. Lady Society President has just imprisoned, us yet you’ve already managed to get us out,” Zhao Xiao said with a smile on his face. The word ‘flatterer’ was written all over his face.

“So what if she’s the Lady Society President? Even she needs to consider the status of our Zhao Family.”

“After all, we possess backing from the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“If it wasn’t for my distantly related cousin, the Sunset Cloud Valley would’ve already helped Luyang’s Pavilion eliminate our Red Butterfly Society,” Zhao Ruofan said proudly.

“Of course,” Zhao Xiao and his father nodded repeatedly. They were also very proud when their distant relative in the Sunset Cloud Valley was mentioned.

“Lord Father, I have heard that Lady Society President has spent a great amount of wealth to purchase two invitation title plates to Mount Cloud Crane.”

“Is she planning to go there with you?” Zhao Xuan asked.

“Truth be told, that girl Liu Xiaoli has already mentioned that matter to me before. Furthermore, she will announce this matter tomorrow,” Zhao Ruofan said complacently.

Zhao Xiao and his father continued to flatter Zhao Ruofan.

As for Zhao Ruofan, the smile on his face grew prouder and prouder. Ambitions unknown to others were flickering in his aged eyes.

However, right at the moment when the grandfather, son and grandson were feeling proud, an enormous crisis was quietly descending upon them.

At that moment, many warships were on the road from Luyang’s Pavilion to the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters. It was an impressive display of manpower. They were currently hidden within the void, and proceeding rapidly toward the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters.

On one of the gorgeous warships, the Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master was in the same gorgeous palace that he had been in before.

However, his surroundings were no longer filled with beautiful women. In fact, he did not even dare to sit on the main seat.

The reason for that was because there were several tens of figures in the palace. These people were not wearing the clothing of Luyang’s Pavilion. Instead, they were wearing red clothes that shone with a sunset-like glow.

On their waists were a title plate. On the title plates were three words: Sunset Cloud Valley.

As for the old man leading the group, he had blazing red hair, a blazing red beard, and a body covered with a twilight glow. He looked like an immortal descending upon the world of mortals. As for his cultivation, it was unfathomable.

“Myself had heard that an abnormal sign would form should one master the Sunset Cloud Mysterious Technique to the pinnacle. In the past, I thought it was merely bragging. However today, upon seeing Elder Su, I am surprised to discover that it was actually true,” Chu Luyang spoke politely.

Chu Luyang was a very conceited person. However, when before this Elder Su, he did not dare to show any disrespect.

The reason for that was because he knew very well that the Chu Heavenly Clan would leave the fates of their members that they dispatched to train in the Lower Realms to the heavens. Even if they were to be killed, the Chu Heavenly Clan would not avenge them.

Merely, the great majority of people did not know about this. Furthermore, even if they did, they would not believe it to be true.

However, this Elder Su was different. Not only did he know about it, he also believed it to be true. Thus, when before Elder Su, Chu Luyang’s status as a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan was completely useless.

Before him, Chu Luyang was nothing more than a martial cultivator with a far inferior cultivation.

Perhaps he might be a supreme existence in the eyes of others, however, when before that Elder Su, he was nothing more than an ant.

“Pavilion Master Chu, truth be told, ever since the founding of our Sunset Cloud Valley, less than ten people have managed to master the Sunset Cloud Mysterious Technique to a state of producing an abnormal sign.”

“Other than our successive Valley Masters, our Elder Su is the only other person that has been able to master the Sunset Cloud Mysterious Technique to a state of producing an abnormal sign,” A two-meter-tall yet extremely thin old man began to flatter Elder Su.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that his appearance actually resembled Zhao Ruofan slightly.

“Elder Su is amazing indeed,” Chu Luyang continued to politely flatter Elder Su.

“Pavilion Master Chu, there is no need to continue with the flattery. This time around... since I have agreed to help you eliminate the Red Butterfly Society, I will definitely eliminate them for you.”

“Merely, Elder Zhao, is that information you received the truth? Are you certain that what you have is the location of the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters?”

“You must know that I have no time to waste,” Elder Su, who was emitting an abnormal sign all over, questioned the extremely thin old man.

“Elder Su, please rest assured. I have a distantly related cousin. He is in the Red Butterfly Society, and holds the position of Vice President. It was him who personally informed me of the location of the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters. There is absolutely no mistake,” The thin as a match Elder Zhao said.

“Very well,” Elder Su nodded.

At that moment, Chu Luyang had a joyous expression. He knew very well how powerful this Elder Su was. It could be said that Elder Su was the strongest existence in the Sunset Cloud Valley apart from the Valley Master.

Right now, Elder Su was willing to help him eliminate the Red Butterfly Society. In fact... he did not even have to use a single soldier. The people that he had dispatched with him today were nothing more than a display.

‘Chu Feng, you should also be in the Red Butterfly Society, right? I will let you know the consequences of offending me,’ Chu Luyang declared in his heart fiercely.

He knew that Chu Feng had left together with Liu Chengkun.

Even though Liu Chengkun had declared that Chu Feng was not a part of the Red Butterfly Society, Chu Luyang firmly believed that Chu Feng had joined the Red Butterfly Society, that the Red Butterfly Society was Chu Feng's backing.

Right at that moment, a female's voice was heard. "Pavilion Master Chu, I have a request. I don't know if you might be able to help me with this?"

Chu Luyang turned his gaze around. It turned out that it was the little beauty Chu Feng had accidentally come across while she was naked in the lake, Xu Yiyi.

"Miss Yiyi, what is your request, there is no harm in telling me about it. As long as I, Chu, am able to accomplish it, even if I am to go through water and tread on fire, I will definitely not refuse you," Chu Luyang declared while patting his chest. He knew very well how special that Xu Yiyi's status was.

The reason for that was because Xu Yiyi was Su Jingrui's, Elder Su's, personal disciple. Even though this girl was not very old, and her strength was inferior to his own, she remained someone that he dared not offend.

"There is no need for you to go through water and tread on fire. It is merely a small request. Can you spare that Chu Feng?" Xu Yiyi asked.

"Chu Feng?" Hearing those words, Chu Luyang's expression immediately turned sluggish. His expression was as if he had accidentally stepped into a pile of dog shit.

He had truly never ever expected that Xu Yiyi would be pleading for leniency for Chu Feng!!!

Chapter 2209 – Beam Jumping Clown

---

After feeling a bit stunned, Chu Luyang asked, “Miss Yiyi, what sort of relationship might you have with that Chu Feng?”

“He is my friend,” Xu Yiyi said without the slightest hesitation.

“Eh...” At that moment, Chu Luyang’s expression turned very ugly. He felt enormous hatred for that Chu Feng. It could be said that... he detested Chu Feng more than he detested the Red Butterfly Society. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had successively killed two of his trusted aides.

However, more than that, he was confused as to exactly when Chu Feng got his bullshit luck to actually become friends with Xu Yiyi?

“If it is too difficult for Pavilion Master Chu, you can forget about it,” Xu Yiyi curled her lips in a slightly displeased manner. Then, she looked to Elder Su, grabbed his arm and shook it around like a spoiled child, “Master, someone wants to kill my friend. What are you going to do about this? Will you uphold justice for me?”

Seeing that Xu Yiyi actually began to request assistance from her master, Chu Luyang’s face turned green. Hurriedly, he said, “No, not difficult, not at all, it’s not difficult at all. I will order my men immediately, and tell them that the grudges and grievances between our Luyang’s Pavilion and Chu Feng will be written off with a single stroke, that we will no longer look into it.”

“In that case, thank you, Pavilion Master Chu,” Xu Yiyi said to Chu Luyang with a beaming and proud smile on her face.

“Miss Yiyi, you’re being too polite,” Although this was what Chu Luyang was saying, he was feeling extremely sullen in his heart.

As for the others present, they all held smiles on their faces. No one interrupted. The reason for that was because they all knew how much Elder Su pampered Xu Yiyi.

Regardless of what sort of conflict Chu Luyang had with Chu Feng, since Xu Yiyi had spoken out against it, Chu Luyang had no choice but to give up.

.....

In the blink of an eye, the next day arrived. Right on schedule, Liu Chengkun went to receive Chu Feng, and personally brought him to the Red Butterfly Society's meeting hall.

The meeting hall was filled with people. There was Elder Huang Luo, who Chu Feng was familiar with, as well as many more people that he was not familiar with. However, never did Chu Feng expect that Zhao Xiao and his father would also be present.

They had clearly been imprisoned yesterday. Yet, they'd already been released. From this, it could be seen that their punishment yesterday was nothing more than a facade.

However, to Chu Feng's greatest discomfort, when he and Liu Chengkun arrived at the meeting hall, the crowd all looked at him with astonished expressions. Even the Red Butterfly Society's President had such a gaze.

"Elder Liu, the meeting here today is a meeting for our Red Butterfly Society's upper echelon members. Why are you bringing that Chu Feng here?" Sure enough, Zhao Ruofan, the Red Butterfly Society's Vice President, spoke in a very displeased manner.

"Upper echelon members? It seems that Zhao Xiao does not possess the qualifications to participate in this meeting then," Liu Chengkun took a glance at Zhao Xiao who stood beside Zhao Ruofan.

"How could that be compared? No matter what, Zhao Xiao is a part of the Red Butterfly Society. But what about Chu Feng? Who does he think he is?" Zhao Ruofan said.

"Who does he think he is? Chu Feng is the honored guest invited by Lady Society President," Liu Chengkun said.

Hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan's expression immediately turned sluggish. Involuntarily, he turned his gaze to their Lady Society President. He was also afraid that Chu Feng had been invited here by their Society President.

If that was the case, he would very likely bump into the spearhead should he excessively block Chu Feng's access. Zhao Ruofan did not wish to enter an awkward situation like the one from yesterday again.

At the moment when Zhao Ruofan was worried as to whether he had spoken wrongly already, Liu Chengkun also turned his slightly worried gaze toward the Red Butterfly Society's President. He was also afraid that his disciple would not give him face, and directly drive Chu Feng out of this place.

"Have a seat," The Red Butterfly Society's President said to Chu Feng and Liu Chengkun with a smile on her face.

Hearing those words, Liu Chengkun revealed a smile. Then, he led Chu Feng and took seats in the meeting hall.

As for Chu Feng, even though he appeared to be fine on the surface, he was feeling very awkward in his heart. He had already realized that what Liu Chengkun had told him yesterday was unreliable.

Sure enough, Liu Chengkun spoke, "Lady Society President, I have heard that you've obtained two invitations to enter Mount Cloud Crane? Might it be possible for one of the invitations to be bestowed to little friend Chu Feng?"

The people present were all greatly alarmed by his words. Even Chu Feng was dumbfounded by them. The reason for that was because it meant that his guess was correct, that Liu Chengkun simply had no certainty in being able to allow Chu Feng to enter Mount Cloud Crane to train.

"Liu Chengkun, what are you saying?! How could we hand over an invitation that our Red Butterfly Society had gone through great difficulties to obtain to an outsider?!” Zhao Ruofan shouted furiously. He was so furious that he no longer addressed Liu Chengkun as Elder, but instead directly called him by his name.

In fact, it was not only Zhao Ruofan who was furious. Many other elders were also furious. One by one, they were whispering to one another and wagging their tongues.

“This matter is decided by Lady Society President. Although you might be the Vice President, you seem to not have the qualifications to decide this matter,” Liu Chengkun said.

“I am, no matter what, the Vice President of the Red Butterfly Society. Thus, I must consider the interests of the Red Butterfly Society,” Zhao Ruofan shouted.

“Are you really considering the interests of the Red Butterfly Society, or are you actually considering your own interests? I believe you know best which it is,” Liu Chengkun snorted coldly.

“You!!!” Zhao Ruofan grew more and more furious. He was on the verge of acting out violently. However, a sudden thought arrived in his heart. Then, he turned his gaze to the Red Butterfly Society’s President. He said, “Lady Society President, please be the judge. Say... is the request from Elder Liu not deliberately creating troubles? Is this not overly excessive?”

At that moment, Zhao Ruofan finally revealed a confident expression. After all, he felt that it was already decided that he would be the one to proceed for Mount Cloud Crane together with the Red Butterfly Society’s President. Even if Liu Chengkun tried to interfere, he would not be able to alter that.

Zhao Ruofan knew very well that he was able to obtain the confidence of the Red Butterfly Society’s President not only because of his own personal strength and capabilities. Most importantly, it was because he possessed a distant cousin in Sunset Cloud Valley.

Thus, he was certain that Liu Chengkun would be humiliated today for trying to cause disruption.

“Actually, I have called all the elders here today precisely to announce this matter.”

“I have indeed received two invitation title plates that could grant access to Mount Cloud Crane,” As the Red Butterfly Society’s President spoke, she took out the two invitation title plates.

Seeing the two title plates, the eyes of practically everyone present shone. They all revealed light smiles on their faces. After all, they all knew that it was extremely difficult to obtain those invitation title plates.

Yet, the Red Butterfly Society’s President had actually obtained two such invitation title plates. This indirectly displayed to them that their Red Butterfly Society was quite powerful.

This was especially true for Zhao Ruofan. At that moment, he was smiling so wide that his face was like that of a steamed bun. The way he saw it, one of the two invitation title plates in their Lady Society President’s hand already belonged to him.

“I believe everyone already knows about the usage of the title plates. The main purpose in entering Mount Cloud Crane is to obtain Golden Crane True Immortal’s assistance to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“This is an extremely rare opportunity that occurs once in a hundred years or even a thousand years. After all, not all Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are willing to help us.”

“However, it is precisely because the opportunity is so rare that it must be given to those with the ability. Else, this opportunity will have been wasted.”

“I believe everyone knows who the person that is most qualified to go with me in our Red Butterfly Society will be. He is none other than Vice President Zhao,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“That’s true. It is only Lord Vice President that is able to compete with Lady Society President in terms of world spirit techniques,” Many of the management elders present nodded their heads.

“Elders, you all are flattering me,” Even though Zhao Ruofan was speaking modestly, his widely smiling aged face was not at all modest.

“However, even I do not possess much certainty in being able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist by entering Mount Cloud Crane.”

“I believe Vice President Zhao feels the same, right?” Suddenly, the Red Butterfly Society’s President said to Zhao Ruofan.

“Of course. It is not that easy for one to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. However, this old man will definitely try his hardest, so as to not fail to live up to Lady Society President’s expectations,” Zhao Ruofan nodded while smiling. After all, when even their Lady Society President declared that she was not confident, it would be unsuitable for him to say that he was filled with confidence.

“Mn,” The Red Butterfly Society’s president nodded in satisfaction.

Seeing that the Lady Society President was nodding, the smile on Zhao Ruofan’s face grew even stronger. He was so overjoyed that he actually disregarded the situation at hand and picked up the teacup on the side table and started drinking it merrily.

His behavior was truly relaxed, carefree and contented. It was as if he was certain that he would obtain that invitation title plate.

Furthermore, while drinking his tea, he took a deliberate glance at Chu Feng and Liu Chengkun.

His mocking gaze seemed to be saying ‘no matter how you two try to cause disruptions, it will be useless. It is the people’s expectation for me to go to Mount Cloud Crane. As for you two... you are nothing more than beam jumping clowns.'

"That is why I invited Chu Feng here today," The Red Butterfly Society's President continued.

"Snap~~~"

Hearing those words, the teacup Zhao Ruofan held shattered on the spot.

Chapter 2210 – Dangerous Game Of Chess

---

After that shattering sound, everyone turned their gazes to Zhao Ruofan.

Not only had Zhao Ruofan shattered the teacup in his hand, the tea water in the cup had also splashed all over him.

Awkward. Zhao Ruofan was placed in a truly awkward situation. It was the words of the Red Butterfly Society's President that made him feel such awkwardness.

The reason for that was because even a fool could tell that their Lady Society President's final words possessed special meaning.

"Vice President Zhao, what's wrong?" The Red Butterfly Society's President asked even though she already knew the answer.

"Lady Society President, are you implying that Chu Feng is to go to Mount Cloud Crane instead of me?" Zhao Ruofan asked directly.

Once he said those words, many of the people present sucked in a mouthful of cold air. None of them had expected Zhao Ruofan to be so direct.

"Vice President Zhao, I had said that the invitation title plate should be given to an able individual," The Red Butterfly Society's President said.

"Please excuse this subordinate for his offense, but I truly do not feel that Chu Feng surpasses me in any aspect."

Zhao Ruofan spoke what he felt. After all, this matter concerned him. Furthermore, the Red Butterfly Society's President had agreed to have him go with her before.

Thus, even though she was going back on her promise, he still insisted on fighting against her decision. Even if it meant that he would offend her, he would still not hesitate.

He knew very well that the value of a single Immortal-cloak World Spiritist was not something that even the entire Red Butterfly Society could match up against.

If he were as to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he would not care even if he were to be forced to leave the Red Butterfly Society.

“Haha...” Hearing what Zhao Ruofan said, the Red Butterfly Society’s President laughed out loud. She stood up and said to the crowd, “Elders, how old do you think Chu Feng is?”

“Little friend Chu Feng seems to not even be thirty years old. His age would cause him to be considered a member of the younger generation’s younger generation. Even if he were to be placed among ordinary commoners, he would still be considered to be young,” Elder Huang Luo replied.

Hearing what Huang Luo said, the other elders also nodded. In terms of age, Chu Feng was indeed extremely young.

This was especially true when viewed from the viewpoint of the world of martial cultivation. It would not be excessive to say that Chu Feng’s age was simply akin to that of a child that had just set foot into the world of martial cultivation.

“How many people of Chu Feng’s age with rank two Half Martial Ancestor-level cultivations have you all seen before?” The Red Butterfly Society’s President continued to ask.

“Extremely rare. At the very least, I’ve never met another,” Huang Luo replied.

“Indeed, it’s extremely rare.”

The other elders also nodded in succession. Regardless of whether or not Chu Feng was an outsider, it remained that they had to acknowledge his strength.

“I believe there is no need for me to mention to you all how talented Chu Feng is in terms of martial cultivation. However, he possesses another identity that I believe you all might not know about.”

“Chu Feng is actually an Asura World Spiritist,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President continued.

“Asura World Spiritist?!”

Once those words were said, other than the people that already knew about this, the people present were all shocked.

Even Zhao Ruofan, Zhao Xuan and Zhao Xian were stunned.

After all, Asura World Spiritists were no small matter. They were extremely respected existences!!!

“Not only is Chu Feng an Asura World Spiritist, he is also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“To be able to train in both martial cultivation and world spirit techniques and obtain such extraordinary accomplishments at such a young age, I believe that no one has seen someone like Chu Feng before, right?” The Red Butterfly Society’s President asked.

“Never, this is simply unheard of,” The crowd said.

“Little friend Chu Feng is truly an absolute genius,” In fact, there were even people that started to flatter Chu Feng with the intention of courting favors from him.

It must be said that when the people found out that Chu Feng was an Asura World Spiritist, there was an enormous change in their attitude toward him.

“That is why Chu Feng is our Red Butterfly Society’s honored guest. In the future, no one is allowed to act rudely toward Chu Feng,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President spoke those words very loudly and clearly.

At that moment, the people present all nodded their heads to express their approval of their Lady Society President’s decision.

They understood the intention of the Red Butterfly Society’s President. An Asura World Spiritist, even if he was only a Royal-cloak World Spiritist now, would be someone that all the powers would want to rope in.

After all, the future potential that an Asura World Spiritist possessed was unable to be estimated.

When looking at it from another point of view, it would be the Red Butterfly Society's fortune to be able to invite Chu Feng to be their guest.

Thus, the Red Butterfly Society should capture this opportunity and think of all the ways to curry favors with this future grand character they could.

Before, the crowd had felt Liu Chengkun's request to have Chu Feng accompany their Lady Society President to Mount Cloud Crane to be deliberately creating troubles. However, they now felt that his request was extremely reasonable and fair. At that moment, practically everyone was in favor of that request.

"Lady Society President, you told me before that I would be accompanying you," Zhao Ruofan said. Even though he knew that those words would end up offending the Red Butterfly Society's President, he still said them. The reason for that was because he truly did not wish to miss out on a chance of becoming an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

"Ah?" Hearing those words, the crowd were all startled. After all, they had never known about that, and also didn't know whether or not Zhao Ruofan was lying.

However, more than anything, they were shocked by how Zhao Ruofan dared to publicly declare such a thing. His actions were simply challenging their Lady Society President's authority.

"Vice President Zhao, why do I not remember ever saying that sort of thing to you?" The Red Butterfly Society's President did not admit to it. Not only that, she also took a displeased glance at Zhao Ruofan.

At the same time, the air in the vast palace hall turned ice cold. Everyone present managed to sense that chilliness.

Facing the gaze of the Red Butterfly Society's President, as well as her invisible anger, Zhao Ruofan's body shivered. In the end, he was afraid of their Lady Society President.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, Zhao Ruofan kneeled onto the ground. In a very apologetic manner, he declared, “This subordinate is stupid, this subordinate was wrong.”

“Merely, Lady Society President, my older cousin said that if I am able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, our Red Butterfly Society would be able to become the Sunset Cloud Valley's subsidiary power, that the Sunset Cloud Valley would be willing to help our Red Butterfly Society against Luyang's Pavilion.”

“Thus, this subordinate is most definitely not trying to strive for this opportunity for my own personal gains. Instead, it is for the sake of our Red Butterfly Society.”

“What?!” Hearing what Zhao Ruofan said, the expressions of the crowd all changed. After all, what he had said was no small matter.

“Vice President Zhao, is what you said the truth?” The Red Butterfly Society's President narrowed her eyes. Her gaze was filled with suspicion.

Based on her understanding of Zhao Ruofan's character, she did not believe his words. Merely, she also did not dare to ascertain them to be false, nor did she want to declare him to be lying in public. After all, Vice President Zhao's older cousin was someone that she could not afford to offend.

“This subordinate would not dare to deceive Lady Society President,” Although Zhao Ruofan spoke those words with confidence, he was feeling very scared. The reason for that was because he knew that he had made it all up, that his older cousin had never mentioned those things before.

However, for the sake of entering Mount Cloud Crane, he must stake his all. Even if he would be punished by the Red Butterfly Society's President in the future, he must still seize this chance.

If worst came to worst, he could always leave the Red Butterfly Society. However, if he were to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist in the process, it would truly mean meteoric success for him.

This was a very dangerous game of chess that he was playing. However, he must continue to play it.

Chapter 2211 – Poisoning

---

“I will say the same thing. This is a rare opportunity. Thus, it should be given to he who is more able,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President firmly refused.

Upon hearing those words, Liu Chengkun was on the verge of crying. He truly never expected for his disciple to support him like this at such a crucial time.

Just yesterday, his disciple had refused him. Yet today, for the sake of allowing her master to leave the stage without being humiliated, she actually stood by him. In fact, she even disregarded Zhao Ruofan’s status. This truly moved Liu Chengkun.

At that moment, Liu Chengkun felt that his decision to hand the position of the Red Butterfly Society’s President to his disciple was correct.

In fact, it was not only Liu Chengkun that was moved, Chu Feng also felt a whole new level of respect for the Red Butterfly Society’s President. His impression of her had changed enormously.

The way Chu Feng saw it, regardless of what sort of hidden troubles she might have that led to her giving way to Zhao Ruofan incessantly, she at least respected her master and deeply cared for him.

If she were truly to choose between Liu Chengkun and Zhao Ruofan, Chu Feng felt that the Red Butterfly Society’s President would end up choosing Liu Chengkun.

“Please excuse this subordinate for offending you. However, Lady Society President, how are you so certain that this subordinate’s world spirit techniques would definitely be inferior to little friend Chu Feng’s?” Zhao Ruofan gathered up his courage to say those words.

“Could it be that you wish to compete against Chu Feng in terms of world spirit techniques?” The Red Butterfly Society’s President asked in a very annoyed manner.

Once those words were said, all of the management elders’ expressions changed. In fact, some among them even started to secretly send voice transmission to urge Zhao Ruofan to stop arguing against the Lady Society President.

The reason for that was because they were all able to tell that their Lady Society President was angered. If Zhao Ruofan were to continue on like this, he would definitely suffer consequences.

As for Zhao Ruofan, he was definitely flustered and scared.

However, he still clenched his teeth and said, “If this subordinate is to be defeated, I am willing to withdraw. Merely... I fear that little friend Chu Feng would not dare to compete.”

After he finished saying those words, Zhao Ruofan turned his gaze to Chu Feng. His gaze was filled with provocation.

At the same time, the rest of the crowd also turned their gazes toward Chu Feng. Merely, their gazes were filled with worries.

At that moment, it was not only the Red Butterfly Society’s President, even the elders who were unfamiliar with Chu Feng started to sweat coldly.

Even if Chu Feng was an Asura World Spiritist, it remained that he was only a Royal-cloak World Spiritist. At his age, even if he was a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, how strong could he possibly be?

However, Zhao Ruofan was someone who had trained in world spirit techniques for a very long time. His abilities were something that the people here all knew very well.

The crowd was worried that Chu Feng would be defeated. In fact, they felt that Chu Feng would definitely be defeated.

It was not because they were truly concerned for Chu Feng.

Rather, they did not wish to miss the opportunity to befriend Chu Feng. After all, they felt that Chu Feng was someone who could potentially become a grand existence.

Yet, if Chu Feng were to be defeated by Zhao Ruofan today, it would be equivalent to their Red Butterfly Society having offended Chu Feng. None of them wished for that.

“Heh...” Seeing that Chu Feng was not responding, Zhao Ruofan revealed an expression of complacency in his mocking gaze.

The way he saw it, even though this game of chess he was playing was very dangerous, it was the path to a steady victory.

The reason for that was because he did not feel that Chu Feng had the courage to compete in world spirit techniques against him. He felt that Chu Feng was most definitely finding a pretext to refuse the competition.

However, regardless of what sort of excuse Chu Feng might use, should he refuse to compete, it would mean that he was scared. In that case, Zhao Ruofan would be able to obtain the qualifications to go to Mount Cloud Crane.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng said, “Vice President Zhao, while I, Chu Feng, might lack everything else, courage is one thing that I do not lack.” Not only did he say that, he also had a confident expression on his face.

“Are you implying that you are planning to compete with me in world spirit techniques?” Zhao Ruofan asked in shock. He did not expect that Chu Feng would dare to take up the challenge.

“I am ready to take you on at any time,” Chu Feng said calmly.

Hearing those words, the crowd were all stunned. Chu Feng’s calm expression displayed to them that he was most definitely someone who had experienced grand situations. This was something that none of them had expected before.

This was especially true for Zhao Ruofan. At that moment, his eyes were filled with astonishment.

He had heard absolute confidence from Chu Feng's words. It was as if Chu Feng was absolutely confident that he would be able to defeat him in the match.

Scared. Even though Zhao Ruofan was unwilling to admit to it, he was, at that very moment, scared. He was scared that he would be defeated by that brat Chu Feng.

However, as the arrow was already placed onto the bow, he no longer had any way to escape from the match. After careful deliberation, he said, "Since you are willing to take me on at any time, we shall compete here tomorrow."

"Sure," Chu Feng nodded.

"If there is nothing else, Lady Society President, this subordinate shall take his leave," Zhao Ruofan respectfully saluted the Red Butterfly Society's President, turned around and left without even waiting for her response.

As matters stood today, he had already completely gone against the desires of the Red Butterfly Society's President. Thus, he was no longer worried about what she thought.

"Little friend Chu Feng, I truly never would have expected that you are an Asura World Spiritist. You are truly a well-hidden genius."

The Red Butterfly Society's other elders all began to act friendly toward Chu Feng.

Even though they'd been acting disdainfully toward him before, Chu Feng decided to give Liu Chengkun face and meet them with smiles.

.....

Late at night. Zhao Ruofan's palace was brightly lit.

"Grandfather, why did you not directly take care of that Chu Feng? Why must you give him the opportunity to take a breather?" Zhao Xiao, who stood beside Zhao Ruofan, asked in a very puzzled manner.

"I have already had a falling out with that girl Liu Xiaoli. Likely, she will make things difficult for me in the future. We will not be able to continue to stay in this Red Butterfly Society anymore."

"The reason why I've done all this is so that I can have a chance to enter Mount Cloud Crane."

"Thus, I cannot afford to lose. I must obtain absolute certainty of victory. I must defeat that Chu Feng," Zhao Ruofan said.

"But, will you be absolutely confident tomorrow?" Zhao Xiao was confused.

"Step, step, step~~~"

Right at that moment, Zhao Xiao's father walked in hurriedly.

After seeing the arrival of his son, Zhao Ruofan waved his sleeve and set up a soundproofing spirit formation around his palace.

Then, he asked, "Xuan'er, did you complete the task?"

"Lord Father, please rest assured. Your son has completed it accordingly," Zhao Xiao's father said in a very proud manner.

"In that case, Chu Feng has already taken it?" Zhao Ruofan continued to ask.

"I saw him taking it personally. There is no mistake," Zhao Xiao's father said.

"Very well," Zhao Ruofan revealed an extremely pleased expression. Then, he snorted lightly and said, "That thing is colorless and odorless. Even if it is to enter his body, he would still not be able to detect it. It will only activate when he starts setting up his world spirit formations."

"When it is activated, Chu Feng will only be able to use a tenth of his world spirit power."

“Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, you are still too inexperienced to compete against me.”

“Hahaha!!!” After saying those words, Zhao Ruofan burst into loud laughter.

“Grandfather is truly amazing,” At that moment, Zhao Xiao had managed to understand what was happening. It was no wonder that his grandfather did not compete with Chu Feng on the spot. It turned out that he had ordered his father to poison Chu Feng.

Like this, his grandfather would have absolute certainty of victory in the match tomorrow.

After all, Zhao Xiao felt that Chu Feng would be no match for his grandfather even if he was able to unleash all of his world spirit power, let alone ten percent.

.....

At the same time. In Liu Chengkun's palace. Chu Feng was drinking and chatting with Liu Chengkun.

Originally, there were a lot of visitors in that place. They were all the Red Butterfly Society's management elders. However, at that moment, only Chu Feng and Liu Chengkun remained there.

Although the people had all left, Liu Chengkun still had a smile on his face. It could be seen that his mood was very good.

Furthermore, his complexion was rosy. It could be seen that he had drunk a lot of wine today.

“Senior Liu, is that servant girl that poured wine for me earlier a part of your palace?” Chu Feng asked.

“That's right. All of the people in my palace are people that I carefully selected, my trusted aides. After all, I feel reassured to use my own people,” Liu Chengkun was very proud of this. Furthermore, he even started to crack jokes, “Little friend Chu Feng, why did you ask about that? You couldn't possibly be fond of that girl, right?”

“I will not conceal this from you. Although she might appear young, she is over a thousand years old. It seems to me that the gap between your ages is not quite appropriate. However, if you do not mind it, I am able to betroth her to you as your concubine.”

“Senior Liu truly knows how to joke around. While it is true that I possess interest in her, it is not in that aspect,” Chu Feng shook his head with a smile on his face.

“Then, little friend Chu Feng, what aspect are you talking about?” Liu Chengkun asked with a beaming smile. Perhaps it might be because he drank too much, but he revealed a mischievous old man smile on his aged face.

“Earlier, she poisoned my wine,” Chu Feng said with a light smile.

“What?!” Hearing those words, Liu Chengkun immediately stood up. Then he stood there, stunned like a statue.

Chapter 2212 – Confidence

---

Silence. Chu Feng's words struck Liu Chengkun like a lightning strike. It jolted Liu Chengkun completely awake.

“Little friend Chu Feng, say what you just said again,” Liu Chengkun asked.

“I have been poisoned by your servant girl,” Chu Feng said calmly.

“Poisoned? What sort of poison?” Liu Chengkun asked worriedly. He could tell that Chu Feng was not joking. However, something like poisoning was no small matter. As such, how could he not be nervous?

“A poison that will restrict one's world spirit power. The poison has entered my body and fused with my soul. Even if I am to destroy my physical body, I will still not be able to break free from the poison.”

“Fortunately, the poison will not activate yet. It will only activate when I start to activate my world spirit power.”

“Furthermore, even should it activate, it will also not cause fatal danger to my life. All it will do is restrict my world spirit power. In other words, when the poison is activated, I will only be able to use a tenth of my world spirit power,” Chu Feng said.

“Damn it! Who would poison you with this sort of poison? Zhao Ruofan! It must have been Zhao Ruofan!” Liu Chengkun said while gnashing his teeth.

“It was indeed him. There was an uninvited guest at the feast today. Although he concealed himself extremely well, I was still able to recognize him. He was Zhao Ruofan's son, Zhao Xiao's father, Zhao Xuan,” Chu Feng said.

“It was Zhao Xuan?” Liu Chengkun asked.

“That’s right. He snuck in and was focused on me the entire time. It was only after I took the poison that he left at ease,” Chu Feng said.

“So it was Zhao Ruofan. For the sake of tomorrow’s match, he actually used such despicable methods. I will definitely make him pay,” After knowing what had happened, Liu Chengkun was filled with anger. He turned around and prepared to leave.

“Senior Liu, please wait,” Seeing that Liu Chengkun was planning to go and settle this with Zhao Ruofan,. Chu Feng hurriedly spoke to stop him, “There is one thing that I must tell you still.”

“Chu Feng, what is it?” Liu Chengkun asked.

“I had already noticed that there was poison in the wine before I even drank it. Thus, I drank the poisoned wine on purpose,” Chu Feng said.

“On purpose?”

“Little friend Chu Feng, why did you take the poison on purpose?!” Liu Chengkun had an expression of shock. He did not understand what Chu Feng was thinking.

“I took the poison precisely so that I could make Zhao Ruofan feel that he had prevailed.”

“As for the reason why I dared to take the poison, it is because I possess a body immune to poisons. At the very least, that poison is incapable of causing me harm,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you actually possess a body immune to poison?” Liu Chengkun was even more shocked upon finding out about that.

“Senior Liu, tell me, do you wish to eliminate that Zhao Ruofan?” Chu Feng asked.

“I do. I have found him to be repulsive the entire time. But, Xiaoli, she...” Liu Chengkun was placed in a difficult situation. He seemed to have hidden troubles.

Even without Liu Chengkun explaining things to him, Chu Feng was able to guess that the ‘Xiaoli’ that he spoke of must be the Red Butterfly Society’s President.

However, that was not what was important. What was important was the fact that they currently possessed the opportunity to eliminate Zhao Ruofan. Thus, without the slightest hesitation, Chu Feng said, “This is a great opportunity to eliminate Zhao Ruofan. At the very least, we will be able to deprive him of the authority and status he holds in the Red Butterfly Society.”

“Thus, Senior Liu, you only need to capture that servant girl that had poisoned me. Then, do not alert the enemy for now.”

“It will be fine should we have her tell us what happened. Tomorrow... we will completely expose Zhao Ruofan’s wicked conduct,” Chu Feng said.

“Tomorrow? Why are we not exposing him right now? If we are able to expose Zhao Ruofan’s wicked conduct now, there will be no need for a match tomorrow,” Liu Chengkun said.

“No, I’m going to compete. I must let Zhao Ruofan and everyone else know that I, Chu Feng, possess sufficient qualifications to enter Mount Cloud Crane.”

“I will let them know that I would be able to defeat Zhao Ruofan and obtain the qualifications to train in Mount Cloud Crane even if this didn’t happen,” Chu Feng said.

“Okay then, let’s do as little friend Chu Feng suggests,” Seeing that Chu Feng was determined, Liu Chengkun did not try to urge him against it anymore.

Then, he left to find that servant girl. Originally, that servant girl was planning to escape. However, never did she expect that her actions would’ve been exposed so quickly. Thus, before she could escape, she was captured by Liu Chengkun.

At the beginning, the servant girl was unwilling to admit that she had poisoned Chu Feng. However, after Chu Feng began to narrate the process of how she had poisoned him in clear detail, she was immediately terrified.

She had truly never expected Chu Feng to know all of the details of how she had poisoned him. Thus, without even being tortured, the servant girl admitted to it.

As for the mastermind behind her, it was naturally Zhao Ruofan.

In fact, she had already been bribed by Zhao Ruofan many years ago. She had stayed by Liu Chengkun's side precisely so that she could assist Zhao Ruofan in dealing with him.

"I have trusted you in vain. Not only did you betray me, you even poisoned my honored guest," At that moment, Liu Chengkun was furious. He was fuming with rage between gritted teeth.

He would not mind if that servant girl were to do anything to him. Yet, this servant girl had actually dared to poison Chu Feng; that was something that he could not tolerate.

"Lord Elder, I am sorry. It is all this servant's fault. Over the years, you have treated me extremely well. If Vice President Zhao ordered me to do harm to you, I would not have been able to do it."

"That is why I only agreed to provide information to him, that I would never do anything that would harm you. This time, I poisoned Lord Chu Feng all because of my obsession with riches."

"But, it remains that I have attended to you for all these years. Even if I have never provided any meritorious service, I have still worked hard. I do not have any other requests. I only hope that Lord Elder will give me a quick death," The servant girl knew that she would be killed. Thus, she did not beg for forgiveness, and only begged for a quick death without being tortured.

"You don't have to die. In fact, you can live very pleasantly," Chu Feng said.

“Milord, you’re not going to kill me?” The servant girl was shocked to hear those words.

“As long as you expose Zhao Ruofan before Lady Society President tomorrow, and expose how he had you stay at Elder Liu’s side, as well as all of the things he had you do, I can guarantee you that you will not be killed,” Chu Feng said.

“Lord Elder, is that true?” The servant girl acted as if she did not believe what Chu Feng had said. Thus, she looked to Liu Chengkun.

“How could little friend Chu Feng lie to you?” Liu Chengkun snorted and said with a cold and disappointed tone.

“Lord Chu Feng, thank you for sparing my life. I will definitely follow your orders. You can tell me to do anything. I will definitely expose Zhao Ruofan and tell all of his evil conducts,” The servant girl hurriedly kowtowed to Chu Feng. She was feeling so grateful toward Chu Feng that she was weeping bitter tears.

As for Chu Feng, he smiled lightly. Then, he said, “I do not need you to add details to your story when you’re exposing Zhao Ruofan. It will do if you just tell the truth.”

.....

Chapter 2213 – Breaking Through The Formation

---

“If both sides are ready, the match shall start. However, you two are to decide upon the rules of the match,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“You decide,” Chu Feng said casually to Zhao Ruofan.

“Even if you didn’t say so, it should be me who gets to decide. After all, I have trained in world spirit techniques for much longer than you, and could be considered to be your senior,” Zhao Ruofan sneered. He did not appreciate Chu Feng letting him decide at all.

At that moment, many of the Red Butterfly Society’s elders started to frown. Ever since yesterday, when Zhao Ruofan had had a falling out with their Lady Society President, the crowd discovered that Zhao Ruofan was acting more and more shameless.

Even though they all felt a great amount of disbelief, they faintly had the feeling that these were Zhao Ruofan’s true colors.

At that moment, many people felt disgusted with Zhao Ruofan as their Vice President.

“Enough of your superfluous words. Tell me, how do you want to compete?” Chu Feng said.

“Very simple, an exchange in attack and defense. I will set up a defensive formation for you to breach.”

“If you are able to break through it, it’ll be your win,” Zhao Ruofan said.

“Since that is the case, let’s start,” Chu Feng said.

“I’m not done yet. The time which the two of us are to spend on setting up our world spirit formations must be the same. You must set up your spirit formation to breach my defensive formation in the same amount of time I use to set up my defensive formation. If you spend more time than me, it will be your loss,” Zhao Ruofan added.

“Isn’t that too difficult?” Once Zhao Ruofan said those words, before Chu Feng could even reply, the Red Butterfly Society’s other elders began to spiritedly discuss his proposal. They all felt those rules to be very unfair.

However, Chu Feng smiled lightly and said, “You can start then.”

“You agree to the rules?” Zhao Ruofan was shocked. Even he did not expect Chu Feng to agree to the rules so easily.

“Do you not understand human speech?” Chu Feng said impatiently.

“What arrogance. I will let you experience the abilities of a true Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist,” Zhao Ruofan snorted coldly. Then, he began to set up his defensive spirit formation.

When his boundless world spirit power appeared, many of the people present revealed astonished expressions. Even the Red Butterfly Society’s President acted in such a manner.

The reason for that was because Zhao Ruofan’s methods were truly akin to moving clouds and flowing water. They were so natural, and flowed like calligraphy as they linked with one another. In his hands, that extremely complicated spirit formation appeared to be extremely simple. Effortlessly, he set up his spirit formation.

In merely a short moment, in the time of a count to ten, he had managed to create a defensive spirit formation that looked like a fort. That defensive spirit formation covered Zhao Ruofan within it.

“Chu Feng, I have finished setting up my spirit formation. It is your turn now. Remember, you cannot spend more time than me on setting up your spirit formation,” Zhao Ruofan spoke complacently.

“Done? He actually completed his spirit formation in such a short period of time?” The crowd were all astonished upon hearing those words. However, upon closer inspection, the crowd discovered that the fort dazzling with golden light was truly extremely powerful. It was likely not something that an ordinary rank two Half Martial Ancestor could breach, let alone using only world spirit techniques.

“Zhao Ruofan was actually concealing his abilities before. So this is his actual strength in terms of world spirit techniques,” At that moment, even the Red Butterfly Society’s President was frowning.

As matters stood, she naturally wished for Chu Feng to win. However, as she saw the spirit formation that Zhao Ruofan had set up, even she felt that it would be very difficult for Chu Feng to win. The reason for that was because the spirit formation that Zhao Ruofan had set up possessed an extremely powerful defense even though he spent a very short amount of time to set it up.

In comparison, it was more difficult to break through a spirit formation than it was to set up a defensive spirit formation.

To set up a spirit formation capable of breaking through a defensive formation in the same time it took for the defensive spirit formation to be set up was extremely difficult. Even she did was not certain she would be able to accomplish that.

When even she could not accomplish it, how could Chu Feng possibly be able to?

This was not something that only the Red Butterfly Society’s President was worried about. Liu Chengkun, Huang Luo and many of the Red Butterfly Society’s management elders were also worried about it.

“Open your tiny eyes and watch carefully. Your granddaddy will spend less time setting up my spirit formation than the time you spent to set up your spirit formation.”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng actually said those words. He shocked all of the people present.

Arrogance. He was so arrogant that he could cause people's hair to stand on end. It could be said that he simply did not place Zhao Ruofan in his eyes at all.

At that moment, even those people that were originally standing on Chu Feng's side had a change in gaze. They felt that what Chu Feng said was truly too boastful.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly Chu Feng's hands began to rapidly change. His boundless spirit power began to emerge from his body like golden dragons.

In the end, they actually turned into eighteen golden dragons that spiraled around Chu Feng.

“I'm done,” Chu Feng said.

“Done? Done already?”

Hearing those words, the crowd was astonished. The reason for that was because Chu Feng spent but a mere instant to set up those eighteen golden dragons. If Zhao Ruofan taken ten entire seconds to finish his spirit formation, Chu Feng had finished his spirit formation in merely a single second. This was truly too fast.

To the crowd's greatest surprise, Chu Feng's eighteen golden dragons were all vivid and lifelike. They were emitting intimidating might all over. From their intimidating strength, they really did appear to have surpassed Zhao Ruofan's spirit formation.

“Merely false bravado. What matters in spirit formations is their practicality, and not how artistic they might be,” Zhao Ruofan said.

“How do you know that my spirit formation is not practical?”

Chu Feng asked.

“Your spirit formation will definitely not be able to break through my spirit formation,” Zhao Ruofan said with full confidence. He was not saying those words recklessly. As a world spiritist, he was able to deduce the strength of a spirit formation. The way he saw it, the spirit formation Chu Feng had set up would not be able to break through his defensive spirit formation.

In fact, it was not only Zhao Ruofan who felt that way. The Red Butterfly Society’s President was also shaking her head repeatedly.

The way she saw it, Chu Feng was truly too careless. He was clearly capable of spending more time. Yet, for the sake of face, he decided to finish his spirit formation instantly. She felt that a spirit formation like that would definitely not be able to break through Zhao Ruofan’s defensive formation.

“Are you certain, certain that my spirit formation will not be able to break through your spirit formation?” Chu Feng asked.

“Absolutely certain,” Zhao Ruofan said.

“Then open your dog eyes, and carefully watch how my spirit formation will break through your spirit formation,” Once Chu Feng said those words, his eyes shone with coldness.

“Roar~~~”

Following that, eighteen ear-piercing dragon roars were heard in unison. Following that, the eighteen golden dragons soared into the air and began to fly toward Zhao Ruofan’s spirit formation.

“Rumble~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. That explosion punctured the heavenly dome and shattered the void and space itself.

At that moment, even the extremely sturdy Red Butterfly Society palace hall started to tremble violently.

This scene alarmed the guards stationed in the Red Butterfly

Society. They thought that something had happened. One by one, they hurriedly flew over.

However, after they approached, they all stood there stunned.

It was not only the people that had arrived later that stood there stunned. The people in the palace hall, apart from Chu Feng, were all stunned.

Inside the palace hall, eighteen golden dragons were displaying their impressive power. They were spiraling around Zhao Ruofan. Their killing intent was pressing toward him nonstop. Their dreadful gazes seemed to be saying that they would devour Zhao Ruofan instantly should Chu Feng give the order.

As for the spirit formation that Zhao Ruofan had set up, it had already been shattered, turning into golden light and drifting through the air.

Even though the crowd were all in disbelief and finding it hard to accept, the truth was placed before their eyes.

Chu Feng had successfully broken through the defensive spirit formation!!!

Chapter 2214 – Not Enough For Me To Kill

---

After a long moment, the Red Butterfly Society's President blurted out, "Amazing."

The way she saw it, Chu Feng was truly amazing. He had decided to break through Zhao Ruofan's spirit formation not by trying to find flaws. Instead, he had decided to forcibly shatter it with a powerful slaughtering formation.

However, a slaughtering formation that powerful was something that should be extremely difficult to set up. Yet, Chu Feng had managed to successfully set it up in an instant. She felt that to be truly unimaginable.

At that moment, she and the management elders present all realized that Chu Feng's arrogance was not because he was conceited. Rather, it was because he possessed the capability to be arrogant.

"Impossible! How could this be?!" Zhao Ruofan had a shocked expression.

He was unable to accept the outcome. He was truly unable to accept it, unable to accept that his defensive world spirit formation would be broken through so easily.

Confused, he turned his gaze of blame to his son, Zhao Xuan. His gaze seemed to be asking 'did you really succeed in poisoning Chu Feng?'

As for Zhao Xuan, he was stunned. He had clearly seen Chu Feng drinking the wine and the poison within the wine with his own eyes. Thus, how could he not be affected?

"So your world spirit formation is actually that weak. It would seem... that I have won," Chu Feng mocked.

Once Chu Feng's words were said, not to mention Zhao Ruofan, even the others that wanted Chu Feng to win were stunned.

Won? This match ended this easily?

“Enough of your nonsense. You have merely broken through my defensive spirit formation. This does not mean that I will not be able to break through your defensive spirit formation,” Zhao Ruofan said.

“Oh, I understand then,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he began to set up a spirit formation. In merely a split second, Chu Feng had set up a defensive spirit formation.

The spirit formation he set up was an enormous golden cat. The cat was ten meters tall and sitting on the ground. It had a somewhat hilarious appearance. The reason for that was because the cat was smiling; it was simply a ‘lucky cat.’

However, after the cat appeared, the eyes of the Red Butterfly Society’s President and the other Royal-cloak World Spiritists all shone.

The reason for that was because that cat was most definitely not an ordinary cat.

“You!” Terrified. As a Royal-cloak World Spiritist, Zhao Ruofan was actually terrified.

However, this cannot be blamed on him. After all, even he was able to tell how powerful Chu Feng’s defensive spirit formation was. It was a spirit formation capable of absorbing spirit power, a sort of defensive technique meant to be used against world spirit techniques.

If he was given sufficient time, Zhao Ruofan might be able to break through Chu Feng’s defensive spirit formation. However, it would simply be impossible for him to break through it instantly.

“What’s wrong? Go ahead. The rules shall be the same as what you declared earlier. The time you spend on setting up your spirit formation to break through my defensive spirit formation cannot surpass the time I spent setting up my spirit formation. Else, it would mean that you have lost,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, the strongest method of a world spiritist is not their world spirit techniques. Rather, it is their ability to summon world spirits.”

“The strength of one’s world spirit is the best embodiment of the strength of a world spiritist,” Zhao Ruofan suddenly said.

“You’re implying that you wish to compete with me in terms of world spirits?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. Do you dare?” Zhao Ruofan asked.

“Zhao Ruofan, don’t you act like a sore loser! Everyone knows that a world spiritist’s cultivation is crucial to the strength of the summoned world spirits. After all, world spirits are unwilling to submit to masters inferior to themselves.”

“Little friend Chu Feng is merely a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, whereas you are a rank two Martial Ancestor! With such an enormous difference in cultivation, how could your world spirits be comparable?!” Liu Chengkun shouted.

At that moment, the others also began to spiritedly discuss Zhao Ruofan’s suggestion. They all felt that Zhao Ruofan’s action was that of a sore loser.

After all, he was the one who had suggested that they compete in defensive spirit formations. Yet now, he wanted to change the competition to world spirits instead. This was truly too shameless.

“Haha, I am asking Chu Feng, not you,” Zhao Ruofan snorted coldly. He completely ignored the comments from the crowd. Instead, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Chu Feng, do you dare or not?”

“Chu Feng, don’t be afraid. With this Queen here, how could you admit defeat? Let me take care of him,” Her Lady Queen’s voice was suddenly heard. She was angry. The shameless Zhao Ruofan had invoked Her Lady Queen’s anger.

Hearing that voice, Chu Feng felt that his body was filled with boundless power. It was as if he did not have to fear anything, that nothing could make him cower.

Thus, with full confidence, Chu Feng said, “Go ahead and release your world spirits.”

“Agreed?”

“Chu Feng actually agreed?”

Dumbfounded. Not to mention Liu Chengkun and the others, even Zhao Ruofan, his son and his grandson were all dumbfounded.

Was Chu Feng this bold because he actually possessed the ability, or was it because he lacked the brains?

A mere rank two Half Martial Ancestor dared to compete with a rank two Martial Ancestor with world spirits?

If this was not courting death, then what else could it be?

“As you wish,” However, after a short moment of astonishment, Zhao Ruofan revealed a confident smile.

Once he said those words, he soared into the air and left the vast palace hall. He had flown out.

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

.....

At this time, a total of thirty world spirit gates were opened.

After the thirty world spirit gates appeared, over a hundred world spirits flew out of them in succession.

They were emitting celestial light and imposing airs. It turned out that these world spirits were from the Fairy Spirit World.

Among the Seven Spirit Worlds, the world spirits from the Fairy Spirit World could be considered relatively strong ones. Furthermore, they all possessed a special characteristic — conceit. They all gave off airs of standing above everyone.

However, it must be said that after over a hundred Fairy World Spirits appeared, the majority of the people from the Red Butterfly Society all felt cold sweat for Chu Feng.

Without mentioning the special characteristics of the Fairy Spirit World's world spirits, merely their strength was already enough for the crowd to become worried. The strongest few were rank one Martial Ancestors, whereas the weakest few were rank eight Half Martial Ancestors.

Any random one of them was many times more powerful than Chu Feng. No matter how one looked at it, Chu Feng seemed to be doomed to lose.

“Heh...” However, after seeing those Fairy World Spirits, Liu Chengkun, who had been worried for Chu Feng earlier, actually laughed.

After all, he had personally seen Chu Feng's Asura World Spirit, and knew how powerful she was. Even Hong Xi was killed by her. He felt that these Fairy World Spirits would likely not be a match for her.

With a smile on his face, Zhao Ruofan mocked, “Chu Feng, you couldn't possibly be scared witless, right?” The way he saw it, regardless of how powerful Chu Feng's world spirit techniques might be, he would definitely be no match for him in terms of world spirits.

“I'm afraid of scaring you witless,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he opened a world spirit gate. Her Lady Queen Eggy appeared before the crowd in a stunning manner.

“That's a world spirit? How could it be that beautiful?” Sure enough, after seeing Eggy, the people present, regardless of whether they were men or women, were all stunned by Eggy's exceptional beauty.

After all, her beauty was so rarely seen in the world. Even women were attracted by her beauty. As for men, there was no need to mention them.

“How are they to fight?” However, at the moment when the crowd were all stunned by Eggy's beauty, some among them started to become worried. After all, Eggy's cultivation of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor was truly too weak.

Although a rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level world spirit would be extremely powerful for Chu Feng's cultivation, there was too enormous of a gap when compared to Zhao Ruofan's world spirits.

“Hahaha, rank six Half Martial Ancestor. Are you certain you have not dispatched that world spirit to her death?” Zhao Ruofan laughed mockingly. For a rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level world spirit to fight against his army of world spirits would definitely be an overestimation of their ability.

“Hey hey hey, and here I thought how amazing an Asura World Spirit might be. Turns out, it's nothing more than trash.”

“However, it must be said that little girl, your appearance is quite decent. With the way you look, we are truly unable to bear killing you. How about you admit defeat right now, and we'll spare your life?”

It was not only Zhao Ruofan who started to mock Chu Feng. His Fairy Spirit World's world spirits actually began to mock Her Lady Queen. At that moment, they simply did not appear like a bunch of Fairy World Spirits. Rather, they looked more like a bunch of hoodlums.

“One, two, three, four, five, six, seven...” However, at that moment, Her Lady Queen actually began counting.

“Little girl, what are you doing?”

“Could it be that you’ve been scared witless by us?” The Fairy World Spirits asked in confusion.

However, Eggy ignored them. It was only when she counted till a hundred and seven that she stopped.

“We’re asking you a question here! What are you doing?!” The Fairy World Spirits said impatiently.

At that moment, an ice-cold killing intent suddenly flashed through Eggy’s eyes. She said, “With merely this many, it’s simply not enough for this Queen to kill.”

“What? What did you say?” The Fairy World Spirits all opened their eyes wide. They did not dare to believe what they just heard.

“Boom~~~”

Right at that moment, dark black gaseous flames instantly exploded. Like the devil’s claws, the black gaseous flames extended toward the hundred and seven Fairy World Spirits.

The Grim Reaper’s scythe was fixed onto them.

Chapter 2215 – Complete Defeat And Fall From Grace

---

“Stop!”

Sensing that the situation was bad, Zhao Ruofan shouted and planned to interfere. He was planning to save his hundred-plus world spirits.

After all, Eggy had unleashed her killing intent. If he didn't interfere, his hundred-plus world spirits would definitely be killed.

“Impudent!”

However, right at that moment, a loud shout was heard. That shout caused space and the void itself to tremble.

At the same time, a boundless power also swept forth. In a flash, that power sealed off Zhao Ruofan's power and formed an invisible cage around him.

Zhao Ruofan was unable to attack or cause any harm.

It was the Red Butterfly Society's President. Even though she was only a rank one Martial Ancestor, and might appear to be inferior to Zhao Ruofan, her body was currently flickering with purple light. She looked like a celestial fairy.

It turned out that she was actually a Divine Body. Not only was she a Divine Body, she was also capable of increasing her cultivation by a level through the use of her Divine Power.

Having activated her Divine Power, her current cultivation was that of a rank two Martial Ancestor, the same level of cultivation as Zhao Ruofan.

However, her battle power was stronger than Zhao Ruofan's. Zhao Ruofan was only an ordinary rank two Martial Ancestor without any heaven-defying battle power.

She, on the other hand, was someone who possessed heaven-defying battle power.

Although her heaven-defying battle power was only capable of surmounting a single level of cultivation, when added on to her current cultivation of a rank two Martial Ancestor, she was capable of fighting against ordinary rank three Martial Ancestors. Thus, she would naturally be able to subdue Zhao Ruofan, a mere ordinary rank two Martial Ancestor.

“Eeeaahh~~~”

At the moment Zhao Ruofan was stopped, miserable screams began to be heard from the sky.

Massacre. A hair-raising massacre was currently happening.

The people present were all people that had seen major events. They were all people that have seen killings and massacres before.

However, the massacre that was happening right now caused them to tremble with fear.

Not only was the killer a beautiful young girl, her killing methods were also extremely ruthless.

Cruel. Although the hundred-plus Fairy World Spirits were killed in but a short moment, they all met with extremely cruel and miserable deaths. Before dying, they were all filled with cuts and bruises.

“Are there any more world spirits? This Queen has not yet killed enough,” After killing all of Zhao Ruofan’s world spirits, Her Lady Queen mocked him.

She did not feel the slightest bit of guilt in killing those world spirits. Instead, joy filled her face. It was as if killing was a very merry thing to her.

“You!!!” Zhao Ruofan was so furious that his body trembled nonstop. Only he knew how much effort he had put into contracting those world spirits.

Yet now, they were all killed by Eggy. His meticulous efforts of many years were all ruined today.

“Seems like there aren’t any more. With merely this bit of ability, I truly don’t know where you got the confidence to compete with Chu Feng in terms of world spirit techniques.”

“Could it be that you’ve gone senile?” Eggy mocked. She did not care about Zhao Ruofan’s twitching lips, or his expression as if he had been fed feces. Just like that, she confidently, beautifully and charmingly walked into the world spirit gate before disappearing from everyone’s line of sight.

“Lady Society President, why did you stop me from saving my world spirits?” Zhao Ruofan asked angrily. As matters stood, he no longer cared about offending the Red Butterfly Society’s President. There was not the slightest trace of respect in his tone. Instead, he only wanted to obtain justice.

“Why?” The Red Butterfly Society’s President smiled coldly. She said, “Earlier, you had clearly stated that you would compete in defensive spirit formations. However, you ended up losing. Yet, you refused to admit your defeat, and insisted that Chu Feng set up a defensive spirit formation for you to attempt to breach.”

“Chu Feng did not bicker with you, and set up one such spirit formation. Yet, what did you do? You did not even dare to attempt to try breaching it.”

“Why did you not dare? It’s because you knew that you would not be able to set up a spirit formation that could break through Chu Feng’s defensive spirit formation in such a short period of time.”

“Thus, you decided to withdraw your previous remark, and demanded that Chu Feng compete with you with world spirits. Furthermore, you even declared that Chu Feng’s world spirit was merely a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, and was merely seeking death by coming out. This meant that you had already decided to kill Chu Feng's world spirit."

"However, after the world spirits began to fight, you discovered that your world spirits were no match for Chu Feng's world spirit. Thus, you actually planned to personally interfere, planned to use your power to ruin the contest between the world spirits."

"Let me ask you, as the Red Butterfly Society's Vice President, do you not think that your actions and deeds today have been extremely disgraceful?"

"..." Zhao Ruofan was left speechless. He knew fully well how shameless he had been today.

"It would seem that Vice President Zhao doesn't have anything to say. However, I do have things to say. May I speak?" Chu Feng said.

"Chu Feng, there is no harm in you saying what you want to say," The Red Butterfly Society's President said with a beaming smile. Her attitude toward Chu Feng was extremely good now.

If she had only decided to help Chu Feng because of Liu Chengkun before, now, after personally seeing Chu Feng's world spirit techniques, she firmly believed that Chu Feng's world spirit techniques far surpassed her own.

She felt that a person like Chu Feng most definitely possessed unbounded potential, and would be able to accomplish great things in the future.

Right now, without even her master telling her, she herself wanted to befriend Chu Feng. After all, a genius like him was someone rarely seen in even ten thousand years.

"Vice President Zhao could be said to have put forth meticulous effort for today's competition. Perhaps everyone present is unaware of this, but his action of repeatedly going back on his word and changing the rules of the competition are merely cheap tricks.”

“He already used his main trick on me last night,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, why is it that I do not understand what you are implying?” Some elders asked in confusion.

“Senior Liu, please,” Chu Feng said to Liu Chengkun.

“Liuzhu, get out here!” Liu Chengkun shouted.

Then, that servant girl walked out. She bowed to the crowd present.

Upon seeing that servant girl, the expressions of Zhao Ruofan and Zhao Xuan changed enormously.

‘What’s going on? Why would she be here? Could it be that the poisoning has been exposed?’

‘No, that’s impossible. The plan went off flawlessly. How could it have been exposed?’

Even though they were panicking, Zhao Ruofan and Zhao Xuan still held a trace of hope in their hearts. They hoped that all of this was merely a coincidence.

“Lady Society President, Elders, this servant deserves to be punished to death. I should not have given in to Vice President Zhao and Lord Zhao Xuan’s threats and poisoned Lord Chu Feng’s wine,” Suddenly, that servant girl fell to her knees.

“Putt~~~”

Zhao Ruofan sat on the ground. He was completely stunned.

It was not a coincidence. That servant girl had already admitted to it. This was most definitely not a coincidence. Their crimes were actually really exposed.

“Outrageous servant! You dare to frame us father and son?! You shall be killed!!!” Zhao Ruofan shouted angrily. Then, he planned to kill that servant girl.

“Boom~~~”

However, a loud explosion was heard. That servant girl was not injured. Instead, Zhao Ruofan was knocked several steps back. Even though he managed to stabilize himself, scarlet blood was flowing from the corner of his mouth.

“I am still alive, how could I allow you to behave this atrociously?!” The Red Butterfly Society’s President shouted furiously. Then, she looked to the servant girl and said, “What happened? Tell me honestly.”

As for that servant girl, she did not attempt to conceal anything, and spoke of the course of events in detail to the crowd present.

Not only did that servant girl confess, she also took out evidence against Zhao Ruofan and Zhao Xuan. Faced with this irrefutable evidence, Zhao Ruofan and his son were unable to argue.

“Truly never would I have expected Vice President Zhao to be this sort of person,” The tongues of the elders present were wagging. Disdain filled their eyes as they looked to Zhao Ruofan, Zhao Xuan and even Zhao Xiao.

“Boom~~~”

A bolt from the blue. Not only was Zhao Xuan stunned, Zhao Xiao was also stunned. They both fell onto their butts.

It was a complete defeat and fall from grace. Likely, from today on, the three of them, grandfather, son and grandson, would no longer be able to remain in the Red Butterfly Society.

“Zhao Ruofan, I trusted you and appointed you as our Red Butterfly Society’s Vice President in vain.”

“Never would I have thought that you were this despicable. For your own personal interest, you actually did such a thing. You truly deserve to die,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President lashed out at Zhao Ruofan angrily.

“Deserve to die? If you have the ability, go ahead and kill me. I shall see if my older cousin will let you, will let the Red Butterfly Society, get away with it!” Zhao Ruofan shouted.

Chapter 2216 – Arrival Of Ill-intended Guests

---

“Don’t you use your older cousin to frighten me. You are a part of our Red Butterfly Society. As such, I am qualified to punish you as per the rules of our Red Butterfly Society.”

“This is our Red Butterfly Society’s domestic affair. No one will be able to interfere with it,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Domestic affairs? Haha. Very well. Then go ahead and kill me, go ahead and kill my son and grandson.”

“I shall see whether or not a second tier power like the Sunset Cloud Valley will be able to interfere in the domestic affairs of a third tier power like the Red Butterfly Society,” Zhao Ruofan said.

“Sunset Cloud Valley?” Upon hearing those three words, the expressions of many elders changed enormously. They all revealed fear.

At this moment, even the Red Butterfly Society’s President was left speechless. The killing intent that she had revealed earlier started to slowly dissipate.

“Sunset Cloud Valley?” Upon hearing those three words, Chu Feng’s eyes shone. After all, he had heard of that place from that woman called Xu Yiyi.

This Zhao Ruofan was the second person to mention the Sunset Cloud Valley. Furthermore, Chu Feng had already noticed that the Sunset Cloud Valley seemed to be Zhao Ruofan’s hidden trump card that he had been relying on the entire time.

“Senior Liu, exactly what is that Sunset Cloud Valley? What sort of relationship does it have with Zhao Ruofan?” Chu Feng sent a voice transmission to ask Liu Chengkun.

“The influential powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm could be separated into three tiers. Our Red Butterfly Society could be considered to be a third tier power, whereas the Sunset Cloud Valley is a second tier power.”

“The Sunset Cloud Valley is very powerful. It is an existence that our Red Butterfly Society cannot compare to. Even Luyang’s Pavilion, that huge monster, has submitted to the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“As for Zhao Ruofan, he possesses a distant relative, that older cousin that he mentioned, that is a management elder in the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“It is because of that older cousin that our Lady Society President yields to him so much,” Liu Chengkun informed Chu Feng through voice transmission.

“No wonder he dares to act this arrogantly. Sure enough, he has backing,” Chu Feng started to frown slightly. Although Zhao Ruofan was a worthless nobody, since he had such backing, it would truly be difficult to take care of him. After all, this matter concerned the continued existence of the Red Butterfly Society. It was no longer a matter of Chu Feng’s personal life and death.

“Humph,” Seeing that the people from the Red Butterfly Society were somewhat terrified, the complacent expression on Zhao Ruofan’s aged face grew even denser.

“You two, get up! Do not shame our Zhao Family!” Zhao Ruofan shouted at his son and grandson.

Zhao Xuan and Zhao Xiao hurriedly stood up. Before, they were extremely frightened. However, now, they were confident.

“Zhao Ruofan, with your character, our Red Butterfly Society will no longer shelter you. However, taking into account your previous contributions, I will not punish you too extremely.”

“However, you and Zhao Xuan are to be expelled from our Red Butterfly Society today,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said coldly.

“Liu Xiaoli, I might as well tell you things bluntly. My older cousin has said that as long as I leave the Red Butterfly Society, the Sunset Cloud Valley will assist Luyang’s Pavilion and eliminate the Red Butterfly Society.”

“Why do you think that your Red Butterfly Society was able to survive till today after fighting against Luyang’s Pavilion for so long? It was all because of me, Zhao Ruofan, being here,” Zhao Ruofan sneered.

“Do not use your older cousin to threaten me. Till this date, your older cousin has not helped our Red Butterfly Society with anything,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Then go ahead and try expelling me from the Red Butterfly Society. However... you shall bear the consequences of your actions,” Zhao Ruofan said confidently.

The Red Butterfly Society’s President frowned. She did not dare to take that risk. At this moment, she was at a loss as to what to do.

The reason for that was because she had been scared by Zhao Ruofan’s threat.

“Liu Xiaoli, if you have me continue to stay in the Red Butterfly Society, it will only be beneficial and not detrimental to the Red Butterfly Society.”

“Furthermore, little friend Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques indeed surpass my own. It is also reasonable and fair for him to proceed to Mount Cloud Crane. However, his world spirit techniques are most definitely above yours too.”

“Thus, you might as well have little friend Chu Feng proceed to Mount Cloud Crane together with me,” Zhao Ruofan said.

“Clamor~~~”

Once Zhao Ruofan said those words, the management elders present immediately started discussing it.

Zhao Ruofan was actually forcing their Lady Society president to hand over her own invitation to him. That was a rebellious behavior against one's superior, something truly unforgivable.

"Can you guarantee that the Sunset Cloud Valley will be willing to take our Red Butterfly Society as their subsidiary power should I hand the invitation to you? That they will help our Red Butterfly Society eliminate Luyang's Pavilion?" The Red Butterfly Society's President asked.

"Of course. If I cannot accomplish that, you can kill me then," Zhao Ruofan said confidently.

"Society President, while I am fine with not having the invitation, you absolutely cannot hand an invitation to Zhao Ruofan. There is absolutely no credit to his words, he is simply untrustable," Chu Feng said.

"You are not qualified to butt into our Red Butterfly Society's domestic matters," Zhao Ruofan shouted at Chu Feng.

"Then what about us? We, the management elders, are qualified to butt in, no?" Liu Chengkun asked with glaring eyes.

"Vice President Zhao, it must be said that your actions have been too excessive today. It was you who put forth the suggestion to compete with little friend Chu Feng in world spirit techniques. In the end, not only did you lose, you actually dare to demand Lady Society President's invitation. Your action is simply a rebellion against your superior."

The other management elders also started to reprimand Zhao Ruofan. After all, they were members of the Red Butterfly Society. Thus, they were unable to tolerate Zhao Ruofan's actions.

"Humph," However, Zhao Ruofan scoffed at the crowd's reaction. Then, he turned to the Red Butterfly Society's President and said, “I have said all that I should. You can decide your actions.”

“I can hand you the invitation. However, should you dare to deceive me, I will definitely take your life,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“Lady Society President, you mustn’t,” In response, Liu Chengkun and the others all began to advise against it.

“Say no more. I have decided,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President waved her hand. For the sake of the Red Butterfly Society’s future, she had decided to sacrifice her treasured opportunity.

“As expected of the Society President, you are truly sensible,” Zhao Ruofan revealed a complacent gaze. Then, he took a mocking gaze at Liu Chengkun, Chu Feng and the others.

His gaze seemed to be saying ‘So what if you won against me in this world spirit techniques match? So what if you have ruined my reputation completely? I still obtained the invitation to Mount Cloud Crane. Furthermore, I snatched it from the Lady Society president.’

“Snap~~~”

Seeing that sort of provocative gaze, Liu Chengkun tightly clenched his fist, causing it to give off cracking echos.

Anger. How could he not be angry? Even though he knew that Zhao Ruofan was a vile character, he was unable to do anything to him. This caused him to feel extremely sullen.

It was not only him. The Red butterfly Society’s President was also sullen. The Red Butterfly Society’s management elders were also sullen.

It could be said that all of the people in the Red Butterfly Society were feeling extremely sullen.

However, there was truly nothing else they could do. This was the truth. After all, Zhao Ruofan possessed the backing of a Sunset Cloud Valley's management elder.

"Lady Society President, this is bad!!!" Right at this moment, a person rushed in with a panicky expression.

"What happened? Why are you making a big fuss?!" The Red Butterfly Society's President shouted furiously.

She was not angry because of the person that had rushed in. Rather, she shouted furiously because she wanted to vent the anger in her heart.

"Lady Society President, the Luyang's Pavilion is here! They currently have us surrounded! It's not only Luyang's Pavilion, even the Sunset Cloud Valley is here!" That person spoke in a panicky manner.

"Are you serious?!" The Red Butterfly Society's President asked.

"This subordinate would not dare deceive Lady Society President. Right now, they have completely surrounded us. Lady Society President, what should we do?!" That person asked.

In response, the Red Butterfly Society's President flipped her palm. Then, a watermelon-sized crystal ball appeared. The scene of the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters' surroundings appeared on the crystal ball.

At this moment, the expressions of everyone present changed enormously. In an instant, some people turned pale, and some were even shivering with fear.

What appeared was indeed Luyang's Pavilion's army. Furthermore, it was not only Luyang's Pavilion, the Sunset Cloud Valley was also present. At this moment, they had surrounded the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters, sealing it off completely.

Furthermore, anyone could tell that they had come with ill-intentions.

“Zhao Ruofan! Speak! Exactly what is going on here?!” The Red Butterfly Society’s President was furious. She grabbed Zhao Ruofan’s by his lapel.

“This... this... this...” Zhao Ruofan, who had been feeling immensely proud of himself earlier, was completely stunned now. Not to mention explaining, he was unable to even finish a single sentence.

What sort of situation was this? Exactly what sort of situation was this?

Not to mention the others, even he did not know what was going on!!!

Chapter 2217 – Well-deserved Death

---

“Tell me, exactly what is going on here?! Why would the Sunset Cloud Valley be helping Luyang’s Pavilion attack us?!”

“Didn’t you say that the Sunset Cloud Valley wouldn’t do anything because your older cousin is there?!”

At this moment, the Red Butterfly Society’s President was emitting overflowing killing intent. If Zhao Ruofan did not give her a reasonable justification, she would definitely kill him on the spot.

“Misunderstanding, this must be a misunderstanding. Lady Society President, please let me out to talk to them. Perhaps this might really be a misunderstanding,” Zhao Ruofan said while trembling with fear.

“Lady Society President, maybe you should let him try talking to them, Else...” A management elder sighed helplessly.

If the Sunset Cloud Valley was truly helping Luyang’s Pavilion against them, they would definitely be killed today.

Perhaps the only opportunity for them to live would be to rely on Zhao Ruofan. After all, his older cousin was a management elder in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at this moment, heaven and earth started to tremble violently. The people from Luyang’s Pavilion had started attacking.

“Follow me out,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President brought Zhao Ruofan and flew out.

In response, the other management elders followed them out.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this matter is unrelated to you. I will think of a way to bring you away,” Liu Chengkun said to Chu Feng.

“Senior Liu, I cannot run away. Perhaps that Luyang’s Pavilion has not come for the Red Butterfly Society, but me instead,” As Chu Feng spoke, he flew into the air and started to chase after the Red Butterfly Society’s President and the others.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you...!!!” Liu Chengkun had originally wanted to stop him. However, seeing how determined Chu Feng was, he ended up sighing before flying after Chu Feng.

At this moment, Chu Feng and the Red Butterfly Society’s management elders and elites had all arrived in the sky.

After they personally saw the many experts from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the grand army from Luyang’s Pavilion, they began to feel even more uneasy.

If this battle were to truly commence, their Red Butterfly Society would definitely have no chance of surviving. Without mentioning the army from Luyang’s Pavilion, merely the Sunset Cloud Valley’s experts would be sufficient to completely eliminate their Red Butterfly Society.

“You all are quite courageous to actually show up here,” Chu Luyang was standing at the front of Luyang’s Pavilion’s army, and coldly swept his gaze over the people from the Red Butterfly Society. Contained in his eyes was the anger that he had accumulated over the years, as well as complacency in being able to secure certain victory.

“Mn?” Suddenly, Chu Luyang revealed a gaze with even greater hatred.

His eyes were on Chu Feng!!!

Chu Luyang pointed to Chu Feng and asked, “Are you... Chu Feng?”

Although he felt enormous hatred toward Chu Feng, this was still the first time that he had seen Chu Feng face to face. His impression of Chu Feng remained only on the portraits drawn by the people that had seen Chu Feng before. That was why he needed to ask to confirm Chu Feng's identity.

In response, Chu Feng wanted to admit to it. However, Liu Chengkun pulled Chu Feng away and indicated to him not to admit to it.

"It is I," However, Chu Feng still admitted to it.

"Very well. Truly, your fame does not compare to seeing you for myself," Even though Chu Luyang had tried his hardest to conceal his hatred, his killing intent was involuntarily leaking out from him.

"Go and speak," Sensing that the situation was bad, the Red Butterfly Society's President signaled to Zhao Ruofan with her eyes. Furthermore, she secretly held Zhao Ruofan's life in her hands. If Zhao Ruofan dared to attempt escape, she would immediately kill him.

As this matter concerned his life, Zhao Ruofan hurriedly asked, "Misunderstanding, could there be a misunderstanding?"

"Who the hell are you? What makes you think that you're qualified to speak to me?" Chu Luyang said with contempt. He was able to tell that Zhao Ruofan was not the boss of the Red Butterfly Society.

"Wait a moment," Right at this moment, an extremely thin old man wearing the Sunset Cloud Valley's outfit walked out.

"Older cousin, so you were here. This is truly great. Please tell them of our relationship. Exactly what is going on here?" Upon seeing that old man, Zhao Ruofan was overjoyed. The reason for that was because that old man was his distant older cousin.

Upon hearing what Zhao Ruofan said, the people from the Red Butterfly Society were all secretly delighted. It was as if they had seen a trace of hope to live.

After all, the person Zhao Ruofan was relying on was present.

In this manner, the misunderstandings would be explained more easily.

“My foolish little brother, do you still not understand the situation now? Did you truly think that I will help your Red Butterfly Society?”

“I might as well tell you the truth. The reason why I asked you about the location of the Red Butterfly Society was precisely so that I could help Luyang’s Pavilion eliminate your Red Butterfly Society in a single stroke.”

“As for you, do not blame me for not taking our old affection into consideration. After all, the battlefield is a heartless place, and the two of us belong to different factions. Thus, I will not act leniently toward you,” That Elder Zhao said with a beaming smile.

“Boom~~~”

It was like a bolt from the blue. Upon hearing those words, Zhao Ruofan collapsed on the spot.

He had never expected that the person he had trusted and relied on the entire time, his older cousin, would actually be exploiting him, and had the intention of killing him.

“So it was you who sold us out! You damned absolute disgrace! I will dismember your body into ten thousand pieces!!!!” At this moment, the Red Butterfly Society’s President was overflowing with killing intent. Without saying anything more, she shot forth her palm and surrounded Zhao Ruofan with her boundless Ancestral-level martial power.

Then, her martial power turned into blades that pierced Zhao Ruofan’s body. She was planning to split him apart alive.

“Older cousin, save me! Please consider the fact that we are relatives!” Even though he was left in a very petty and low situation, Zhao Ruofan knew that his older cousin was the only person that could save him now.

“Relative? You’re nothing more than a distant relative. As far as I’m concerned, your life is of no value at all,” That Elder Zhao said indifferently. Even though he was smiling as he said those words, his words had revealed how treacherous and ruthless he was.

“Ahhh~~~”

Right at this moment, Zhao Ruofan let out a heart-tearing and lung-splitting scream. It was an extremely miserable scream.

The Red Butterfly Society’s President was planning to kill him. However, she did not plan to let him die easily. Instead, she planned to make him suffer before dying. Else, she would not be able to alleviate the anger in her heart.

As for Zhao Ruofan, not only did the people from the Red Butterfly Society not feel any sympathy for him, even the outsiders did not feel any sympathy for him.

This was especially true for the people of the Red Butterfly Society. When they saw what was happening to Zhao Ruofan, they all felt a sense of satisfaction.

“Pah, you deserve it,” In fact, there were even management elders that started to spit at Zhao Ruofan.

Miserable. Zhao Ruofan was truly miserable. However, it was as that management elder had said, he deserved it.

“Boom~~~”

Following a muffled explosion, Zhao Ruofan’s body shattered to pieces. He was completely killed.

“And here I thought that the Red Butterfly Society was a power devoted to righteousness. It turns out that you’re also this ruthless.”

“If my guess is correct, you must be the Red Butterfly Society’s President, right?” Chu Luyang said mockingly.

“Enough of your rubbish. The ruler is the king, and the loser the thief. Today, I admit defeat.”

“However, all of the operations against your Luyang’s Pavilion were arranged by me. If you have any grievances, aim them toward me. Do not harm the others,” The Red Butterfly Society’s President said.

“You’re telling me to cut the grass but not eliminate the roots, to leave behind future troubles, is that right?”

“Let me ask you this then: do I really look like a brainless idiot?” Chu Luyang smiled mockingly. Then, he shouted, “Men! Eliminate the Red Butterfly Society! Leave not a single fowl or dog alive!!!”

Once Chu Luyang’s command was spoken, Luyang’s Pavilion’s elites, as well as the many Sunset Cloud Valley’s elders all revealed their weapons and unleashed their boundless killing intent. They were planning to unleash a slaughter.

Their killing intent surged forth from all directions and caused everyone to feel a fatal threat.

Death. Today, they were destined to be killed. Not a single one of them would be able to escape.

At this moment, the Red Butterfly Society’s President, Liu Chengkun and the many people present all closed their eyes.

They knew that resistance was futile. Thus, they had decided to give up on resisting. One by one, they made the preparations to die.

Merely, they were unreconciled. They were unreconciled to die just like this.

“All of you, stay your hands,” Right at this moment, an extremely imposing voice sounded. That voice caused space itself to tremble violently, and the legs of the crowd present to grow soft.

After that voice was heard, the expressions of the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and Luyang's Pavilion all changed. They immediately retrieved their weapons and their boundless killing intent.

Then, respectfully, they bowed toward the direction where the voice was heard. At the same time, they said, "We pay our respects to Elder Su!!!"

Chinese families used to live in places called 'courtyards.' Back then, raising chickens and having dogs would be common. So killing even the chickens and dogs would mean utter extermination of the family.

Chapter 2218 – Get Along Peacefully

---

The sudden unforeseen event caused the crowd from the Red Butterfly Society to be at a complete loss.

Only Chu Feng, who had kept his eyes open the entire time, managed to see what had happened. All of this was caused by the appearance of an old man.

It was an old man whose body was giving off an abnormal sign.

A sunset-like glow was lingering around his body. He emitted an extremely domineering air. Especially his cultivation, it was so unfathomably powerful. However, one thing was certain; he was stronger than every person present here.

Faced with this old man, not to mention the others, even the seemingly undisciplined and out-of-control Chu Luyang had an expression of humbleness.

All of this demonstrated that the old man was an extraordinary existence.

Furthermore, a beautiful woman was following beside him.

After seeing that woman, Chu Feng's eyes immediately shone. The reason for that was because that woman was Xu Yiyi.

"It's her?" Chu Feng was extremely surprised to see Xu Yiyi. Although he knew that she was a member of the Sunset Cloud Valley, he had not expected her to appear here.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that this was definitely not a coincidence. At the very least, he felt that that elder had not ordered the armies from Luyang's Pavilion and the Sunset Cloud Valley to stop for no reason.

"Chu Feng, long time no see," Xu Yiyi said to Chu Feng with a smile on her face. Her attitude was very amiable. It was as if she had just met a friend that she had not seen for a very long time.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you know her?” At that moment, everyone from the Red Butterfly Society looked to Chu Feng with astonished expressions.

Their gazes were both of shock and joy. They all faintly realized that the reason why they were still alive might be because of that young lady.

“It doesn’t seem to have been that long a time since we last met, no?” Chu Feng said with a light smile. His reply brought extreme joy to all of the people in the Red Butterfly Society.

Evidently, their guesses were correct. Chu Feng knew that woman. Furthermore, judging from the appearance of that woman, she was most definitely not someone ordinary. Perhaps they would be able to escape a calamity today.

“To me, it’s been a long time,” Xu Yiyi said with a light smile.

“Why would you be here?” Chu Feng asked.

“I originally only came here to enjoy the show. However now, you should be thanking me,” Xu Yiyi said.

“Thank?” Upon hearing that word, the crowd were all startled.

“Master, it’s time for you to speak, no?” Xu Yiyi shook that Elder Su’s arm coquettishly.

“Rest assured,” That Elder Su smiled lightly. Then, he looked to the Red Butterfly Society and said, “Who is the leader of the Red Butterfly Society?”

Liu Xiaoli took several steps forward, then bowed respectfully as she answered, “Milord, junior Liu Xiaoli is the President of the Red Butterfly Society.”

It was not that Liu Xiaoli was scared. Rather, when facing someone like that, Liu Xiaoli did not dare to be neglectful. Furthermore, she realized that this old man might be able to save their Red Butterfly Society.

“Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master and the Red Butterfly Society’s President, listen up.”

“From today on, Luyang’s Pavilion and the Red Butterfly Society must get along peacefully. You are not allowed to fight anymore.”

“If any party is to do otherwise, our Sunset Cloud Valley will personally extinguish that party,” Xu Yiyi’s master declared.

“Elder Su, this... this...” Chu Luyang had an astonished expression. He was stunned completely speechless.

The Sunset Cloud Valley had clearly come here to assist his Luyang’s Pavilion in eliminating the Red Butterfly Society. Why would it turn out this way?

“What’s wrong? Do you have any objections with what I said?” Xu Yiyi’s master turned his displeased gaze toward Chu Luyang.

Upon seeing that gaze, Chu Luyang’s heart trembled. In the end, even though he was filled with unwillingness, he could only lower his head and make this compromise. Respectfully, he said, “Luyang wouldn’t dare.”

“Since you do not dare, then make sure to implement this rigorously. If I am to discover that Luyang’s Pavilion still dares to attack the Red Butterfly Society, I will definitely make your Luyang’s Pavilion cease to exist.”

“Red Butterfly Society, this holds the same for you too. Understand?” Xu Yiyi’s master declared.

After he finished saying those words, Xu Yiyi’s master turned around and entered the war chariot. He was planning to leave.

“Catch,” As for Xu Yiyi, she waved her sleeve and tossed a title plate to Chu Feng.

“What is this?” Chu Feng caught the title plate and asked curiously.

“That is our Sunset Cloud Valley’s Death Exemption Title Plate.

With that title plate in hand, no one in our Sunset Cloud Valley or our Sunset Cloud Valley's subsidiary powers will dare to do anything to you. Else, it would mean that they are disrespecting my master," Xu Yiyi said.

"It's actually a Death Exemption Title Plate?" After hearing those words, the expressions of all the crowd present changed enormously. Even the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley had a change in expression. After all, not even they possessed a Death Exemption Title Plate.

'Exactly where did that Chu Feng obtain his dog shit luck to be able to receive this sort of treatment?!' Chu Luyang was most definitely the most furious person of everyone here.

They were clearly here to eliminate the Red Butterfly Society. Yet, it turned into a forced peaceful coexistence. He was willing to disregard all of that.

However, that Sunset Cloud Valley's Death Exemption Title Plate was something that he was unable to accept.

He had spent an enormous amount of wealth and tried to make connections all for the sake of obtaining one such Death Exemption Title Plate. However, even after spending all that effort, he had still not obtained one.

Yet, Chu Feng had actually managed to obtain one that easily. How could he possibly accept that?

"Yiyi, let's go," Xu Yiyi's master's voice sounded from within the war chariot.

Xu Yiyi smiled sweetly at Chu Feng and then flew into the war chariot.

At that moment, Chu Feng truly wanted to express his thanks to Xu Yiyi. He had truly never expected that Xu Yiyi would do this sort of thing for him.

Unfortunately, Xu Yiyi left too quickly, and simply did not give him the time to thank her.

At that moment, Xu Yiyi had already entered the war chariot. With a beaming smile, she said to her master, “Thank you master. I never expected that you would agree to my unreasonable demand.”

“Unreasonable? Indeed, it is a bit unreasonable.”

“However, something like this is something that I can settle with a single sentence. Since it is beneficial to you, there is no reason for me to not do it,” Her master said.

“Master, you are the best to me,” Xu Yiyi smiled very happily. Then, she raised her head and said, “Why didn’t you ask me why I wanted to help that Chu Feng?”

“What if I did, and what if I didn’t? As long as you’re happy, it doesn’t matter,” Her master said.

“Master, you are the person who treats me the best in this entire world!!!” Xu Yiyi hugged her master’s arm tightly.

As for her master, he started to gently caress Xu Yiyi’s long hair with a smile on his face. His gaze was filled with pampering love. It was as if he was a gentle father looking at his daughter.

.....

The army from Luyang’s Pavilion and the Sunset Cloud Valley withdrew from the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters.

However, the people from the Red Butterfly Society were still in a panicky state. They were still unable to calm themselves. It was as if they were unable to believe that the Luyang’s Pavilion army would’ve really left, that they really managed to escape a calamity.

“Chu Feng, please accept my respect,” Suddenly, Liu Xiaoli publicly half kneeled and bowed to Chu Feng.

“Society President, what are you doing?” Chu Feng asked in confusion.

“If it wasn’t for you, today, our Red Butterfly Society would’ve definitely been extinguished. It was you who saved us,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Thank you little friend Chu Feng for saving us,” At that moment, everyone from the Red Butterfly Society half knelt in the sky and bowed to Chu Feng.

“Society President, Senior Liu, seniors, please get up,” Chu Feng hurriedly helped Liu Xiaoli up.

After Liu Xiaoli got back up, the elders and elites from the Red Butterfly Society stood up in succession.

“Chu Feng, you do not have to be embarrassed. We know that if it wasn’t for you, our Red Butterfly Society would have been eliminated today.”

“Merely, I have one thing that I am very curious about. Do you know who your friend’s master is?” Liu Xiaoli asked. The other elders also raised their ears to wait for Chu Feng’s response.

They were all able to tell that Xu Yiyi’s master was most definitely an extraordinary character.

Chapter 2219 – Tier One Powers

---

“I have heard from her that her master’s name is Su Jingrui,” Chu Feng said.

“It’s actually Su Jingrui?” Hearing that name, Liu Xiaoli, Liu Chengkun and the others all revealed astonished expressions.

“No wonder, no wonder they addressed him as ‘elder’ and not ‘Valley Master’,” Liu Xiaoli said with a low voice.

“Exactly who is that Su Jingrui?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“You don’t know?” Liu Xiaoli and the others were even more shocked.

“I don’t,” Chu Feng shook his head with a smile.

“That Su Jingrui is the strongest person in the Sunset Cloud Valley apart from the Valley Master,” A management elder said.

“No, I’ve heard that Su Jingrui’s strength is not weaker than the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master,” Liu Chengkun said.

“In short, that Su Jingrui is extremely powerful. Regardless of whether it is his status or his strength, they are both extremely high in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

“With him supporting the Red Butterfly Society, Luyang’s Pavilion will likely not dare to do anything to us either.”

“As for all this, it’s all thanks to you, Chu Feng. I don’t know how I should thank you,” Liu Xiaoli looked to Chu Feng gratefully.

Although their Red Butterfly Society could not attack Luyang’s Pavilion either from today on, it remained that their Red Butterfly Society was the one that had benefitted from this. After all, this was equivalent to them having escaped from the tiger’s den, having escaped from certain death. As for all of this, it was thanks to Chu Feng.

If Chu Feng was merely an honored guest that she had wanted to rope into the Red Butterfly Society before, he had turned into a great benefactor to her now.

“If you truly want to thank me, just invite me to another feast,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“That’s no problem. Men! Prepare a feast! Bring out all of our Red Butterfly Society’s delicacies.”

“I will prepare a feast today. All of the Red Butterfly Society’s members must participate in this feast so as to express our thanks to Chu Feng,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Lady Society President, please allow this subordinate to handle it,” A management elder asked for permission.

“Go ahead. Make sure to prepare it properly,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“As per your order,” That elder did not dare to be neglectful. He turned around and entered the Red Butterfly Society.

“Lady Society President, then what about that Zhao Xuan and Zhao Xiao?” Another management elder asked.

“Zhao Xuan dared to poison Chu Feng together with Zhao Ruofan. His crimes cannot be forgiven. Kill him.”

“As for Zhao Xiao, even though he should also be killed, it remains that he did not directly participate in it. As such, it would suffice to expel him from our Red Butterfly Society,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“For real? Release him? This Red Butterfly Society’s President is too irresolute, no?” After hearing Liu Xiaoli’s decision, Eggy’s voice sounded in Chu Feng’s ears.

“Milady Queen, if it was you, what would you do?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“If it was me, I would definitely kill without exception. I would not leave a single person from the Zhao Family alive,” Eggy said with firm resolution.

As for Chu Feng, he asked no more. Each person possessed their own way of handling things.

Liu Xiaoli was indeed a bit too benevolent. As for Eggy, she was a bit too ruthless.

If it was Chu Feng making the decision, he would definitely investigate this matter first. If Zhao Xiao was truly innocent, he would definitely release him. However, if he did any misdeeds, he would definitely not spare him.

However, Liu Xiaoli decided to spare him without even investigating. Her actions were truly a bit too forgiving.

However, it remained that this was the Red Butterfly Society's domestic affair. Thus, Chu Feng did not try to involve himself in it too much.

.....

The feast that followed was very grand. As for Liu Xiaoli, she even publicly announced the matters of what happened today.

She informed all of the people from their Red Butterfly Society that they should have been eliminated today, but were saved by Chu Feng.

Gratefulness. After finding out about this matter, everyone felt extremely grateful toward Chu Feng.

Admiration; After finding out that Chu Feng was actually friends with Su Jingrui's personal disciple, both men and women felt great admiration for Chu Feng.

However, only Chu Feng knew that he had only met Xu Yiyi once. Thus, this time around, he truly owed her a favor.

.....

The feast continued for three nights and three days. After the feast, Liu Xiaoli ordered her people to search for the next location to move their headquarters to.

Even though Luyang's Pavilion did not dare to come to disturb the Red Butterfly Society after being threatened by the Sunset Cloud Pavilion, for the sake of guarding against the unexpected, Liu Xiaoli still wanted to move the headquarters quickly.

Merely, due to the fact that the time for Mount Cloud Crane's assembly was about to arrive, Liu Xiaoli was unable to personally search for a new location or construct the new Red Butterfly Society's headquarters. The reason for that was because she had to proceed for Mount Cloud Crane with Chu Feng.

Only Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli were on the journey to Mount Cloud Crane. After all, the Red Butterfly Society could only be considered to be a third tier power in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and not a major power. Thus, if they were to bring forth too extravagant of a display, they would only be mocked by others, or even provoke others. Thus, it was better for them to be low-profile.

Before Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli even arrived at Mount Cloud Crane, their pupils shrank back and their eyes revealed astonished expressions when they'd just seen the appearance of that Mount Cloud Crane from afar.

As its name implied, Mount Cloud Crane was a mountain.

Merely, this mountain was not a mountain on the surface of the earth. Rather, it was a mountain floating above the clouds.

Looking from afar, Mount Cloud Crane had the appearance of a red-crowned crane. However, for some reason, whether it was an illusion or not, that crane's two enormous wings were actually moving. It was as if the enormous crane was alive, and not a mountain.

It was a magnificent sight. Even though Chu Feng had seen many magnificent sights, Chu Feng was still astonished by the spectacular sight of that crane.

Unable to contain herself, Liu Xiaoli praised, “Is this the ability of an Exalted? It is truly something that causes one to broaden their horizons. It is truly worthy of being a spectacle of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.” Likely, it was also her first time coming to Mount Cloud Crane.

“Move aside, move aside,” Suddenly, a group of people flew by, Aggressively, flying toward Mount Cloud Crane.

The closer Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli got to Mount Cloud Crane, the more they encountered such powers flying by from all directions. Furthermore, they were increasingly more aggressive.

This was especially true when they saw people like Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli, who had arrived by themselves. Toward those people, they were even more aggressive.

“It would seem that there will be people like them regardless of what sort of place we might be at,” Chu Feng said.

“People like them?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“People that bully the weak and fear the strong,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, Liu Xiaoli’s expression changed slightly. She revealed a worried expression.

“Chu Feng, Golden Crane True Immortal is extremely famous in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. His influence is enormous.”

“Thus, even though he is only holding an assembly to assist world spiritists, practically all of the powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm have dispatched people to participate in this assembly.”

“Earlier, the group of people that passed by us were from a tier two power. As for those tier two powers, they are all existences that we cannot afford to offend,” Liu Xiaoli said to Chu Feng.

“There seems to be quite a lot of tier two powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. How are they distinguished?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“There is also a difference in strength between the tier two powers. If a power’s leader possesses strength reaching that of a rank six Martial Ancestor, they would be able to declare themselves a tier two power,” Liu Xiaoli explained.

“Then what about tier one powers?” Chu Feng asked.

“Tier one powers are generally overseen by True Immortal-level experts,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Wasn’t it said that very few people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm are capable of becoming True Immortals?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. That’s why there are only four tier one powers right now,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Which four?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Buddha’s Heavenly Temple.”

“The Immortal Sword School.”

“The Zhou Heavenly Clan.”

“And the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Liu Xiaoli said.

Chapter 2220 – Chanced Encounter Under The Mountain

---

“The Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm couldn’t possibly only have two Heavenly Clans, right?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Of course not. There are over a dozen Heavenly Clans in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, only the Zhou Heavenly Clan and the Kong Heavenly Clan are capable of becoming tier one powers. As for the other Heavenly Clans, they are generally only tier two powers.”

“However, the Heavenly Clans remain Heavenly Clans. Among the tier two powers, the vast majority of them are very powerful. However, there are always exceptions to the rule, as a couple of them are not very strong,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Indeed, even the same bloodlines have differences in strength.”

Chu Feng gasped with emotion. Originally, he had felt that since the Chu Heavenly Clan was able to rule over an Upper Realm, it would mean that the other Heavenly Clans that remained in the Ordinary Realm would definitely be their respective region’s rulers.

After all, the power of Heavenly Bloodlines was so very outstanding.

However, after hearing what Liu Xiaoli said, Chu Feng realized that it was not as simple as he had thought it to be.

Sure enough, there were people from the Heavenly Clans that failed to live up to the expectations of their Heavenly Bloodlines.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked, “Oh, that’s right, President Liu, have you heard of the Infant Soul Sect before?”

Chu Feng had not forgotten about the mission that his father had given him, the mission to eliminate the Infant Soul Sect.

“Infant Soul Sect? I’ve never heard of it before,” Liu Xiaoli shook her head. Then, she asked curiously, “What sort of power is that?”

“No, it’s nothing. I’ve merely heard of that power being in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm by others when I was in the Lower Realm. Furthermore, I was told that they were a very strong power. That is why I asked you about them out of curiosity,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“I reckon that to be a rumor. If they are truly very powerful, it would be impossible for me to not have heard of them. Even among the second tier powers, I have never heard of one called the Infant Soul Sect,” Liu Xiaoli said with a smile.

“That should be the case,” Chu Feng said. Even though he said it like that, Chu Feng firmly believed that the Infant Soul Sect existed. He believed that his father would not deceive him.

Merely, as the Infant Soul Sect was a power engaged in corrupt and evil practices, their conduct might be extremely well-hidden. That might be the reason why Liu Xiaoli had never heard of them before.

“Oh, that’s right. Chu Feng, do not address me as President anymore. If possible, just address me as Liu Xiaoli. Our age difference is not that great, and we’re both members of the younger generation, thus, there is no need for you to feel too restrained toward me.”

“Furthermore, you are the benefactor of our Red Butterfly Society. If you continue to address me like that, I will truly feel embarrassed,” Liu Xiaoli suddenly said.

“Age difference not that great? There’s several decades between you two, no?” Eggy laughed.

Chu Feng ignored Eggy’s remarks. After all, when Liu Xiaoli had already said it like that, it would be unsuitable for Chu Feng to refuse. Thus, he said, “Very well. Then, from today on, I’ll address you as Liu Xiaoli. However, if your Red Butterfly Society's people decided to beat me up after hearing me address you by name, I will find you to get revenge for me."

"What are you saying, how could they?" Liu Xiaoli laughed.

"Oh, that's right. Chu Feng, I've told you all this so that you can know that there are truly too many experts that have arrived at Mount Cloud Crane. As for us, with our strength, we are merely minor characters."

"It is best that we keep a low profile. Even if people are to speak rudely to us, we must tolerate it if we can. After all, by taking a step back, one could see the wide sea and sky; by tolerating things for a bit, the breeze will be still, and the waves will be quiet," Liu Xiaoli said.

"I understand," Chu Feng smiled and nodded. Actually, from the time Liu Xiaoli began to explain this to him, Chu Feng already understood her intentions.

After that, the two of them continued toward Mount Cloud Crane.

Sure enough, the closer they got to Mount Cloud Crane, the more experts they saw. Furthermore, many of the older generation were Martial Ancestor-level experts.

This allowed Chu Feng to truly realize that the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm was a gathering of experts.

The Half Martial Ancestor realm that very few people were able to step into in the Holy Land of Martialism was present everywhere here. This truly brought Chu Feng great astonishment.

It was no wonder the people from the Ordinary Realm looked down upon the people of the Lower Realm. When compared in such a manner, the cultivation talent that the people from the Holy Land of Martialism possessed was truly inferior.

“Chu Feng? Hey, what a coincidence,” Suddenly, a voice sounded. It was Xu Yiyi.

Chu Feng was overjoyed upon hearing Xu Yiyi’s voice. After all, she had helped him enormously. Thus, Chu Feng wanted to express his thanks toward her.

However, when he turned around, Chu Feng discovered that it was not only Xu Yiyi who had arrived. Nine individuals had arrived with Xu Yiyi.

Those nine people were all from the Sunset Cloud Valley, as they wore the Sunset Cloud Valley’s outfits, and a Sunset Cloud Valley’s title plate hung around their waists.

Among them were two men and three women about the same age as Liu Xiaoli. Although they could still be considered to be part of the younger generation, they were close to a hundred years old.

As for their cultivations, they were all inferior to Liu Xiaoli’s; they were all still only Half Martial Ancestors. In fact, those three women were only rank one Half Martial Ancestors, inferior to even Chu Feng’s cultivation.

As for the other four people among the nine individuals, they were four old men. They were at least several thousand years old. As such, it was obvious that they would not be weak. They were all Martial Ancestors.

If Chu Feng guessed correctly, they should not be the Sunset Cloud Valley’s disciples. Instead, they must be elders.

“Chu Feng, why would you be here?” Xu Yiyi asked curiously.

“I have come to participate in the Immortalization Assembly held by Golden Crane True Immortal. What about you?” Chu Feng asked.

“I am the same,” Xu Yiyi said excitedly.

“You’re also? But you...” Chu Feng wanted to say that she was clearly not a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, and was merely an Insect Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

However, upon thinking about it, Chu Feng did not say anything. Chu Feng felt that Xu Yiyi must've come here with other intentions.

“Haha. After all, our Sunset Cloud Valley obtained ten invitations. I wanted to come to join in the fun. Thus, my master ended up giving me one of the invitations,” Xu Yiyi said with a beaming smile.

Liu Xiaoli and Chu Feng were both extremely surprised upon hearing those words. This was especially true for Chu Feng; he felt speechless.

He thought to himself, ‘Xu Yiyi’s master truly pampers Xu Yiyi. He actually gave her such a precious invitation just for her to come play.’

‘Headstrong, this is truly headstrong. After all, the Sunset Cloud Valley is wealthy.’

Suddenly, a fair-skinned man with small eyes stepped forward and asked, “Yiyi, these two are? Shouldn’t you introduce them to us?”

As he said those words, that man was sizing Chu Feng up nonstop with his tiny eyes. His tiny eyes were filled with hostility.

‘Crap, I’m going to be attacked again,’ Experienced with this sort of thing, Chu Feng sighed in his heart.

He was able to tell that tiny-eyed man was most definitely fond of Xu Yiyi, and had mistaken Chu Feng as his rival in love.

“This person over here is Chu Feng. The person who wreaked havoc in Luyang’s Pavilion’s territory is him.”

“As for this person, she is the Red Butterfly Society’s President,” Xu Yiyi introduced Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli to them.

Then, Xu Yiyi courteously introduced the nine individuals from the Sunset Cloud Valley to Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli.

It was as Chu Feng had guessed, the five people from the younger generation were all the Sunset Cloud Valley's disciples. Merely, they were not ordinary disciples. Instead, they were all personal disciples of the Sunset Cloud Valley's management elders.

As for those four old men, they were all the Sunset Cloud Valley's elders. One among them was called Ning Shuang. That person seemed to be a management elder. His strength should be extremely strong.

As Liu Xiaoli knew that these people were all extraordinary individuals, she began to respectfully greet every one of them.

However, who would've thought that when she began to greet that small-eyed man, he revealed an expression of contempt and said, "So it's actually the Red Butterfly Society. Even a power like the Red Butterfly Society was able to obtain two invitations? The way I see it, for those two invitation title plates, you all must've completely exhausted your third tier power's treasury, right?"

Furthermore, when that tiny-eyed man said those words, he deliberately took a side eye at Chu Feng. From that, it could be seen that the target of his mocking words was not Liu Xiaoli. Rather, it was Chu Feng.

Chapter 2221 – Provocation

---

“Jiang Hao, what are you saying?! They are my friends! Furthermore, Chu Feng is not a part of the Red Butterfly Society,” Xu Yiyi said in a displeased manner.

“Someone not from the Red Butterfly Society was actually capable of obtaining an invitation? It seems that you’re very rich?” That Jiang Hao said to Chu Feng in a very mocking manner.

“Jiang Hao, you are truly too ill-informed and narrow-minded. It seems that you have never heard of brother Chu Feng’s past achievements,” Right at that moment, another of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s male disciples stepped forward.

Chu Feng knew that the person that spoke was called Li Rui.

However, different from Jiang Hao, this Li Rui did not emit any hostility toward Chu Feng.

“Humph, merely someone from a third tier power. I am not interested in their past achievements,” Jiang Hao said with contempt. He was emitting his superiority of a tier two power’s management elder’s personal disciple all over.

The three Sunset Cloud Valley’s female disciples began to chuckle. Although they did not say any mocking words, it could be seen that they also looked down upon Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli.

As for those four elders, it remained that they were experienced individuals. Thus, they remained very calm and collected. It was as if they were mere observers. They neither said anything, nor displayed any mocking behavior.

However, at the same time, they also did not reprimand Jiang Hao for his rudeness. Even that Elder Ning Shuang did not reprimand Jiang Hao.

“Not interested? You’re not interested in even an Asura World Spiritist?” Li Rui said.

“Asura World Spiritist?” Upon hearing those words, that Jiang Hao’s expression immediately changed. Then he chuckled and said, “You couldn’t possibly be implying that Chu Feng is an Asura World Spiritist, right?”

“I won’t conceal this from you. Brother Chu Feng is indeed an Asura World Spiritist. Right now, not many people know about this yet. However, it will definitely spread through the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in the future,” Li Rui said.

“Asura World Spiritist?”

“Chu Feng, are you really an Asura World Spiritist?” At that moment, the three women who had had expressions of contempt on their faces immediately changed their expressions and began to voluntarily attempt to communicate with Chu Feng.

Even those four elders had a change in their expressions. Involuntarily, they began to size Chu Feng up seriously.

“You all do not have to ask anymore. Chu Feng is indeed an Asura World Spiritist. Furthermore, his world spirit is extremely powerful. Luyang’s Pavilion’s Hong Xi was killed by Chu Feng’s world spirit,” Xu Yiyi said.

“Humph, so what if that is the case? There are countless promising young geniuses. However, the great majority of them end up dying young or prematurely. Only the geniuses that are able to grow up are the true geniuses. Else, they’re nothing more than dog farts,” Jiang Hao said.

“Jiang Hao, why do your words seem to contain such a great amount of grievances? Could it be that you’re jealous of Chu Feng?”

“That’s right, everyone knows that you like Junior Sister Yiyi. You’re afraid that Junior Sister Yiyi will be snatched away by Chu Feng, and decided to attack him, right?”

Before Xu Yiyi and Li Rui could say anything, those three female disciples already began to speak on behalf of Chu Feng.

Chu Feng felt helpless toward this change. They only had such an enormous change in their attitudes because of the fact that he was an Asura World Spiritist.

Snobbish. They were definitely doing this for their own self-interest. Thus, even though they were helping him, Chu Feng did not feel any sense of gratefulness toward them.

It was not that Chu Feng was an ungrateful person. Rather, Chu Feng knew that they were people that would not help him should he encounter actual troubles.

“Humph. I’m telling you all, this place is Mount Cloud Crane. What we compare here are one’s world spirit techniques. If one’s world spirit techniques are insufficient, even if one is an Asura World Spiritist, it is of no use.”

“That place, do you all see that? Don’t you think that you will definitely be able to enter Mount Cloud Crane just because you hold an invitation title plate. If your strength is insufficient, you will still be asked to leave,” Jiang Hao declared as he pointed to Mount Cloud Crane’s entrance.

That place was very far away, and very difficult to see with the naked eye. However, all the people present were world spiritists. After using their special observation methods, they were able to see that there was a row of spirit formations before the entrance.

Each one of the spirit formations was an entrance. There were a total of several tens of such spirit formation entrances.

If one wished to pass through the spirit formation entrance, one must hold an invitation title plate. However, strangely, even though everyone was holding one such invitation title plate, some people were able to successfully enter, whereas others were sent back. Furthermore, after being sent back, their invitation title plates also disappeared.

“What’s going on? Why are those people all being sent back? Could it be that their invitation title plates were fake?” Xu Yiyi asked curiously.

“No, their invitation title plates are not fake. Rather, those spirit formations possess special requirements. Likely, only those that satisfy the requirements are allowed to enter Mount Cloud Crane.”

“It would seem that just having an invitation title plate is not enough for one to enter that place to train,” Chu Feng said.

“What? There’s actually such a rule? Why didn’t they say this beforehand? This is truly bullshit,” Xu Yiyi had a displeased expression.

After all, she knew very well how strong her world spirit techniques were. If one truly had to satisfy a certain requirement to enter, she felt that she would definitely not be able to pass through the spirit formation entrances. Even though she possessed an invitation title plate, she would’ve come in vain.

“You all see that, right? Even if one is a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist and possesses an invitation title plate, you will still be refused entrance if your world spirit techniques are insufficient.”

“Mister Asura World Spiritist, let me ask you, are you still that confident now? C’mon, tell me frankly, are you scared witless now?” Jiang Hao said to Chu Feng provocatively.

“Scared? You should be the one that’s scared, no?” Chu Feng replied calmly.

“Me, scared? I, Jiang Hao, started learning world spirit techniques since when I was ten years old. Right now, I have meticulously studied world spirit techniques for eighty-one years.”

“I have relied on my actual abilities to become a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“As for you, haha... it is not that I am looking down on you but, becoming a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist at your age, I believe you should know best whether or not you've obtained assistance from others."

"Although your world spirit techniques might appear to be on par with us, the difference will show immediately the moment you use them," Jiang Hao said to Chu Feng with a face filled with contempt.

"Jiang Hao, if you dare to act rudely towards my friend again, do not blame me for becoming impolite," Xu Yiyi said in a very annoyed manner. She was truly angry.

"Yiyi, it is truly not that I am trying to act rude towards your friend. Rather, I just want him to know the truth, and not become overly conceited, because that will end up delaying his future prospects," Jiang Hao explained.

"Conceited? The way I see it, you're the one that's conceited, no?" Xu Yiyi said without the slightest trace of politeness.

"What Junior Sister Yiyi said is extremely reasonable."

"That's right. Jiang Hao, you are the one acting high and aloof from the very beginning. Chu Feng has been extremely low profile compared to you," Those three women chuckled.

What caused Chu Feng to feel the most speechless was that while those three women were speaking on his behalf, they were also throwing flirtatious glances at him. They were nearly on the verge of brazenly telling Chu Feng that they wanted him.

"If you all do not believe me, I shall prove it to you all now. I, Jiang Hao, am someone with actual abilities. It will be extremely easy for me to pass through that entrance. As for you, Chu Feng, hehe... good luck," Jiang Hao cast a glance at Chu Feng, then rapidly flew toward the spirit formation gate with his invitation title plate in hand.

"Truly a crazy fellow. What does him being able to enter or not have anything to do with Chu Feng?” Xu Yiyi said with contempt.

“Junior Sister Yiyi, Jiang Hao is only acting this hostile towards Brother Chu Feng because he likes you. After all, you were truly enthusiastic when you saw Brother Chu Feng,” Li Rui laughed.

“Pah! Don’t disgust me with that. If it wasn’t for the fact that his master was a fellow apprentice to my master, and has maintained a decent relationship with him the entire time, I would’ve already asked my master to kill him with a palm strike. How could I continue to allow him to buzz around me like a housefly all day?” Xu Yiyi was so furious that her little face turned deep red. It could be seen that she was extremely fed up with Jiang Hao.

Chapter 2222 – Ascending The Mountain

---

“It’s enough. Even if we do not care about him, we must enter. Let’s go. Stop wasting time here.”

“After all, this Immortalization Assembly has a time limit. It would not be good for us to miss the time limit,” One of the female disciples urged.

“Let’s go,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

Then, Xu Yiyi, Chu Feng and the others flew toward the entrance with the spirit formations.

The crowd were all talking and laughing on their way here. This lessened the anger that Xu Yiyi was feeling by a lot. Finally, she revealed a sweet smile on her face again.

After approaching the entrance, Xu Yiyi’s expression changed again. It was not only her expression that changed; the expressions of many of the people present had changed.

That Jiang Hao had clearly arrived before them. Yet, he had not set foot into the spirit formation entrance. Instead, he stood there and waited for Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi and the others to arrive.

“Yiyi, watch carefully as I, who possess actual abilities, pass through this spirit formation entrance!”

“Chu Feng, you watch carefully too! Today, I will let you know that what is required in world spirit techniques are actual abilities and not shortcuts!”

Jiang Hao had shouted those words. Thus, it was not only Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi and the others that heard him; everyone present heard his words.

At that moment, the gazes of all of the surrounding crowd were turned toward Xu Yiyi, Chu Feng and the others.

“This bastard, he’s truly seeking a beating,” At that moment, Xu

Yiyi was truly furious. She rolled up her sleeves and prepared to step forward to teach Jiang Hao a lesson.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, Jiang Hao actually stepped into the spirit formation entrance. He did not give Xu Yiyi the opportunity to attack him.

“Bang~~~”

However, the very next moment, Jiang Hao was actually knocked back by the spirit formation. Furthermore, he lost his balance and landed on his butt.

Furthermore, at that moment, the invitation title plate he held in his hand disappeared.

“Wahahahaha!!!”

When this scene occurred, before Chu Feng and the others could react, the surrounding crowd burst into loud laughter.

Humiliation. This was truly humiliating.

If he had kept a low profile as he entered the spirit formation gate, no one would have laughed at him even if he was sent back.

However, before entering, Jiang Hao had spoken such boastful words. Thus, it was extremely humiliating to be sent back out.

“Damn it! There is definitely something wrong with this spirit formation! How could I, a genius world spiritist, be unable to enter it?!” Jiang Hao’s face was deep red with embarrassment as he shouted in an extremely unreconciled manner.

“Jiang Hao, it’s enough. Have you not disgraced yourself enough?” At that moment, Elder Ning Shuang shouted in a displeased manner.

It could be seen that Elder Ning Shuang was someone with a high status in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Thus, after he said those words, Jiang Hao did not dare to say anymore. Instead, he walked gloomily over to Chu Feng and the others. He did not dare to even raise his head.

“Jiang Hao, is this your ‘true abilities’?” Although Jiang Hao said no more, Xu Yiyi was unwilling to forgive, and started to mock him.

“Yiyi, while it is true that I didn’t manage to enter the spirit formation gate, but since even I failed to enter, that means that Chu Feng will definitely not be able to enter either,” Jiang Hao said.

“And what if Chu Feng manages to enter?” Xu Yiyi asked.

“If he manages to enter, I will publicly apologize to him. I will recognize him as my big brother,” Jiang Hao said.

“Enough of your nonsense, you are tens of years older than Chu Feng. Why do you want to act young and become Chu Feng’s younger brother?” Xu Yiyi said with contempt.

“Then, I’ll publicly apologize and admit that I, Jiang Hao, am inferior to him,” Jiang Hao said.

“That’s not enough. Since you firmly believed that Chu Feng was inferior to you, you should gamble with something more serious,” Xu Yiyi was unwilling to forgive.

“More serious? Very well. If Chu Feng is able to enter, I, Jiang Hao, will swallow manure to kill myself today,” Jiang Hao said.

“Then it’s decided. Chu Feng, quickly, enter it,” Xu Yiyi said gleefully. She was looking forward to Jiang Hao swallowing manure.

“Chu Feng, let’s go,” Liu Xiaoli said. She was actually a bit scared of Jiang Hao, and wanted to break free from him as soon as possible.

“Mn,” In response, Chu Feng nodded. Then, Chu Feng and Liu

Xiaoli both entered the spirit formation entrance.

As for their result, they most naturally passed through easily. Not only did Chu Feng pass through the spirit formation entrance, Liu Xiaoli also passed through it.

“What the hell! This is impossible! There’s definitely something wrong with that spirit formation!”

“It’s one thing for that Chu Feng to be able to enter, but how could that Red Butterfly Society’s President enter it too?! There’s definitely something wrong with that spirit formation!” Jiang Hao shouted in irreconciliation.

“Jiang Hao, don’t you refuse to admit your defeat. Quickly, kill yourself by swallowing manure,” Xu Yiyi said gleefully.

“Eh, this...” Jiang Hao was stunned. He had only casually said those words, and never thought about actually swallowing manure.

“Jiang Hao, what is said cannot be retrieved. You should be able to do what you declared.”

“After Chu Feng comes out, remember to apologize to him. Else, others will say that our Sunset Cloud Valley’s disciples are sore losers.”

“As for killing yourself by swallowing manure, you can consider it to be a joke,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

Seeing that Elder Ning Shuang had spoken on the matter, Xu Yiyi did not continue to demand that Jiang Hao kill himself.

As for Jiang Hao, he heaved a sigh of relief.

After that, Xu Yiyi, Elder Ning Shuang and the others all began to walk toward the spirit formation entrances.

As for Xu Yiyi, right after she stepped foot into the spirit formation entrance, she was immediately sent back out.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that only two of the ten individuals from the Sunset Cloud Valley ended up successfully passing through the spirit formation entrance. One was the strongest person among them, Elder Ning Shuang. As for the other, it was the man that had spoken for Chu Feng, Li Rui.

“It seems that the spirit formation entrances are truly rigorous in their audit. Only those with a superb level of world spirit techniques are capable of entering them.”

“Indeed. Senior Brother Li Rui and Elder Ning Shuang do possess the strongest world spirit techniques among all of us here.”

“In that case, it means that it’s not the world spirit entrances that have issues. Rather, Chu Feng and that Red Butterfly Society’s President really do possess actual abilities that satisfied the requirements to enter,” At that moment, the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley that had failed to enter began to discuss among themselves.

“Jiang Hao, is there anything else you want to say?” Xu Yiyi said.

“Humph, I, Jiang Hao, am someone who will honor my words. However, I still refuse to believe that Chu Feng managed to enter with actual abilities,” Jiang Hao said resolutely.

“You’re still unwilling to accept it? If you still continue with your rubbish, I’ll make you swallow manure,” Xu Yiyi said.

“Yiyi, you...” Jiang Hao was left speechless.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a strange motion was suddenly felt from the depths of Mount Cloud Crane. Following that, a deep and resounding thunder-like sound entered the ears of all the crowd present.

“Those that managed to pass through the entrance, you all only need to continue straight onward. After reaching the top of the mountain, there will be a competition. The first four individuals that break through that competition will be allowed to enter the spirit formation I set up and comprehend the way of world spirit techniques.”

It was the Golden Crane True Immortal. Even though he had not revealed himself, everyone knew that this was the Golden Crane True Immortal’s voice.

“For real? With all those invitation title plates being sent out, only four people are actually able to enter that spirit formation?” The crowd were all shocked.

“It’s hopeless. That Chu Feng is definitely done for. Even though he managed to pass through the entrance, he will not be able to enter the spirit formation,” Jiang Hao felt joy and delight in Chu Feng’s calamity.

Chapter 2223 – Gathering Of Experts

---

“Jiang Hao, enough of your bad mouthing,” Xu Yiyi was truly unable to endure Jiang Hao anymore. She actually raised her foot and kicked Jiang Hao, trampling him so hard that he tumbled on the ground.

Seeing this scene, the three women from the Sunset Cloud Valley began to chuckle.

The reason for that was because they knew that Jiang Hao possessed a cultivation above Xu Yiyi's. If he had wanted to dodge, Xu Yiyi would simply not have been able to kick him.

However, he did not dare to dodge. In fact, he did not even dare to guard against her kick. That was why such a humiliating scene occurred.

Indeed, it was humiliating. After all, Jiang Hao had been kicked to the ground in public, which was seen by many people. Thus, at that moment, Jiang Hao had a furious expression. Merely, his anger was not aimed at Xu Yiyi. Rather, it was all aimed at Chu Feng.

“He's definitely hopeless. Do you all know how many Royal-cloak World Spiritists have come to participate? All of those that were able to obtain invitation title plates possess extraordinary strength.”

“I dare to guarantee that it is definitely hopeless for Chu Feng,” Jiang Hao said angrily.

“If you continue on with your bullshit, do you believe that I won't cut you down?” As Xu Yiyi spoke, she actually took out her Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

“Junior sister Yiyi, don't be so impulsive,” Upon seeing that, the three female disciples hurriedly moved to stop Xu Yiyi. They were afraid that Jiang Hao would not dodge Xu Yiyi's attack. Should that happen, Jiang Hao might end up dying.

“Yiyi, although what Jiang Hao said is somewhat excessive, it is not without justification. If it is true that only four people will be allowed to enter the spirit formation, then not to mention Chu Feng, even Elder Ning Shuang and Li Rui will have practically no hope.”

“After all, practically all of the most famous Royal-cloak World Spiritists in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm have gathered here. They all possess extremely powerful world spirit techniques,” One of the three elders said.

“That’s true. I even saw the Four World Spiritist Emperors earlier. Furthermore, I’ve heard that the world spiritist experts from the Zhou Heavenly Clan, Kong Heavenly Clan, Immortal Sword School and Buddha’s Heavenly Temple have all arrived. Especially the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple, I’ve heard their world spiritists are extremely powerful.”

“No, no, no, in terms of being most powerful, it would definitely be the Four World Spiritist Emperors. After all, the four of them have dedicated their entire lives to world spirit formations.”

At that moment, the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley began to spiritedly discuss the people that had arrived.

As for Xu Yiyi, she grew quiet. The reason for that was because she had heard about all those people that they were talking about. They were indeed people that possessed extremely high academic attainments in world spirit techniques.

Thus, she could only quietly look to the entrance of Mount Cloud Crane. Then, with a low voice, she muttered, “It’s this difficult. Wouldn’t this mean that Chu Feng and the others have entered in vain?”

.....

At that moment, Chu Feng and the others were proceeding toward Mount Cloud Crane's summit.

The journey toward the summit was not easy at all. If one wanted to arrive there safely, one must pass through many layers of difficulties.

Fortunately, Li Rui, Liu Xiaoli and Elder Ning Shuang were following Chu Feng the entire time. Else, with their world spirit techniques, they would most definitely not have been able to continue onward so smoothly.

"Little friend Chu Feng, may I know who your master might be?" Elder Ning Shuang asked curiously. He discovered that even though they were both Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, Chu Feng's world spirit techniques greatly surpassed his own. It could be said that there was an enormous difference in mastery between Chu Feng's world spirit techniques and theirs.

Thus, he truly wanted to know exactly who it was that had managed to nurture such a powerful world spiritist genius like Chu Feng.

"I have two masters. One is called Zhuge Liuyun, and the other is called Qiu Canfeng," Chu Feng said.

"Zhuge Liuyun, Qiu Canfeng?" Both Elder Ning Shuang and Li Rui were startled upon hearing those names. The reason for that was because they'd never heard of them before.

Although they had never heard of them before, the two of them unanimously came to the conclusion that Zhuge Liuyun and Qiu Canfeng must be the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's hidden experts, or even experts from the Upper Realm.

However, only Chu Feng knew that his two masters were respectively in the Nine Provinces Continent's Azure Dragon School and the Eastern Sea Region's Crippling Night Demon Sect.

If one were to determine one's strength with cultivation, then his two masters would definitely be laughingstocks in the eyes of countless people should they be placed in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

However, his two masters possessed incomparably high status in Chu Feng's heart. This was especially true for Zhuge Liuyun, because he could be considered to be the person who had guided Chu Feng onto the path of a world spiritist.

Regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might end up becoming, the two of them would forever be his greatly respected masters.

Suddenly, Chu Feng said, "There seems to be problems ahead."

The reason for that was because there was a layer of purple fog ahead. Many people were gathered in the fog.

To be exact, all of those people were being blocked by the purple fog.

Although no one could tell what was inside the purple fog, Chu Feng was able to guess that it must be a spirit formation.

"Elder Ning Shuang, look, it's the Buddha's Heavenly Temple's Grandmaster Pocket, and the Immortal Sword School's Daoist Three Swords."

"The Four World Spiritist Emperors. Even the Four World Spiritist Emperors are here," Li Rui revealed an astonished expression. It was as if he had just seen his idols.

Turning his gaze toward the direction of Li Rui's gaze, Chu Feng saw a monk wearing a world spiritist cloak and a white-haired old man.

The world spiritist cloak that monk was wearing was somewhat special; it was actually covered with pockets. Likely, he must be that Grandmaster Pocket.

As for that white-haired old man, although his hair was as white as snow, his skin was smooth like jade and tender like a baby's skin.

Most importantly, he carried three long swords on his back. Those three swords were all different from one another. However, they were all Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. Likely... he was that Daoist Three Swords.

These two individuals were both very strong. Chu Feng was unable to see through their cultivations. Thus, Chu Feng felt that they were very likely to be peak Martial Ancestor-level experts.

However, the ones that gave Chu Feng the greatest impression were those so-called Four World Spiritist Emperors.

They were four fatties. Each of them were two meters tall. However, they were also two meters wide. They were truly fat, so fat that they resembled balls, four giant balls.

Furthermore, other than all of them being fat, the four of them also possessed the same appearance.

Furthermore, Chu Feng felt that their same appearances were not obtained from the alteration of their appearances. Rather, they were born this way.

In other words, they were quadruplets.

At that moment, Chu Feng truly wondered to himself what sort of mother would be able to give birth to four brothers like them? How enormous must her stomach have been to contain all of them?

“With only four people being allowed in the spirit formation, it would appear that it is practically hopeless for us,” Upon seeing so many world spiritist experts, Liu Xiaoli revealed a worried expression.

“Who are those people?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Brother Chu Feng, you don’t know them?” Li Rui asked in astonishment.

Chu Feng shook his head.

“Then, I’ll skip the others and tell you about the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s Grandmaster Pocket and the Immortal Sword School’s Daoist Three Swords.”

“When they were young, the two of them were both world spiritist geniuses whose names were renowned throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. I’ll say it this way, even without this assembly, the two of them will sooner or later become Immortal-cloak World Spiritists by relying on themselves. This is something that everyone firmly believes will happen.”

“Merely, the two of them are more infatuated with martial cultivation. That is why they ended up delaying their world spirit talents. That is also the reason why the two of them possess extremely strong cultivations.”

“If their world spirit techniques cannot be said to be among the peak in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, their martial cultivations would definitely place them among the peak experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“As for the Four World Spiritist Emperors, they are even more exceptional. Their mother is one of the few Immortal-cloak World Spiritists in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Furthermore, the four of them also possess extremely powerful world spirit techniques. Reportedly, the four of them have competed against an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist with world spirit techniques, and managed to defeat that Immortal-cloak World Spiritist even though they were only Royal-cloak World Spiritists.”

“Although their victory must also be attributed to their mother using her treasures to assist them, it remains that it should be impossible for Royal-cloak World Spiritists to defeat an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, treasures or not.”

“However, the four of them accomplished it. From this, it could be seen how powerful their world spirit techniques were. If it were only comparing one's attainments in world spirit techniques, the four of them would likely be even more powerful than Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords. The four of them are true world spiritist geniuses," Li Rui said.

"Hearing what you said, it seems like they are truly amazing. However, it seems that they have all been stopped by that thing," Chu Feng pointed to the purple fog ahead.

It was as he had said; there were over two hundred world spiritists gathered here right now. Furthermore, their numbers were increasing nonstop. The reason why they had all stopped here was because they were unable to pass through the purple fog.

Suddenly, a man from the Zhou Heavenly Clan shouted, "I refuse to believe that I will be blocked by a mere spirit formation after training for so long!" Following that, he unleashed his boundless aura.

Rank one Martial Ancestor. He was a rank one Martial Ancestor-level expert.

"Zzzzz~::~"

Suddenly, multicolored lightning began to flicker as Thunder Armor appeared on his body, and Thunder Wings extended from his back.

At that moment, his cultivation was no longer that of a rank one Martial Ancestor. Instead, it had increased to that of a rank three Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, he possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, an entire level above Chu Feng.

Thus, at that moment, his true battle power was actually on par with ordinary rank seven Martial Ancestors. His strength could be said to be extremely powerful.

After all, even when placed in the Hundred Refinements

Ordinary Realm, rank seven Martial Ancestors were extremely powerful individuals.

Koudai means pocket. Not sure if it's a name or a title. Felt it is more likely a title though.

Chapter 2224 – Snorting Disdainfully

---

“Heavenly Bloodlines are powerful indeed.”

At that moment, many people revealed admiration and envious gazes. The reason for that was because Heavenly Bloodlines were truly powerful. Not to mention their Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, merely their frightening heaven-defying battle power was already a thing that countless people dreamed of.

“I refuse to believe that a layer of fog will be able to stop me.”

After that man from the Zhou Heavenly Clan felt the admiring gazes from the crowd, he became even more conceited. Holding an Incomplete Imperial Armament in his hand, he flew toward the purple fog.

“Boom~~~”

He started to attack. He turned into a golden ray of light that soared into the sky before charging straight into the purple fog.

Once the golden light appeared, violent wind sprang up all over. The power behind his attack was very terrifying. In fact, many of the people present fell to the ground. Some were even blown far away, rolling about on the ground.

It turned out that Zhou Heavenly Clan’s expert did not use an ordinary attack. Rather, he had unleashed an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

“Wuuahh~~~”

However, right after he landed into the purple mist, he let out a scream.

Following that, together with the Incomplete Ancestral Armament he held in his hand, he was knocked out of the purple fog.

At that moment, not only was that Zhou Heavenly Clan’s expert badly mutilated, he had also suffered serious internal injuries.

“Didn’t work? Even martial power is useless? But, world spirit techniques are clearly useless,” The world spiritists present were all in utter confusion.

The attack unleashed by that Zhou Heavenly Clan’s expert earlier was truly powerful. When even he failed to pass through the purple fog, the people present were truly at a loss as to what to do. After all, they had already attempted all kinds of methods before.

“This remains an assembly meant for world spiritists. The way I see it, only world spirit techniques would work. Allow me to give it a try,” Right at that moment, a world spiritist from the Kong Heavenly Clan began to set up a spirit formation. His spirit formation was a sort of spirit formation used to break through other spirit formations.

Once he began to set up his spirit formation, the gazes of many people present became very marvelous.

The reason for that was because the spirit formation that that world spiritist was setting up was something that many people present were incapable of setting up. Even though they were all Royal-cloak World Spiritists, there was still a difference in strength.

Suddenly, that Kong Heavenly Clan’s World Spiritist shouted, “Break!!!”

His majestic spirit formation turned into an extravagant war chariot. With might capable of pulverizing space itself, that war chariot charged into the purple fog.

However, after his spirit formation entered the purple fog, there was absolutely no change to the purple fog.

Not only that, he even suffered a backlash from it. Although he appeared to be relatively fine, he had actually suffered very serious internal injuries, and ended up fainting on the spot.

“Sure enough, it didn’t work. What are we to do now? Neither world spirit techniques nor martial power works. Could it be that this place is the summit of Mount Cloud Crane?” The crowd began to spiritedly discuss the matter with expressions of worry. After all, no one wanted to come here in vain.

“This place is not Mount Cloud Crane’s summit,” Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly spoke. Not only that, he was also walking toward the crowd.

“Where did this brat come from?” Upon seeing Chu Feng, the crowd all revealed displeased expressions.

The reason for that was because the people present here were all grand characters. Someone like Chu Feng, a nameless individual from the younger generation, was not qualified to interfere with their business.

“Where I’m from doesn’t matter. What does matter is that I can help you all pass through that fog,” Chu Feng said.

“Help us pass through it? What arrogance,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked with a laugh.

At that moment, the others also started to laugh.

After all, even the Four World Spiritist Emperors, Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords, these grand characters among Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists, were unable to pass through that purple fog. As such, the crowd did not feel that a nameless person from the younger generation like Chu Feng would be able to pass through the purple fog.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored the mockery from the crowd and continued onward toward the purple fog. At that moment, he had arrived at the frontmost area of the crowd.

“Scram! We do not have time to waste with you!” Suddenly, the second eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors shouted at Chu Feng.

Furthermore, he actually unleashed his rank one Martial Ancestor’s oppressive might. The power of his oppressive might was not weak at all. If Chu Feng were to be struck by it, even if he didn’t die, he would definitely suffer serious injuries, and might even become crippled.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, a boundless oppressive might suddenly appeared. That oppressive might completely crushed the oppressive might unleashed by the second eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor.

That oppressive might was extremely powerful. Although it was also invisible, everyone present was able to sense how frightening it was. The reason for that was because that oppressive might was many times more powerful than the oppressive might unleashed by the second eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor.

In fact, it was even more powerful than the oppressive might unleashed by that Zhou Heavenly Clan’s expert earlier. In other words, the person who had unleashed that oppressive might was stronger than an ordinary rank seven Martial Ancestor.

However, even though that oppressive might was extremely powerful, it completely disappeared the moment it crushed the second eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor’s oppressive might. It was as if it had never appeared as it left no trace at all.

Even though the oppressive might came and left without a trace, the crowd all turned their gazes toward the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s Grandmaster Pocket.

“Grandmaster Pocket, we possess neither grievances nor grudges, why did you stop me?” The second eldest of the Four World

Spiritist Emperors asked in a very displeased manner.

Although his cultivation was far inferior to Grandmaster Pocket's, it remained that his mother was extremely strong. Thus, as he possessed the backing of his mother, he was not at all afraid of Grandmaster Pocket.

“Amitabha. Please forgive this old monk for speaking forthrightly. Naturally, there are neither grievances nor grudges between us. However, there are neither grievances nor grudges between you and that young almsgiver either.”

“As such, how could you attack him with such a strong attack, an attack so powerful that it would ruin his future, just because of a single sentence that he said?”

“Why, you ask? It's because he's shooting off his mouth,” The second eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor said.

“Based on what you said, you're implying that young almsgiver is not even qualified to speak?” Grandmaster Pocket asked.

“He's not; he's a nobody. Are you saying that you think he is qualified to speak?” The Four World Spiritist Emperors' second eldest said.

“To this old monk, all living things are equal. Not only is this young almsgiver qualified, everyone present is qualified to speak,” Grandmaster Pocket said.

“I feel what Grandmaster Pocket says to be very correct. Why is it that you can make suggestions, but this young friend cannot?” Right at that moment, Daoist Three Swords also spoke. Furthermore, he turned to Chu Feng and said, “Young friend, what method might you have in mind? Go ahead and tell us about it. If anyone dares to attack you again, I will definitely take care of them.”

“You all!!!” The second eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperor's became extremely displeased.

“Second, forget about it. Since they want to waste time, let them waste time. I refuse to believe that a mere brat will be able to do anything,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“Young almsgiver, if there is any method that you have in mind, just say it,” Grandmaster Pocket said to Chu Feng. His attitude was very polite.

“That fog is a concealment formation. It is there to prevent us from seeing what the actual thing blocking us is. Thus, we must first remove that fog,” Chu Feng said.

“What a bunch of rubbish. Who doesn’t know that?” The Four World Spiritist Emperors snorted disdainfully at Chu Feng.

“Do you all understand the principle of not interrupting when someone else is speaking?”

“To not even know about that principle, has your mother not taught you all about how to write the word ‘respect?’” Daoist Three Swords spoke coldly.

“Watch your words!” The Four World Spiritist Emperors were immediately enraged. Four waves of rank one Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might swept forth.

“Watch my words? What, do the four of you have complaints about what I said?” Daoist Three Swords snorted coldly. He directly crushed all four waves of oppressive might, and even forced the Four World Spiritist Emperors back repeatedly, nearly knocking them to the ground.

Perhaps it might be because they felt how powerful Daoist Three Swords was, but even though the Four World Spiritist Emperors were feeling very unreconciled, they did not refute him anymore.

At that moment, the three of them suddenly recalled that while Daoist Three Swords might be inferior to them in terms of world spirit techniques, they were simply incapable of comparing with him in terms of martial cultivation.

There were a lot of people present. Among them were many hidden experts, and many experts from first tier powers. However, in terms of martial cultivation, it was likely that not one would be a match for Daoist Three Swords.

Furthermore, Daoist Three Swords was different from Grandmaster Pocket. Grandmaster Pocket possessed a benevolent heart. Even if someone was in the wrong, he would only, at the very most, teach them a simple lesson. Very rarely did he ever kill others.

However, Daoist Three Swords was completely different. Although he was an upright individual, he was also very ruthless. Many of the people that had spoken back to him ended up being killed by him.

Daoist Three Swords was renowned for being extremely tyrannical.

Thus, while the Four World Spiritist Emperors dared to talk back to Grandmaster Pocket, they truly did not dare to refute Daoist Three Swords.

Almsgiver is the way chinese monks refer to strangers.

Chapter 2225 – Displaying One’s Ability for the First Time

---

“Young friend, go ahead and continue,” Daoist Three Swords said to Chu Feng.

“This purple fog is extremely hard to deal with. Likely, it will be impossible for any of us to break through it alone.”

“I am capable of setting up a spirit formation. However, I will need the assistance of everyone’s power in order to break through that fog,” Chu Feng said.

“What arrogance. You will set up the formation, yet will need our power? What makes you think you’re qualified to do that?” Sure enough, the Four World Spiritist Emperors spoke again. Furthermore, their words were filled with disdain.

In fact, it was not only the Four World Spiritist Emperors that were looking down upon Chu Feng. Many of the world spiritists present were lightly laughing at Chu Feng with mocking laughter.

Like the Four World Spiritist Emperors, they were also looking down on Chu Feng. They felt that Chu Feng was nothing more than a beam jumping clown, and possessed no qualifications to order them around.

“What makes him qualified? He’s qualified because he is no ordinary Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist,” Right at that moment, Liu Xiaoli spoke. Furthermore, when she spoke those words, she actually revealed a trace of anger.

Chu Feng’s heart was moved upon seeing that sight. He knew that Liu Xiaoli was not someone who was fond of publicity, nor was she someone fond of stirring up troubles.

On the contrary, she was a very conservative individual. Logically, in such a situation, she should be keeping a low profile.

However, she did not. She did it for his sake.

Liu Xiaoli was standing up for Chu Feng.

“What a joke. A little brat pretending to be a know-it-all is not enough, turns out there’s another assistant.”

“Very well then. Tell me, if he is not an ordinary Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist, what is he?” The eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor asked mockingly.

“He is an Asura World Spiritist,” Liu Xiaoli spoke those words one word at a time.

The moment the words ‘Asura World Spiritist’ was heard, the crowd grew completely quiet. It was an absolute silence. Everyone stood there as if they were petrified.

After a moment of silence, someone asked, “Asura World Spiritist? You say that he’s an Asura World Spiritist?”

“Since when were there so many Asura World Spiritists? There’re actually so many Asura World Spiritists now that even a random brat can declare himself to be an Asura World Spiritist,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors said mockingly. They simply did not believe that Chu Feng was an Asura World Spiritist.

“Chu Feng, prove it to them, and let them know how powerful you are,” Liu Xiaoli said to Chu Feng. She was truly unable to contain her anger. She was furious at how an exceptional talent like Chu Feng would be held in contempt by a bunch of old farts.

“Originally, I did not intend to prove anything. I merely wanted to join hands with everyone and break through that purple fog.”

“However, if I must prove myself in order to obtain everyone’s assistance, then I do not mind proving myself either.”

Right after Chu Feng finished saying those words, he opened his world spirit gate. Then, a boundless amount of dark black gaseous flames swept forth from that world spirit gate.

“Roar~~~”

After the black gaseous flames appeared, a violent wind immediately started to blow in that region. Ghost-like wails and wolf-like howls were sounding nonstop.

“This sensation!? How could it be this frightening?!” The expressions of many of the people present changed upon sensing the black gaseous flames.

Even Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords, who had experienced grand spectacles, had a change in expression.

The reason for that was because the crowd felt a killing intent they’d never felt before from the black gaseous flames. That killing intent simply did not resemble something a human was capable of unleashing. That killing intent caused even their souls to shiver.

“Excellent, excellent. It is truly a blessing to our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for an Asura World Spiritist to appear here,” Grandmaster Pocket said with a beaming smile on his face.

“Grandmaster Pocket, in that case, he really is an Asura World Spiritist?” The crowd all revealed astonished gazes.

“That unrivalled sensation is definitely one of an Asura World Spiritist,” Before Grandmaster Pocket could answer, Daoist Three Swords said. Furthermore, he even took the initiative to walk to Chu Feng’s side and ask him courteously, “Young friend, are you called Chu Feng?”

“Senior, junior is indeed called Chu Feng,” Chu Feng replied courteously.

At that moment, he had closed his world spirit gate. He had not made Her Lady Queen show herself.

After all, there were knowledgeable individuals here. It would suffice should he let them know that he was an Asura World Spiritist.

“Brother Chu Feng, go ahead and set up your spirit formation. Regardless of whether or not others will support you, I will definitely support you,” Daoist Three Swords patted his chest. It could be seen that he was a man of character.

However, one thing was without a doubt; after he verified that Chu Feng was an Asura World Spiritist, his attitude toward him became much more enthusiastic.

“Amitabha, this old monk is also willing to support almsgiver Chu Feng,” Grandmaster Pocket said.

Chu Feng smiled courteously at his two supporters. He knew that many more people would be willing to support him after those two men decided to support him.

“Humph, I refuse to believe that brat will be able to set up any heaven-defying spirit formation,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors continued to scoff at Chu Feng. They did not have a whole new level of respect for him just because he was an Asura World Spiritist.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng began to set up his spirit formation. Once he began to reveal his fluid and rapid motions in setting up his world spirit formation, the expressions of the crowd changed immediately.

Even the Four World Spiritist Emperors revealed astonished expressions.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s methods in setting up his spirit formation were truly at the apex of the Royal-cloak World Spiritist level.

As the saying goes, once an expert unleashes his talent, people will know whether or not he is a true expert immediately. After Chu Feng unleashed his techniques, the doubt the crowd held toward him disappeared instantly.

It was instead replaced with a whole new level of respect.

“Expert. He is an actual world spiritist expert,” Someone was unable to contain himself from commending Chu Feng.

“Amazing. As expected of an Asura World Spiritist. It would appear that we have truly failed to recognize Mount Tai today.”

Following that, more and more people began to express their admiration for Chu Feng. Those people that had looked down on Chu Feng earlier revealed expressions of shame.

The techniques Chu Feng used to set up his spirit formation were things that many people present were incapable of accomplishing.

He was a true master!!!

“Buzz~~~”

Finally, light flourished; Chu Feng’s spirit formation was completed.

At that moment, many people were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Merely by looking at that spirit formation, they were able to tell that it was very powerful. Most importantly, Chu Feng had finished setting up that spirit formation in such a short period of time.

As for that, it greatly manifested how masterful in world spirit techniques Chu Feng was.

“Everyone, I am unable to break this fog by myself. I will need everyone’s help.”

“Everyone, you all merely need to pour your world spirit power into this formation to help me.”

“Of course... the greater the amount of world spirit power, the better. Thus, I hope that seniors will not be too stingy with your world spirit power.”

“After a sufficient amount of spirit power is gathered, I will then activate this spirit formation to break through that purple fog,” Chu Feng said to the crowd.

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

Right after Chu Feng finished saying those words, two boundless streams of spirit power began to pour into Chu Feng’s spirit formation like two golden dragons.

It was Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords. The two of them kept their promise, and took the initiative to support Chu Feng. They began to steadily pour spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

Following them, Liu Xiaoli, Elder Ning Shuang and Li Rui also began to pour their spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

“Young friend, I’ll trust you.”

Suddenly, a world spiritist from the Zhou Heavenly Clan spoke. Although his reputation was not as grand as Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords’, he remained a very famous world spiritist.

“I’ll also trust you!!!”

“Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz~~~”

.....

Following that, the other people present also began to pour their spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

With the increase in the amount of people, the spirit power in the spirit formation began to surge violently.

That change caused the crowd to firmly believe that Chu Feng’s spirit formation was no small matter. In the end, apart from the Four World Spiritist Emperors, all of the people present poured their spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

Even the world spiritists that arrived later and did not know what had happened joined in pouring their spirit power into Chu Feng's spirit formation without the slightest hesitation the moment they found out what was happening.

However, the Four World Spiritist Emperors were still not joining.

Chapter 2226 – Quite Amazing

---

“Four World Spiritist Emperors, why are you all still not helping?” Daoist Three Swords looked to the Four World Spiritist Emperors with a very displeased expression.

“While you all might be willing to exhaust your power for that brat, the four of us are not,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“Very well, if Brother Chu Feng is able to help us break through that purple fog, those who have helped will all be able to pass through it. However, those who have not helped will not be allowed to pass,” Daoist Three Swords said.

“Daoist Three Swords, don’t you try to bully us excessively. While others might be afraid of your Immortal Sword School, we four brothers are not afraid at all!!!” The eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor spoke in a furious manner.

“Haha, the four of you brothers are not scared of our Immortal Sword School? Even your mother does not dare to say something like that,” Daoist Three Swords laughed mockingly.

Hearing those words, the Four World Spiritist Emperors clenched their fists in fury. Rage fumed between their gritted teeth, and flames of fury were burning in their eyes.

However, none of them dared to actually act out against Daoist Three Swords. They knew that they would definitely be no match for him.

Furthermore, what Daoist Three Swords had said was true too. Likely, even their mother would not dare to say that she was not afraid of the Immortal Sword School.

“Brat, what will you do if you are unable to break through that purple fog?” Suddenly, the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor turned his furious gaze to Chu Feng.

Being unable to do anything to Daoist Three Swords, he planned to vent his fury on Chu Feng.

As for Chu Feng, even though he was not someone fond of stirring up troubles, he was also not someone afraid of troubles. Faced with the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors deliberately making things difficult for him, Chu Feng would not be polite with them either. Thus, he replied, “What will you do if I am able to break through the purple fog?”

“What will I do? If you are able to break through the purple fog, I will give you an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.”

“However, if you fail to break through that purple fog, you must publicly kneel and kowtow to me to apologize. Then, you are to slap yourself a hundred times and scram immediately,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors shouted angrily.

“Very well. If I am unable to break through that purple mist, I will do as you said. However, I do not want an Incomplete Ancestral Armament if I am able to break through the purple mist.”

“Instead, I want you to publicly kneel and kowtow to apologize to me. Then, you are to slap yourself a hundred times and scram immediately,” Chu Feng said.

“You dare speak to me like this?” The anger on the face of the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor grew stronger.

“Why wouldn’t I dare to speak to you like this?” Chu Feng smiled mockingly. Then, he said, “Do you dare to take this bet or not? Speak frankly.”

“You!!!” Hearing those words, the expression of the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor grew tensed. He was actually scared.

He would not be afraid if it was merely a gamble with an Incomplete Ancestral Armament on the line. If he were to lose, then so be it. After all, he did not care about an Incomplete Ancestral Armament at all.

However, to publicly kneel and kowtow to apologize, and then slap himself a hundred times was something that he was incapable of doing.

“Big brother, forget about it. He is merely a nobody, there is no need for you to make things too difficult on him. You should just give him a chance,” Right at that moment, the third of the Four World Spiritist Emperors spoke.

“Very well, since my third brother is pleading for leniency for you, I will not bicker with you,” The eldest of the World Spiritist Four Emperors said.

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed lightly at the words spoken by the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor.

It was not only Chu Feng who laughed. Many of the people present snickered in their hearts. They were all able to tell that it was not the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors that was sparing Chu Feng. Rather, he was scared of gambling against Chu Feng.

At that moment, the Four World Spiritist Emperors also felt very humiliated.

Thus, they were currently looking at Chu Feng with gazes of hatred that resembled invisible daggers. They wished that they could kill Chu Feng with their gazes.

However, they only dared to threaten Chu Feng with their malicious gazes, and still began to obediently instill their spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

It must be said that the spirit power of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was truly strong. After they instilled their spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation, Chu Feng’s spirit formation started to surge even more violently.

Everyone was able to sense that the power of Chu Feng’s spirit formation had grown to a very frightening level. At the same time, they began to worry. With how powerful the spirit formation had become, would Chu Feng really be able to control it? They felt that the spirit power contained in the spirit formation seemed to have already surpassed the limits of a Royal-cloak World Spiritist.

“Haha, big brother, that brat is going to fail. All of the world spiritists present are experts. All of their world spirit power is extremely strong.”

“With that much spirit power, the spirit power contained in that spirit formation is on the verge of exceeding the limits of Royal-level spirit power.”

“That brat will not be able to control it. The way I see it, not to mention that he will not be able to break through the purple mist, he himself will likely suffer an enormous backlash from the spirit power gathered,” The second eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors also noticed that the situation was amiss. Thus, he sent a voice transmission to his big brother rejoicing at Chu Feng’s incoming disaster.

“Humph, he’s reaping what he’s sown. Brothers, increase your spirit power. As long as that brat fails, I shall see what else Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket can say,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said through a voice transmission.

After receiving his voice transmission, his three younger brothers also began to frantically pour their spirit power into Chu Feng’s spirit formation. They wanted to make Chu Feng fail in controlling that spirit power and publicly humiliate himself.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng shouted, “Formation, activate!!!”

After that, his spirit formation flashed with light that filled the entire surrounding area.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion was heard. That spirit formation had exploded. The energy formed by the gathering of boundless spirit power broke through Chu Feng's spirit formation and began to spread in all directions. Those energy ripples were going to swallow everything in the surroundings.

“Oh no!” At that moment, many of the people present revealed frightened gazes. The reason for that was because the power contained in that energy ripple of spirit power was truly extraordinary, and not to be looked down upon.

“Trash, you are unable to even properly control a spirit formation. Yet you dared to demand that we...” Upon seeing that sight, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors immediately rejoiced in Chu Feng's misfortune, and began to rain curses upon him.

“This...” However, before he could finish his words, he turned tongue-tied and stood there in a stunned manner.

“Heavens, he actually!!!” At that moment, many of the people present were also stunned like the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

The explosion that they thought would have happened did not actually happen. Instead, the boundless spirit power was actually immobile in the air.

It was controlled, controlled by Chu Feng.

Suddenly, Chu Feng shouted, “Break!!!”

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

The golden light that covered the sky began to gather in one place like golden raindrops, that then turned into golden waves.

One wave after another, they began to crash into the purple fog.

“Quickly, look! That purple fog has started to gradually vanish!”

Seeing that scene, someone cried out in alarm. After that, practically everyone present revealed overjoyed expressions.

The purple fog that they were helpless against was actually gradually vanishing. As such, how could they not be overjoyed?

“How could this be? He actually managed to control such an enormous amount of spirit power?”

At the moment when everyone was overjoyed, the expressions of the Four World Spiritist Emperors became very ugly. The reason for that was because this wasn't the result they had hoped for.

However, what they did not wish to happen the most was actually happening. The purple fog was being dispersed by Chu Feng's spirit formation. Furthermore, the dispersed area was steadily increasing.

This not only brought enormous joy to the crowd, this also caught the attention of a gaze in the depths of Mount Cloud Crane.

It was a golden red-crowned crane. The crane stood high in the clouds as it looked down like a divine being overlooking mortals.

However, it actually revealed an astonished expression in its bright and expressive eyes.

Suddenly, the golden red-crowned crane actually spoke human speech.

“That brat, he's quite amazing.”

Chapter 2227 – Floating Islands

---

“Mn?”

Upon hearing what that golden crane said, a questioning voice suddenly sounded from beside it.

The person who spoke was actually that old monk wearing ordinary clothing Chu Feng had met in the Darknight Ghost Forest.

Originally, the old monk was resting with his eyes closed. However, upon hearing what the golden crane said, he turned his gaze toward the direction of the golden crane’s gaze.

“It’s him?” Suddenly, the old monk revealed an expression of surprise.

“Buzz~~~”

After hearing what the old monk said, the golden crane’s body began to change. From a crane, it turned into a golden old man.

Golden clothes, golden hair, a golden beard and golden eyebrows. In fact, even his skin was golden. Especially those golden eyes, they were extraordinarily spirited.

Standing there, he gave off dazzling golden light. He was the master of Mount Cloud Crane, the renowned Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Old Poisonous Substance, you know that brat?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked the old monk.

“I have met him once before. That child possesses an extraordinary origin. However, it is unsuitable for me to tell you about his origin,” The old monk said.

“You’re actually being mysterious with me now?” The Golden Crane True Immortal curled his lips. Then, he said, “Even if you refuse to tell me, I am not interested in knowing either way.”

“Golden Crane, I’ve heard that you’ve come to this Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for the sake of finding a disciple to impart what you’ve learned in your lifetime.”

“The way I see it, that Chu Feng is a very decent candidate,” The old monk said.

“That Chu Feng is indeed decent. However, that is only in terms of world spirit techniques. Although he is indeed an extremely rare world spiritist genius, it remains that what I am mainly imparting will be things associated with martial cultivation. Thus, he is not suitable,” Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Perhaps that Chu Feng will give you a pleasant surprise in terms of martial cultivation,” The old monk said.

“I don’t know about that. I have seen many geniuses like him. However, only a few ever managed to truly mature.”

“I do not have to time to waste on a brat like him,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“But it seems like the one you’ve chosen does not appreciate your kind intentions?” The old monk said.

Hearing those words, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s gaze flickered slightly. However, he soon revealed a confident smile. He said, “That brat is a bit rebellious. However, sooner or later, I will be able to subdue him and make him my disciple.”

.....

At the same time, the purple fog was dispersing more and more from Chu Feng’s attack.

Finally, it was completely dispersed. After the purple fog was dispersed, a world spirit wall flickering with golden light appeared.

Naturally, that world spirit wall was a defensive spirit formation. Originally, that defensive spirit formation had been very powerful. It had injured that Zhou Heavenly Clan’s expert, as well as many other world spiritists.

However, after the purple fog disappeared, the power of that defensive spirit formation greatly diminished as well. Furthermore, its flaws were also exposed.

Thus, there was simply no need for Chu Feng to do anything, as the Four World Spiritist Emperors and the others managed to easily break through that spirit formation wall.

After that spirit formation wall was shattered, a bottomless cliff appeared.

No one would've expected that there would be such an enormously vast bottomless cliff on Mount Cloud Crane.

Most importantly, over two hundred floating islands were floating above the cliff. Furthermore, all of the floating islands were different from one another.

It was truly a spectacular sight that filled one's entire line of sight.

“Heavens! I'm not dreaming, right?!”

“A blessing, this is most definitely a blessing. It would appear that the Golden Crane True Immortal is truly good to us. Even though he set up that purple fog, that enormously difficult problem for us to overcome, he also prepared such a blessing for us.”

After seeing those floating islands, many of the people present revealed overjoyed expressions. Even the Four World Spiritist Emperors had smiles on their faces.

“Senior Ning Shuang, exactly what is so special about those islands? Why is everyone so excited?” Chu Feng asked curiously. He discovered that Elder Ning Shuang and Li Rui also had extremely excited expressions. Likely, they knew the secret of the islands.

“Little friend Chu Feng, the founder of Mount Cloud Crane is an Exalted level expert. What are Exalted? They are existences akin to legend. However, he truly existed.”

“As for those islands, they too were legends. Reportedly, that Exalted had left behind many treasures on those islands.”

“This holds especially true for one of the islands. Reportedly, that Exalted trained on that island before. If one were to train on that island, one would be able to comprehend the secrets of martial cultivation, and easily reach a breakthrough,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“So that’s the case,” After learning about it, Chu Feng secretly activated his Heaven’s Eyes and began to inspect the two hundred-plus floating islands.

Due to the fact that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques had grown more and more powerful, his Heaven’s Eyes had also grown more and more powerful. Not only had they become much more perceptive, the people beside him were also unable to notice him using his special observation technique.

“Sure enough, there are treasures here.”

After observing the floating islands, Chu Feng felt joy in his heart.

He discovered that, of the two hundred-plus floating islands here, there were at least thirty-nine floating islands that contained treasures.

He had identified them all with his Heaven’s Eyes. Furthermore, if his analysis was correct, Chu Feng felt that he had discovered the island that the legendary Exalted had trained on.

If one were to observe that floating island with ordinary observation techniques, one would only find it to be an ordinary island.

However, Chu Feng noticed that there was a special martial power lingering on that island. That martial power was in an illusory state. However, the martial power was metamorphosed into a special pattern. It was as if a special martial skill was flowing through the island.

However, Chu Feng knew that was not a martial skill. Instead, it should be an indication that special profoundness was hidden in that place.

Merely, that martial power was truly well-hidden. Unless one possessed an observation method like the Heaven's Eyes, it would be extremely hard for one to discover it.

Furthermore, Chu Feng noticed that even though only thirty nine islands contained treasures, there were spirit formations hidden on all two hundred plus islands.

Those spirit formations should have been added by others, as they had not been set up long ago.

Furthermore, the spirit formations were of different strengths. Only by breaking through the spirit formations would one be able to enter into the depths of the islands. Else, one would be isolated and kept outside of the islands.

Chu Feng felt that those spirit formations must be the doings of the Golden Crane True Immortal.

In other words, it was very possible for these islands to be a trial.

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

.....

Right at that moment, light suddenly began to shine. Over two hundred teleportation formations appeared on the cliff. Furthermore, an illusory small-scale island was floating above every teleportation formation. This indicated that those teleportation formations corresponded to the two hundred-plus floating islands.

“Everyone, congratulations on reaching this place. Before you all is the final step to ascending Mount Cloud Crane.”

“You all can group up in pairs and enter an island. Each of the islands contains a spirit formation. Only by breaking through that spirit formation will you all be able to enter the depths of the islands.”

“In the depths of each island is a teleportation formation. Once you enter that teleportation formation, you all will be able to reach the summit of Mount Cloud Crane.”

“Twenty hours. You all have twenty hours. After twenty hours have passed, all those that have reached the summit of Mount Cloud Crane are to conduct a contest of world spirit techniques.”

“This contest will be a melee. Only the first four individuals that successfully break through the siege will be able to enter the spirit formation I have personally set up.”

The Golden Crane True Immortal’s voice sounded. Sure enough, as Chu Feng had anticipated, the islands were a type of test.

Chapter 2228 – Cold Shine

---

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Once the Golden Crane True Immortal’s words were said, the crowd present immediately charged toward those teleportation formations. They all wanted to be the first choose the islands which they felt contained treasures.

This was especially true for the Four World Spiritist Emperors. They were the fastest among everyone. At that moment, the four of them had already entered two respective floating islands.

After the two of them entered the teleportation formations, those teleportation formations disappeared. In other words, only two individuals were allowed to enter a teleportation formation. After two individuals entered a teleportation formation, the teleportation formation would disappear, and others would not be able to enter.

Furthermore, Chu Feng noticed that the two islands chosen by the Four World Spiritist Emperors indeed contained treasures. This meant that their perceptions were very decent.

Unfortunately, they had not managed to choose the island that the Exalted had trained on.

“Brother Chu Feng, let us meet again on the summit of Mount Cloud Crane,” Daoist Three Swords clasped his fist at Chu Feng. Then, he and another world spiritist from the Immortal Sword School set foot into a teleportation formation. The island corresponding to the teleportation formation they entered was also an island that contained treasures.

“Almsgiver Chu Feng, til we meet again,” Grandmaster Pocket bid his farewell to Chu Feng courteously. Then, he entered a teleportation formation by himself. Seeing him enter the teleportation formation, a world spiritist from the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple also entered that teleportation formation.

However, Chu Feng noticed that the island Grandmaster Pocket chose was one without treasures.

Chu Feng did not feel that Grandmaster Pocket did not possess the perceptive ability to determine which islands possessed treasures. Perhaps, he had deliberately chosen an island without treasures because he did not wish to compete with others.

Unfortunately, that world spiritist that had followed him was destined to not be able to obtain any treasures .

“Let us go too,” Chu Feng said to Liu Xiaoli.

“Mn,” Liu Xiaoli nodded.

“Brother Chu Feng, please wait,” Right at that moment, Li Rui grabbed Chu Feng.

“Brother Li Rui, do you need anything?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Brother Chu Feng, my world spirit techniques are relatively weak. I fear that if I am to journey with Elder Ning Shuang, both of us will fail in breaking through that spirit formation on the floating island.”

“Thus, I hope to be able to journey with you. Might it be possible for you to bring me instead?” Li Rui asked.

“.....” Chu Feng did not answer. Instead, he looked to Liu Xiaoli beside him.

“If that’s the case, I can go with Elder Ning Shuang,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“That would be good too,” Elder Ning Shuang nodded with a smile.

“Very well then,” Seeing this, Chu Feng naturally did not refuse. Instead, he secretly sent a voice transmission to Elder Ning Shuang to tell them which island they should choose.

The island Chu Feng chose for them not only contained treasures, it also possessed a spirit formation that was not too difficult to pass. With the abilities the two of them possessed, they should be able to break through that spirit formation easily.

“My thanks,” Elder Ning Shuang trusted Chu Feng’s judgment enormously. After receiving Chu Feng’s recommendation, he revealed an overjoyed expression. Then, together with Liu Xiaoli, he entered the teleportation formation to that island.

“Let’s go too,” Then, Chu Feng brought Li Rui and arrived before a teleportation formation. That teleportation formation was precisely the one that led to the floating island where that Exalted had trained.

Merely, no one was able to tell what was special about that island. As such, no one had thought about choosing that floating island.

“Brother Chu Feng, are we to choose this island?” At that moment, Li Rui revealed a puzzled expression.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he stepped into the teleportation formation.

Seeing Chu Feng enter, Li Rui revealed a slight hesitation. The reason for that was because he felt that the island was too ordinary. Else, why would no one think about choosing that island?

However, in the end, he clenched his teeth and entered the teleportation formation after Chu Feng.

“He actually chose correctly? Is that a coincidence?” The Golden Crane True Immortal noticed that scene. His gaze grew complicated.

“The way I see it, it’s the embodiment of his strength. Could it be that you didn’t notice that boy’s gaze had turned slightly unusual earlier?” The old monk said.

“Indeed, it was unusual. It seems that he possesses an observation method that surpasses those of ordinary individuals,” The Golden Crane True Immortal nodded in agreement. However, he then sighed.

“Why are you sighing?” The old monk asked.

“A clever person may become the victim of his own ingenuity,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What do you mean?” The old monk asked.

“That island is indeed the island where that Exalted trained before. Merely, the cliff that he had trained in was already sealed. With that brat’s world spirit techniques, it is simply impossible for him to undo the seal.”

“Thus, even if he has chosen correctly, he will still wind up empty-handed. As such, it would be better had he chosen another island,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“You old codger. You’re truly too selfish. You actually went out of your way to seal the location where the Exalted trained.” The old monk said with an expression of contempt.

“No, it was not me who sealed it. Instead, it was personally sealed by that Exalted,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Oh?” Hearing those words, the old monk’s expression changed slightly. Then, he said, “It would seem that that brat is truly unfortunate then.”

.....

At that moment, Chu Feng and Li Rui had already set foot onto that island.

After arriving on the island, Chu Feng and Li Rui were surprised to discover that the island was a place of charm and beauty.

Compared to when looking from the outside, this island was much more vast.

It was very large, extremely large. The surface area of this island simply surpassed one's imagination.

Although the island was enormous, Chu Feng and Li Rui were immediately blocked by a layer of spirit formation right after walking several steps inward.

In other words, if they failed to remove the spirit formation, they would not be able to enter the depths of the island.

However, something like that would naturally not be able to stop Chu Feng. Using merely a short moment of time, Chu Feng completely undid the spirit formation.

“Wow! Brother Chu Feng, your world spirit techniques are truly amazing.”

“If it wasn't for the fact that your spirit power still remains Royal-level spirit power, I would truly be skeptical as to whether you were an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” Li Rui exclaimed in admiration. He was praising Chu Feng nonstop.

After all, he was also a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. However, when he saw the spirit formation, he felt as if he had seen an enormous mountain. It would simply be impossible for him to pass through the spirit formation in twenty hours' time.

However, Chu Feng had actually managed to undo that spirit formation in only a short period of time. This showed him that even though the two of them were both Royal-cloak World Spiritists, there was an enormous difference in strength between their world spirit techniques.

“Brother Li Rui, you are flattering me. Let's go,” Chu Feng said with a light smile.

Suddenly, Li Rui asked, “Brother Chu Feng, do you sense that this place contains a special sort of power?”

“Indeed, there's a special power here. It seems to be binding world spirit gates,” Chu Feng also noticed the strangeness of the place.

“You are truly clever. While that power does not possess much usefulness, it is able to make world spiritists unable to open their world spirit gates here.”

“In other words, they will not be able to summon their world spirits,” Li Rui said.

“That is indeed the case. This power is very ancient. It is very likely the doing of that Exalted. Merely, why would he set up such a power here? Could it be that he dislikes world spiritists?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“I do not know about that. However, there is one thing that I do know,” Li Rui said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“You will die,” Li Rui suddenly narrowed his eyebrows. Coldness shone in his previously smiling eyes. His killing intent was overflowing.

“Boom~~~”

At that time, he flipped his palm. Then, a burst of martial power surged toward Chu Feng.

That surging martial power was extremely strong. If Chu Feng were to be struck by it, he would undoubtedly be killed.

Li Rui was planning to kill Chu Feng!!!

Chapter 2229 – No Match

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Seeing that the situation was bad, Chu Feng’s eyes immediately flickered with lightning. His Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings instantly appeared alongside his dazzling lightnings.

In merely an instant, Chu Feng’s aura had increased from rank two Half Martial Ancestor to rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

“Woosh~~~”

After Chu Feng’s cultivation increased, he did not bother to dodge Li Rui’s attack. Instead, he made a fist and shot it forth.

He was planning to use his own strength to receive that Li Rui’s attack; he was planning to meet force with force.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion sounded. Heaven and earth started to tremble. Not only did Chu Feng disperse Li Rui’s attack with his fist strike, he also knocked Li Rui back, causing him to reveal an expression of astonishment.

Shocked. Li Rui was extremely shocked. After all, he was a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. The way he saw it, even if Chu Feng were to unleash his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, even if his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivations was considered, he would only be able to contend against ordinary rank seven Half Martial Ancestors, and would most definitely not be a match for him.

However, judging from the situation now, things had clearly not gone the way he had anticipated. Chu Feng was not as simple as being able to contend against rank seven Half Martial Ancestors. Instead, his strength had already surpassed that of ordinary rank seven Half Martial Ancestors.

“It would seem that I have underestimated you,” After a moment of astonishment, Li Rui revealed a fascinating smile. It was as if he felt greater anticipation for the upcoming battle.

“Why are you attacking me? I don’t seem to remember any grudges or grievances between us,” Chu Feng asked with a cold tone. Even if he must fight Li Rui, he must first know why. After all, Li Rui’s identity was somewhat special; he was Xu Yiyi’s senior brother.

“Xu Yiyi? Is it because of her?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s gaze changed as he mentioned Xu Yiyi’s name.

“Clever. Indeed, it’s because of junior sister Yiyi. Although we do not know why that is the case, all of us can tell that junior sister Yiyi thinks very highly of you.”

“She values you more than even us, her fellow martial brothers and sisters,” Li Rui said.

“You’re overthinking things. While it is true that Xu Yiyi treats me very well, it is only because I helped her before. Perhaps she feels grateful toward me, and is not actually fond of me. At the very most, the two of us would only be friends,” Chu Feng explained.

“I naturally understand what you mean. However, it remains that there is the possibility that she likes you. As for me, I must completely eliminate that possibility,” Li Rui said.

“It seems that you are determined to kill me?” Chu Feng’s eyes narrowed. Coldness emerged in his eyes.

“I know that your world spirit is extremely powerful, and was capable of killing even Hong Xi. If it wasn’t for the fact that this place prevents the summoning of one’s world spirits, I would naturally not dare to fight against you.”

“Furthermore, a place like this is filled with dangers. Even if you are to die here, no one would find anything unusual about it.”

“Thus, this is the best opportunity for me to kill you.”

“Bang~~~”

After Li Rui said those words, an explosion sounded from his body. Then, light yellow gaseous flames were emitted from his body.

At that moment, his long hair fluttered in the air. Soon, it stood up straight and, began to sway left and right.

Being illuminated by the light yellow light, Li Rui appeared to have turned a light yellow color.

Furthermore, there were many veined patterns moving about in the gaseous flames.

Most importantly, his aura had increased. From his original cultivation of rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, the aura that he currently emitted was that of a rank eight Half Martial Ancestor.

“Divine Power?” Chu Feng was already able to tell that Li Rui’s light yellow gaseous flames were a sort of Divine Power.

It was that Divine Power that had increased Li Rui’s cultivation by a level. Furthermore, his battle power had also received an enormous increase.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, Li Rui flipped his palm, and a black blade appeared in his hand.

It was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Li Rui was extremely strong to begin with. Adding on his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, Li Rui’s strength had increased by an enormous amount. As his light yellow gaseous flames spread to the surrounding space, the surrounding space started to shatter.

“Heh...” Seeing this scene, Chu Feng suddenly laughed. He was able to tell that not only was Li Rui planning to kill him, he was extremely determined to kill him.

“I, Li Rui, am never one to do something that I am not confident in. Since I attacked you today, I will definitely kill you.”

“Clank~~~”

Li Rui unleashed his attack. His black blade was slashed at Chu Feng.

Before the blade arrived, the surging oppressive might brought forth by the blade blew Chu Feng’s hair into disorder, and caused his clothing to flutter in the wind. Even his face was distorted.

“Clank~~~”

When the black blade landed, sparks and energy ripples flew about in all directions.

It was blocked.

At that moment, Chu Feng was holding his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, the Magma Emperor Sword, horizontally before him.

He had blocked Li Rui’s attack with that sword.

“Impossible!!!”

Li Rui was greatly alarmed. It was reasonable for him to not be able to easily kill Chu Feng as a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. After all, Chu Feng possessed a battle power capable of contending against ordinary rank seven Half Martial Ancestors.

However, he had clearly increased his cultivation to that of a rank eight Half Martial Ancestor now. Even if Chu Feng possessed an Incomplete Ancestral Armament, it should still be impossible for him to block his attack.

He should be able to easily kill Chu Feng!!!

“Since you want to kill me, there is no reason for me to let you live.”

At the moment when Li Rui was astonished, Chu Feng unleashed attacks at Li Rui with lightning speed.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Numerous blade rays shot toward Li Rui, leaving him without a way to escape.

It was a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill. Chu Feng had unleashed a fatal attack from the get-go. Like Li Rui did to him, Chu Feng did not plan to give Li Rui the time to take a breath.

“I refuse to believe!!!”

Li Rui shouted. Then, he swept out the black blade in his hand.

“Boom~~~”

His slash shook heaven and earth, and shattered space itself.

Even Chu Feng’s blade rays were completely dispersed by Li Rui’s slash.

In fact, Chu Feng was also forced back many steps by the aftermath of that slash.

“.....”

At that moment, Chu Feng was frowning. He knew that the situation was bad.

The reason for that was because Li Rui had also unleashed a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill. However, its might was able to completely suppress his own Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

This meant that Li Rui was no ordinary character, that he also possessed an extremely strong battle power.

If he were fighting against an ordinary rank eight Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng would be able to contend against that individual. Even if he couldn’t win, he would at least be able to force a draw.

However, when faced with Li Rui, Chu Feng would not be a match.

Suddenly, Li Rui shouted, “Emperor Taboo Martial Skill: Endless

Twilight!!!” Then, many streams of twilight began to appear from his body. After the twilight appeared, it formed many blade rays that began to shoot toward Chu Feng from all directions.

Faced with the incoming attack, that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill that seemed to be impossible to resist, a determined expression flashed through Chu Feng’s gaze.

“Puu, puu, puu~~~”

Countless twilight blade rays began to penetrate Chu Feng’s body. They ruthlessly tore Chu Feng’s body apart and crushed his bones. Not even a speck of his body remained.

However, even with that being the case, the twilight blade rays were still flying toward where Chu Feng had previously stood and completely shattered the surroundings.

At the moment when the twilight blade rays stopped, the surrounding several thousand meter area around Li Rui was completely destroyed. Even the ground beneath Li Rui’s feet was destroyed and turned into an enormous thousand-meter-deep abyss.

“I said it before. I, Li Rui, will never do something I have no certainty of. Since I have decided to act, you will undoubtedly die,” Li Rui revealed a proud expression.

“However, Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, although you have died, I must admit that you were very powerful. Your battle power surpassed that of ordinary Heavenly Clansmen.”

“Fortunately, I am the one who attacked you this time. If it were someone else, they might really not have been able to kill you.”

After he finished saying those words, Li Rui took a long breath. He seemed to be trying to sense something.

However, after that breath, his expression suddenly changed. Li Rui revealed an alarmed expression, and began to nervously gaze at his surroundings.

After a short moment, he tightly clenched his fist. From head to toe, blue veins surged forth.

“That bastard! He actually escaped?!” Li Rui yelled with fuming with rage from between gritted teeth.

Chapter 2230 – Exalted's Remnants

---

At a certain location on the island.

Suddenly, five unremarkable bodies of energies flew rapidly through the air. Shortly afterward, they fused together.

Soon, the five energies turned into the appearance of a man. It was Chu Feng.

“What a close call. If I didn’t possess the Five Elements Secret Skill, it would have been difficult for me to escape.”

What Chu Feng said was what he actually felt. Li Rui’s battle power was extremely strong; he was not an ordinary opponent. If Chu Feng were to fight him head on, he would definitely be no match for Li Rui.

However, Chu Feng’s Five Elements Secret Skills had bestowed him a special power, an indestructible and unkillable body against those with a similar level of battle power. Even if Chu Feng’s body was to be torn to pieces and his bones crushed, he would still not suffer any damage.

Although Chu Feng might not be able to defeat his opponent, it would also be very difficult for his opponent to kill Chu Feng. For Chu Feng, Li Rui was one such opponent.

Of course, if Chu Feng’s opponent was too strong, if his opponent was many times stronger than him, even if he were to use his Five Elements Secret Skills, he would not be able to escape death.

When before absolute power, all sorts of techniques became useless.

“This guy, he truly gave a lot of thought to this. He knew that this Queen would be unable to appear here; that is why he dared to attack you.”

“After we leave this place, let this Queen take care of him,” Her

Lady Queen said angrily.

“There’s no need, I will personally take care of that guy,” Chu Feng said.

“It would naturally not be difficult for you to handle him. But, you would need to become at least a rank three Half Martial Ancestor. Else... it would be very difficult for you to defeat him,” Eggy said.

“It’s merely rank three Half Martial Ancestor. I might become one without even leaving Mount Cloud Crane. After all, this island is the island where the Exalted trained,” Chu Feng said.

“So, you’ve found it?” Her Lady Queen revealed an expression of joy.

“Naturally. It is there,” Chu Feng pointed to the forest ahead.

“There?” Her Lady Queen revealed a skeptical gaze. That forest appeared too ordinary; she was unable to determine anything.

“Inside that forest is the entrance to the cultivation location. However, one must use a special spirit formation in order to make it appear.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he began to set up his spirit formation. He was not worried about Li Rui catching up to him, because he had made many preparations in his escape. Those preparations he set up would end up affecting Li Rui’s judgement, making it impossible for him to find his current location.

At the moment when Chu Feng was earnestly setting up his spirit formation, he did not know that up in the distant sky and above the white clouds were two gazes that were fixed onto him.

“That spirit formation is truly wondrous. Unfortunately, it is impossible for him to succeed,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“You’ve completely sealed off this place, it’s naturally impossible for him to remove the seal,” The plain clothed old monk said with contempt.

“Old Poisonous Substance, didn’t I already say that it wasn’t sealed by me, but that Exalted instead?” The Golden Crane True Immortal said angrily.

“Fine, fine, fine. I got it, okay? In that case, can you not help him undo that seal?” The old monk said.

“You think I don’t want to help him? The thing is, I cannot undo that seal,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

The old monk did not reply. Instead, he snorted lightly. However, his eyes were revealing a skeptical gaze. He did not believe that the Golden Crane True Immortal was truly unable to undo the seal.

At that moment, Chu Feng had finished setting up his spirit formation. Once his grand spirit formation was activated, dazzling light filled the surroundings, seemingly covering that entire forest.

However, not long after the spirit formation was activated, Chu Feng stopped it. Not only did he stop its activation, he also dispersed the spirit formation.

“What’s wrong? Could it be that it’s not there?” Eggy asked in a confused manner.

“No, it is there. That place is the entrance,” Chu Feng pointed to a certain place in the forest.

“Then why did you undo the seal? Why did you disperse your spirit formation?” Eggy asked.

“I can’t undo the seal; it’s too difficult. Not to mention now, even if I am to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, I would still not be able to undo the seal,” Chu Feng said.

“In the end, it’s because my strength is insufficient,” Chu Feng stood up and began to walk away. He had already given up.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, strange fluctuations suddenly pulsed from behind him.

Chu Feng turned around to look. Immediately, his pupils shrunk and his expression changed enormously. Shock filled his eyes.

He was shocked to discover that a world spirit gate had opened. As for that world spirit gate, it was... precisely the entrance to the place where that Exalted had trained in.

“You, you’ve clearly undone the seal. Yet, you actually deceived this Queen. You are truly unruly. Watch how this Queen will take care of you later,” Upon seeing that world spirit gate, Eggy was extremely happy. Even though she was blaming Chu Feng, she had an extremely enchanting smile.

“I... this was not unsealed by me,” Chu Feng said.

“What? It’s wasn’t unsealed by you?” Eggy was also very shocked.

“It really wasn’t unsealed by me. The reason for that is because it is simply impossible for me to undo the seal. Thus, evidently, it has opened by itself,” Chu Feng said.

“Ah?” Eggy became even more shocked.

At that moment, above the clouds, the old monk also revealed an elated expression. He walked over to the Golden Crane True Immortal and patted his shoulder. “Golden Crane, you have a sharp tongue but a soft heart, eh? Didn’t you say that you were not going to help? Turns out, you still helped.”

“But, you are neither a relative nor a friend to him, so why did you help him? Say, could it be that you still want to take him as a disciple?”

“It wasn’t me,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What did you say?” The old monk asked.

“It opened by itself,” The Golden Crane True Immortal replied.

“Oh?” Hearing those words, the expression of the old monk turned serious. He stared carefully at that world spirit gate. It was as if he was seeing through everything inside the world spirit gate.

“There are no dangers inside. Did you truly not open it?” The old monk asked again.

“Why would I deceive you? It’s truly not me,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said in an annoyed manner.

“In that case, things are even more interesting,” A faint smiling expression appeared in the old monk’s serious gaze.

If it wasn’t the Golden Crane True Immortal, that would mean that the seal was undone by the legendary Exalted.

Even if it wasn’t personally undone by the Exalted, it would mean that Chu Feng had done something that satisfied the mechanism left behind by the Exalted, and caused the world spirit gate to open.

In other words, Chu Feng had obtained the acknowledgement of that Exalted, and received the opportunity to enter that place.

At that moment, Chu Feng had already entered the world spirit gate.

After passing through the world spirit gate, Chu Feng’s eyes were opened to a new sight.

It... was another world.

He was standing on the summit of a cliff. As far as the eye could see, extremely beautiful painting-like scenery filled the world.

Most importantly, after Chu Feng entered that place, he felt a sensation that he had never felt before. It was as if there were many mysteries hidden in that world. He felt that if he could comprehend those mysteries, he would be able to obtain a whole new understanding toward the path of martial cultivation, allowing for easier breakthroughs of the cultivation bottlenecks.

“Wow! There are so many Natural Oddities. Chu Feng, you’ve struck rich!” At that moment, Eggy was unable to stop herself from cheering.

The reason for that was because there was a stone wall above the cliff. Although the stone wall was made of stone, it was constructed in a framework of shelves. The shelves were filled with all different kinds of unusual artworks.

However, all of the artworks were constructed from Natural Oddities that contained a dense amount of Natural Energy.

Most shockingly, the stone wall was enormous, and contained a very large amount of Natural Oddities – they were in the several thousands.

Chapter 2231 – Continuous Breakthroughs

---

“That boy has struck an enormous fortune. All those works of art were most likely personally created by that Exalted. That craftsmanship is many times superior to yours,” The plain clothed old monk said.

“Watch your words. You’re speaking as if your craftsmanship could be comparable to that,” The Golden Crane True Immortal stared at the old monk in a very displeased manner.

“I am naturally unable to compare, either. Truth be told, with so many treasures, I also wish to collect them,” Saying those words, the old monk’s expression changed. He looked profoundly at the Golden Crane True Immortal, “You couldn’t possibly be planning to refuse to hand them to that brat, right?”

“Humph, what sort of person do you consider me, Golden Crane, to be?” The Golden Crane True Immortal rolled his eyes and then said, “Since he discovered them, they’re his.”

“Not bad. It seems that I have looked down on you,” The old monk said with a beaming smile. Then, he turned his gaze toward the location where Chu Feng was at. However, his expression changed immediately. He said, “That brat, what is he doing?”

“What’s wrong?” Hearing those words, the Golden Crane True Immortal also turned his gaze toward Chu Feng’s location in curiosity.

Once he saw the scene, the Golden Crane True Immortal immediately flew into rage. Angrily, he started shouting, “Ruining masterpieces! Truly ruining masterpieces!!! Has that brat gone crazy?!!!!”

It was not that the two of them were exaggerating. To them, those Natural Oddities were all works of art, all objects for collections. After all, they were all things left behind by that Exalted.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng was sitting cross-legged on the ground with his mouth wide open, devouring the Natural Energies contained in the Natural Oddities.

It was not that Chu Feng did not know how precious those Natural Oddities were. Merely... to him, the most precious thing would be the Natural Energies.

The thousands of Natural Oddities all contained enormous amounts of Natural Energies. Chu Feng did not wish to miss this opportunity. As such, he was frantically refining them.

Finally, Chu Feng stood up and bowed to those Natural Oddities. He said, "Thank you, senior!!!"

"How was it? With all those Natural Energies, what level of cultivation are you capable of breaking through to now?" Her Lady Queen asked curiously.

"You might find it unbelievable if I tell you. However, the Natural Energies contained here were truly enormous."

"If my guess is correct, the Natural Energies contained in my dantian right now should be sufficient for me to break through to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor," Chu Feng said with a beaming smile. He was feeling extremely happy right now. After all, sufficient Natural Energy to reach rank nine Half Martial Ancestor would save him a lot of time.

"Not bad, not bad. Boy, it seems like this trip has truly been worthwhile for you," Eggy also felt happiness for Chu Feng.

After all, as she had been with Chu Feng the entire time, she knew best how difficult it was for him to accumulate Natural Energies.

Yet now, he had managed to gather sufficient Natural Energies to break through to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor at once. This truly surpassed her imagination.

Unable to contain himself, Chu Feng exclaimed, “This is the Outer World. A place with experts is a place with opportunity,”

Perhaps those Natural Energies might not amount to much to others. However, Chu Feng knew very well how important those Natural Energies were.

“A waste, truly a waste. Without those Natural Energies, the value of those collectibles made of Natural Oddities has decreased enormously.”

“What is that boy thinking? Could it be feces filled his head?” The Golden Crane True Immortal was still lamenting. He stared at those Natural Oddities with an expression of heartache.

As for Chu Feng, he simply could not hear the Golden Crane True Immortal’s complaint. At that moment, he sat cross-legged on the ground with his eyes closed. He had begun to comprehend the power here so that he could reach a breakthrough.

Time passed by rapidly. In the blink of an eye, four hours passed.

Chu Feng opened his eyes and set up a special concealing formation around him. Then, he closed his eyes again.

“It’s coming,” Right at that moment, the old monk suddenly cast his gaze towards the depths of the sky.

“What’s coming?” The Golden Crane True Immortal also looked to the deep sky in curiosity.

“That is?!!” Immediately, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s expression changed enormously. Incomparable shock appeared on his aged face.

“Divine Punishment, could that be the legendary Divine Punishment?!” The Golden Crane True Immortal muttered in astonishment.

“It is indeed the Divine Punishment. Furthermore, it is caused by Chu Feng,” The old monk said.

“That brat actually trains in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique?!” The Golden Crane True Immortal revealed an astonished expression. Then, unable to contain himself, he asked the old monk, “Exactly what is his origin?”

Hearing those words, the old monk smiled lightly. He said, “Didn’t you say that you weren’t interested?”

“Old Poisonous Substance, don’t keep me in suspense. Quickly, tell me,” The Golden Crane True Immortal urged.

“I already told you before that I would not tell you. If you wish to know, go and ask him yourself,” The old monk said with a beaming smile.

“You damned old bastard.”

“You’re trying to force me to take him as a disciple? I’m not going to be duped by you,” The Golden Crane True Immortal snorted coldly. However, his gaze was still fixed onto the sky.

The power there was too frightening. Even an expert like him felt horror upon seeing it.

“Strange, why is the power of the Divine Punishment not descending? Why is it just hovering in the sky?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Who said it hadn’t descended? Twenty percent of it has already descended, and is currently tormenting that brat,” The old monk said.

“Mn?” The Golden Crane True Immortal turned his gaze to Chu Feng, and discovered that Chu Feng was indeed clenching his teeth with a painful expression.

“But, it’s only twenty percent. That’s too strange,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What’s strange about it? That is his ability,” The old monk said.

“Not only does he train in the legendary Divine Punishment

Mysterious Technique, he was actually also able to deceive the heavens to have the Divine Punishment only descend with twenty percent of its power. Exactly what is the origin of that brat?" The Golden Crane True Immortal became even more curious about Chu Feng's identity.

"I feel that that is not what's amazing about him," The old monk said.

"What do you mean?" The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

"He only spent four hours there to comprehend the mysteries of the path of Martial Cultivation and break through the bottleneck of rank two Half Martial Ancestor. His comprehension ability is his strongest aspect," The old monk said.

"Now that you mention it, that's true," The Golden Crane True Immortal nodded in approval.

Suddenly, the Golden Crane True Immortal's gaze changed. He said, "He broke through. He managed to successfully withstand the power of that Divine Punishment."

"That's right. Although twenty percent is very frightening, it is but a piece of cake to him," The old monk nodded.

It was as it the two of them said, Chu Feng's cultivation had increased. He was no longer a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, and had become a rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

Although he was only a rank three Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng would be able to defeat Li Rui should he use his various abilities.

However, Chu Feng's eyes were not yet open. He was still comprehending the mysteries of martial cultivation left behind by that Exalted.

He was still searching for a junction to break through yet another bottleneck. He did not want to miss this rare opportunity, as he wanted to continue to breakthrough.

“He’s still comprehending. I wonder, will he be able to reach another breakthrough?” The old monk said.

“It’s difficult. There’s not much time left. If he wants to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he only has fourteen hours left.”

“As for the path of martial cultivation, the further one reaches, the more difficult it becomes. The bottleneck to rank four Half Martial Ancestor is much harder to breakthrough than the bottleneck to rank three Half Martial Ancestor.”

“Fourteen hours is absolutely not enough,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said with determination.

“That’s true,” The old monk nodded in approval.

Time passed by rapidly. It was now close to fourteen hours since Chu Feng had broken through to rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

Right at this moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain clothed old monk both raised their heads upward. They once again looked to the sky.

The power of the Divine Punishment appeared once again. Although it was invisible to ordinary people, those that were capable of seeing it all noticed it.

At this moment, these two grand characters both revealed astonished expressions.

It was precisely because they were cultivation experts and had experienced the realms of cultivation that Chu Feng was breaking through before that they were astonished upon discovering that Chu Feng reached another breakthrough in a mere fourteen hours.

“Buzz~~~”

At this moment, the power of the Divine Punishment in the sky was gradually descending.

The power of the Divine Punishment this time around was many times more powerful than the previous one. Furthermore, it was no longer twenty percent that descended. Instead, thirty percent of the Divine Punishment descended.

No matter how one looked at it, the power of the Divine Punishment this time around was much more terrifying than last time.

However, there was not too much of a change in Chu Feng's expression compared to the last time. Although he had a pained expression, he was able to withstand the Divine Punishment.

Chapter 2232 – Rank Four Half Martial Ancestor

---

“It strengthened. Thirty percent of the power from the Divine Punishment descended this time around,” The Golden Crane True Immortal seemed to have realized something.

“Likely, forty percent of the Divine Punishment’s power will descend the next time. If this is to continue, there will be a day when all of the Divine Punishment’s power will descend.”

“It seems that his heaven deceiving technique is unable to deceive the Divine Punishment forever.”

“There will be a day when he will have to face the true Divine Punishment,” The old monk said.

Compared to the Golden Crane True Immortal, the plain clothed old monk knew more about the situation with Chu Feng’s breakthrough. When he had broken through to rank two Half Martial Ancestor, a tenth of the Divine Punishment’s power had descended. When he broke through to rank three Half Martial Ancestor, twenty percent of the Divine Punishment’s power had descended.

And now, to the rank four Half Martial Ancestor, thirty percent of the Divine Punishment’s power descended.

If things were to continue in this fashion, Chu Feng would have to receive all of the Divine Punishment’s power when he broke through to rank two Martial Ancestor.

“The Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique is truly legendary. If I had not seen it for myself, I would never have believed that there were people from the Heavenly Clans that were capable of practicing it.”

“However, even if he has trained in it, that would not necessarily mean that he will be able to withstand its power. At the time when he attempts to breakthrough to rank two Martial Ancestor, it will be the time when he will meet his death.”

“No, perhaps it won’t even have to be rank two Martial Ancestor. It might even be possible for him to be killed by the power of the Divine Punishment before he breaks through to the Martial Ancestor realm.”

“I will admit that this child is a rare genius. Furthermore, he is quite fortunate to be able to train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.”

“However, I do not feel that he will be able to withstand it,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

The old monk did not refute the Golden Crane True Immortal. It was not that he did not want to refute him; rather, he was also uncertain as to whether or not Chu Feng would be able to withstand the power of the True Divine Punishment.

Silence. Upon thinking that Chu Feng might end up dying in the future because of the powerful Divine Punishment, the two grand experts both grew silent.

They quietly stared at Chu Feng, who was receiving the torment of the Divine Punishment.

After a moment, the old monk said, “He succeeded.”

However, it remained that Chu Feng had managed to successfully withstand the Divine Punishment’s power. His cultivation had increased again. From a rank three Half Martial Ancestor, he had reached rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

In merely the span of several hours, Chu Feng had managed to reach two successive breakthroughs, and went from rank two Half Martial Ancestor to rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

“With his comprehension, he will be able to reach another breakthrough again in a short period of time should he continue to stay there.”

“However, the time limit is about to arrive. He still doesn’t know the location of the teleportation formation. If he does not hurry, those four spots will be taken by others,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“With his talent, even if he did not rely on your spirit formation, he himself would be able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist sooner or later.”

“If I were him, I would not be thinking about your spirit formation. Instead, I would continue to stay here and train, so as to not miss this great opportunity.”

“Even if I were unable to reach another breakthrough, I will definitely benefit from comprehending longer in the place where the Exalted trained,” The old monk said.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng opened his eyes and stood up.

In response, Eggy hurriedly asked, “Chu Feng, you’re not going to continue training?”

“The time limit is almost here. I must leave this place,” Chu Feng said.

“But, if you continue to stay here, you might be able to reach another breakthrough in your cultivation. This is an extremely rare opportunity. If you let it go, you will not be able to obtain it again,” Eggy said.

“Indeed, that’s possible. While I do not dare to ascertain too much, I am certain that I can reach rank five Half Martial Ancestor.”

“Merely, I must quickly become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Else, I will not be able to cure Senior Liu Chengkun.”

“The Golden Crane True Immortal’s spirit formation is the best opportunity for me to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,”

Chu Feng said.

“Oh you, I truly don’t know what to do with you. You’re considering others, but who is considering you?” Eggy said with a displeased expression. She did not care about the life and death of others, and only wanted Chu Feng to become stronger.

“One must know how to repay kindness. Senior Liu Chengkun has helped me before. As such, I must help him.”

“Furthermore, even if I do not train in this place, I will still be able to reach breakthroughs in cultivation sooner or later. Milady Queen, you couldn’t possibly not feel that little confidence in me, right?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

“Yes, yes, yes. Let’s go, let’s go. Since you’ve decided, do not waste any more time,” Eggy said in an annoyed manner.

“I knew that Milady Queen was the most sensible person,” Seeing that Eggy had agreed to it, Chu Feng was very happy.

“Pah, pah, pah! You’re the one who’s completely stubborn. This Queen merely does not wish to waste time with you,” Eggy curled her lips.

“Yes, yes, yes. What Milady Queen says is very true. Since that’s the case, Milady Queen, let’s set off,” As Chu Feng spoke, he walked out of that place.

Right after Chu Feng exited the world spirit gate, the gate immediately closed.

“Ruined. Even if you are to return again, you will likely not be able to enter again,” Even though Eggy had agreed to Chu Feng’s decision to leave, she still had an expression of regret.

“As far as I’m concerned, my gains today are already sufficient.”

“Milady Queen, please be at ease. Even if I am to miss this opportunity, I will definitely be able to find another opportunity,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he turned into a flash of light and soared into the sky.

Furthermore, Chu Feng opened his eyes wide, and was searching for the teleportation formation leading to Mount Cloud Crane's summit.

After all, he did not have much time. It might even be possible for those people that had ascended to the summit to already be competing with one another.

With only four spots, Chu Feng had to obtain one. Else, it would not only mean that he had missed his opportunity to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it would also mean that he had abandoned the opportunity to continue to train on that cliff in vain. It would truly be an enormous loss then.

Fortunately, after Chu Feng searched for a while, he discovered the teleportation formation to Mount Cloud Crane's summit.

“Clank~~~”

However, right when Chu Feng approached the teleportation formation, a blade ray suddenly appeared. It was slashing toward Chu Feng with the intention to take his life.

However, Chu Feng currently possessed the cultivation of rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, he simply did not need to increase his cultivation with his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. With his non-increased cultivation, his body shifted slightly and easily dodged the slash.

“You were actually waiting for me here? You're truly considerate,” Chu Feng looked to the direction where the blade ray had come from and spoke with a cold voice.

“Since I've already attacked, I must succeed. Else, after you leave this place and criticize my actions to Junior Sister Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang, wouldn't I have to suffer the consequences?”

A man holding a black blade slowly appeared from the distant forest. It was none other than Li Rui, who had tried to kill Chu Feng before.

“Did you know that if you hadn’t waited for me here, you would’ve been able to live for a bit longer?”

“However, since you’ve chosen to wait for me here, then you won’t be able to live past today,” Chu Feng spoke with a cold smile.

“A defeated loser actually dares to speak with me in such a manner? What shameless boasting.”

As Li Rui spoke, his light yellow gaseous flames appeared once again. After he increased his cultivation from rank seven Half Martial Ancestor to rank eight Half Martial Ancestor, he once again unleashed the martial skill he had used to kill Chu Feng before, that Emperor Taboo: Endless Twilight.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

His attack was completely the same as his attack last time; twilight formed blade rays that shot toward Chu Feng from all directions with enormous power.

“Zzzzzzz~~~”

At the moment when the twilight blade rays were about to reach Chu Feng, Chu Feng’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings emerged.

Then, standing in the same location, Chu Feng waved his sleeve.

“Boom~~~”

Immediately, martial power surged, and a violent wind appeared. Chu Feng actually managed to forcibly disperse Li Rui’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

Not only that, Li Rui was knocked flying like an arrow. He crashed through trees and mountain rocks, leaving behind a scene of devastation in his path.

When he stopped, his mouth opened, and mouthfuls of blood began to spray from his mouth nonstop.

He was evidently seriously injured.

“You know whether or not I’m shamelessly boasting now, right?” Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded.

Li Rui turned his gaze toward Chu Feng. His expression changing instantly. He was completely stunned.

“You, your cultivation, could it be that you were hiding your cultivation earlier?” Li Rui asked in a panic.

He had realized that the current Chu Feng was two entire levels of cultivation above his cultivation from mere hours ago.

With such a cultivation, it was impossible for him to defeat Chu Feng.

“I didn’t conceal my cultivation. I merely managed to increase it in this period of time,” Chu Feng said.

“What? You managed to increase your cultivation in such a short period of time? Impossible! That is most definitely impossible! Don’t you try to deceive me!!!” Li Rui shook his head repeatedly. He refused to believe Chu Feng’s words.

“I don’t care if you don’t believe me. After all, you’re someone who’s going to die anyways,” Chu Feng walked toward Li Rui one step at a time. Even though he had a smile on his face, his gaze was filled with dense killing intent.

“Chu Feng, I am the Sunset Cloud Valley’s management elder Hu Haitian’s sole disciple. If you kill me, my master will definitely not let you get away with it!” Sensing that the situation was bad, Li Rui spoke his master’s name to threaten Chu Feng.

However, who would’ve thought that Chu Feng would only lightly smile? Then, he raised his hand and smashed his palm downward.

“Boom!” Li Rui was completely annihilated, with not even his bones remaining.

“If I didn’t dare to kill even you, I would not be called Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2233 – Chu Feng’s Arrival

---

After Chu Feng killed Li Rui, he collected his clothing, personal items and Cosmos Sack.

“Why don’t you check what treasures might be in his Cosmos Sack?” Eggy asked curiously.

“I will not touch his things. I am going to hand them to Xu Yiyi intact,” Chu Feng said.

“Why do you plan to hand them to her? You couldn’t possibly be trying to let her know that you’ve killed Li Rui, right?” Eggy asked.

“Milady Queen, while I can deceive others, I cannot deceive Xu Yiyi. After all, she has treated me with sincerity,” Chu Feng said.

“Okay, okay, do as you wish,” Eggy said indifferently.

Then, Chu Feng entered the teleportation formation. When he appeared again, he had arrived at the summit of Mount Cloud Crane.

This so-called summit was very vast. Even though white clouds covered the surroundings, it still had an enormous surface area. To put it simply, it looked like a small-scale plain floating in the sky.

The first thing that appeared in Chu Feng’s eyes was a grand formation. That grand formation was flickering with golden light, and looked like a magnificent building.

Furthermore, Immortal-level spirit power was flowing through it. Additionally, there were Dragon Marks shown in that spirit power. That spirit power was extremely fascinating. As a world spiritist, Chu Feng was involuntarily attracted to it.

Likely, that was the comprehensive spirit formation set up by the Golden Crane True Immortal.

Merely, to ascend to that comprehensive spirit formation would not be a simple task.

One first had to pass through a grand formation. At that moment, there were over a hundred people in that grand formation. Among them were Grandmaster Pocket, Daoist Three Swords and Liu Xiaoli.

To Chu Feng's surprise, there were already three people that had passed through that grand spirit formation, and were standing outside the comprehension formation.

Those three individuals were the Four World Spiritist Emperors' second, third and fourth brothers.

Although they had managed to pass the grand formation and reach that comprehension spirit formation, the three of them did not immediately enter that comprehensive formation. Instead, they were standing there and waiting.

The person they were waiting for was none other than their eldest brother.

At that moment, the Four World Spiritist Emperors' eldest was fighting against Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords.

To Chu Feng's surprise, the two experts, Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords, were actually being suppressed by the single eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor.

However, they were fighting with fists. Furthermore, they were not fighting using martial power. Rather, they were using a special sort of spirit power. That power originated from the armor they were wearing.

That armor were created with spirit power. However, they were very special. At this moment, the source of everyone's power originated from those armors.

Furthermore, the armors were all slightly different. The great majority of the people were wearing silver armor, and a small portion of them were wearing bronze armor.

However, the Four World Spiritist Emperors, Grandmaster

Pocket and Daoist Three Swords, the six of them, were wearing golden armor.

Although their strength did not differ enormously, it was clear that the golden color was the strongest, while the silver color was weaker, and the bronze color was the weakest.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you’re finally here,” Suddenly, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Elder Ning Shuang hurriedly ran toward Chu Feng.

“Elder Ning Shuang, what is going on here?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“You’ve come late, and still don’t know about the rules here. Let me explain them to you,” Elder Ning Shuang pointed at the entrance of the grand formation the people were in and said, “Look over there. That is the entrance. That is not an ordinary entrance. Instead, it is a spirit formation.”

“By entering that place, that place will suit you up with armor depending on the strength of your spirit power.”

“Once the spirit armor is placed onto your body, all of your martial power will be restricted. Thus, the power you can use to fight with will only be the power granted by that world spirit armor.”

“After you are given a suit of armor, you will be able to enter that grand formation and fight with others. As long as you defeat all of the people present, you will be sent to the comprehension formation.”

“Merely, if your spirit power is insufficient, not only will you be unable to obtain armor, you will also be sent out by that formation. You will not even be qualified to enter.”

“I, as well as all these other people here, are people who have failed to enter,” Elder Ning Shuang pointed to the people standing outside the spirit formation.

“So that’s the case,” Chu Feng finally understood why Elder Ning Shuang was standing here. It turned out that his world spirit power was not strong enough, which made him unqualified to even get a suit of armor.

Thinking of that, Chu Feng took a glance toward Liu Xiaoli, who was in the formation. Even though she had not been given golden armor, she was wearing silver armor. This indirectly showed that Liu Xiaoli’s spirit power was quite decent.

“The situation right now seems to be bad. It appears that the Four World Spiritist Emperors are trying to dominate all four spots,” Chu Feng suddenly said.

After all, the second, third and fourth brothers of the Four World Spiritist Emperors had already exited the formation. If the eldest brother were to also exit the formation, it would be hopeless for the rest of them.

“That’s right. The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ world spirit techniques are truly too strong. After donning the armor, even Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket are no match for the four of them.”

“You can see it too. Right now, three of them have already successfully exited the formation. Only their eldest remains. However, he, by himself, is actually able to contend against both Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket.”

“If this is to continue, I fear that Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket will not be able to stop them. The four brothers will end up occupying all four spots,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“The way I see it, Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket are simply unable to stop him,” Chu Feng said.

“Unable to stop him?” Elder Ning Shuang was surprised.

“Yes, they are unable to stop him. If he wanted to leave, he would've been able to do so long ago. The reason why he has stayed so long is to deliberately toy with Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket," Chu Feng said.

"He's actually toying with Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket?" Elder Ning Shuang was even more shocked. After all, Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket were prodigies in terms of world spirit techniques too.

"Earlier, Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket spoke out for me. Thus, they felt grievances toward them. Merely, as their strength was inferior to theirs, they did not dare to do anything to them."

"However, the situation is different now. Due to the Golden Crane True Immortal's spirit formation, they have finally obtained strength that surpasses that of Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket."

"With the arrogant natures of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, they would naturally disregard consequences and take this chance to push Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket around," Chu Feng said.

Hearing what Chu Feng said, Elder Ning Shuang turned his gaze toward the spirit formation again. He realized that Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket were painstakingly persisting. However, even with the two of them joining hands, they were truly no match for the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

"Chu Feng, quickly enter that spirit formation. There is only a single spot left. If you do not go now, the Four World Spiritist Emperors will likely end up occupying all four spots," Elder Ning Shuang said.

"Mn, Elder Ning Shuang, I'll go then," As Chu Feng spoke, he walked toward the spirit formation.

Suddenly, Elder Ning Shuang asked, "Chu Feng, where's Li Rui?"

Chu Feng revealed a very undisturbed expression. He turned around and said, “Li Rui had a bit of an accident. I will tell you in detail later,” Then, he entered the spirit formation.

“Hahaha, Daoist Three Swords, Grandmaster Pocket, in terms of battle power, the two of you are many times stronger than me.”

“However, in terms of world spirit techniques, even if the two of you are to join hands, you are still no match for me,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket while suppressing them.

While Grandmaster Pocket did not have too much of a reaction when being mocked by a member of the younger generation with strength much inferior to his own, Daoist Three Swords was so furious that his complexion turned deep red.

The more furious Daoist Three Swords appeared, the more complacent the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors felt. This was truly what he wanted to see.

Suddenly, someone shouted, “Everyone, look! It’s Chu Feng! Chu Feng has arrived!!!”

Once those words were heard, the expressions of everyone present changed.

When they saw that Chu Feng was stepping toward the entrance of the spirit formation, even the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors started to frown.

When not even Grandmaster Pocket and Daoist Three Swords were a match for him, the only person that could defeat him would be Chu Feng.

Chapter 2234 – Intentional Retaliation

---

Upon seeing Chu Feng, Liu Xiaoli immediately revealed a cheerful expression. Like everyone else, she focused her gaze onto Chu Feng.

In fact, it was not only them, as even Grandmaster Pocket, Daoist Three Swords and the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors stopped their fight to look toward Chu Feng.

They all wanted to know what sort of armor Chu Feng would be able to obtain. After all, he was an Asura World Spiritist.

Furthermore, it was all thanks to Chu Feng that they were able to break through the purple fog earlier.

In the crowd’s hearts, Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques were the strongest among the people present.

“Weren’t you smiling happily earlier? Why do you have a sulky expression now? Could it be that you’re feeling pressure now that little brother Chu Feng has arrived?” Daoist Three Swords mocked the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

He knew that he would not be a match for the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors. Thus, he felt extremely happy when Chu Feng appeared.

The reason for that was because he knew that Chu Feng would be able to suppress the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor.

“Humph? Pressure? You’re saying that he could pressure me?”

“It is great that he has come. I will let him know who the actual world spiritist genius is,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors declared.

Even though he was speaking with a very unyielding tone, only he knew that he was feeling a slight lack of confidence when facing

Chu Feng.

After all, Chu Feng's display of world spirit techniques earlier had been extremely strong.

Before the focused attention of the crowd, Chu Feng closed his eyes and carefully felt the special spirit power covering his entire body in the form of a suit of armor.

"The Golden Crane True Immortal is truly amazing. He is actually able to set up a spirit formation as wondrous as this."

When Chu Feng personally experienced the power of that spirit formation covering his body and sealing away his strength before transforming into a sort of new strength formed with spirit power in his body, he felt as if his body was being completely transformed.

A spirit formation as profound as that was truly very amazing.

"Hahaha!!!"

Right at that moment, Chu Feng heard sudden laughter.

Upon hearing that laughter, Chu Feng opened his eyes and discovered that it was the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors that was laughing.

At that moment, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was looking at Chu Feng and laughing heartily with both hands holding his belly and body convulsing. It was truly frantic laughter.

"That fool is having a spasm. The hell is he laughing about?" Eggy asked in a confused manner.

"Something seems amiss," Chu Feng said.

"What's amiss?" Eggy asked.

"Look at everyone's reaction," Chu Feng said those words and turned his gaze to the crowd.

At that moment, Eggy noticed that the others were not laughing like the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors. However, their expressions had all changed.

If they had been filled with anticipation toward Chu Feng earlier, then their current expressions were filled with disappointment.

“Daoist Three Swords, did you see that? That trash is unable to even form armor. He is not qualified to even enter this place.”

“Yet, you actually placed your hope on trash like him to take care of me? Say, how ignorant could you be?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked Daoist Three Swords.

“Little friend Chu Feng is still in that spirit formation. He has not been sent out by it. How can you be so certain that he will not be able to form armor?” Daoist Three Swords said.

“Haha, whether he can or not is something that will be decided in an instant. He has already been in there for so long. Yet, he still hasn’t condensed any armor. You think that he still has hope?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

At that moment, Chu Feng finally realized why the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was laughing at him, and why the crowd had such an expression.

It turned out that they had already determined that he could not form any armor.

However, Chu Feng was not panicking. Only he knew that the spirit power was still assimilating into his body and transforming his body and power.

He had not failed. Merely, he needed time; he merely needed a bit more time than the others.

“It seems that child’s spirit power is truly pure. He is actually going to condense a suit of Dragon Marked Armor,” Above the clouds, the Golden Crane True Immortal was looking down below with a shocked expression in his eyes.

“Golden True Immortal, you are truly one to slack off. Since you bothered to spend the time to set up that spirit formation, why didn’t you do so properly? You made it so that the spirit power is insufficient, causing it to take so long to form a suit of Dragon Marked Armor,” The plain clothed old monk said.

As a fellow Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he had already seen through the fact that the Golden Crane True Immortal had not set up that spirit formation up diligently.

That was the reason why the process to condense Chu Feng’s Dragon Marked Armor was taking so long, as the spirit formation did not possess a sufficient amount of spirit power.

It ended up leading the others to think that Chu Feng was unable to condense any armor at all.

“How could I know that there would be someone capable of condensing Dragon Marked Armor?” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

Although both the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain clothed old monk knew the reason why Chu Feng had yet to condense any armor, the others did not.

The others had all already concluded that Chu Feng was unable to condense any armor because his spirit power was insufficiently pure.

“What a bore. We four brothers will have taken the four spots this easily. This is truly too boring, and not challenging in the slightest. Can’t you all give us some pressure?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said with a sigh.

“You have yet to occupy the last spot.”

Suddenly, Daoist Three Swords unleashed his attack. It was not only him, Grandmaster Pocket also unleashed his attack. Evidently, the two of them did not want to hand the final spot over to the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors so easily.

“Don’t waste your time. You all can come at me together. The final spot for the comprehension formation is definitely mine,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors declared.

“As you wish,” In response, the silver-armored Liu Xiaoli also unleashed her attacks.

She was trying to buy time for Chu Feng. Even though others all felt that Chu Feng had failed to forming any armor, Liu Xiaoli felt that Chu Feng would succeed.

In such a situation, more and more people began to attack the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

They all knew that even if they did not attack him, he would, sooner or later, attack them.

Rather than being defeated by him one by one, it would be better to assist Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket while they were still not defeated.

Perhaps they might be able to defeat the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors this way. This way, they would be able to beat down his arrogance.

However, things did not turn out the way they wanted. The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was truly too powerful. Although they were all wearing golden armor, his battle power was much stronger than Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket’s.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

Each and every punch from the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors brought forth thunderous sounds and enormous power capable of cutting through a mountain. Practically every punch from him would knock someone out, causing them to lose the ability to fight for a short period of time.

“Daoist Three Swords, Grandmaster Pocket, I originally did not plan to injure the two of you. However, there’s no other way around it. This is the rule set up by the Golden Crane True Immortal. Only by defeating the two of you will I be able to enter the comprehension formation.”

“Thus, do not blame me for being too ruthless.”

After defeating the others, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors finally started to unleash attacks at Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket.

Although he had declared that he did not wish to harm them, he was attacking them with ferocious attacks. It was as if he was planning to kill Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

Suddenly, Grandmaster Pocket was caught off guard, and received many punches from the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

After the punches landed, Grandmaster Pocket was knocked flying before ruthlessly crashing into the world spirit wall. When he fell to the ground, his complexion turned red, and blood flowed from the corner of his mouth.

“Grandmaster Pocket is actually vomiting blood!!!”

Seeing this scene, the crowd were all shocked.

When the others had been defeated, they had not vomited blood.

However, Grandmaster Pocket was vomiting blood. This meant that the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ attack toward Grandmaster Pocket had been stronger than his attacks toward the others. He was deliberately retaliating against Grandmaster Pocket.

Chapter 2235 – Make You Pay

---

“Showing no respect to your elders and superiors, you’re courting death!”

Seeing that Grandmaster Pocket had been beaten to a state of vomiting blood, Daoist Three Swords became furious.

Perhaps due to his fury, Daoist Three Swords’s attacks grew sharper and sharper. Unfortunately, regardless of how much sharper his attacks had become, they had not become stronger.

The world spirit armor had completely sealed away his martial power. At that moment, the only power he could use was the power bestowed to him by his world spirit armor. In fact, even his defensive ability was far inferior to before.

Like this, not to mention injuring the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, Daoist Three Swords was unable to even land a single attack on him.

At that moment, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was receiving the attacks from Daoist Three Swords without fighting back. He was dodging while mocking, “Daoist Three Swords, what you’ve said is incorrect. I am not showing no respect to my elders and superiors.”

“Rather, it is truly because the rules are like this. Thus, you must not blame me. It is truly not me who is being ruthless in my attacks. Rather, it is that I must defeat you all in order to win.”

Although the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors spoke as if he was innocent, the smile on his face allowed everyone to know that he did not mean the words he said at all.

“Enough of your nonsense! Fight me!” Daoist Three Swords shouted angrily.

“Since you refuse to appreciate my kindness, do not blame me for being impolite,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors unleashed his attack.

Once he started to attack, Daoist Three Swords was completely suppressed.

Furthermore, his attacks grew more and more ferocious. He was simply incomparably overbearing. Faced with them, Daoist Three Swords was only able to defend. He had lost all ability to fight back.

Step by step, Daoist Three Swords was forced back. He was at an absolute disadvantage.

“Bang~~~”

Even though he was already retreating the entire time, Daoist Three Swords failed to dodge an attack in time, and ended up being struck by the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

After that punch, many more punches were shot toward him.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

In merely an instant, several punches landed on Daoist Three Swords.

Faced with these attacks, Daoist Three Swords lost all ability to fight back, and was knocked back repeatedly.

If Grandmaster Pocket was merely vomiting a small amount of blood from the corners of his mouth, then Daoist Three Swords was currently violently spraying blood from his mouth.

However, even with this being the case, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors still showed no signs of stopping. Even though he had forced Daoist Three Swords into a corner, he was still violently beating at Daoist Three Swords with his fists.

“Stop! He has already lost!” Chu Feng shouted.

“Lost? You are not the one who gets to decide that. Rather, I am the one who gets to decide that,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked.

“Damn it!” Hearing those words, Chu Feng was so furious that he started to tightly clench his fists.

He truly had the urge to rush in and teach the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors a lesson. Unfortunately, his world spirit armor had yet to finish forming. As such, he was simply unable to enter the spirit formation at all.

Seeing the anger on Chu Feng’s face, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors revealed an even more complacent expression. He said, “What’s up? You’re feeling displeased?”

“If you’re not pleased with the way I do things, then come on in and beat me, you damned trash.”

After saying those words, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors turned his gaze to his surroundings and shouted, “I know that many of you people here disapprove of my actions! However, who among you all could possibly stop me?!”

“In this place, I am king! I can do whatever I please! None of you can stop me!”

After saying those words, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors raised his fist once again. He was actually planning to continue to beat down on Daoist Three Swords.

It could be seen that the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors felt deep hatred for Daoist Three Swords threatening him earlier.

That is why he had decided to use this opportunity to ruthlessly beat up Daoist Three Swords. Even though Daoist Three Swords had already lost the ability to fight, he still refused to stop.

Right at that moment, an extremely imposing voice suddenly sounded. It was the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“It is merely a spar. He has already been defeated. Is there really a need for you to be this overbearing?”

“Remember, this place is merely an arena set up by me, and not a place for you all to settle your personal grudges.”

Once the Golden Crane True Immortal’s words were heard, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors did not dare to strike down with his raised hand.

It was an awkward situation. He who was boasting earlier was left in a very awkward situation right now.

Daoist Three Swords spit out the blood in his mouth. Then, he snorted coldly and said, “It seems that there is still someone capable of stopping you here.”

“Fortunately, there is someone capable of stopping me. Else, you’d be left in a very miserable state,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said. As matters stood, he no longer cared about revealing his intentions of teaching Daoist Three Swords, this expert martial cultivator, a lesson.

Daoist Three Swords was not angry. Instead, with a beaming smile, he said, “After we leave this place, I will have you know what miserable really means.”

Hearing those words, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors suddenly frowned. He was scared.

Although Daoist Three Swords was smiling, he felt a frightening chill from Daoist Three Swords’ smiling gaze.

He had suddenly realized that Daoist Three Swords was truly angry. Likely, he would not be willing to let this matter go. After leaving this place, Daoist Three Swords would definitely come to teach him a lesson.

Unfortunately, it was already too late for him to be scared now. Thus, he did not continue to say anything, and did not dare to look at Daoist Three Swords again. Instead, he turned his gaze to Liu Xiaoli.

The reason for that was because everyone else here had been defeated by him. Only Liu Xiaoli remained standing.

“Do you know why I left you for last?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors asked Liu Xiaoli.

“Why?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“Because I knew that you were with that Chu Feng.”

“That Chu Feng is so very amazing, eh? So very arrogant, no? Originally, I planned to properly teach him a lesson, and let him know who the true genius in terms of world spirit techniques is.”

“Unfortunately, he is not even qualified to enter this place.”

“Thus, I can only aim the lesson that I’ve prepared for him at you,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors looked to Liu Xiaoli with a mischievous smile.

“Enough rubbish, if you want to attack me, then go ahead,” Liu Xiaoli said in a disapproving manner. She seemed to have already guessed what the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors planned to do. Thus, she revealed a very unyielding appearance.

“As you wish,” As the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors spoke, he prepared to attack Liu Xiaoli.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded again. “If you dare to be too excessive, I will make you pay.”

“What did you say? Say it again!” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors suddenly stopped his hand and turned around to ask Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s brows narrowed. Coldness filled his eyes. He stared at the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors and spoke one word at a time, “If you dare to be too excessive, I will make you pay!”

“Hahaha!!!” After Chu Feng’s words left his mouth, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors burst into loud laughter.

“Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, you are truly capable of making me laugh. It would be one thing for Daoist Three Swords to threaten me. Yet, trash like you actually also dares to threaten me? What makes you think you can threaten me?”

“In terms of world spirit techniques, you’re not even qualified to set foot into this place.”

“In terms of cultivation, you’re so weak that I can crush you to death with a single finger.”

“You want to make me pay? How exactly are you going to do that?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked.

Once his words were heard, many of the people present began to shake their heads.

Even though what the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors had said was too excessive, it was the truth.

As for Chu Feng, he did not answer. However, his cold gaze was fixed onto the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors the entire time.

Chapter 2236 – Dragon Marked Armor

---

Being stared at by Chu Feng's gaze, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors felt very uncomfortable. However, he still did not believe that Chu Feng possessed any capability of teaching him a lesson.

Thus, in a disapproving manner, he said, "Trying to scare me? Did you think I was someone that was easily scared?"

After that, the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor's body shifted, and he arrived before Liu Xiaoli.

A fist flickering with golden light began to crash toward Liu Xiaoli's body like a torrential storm.

How could Liu Xiaoli, who wore silver armor, be able to withstand an attack from the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors? She was practically unable to dodge even a single fist. She was immediately beaten up nonstop like a sandbag.

When even Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket were unable to withstand that sort of attack, how could Liu Xiaoli possibly be able to withstand it?

Soon after, Liu Xiaoli started vomiting blood and lost consciousness. Miserable. In terms of being miserable, Liu Xiaoli was most definitely the person that had suffered the most miserably in the spirit formation.

She was the only person that was beaten unconscious.

"She is truly unable to take a beating. I have yet to even go all-out," Seeing Liu Xiaoli losing consciousness, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors did not have the slightest trace of guilt. Instead, he licked his lips, as if itching to continue his beating.

In fact, if it wasn't for the fact that the Golden Crane True Immortal had warned him to not be too excessive earlier, he would definitely not have stopped just because Liu Xiaoli fainted.

The eldest of the four World Spiritist Emperors raised his head, looked to his three brothers standing outside the spirit formation and said with a beaming smile, “Little brothers, your big brother will come to join you all now.”

“Mn?” However, right after he finished saying those words, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors started to frown.

Logically, he should have already completely defeated all of the people in the spirit formation. As such, the spirit formation should have teleported him out. Yet, there was no reaction at all?

Could it be that someone had managed to slip past him?

However, he knew best how strong his attacks were. Everyone was defeated by him. Furthermore, all those defeated by him had lost their ability to continue fighting.

Only by teleporting him out would those people be able to regain their freedom and battle power. Yet, what was with this situation right now?

Even though he felt it to be extremely inconceivable, he still turned around to look. He was trying to figure out whether or not there was anyone present that he had not beaten to a state of losing their ability to fight.

“You!!!” Upon turning around, the expression of the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor immediately changed.

Sure enough, there was someone standing in the grand formation completely undamaged. As for this person, he was someone that the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ eldest never had expected.

That person was none other than Chu Feng!!!

“Chu Feng?!”

Upon seeing the current Chu Feng, not to mention the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, practically everyone’s expressions changed enormously.

Not only had Chu Feng entered the grand formation, there was also a world spirit armor on his body.

If it were an ordinary world spirit armor, it would not be enough to cause the crowd to become so astonished.

However, not only was Chu Feng's world spirit armor shining with golden brightness, there were also dragons galloping within it.

Mightily! Domineering! Extremely Imposing!!!

This meant that Chu Feng's world spirit armor was a level above even the golden armor that the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors wore.

“Could it be that it's not that he was unable to condense any spirit armor, but rather that the spirit armor he was condensing was so powerful that it caused him to take much longer to condense it?”

“So that's how it was! It wasn't that Chu Feng was unable to condense any world spirit armor. Rather, it was that the armor that he was condensing surpassed all of ours!!!”

At that moment, the crowd finally realized that they had been mistaken earlier.

How could Chu Feng be said to be unable to condense any spirit armor? He was simply condensing spirit armor that surpassed all the others'.

Ashamed. Guilt. They were feeling ashamed and guilty for feeling disappointed with Chu Feng earlier.

However, more than that, they were feeling pleasantly surprised. Chu Feng had brought them an enormously pleasant surprise.

After feeling pleasantly surprised, the crowd all turned their gazes to the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors. They all wanted to see exactly what sort of reaction he would have at the moment. Upon seeing his expression, many people were unable to keep themselves from laughing.

The expression of the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor, who had previously acted so arrogantly and mocked Chu Feng, was simply marvelous.

His gaze was fixed as if stunned, and his complexion had turned green. In fact, his lips were even twitching.

After all, he was no fool. He was able to tell that the world spirit armor that Chu Feng had condensed was stronger than his own. Thus, naturally, the strength that Chu Feng possessed would surpass his own.

“I said that I would make you pay,” As Chu Feng said those words, he turned into a golden ray that flew toward the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

“Come! As if I’m afraid of you?!” With so many people watching, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors did not show weakness. Instead, he also charged toward Chu Feng.

However, everyone was able to tell that he was lacking confidence, that he was putting on a bold face to fight against Chu Feng.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. The eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor was knocked flying before ruthlessly smashing into the wall of the spirit formation.

When he fell to the ground, he started to vomit blood, and was unable to move a single step.

With merely a single attack, Chu Feng had beaten him to a state of losing the ability to fight.

Such a scene shocked everyone. Even Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket revealed shocked expressions.

A single strike was all it took. The difference between their spirit power was simply too enormous.

Even though the crowd had already realized that the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors would definitely not be a match for Chu Feng, they had never expected that he would lose so miserably.

“Bang, bang, bang~~~”

Right at that moment, a shocking scene occurred. Chu Feng did not plan to let the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor get away. He rushed toward him and began to ruthlessly kick his head.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? Stop immediately!!!”

Upon seeing that scene, the three brothers that stood outside the comprehensive formation started to panic. They hurriedly shouted at Chu Feng to stop.

“What am I doing? I’m naturally beating him up. However, you all cannot blame me for that. After all, that is the rule of this place, and I am only doing things according to the rules.”

With a smile on his face, Chu Feng repeated what the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors had said before to his three brothers.

“Enough of your nonsense! The rules of this place say it is enough as long as one has lost the ability to fight! Our big brother has already lost the ability to fight, why are you still attacking him?!”

“Stop immediately!!!” The three brothers shouted.

“Lost the ability to fight? That is not decided by you all. Instead, it is decided by me. The way I see it, he has yet to lose the ability to fight. Thus, I cannot stop yet.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng gathered strength into his feet and began kicking the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors more ruthlessly.

It was not only his head. His chest and his legs were also attacked by Chu Feng.

“Stop! Stop immediately!”

“Lord True Immortal, that child has gone against your rules. I believe that he should be punished severely.”

Feeling helpless, the three brothers actually began to request for assistance from the Golden Crane True Immortal.

However, to their disappointment, the Golden Crane True Immortal did not even bother to say a word. He had simply ignored them. It was as if he couldn't hear what they were saying at all.

This caused those three brothers to have very ugly expressions on their faces. The reason for that was because it would be impossible for the Golden Crane True Immortal to not hear what they were saying. It was evident that his decision to not say anything to stop Chu Feng meant that he was deliberately allowing Chu Feng to beat up their older brother.

Chapter 2237 – Despicable And Shameless

“Almsgiver Chu Feng, this is, after all, only a sparring match. Even if he is in the wrong, you shouldn’t learn from him. It is better that you stop when victory is determined,” At that moment, Grandmaster Pocket spoke out against Chu Feng’s actions.

Grandmaster Pocket was, after all, a buddhist monk. Even though the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors had acted excessively toward him before, he who held a merciful heart did not hold a grudge against the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors. Instead, he was actually pleading for him.

As Grandmaster Pocket was a benevolent individual, Chu Feng would naturally give him face.

When Chu Feng stopped his attacks, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors had already lost consciousness. Not only had he lost consciousness, his appearance was also extremely miserable.

Even though he was covered by his spirit armor, he was still so badly beaten that he had bloody eyes, a bloody nose and a swollen face. In fact, shattering sounds could be heard from all around his body.

Those were the sounds of bones shattering. Chu Feng had shattered the bones all over the eldest Four World Spiritist Emperor’s body. Although those injuries were not fatal, he was most definitely the most serious injuries of all of the people present in the competition.

“You damned bastard. It was but a mere spar. Yet you beat our big brother to such a state. Chu Feng, we are not done with you,” At that moment, the three brothers were gnashing their teeth in fury.

“What are you all talking about? I was merely doing things according to the rules. After all, if your big brother does not lose the ability to continue fighting, I would not be able to teleport out from this place.”

“Look, the teleportation formation has yet to start even now. That means that he has yet to lose his ability to fight,” Chu Feng raised his hand and shrugged as he spoke sophistry.

“Has yet to lose his battle power? If you are to beat him again, he’ll be beaten to death by you!” The three brothers said fiercely.

“Really? Then why have I still not been teleported out?” Chu Feng asked.

“You?!!!” The three brothers were left speechless. They were so furious that their veins were bulging. They felt as if their hearts, livers, spleens and lungs were all about to explode from anger.

“That’s true, we have all lost our ability to fight, why has Chu Feng still not been teleported out?”

At that moment, the others also realized the same thing. Logically, since the others present had lost their ability to fight, Chu Feng should have been teleported out.

If that had happened, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors would not have been beaten up like this. However, why had Chu Feng not been teleported out?

“Cough cough, it’s about time. Else, those little guys will say that you’re not being fair,” Above the clouds, the plain clothed old monk spoke to the Golden Crane True Immortal with a beaming smile on his face.

“You damned Old Poisonous Substance, it was clearly you who wanted me to control the spirit formation so that Chu Feng could teach that guy a lesson for a while longer. Yet now you’re saying that I’m being partial?”

The Golden Crane True Immortal glared at the old monk with contempt. Then, light flashed in his eyes, and Chu Feng was immediately covered with spirit power and disappeared from the spirit formation. When Chu Feng reappeared, he was standing beside the three brothers.

“Chu Feng, you have balls. However, the consequences of your actions and deeds today are things that you will not be able to endure,” The three brothers ruthlessly sent voice transmissions to Chu Feng.

Chu Feng snorted lightly at the three brothers’ threats. With contempt, he replied, “Anytime.”

“Go ahead and enter the spirit formation,” Right at that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s extremely imposing voice sounded from the sky.

In response, Chu Feng and the other three Four World Spiritist Emperors all stepped into the comprehensive spirit formation without the slightest hesitation.

Once the four of them entered the comprehensive formation, that enormous spirit formation, that huge monster, started to change.

At the same time, surging Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak spirit power began to surge forth in the spirit formation like waterfalls. They were pounding against Chu Feng and the three Four World Spiritist Emperors nonstop.

It could be seen that the comprehensive formation had begun its work.

At that moment, Chu Feng hurriedly closed his eyes and began to comprehend with his heart. That spirit power was truly vast, and contained the profoundness of world spirit techniques.

As long as he had enough time, Chu Feng was certain that he would definitely be able to completely open that gate in his world spirit space to access the Immortal-level spirit power.

Furthermore, as long as he could connect with the Immortal-level spirit power, he would definitely be able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist with the world spirit techniques that he had grasped.

At the moment when Chu Feng was wholeheartedly comprehending, those three Four World Spiritist Emperors looked at one another. Then, grins appeared on their faces.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the three men started to set up spirit formations. At the moment when the three men clasped their hands together, a special spirit formation enveloped Chu Feng.

After being enveloped by the spirit formation, the Immortal-cloak spirit power that was surging toward Chu Feng before was cut off, and started to surge toward the three brothers instead.

“What are you three doing?” At that moment, Chu Feng suddenly opened his eyes.

“What are we doing? Although four people can enter this place, the spirit power contained in the spirit formation is, after all, limited.”

“Us three brothers all want to become Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. Unfortunately, it seems to us that the spirit power here is insufficient for that. Thus, we will not be able to share it with you,” The second eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said with a sinister expression.

“Despicable! Truly too despicable!” Upon hearing those words, before Chu Feng could say anything, Daoist Three Swords and the others had already lashed out against the three brothers.

“Humph,” Faced with the reprimands from the crowd, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors sneered.

He had woken up. Furthermore, he had treated his injuries. Originally, he had been filled with grievances. However, when he saw what his three brothers were doing to Chu Feng in the spirit formation, he raised his thumbs toward them and also sneered in his heart, 'Chu Feng, so what if you possess outstanding spirit formations and are able to enter that comprehensive formation? In the end, you're still going to be toyed with by my three brothers. You reap what you sow. Serves you right.'

.....

"Truly despicable. Golden Crane, you should just kick the three of them out. Isn't this clearly a violation of the rules?" Above the clouds, the plain clothed old monk was also angered by the three brothers' actions.

"I did not set any rule stating that the people inside the comprehension formation are not allowed to obstruct others. Thus, it is improper for me to set up that rule now. Else, it would be too clear that I am discriminating in favor of Chu Feng."

"Furthermore, if that Chu Feng is unable to handle such a minor trick, how is he to handle those four's frantic revenge after he leaves this place?"

"After all, Chu Feng has already set himself up as their enemy. With the temperaments of those four, they will definitely not spare Chu Feng. As for that... it is something that Chu Feng will have to handle by himself," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"That's true. The world of martial cultivation is like that. A single conflict of words would cause people to fight one another. Even killing because of that is but a mere common occurrence."

"As for Chu Feng, he has humiliated those four before all those people," The plain clothed old monk nodded in agreement.

"Are the three of you planning to play dirty against me here?" Chu Feng revealed a cold gaze and spoke coldly.

"Play dirty? Are you blind? We are doing things openly," The second eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors laughed mockingly. His expression was filled with complacency.

The reason for that was because not only was their isolation formation extremely profound by itself, the three of them all held a treasure in their hands. As for their treasures, they were capable of greatly increasing the strength of their spirit formations.

Thus, they felt that even if Chu Feng possessed heaven-defying capabilities, he would not be able to break through their spirit formation.

They felt that Chu Feng would be destined to suffer by their hands.

Chapter 2238 – The True Immortal's Anger

---

“Golden Crane True Immortal, do you not care about this matter?” Chu Feng raised his head toward the sky and asked loudly.

“Humph, you’ve decided to ask for the Golden Crane True Immortal’s assistance just because you can’t win against us? Seems like you only possess that bit of ability too,” Seeing that Chu Feng actually complained to the Golden Crane True Immortal, the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ expression changed.

They were not worried that Chu Feng would be able to break through their spirit formation, because they felt that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to break through their spirit formation.

However, they were still afraid of interference from the Golden Crane True Immortal. After all, when Chu Feng was beating down on their eldest brother, they had already, to a greater or lesser degree, realized that the Golden Crane True Immortal was secretly supporting Chu Feng.

Else, Chu Feng should have long since been teleported to the comprehensive formation; how else could he have been allowed to continue to beat up their big brother for so long? How could he only be teleported out after their big brother was beaten unconscious? It was clearly unreasonable.

Thus, they were afraid, afraid that the Golden Crane True Immortal would continue to pamper Chu Feng.

After all, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s fame was widespread throughout the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He was an extraordinary character. If the Golden Crane True Immortal were to truly discriminate in favor of Chu Feng, there would be nothing that they could do.

However, Chu Feng’s question hung in the air for a very long time. Yet, there was no response from the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Hahaha. Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, it would seem that Lord True Immortal is not willing to bother with you.”

“Since Lord True Immortal is not bothering with this, it means that we have not violated the rules. Chu Feng, you can just continue to watch as the three of us become Immortal-cloak World Spiritists.”

“Hahahaha!”

Seeing that the Golden Crane True Immortal did not respond after so long, the three brothers in the comprehensive formation, as well as their eldest brother outside, were unable to keep themselves from laughing at Chu Feng.

They were ridiculing him. Their laughter was filled with unconcealed ridicule toward Chu Feng.

“It seems that the Golden Crane True Immortal really does not care about this. In that case, I am at ease,” Chu Feng said.

“At ease?” Hearing those words, the expressions of the crowd all changed. They revealed puzzled gazes.

The expressions of the three brothers in the comprehensive formation also changed. They were confused by what Chu Feng meant.

“This means that I can give you all a taste of your own medicine,” Chu Feng continued.

“Haha, so you are actually one who will not shed a tear until you see your coffin. Very well, go ahead and give it a try. We shall see how you are to break through our spirit formation,” The three brothers finally realized what Chu Feng meant. Thus, they mocked him.

“As you wish,” Once Chu Feng said those words, his hands began to change rapidly.

Surging spirit power began to rush out from his body to continuously bombard the spirit formation set up by the three brothers.

“This won’t do. Although Chu Feng’s spirit formation is amazing, those three brothers’ spirit formation is not affected in the slightest,” Seeing that scene, many people present started to worry for Chu Feng.

“It is not that those three brothers’ spirit formation is amazing. Rather, they should have used treasures to increase the strength of their spirit formation. Else, how could those three possibly be able to contain little friend Chu Feng with their own strength?” Daoist Three Swords said.

Suddenly, someone shouted, “No, their formation is not unaffected! It seems that their spirit formation will not be able to continue to resist Chu Feng’s attacks!”

At that time, the crowd realized that Chu Feng’s attacks were growing more and more ferocious. The spirit formation the three brothers had set up was starting to distort. It was as if their spirit formation would collapse at any moment.

However, the joy of the crowd lasted but a split second.

They soon discovered that the spirit formation was like rubber. Although the spirit formation was distorting and extending outward nonstop, it didn’t seem like that spirit formation would be broken through.

“That spirit formation is too strange. If this is to continue, it will be very hard for Chu Feng to break through it.”

The crowd all started to worry for Chu Feng. After all, through the things that had happened earlier, they all discovered that Chu Feng’s character greatly surpassed that of the Four World Spiritist Emperors. They were truly worried for Chu Feng because they all hoped that he would win.

However, Chu Feng was now sealed within that formation, and simply unable to comprehend the Immortal-level spirit power.

On the other hand, the surging Immortal-level spirit power was pounding onto the three brothers nonstop.

No matter how they looked at it, the current situation seemed very unfavorable for Chu Feng.

“It’s useless. Chu Feng, I might as well tell you this. Unless you possess Immortal-level spirit power, regardless of how powerful your spirit formation might be, you will not be able to break through our spirit formation,” The second eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors proudly declared.

“Oh, now that you mentioned it, you’ve reminded me,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, while continuing with his current spirit formation, he began to set up another spirit formation.

Soon, another spirit formation was completed. That spirit formation fused together with his previous spirit formation.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, the Dragon Mark Immortal-level spirit power in the comprehensive formation seemed to have received an order, and started to pound against the spirit formation the three brothers had sealed Chu Feng with.

As Immortal-level spirit power was extremely powerful, it managed to shatter, destroy and completely engulf the spirit formation the three brothers had set up in merely a short moment.

“Heavens! Chu Feng is actually controlling that Immortal-level spirit power,” Seeing this scene, the crowd were all shocked.

After all, the Immortal-level spirit power would not help Chu Feng for no reason. It was most definitely Chu Feng’s doing to make the Immortal-level spirit power help him.

Merely, the crowd could not understand what sort of method Chu Feng had used to control the Immortal-level spirit power.

Could it be that it was simply not Chu Feng who controlled the Immortal-level spirit power, but instead the Golden Crane True Immortal who had helped him from the shadows?

“No, this is impossible! You are but a mere Royal-cloak World Spiritist! How could you control Immortal-level spirit power?!” When even the others were feeling disbelief, the Four World Spiritist Emperors naturally felt even greater disbelief.

Suddenly, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors turned to the sky and shouted, “Lord True Immortal, although I do not know what sort of relationship you have with that Chu Feng, you shouldn’t be helping him like this, no?! Do you really think this is fair?!”

Even though he was unable to enter the comprehensive formation, he could not watch as his three brothers suffered.

As he believed that it was most definitely the Golden Crane True Immortal who had helped Chu Feng, he actually started to publicly question him.

“Boom~~~”

However, right after his words left his mouth, a muffled explosion sounded from his body. He who had completely cured the injuries inflicted upon him by Chu Feng was instantly mutilated. Powerless, he fell to the ground.

He began to vomit mouthfuls of blood nonstop.

Seeing this scene, the complexions of the crowd present all turned pale. They did not even dare to utter a single word.

They were all able to tell that it was the Golden Crane True Immortal who had done that. The questioning from the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors must’ve angered the Golden Crane True Immortal, causing him to inflict a lesson upon him.

“Your skills being inferior is your own fault. Do not use this Immortal as an excuse for your own failure.”

“I will consider this a first offense, and not bicker with you. However, if anyone dares say that this Immortal is helping someone again, do not blame me for not giving you the opportunity to live.”

Sure enough, after that attack, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s voice exploded from the sky like ten thousand thunders.

When that voice sounded, not only did the sky and the earth violently tremble, the crowd’s hearts were also trembling.

Everyone could feel the Golden Crane True Immortal’s anger. This Lord True Immortal’s anger was truly capable of toppling the mountains and overturning the seas, splitting heaven and earth. They felt as if the end of the world had arrived.

Although his attack had seriously injured the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, everyone knew that he had acted leniently.

If he hadn’t, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors would definitely have been killed without a corpse remaining.

After all, the Golden Crane True Immortal possessed the ability to kill him instantly. Furthermore, he did not have to worry about killing him either.

Regardless of how powerful the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother might be, she would still be no match for the Golden Crane True Immortal.

Chapter 2239 – Formation Of The Immortal-cloak

---

“In that case, it means that it is not Lord True Immortal that interfered, but rather Chu Feng who had managed to control the Immortal-level spirit power himself?” After things were cleared up, the crowd became even more astonished.

“Chu Feng, we are not done with you!!!”

Right at that moment, the three brothers inside the comprehensive formation suddenly let out furious shouts.

Upon turning their gazes toward them, the crowd discovered that the three brothers were already sealed in a spirit formation.

That spirit formation caused them to be unable to comprehend the slightest trace of Immortal-level spirit power.

At that moment, the vast amount of Immortal-level spirit power in the comprehensive formation was continuously pounding against only Chu Feng.

“That’s the end!!!”

Seeing this scene, many people revealed smiles.

The three brothers were simply unable to break through the spirit formation Chu Feng had sealed them with. The reason for that was because not only was Chu Feng’s spirit formation extremely profound, but he had also managed to control Immortal-level spirit power to assist him.

With the Immortal-level spirit power serving as a foundation, no matter what sorts of treasures the three brothers possessed, they were still unable to break through Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

As such, they could only watch as Chu Feng enjoyed the boundless Immortal-level spirit power by himself without being able to do anything.

Hatred. At that moment, the three brothers' eyes were filled with concentrated hatred. They were itching to skin Chu Feng alive and drink his blood.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly opened his tightly closed eyes. He looked at the three brothers as his lips raised into a smile.

“The three of you were originally able to enjoy the Immortal-level spirit power together with me.”

“Yet, you three insisted on using tricks against me. You have forced me to this. This was caused by your overestimation of your capabilities. You all have reaped what you've sown,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, after leaving Mount Cloud Crane, we will definitely take your dog life!!!” The three brothers said furiously.

However, their threatening words only managed to obtain a light smile from Chu Feng. He said, “Don't speak as if you all would have spared me if I didn't go against you.”

“At the moment I broke through that purple fog, you all had already determined to kill me. However, you all must not know that I dared to go against you four brothers because I did not place you all in my eyes.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he ignored the expressions of the three brothers, closed his eyes and began to continue to comprehend the profoundness contained in the Immortal-level spirit power.

“You damned bastard, you dare to look down on us like this?!” Faced with Chu Feng acting like that, not to mention the three brothers inside the spirit formation, even the seriously injured eldest brother was filled with overwhelming fury.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng's body began to completely absorb all of the vast and boundless amount of Immortal-level spirit power like a bottomless pit.

After the Immortal-level spirit power was all absorbed into Chu Feng's body, the comprehensive formation started to shatter.

“This!!!” Seeing that scene, the expressions of the crowd all changed. They did not understand exactly what was happening before them.

“Buzz~~~”

At the moment when the crowd was confused, Chu Feng's body suddenly let out a vast amount of Immortal-level spirit power.

Merely, the Immortal-level spirit power that he emitted was completely different from the Immortal-level spirit power that had entered his body before.

Earlier, Dragon Mark Immortal-level spirit power had entered his body.

And now, although it also very pure, it was Insect Mark Immortal-level spirit power that was being emitted.

The Immortal-level spirit power that he emitted was clearly many times weaker. However, upon seeing the Immortal-level spirit power, the people present all revealed astonished expressions.

“Chu Feng, he, he, he....”

“Could it be that he has already become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” someone said in excitement.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Chu Feng succeeded?” At that moment, in terms of being happy, no one's happiness could surpass Liu Xiaoli's. After all, as long as Chu Feng became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he would be able to treat her master Liu Chengkun's illness.

“Grandmaster Pocket, did Chu Feng... really become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Someone turned to ask Grandmaster Pocket because they did not dare to believe their eyes, did not dare to believe that Chu Feng had become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

“Almsgiver Chu Feng possesses exceptional talent. He has indeed become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“He is so young, yet has already become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. There have only been two people who have accomplished this feat in the history of our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Grandmaster Pocket was full of praises for Chu Feng.

After verifying that Chu Feng had become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, the gazes with which the crowd looked to Chu Feng changed once again.

An Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. An Asura World Spiritist. A man this young.

Genius. This was most definitely the sign of an exceptional genius!!!

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a ray of light suddenly shone from the sky and enveloped Chu Feng.

When that ray of light dissipated, Chu Feng had also disappeared. At that moment, Chu Feng had arrived above the clouds.

Merely, Chu Feng was simply unable to see the Golden Crane True Immortal, and was only able to hear his voice.

“You are called Chu Feng?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Senior, this junior is indeed called Chu Feng,” Chu Feng replied.

“You are extremely talented in terms of world spirit techniques.

You are a rarely-seen genius.”

“However, the more talented one is, the more others will envy them. You are destined to become famous after today; a misfortune, perhaps. There will be two kinds of people that will notice you.”

“The first kind will be those who will want to attract you because they cherish of talent.”

“The other kind will be those who will want to kill you out of their jealousy toward you.”

“However, even those who want to attract you might end up becoming people who will want to kill you. The world of martial cultivation is filled with dangers everywhere. You need to prepare yourself.”

“Thank you, Lord True Immortal, for pointing this out to me. It was all thanks to Lord True Immortal that this Chu Feng could become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

Although Chu Feng was unable to see the Golden Crane True Immortal, he was grateful toward the Golden Crane True Immortal. Thus, he respectfully bowed in the direction that the Golden Crane True Immortal’s voice was coming from.

“You have become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist by relying on your own comprehension. There is not too much of a relationship with me. Thus, you do not have to thank me, it was all thanks to your own abilities.”

“This Immortal is also a person who cherishes talents. As a talent like you is very rare, I have prepared a meager gift for you.”

Once the Golden Crane True Immortal’s words were said, a sandalwood case floated out from the fog and arrived before Chu Feng.

Chu Feng received the case and opened it. Immediately, his eyes shone. Contained in the case were three medicinal pellets. The three medicinal pellets were three different colors. Each and every one of them contained an enormous amount of medicinal power. Furthermore, each one was stronger than the last.

Chu Feng was able to tell that the medicinal powers of those medicinal pellets were related to one's world spirit techniques.

"Senior, may I know what these medicinal pellets are?" Chu Feng asked.

"Those are Immortal Transformation Pellets. They are specially created for Immortal-cloak World Spiritists."

"Upon using the Immortal Transformation Pellets, your Heavenly Bloodline will temporarily be sealed. You will not be able to use your Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. Even your heaven-defying battle power will disappear. However, your cultivation will increase enormously."

"I have prepared three such Immortal Transformation Pellets for you."

"The first one is capable of increasing your cultivation to rank three Martial Ancestor."

"The second one is capable of increasing your cultivation to rank four Martial Ancestor."

"As for the third one, it is capable of increasing your cultivation to rank five Martial Ancestor."

"Perhaps these three Immortal Transformation Pellets will be able to save your life in times of danger," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

Chapter 2240 – Young Master Li Ming

---

Chu Feng felt overjoyed upon hearing those words.

He current did possess a lot of enemies. Not mentioning Luyang's Pavilion, merely the Four World Spiritist Emperors already had the intention to kill him.

It was indeed very difficult for him to protect himself with merely the strength of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Even for Her Lady Queen, who possessed overwhelming battle power, she was only able to easily kill rank one Martial Ancestors. When faced with rank two Martial Ancestors, a fierce battle would be unavoidable.

However, those three Immortal Transformation Pellets were capable of increasing Chu Feng's cultivation from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to Martial Ancestor. Especially the third medicinal pellet, it was capable of increasing Chu Feng's cultivation to rank five Martial Ancestor. That was no small matter at all.

It would truly be a qualitative leap.

Thus, Chu Feng knew that the Immortal Transformation Pellets were most definitely not ordinary medicinal pellets. Even if they were concocted by the Golden Crane True Immortal, it would likely have been a very laborious process.

"Thank you senior," Chu Feng carefully put the medicinal pellets away. Then, he asked, "Senior, how long will the effects of the medicinal pellets last?"

"The effects will last for an hour," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"One hour? If fighting against others, that would suffice," Chu Feng said.

"It would naturally be enough. However, you must remember this. Although your cultivation will increase after using the medicinal pellets, your Heavenly Bloodline's power will be sealed. Not only will you not be able to use your Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, even your heaven-defying battle power will be gone."

"For example, should you take the first medicinal pellet, you will be able to obtain the strength of a rank three Martial Ancestor for an hour."

"However, even though you will be able to control the martial power and use it to unleash martial skills, you will only be able to contend against rank three Martial Ancestors. All rank four Martial Ancestors will be able to easily kill you."

"Thus, when faced with different enemies, you must make sure to use different Immortal Transformation Pellets. Remember, you must not be careless," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"Thank you for your reminder, senior. This junior will forever remember senior's grace today," Chu Feng clasped his fist and thanked him.

"Grace? This Immortal is merely fond of talent, and does not wish for you to be killed by others that harbor evil intentions."

"However, even though I am fond of talent, this Immortal will still not conceal the fact that you have killed that Li Rui."

"I will personally announce this matter to the crowd. However, before I announce it, you should first confess to that man from the Sunset Cloud Valley," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng's heart tightened. However, he still clasped his fist and bowed, "Senior, that is something that this junior has done. As such, I will assume the responsibility."

"That would be the best," After the Golden Crane True Immortal's voice sounded, a spirit formation enveloped Chu Feng. When the light of the spirit formation dissipated, Chu Feng had left that place.

After Chu Feng left, the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain clothed old monk appeared.

“It seems that you truly do not plan to take him as your disciple?” The plain clothed old monk asked the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“That child’s talent is indeed rare. However, I, Golden Crane, am not a half-hearted individual. Since I have already chosen that brat, I will naturally not choose Chu Feng instead.”

“Since you think so highly of Chu Feng, why do you not take him as your disciple?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked the old monk.

“You think I do not want to take him as a disciple? You should know that I think very highly of him. I feel that his accomplishments in the future will surpass that brat that you think highly of,” The plain clothed old monk said.

“Are you saying those words to incite me?”

“Even if Chu Feng’s accomplishments today have been decent, I still feel that his future accomplishments will be inferior to that brat that I’ve chosen,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“This, I’m not going to argue with you. You have your own vision, whereas I have mine. Arguing will serve no purpose.”

“I will only tell you this. I truly wanted to take that Chu Feng as my disciple. Merely, you also know what sort of mysterious technique I train in. There is nothing I can teach him,” The plain clothed old monk said helplessly.

“Who said you had to teach him? You could simply have him be your disciple, and not teach him anything, granting him only the status of your disciple.”

“Like that, you would be able to openly protect him.”

“Else, for a talent like him to rely only on himself, it will be very easy for him to die young.”

“Not mentioning the others, merely those four brats already harbor killing intent toward him. Else... I wouldn’t have given him those three Immortal Transformation Pellets.”

“You should know how dark the world of martial cultivators is.”

“However, should you take him as your disciple, I wouldn’t have to interfere in this matter,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“That is precisely the reason why I cannot take him as my disciple. You also know how many enemies I have,” The plain clothed old monk said.

“This...” At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal was startled. He seemed to have thought of something. After a while, he said, “It shouldn’t be an issue in this Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, no?”

“Who knows when they will chase me over here,” The plain clothed old monk smiled wryly.

“Oh you,” The Golden Crane True Immortal sighed. Then, he said, “If that is the case, you really should distance yourself from that Chu Feng. If he is by himself, there will still be a chance that he will survive.”

“However, if he is to become involved with you, he will definitely be killed.”

“See, didn’t I say that?” The plain clothed old monk sighed helplessly. Then, he looked to the Golden Crane True Immortal with a beaming smile. He said, “How about you help him some more?”

“Forget about it. We are neither relatives nor friends. Even if I am extremely fond of talent, I have already helped as much as I can. After all, he is but a stranger that I’ve met once,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“That’s true,” The plain clothed old monk nodded. Then, he said, “In that case, whatever accomplishments he might be able to obtain will all depend on himself.”

“Even if you are worried for him, it would be useless. If he truly possesses abilities, he will definitely break through the hardships. After all, it was like that for the two of us back then too.”

“However, if his strength is insufficient, even if he is to be killed by others, it cannot be blamed on them. After all, the world of martial cultivators is cruel like that,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

The plain clothed old monk sighed deeply. He knew that what the Golden Crane True Immortal had said was very true.

At the moment when the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain clothed old monk were conversing, Chu Feng had been teleported out of Mount Cloud Crane.

It was not only Chu Feng that was here. At that moment, everyone was gathered here.

At that moment, it was not only Xu Yiyi and the others that were unable to ascend Mount Cloud Crane that were here; even Liu Xiaoli and the others that had managed to ascend Mount Cloud Crane were here.

At that moment, practically everyone was looking at Chu Feng with gazes of admiration. In fact, many of the younger generation were looking at him with gazes filled with envy and adoration.

Clearly, everyone already knew what had happened at the summit of Mount Cloud Crane.

“Chu Feng, you are truly amazing. I’ve heard that you’ve become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“Wow! You simply surpass my imagination. I am truly proud to have a friend like you.”

Xu Yiyi rushed toward Chu Feng. Like a horse that had thrown off its reins, she started to jump around non-stop after reaching Chu Feng.

“There’s no need for you to be this excited, no?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Of course I’m excited. You are the second youngest Immortal-cloak World Spiritist in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Xu Yiyi said excitedly.

“Second? Who is the first?” Liu Xiaoli asked curiously.

“Don’t you know? It would naturally be the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s number one genius, Young Master Li Ming,” Xu Yiyi said.

“Young Master Li Ming?” Liu Xiaoli revealed a surprised expression. It was not only her; many of the others present also revealed such expressions.

“You all couldn’t possibly have never heard of Young Master Li Ming, right? He is our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s most talented, most demon-level genius.”

“Oh, that’s right. I’ve heard that the Golden Crane True Immortal even wanted to take him as his disciple.”

“However... he was refused,” Xu Yiyi said.

Chapter 2241 – The Whole Truth Revealed

---

“For real? He actually refused the Golden Crane True Immortal?” The crowd were all astonished upon hearing those words.

What sort of existence was the Golden Crane True Immortal? Everyone present knew that he was one of the most powerful existences in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Countless people wanted to become his disciple, yet were refused. And now, he wanted to have that Young Master Li Ming as his disciple, but was actually refused. This was truly astonishing.

“Actually, that cannot amount to much. After all, that Young Master Li Ming is truly a demon-level genius. Countless people were refused by him. The Golden Crane True Immortal was only one of them,” Xu Yiyi said.

After hearing what Xu Yiyi said, the crowd felt even more astonished. They never expected that there would be such a demon-level genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

At the same time, the crowd all wanted to know exactly how powerful that Young Master Li Ming was.

“In that case, doesn’t this mean that Chu Feng is the second demon-level genius to appear in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“That’s right. Regardless, Chu Feng is our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s second youngest Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” Xu Yiyi said in a very happy manner.

The crowd nodded at Xu Yiyi’s words. They were all expressing their approval.

At this moment when everyone was joyous, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Jiang Hao had a worried frown. He, who disliked Chu Feng and viewed him as his rival in love, would naturally not wish for Chu Feng to obtain this sort of accomplishment.

“Yiyi, Elder Ning Shuang, I have a matter that I must confess to you all,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, what’s made you so serious?” Seeing Chu Feng’s serious expression, Xu Yiyi was unable to contain herself from smiling.

“Li Rui?” the mention of that name caused the crowd’s expression to turn sluggish.

After all, everyone was able to tell that Li Rui was nowhere to be seen. In fact, they all wanted to know what had happened to Li Rui.

“Now that you mention it, Chu Feng, where’s Li Rui?” Sure enough, Elder Ning Shuang and the others from the Sunset Cloud Valley questioned Chu Feng.

“Li Rui has been killed by me,” Chu Feng said.

“What?!” Hearing those words, the expressions of the crowd all changed. This was especially true for the female disciples, who were so scared that their complexions changed color.

“Chu Feng, you are truly brazen! You actually killed my fellow martial senior!” As for Jiang Hao, he directly revealed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and planned to attack Chu Feng.

“Stop!” However, before Jiang Hao could attack Chu Feng, Elder Ning Shuang stopped him. Then, he forced a smile and said to Chu Feng, “Little friend Chu Feng, you cannot joke about that sort of thing.”

“Elder Ning Shuang, I am not joking. I truly killed Li Rui,” Chu Feng said.

“Ah?!”

“Chu Feng, you really killed Li Rui? Exactly what is going on?” Xu Yiyi asked.

At that moment, it was not only Xu Yiyi who had a nervous and confused expression. Many of the people present also revealed confused expressions. They did not understand why Chu Feng would kill Li Rui.

Furthermore, with Chu Feng's cultivation and Li Rui's cultivation, it shouldn't be possible for Chu Feng to kill Li Rui.

“Rank four Half Martial Ancestor?”

Right at that moment, the crowd noticed that Chu Feng's cultivation was no longer that of a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, but had instead increased to rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

Unable to contain herself, Liu Xiaoli asked, “Chu Feng, your cultivation?” Compared to others, she was even more certain that Chu Feng was clearly only a rank two Half Martial Ancestor before coming here.

“I increased my cultivation after entering Mount Cloud Crane,” Chu Feng said.

Unable to contain himself, Elder Ning Shuang asked, “Two successive levels?” After all, that was no small matter.

“That's right,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Sssss~~~”

Many of the people present were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. It was not that they possessed a low endurance toward shock and surprise, but rather increasing two levels of cultivation in succession was truly too astonishing.

At that moment, the gazes with which the crowd looked to Chu Feng changed again. They seemed to finally understand why Chu Feng possessed his level of cultivation at such a young age.

Everything was not a coincidence. This child was truly a demon-level character.

However, at this time when the crowd were exclaiming in admiration at Chu Feng's astonishing talent, there was someone who was unable to sit and continue to watch what was going on. That person was Jiang Hao.

“Who cares why he did it? Those that kill another shall pay with their life. Those who owe another shall pay their debt. That is heaven's law and earth's principle. Today, I... shall avenge senior brother Li Rui!” Jiang Hao shouted.

“Clank~~~”

Jiang Hao raised his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and pointed it at Chu Feng.

“Stop!” Xu Yiyi stepped before Chu Feng, blocking Jiang Hao. She shouted at him, “I refuse to believe that Chu Feng would kill senior brother Li Rui!”

“I can testify that Chu Feng indeed killed Li Rui,” Right at that moment, a voice filled with imposing might sounded from Mount Cloud Crane.

When that voice was heard, the crowd were all astonished. They did not expect that the Golden Crane True Immortal would actually come to testify.

What sort of status did the Golden Crane True Immortal possess? If he were to come out to testify, it would mean that Chu Feng's killing of Li Rui was certainly the truth.

Out of consideration for their faces, even if Chu Feng was a rare young genius and an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, the Sunset Cloud Valley would definitely not spare Chu Feng.

“This Immortal has seen the course of events personally. It is true that Chu Feng has killed Li Rui. However, it was Li Rui who tried to kill Chu Feng first. Chu Feng was forced to counterattack, and ended up killing Li Rui,” The Golden Crane True Immortal's voice sounded again.

“So it was actually Li Rui who tried to kill Chu Feng first?” Hearing those words, many people heaved a sigh of relief.

If Li Rui was truly the one to attack first, it would mean that he was in the wrong. Thus, even if Chu Feng had killed him, it would be reasonable.

“As this matter happened in my Mount Cloud Crane, I will declare that if Chu Feng had killed someone in a completely uncalled-for manner, I would most definitely look into it. However, Chu Feng’s killing this time around is justified.”

“Back then, if this Immortal had wanted to prevent Chu Feng from killing Li Rui, I would have been able to do so too. However, this Immortal did not do that. The reason for that is because I felt that Li Rui deserved to die.”

The Golden Crane True Immortal only said those words, and said no more after that. However, the crowd all understood the Golden Crane True Immortal’s intentions.

The Golden Crane True Immortal was absolving Chu Feng of responsibility. He had explicitly declared that Chu Feng was not in the wrong to kill Li Rui. If the Sunset Cloud Valley insisted on looking into the matter, it would be possible that the Golden Crane True Immortal would get involved in the matter as well.

Regardless of how powerful the Sunset Cloud Valley might be, it remained only a tier two power. As such, how could they possibly be a match for the Golden Crane True Immortal?

“Little friend Chu Feng, is that really what happened?” Elder Ning Shuang asked.

“Precisely,” Chu Feng nodded.

“But, there are neither grievances or grudges between you and Li Rui, why would he try to kill you?” Elder Ning Shuang was confused.

“It was because of Xu Yiyi,” Chu Feng looked to Xu Yiyi.

“Me?” Xu Yiyi revealed a puzzled expression.

“Li Rui liked you. He felt that my existence was a threat to him.”

“Thus, like Jiang Hao, he viewed me as a rival in love.”

“However, different from Jiang Hao, who has openly displayed his hatred toward me, Li Rui had concealed his hatred,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, while the outsiders felt surprised, the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley were not surprised. Evidently, they all knew that Li Rui liked Xu Yiyi.

“Elder Ning Shuang, you should remember that I was originally supposed to enter the floating island together with Society President Liu that day. It was Li Rui who insisted on accompanying me instead,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s right. It was indeed Li Rui who suggested that,” Elder Ning Shuang nodded.

“In that case, did you know that those floating islands all possessed a special power left behind by the Exalted that made it impossible to summon one’s world spirits there?” Chu Feng asked.

“Naturally. Not only do I know that, they all knew that too,” Elder Ning Shuang looked to Xu Yiyi and the others.

“I got it,” Suddenly, Xu Yiyi seemed to have thought of something. Thus, emotionally, she said, “Li Rui deliberately accompanied you to the same floating island because you would not be able to summon your world spirit. He felt that as long as you were unable to summon your world spirit, you would not be a match for him, and he would be able to kill you.”

“Precisely,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Judging from this, it seems that Li Rui had already schemed this.”

“Who would’ve expected that he was so despicable?”

Hearing till this point, many outsiders started to curse at Li Rui. The reason why they were doing that was because they wanted to use this opportunity to get closer to Chu Feng.

However, no matter what, Li Rui was still a disciple of the Sunset Cloud Valley. Hearing others speaking of Li Rui in such a manner, the expressions of the crowd from the Sunset Cloud Valley turned unsightly.

Chapter 2242 – A Helping Hand

---

“It would seem that Li Rui was indeed at fault for this matter. I will report this matter to our Valley Master honestly.”

“Furthermore, our Valley Master is not someone who cannot distinguish between right and wrong. Thus, little friend Chu Feng, please rest assured. Our Sunset Cloud Valley will definitely not look further into this matter,” Elder Ning Shuang said to Chu Feng.

It was not that he did not mind Li Rui’s death. After all, Li Rui was a talented individual. As such, how could he not be pained by Li Rui’s death?

However, from the process of what had happened, it was obvious at a glance who was in the wrong and who was in the right. Everyone present was able to tell. Thus, even if their Sunset Cloud Valley was feeling unreconciled, it would still not be suitable for them to look further into this matter.

Furthermore, from their short interaction, Elder Ning Shuang was very fond of Chu Feng. As such, he truly did not wish to look further into this matter.

“Chu Feng, and here I thought that you would not dare to come out!!!”

Right at that moment, a voice filled with killing intent suddenly exploded. Following that, four figures rapidly approached.

It was the Four World Spiritist Emperors. Those four brothers were actually daring enough to attack Chu Feng before he had even left the vicinity of Mount Cloud Crane.

“Stay your hand,” Upon seeing that, Elder Ning Shuang hurriedly moved before Chu Feng, blocking him.

He also unleashed his aura of a rank five Martial Ancestor and completely dispersed the surging oppressive might from the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

While the Four World Spiritist Emperors were very powerful, their eldest being a rank five Martial Ancestor, Elder Ning Shuang was also a rank five Martial Ancestor.

As such, he would naturally not look on helplessly as they attempted to bring harm to Chu Feng.

“Scram! You are but a dog of the Sunset Cloud Valley, yet you dare oppose us?”

However, who would’ve thought that the Four World Spiritist Emperors would completely disregard Elder Ning Shuang? In fact, they did not even place the Sunset Cloud Valley in their eyes.

“Don’t you think about harming little friend Chu Feng,” Elder Ning Shuang said determinedly.

“You are truly one who will not shed a tear until you see your coffin. If my mother is to be angered, not to mention you, your entire Sunset Cloud Valley will not be able to bear the consequences.”

Hearing those words, Elder Ning Shuang’s gaze wavered. If it were the Four World Spiritist Emperors alone, he would indeed be capable of handling them. However, upon mentioning their mother, Elder Ning Shuang started to waver before them.

The reason for that was because not only was the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, she also possessed extremely powerful strength in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. She could be considered an influential individual in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

She was indeed not someone that he could afford to provoke.

Seeing that Elder Ning Shuang was starting to panic, the Four World Spiritist Emperors grew even more arrogant. Their eldest pointed to Elder Ning Shuang’s nose and said, “Old dog from the Sunset Cloud Valley, scam immediately and I will pretend like nothing has happened.”

“You!!!” Elder Ning Shuang was so furious his complexion turned red. However, in the end, he resisted the anger, and did not erupt.

“What about me? Scam right now. Else, do not blame me for being rude toward you,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said fiercely. His arrogance was completely revealed.

“I’ve finally managed to catch you all!!!”

However, right at that moment, a voice exploded like a thunderbolt. Even space itself started to tremble violently.

Turning toward the direction of the voice, everyone saw that it was actually Daoist Three Swords.

“Crap!” Upon seeing Daoist Three Swords, the expressions of the Four World Spiritist Emperors all changed enormously.

They had left an enormous grievance against Daoist Three Swords on Mount Cloud Crane. Thus, it was extremely bad for them to encounter him here.

“I said that I would let you know what miserable really means after leaving Mount Cloud Crane,” Daoist Three Swords said to the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

“Daoist Three Swords, you are, after all, a senior. Are you planning to bully your juniors?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors started to panic. He turned around and prepared to flee.

“Humph, this Daoist has always been one to keep his word. Since I have said that I will teach you a lesson, how could I possibly spare you all just because of my seniority?” Daoist Three Swords sneered. Then, he began to walk toward the Four World Spiritist Emperors in midair. Although his footsteps appeared to be slow, he traversed several miles with each step. In merely the blink of an eye, he managed to catch up to the fleeing eldest Four World

Spiritist Emperor.

“Pow, pow, pow, pow~~~”

After arriving before the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, Daoist Three Swords began to swing his arms to unleash ruthless slaps to his face.

Not only were his slaps resounding, they were also very powerful. In merely a short moment, the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was slapped dazed. Blood covered his face as he swayed from side to side before losing consciousness. From midair, he began to fall to the ground.

“Big brother!!!”

Seeing that the situation was bad, the three younger brothers immediately rushed to catch their big brother.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right when they were about to catch their big brother, a figure suddenly appeared before them, blocking their path.

Upon seeing that person, the expressions of the three brothers all turned ashen.

The reason for that was because that person was none other than Daoist Three Swords.

“Since you’re blood brothers, you shall naturally share in your punishments.”

“Since your eldest brother has fainted, the three of you shall receive the following punishments on his behalf,” After Daoist Three Swords said those words, he did not bother to wait for the three brothers to reply, and began to flail his arms about nonstop, leaving countless blurs in their path.

“Pow, pow, pow, pow, pow,” firecracker-like sounds began to explode nonstop.

During that period of time, the three brothers’ heads were beaten back and forth as their blood splattered all over.

When Daoist Three Swords stayed his hand, those three brothers had also fainted. From midair, they all smashed into the ground beside their eldest brother.

Seeing this scene, many people began to applaud in their hearts. After all, Daoist Three Swords' slaps were truly satisfying to the heart; he had helped the crowd settle the arrogance of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

"Wow! Chu Feng, Daoist Three Swords actually helped you take care of the Four World Spiritist Emperors!" Xu Yiyi said excitedly.

"As if. The way I see it, it's because they possessed personal conflicts. How could Daoist Three Swords help a nobody like Chu Feng?" Jiang Hao said with an expression of denial.

However, who would've thought that, right at that moment, Daoist Three Swords stepped into the air and began walking toward Chu Feng's direction. Furthermore, he ended up stopping before Chu Feng.

"Little brother Chu Feng, rest assured. I have struck them unconscious with my martial power."

"Unless someone is to treat them, they will definitely be unconscious for several days and nights. At the very least, they will no longer pose a threat to you today," Daoist Three Swords said to Chu Feng.

At that moment, many of the people present had their eyes wide open and their tongues tied. This was especially true for the people that had not entered Mount Cloud Crane. At that moment, they had bewildered expressions.

As matters stood, they were all certain that Daoist Three Swords had not attacked the Four World Spiritist Emperors for no reason or cause. Instead, he had actually done so to help Chu Feng out of his trouble.

Merely, they did not understand how Chu Feng had managed to claim a connection to a grand individual like Daoist Three Swords.

Feeling extremely grateful, Chu Feng hurriedly bowed to Daoist Three Swords, “Thank you senior.”

“The four of them were disrespectful toward their seniors. They were truly excessive. Even if they did not attempt to cause trouble for you, I still would have had to teach them a lesson. Else, if they were allowed to continue to act unrestrained like that, they might end up causing countless evils,” Daoist Three Swords said carefreely.

However, his expression suddenly changed. He turned serious and said, “Little brother Chu Feng, might you be interested in coming to our Immortal Sword School as a guest?”

Hearing those words, the already-astonished crowd opened their mouths wide with shock.

This was especially true for Jiang Hao. He had an expression as if he had just been fed feces.

No one would’ve thought that not only would Daoist Three Swords lend Chu Feng a helping hand, he would even voluntarily invite Chu Feng to be a guest of their Immortal Sword School.

That could be said to be a supreme honor!!!

This is not a mistranslation. Bee had mistaken their cultivation. On Chapter 2224, he mentioned all four of them were rank 1 Martial Ancestors, which makes sense since he mentioned the 2nd eldest is a rank 1 in many chapters and the four of them are quadruplets. However, now the eldest is a rank five instead?

Chapter 2243 – Razed To The Ground

---

“Eh...” Faced with the sudden invitation from Daoist Three Swords, Chu Feng revealed a difficult expression.

“Why would Chu Feng have this sort of reaction? He couldn’t possibly be thinking about refusing, right?” Seeing that Chu Feng was hesitating to answer Daoist Three Swords, the crowd began to have misgivings.

‘Humph, that guy truly doesn’t know how to tell good from bad. Serves him right,’ As for Jiang Hao, he started to sneer in his heart.

The way he saw it, grand characters like Daoist Three Swords were all people who held grudges; they were not people that one could afford to offend.

This was especially true for Daoist Three Swords, who was famous for his fiery temper.

If Chu Feng were to refuse his invitation before all these people, it would simply be akin to slapping him in the face. Thus, Jiang Hao felt that Chu Feng would definitely suffer consequences today.

In fact, it was not only Jiang Hao that was thinking like that. Many people present were also thinking that way.

“Little brother Chu Feng, could it be that you have some difficulties with my request? That’s fine, if there are difficulties, you can go ahead and tell me about it,” Daoist Three Swords said with a smile.

Hearing what Daoist Three Swords said, Jiang Hao nearly fainted from anger.

What the hell was this?

Didn’t Daoist Three Swords possess a fiery temper? Wasn’t he someone that refused to allow others to talk about him? Why would he have such a good attitude toward Chu Feng?

“Senior, this junior does indeed have something that I must take care of. I fear that I will have to let you down,” Chu Feng said. The ‘something’ he mentioned was naturally Liu Chengkun.

Liu Chengkun’s illness would always relapse several times a year. Before, his relapse would always occur at the same time. However, it had become unstable recently.

Chu Feng had to hurry back to the Red Butterfly Society with Liu Xiaoli so that they could return before his relapse occurred. Like that, he would be able to prevent Liu Chengkun from suffering the pain of a relapse of his illness.

“Haha, it’s alright. Little brother Chu feng possesses things that he must take care of. If you have the time in the future, you can come and visit our Immortal Sword School at any time. As long as I am there, you will definitely be treated as an honored guest,” Daoist Three Swords said. As he spoke, he tossed a title plate to Chu Feng.

Seeing that title plate, the crowd all revealed stunned gazes. This was especially true for Jiang Hao. He was completely stupefied, and his eyes were filled with envy.

That title plate was the Immortal Sword School’s invitation title plate. Those who held the invitation title plate would not only be allowed entrance to the Immortal Sword School, they would also be received as an honored guest.

What sort of place was the Immortal Sword School Sect? It was one of the four first-tier powers of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. To anyone, being able to obtain one such invitation title plate would be an honor.

“Chu Feng, quickly, accept it. That is the Immortal Sword School’s invitation title plate,” Seeing that Chu Feng was still standing there, Xu Yiyi beside him pinched Chu Feng’s leg to urge him.

“Thank you senior,” Chu Feng not only received the title plate, he also bowed again to express his thanks to Daoist Three Swords. After all, merely from the reaction of the crowd, Chu Feng was able to tell that the title plate was highly valued.

“It is fate that has brought us here together. Thus, there is no need for you to stand on ceremony, for it will only create distance between us.”

“Little brother Chu Feng, in that case, I hope we meet again,” Daoist Three Swords clasped his fist.

“Farewell,” Chu Feng clasped his fist in response.

After Daoist Three Swords left, Grandmaster Pocket also arrived before Chu Feng while leading the experts from the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple.

“Good indeed, good indeed. Actually, this humble monk also wishes to invite almsgiver Chu Feng to our Buddha’s Heavenly Temple as a guest.”

“However, since almsgiver Chu Feng has matters at hand, I will not force you. Merely, this humble monk must thank almsgiver Chu Feng.”

“If it weren’t for almsgiver Chu Feng’s assistance, we would likely not have been able to pass even that purple fog, much less be able to even see the appearance of the comprehensive formation,” Grandmaster Pocket said with a smile.

“Grandmaster, you are being too modest. What this junior has done are all things that I should have done,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Almsgiver Chu Feng is truly humble. Although you possess a demon-level character’s talent, you do not give off the slightest air of arrogance. It has been a very long time since I’ve meet a sensible young person like you.”

“Good, good. This is a good thing,” Grandmaster Pocket praised Chu Feng nonstop.

Even though everyone knew that Grandmaster Pocket was a benevolent person, it was still very rare for him to praise someone in such a manner.

At that moment, many of the surrounding crowd were staring blankly at that scene. This was especially true for the people from the Sunset Cloud Pavilion; they all had expressions of astonishment on their faces.

After all, both Daoist Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket were extremely influential grand individual's. For both of them to think so highly of Chu Feng meant that it was most definitely not a mistake. Instead, it meant that Chu Feng possessed outstanding aspects.

After Grandmaster Pocket left, the Zhou Heavenly Clan and the Kong Heavenly Clan, those two other tier one powers, actually also moved toward Chu Feng to greet him.

Although they did not explicitly state it, they both made it clear that they wished to invite Chu Feng to be guests at their powers.

However, it remained that it was only Daoist Three Swords who actually ended up granting Chu Feng an invitation title plate.

However, regardless, it remained that all four of the tier one powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the four most powerful huge monsters, had actually all extended an olive branch to Chu Feng. That by itself was sufficient to indicate how valuable they viewed Chu Feng to be.

Originally, due to Chu Feng's killing of Li Rui, the others from the Sunset Cloud Valley had felt some hatred and complaint toward Chu Feng.

However, after seeing the invitations from those grand characters, their impression of Chu Feng had changed.

In fact, even Jiang Hao, who had viewed Chu Feng as an enemy from the very beginning, had a change of sight. His gaze became very complicated. However, undoubtedly, the hatred that he held toward Chu Feng appeared to have decreased at that moment.

Afterwards, many others proceeded toward Chu Feng to greet him. However, they merely greeted him. It seemed that none of them were inviting Chu Feng to be their guests.

After all, they were no fools. When even the four tier one powers had been refused, even if they were to offer invitations to Chu Feng, they would definitely receive a refusal.

“It seems that it will be hopeless for me to invite you to our Sunset Cloud Valley as a guest,” Xu Yiyi looked at Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

Following that, Elder Ning Shuang added, “Little friend Chu Feng, if you have the time in the future, this old man hopes that you will come visit our Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“Miss Yiyi, Elder Ning Shuang, after I finish the matter at hand, I will personally come and pay you all a visit,” Chu Feng said.

“It’s a deal! You promised that. You must come,” Xu Yiyi said.

“Definitely,” Chu Feng replied earnestly.

“Pinky swear,” Xu Yiyi extended her pinky.

“Sure,” Chu Feng smiled and extended his pinky to hook with Xu Yiyi’s pinky.

Then, Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli began to return toward the direction of the Red Butterfly Society.

Calculating the time, the new headquarters of the Red Butterfly Society should not have been completed yet.

Thus, Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli did not proceed toward the location of the new headquarters, and instead proceeded toward the location of the old headquarters.

However, when the two of them returned to the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters, before they even descended, their expressions changed enormously.

The city above the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters had been destroyed. Not only had the city been destroyed, but the entire place had been turned into an enormous ravine.

This meant that someone had razed the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters to the ground.

"What, what is this?" Seeing this scene, Liu Xiaoli was immediately stunned. Disbelief filled her face as her eyes instantly turned red.

After all, with the scene before her, even without any explanation, one could guess that the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters must have been attacked by others.

At that moment, even though Chu Feng's eyes were not red like Liu Xiaoli's, he was also somewhat stunned.

He had entered Mount Cloud Crane and discovered the place where the Exalted had trained. He was clearly capable of increasing his cultivation to at least that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. However, he had given up on that.

Why did he do that?

It was all for the sake of becoming an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist so that he could return to treat Liu Chengkun's illness.

Yet, what was this? The Red Butterfly Society's headquarters had clearly not yet moved. Thus, why would it be leveled to the ground?

Didn't this mean that Liu Chengkun and the others might've suffered a calamity? That even though Chu Feng had become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he would not have the opportunity to cure Liu Chengkun's illness?

Chapter 2244 – Liangchen's Villa

---

“Who is it?!” Suddenly, Chu Feng turned his sharp gaze toward the distance.

Sure enough, several figures were in that location. They were rapidly flying over.

Upon seeing those people, Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli hurriedly rushed toward them.

The reason for that was because those people were actually all members of the Red Butterfly Society.

Merely, those people all possessed weak levels of cultivation. At the very least, not one of them was a management elder.

“Lady Society President, Lord Chu Feng, you all have finally returned! Our Red Butterfly Society has encountered an enormous calamity!!!”

Upon seeing Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli, those people all started weeping bitter tears.

“Enormous calamity? Why would our Red Butterfly Society suffer a calamity out of nowhere?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“Calm yourselves. Exactly what happened, exactly who did this, do you all know about it?” Chu Feng asked.

“We do,” The leader of that group nodded his head repeatedly. He was an old man that had lived for over a thousand years. Yet, tears and nasal mucus covered his face. Even his lips were trembling nonstop.

It could be seen that what had happened back then was truly tragic. It seemed that the Red Butterfly Society had truly suffered disastrous casualties. Else, he wouldn't be grieving in such a manner.

“Was it Luyang's Pavilion?!” Chu feng asked. The way he saw it, only Luyang's Pavilion would dare to attack the Red Butterfly Society. As such, the most likely culprit would be Luyang's Pavilion.

"No," That man shook his head.

"Then who was it?" Upon hearing that it was not Luyang's Pavilion, Chu Feng's expression changed. He was unable to understand whom other than Luyang's Pavilion would eliminate the Red Butterfly Society, whom other than Luyang's Pavilion possessed the strength to eliminate the Red Butterfly Society.

"It was Liangchen's Villa," The Red Butterfly Society's survivors said in unison.

"Liangchen's Villa?!" Liu Xiaoli was startled to hear those words. Then, she asked, "Why would Liangchen's Villa attack our Red Butterfly Society with no reason or cause? We have never had any grudges or grievances with them."

"We also do not know why. That day, Liangchen's Villa's Villa Master personally led their army here. Without saying anything, they began to massacre our Red Butterfly Society's people."

"It was not only the people from our Red Butterfly Society that ended up being massacred. Even those innocent commoners in that city were all massacred. Not a single person was spared," The survivors' leader said.

"All killed? Then, what about Elder Liu Chengkun?" Chu Feng asked. At that moment, Chu Feng, who was always calm, became nervous.

Of the people in the Red Butterfly Society, the person Chu Feng worried for the most, the person he cared for the most, would be none other than Liu Chengkun.

"Elder Liu, he... he... he was also killed!!!" The man wept.

"What?!" Hearing those words, the expressions of both Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli simultaneously changed.

Struck by five lightnings. At that moment, Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli felt as if five Divine Lightnings had struck them straight on the head, stunning them completely.

“Are you certain, certain that Elder Liu and the others were killed?” Chu Feng asked again. He was unwilling to accept that Liu Chengkun had been killed.

“Lord Chu Feng, we are certain, because we had personally seen Lord Elder and the others being killed.”

“Not only did they kill Lord Elder, they also took his and the others’ corpses away with them. We did not even have the chance to bury them,” When mentioning these things, the survivors began to weep even more tearfully.

“If Senior Liu and the others were all killed, how did you all manage to survive?” Chu Feng was confused. In terms of power, the Red Butterfly Society’s management elders were most definitely more powerful than these people. Since they were also present that day, it shouldn’t be possible for them to have survived.

Regardless of what sort of reason the attackers might have, since they had killed even the innocent commoners, they should not have spared these people from the Red Butterfly Society. Unless...

“We also do not understand why they didn’t kill us,” The survivors shook their heads. Then, with a ‘putt,’ they knelt to the ground. They said to Liu Xiaoli, “Lady Society President, we are incompetent. We failed to protect our Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters. Please punish us.”

“What are you all doing? This is not your fault. How could I punish you all? Quickly, get up. All of you, get back up,” With shivering hands, Liu Xiaoli started to help them up one by one. As she walked in the air, her footsteps began to waver.

To Liu Xiaoli, although Liu Chengkun was only her master, he exceeded her biological father in her heart. At the moment she discovered that Liu Chengkun had died, her heart had been thrown into utter confusion.

As for Chu Feng, he entered a deep contemplation.

Suddenly, he said, "They did it on purpose."

"What?" Liu Xiaoli's expression changed. She hurriedly asked, "Chu Feng, what do you mean by on purpose?"

"They deliberately left them alive so that they could tell us who it was that extinguished the Red Butterfly Society, so that we could go and find them for revenge," Chu Feng said.

"Ah?!" Hearing what Chu Feng said, Liu Xiaoli and the survivors all came to a sudden realization.

"Tell me, what sort of strength does that Liangchen's Villa possess?" Chu Feng asked Liu Xiaoli. He had realized that Liu Xiaoli should have an understanding of Liangchen's Villa.

Furthermore, he also realized that Liangchen's Villa should not be a simple power. Else, Liu Xiaoli would not be so astonished upon hearing their name.

Furthermore, he had discovered upon looking at Liu Xiaoli that her cheeks were already wet. They were drenched with tears.

After all, Liu Chengkun was her master, and the Red Butterfly Society was her home. Now that her master and the many elders in the Red Butterfly Society had all been killed, the pain that she felt would be extremely difficult to bear.

However, Chu Feng discovered that even though Liu Xiaoli was feeling very pained, there was no anger in her eyes. He was puzzled by that.

Could it be that Liu Xiaoli did not wish for revenge? Or could it be that she did not dare attempt to take revenge?

Liu Xiaoli did not answer Chu Feng immediately. Instead, she closed her eyes. After a long time passed, she opened her eyes again and said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, you don’t have to concern yourself with this matter.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown. He had verified that it was not that Liu Xiaoli did not wish for revenge, but rather that she did not dare to attempt to take revenge.

That Liangchen’s Villa was most definitely not an ordinary power. Else, Liu Xiaoli wouldn’t be acting in such a manner where she would refuse to take revenge for the death of her master.

“I cannot ignore this matter. Even if you do not tell me about them, I will still not spare that Liangchen’s Villa,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, you really shouldn’t concern yourself with this. This matter is personal to our Red Butterfly Society. Allow me to handle it. I do not wish to implicate you into it,” Liu Xiaoli started to urge Chu Feng against it.

At that moment, Chu Feng looked Liu Xiaoli in the eyes. He discovered that it was not that there was no anger in Liu Xiaoli’s eyes. Rather, her eyes were filled with rage.

Merely, she had deliberately concealed her anger and the urge to take revenge.

It turned out that it was not that she did not wish for revenge, nor was it that she did not dare to take revenge.

Rather, she had already made the decision as to how to take revenge.

Merely, she did not want Chu Feng to involve himself in it.

She was afraid of implicating Chu Feng.

Thus, she wanted to take revenge by herself.

Chapter 2245 – Must Take Revenge

---

“Liu Xiaoli, I know that you are doing this with good intentions. I also know what you are thinking. However, you should know this.”

“Your master and I were but strangers. Yet, he was willing to sacrifice his life in order to save me.”

“I do not care whether he suffered from a serious illness and had limited time, it remains that he was willing to give up his life to save me.”

“To me, his grace and kindness are as enormous as the heavens themselves.”

“To me, Chu Feng, Senior Liu Chengkun was not only a benefactor, but rather a close relative.”

“And now, he has been killed. This is a hatred that I cannot live on with while ignoring.”

“Yet you, you actually want me to sit by and watch without doing anything? How could I possibly do that?!”

“Give me a reason! Give me a reason why I should sit by and watch without doing anything, why I should look on without lifting a finger, why I should remain indifferent toward Senior Liu’s death!” Chu Feng stared at Liu Xiaoli and shouted.

Liu Xiaoli did not dare to look Chu Feng in the face. The reason for that was because she did not know how to answer Chu Feng.

She was unable to provide a reason for Chu Feng to sit by and watch without doing anything.

She was unable provide a reason for Chu Feng to look on without lifting a finger.

She was also unable to provide a reason for Chu Feng to remain indifferent.

“Liu Xiaoli, it is impossible for me, Chu Feng, to ignore Senior Liu Chengkun’s revenge. If you still consider me a friend, tell me what you know concerning that Liangchen’s Villa.”

“However, if you do not wish to tell me, I will also not make things difficult for you. However, you should know that even if you do not tell me, I will still be able to find out about it from others,” Chu Feng said earnestly.

He actually did not blame Liu Xiaoli. Merely, he wanted her to understand that he would definitely involve himself in the matter.

Hearing those words, Liu Xiaoli grew completely quiet. It was not only her, those Red Butterfly Society’s survivors were also completely silent.

They did not expect that Chu Feng would place such a heavy importance on the grace Liu Chengkun had shown him.

At that moment, everyone felt Chu Feng’s absolute determination in taking revenge.

Even though they were all heartbroken by the death of Liu Chengkun and the others, they felt warmth in their hearts after hearing what Chu Feng said.

“Liangchen’s Villa only possesses power comparable to that of a third tier power. In fact, they are inferior to even our Red Butterfly Society.”

“Though Liangchen’s Villa’s Villa Master is the strongest person there, I have certainty that I can fight him.”

“However, that is not the important aspect. The strength of Liangchen’s Villa is not important at all. What is important is the background of the Liangchen’s Villa’s Villa Master.”

“His name is Ying Liangchen. He is a member of the Ying Heavenly Clan,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Ying Heavenly Clan?” Chu Feng’s gaze changed upon hearing those words. Perhaps Chu Feng might not be susceptible to the mentioning of other Heavenly Clans, however, the Ying Heavenly Clan possessed a special significance to Chu Feng.

After all, the Dark Hall's Hall Master who had wreaked havoc throughout the Holy Land of martialism had been a member of the Ying Heavenly Clan.

Chu Feng still remembered that man's name. He was called Ying Chong.

Although Ying Chong was already dead, Chu Feng's impression of the Ying Heavenly Clan was extremely bad due to the various evils Ying Chong had done.

And now, after Chu Feng discovered that the Liangchen's Villa's Villa Master was actually also from the Ying Heavenly Clan, his impression of the Ying Heavenly Clan grew even worse.

"That Ying Liangchen is not only a member of the Ying Heavenly Clan, he is also the biological son of the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. He possesses an extremely grand status in the Ying Heavenly Clan."

"Furthermore, it is said that Ying Liangchen is the the most pampered son of the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief."

"If something were to happen to him, the Ying Heavenly Clan would definitely spare no effort to kill the person that did it to him," Liu Xiaoli continued.

"If he is someone from the Ying Heavenly Clan, why did he not continue to properly stay in the Ying Heavenly Clan but instead stayed in that so-called Liangchen's Villa?" Chu Feng asked.

"That Ying Liangchen possesses a superb talent for martial cultivation. It is said that he is the most talented individual to have appeared in the Ying Heavenly Clan."

"However, he is not fond of martial cultivation, and instead enjoys sightseeing and amusements. He is fond of being free and unconstrained, fond of living a life without worries.”

“Furthermore, as he possesses a special identity, very few people dare to do anything to him. Thus, his father decided to pamper him, and allows him to do as he wishes.”

“Over the years, Ying Liangchen had set up villas at many locations with beautiful sceneries all over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. As for that Liangchen’s Villa, it is one of the many villas he has established,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“So that’s the case. In that case, does he have powerful experts protecting him?” Chu Feng asked.

“While I cannot be certain about others, I can be certain that Ying Liangchen most definitely does not possess powerful experts from the Ying Heavenly Clan protecting him from the shadows.”

“The reason for that is because I’ve heard that what Ying Liangchen hated the most was being followed by the people from the Ying Heavenly Clan when he amuses himself outside.”

“Thus, there is also no one from the Ying Heavenly Clan in the many villas he has established. All of the people in them are outsiders.”

“Furthermore, as that Ying Liangchen is fond of controlling others, there is no one more powerful than him in his villas. He is always the most powerful person in his villas,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“If that is the case, it will be easy to take care of,” Chu Feng said.

After all, Liu Xiaoli had already declared that Ying Liangchen’s strength was on par with her own.

If Ying Liangchen was only that powerful, there would simply be no need for Liu Xiaoli to act. Chu Feng himself would be able to take care of Ying Liangchen. After all, the Golden Crane True Immortal had bestowed Chu Feng three Immortal Transformation Pellets.

“Although it is very likely that Ying Liangchen does not possess any guards protecting him from the shadows, I have heard that his father has requested an expert to set up a spirit formation on him.”

“When Ying Liangchen’s life is in danger, his father will be able to see all that he is seeing.”

“If anyone dares to attempt to take Ying Liangchen’s life, his father, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, would personally see it.”

“Thus, if one attempts to kill Ying Liangchen, they will become enemies with the entire Ying Heavenly Clan,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“I understand,” Chu Feng said. Then, he looked to Liu Xiaoli and said very earnestly, “Liu Xiaoli, I have only a single request that I hope that you will agree to.”

“What is it?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“Do not involve yourself in this matter. Let me take care of Ying Liangchen. No matter what, I will definitely kill him and avenge Senior Liu, as well as the others of the Red Butterfly Society that died,” Chu Feng said.

“No, I can agree to any other request. However, that request is something that I cannot agree to,” Liu Xiaoli refused immediately. Then, she stubbornly said, “Chu Feng, if you cannot sit and watch but remain indifferent, then I, Liu Xiaoli, cannot sit and watch but remain indifferent even more.”

“Hear me out,” Chu Feng said, “If you kill Ying Liangchen, you will definitely be chased by the Ying Heavenly Clan. As for you... you are not someone who can afford to offend the Ying Heavenly Clan.”

“As for me, at the very least, I am an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. You also saw what happened at the foot of Mount Cloud Crane. Even the four tier one powers tossed olive branches at me.”

“Even if I am to kill Ying Liangchen and cause the Ying Heavenly Clan to want to kill me, I am able to join a first tier power for asylum. At that time, the Ying Heavenly Clan will not be able to do anything to me,” “Although that might be the case, but... with your cultivation, how could you possibly take care of Ying Liangchen?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“You do not have to worry about that. I possess certainty of being able to kill Ying Liangchen,” Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2246 – Strongest Genius

---

“This...”

Liu Xiaoli was slightly hesitant. After all, this matter was a private affair concerning their Red Butterfly Society. And, most importantly, she wanted to personally kill Ying Liangchen to avenge her master Liu Chengkun.

“If you trust me, leave this matter for me to handle. Even if you do not care about yourself, you should still consider them,” Chu Feng looked to the Red Butterfly Society’s survivors.

“Don’t forget, this Red Butterfly Society was entrusted to you by Senior Liu. The Red Butterfly Society must continue to expand. It absolutely cannot be allowed to be eliminated like this,” Chu Feng added.

Chu Feng’s words just so happened to reach Liu Xiaoli’s heart. Although Liu Chengkun had been killed, she absolutely could not allow the Red Butterfly Society to perish.

That held true especially now. The Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters had been destroyed, and practically all of their elites had been killed. If even she were to die, there would truly not be anyone that could continue to maintain the existence of the Red Butterfly Society.

If that were to happen, the Red Butterfly Society would likely collapse completely in a short period of time.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, Liu Xiaoli bent her knees and kneeled in midair. She bowed to Chu Feng.

In response, the rest of the people from the Red Butterfly Society also kneeled and bowed toward Chu Feng.

“What are you all doing? Quickly, stand back up,” Chu Feng hurriedly stepped forward to help Liu Xiaoli back up.

However, not only was Liu Xiaoli unwilling to get back up, she also started to kowtow to Chu Feng. She said, “Chu Feng, I, Liu Xiaoli, am currently unable to repay the grace you’ve shown our Red Butterfly Society. However, I will remember this kindness in my heart. In the future, I will definitely repay it.”

“Thank you, Lord Chu Feng, for the grace you’ve shown us today. We will remember it in our hearts, and definitely repay you in the future,” Following that, the survivors of the Red Butterfly Society began to kowtow to Chu Feng.

“Everyone, quickly, get back up. If someone were to see this, even if I kill Ying Liangchen by myself, the Red Butterfly Society will definitely not be able to escape responsibility.”

“Right now, your top priority is not thanking me. Rather, it is to reorganize your Red Butterfly Society,” Chu Feng said.

It was only after hearing those words that Liu Xiaoli and Red Butterfly Society’s survivors began to stand up.

Then, Chu Feng managed to gather the information on the location of Liangchen’s Villa from Liu Xiaoli. Then, he proceeded toward Liangchen’s Villa by himself.

As for Liu Xiaoli, she did not follow Chu Feng. Her top priority right now was to reorganize the Red Butterfly Society’s various branches that were scattered all around, and gather the remaining people from the Red Butterfly Society so as to prevent the complete dissolution of the Red Butterfly Society.

On their way to Liangchen’s Villa, Eggy asked, “Chu Feng, don’t you feel that this is a trap?”

“It’s naturally a trap. They have deliberately left survivors so that we and others will know that it was the Liangchen’s Villa’s Ying Liangchen that eliminated the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, do you think that it was really done by the Liangchen’s Villa?” Eggy asked.

“It was definitely done by the Liangchen’s Villa. Merely, they must have been incited by someone,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re saying that it’s Chu Luyang?” Eggy asked.

“Naturally. After all, Xu Yiyi’s master personally declared that Luyang’s Pavilion was not allowed to attack the Red Butterfly Society again. Else, the Sunset Cloud Valley would not let them get away with it.”

“However, with Chu Luyang’s temperament, how could he possibly leave the matter at that? That is why he went to ask the Liangchen’s Villa’s Villa Master, Ying Liangchen, to help him.”

“Like that, he will be able to extricate himself from responsibility, and also eliminate a thorn in his side. It could be said that he has killed two birds with one stone.”

“After all, no matter how powerful the Sunset Cloud Valley might be, they will, upon considering the relationship Ying Liangchen has with the Ying Heavenly Clan, not attack Ying Liangchen,” Chu Feng said.

“It seems that the two of us are truly thinking the same thing. Merely, how did that Chu Luyang managed to make that Ying Liangchen do his dirty work?” Eggy asked in a puzzled manner.

“Birds of a feather flock together. They most definitely knew one another to begin with. Neither one of them are good birds. As long as it is something that benefits their own interests, so what if they were to kill some people?” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, it would mean that after killing Ying Liangchen, Chu Luyang will be next?” Eggy asked.

“Even if Chu Luyang is not related to this matter, I will still not spare him,” Chu Feng said.

“Why?” Eggy asked.

“Because he attempted to kill me before,” Chu Feng said.

.....

Liangchen’s Villa. On a mountain range.

The mountain scenery was beautiful like a drawing. It was a very rare scene of beauty. This was also one of the reasons why Ying Liangchen had established Liangchen’s Villa here.

Although the surrounding scenery was fascinatingly beautiful, it was not the most important reason why Ying Liangchen was fond of this place.

The reason why Ying Liangchen was so fond of this place that he even named the villa after himself was because this place was filled with beauties.

Gathered in Liangchen’s Villa were countless beauties. To put it simply, this was none other than the place where Ying Liangchen went to to seek sexual pleasures.

Inside a palace hall in Liangchen’s Villa. At this moment, this place was filled with women. They were completely naked, and the entire scene revolved around two men.

Although it was a very unbearable sight, all of the women present did not show the slightest trace of shame. It was as if they had grown accustomed to it. They were using all their capabilities to please those two men.

As for the two men, they were deeply enjoying the pleasures.

However, one thing worthy of mentioning was that one of the two men was actually a white-haired old man.

That old man possessed the cultivation of a rank two Martial Ancestor. He was the villa manager of Liangchen’s Villa. He could be considered to be one of Ying Liangchen’s trusted aides.

As for the other individual, he was a young man with a head of blue hair. This man possessed a cultivation of rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. He was none other than Ying Liangchen.

Ying Liangchen was currently sharing his women with his villa manager.

This could be considered to be one of Ying Liangchen's kinks. Of course, even though he was willing to share, those that he would share were all women that he had already toyed with.

In other words, to Ying Liangchen, those women could not be considered to be his women. Rather, they were only a group of playthings.

“Lord Villa Master, why did you decide to help that Chu Luyang? Furthermore, you even deliberately left people behind to inform everyone that it was us who extinguished the Red Butterfly Society. To our Liangchen's Villa, that would be very detrimental.”

“After all, that Red Butterfly Society is a famous group of fugitives. They will likely come to frantically take revenge on us in the future,” The villa manager asked in a puzzled manner. Worry could be heard in his voice.

“You are mistaken with that. What sort of power is their Red Butterfly Society? They are a power that stated that they will rid the world of evils on behalf of the heavens.”

“As for my Liangchen's Villa, we have done a lot of malicious deeds to capture women for me. Yet, why did the Red Butterfly Society dare to make Luyang's Pavilion their enemy, yet not dare to make my Liangchen's Villa their enemy?” Ying Liangchen asked.

“This... this subordinate is slow-witted. Lord Villa Master, please explain it to me,” The villa manager said.

“That's simple to explain. They are not afraid of my Liangchen's Villa, nor are they afraid of me, Ying Liangchen. Rather, they are afraid of the Ying Heavenly Clan standing behind me; they are afraid of my father.”

“Thus, in the end, the Red Butterfly Society is a power that only dares to bully the weak and fears the strong. That is the reason why they dared to make Luyang’s Pavilion their enemies, but not make us their enemies.”

“Thus, you can rest assured. The Red Butterfly Society will not dare to pick a quarrel against my Liangchen’s Villa. Even if they dare to come, I will make them suffer the consequences. With this Young Master here, you can rest assured.”

“No matter what, this Young Master is the second strongest genius to have appeared in the Ying Heavenly Clan,” Ying Liangchen patted his chest and said confidently.

“Second strongest? Lord Villa Master, please don’t be modest. I have heard that you are the strongest genius to have ever appeared in the Ying Heavenly Clan,” The villa manager said.

“No, I am not the strongest. The strongest is my younger brother,” Ying Liangchen said.

“Younger brother? Your younger brother actually possesses even better talent in martial cultivation than you?” The villa manager asked curiously.

“His name is Ying Chong,” Ying Liangchen said.

Chapter 2247 – Overwhelming Anger

---

“Ying Chong? Lord Villa Master, why has this subordinate never heard that name before?” The villa manager said.

“You naturally would have never heard of his name before,” Ying Liangchen smiled lightly. He said, “Do you know why I am so talented, yet my father still allowed me to go outside instead of keeping me in the Ying Heavenly Clan to nurture me?” Ying Liangchen asked.

“This subordinate is slow-witted. Lord Villa Master, please explain!!” The villa manager said curiously.

“Actually, it is not that my father has never thought about nurturing me. In fact, before I was five hundred and eighteen years old, I had been kept in the Ying Heavenly Clan the entire time. My entire daily life would always revolve around martial cultivation.”

“Even though all of my clansmen knew that I did not possess much interest in martial cultivation, my father still insisted on fully nurturing me. The reason for that is all because my talent was the best in the history of our Ying Heavenly Clan.”

“However, when I was five hundred and eighteen years old, my younger brother Ying Chong finally grew into an adult. He took the test of talent and obtained a superb result, a result that surpassed even my own.”

“Furthermore, ever since my younger brother Ying Chong has started martial cultivation, he has not only displayed his outstanding talent for martial cultivation, he has also display his adoration for martial cultivation, as well as his perseverance on the path of martial cultivation.”

“Ever since that day, my father began to wholeheartedly nurture my younger brother Ying Chong. As for my younger brother Ying Chong, his performance began to satisfy my father and the clansmen more and more. As a result, I obtained my freedom,” Ying Liangchen said.

“Never would I have expected that such a genius has actually appeared in the Ying Heavenly Clan. In that case, in the near future, your younger brother will definitely show his face in worldly affairs. Once that is to happen, he will definitely amaze the entire world,” The old villa manager said.

“That’s right. That is also what our Ying Heavenly Clan thought too. Unfortunately, no one will ever get to know his name again. Even if they do, very few people would remember him,” When saying those words, Ying Liangchen revealed a regretful and sorrowful expression.

“Why?” The villa manager was confused.

“I also do not know about the specific details. I’ve merely heard that he had entered a certain ancient remnant to train, and ended up being consumed by a spirit formation. Calculating it, it should have been several years since that happened.”

“Although I did not have much contact with him, and did not possess much sentiment toward him, it remained that it was his existence that allowed me to enjoy such an unrestrained livelihood.”

“Thus, I am also quite saddened by his death. After all, he was still so young,” Ying Liangchen said.

“The two of you are, after all, blood brothers. As Lord Villa Master is a loyal and true individual, you will naturally feel sad,” That villa manager said.

“Heh...” Hearing the villa manager saying that he was a loyal and true individual, Ying Liangchen smiled a profound smile. Then, he said, “It is precisely because my younger brother has died that my father turned his vision to me once again. The days when I can continue to live this freely will not last long.”

“That is why I agreed to help Chu Luyang do that sort of thing. I only helped him because I fancied those beauties in his palace,” Ying Liangchen said.

“Although this subordinate dislikes that Chu Luyang, it is true that there were truly many top quality women in his palace,” When mentioning this matter, the old villa manager revealed an expression of lust. He even started to gulp down his saliva in excitement.

“Haha, rest assured, after this Young Master is done playing with them, I will bestow them to you,” Ying Liangchen said.

“Thank you, Lord Villa Master,” The old villa manager hurriedly bowed as he spoke excitedly.

.....

Right at this moment, Chu Feng arrived before Liangchen’s Villa.

After arriving at Liangchen’s Villa, the anger in Chu Feng’s heart burst forth instantly.

He saw several heads being hung above the entrance of Liangchen’s Villa. Those were all the heads of the Red Butterfly Society’s elders. Among them was Liu Chengkun’s head.

Although they were only heads now, Chu Feng was able to determine through the bruises and scars on the faces of the heads that Liu Chengkun and the others had been tormented miserably before being killed.

“Clank~~~”

Chu Feng pulled out his Magma Emperor Sword and pointed it at Liangchen’s Villa. Then, he shouted, “All the people of Liangchen’s Villa, listen carefully! You can either scam or die!!!”

Once those words were spoken, heaven and earth started to tremble. It was like there were thunderclaps hovering in the sky as Chu Feng’s words echoed in the air.

It was not only Liangchen's Villa; the entire mountain range was startled by Chu Feng.

“What boldness! Who is it that dares to behave atrociously in our Liangchen's Villa?!!”

Right after Chu Feng said those words, not only did a single person not escape from Liangchen's Villa, but over a hundred guards rushed out of Liangchen's Villa. They all had fiendish appearances, and immediately surrounded Chu Feng with the intention of taking his life.

Upon seeing those people, Chu Feng knew that not a single one of them are good people, that all of them had done all sorts of evil.

After all, if they were truly good, how could they be willing to serve someone like Ying Liangchen?

At this moment, Chu Feng was filled with rage to begin with. Upon seeing this bunch of evildoers, his anger grew even more furious.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

The Magma Emperor Sword Chu Feng held in his hand began to move about. Immediately countless flame rays were shot forth in all directions.

In merely an instant, the Liangchen's Villa guards that had come out to attack Chu Feng were all killed.

At the same time, the flame rays shot downward toward the villa, engulfing it in raging flames.

“Eggy, help me kill them. Leave none alive. Kill all of them,” As Chu Feng spoke, he opened his world spirit gate and released Eggy.

“Rest assured, this Queen's most beloved exercise is slaughter,” Her Lady Queen smiled sweetly. Then, she clenched her lily-white hand. Immediately, dark black gaseous flames began to rise from her hand. Then, the gaseous flames turned into a three meter-long black scythe.

With the scythe in hand, Her Lady Queen began her massacre. Not to mention those guards that rushed out to attack her, even the people that were planning to flee were not spared by Her Lady Queen. They all received miserable deaths.

Her Lady Queen did not spare a single living creature that appeared in her line of sight. Even the exquisite buildings in the villa were destroyed by Her Lady Queen.

Even though Her Lady Queen was as beautiful as a fairy, her methods were more ruthless and savage than even the methods of demons.

At the moment when Her Lady Queen was wantonly wreaking destruction and massacring the people of Liangchen's Villa, Chu Feng descended from the sky and arrived before the heads of Liu Chengkun and the others.

With a face filled with apology, he bowed to Liu Chengkun and the others' heads, "Seniors, Chu Feng has returned late."

Chu Feng knew that those heads were not fake, that they were indeed Liu Chengkun and the others' heads. However, Chu Feng felt that the only remains of Liu Chengkun and the others' corpses must be their heads.

Thus, after he bowed to the heads, he used his world spirit techniques to form bodies for them so that they would appear to be whole.

Then, he used his world spirit techniques to create many coffins, and placed their corpses into the coffins before placing the coffins into his Cosmos Sack.

"Wow! I'm not dreaming right? The Red Butterfly Society's President is actually this beautiful?" Suddenly, a lascivious laugh was heard. It was Ying Liangchen.

At this moment, Ying Liangchen was covered with his Thunder

Armor, and Thunder Wings were growing from his back. His cultivation had already increased from rank seven Half Martial Ancestor to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

However, it remained that he was someone who possessed a Heavenly Bloodline. Thus, like Chu Feng, he possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. In other words, after his current cultivation had increased to that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, his actual battle power was on par with ordinary rank three Martial Ancestors.

Chapter 2248 – Debauchery

---

The reason why Ying Liangchen came out with his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings unleashed was because he had originally thought that it was the Red Butterfly Society that had come to attack his Liangchen's Villa, and furiously rushed out with his villa manager with the intention of massacring the attackers.

However, after he saw Her Lady Queen, his eyes immediately flashed with light. He was bewildered by Her Lady Queen's beauty, and even started drooling.

It was not only him; even that old villa manager who stood behind him had the same reaction as him.

Those two fellows were truly outrageously bold in their lust; they were actually thinking indecent thoughts toward Her Lady Queen.

"I am your ancestor," Her Lady Queen revealed an ominous glint. Holding the scythe in her hand, she hacked down, sending a blade ray toward Ying Liangchen.

"Boom~~~"

That blade ray was extremely powerful, and sliced through even space itself.

However, even though Ying Liangchen was faced with this sort of power, he merely raised his hand and waved at the blade ray. Immediately, a strong burst of wind was brought forth, forcibly scattering Her Lady Queen's slash.

"My dear beauty, you are truly hot-spirited. However, this Young Master is precisely fond of difficult and untamed horses like you."

"Come. This Young Master will definitely subdue you. I will ride the enchanting untamed horse that is you."

Ying Liangchen laughed lasciviously. At the same time, he extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. Immediately, boundless martial power turned into countless enormous hands. Like dragons soaring into the sky, those hands soared into the sky and surrounded Her Lady Queen.

Seeing this scene, Her Lady Queen started to frown. Even though her Lady Queen possessed overwhelming battle power, her cultivation was truly too weak.

While she was able to easily take care of someone like Hong Xi, it was difficult for her to handle someone with battle power on par with an ordinary rank three Martial Ancestor like Ying Liangchen.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right at this moment, a figure suddenly shot up from the ground and arrived before Her Lady Queen, blocking her.

That person shot forth a fist strike and completely shattered all of the vicious enormous hands.

That person was Chu Feng. Merely, there was an enormous difference to the current Chu Feng compared to before.

His entire body was glimmering with twilight. That was Immortal-level spirit power.

Merely, the Immortal-level spirit power that surrounded him appeared different from ordinary Immortal-level spirit power. It appeared to resemble the aura of an Immortal.

Being enveloped by this Immortal's aura, Chu Feng's cultivation was no longer that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Instead, it had increased to that of a rank three Martial Ancestor.

Chu Feng had taken the first Immortal Transformation Pellet.

“Who are you?!” Ying Liangchen revealed an annoyed expression with killing intent filling his eyes as he looked to Chu Feng, who had appeared out of nowhere.

“I am called Chu Feng,” Chu Feng replied coldly.

“So you're that Chu Feng. Brat, you are truly bold. You actually dare to stir up troubles at my Liangchen's Villa?!"

"However, that's fine. You've saved this Young Master the time to go and capture you."

After finding out Chu Feng's identity, Ying Liangchen revealed a cold smile. Evidently, he had heard about Chu Feng.

However, more clearly than anything, Ying Liangchen simply did not place Chu Feng in his eyes at all.

"I'll ask you this. Were you the one that killed the people of the Red Butterfly Society?" Chu Feng asked.

"Yes, I killed them. What about it?" Ying Liangchen replied in a disapproving manner.

"What about it? Those who owe a debt shall repay their debt. Those who kill another shall pay with their life. Today, I, Chu Feng, will make you pay with your life."

Before Chu Feng even finished saying those words, he had already slashed forth with his Magma Emperor Sword. Immediately, a pillar of flame soared forth. Like a sea of flame, it surged toward Ying Liangchen.

Even though Chu Feng's Heavenly Bloodline, his Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and heaven-defying battle power were all restricted, he had, through the miraculous power of the Immortal Transformation Pellet, turned into an actual rank three Martial Ancestor.

As such, his attack was no small matter at all.

"Brat, don't you think that this Young Master is a pushover. This Master Ying is the strongest genius of the Ying Heavenly Clan!"

Although Chu Feng's attack was very powerful, Ying Liangchen was not afraid at all. He flipped his wrist, and an enormous green hammer appeared in his hand.

That was also an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Even though

Ying Liangchen was quite thin, he was able to unleash extremely powerful might using that enormous green hammer.

“Boom~~~”

With a smash of the hammer, space started to crumble. Chu Feng's attack was also destroyed.

“Heeaahh!!!”

Following that, Ying Liangchen shouted loudly, and then he actually threw his enormous green hammer at Chu Feng.

“Roar~~~”

When the enormous green hammer was thrown at Chu Feng, it started to roar. Soon, an enormous monster appeared.

It was a huge humanoid monster with green armor covering its entire body. The giant monster's body shone with lingering green light. It possessed overwhelming power. As it moved its mountain-sized fist, it rushed to attack Chu Feng.

Even though that monster was enormous, its speed was extremely fast. The might of its punch rushed rapidly toward Chu Feng.

“Humph.”

However, faced with this attack from the Incomplete Ancestral Armament, Chu Feng snorted coldly. He clenched his five fingers into a fist and shot forth a punch.

The size difference of the two fists was truly enormous.

After the two fists collided, a loud ‘boom’ was heard. Immediately, energy ripples began to spread all around. Chu Feng did not move in the slightest. However, Ying Liangchen's Incomplete Ancestral Armament stepped onto the mountain, and then began to take several more steps back, stomping countless palaces to the ground in the process. In fact, its enormous body caused even the mountain range to be full of cracks.

“That guy, how could he be this strong?!”

“That bastard Chu Luyang actually dared to deceive me?!”

Upon seeing how powerful Chu Feng was, Ying Liangchen was both shocked and furious.

He was shocked because he had heard from Chu Luyang that Chu Feng was merely a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

He was furious because he felt that Chu Luyang had deceived him. After all, the Chu Feng before him was an actual rank three Martial Ancestor.

It would be one thing if he were a rank three Half Martial Ancestor. Yet, he was a rank three Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, his battle power was so strong, simply on par with his own even.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was emitting overwhelming killing intent. He had come with ill intentions. It was clear that he planned to kill him.

Even though Ying Liangchen was extremely confident, he would still feel panic when faced with such a maverick as an opponent.

“I do not have the time to bother wasting with you. Magma Emperor, I’ll leave this guy to you.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng tossed the Magma Emperor sword he held in his hand. Immediately, blazing fire filled the sky as the overwhelmingly domineering Magma Emperor appeared before that giant monster.

“Come, little guy. This Emperor will properly teach you what is actual fear.”

The Magma Emperor and Chu Feng were linked with one another. Thus, as Chu Feng became more powerful, he too would become more powerful. Right now, with the assistance of the Immortal Transformation Pellet, Chu Feng’s cultivation had reached that of a rank three Martial Ancestor. As such, the Magma

Emperor's strength had also increased enormously.

The Magma Emperor's every punch and kick would give rise to surging waves of flame. In no time, he had completely turned this region into a frightening sea of flames. The flames were going to burn everything in their surroundings.

Faced with the Magma Emperor's ferocious attacks, that Ying Liangchen's Incomplete Ancestral Armament was actually unable to match up to it. At this moment, it had entered a state of absolute inferiority.

"How could this be? My Green Flame Emperor Hammer is actually no match for that fiery humanoid?" Ying Liangchen became even more astonished upon seeing the scene before him.

"You do not have the time to be worrying about someone else," At this moment, Chu Feng had already arrived before Ying Liangchen. Furthermore, he shot forth a punch aimed directly at Ying Liangchen.

"Damn it!" Everything had happened too suddenly. Ying Liangchen was unable to react in time. As such, Chu Feng's punch landed on Ying Liangchen's chest.

Chapter 2249 – Hair Stand Up In Anger

---

“Boom~~~”

The punch knocked Ying Liangchen several tens of thousands of meters away, knocking him out of the entire mountain range.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still chased after him, unwilling to let him get away. Soon, he arrived before Ying Liangchen once again.

Merely, when Chu Feng saw the currently Ying Liangchen, his gaze changed to reveal an expression of surprise.

Even if Chu Feng’s earlier punch had not been powerful enough to kill Ying Liangchen, it should have been enough to seriously injure him.

However, other than a few bloodstains, Ying Liangchen was practically uninjured.

“Bastard, seems like you have some abilities. If it wasn’t for the fact that I had this, I might have actually been beaten to death by you.”

Ying Liangchen took out an item from under his clothes. It was a pearl. Merely, that pearl had already been shattered.

Needless to say, the power behind Chu Feng’s punch had been absorbed by that pearl. It was because of that pearl that Ying Liangchen was able to stand before Chu Feng practically uninjured.

“Chu Feng, you shouldn’t be a relative of that Liu Chengkun, no? So, why are you fighting for him?” Ying Liangchen asked. From his appearance, it seemed that he did not wish to continue to be tangled with Chu Feng, and was trying to make peace.

“Enough of your rubbish!” However, Chu Feng’s killing intent had already been unleashed. As such, he would not make peace.

With a loud shout, Chu Feng began to rush toward Ying Liangchen to attack him again.

“Bastard, do you know who I am? I am the son of the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief! If you dare to kill me, my father will not spare you!” While fighting against Chu Feng, Ying Liangchen started to shout threats at Chu Feng.

“I, Chu Feng, have come here today precisely so that I can take your dog life,” Chu Feng spoke coldly.

“It seemed that you are insistent on killing me today. Since that is the case, I will also not act leniently toward you anymore!”

Ying Liangchen snorted coldly. Then, boundless power surged forth from his body. His power swept forth in all directions. Following that, boundless power surged into the sky.

Soon, the void started to twist as an enormous monster appeared in the sky.

It was a giant creature, so enormous that it hid the sky and covered the earth. Its power was incomparably frightening. As wave upon wave of its frightening oppressive might swept forth, Chu Feng felt that his bones were being jolted to a crackle.

It was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. This Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was something that Chu Feng had seen the Dark Hall’s Hall Master use before. Merely, the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had not fully mastered it. Furthermore, as his cultivation had been too weak, this had made it so that only an enormous mouth had appeared.

However, that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was now being fully unleashed by Ying Liangchen. It took the form of a giant creature.

That beast was so enormous that it covered the entire sky. It was both oppressive and powerful. It was simply incomparable to the time when the Dark Hall’s Hall Master had unleashed that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

“Originally, I had thought about giving you a chance and sparing your life. However, never would I have expected that you would refuse a toast, only to be forced to drink a forfeit. You have forced this Young Master to unleash my strongest skill.”

“Bastard who has overestimated his ability, drop dead! This is the disparity between you and this Young Master!” Ying Liangchen shouted. Then, that enormous beast started to descend from the sky.

As it descended, its frightening might also descended from the sky. That oppressive might was going to crush Chu Feng to death.

However, right at this moment, Chu Feng raised his hand and shot forth a punch. Immediately, boundless power soared into the sky.

“Roar~~~”

Following a loud clamor, that descending giant creature actually let out a miserable howl of grief.

Then, with a loud ‘boom,’ that enormous beast shattered into pieces.

At the same time, the surrounding space and the ground started to shatter nonstop as a boundless power started to engulf the surroundings, devouring everything in its path.

Chu Feng’s fist strike was no ordinary fist strike. Instead, it was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation.

Even though the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation appeared to be a very simple technique, it was extremely domineering and incomparably fierce.

Ying Liangchen’s martial skill was actually very powerful too. In terms of martial skills, the two martial skills were actually equally matched.

In terms of battle power, as Ying Liangchen was an extraordinary genius, his battle power could also be said to be on par with Chu Feng's.

The reason why Chu Feng was able to defeat Ying Liangchen's Emperor Taboo Martial Skill when he possessed the same battle power and martial skills was actually all because of the bamboo slip in his dantian.

Back then, Chu Feng had managed to obtain comprehension from the bamboo slip, and achieve a whole new understanding of martial skills.

That had led to the power of Chu Feng's martial skills increasing enormously. That was also the reason why Chu Feng's strength greatly surpassed those with the same battle power as him.

"Impossible! This is impossible! I spent a total of three hundred years to master that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill!"

"Even when faced with Emperor Taboo Martial Skills that have also been mastered, I should still be able to fight against them!"

"How could you break through my Emperor Taboo Martial Skill?! Furthermore, you managed to destroy it that easily! How could that be possible?!"

Astonishment filled Ying Liangchen's face. As he spoke those words, mouthfuls of blood were spraying from his mouth nonstop.

Although Chu Feng's fist had not struck him, and had instead destroyed his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, the power of Chu Feng's fist was simply too strong.

Merely the aftermath of Chu Feng's attack was sufficient to jolt Ying Liangchen to a seriously injured state.

At this moment, Ying Liangchen's entire body was covered with blood. He had changed beyond recognition and fallen to the ground. He was powerless to even move. He had completely lost his ability to continue fighting.

“Don’t kill me. Don’t kill me. Chu Feng, speak your condition. Whatever it might be, I will definitely satisfy you,” Seeing that Chu Feng was walking toward him with overwhelming killing intent, Ying Liangchen was completely terrified.

“I have one thing I need to ask you,” Chu Feng said.

“What is it? Go ahead and ask. As long as you don’t kill me, I will answer all your questions,” Ying Liangchen said.

“There were neither grievances or grudges between you and the Red Butterfly Society; why did you kill them? Did someone prompt you to kill them?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. I was incited to kill them by someone. It was Chu Luyang. It was Luyang’s Pavilion’s Chu Luyang. He had sent me a letter telling me the location of the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters, and asked me to help him eliminate the Red Butterfly Society.”

“I will not deceive you. I have his personally written letter. There is also his origin life seal imprinted onto it. If you don’t trust me, you can look at it yourself,” Ying Liangchen was truly scared. He took out the letter and handed it to Chu Feng even without Chu Feng interrogating him.

Chu Feng extended his hand, and the letter flew into his hand.

Upon opening the letter, he discovered that the letter really did contain Chu Luyang’s aura, as well as his origin life seal.

Even if one’s aura could be forged, one’s origin life seal could not be forged. Thus... that letter was most definitely written by Chu Luyang.

The contents of the letter were pretty much what Chu Feng had thought they would be. Chu Luyang had requested Ying Liangchen’s assistance in eliminating the Red Butterfly Society’s management elders.

Of course, he had also mentioned in the letter to eliminate Chu Feng and the Red Butterfly Society's President should Ying Liangchen encounter them.

"You damned bastard!" After Chu Feng finished reading the contents of the letter, his rage burst forth once again.

The reason for that was because the benefits for Ying Liangchen that Chu Luyang mentioned in his letter was that he would allow Ying Liangchen to choose beauties from his Luyang's Pavilion.

For the sake of those beauties, Ying Liangchen had decided to go to the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters to massacre them. His action truly caused one's hair to stand up in anger.

"You actually decided to massacre so many innocent people for the sake of satisfying your own lust?! You are truly devoid of conscience! Even if I were to kill you ten thousand times, it would not be enough to alleviate the hatred in my heart!!!" Chu Feng pointed at Ying Liangchen and shouted furiously.

Chapter 2250 – Killing Even God

---

“Don’t, don’t, don’t, please don’t kill me, please don’t kill me. Chu Feng, I admit that my heart was possessed by a ghost, that I should be killed...”

“I regret my decisions now. Unfortunately, my regret is useless. I beg of you, please give me another chance. Give me a condition, no, give me ten conditions, a hundred conditions.”

“You can demand as many conditions as you want. As long as you don’t kill me, I will definitely satisfy all of your conditions!” Ying Liangchen was actually so terrified by Chu Feng that he actually started weeping. A man who had been alive for hundreds of years was actually so scared by Chu Feng that tears covered his face. From this, it could be seen how much of a coward he was.

“I do have a condition. My condition is to take your dog life,” Chu Feng said.

“You really are so insistent on killing me all for the sake of that bunch of old farts? You’re willing to make an enemy of our Ying Heavenly Clan all for the sake of that bunch of old farts?” Ying Liangchen was unable to understand Chu Feng’s mindset.

“In my eyes, the lives of that group of people that you considered to be old farts were much more valuable than your dog life,” Chu Feng did not wish to bother speaking superfluous words with Ying Liangchen. Thus, he approached Ying Liangchen and held his hand into a fist. He was planning to kill Ying Liangchen.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at this moment, a strange fluctuation suddenly emitted from within Ying Liangchen’s body. Then, that fluctuation took a humanoid form.

It was a middle-aged man wearing a blueish-black gown. He also had a head of blue hair. On his head was a headdress with the character ‘Ying.’

Although it was only an image, Chu Feng could tell that middle-aged man’s actual body should possess an extremely powerful strength.

Likely, he should be the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Head.

“Father, save me, save me! He’s planning to kill me!” Upon seeing that middle-aged man’s image, Ying Liangchen hurriedly started to cry for help. His cry revealed the identity of that man. Sure enough, he was his father, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

“Who are you?” Compared to Ying Liangchen, his father was much more calm. Like a hawk, he stared at Chu Feng with his eyes.

Although his image did not contain any cultivation, Chu Feng was able to sense how powerful he was.

Powerful. He was most definitely an expert with strength greatly surpassing Chu Feng’s. Even though he was only an image, and did not possess any cultivation, he was able to threaten Chu Feng with only his imposing airs.

Unfortunately, Chu Feng possessed a resolute mindset, and was not someone that would be intimidated. Thus, Chu Feng replied calmly, “I am called Chu Feng.”

“Why do you want to kill my son?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Your son has killed my relatives. I plan to kill him for revenge. Is there anything wrong with that?” Chu Feng said.

“Of course! He is the son of our Ying Heavenly Clan, a person who possesses our Ying Heavenly Clan’s bloodline. How could I allow you to kill him?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said with a cold voice.

Killing intent. Even though his image did not contain any cultivation, Chu Feng felt enormous killing intent from his image.

“Unfortunately, you have no means of stopping me.”

“Furthermore, your image will not be able to scare me. If you were truly worried about your son, you should never have allowed him out to commit evil.”

“However, it is too late now. I am insistent on killing him,” Chu Feng said those words and then raised his fist again. Boundless martial power began to gather in his fist. The surrounding space started to tremble. The ground below him started to shatter.

The power behind his fist was sufficient to kill the already seriously injured Ying Liangchen.

Chu Feng was planning to kill Ying Liangchen right before the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, right before his father. He wanted the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief to personally see his son being killed.

“Stop! Chu Feng, stop immediately! If you dare to kill my son, even if I must search till the ends of the earth, I will still find you!”

“Our Ying Heavenly Clan will definitely not let you get away with this! Not only you, all those related to you will be killed too!”

“Not only will you end up losing your life because of your actions today, you will also implicate all those that you are acquainted with. They will all end up losing their lives because of your actions today,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief threatened fiercely.

“Haha...” However, faced with the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief’s threats, Chu Feng laughed. Chu Feng’s laughter was abnormally cold. There was not the slightest trace of emotion.

Liu Chengkun had provided enormous grace to Chu Feng. Not only did Chu Feng considered him as a senior, he even considered him as his own relative.

Chu Feng had proceeded to Mount Cloud Crane and worked so hard to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist not because he wanted to obtain stronger power.

His main purpose was so that he could treat Liu Chengkun's illness. Chu Feng had already made the preparations that, regardless of how long it would take, he would definitely help Liu Chengkun and cure his illness.

However, after Chu Feng finally became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist through meticulous effort, he did not even have the opportunity to help Liu Chengkun cure his illness.

The reason for all this was because of that Ying Liangchen.

If it wasn't for him, how could Liu Chengkun be dead?

Chu Feng's hatred could only be removed by Ying Liangchen's blood.

Not to mention that Ying Liangchen was merely the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's son, even if he was a god, Chu Feng would still kill him.

Even if he was the heavens themselves, Chu Feng must still eliminate him.

“Boom~~~”

With a swing of his hand, Chu Feng's fist landed explosively. Before Ying Liangchen could even utter a scream, he was shattered to pieces by Chu Feng's punch.

“Chu Feng, you will regret this! You will regret your actions today!”

Even though Ying Liangchen had died, his father's image was still present.

At this moment, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had an extremely ugly expression on his face. His lips were trembling, and his eyes filled with a cold light as he stared fiercely at Chu Feng.

Anger. Chu Feng was able to sense that the Ying Heavenly Clan's

Clan Chief was extremely furious; that he was like a soon-to-erupt volcano.

His killing intent was many times stronger than before. It was truly frightening.

Unfortunately, no matter how frightening his killing intent might be, he was unable to do anything to Chu Feng.

“I will wait for you to come find me for revenge. However, remember this; be sure you can kill me, otherwise... I will definitely kill you.”

After Chu Feng said those words, he flipped his sleeve. Immediately, boundless spirit power surged forth.

His spirit power started to tear the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief’s image apart.

Although Chu Feng was unable to do anything to the image of the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief with his martial power, he was able to destroy the image with spirit power.

“Bastard! You damned animal!!!” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief roared angrily.

However, his voice was growing softer and softer. Soon, it had disappeared completely. His image had been completely shattered by Chu Feng.

.....

At the same time. In a certain palace in the Ying Heavenly Clan.

The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was standing there. His posture was exactly the same as his image’s posture.

Rage was burning in his eyes. He was clenching his fists so hard that crackling sounds could be heard. His surging killing intent caused his clansmen to be so afraid that they did not dare to speak. In fact, no one dared to ask their Clan Chief exactly what had happened.

The reason for that was because they all knew that this matter was most definitely related to Ying Liangchen.

However, the surging anger of the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief did not explode.

He actually managed to forcibly contain his anger. His fortitude was definitely not something that ordinary people possessed.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief extended his finger and used it to draw in the empty space before him.

Soon, Royal level spirit power formed an image in that space. It was the image of Chu Feng. However, it was very vivid and lifelike. It was as if Chu Feng were actually standing there.

“That man is called Chu Feng. All of you, go and investigate everything about that Chu Feng,” The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

“Yes, Milord!!!” The crowd present all said in uniform. After bowing, they all withdrew from the room and started to investigate Chu Feng's identity.

In the blink of an eye, only the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief remained in this vast palace.

“Chu Feng, what a Chu Feng, I will definitely dismember your body into ten thousand pieces!” The Ying Heavenly Clan Chief spoke as he gnashed his teeth angrily.

Chapter 2251 – Beat The Grass To Scare The Snake

---

After killing Ying Liangchen, Chu Feng returned to Liangchen's Villa.

At this moment, Chu Feng discovered that Liangchen's Villa has been completely leveled to the ground. All that remained were the fragments of buildings, as well as thick smoke.

Practically everyone in Liangchen's Villa has been killed. Her Lady Queen was truly ruthless in her attacks.

At this moment, only two figures were in Liangchen's Villa. One was Her Lady Queen Eggy. As for the other, it was the Magma Emperor.

“Chu Feng, what do you think? This Emperor not only took care of this hammer, I also helped this girl kill that old fart, helped her refine that old fart's source energy.”

“You must consider this a meritorious service made by this Emperor. In the future, once you find a better weapons, you must set this Emperor free.” On the Magma Emperor's enormous palm was a hammer. That hammer was Ying Liangchen's hammer.

“Set you free? Set you free so that you can go and bring harm upon the innocent?” Chu Feng asked.

“As long as you set me free, I will definitely not go around to willfully slaughter the innocent. Where is this? This is the Outer World! This Emperor also wanted to properly experience this marvelous world,” The Magma Emperor said with an expression of anticipation.

“Rest assured, as long as you follow me properly, I will let you experience this world,” As Chu Feng spoke, he extended his hand and grabbed. The Magma Emperor returned to the form of the Magma Emperor Sword and arrived in Chu Feng's grasp.

Chu Feng was naturally capable of returning freedom to the Magma Emperor. Merely, he did not trust that Magma Emperor at all.

For example, even its action today in assisting Eggy eliminate that Liangchen's Villa old manager was only because it was controlled by Chu Feng. If it were not controlled by Chu Feng, Chu Feng did not think that it would have assisted Her Lady Queen in eliminating that old villa manager.

With the nature of that Magma Emperor, it would already be decent should it not attempt to attack Her Lady Queen.

After all, the Magma Emperor was an existence that had nearly destroyed the entire Holy Land of Martialism back in the day. In the end, it was an existence that possessed a demonic nature.

No, to be exact, it was a demon.

"Chu Feng, it seems that you've settled that Ying Liangchen?" Eggy walked over and asked.

"Mn. He is settled," Chu Feng nodded.

"Then, where are we going to now?" Eggy asked.

"Luyang's Pavilion," Chu Feng said.

"Right away?" Eggy was surprised. She naturally knew that Chu Feng wanted to kill Chu Luyang. Yet, she had never expected him to be this impatient.

"Even though it was Ying Liangchen and the people of his Liangchen's Villa that killed Senior Liu and the other elders of the Red Butterfly Society, the main perpetrator is Chu Luyang."

"I do not wish to give that animal another day to live," Chu Feng said.

"Since that's the case, let's kill to our satisfaction," After Her Lady Queen said those words, she returned to Chu Feng's world spirit space through the world spirit gate.

As for Chu Feng, he began to proceed for Luyang's Pavilion directly.

Actually, with that letter in hand, Chu Feng could have directly handed that letter to Xu Yiyi's master and have him eliminate Chu Luyang.

However, Chu Feng was afraid of the situation changing. Furthermore, he wanted to personally eliminate Chu Luyang. Thus, he decided to act first and report later, to kill Chu Luyang first before mentioning what had happened to the Sunset Cloud Valley.

After all, no matter what, Luyang's Pavilion was a subsidiary power of the Sunset Cloud Valley. As such, Chu Feng could not kill Chu Luyang without reason or cause. If he were to kill Chu Luyang, he needed to provide a reasonable justification.

However, as Chu Feng possessed that letter, it had become very easy for him to explain.

Chu Feng did not cause any alarm upon arriving at Luyang's Pavilion. Instead, he disguised himself as a guard of Luyang's Pavilion and infiltrated into it.

He was planning to survey whether or not Chu Luyang was in Luyang's Pavilion. Only if Chu Luyang was present would Chu Feng reveal himself. After all, his only target was Chu Luyang.

At this moment, Chu Feng had arrived at the depths of Luyang's Pavilion. Furthermore, through the use of his Heaven's Eyes, he discovered Chu Luyang in a heavily guarded palace ahead.

Chu Luyang was taking a noon nap. Women surrounded his side. However, to Chu Feng's fury, there were actually children among those females.

That Chu Luyang was truly scum. He actually even defiled children. He was simply worse than an animal.

Suddenly, Chu Feng shouted. "Chu Luyang, get the hell out here!!!” Following that, he raised his hand and shot a punch at the palace.

“Buzz~~~”

However, his sleeping chamber was protected by a spirit formation. Although his fist strike was very powerful, it was unable to destroy the palace.

Instead, Chu Feng had beaten the grass and scared the snake; he had alarmed Luyang’s Pavilion. Immediately, countless Luyang’s Pavilion experts rushed forth and surrounded Chu Feng.

No matter what, Luyang’s Pavilion remained an actual tier three power. Their overall strength surpassed even that of the Red Butterfly Society. Their guards were numerous, and their strength was very strong; they were definitely not a power that Liangchen’s Villa could compare to.

“Chu Feng? It’s you?!”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, many of the people from Luyang’s Pavilion were shocked. None of them had expected Chu Feng to dare to come here.

At this moment, Chu Luyang finished putting his clothes on and flew out from his palace. After seeing Chu Feng, he also felt extremely surprised.

“Hahaha...” After his moment of surprise, Chu Luyang burst into frantic laughter.

“Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, I truly never expected that you would dare to walk right into a trap,” At this moment, Chu Luyang was overjoyed. He looked to Chu Feng and said, “Before, you were sheltered by Xu Yiyi, making me unable to kill you. However, there is now no one to protect you.”

“Chu Luyang, you’ve done countless evil deeds. Today, I have come to take your dog life,” Chu Feng spoke coldly.

“Take my life? With merely you?”

“Oh, I’ve nearly forgotten. You’re no longer a rank two Half Martial Ancestor, but are instead a rank four Half Martial Ancestor now. Your cultivation has increased quite quickly, no?”

“Oh, that’s right, you’re also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Your status is enormously superior to before. Likely, a lot of powers will want to curry favors with you, no?” Chu Luyang said mockingly. It seemed that his sources of news were extremely fast and abundant, for him to have already heard about what had happened on Mount Cloud Crane.

“Truth be told, your identity as an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist is truly sufficient to cause many people to become afraid of you.”

“Likely, any other third tier power would not dare to kill an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist like you. After all, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are so rare. The death of one would be a pity to the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“However, if you dared to come create troubles for me with that on your mind, then you would be thinking wrongly.”

“While others might not dare to kill you, I, Chu Luyang, will definitely not spare you. The more astonishing talent you reveal, the more I, Chu Luyang, must kill you.”

“Brothers of Luyang’s Pavilion, listen up! Seize that Chu Feng! Today, whoever it is that manages to take that Chu Feng’s head shall be greatly rewarded by me!” Chu Luyang shouted.

“Kill!!!!” Once those words were spoken, the experts of Luyang’s Pavilion reacted as if they had been scattered with chicken blood. One by one, they started to roar before charging to attack Chu Feng from all sides.

Blade rays, sword silhouettes and martial skills filled the sky. From all directions, they came at Chu Feng.

How could this possibly be considered to be taking Chu Feng's head? They were simply planning to destroy Chu Feng completely.

It is said that chicken blood makes one go berserk.

Chapter 2252 – Beaten Till Begging For Forgiveness

---

“Humph,” Chu Feng snorted coldly at the densely packed crowd that charged to attack him from all directions.

Chu Feng swallowed a gulp of saliva. Immediately, an Immortal aura-like light started to shine from his body. It was Immortal-level spirit power, the effects of an Immortal Transformation Pellet.

In order to prevent against the unexpected, he had sealed the two remaining Immortal Transformation Pellets in his mouth through a special method.

He would be able to take them instantly the moment he wished to do so.

Right now, Chu Feng had taken the second Immortal Transformation Pellet. Thus, at this moment, Chu Feng’s cultivation was rising dramatically.

In a blink of an eye, his cultivation went from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank four Martial Ancestor. He had made an enormous leap in martial cultivation.

“Come! I shall see who can possibly kill me!!!”

As Chu Feng spoke, he waved his sleeve.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

In an instant, boundless Ancestral-level martial power formed a scythe and began to relentlessly slice across the surrounding crowds.

The speed of the scythe was too fast, and its power was too strong.

None of the people that had charged to attack Chu Feng were able to escape.

Instantly, screams began to sound nonstop as blood splattered all over. The several thousand individuals that had rushed to attack Chu Feng, regardless of whether they were Half Martial Ancestors or Martial Ancestors, were all instantly killed by Chu Feng. In fact, not even an intact corpse remained of them.

“This... this... how could this be?!”

Seeing this scene, not to mention the others, even Chu Luyang was stunned.

How did Chu Feng’s cultivation suddenly become this powerful? His cultivation had actually increased from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank four Martial Ancestor?

Even if Chu Luyang were to unleash all of his abilities, he would still only be capable of fighting against rank three Martial Ancestors. Thus, he held absolute no odds of victory when facing a rank four Martial Ancestor-level Chu Feng.

If even he had no chance of defeating Chu Feng, it would mean that there was no one in the entire Luyang’s Pavilion capable of handling Chu Feng.

“Run away!!!”

At this moment, the people of Luyang’s Pavilion started to panic. One by one, they turned around and started fleeing. They did not dare to stay in this place for a moment longer.

They had managed to react. This was simply not alerting one’s enemy at all. Instead, it was a deliberate trap cast by Chu Feng.

Today, it was true that someone was going to engage in slaughter. Merely, it would not be their Luyang’s Pavilion. Instead, it would be Chu Feng.

Chu Feng was going to massacre them. If they did not quickly flee from him now, they would meet the same fate as the people that had been killed before; they would end up miserably dying at Chu Feng's hands.

“Damn it!”

“Woosh~~~”

When all of his subordinates were escaping, Chu Luyang would naturally not stay behind so that he could be killed. With a turn of his body, his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings were unleashed, increasing his cultivation from rank seven Half Martial Ancestor to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

Following that, light began to flicker underneath his feet as he unleashed a Heaven Taboo movement martial skill to flee from Chu Feng.

“Where do you think you’re escaping to?”

Right after Chu Luyang turned around and started escaping, before he could even flee a hundred meters away from Chu Feng, Chu Feng had already arrived before him like a phantom.

Chu Feng swung his arm and raised a strong wind as a powerful slap ruthlessly landed on Chu Luyang's face like a shocking thunderbolt.

“Pow~~~”

That slap contained extraordinary strength. The sound of the slap resonated through heaven and earth. Not only did the slap leave Chu Luyang with a bloody nose and mouth, it had also stunned him.

Not to mention continuing to escape, Chu Luyang was even powerless to continue flying. He began to fall from the sky before crashing into the ground miserably.

It was only when Chu Luyang fell to the ground that the crowd was able to see that his mouth had been beaten crooked. Half of his face had been completely twisted.

Chu Feng's slap could be said to have ruthlessly beaten Chu Luyang.

However, it was clear that Chu Feng was still furious. After he descended to the ground, he grabbed Chu Luyang's collar with one hand and began to go to work on Chu Luyang's cheeks with his other hand.

“Pow, pow, pow, pow, pow~~~”

A series of small, firecracker-like sounds began to echo nonstop. Chu Luyang's face could be said to have been completely destroyed by Chu Feng's beating.

In fact, it was not only his face. Chu Luyang's entire head was nearly shattered by Chu Feng's slaps.

After Chu Feng shattered Chu Luyang's skull with his slaps, he raised his leg and began to ruthlessly kick at Chu Luyang's body. Soon, he had completely shattered Chu Luyang's body with his kicks.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, after Chu Feng had beaten Chu Luyang to a state that could no longer be considered to be human-looking, a weak body of light rushed out from Chu Luyang's body and began to rapidly flee into the distance.

That body of light was extremely small. It was a hundred times smaller than the size of a firefly. Unless one possessed superb eyesight, it would be simply impossible to notice that body of light otherwise.

Furthermore, that body of light was fleeing so rapidly. If it had been someone else, especially someone who was ruthlessly ravaging a body, they would definitely not notice that body of light.

However, Chu Feng noticed that body of light. He extended his hand and grabbed. Immediately, a burst of attractive energy sucked that body of light into his hand.

Right after the body of light entered his hand, Chu Feng started to clench his hand.

Once Chu Feng clenched his hand, that body of light started to rapidly increase in size. In the end, it became a body of light the size of a human.

It turned out that that body of light was Chu Luyang; it was Chu Luyang's spirit body.

Chu Luyang was truly a wily old fox. He had used special methods to shrink the size of his spirit body. He was planning to use this method to escape.

Unfortunately, his opponent was Chu Feng, who possessed discerning eyes. Thus, even though his trick was brilliant, he was still seen through by Chu Feng with a single glance.

At this moment, Chu Feng was grabbing onto the neck of Chu Luyang's spirit body. Waves of powerful martial power began to enter the spirit body nonstop, ravaging it.

Under this sort of situation, Chu Luyang's spirit body grew weaker and weaker. If this were to continue, he would undoubtedly die.

“St-stop.”

“Chu Feng, we can talk things over. What we had before were merely small frictions. There is no need for us to insist on killing one another.”

“If I did anything wrong before, I will apologize and make amends to you. I will compensate you for my wrongdoings.”

“Please, please spare my life. As long as you spare my life, our grudges shall be written off at one stroke,” Chu Luyang realized that the situation was extremely bad, and started to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness.

“Small frictions? Originally, it was indeed only small frictions. However, with the way things are now, it is no longer small frictions.”

“Chu Luyang, the Sunset Cloud Valley personally stepped forth to mediate the situation between you and the Red Butterfly Society. The Red Butterfly Society had already agreed that they would no longer continue their conflict with your Luyang’s Pavilion.”

“Yet you, why, why did you have to insist on eradicating them? Why did you have to eliminate the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters? Tell me!!!” Chu Feng clenched his fist holding Chu Luyang’s neck as he shouted at Chu Luyang.

The coldness that filled Chu Feng’s eyes caused Chu Luyang to shiver with fear.

“Chu Feng, what are you talking about? Why don’t I understand?”

“What did you say happened to the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters? You’re saying that the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters has been eradicated? Who did that? Who is daring enough to do such a thing?!” Chu Luyang revealed an innocent expression as he pretended to not know anything.

“You’re still pretending? I have already been to Liangchen’s Villa. Ying Liangchen already admitted to everything. It was you who incited him to eliminate the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re falsely accusing me. Chu Feng, you’re most definitely falsely accusing me.”

“Exactly what is going with that Ying Liangchen?! There are neither grievances nor grudges between him and I, why must he try to frame me like this?” Chu Luyang still refused to admit to his crimes. The reason for that was because he knew that he would definitely be killed should he admit to them, whereas he would have a chance to live should he refuse to admit to it.

Chapter 2253 – Who Dares To Kill Me

---

“Pow, pow, pow~~~”

Seeing that Chu Luyang was refusing to admit to it, Chu Feng grew even more furious. He raised his arm and ruthlessly slapped Chu Luyang.

However, it turned out that Chu Luyang’s spirit body was much more resilient to being beaten up than his physical body. After several slaps, his head was actually undamaged.

Although his head was undamaged, that did not mean that Chu Luyang did not feel the pain. On the contrary, he felt it completely. His face was distorted, and his expression was ugly. He was suffering unbearable pain.

“Look carefully, did you write this or not?” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out the letter with Chu Luyang’s origin life seal.

“This?” Upon seeing that letter, Chu Luyang’s eyes immediately turned lifeless. He was stunned. Evidently, he had not expected that Chu Feng would have obtained that letter.

“This is framing, I’m most definitely being framed. Chu Feng, go and bring that Ying Liangchen here, I will confront him.”

“I must personally ask him why he must frame me like this, why he would frame me.”

However, even with this being the case, Chu Luyang still refused to admit to his wrongdoings. He even put forth a request to confront Ying Liangchen.

“Heh.... confront?” Toward Chu Luyang’s trick, Chu Feng sneered. Then, he said, “You wish to confront Ying Liangchen? That’s absolutely doable. Merely, you’ll have to confront him in hell.”

“What? You... you...” Hearing those words, Chu Luyang’s expression changed. His expression became even uglier than before, even more astonished than before.

“You killed Ying Liangchen? You actually killed Ying Liangchen?!” Chu Luyang asked in a very astonished manner.

“That’s right,” Chu Feng said.

Once Chu Feng said those words, Chu Luyang was stunned like a chicken. He was completely struck dumb. Even though he had already guessed that it was possible, it remained to only be a guess.

However, he was now certain of it. Merely, he felt it truly difficult to believe.

If Chu Feng dared to kill even Ying Liangchen, it would mean that he would have absolutely no chance of living.

“What are you doing? Stop immediately!!!”

Right at this moment, a voice filled with imposing might sounded from the sky.

Following that, several old men descended from the sky and landed in Luyang’s Pavilion.

These old men were all people from the Sunset Cloud Valley. Chu Feng had seen these people before when the Sunset Cloud Valley had joined hands with Luyang’s Pavilion to surround the Red Butterfly Society back then.

These people should all be elders of the Sunset Cloud Valley. Their cultivations were all pretty strong. Practically, they were all Martial Ancestors. Among them, the strongest expert was an old rank six Martial Ancestor.

To Chu Feng’s surprise, Elder Ning Shuang was also among them.

“Elders, save me, quickly, save me!”

Chu Lunyang acted as if he had seen hope the moment he saw those elders. Immediately, he started crying for help.

“Stop immediately!!!”

“Luyang’s Pavilion is our Sunset Cloud Valley’s subsidiary power. Chu Luyang is Luyang’s Pavilion’s Pavilion Master. If you dare to kill him, you will have committed a capital offense!!!” The leading elder pointed at Chu Feng and shouted angrily.

“Little friend Chu Feng, what is going on? We can talk things over,” Elder Ning Shuang also spoke to inquire Chu Feng.

“Elder Ning Shuang, please look for yourself,” Chu Feng was suspicious of the other individuals. Thus, he directly tossed the letter to Elder Ning Shuang.

After Elder Ning Shuang received the letter, he began to carefully read it. The other elders stood behind him and began to look at the letter too.

Upon seeing the contents of the letter, the expressions of all the elders from the Sunset Cloud Valley changed slightly.

“Chu Feng, could it be that this really happened?” Elder Ning Shuang asked Chu Feng.

“Elder Ning Shuang, the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters has been massacred,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Luyang, you are truly outrageous! You dared to even ignore the words of Elder Su?! You have truly grown tired of living!” Elder Ning Shuang was immediately furious. He pointed at Chu Luyang and started to reprimand him.

“Lord Elder, I am being wrongly accused, wrongly accused. How could I dare to ignore the words of Elder Su?” Chu Luyang continued to cry out with grievance.

“You dare to still declare that you were wrongly accused?! This letter here contains your origin life seal! Are you trying to say that your origin life seal can also be falsified?!” Elder Ning Shuang shouted.

“Chu Luyang, you have truly disappointed us,” The leading elder also revealed an expression of displeasure. However, he did not reprimand Chu Luyang too excessively. Instead, he turned to Chu Feng and said, “Little friend Chu Feng, Chu Luyang’s refusal to listen to Elder Su’s words is something that our Sunset Cloud Valley will take care of. We will definitely return justice to the Red Butterfly Society.”

“There’s no need. This matter has already happened, and the conclusive evidence is present. There is no need for elders to trouble yourselves. I, Chu Feng, will personally execute Chu Luyang on the spot today,” Chu Feng said.

“Stop!!!” The leading elder shouted once again. He said, “Chu Feng, this is a personal affair of our Sunset Cloud Valley. Even if Chu Luyang has committed a crime, it should be up to our Sunset Cloud Valley to personally handle this matter. It is best that you do not involve yourself.”

“Else... if you, an outsider, are to kill Chu Luyang, you would’ve committed a serious capital offense.”

“Serious capital offense? How is it wrong for me to kill someone that should be killed?” Chu Feng asked.

“You are truly stubborn,” The leading elder snorted coldly. In a very ill-intended manner, he said, “If you are to release Chu Luyang right away and hand him over to me to handle, I will consider it as if nothing had happened. However, if you insist on being stubborn, do not blame me for being impolite toward you.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown. He had already realized that Chu Luyang might not necessarily be killed should he hand him to the Sunset Cloud Valley.

The reason for that was because he already felt a suspicion that the leading elder in this group of elders had the intention of exonerating Chu Luyang of his crimes. Likely, he possessed a deep relationship with Chu Luyang. Thus, Chu Feng knew that he absolutely could not hand Chu Luyang to that leading elder.

Thinking of that, determination flashed through Chu Feng's eyes. He said, "I am determined to kill Chu Luyang. Today, even the Emperor of Heaven will not be able to save him!"

Once Chu Feng said those words, the surging martial power in his palm entered Chu Luyang's body.

Following a loud 'boom,' Chu Luyang's spirit body was shattered to pieces. He had been completely killed.

"What audacity!!!" Seeing that Chu Feng had actually really killed Chu Luyang, the leading elder and the other elders were all immediately furious.

This was especially true for the leading elder. At this moment, he unleashed his overwhelming killing intent. He was planning to publicly execute Chu Feng.

"Elder Song Ming, please stay your hand. Little friend Chu Feng possesses a special relationship with Yiyi. Furthermore, he is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. You cannot kill him," In response, Elder Ning Shuang hurriedly moved before the elders, blocking them. He also began to plead for Chu Feng.

"Scram! I am a Sunset Cloud Valley's Law Enforcement Elder! I see only the laws and decrees of our Sunset Cloud Valley in my eyes!"

"I do not care what sort of status that Chu Feng possesses. As long as he is someone who has committed crimes against our Sunset Cloud Valley's laws, he shall be killed!!!" That Elder by the name of Song Ming directly pushed Elder Ning Shuang aside. As he spoke, he proceeded to move forward to attack Chu Feng.

"I shall see who dares to kill me!!!"

Right at this moment, Chu Feng raised his hand, revealing a title plate.

Upon seeing that title plate, regardless of whether it was Elder Song Ming, who was leading the crowd, or the other elders who planned to attack Chu Feng, they were all stunned.

“Death Exemption Title Plate?” After a moment of astonishment, someone blurted out those words.

Chapter 2254 – The Situation Turning Bad

---

After seeing the title plate Chu Feng held in his hand, Elder Ning Shuang finally took a sigh of relief.

The reason for that was because the title plate Chu Feng held in his hand was the same title plate that Xu Yiyi had given him that day. It was an actual Death Exemption Title Plate. With that title plate in hand, regardless of what sort of crime Chu Feng might have committed, the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley were still not allowed to kill him.

Otherwise, this would mean that they were refusing to give Xu Yiyi's master face.

Unless it was the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master or Xu Yiyi's master, there was no one else in the Sunset Cloud Valley with the authority to kill Chu Feng.

Thus, the so-called Law Enforcement Elders present would naturally not have the authority to execute Chu Feng.

"It would seem that I will not be dying today," As Chu Feng saw the expressions of those elders, their expressions that seemed as if they had been fed feces, Chu Feng's lips lifted into a cold smile.

Hearing what Chu Feng said, that Elder Song Ming was so furious that he started to gnash his teeth angrily. Even though the distance between them was very far away, Chu Feng was actually capable of hearing the sound of his teeth gnashing.

"If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave now," Chu Feng said those words and then turned to leave.

"Stop right there!" Elder Song Ming shouted. Following that, his oppressive might of a rank six Martial Ancestor swept forth and completely sealed off this region of space, trapping Chu Feng.

"What are you doing?" Chu Feng asked coldly.

“What am I doing? You’ve killed Chu Luyang. I should be executing you. However, since you have Elder Su’s Death Exemption Title Plate in hand, I will take Elder Su into consideration, and spare you for now.”

“However, just because I am not going to kill you today does not mean that I will let you get away. I will bring you back to our Sunset Cloud Valley and hand you to the Lord Law Enforcement Head Elder, as well as Lord Valley Master to personally handle.”

“Men! Arrest that child!” Elder Song Ming shouted.

Once his command left his mouth, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s elders all flew toward Chu Feng. Using special ropes, they tied Chu Feng up.

In this sort of situation, Chu Feng would naturally not wish to be captured. However, that Elder Song Ming’s strength was that of a rank six Martial Ancestor.

Faced with him as an opponent, Chu Feng would not be able to match him even if he were to take the last Immortal Transformation Pellet to increase his cultivation to that of a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Thus, escape would be impossible. As such, instead of struggling powerlessly, Chu Feng felt that it would be better to just give in and follow them.

After all, he would be able to provide a proper explanation after arriving at the Sunset Cloud Valley.

As concrete evidence was present, that Chu Luyang deserved to die. Chu Feng refused to believe that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master would be unable to distinguish between right and wrong, and kill Chu Feng because he killed someone that deserved to be killed.

After that, Chu Feng was arrested and escorted to the Sunset Cloud Valley.

On the way there, the effect of Chu Feng's Immortal Transformation Pellet soon dissipated. In an instant, he went from a cultivation of rank four Martial Ancestor back to that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

“Your cultivation has returned to normal now? Although I do not know what sort of method you used to increase your cultivation, I detest people like you who use despicable methods to increase their cultivations the most,” Elder Song Ming mocked Chu Feng. His tone was filled with contempt.

The other elders also cast gazes of contempt toward Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored their gazes of contempt.

“Little friend Chu Feng, hear me out. You do not need to respond,” Right at this moment, a voice transmission quietly entered Chu Feng's ears. It was Elder Ning Shuang.

“Chu Feng, our Sunset Cloud Valley's upper echelons have already found out about what you've done on Mount Cloud Crane. There is one thing that I must tell you.”

“Li Rui's master, Elder Toubu, is an extraordinary existence in our Sunset Cloud Valley. He is the Head Elder of the Law Enforcement Department.”

“As for these people, they are all part of the Law Enforcement Department. Thus, to put it simply, they are all subordinates to Li Rui's master.”

“Furthermore, Xu Yiyi's master, Elder Su, is currently in closed-door training. If Li Rui's master insists on punishing you, I'm afraid that there will not be anyone that will speak up for or plead leniency for you,” Elder Ning Shuang said through voice transmission.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown.

Back then, it was Xu Yiyi's master, Elder Su Jingrui, who had declared that Luyang's Pavilion and the Red Butterfly Society were not allowed to be enemies again, that he would eliminate them should they do so.

However, he had only said those words, and not left behind any concrete instructions.

Unless he were to testify to that matter himself, and inform others that he had indeed said those words, it would be very difficult for others to testify for Chu Feng.

If Elder Su did not appear to testify, even if Chu Feng were capable of proving that Chu Luyang had secretly prompted Liangchen's Villa to eliminate the Red Butterfly Society's headquarters, Luyang's Pavilion would likely not be charged with any wrongdoings.

After all, Luyang's Pavilion was the Sunset Cloud Valley's subsidiary power, whereas the Red Butterfly Society was not. Thus, so what if Chu Luyang eliminated the Red Butterfly Society?

However, it was true that Chu Feng had eliminated Chu Luyang. If the Sunset Cloud Valley's Law Enforcement Division was determined to take care of Chu Feng, the current situation for Chu Feng would be very bad.

"However, little friend Chu Feng, right now, there is good news too. That is, you're an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist."

"Our Lord Valley Master is a person fond of talented individuals. As long as you can provide a proper explanation, there is still leeway for this matter."

"And as long as we can wait until Elder Su leaves his closed-door training to explain this matter, and inform Lord Valley Master that he had indeed declared those words, it would mean that Luyang's Pavilion was in the wrong first. With that, you will be able to be set free without fault of crime," Elder Ning Shuang continued.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng nodded at Elder Ning Shuang.

Chu Feng was very thankful toward Elder Ning Shuang, and not only because of what he had said.

Chu Feng was very grateful toward Elder Ning Shuang merely because of his arrival here today.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew that if Elder Ning Shuang were not present today, the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley would definitely not have spared him.

Not to mention bringing Chu Feng back to the Sunset Cloud Valley, even if Chu Feng possessed the Death Exemption Title Plate in hand, they would still have executed him on the spot.

Thus, Chu Feng was fortunate that Elder Ning Shuang had been present. It was only because of his presence that Chu Feng managed to escape a calamity and not die by the hands of these Law Enforcement Elders.

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng was brought back to the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Merely, to Chu Feng's surprise, that Elder Song Ming did not announce this matter.

Not only did he not report this matter, he even used the reasoning that he had an important matter to bring Elder Ning Shuang to the Law Enforcement Department.

As for Chu Feng, he was directly brought to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's residence.

"Chu Feng, this situation is amiss," The sharp-minded Queen detected that the situation was amiss.

"I've also noticed it. They have deliberately taken Elder Ning Shuang away. Evidently, they do not wish to make this matter public, they do not want Xu Yiyi and the others to know that I've been captured and brought back here."

"They are planning to execute me with lightning speed," Chu Feng said.

“What are we to do then?” Her Lady Queen started to panic slightly. After all, Chu Feng was currently a lamb in a tiger’s den. He had no choice but to allow himself to be punished by others.

“The situation is not that bad either. Fortunately, Elder Ning Shuang has witnessed everything and knows about what happened. Thus, they do not dare to put me to death directly.”

“They will still have to bring me to their Valley Master and have him personally convict me of my crime. Only by doing that will they be able to cast themselves from responsibilities.”

“Like that, they will be able to have excuses when they see Xu Yiyi’s master in the future.”

“However, as long as I meet the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, I will have the opportunity to explain the situation. I will then have the chance to continue to survive,” Chu Feng said.

“Let’s hope that’s the case,” Her Lady Queen was still worried.

Oh hey, another Tuoba as the head of the Punishment/Law Enforcement Department.

Chapter 2255 – Toying Methods

---

Finally, Chu Feng was brought to the outside of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's residence. Merely, before he was even able to approach that mansion, he was stopped by an old man.

That old man actually possessed the cultivation of a rank seven Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, he was looking at Chu Feng with a gaze filled with anger.

Even without others mentioning it to him, Chu Feng was able to guess that old man must be Li Rui's master, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Head Law Enforcement Elder.

"We pay our respects to Lord Head Law Enforcement Elder," Sure enough, those Law Enforcement Elders all hurriedly saluted to Li Rui's master upon seeing him.

Li Rui's master completely ignored his henchmen. Instead, he directly walked toward Chu Feng and arrived before him. With a low voice, he said to Chu Feng, "I know what you're thinking. You must be trying to use your identity as an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to plead for your life and escape this calamity."

"However, I'll tell you this. You are truly underestimating me. Since I have dared to allow you to meet Lord Valley Master, I will naturally have made preparations to make you meet certain death."

"Lord Valley Master does not know that you're an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, nor does he know about the trifle that Su Jingrui had with Luyang's Pavilion and the Red Butterfly Society."

"Thus, later on, as long as I report to Lord Valley Master about you killing Chu Luyang, Lord Valley Master will let me execute you."

"As long as I manage to kill you, even if Su Jingrui is to come out from his closed-door training and explain the situation, it will be useless.”

“After all, it will be Lord Valley Master who will have personally killed you, and not me.”

“Thus, at that time, I will, at the very most, receive some verbal reprimand as a punishment. However, you, on the other hand, will be dead,” Li Rui’s master said coldly and sinisterly.

“Head Law Enforcement Elder, your tricks are truly vile. No wonder you were capable of nurturing a disciple as sinister and treacherous as Li Rui,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Courting death,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Li Rui’s master was furious. He directly grabbed Chu Feng’s neck with his aged yet powerful hand.

At this moment, Chu Feng felt as if he was about to suffocate, that his body was about to explode.

After all, his opponent was a rank seven Martial Ancestor. That level of cultivation was truly powerful. He was someone capable of instantly killing Chu Feng.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng was still not afraid. He said, “What’s wrong, Head Law Enforcement Elder? Could it be that you’re so eager to avenge your disciple that you’re planning to kill me right now? Could it be that you’re not planning to allow me to meet your Lord Valley Master?”

“No, you naturally have to meet him,” Li Rui’s master released his hand. He said, “However, I’ll let you suffer true despair before meeting Lord Valley Master.”

As Li Rui’s master spoke, he took out a medicinal pellet and then said to Chu Feng, “As you are an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, you should know what sort of medicinal pellet this is, no?”

“After you take this medicinal pellet, you will become a mute that is unable to speak. Even your world spirit power will be sealed, and unable to be released from your body.”

“At that time, you will not be able to argue with anything that I say. As such, you will have no choice but to admit guilt.”

“You wish to prove yourself as an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist so as to draw support from Lord Valley Master to escape a calamity?”

“Haha, that’s not going to happen.”

“You shameless and despicable little man! You!!!” At this moment, Chu Feng was furious.

However, before Chu Feng could finish his words, Li Rui’s master grabbed his mouth and force-fed him that medicinal pellet.

“Wuu~~~”

The next moment, Chu Feng felt an enormous medicinal power sealing his throat and body.

That was not a poisonous medicinal pellet. Rather, it was a medicinal pellet that used enormously formidable world spirit power to seal one’s body.

Thus, even though Chu Feng possessed a body immune to poison, he was unable to resist that medicinal pellet’s effect.

Chu Feng was truly incapable of speaking. Furthermore, he was also unable to release his world spirit power.

He had already lost the ability to prove himself as an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

At this very moment, Chu Feng’s complexion turned ashen.

Seeing such a Chu Feng, Li Rui’s master revealed a complacent smile. He said, “You must’ve never expected to meet such a sullen death, right? However, even if this is the case, it will still not be able to alleviate the hatred I have for you killing my disciple.”

“Men! Bring him over!” Li Rui’s master said.

Then, being led by Li Rui’s master, the Law Enforcement Elders began to advance toward the entrance of the Valley Master's residence.

“Chu Feng, what are we to do? Are you truly unable to speak? Are you truly unable to release your spirit power?” At this moment, Her Lady Queen started to panic.

At this moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had no clue as to the situation at all. Not only does he not know Chu Feng was a rarely seen Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he also did not know about the agreement between Luyang's Pavilion and the Red Butterfly Society.

And now, as Chu Feng was unable to speak, he would not be able to justify his actions.

Furthermore, Elder Ning Shuang had been brought to the Law Enforcement Department.

As such, there was simply no one that could exonerate Chu Feng. Therefore, Li Rui's master could say whatever he wanted to right now. Chu Feng was truly facing a great catastrophe, truly about to be killed.

“This medicinal pellet is indeed very powerful. If I were still a Royal-cloak World Spiritist, I would really not be able to do anything to that medicinal pellet.”

“However, I am an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist now. As such, I possess certainty in being able to undo the effect of the medicinal pellet,” Chu Feng said.

“Then how long will it take?” Eggy asked anxiously. She feared that there would not be enough time.

“Rest assured, it will not be long,” Chu Feng said confidently.

Although that medicinal pellet was capable of preventing Chu Feng from releasing his world spirit power outside of his body, it was unable to prevent Chu Feng from using spirit power within himself.

At this moment, although Chu Feng still had a dejected and despair-filled expression on the surface, he was actually using his spirit power to undo the effect of that medicinal pellet within his body.

At the same time, Chu Feng was brought to the entrance of the residence of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master.

After arriving at the entrance, Chu Feng was forced to kneel on the ground.

At the same time, Li Rui's master and the other Law Enforcement Elders all kneeled on the ground.

"Subordinate Tuoba Shangshui request to see Lord Valley Master!!!" Li Rui's master said respectfully.

Not long after he said those words, the entrance to that palace slowly opened.

Looking through the entrance, Chu Feng was able to see that there was a middle-aged looking man sitting on the main seat in the palace.

He had a very handsome and youthful appearance. However, his airs and manners of bearing were extraordinary.

Chu Feng was able to sense the aura of someone who had lived for thousands of years. It was not something that could be hidden with merely his youthful face.

Furthermore, the same sort of twilight as Xu Yiyi's master was lingering on his body. That was an abnormal sign.

Evidently, this person was the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master.

"Elder Tuoba, for you to come to my place at such a time, could there be some important matter?" The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked.

"Elder Tuoba, who is that youngster?" Suddenly, the Sunset

Cloud Valley's Valley Master turned his gaze to Chu Feng.

“Lord Valley Master, this man is called Chu Feng. He killed Luyang's Pavilion's Pavilion Master Chu Luyang. This subordinate wishes to request Lord Valley Master to convict him of his crimes,” Li Rui's master said.

“What? Chu Luyang was killed?” Upon hearing that Chu Luyang was killed, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's expression changed slightly. Then, in a skeptical manner, he asked, “You said that Chu Luyang has been killed by this youngster?”

Chapter 2256 – What Is Your Motive

---

“Lord Valley Master, Chu Luyang was precisely killed by this child,” Li Rui’s master replied.

“However, with his cultivation, how could he possibly possess the strength to kill Chu Luyang?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master revealed a puzzled expression.

“Lord Valley Master, this child used despicable means to murder Chu Luyang,” Li Rui’s master said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng wished that he could spit at Li Rui’s master’s face.

He thought to himself, ‘This old fart truly dares to say anything. He actually started to put the label of despicable on my head.’

“You really killed Chu Luyang?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master turned to ask Chu Feng.

It was not as simple as a mere question; the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was also observing Chu Feng. He was trying to see whether or not Li Rui’s master had used any special martial techniques to forcibly restrict Chu Feng.

If Li Rui’s master had truly used some sort martial technique to restrict Chu Feng, this Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master would naturally be able to tell with a single glance.

However, this was also the reason why Li Rui’s master was clever. He seemed to know this Valley Master very well, and knew that he would observe Chu Feng to determine whether or not Chu Feng had been restricted.

As such, he had not used martial techniques to suppress Chu Feng, and instead meticulously prepared that medicinal pellet for Chu Feng to be forced to take.

As for the result, it would naturally be the same as what Li Rui’s master had anticipated. The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley master did not manage to detect the existence of the medicinal pellet.

"I am asking you whether or not you killed Chu Luyang," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked once again.

Upon seeing this, Li Rui's master tried to speak so that he could decide Chu Feng's crimes. However, to his surprise, Chu Feng actually nodded.

He had pleaded guilty?

Li Rui's master was very shocked to see that Chu Feng had actually nodded to it. Originally, he thought that even if Chu Feng couldn't speak, he would definitely not plead guilty.

However, Chu Feng had actually pleaded guilty. This made Li Rui's master very confused. He did not understand what Chu Feng was thinking.

Seeing that Chu Feng have nodded, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master sighed and said, "Chu Luyang is, after all, a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan. As he was a subordinate of our Sunset Cloud Valley, I must provide him with justice,"

"That is why this subordinate wished to ask Lord Valley Master to convict this Chu Feng," Li Rui's master pleaded.

"Is there even a need for me for something like this? According to the laws of our Sunset Cloud Valley, those that dare to kill people of our Sunset Cloud Valley are all to..."

Before the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master could finish his words, an aged old lady hurried out from within the palace. She said, "Lord Valley Master, this is bad! Lady Yan's illness has relapsed again!"

"My mother's illness has relapsed again?" Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master hurriedly and worriedly stood up from his seat.

He had had an extremely calm expression earlier. However, at this moment, his face was covered with panic.

It could be seen that this Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was a filial son. Else, he would not panic like that after finding out that his mother's illness had relapsed.

"Elder Tuoba, I have ordered you to ask for an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, have you managed to find one?!" The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked Li Rui's master.

"Lord Valley Master, regarding this... Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are truly too difficult to find. This subordinate is incompetent. So far, I have yet to manage to successfully petition one," Li Rui's master said with an ashamed expression.

However, no one noticed that Li Rui's master took a stealthily glance at Chu Feng when he said those words.

Chu Feng noticed his gaze. From that gaze, Chu Feng saw a sinister smile.

He was smiling in complacency.

At this moment, Chu Feng came to a realization. Not only was the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master a person fond of talents, he was also someone who urgently needed the assistance of an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to help cure his mother's illness.

In this sort of situation, if the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master found out that Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, Chu Feng would definitely be saved.

However, Chu Feng was unable to speak. He could only watch as the opportunity to survive slipped past him without him being able to grab onto it.

That was the reason why Li Rui's master was so complacent. He was feeling proud of how quick-witted he felt himself to be.

"Go, go and ask for for an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist again.

No matter what, you must successfully petition one,” After the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said those words, he followed that old lady and began to proceed toward the inside of the palace. Evidently, his mother was located inside the palace.

“Lord Valley Master, then, what about this child?” Li Rui’s master hurriedly asked.

“Is there even a need to ask? Kill him!!!” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master shouted.

“Yes, Milord,” At this moment, Li Rui’s master once again revealed an extremely complacent smile.

Right at this moment, Chu Feng suddenly spoke. “Lord Valley Master, you wish to help cure your mother’s illness, no? Perhaps myself would be able to help,”

“This!!!”

Once Chu Feng spoke, Li Rui’s master’s expression immediately changed. He was frightened green in the face.

He truly could not understand how Chu Feng was able to speak after he was fed that medicinal pellet.

He had clearly heard that medicinal pellet to be something that even Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists would not be able to undo.

As for Chu Feng, he had only just become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Furthermore, he was also an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. No matter what, he should not be able to undo the effects of that medicinal pellet.

Exactly what was going on? Why was he able to speak?

“What did you say? You can cure my mother’s illness?” At this moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master turned his sharp gaze toward Chu Feng.

Chu Feng felt killing intent in the gaze of that Valley Master.

Evidently, this Valley master did not believe that Chu Feng possessed the ability to treat his mother's illness. Thus, the first thing that came into his mind was that Chu Feng was deceiving him.

Furthermore, as he was worried and vexed for his mother's illness, his mood was extremely bad. As such, he would not be able to tolerate anyone deceiving him at such a time.

“Lord Valley Master, do not listen to the crazy and unfounded ravings of this child. How could he possibly be able to treat Lady Yan's illness?”

At this moment, Li Rui's master started to panic. He hurriedly walked toward Chu Feng and used his boundless martial power to restrict Chu Feng, preventing him from babbling nonsense again.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at this moment, boundless spirit power suddenly burst forth from Chu Feng's body.

It was Immortal-level spirit power. At this moment, not only was the spirit power hovering around Chu Feng, it was also being controlled by Chu Feng.

Being enveloped by this spirit power, Chu Feng's aura became completely different. It was as if he were a grand expert.

“Lord Valley Master, do you recognize this?” Chu Feng asked loudly.

“Damn it!” Seeing that Chu Feng had actually unleashed his Immortal level spirit power, Li Rui's master started to panic even more. He unleashed his surging martial power with the intention of beating down Chu Feng's spirit power.

“Stop!!!”

However, right at this moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master shouted furiously.

Once that furious shout was heard, a boundlessly powerful oppressive might swept forth. It not only forcibly scattered Li Rui's master's oppressive might, it also forced Li Rui's master back several steps, nearly knocking him to the ground.

“Tuoba Shangshui, is this how you handle things?!!!” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master pointed at Li Rui's master and shouted furiously.

Seeing that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was furious, Li Rui's master hurriedly kneeled to the ground. He said, “Lord Valley Master, this subordinate does not know what he did wrong.”

“You do not know what you did wrong? I asked you to go and petition an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to treat my mother's illness.”

“In the end, after seeking and asking for so long, you've yet to successfully request an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. If that was even true.”

“However, right now, there is clearly an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist standing right before you. Why did you not tell me about this?”

“Exactly what is your motive?” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master stared at Li Rui's master furiously.

This Valley Master was truly angered.

Chapter 2257 – Revealing One’s Ability

---

“Lord Valley master, please calm your anger. This subordinate truly didn’t know that this Chu Feng was actually an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” Li Rui’s master hurriedly tried to explain.

“You didn’t know?” The Sunset Cloud Valley revealed a suspicious expression.

“Lord Valley Master, this subordinate would not dare to deceive you. I truly didn’t know,” Li Rui’s master continued to explain.

“You didn’t know? Head Law Enforcement Elder, you really didn’t know that I was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

“If you really didn’t know that I was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, why did you force-feed me that medicinal pellet that restricted my spirit power and my ability to speak?”

“Could it be that it wasn’t because you were afraid that Lord Valley Master would find out that I’m an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Chu Feng asked Li Rui’s master. His tone was very sharp, stabbing straight at the crucial things.

“What? You actually fed him a medicinal pellet that sealed his spirit power and even his speech?” Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was extremely shocked.

“Lord Valley Master, please do not listen to his nonsense. I simply did not feed him such a medicinal pellet,” Li Rui’s master hurriedly explained.

“You shut up first!” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master berated coldly. Li Rui’s master no longer dared to quibble. Like that, he quietly kneeled on the ground.

In response, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master looked to Chu Feng and asked, “You are called Chu Feng?”

“Yes,” Chu Feng replied.

“Chu Feng, if you have received unjust treatment, I will definitely obtain justice for you later. However, I have a presumptuous request right now,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Do you want me to treat your Lady Mother’s illness?” Chu Feng asked.

“Are you willing?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Lord Valley Master, please lead the way,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. Please follow me,” Seeing that Chu Feng agreed to help, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master revealed a relaxed smile.

However, before showing the way for Chu Feng, he used his sharp gaze to look at Li Rui’s master, “Elder Tuoba, wait here. Before I return, you are not allowed to leave.”

“Yes, Milord,” Li Rui’s master replied respectfully.

At that moment, he no longer possessed the same sort of complacency he had earlier. Instead, nervousness and unease filled his face.

Being led by the Valley Master, Chu Feng walked deep into the Valley Master’s residence. He then arrived at a neat and tidy bedchamber.

This bedchamber was not very large, and was decorated very simply. Although it was not majestic, it was very neat. When looking at it, one would feel very comfortable.

Right after entering the bedchamber, Chu Feng heard the painful voice of an elderly person.

It was a female. She was extremely old, so old that her body was filled with wrinkles and age spots. Even her hair was nearly all gone, as were all of her teeth.

As for this woman, she was being tormented by the pain of her illness so much so that she had lost consciousness.

Needing no introduction, Chu Feng managed to guess that this old woman must be the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's mother.

Merely, to Chu Feng's surprise, the mother of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master did not possess a high level of cultivation. In fact, her cultivation could be said to be very weak.

She was actually only a Martial Emperor. Furthermore, she was only a rank one Martial Emperor.

In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, that level of cultivation could be considered extremely weak.

However, that was not the important aspect that Chu Feng was focused on. His focus was fixed onto this old woman's illness.

Upon seeing her, without even waiting for the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master to say anything, Chu Feng walked up toward her and began to stabilize her illness.

As the saying goes, an expert's ability will be revealed the moment they act.

Once Chu Feng started, he immediately caused the gaze of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master to change. All of his misgivings and hidden caution against Chu Feng were mostly dispelled at that moment.

The reason for that was because after Chu Feng started, not only did the Valley Master's mother's face no longer possess that painful expression, her complexion also turned a lot more mild.

In fact, when Chu Feng stopped, the complexion of the mother of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had become rosy. Although she had not woken up and started to sleep, it was a very sound sleep.

Furthermore, all of this took Chu Feng less than an hour.

“Young Hero, your art of healing is truly amazing,” At that moment, the old lady who served the Valley Master’s mother had a joyous expression on her face. She was unable to contain herself from praising Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, without mentioning other things, but merely for the fact that you have treated my mother’s illness, I, Bai Xiuzhu, am extremely grateful,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master actually turned to Chu Feng and bowed with clasped fists.

He, an individual with a status high and above Chu Feng’s, was someone who would rarely make such a respectful gesture to another, much less someone with the status of a prisoner like Chu Feng.

However, he did such a thing. From that, it could be seen how much importance his mother held in his heart.

“Lord Valley Master’s words are too serious. I merely did what I was capable of,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, I might as well get right to the point. Are you capable of curing my mother’s illness?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Lord Valley Master’s mother’s illness is indeed very dangerous. However, curing her illness is not that hard either. It is not an incurable disease.”

“Actually, if a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist possessed exquisite ability in the art of healing and wholeheartedly treated her illness, they would also be able to cure her,” Chu Feng said.

“Truly? But, all of the Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists I’ve requested before all said that only an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist could treat her illness,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Perhaps it is because they do not dare to attempt to cure her illness out of a fear of failure. However, Lord Valley Master, you can rest assured. I am able to cure your mother's illness. Furthermore, I do not need to wait until later. I can do it right now," Chu Feng said.

"Right now? You're truly capable of curing her right now?" The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was in disbelief.

"To be exact, I must cure her right now. If her treatment is to continue to be delayed, your mother's illness might end up being a danger to her life," Chu Feng said.

"A danger to her life?" The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master frowned.

"Could it be that Lord Valley Master didn't know that your mother's illness has reached a very dangerous level?" Chu Feng asked.

The way Chu Feng saw it, this Lord Valley Master should know very well about his mother's illness being very serious. Else, he would not have been requesting for and petitioning Immortal-cloak World Spiritists so urgently.

"Chu Feng, as long as you are able to cure my mother's illness, even if you have truly killed Chu Luyang, I can treat it as if nothing has happened."

"Furthermore, I will also provide you with rewards. You can make any demand of me," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

Sure enough, it was as Chu Feng had anticipated, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master also knew that his mother's illness was very serious.

Else, he would not have not questioned Chu Feng, and instead directly proposed rewarding Chu Feng.

"We can set the matter of Chu Luyang aside till later. Right now, the treatment of Lord Valley Master's mother is the most urgent."

“Merely, your mother’s illness is truly special. Thus, I must use a special method to treat her illness. For that, I will need Lord Valley Master’s assistance,” Chu Feng said.

“How should I assist? Please tell me,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“I will need Lord Valley Master’s blood. I am going to completely exchange your mother’s blood with yours,” Chu Feng said.

“No problem,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master agreed without the slightest hesitation.

Chapter 2258 – Return Justice To You

---

“Lord Valley Master, please don’t agree to it this urgently,” Chu Feng smiled.

He continued, “Other than your blood, I will also need Lord Valley Master’s source energy. I will have to use your source energy to wash your mother’s source energy.”

“How could that be allowed?!!!”

“One’s source energy is one’s foundation. If one’s source energy is altered, not only will it ruin one’s foundation, it might even cause one’s death,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, before the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley master could speak, the expression of that old lady immediately changed.

“If one’s source energy is altered improperly, it would indeed lead to the conditions that you spoke of. However, if one’s source energy is altered properly, it will, at the very most, lead to one’s body suffering damage. However, that damage is something that can be repaired after resting for some time and using some precious medicinal herbs. It will not affect one’s future,” Chu Feng said.

“Young Hero, you said that is the case if the source energy is altered properly. However, if it isn’t altered properly, it will indeed affect one’s cultivation, and even bring harm to one’s life,” That old lady was still worried.

“Must this be done?” However, compared to the old lady who served his mother, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was rather calm.

“This is the only method to cure your mother’s illness. It is precisely because this method demands a high expertise in world spiritist techniques that ordinary Royal-cloak World Spiritists would not dare to attempt to cure your mother, and say that they cannot cure her,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, may I know how much certainty you hold in your methods?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“I possess a hundred percent certainty,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, it is not that I do not trust you. Merely, this matter not only concerns my own safety, it also concerns the safety of our Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“If I wasn’t the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, I would definitely agree to it without complaint. After all, you are curing my mother’s illness.”

“However, as I am the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, I must take responsibility for everyone in the Sunset Cloud Valley, as well as responsibility for myself.”

Before the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master could finish his words, Chu Feng interrupted him, “Lord Valley Master, you want this Chu Feng to set up a ‘guarantee?’”

“You are truly intelligent. Might that be doable?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked. Likely because he was feeling embarrassed to ask Chu Feng to do that, his tone was not very confident, and even felt a bit like he was pleading.

As for the so-called ‘guarantee,’ it was actually very simple.

Since Chu Feng said that he possessed a hundred percent certainty in success, he could not make any mistakes when taking the Valley Master’s source energy.

If a mistake were to occur, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master would definitely not spare Chu Feng.

However, as it was, after all, him who had requested for Chu Feng to treat his mother’s illness, he inevitably felt embarrassed to demand that Chu Feng establish such a ‘guarantee.’

However, Chu Feng felt that this Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master possessed a decent character.

After all, Chu Feng possessed the status of a prisoner. It was normal for him not to trust Chu Feng. This was be even more the case when Chu Feng was demanding his source energy.

Actually, this Lord Valley Master could simply not say anything, and try to get on good terms with Chu Feng first.

In fact, it would be not too late for him to immediately become hostile toward Chu Feng the moment he discovered that Chu Feng's behavior was errant, or if Chu Feng caused harm to his source energy.

After all, if he had done that, Chu Feng would not feel any misgivings toward him in his heart should he succeed, and he would be able to immediately take care of Chu Feng should Chu Feng fail. It would be a much better deal for him.

However, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master did not use such a hypocritical method. Instead, he directly informed Chu Feng of what he planned to do. To this, Chu Feng felt quite a lot of admiration.

At the very least, this meant that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was very honest.

"Yes, that is fine," Chu Feng said.

"Great. Never would I have expected you to be such a frank and straightforward individual with how young you are."

"Since that's the case, let's start right away," Seeing that Chu Feng agreed to it so straightforwardly, the impression the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had toward Chu Feng grew better.

Then, Chu Feng began to set up his spirit formation to extract the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's blood. This was a very simple matter. In merely a short moment, Chu Feng finished it.

After that, Chu Feng began to set up the spirit formation to extract the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's source energy. Chu Feng set up this spirit formation meticulously. After all, if he were to fail, the consequences would be enormous.

At the moment when Chu Feng finished setting up his spirit formation and prepared to extract the source energy of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, he said, "Lord Valley Master, it will be extremely painful. That pain is something that I am unable to help you relieve. You must endure it."

"That's fine. Go ahead," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had an unchanged expression. He did not even blink.

"Buzz~~~"

Chu Feng did not bother with anymore superfluous words, and activated the spirit formation. He began to concentrate on extracting the source energy of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master.

"Wuu~~~"

Once Chu Feng began, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, this expert of martial cultivation, this man of steel, actually also had a change in expression. Then, his face started to distort.

Pain, it was truly painful. If one's soul was one's foundation, then one's source energy would be the foundation of the soul. Without source energy, one would not be able to condense even a soul.

And now, Chu Feng was altering the Valley Master's foundation. The pain from that was something unbearable for ordinary people.

The fact that this Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master only had a change in expression and complexion without crying out in pain meant that his tolerance was extremely strong.

As for Chu Feng, he kept his promise. Not only did he manage to extract a small portion of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's foundation without bringing harm to him, he also managed to successfully eradicate the illness within his mother's body.

The old lady serving her was a Royal-cloak World Spiritist. When Chu Feng declared that the Valley Master's mother's treatment had been completed, she hurriedly stepped forward to inspect her.

After careful and repeated inspection, the old lady was pleased beyond expectation. She cried out, "It's gone, it's really gone. Young Hero is truly worthy of being an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. He has truly managed to eradicate the illness from Lady Yan."

In response, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master also revealed a joyous expression. He bowed respectfully to Chu Feng and said, "Thank you, little friend Chu Feng, for treating my mother's illness."

"Little friend Chu Feng's world spirit techniques are truly excellent. I am truly wrong to have doubted little friend Chu Feng earlier. As such, I shall apologize to little friend Chu Feng here. I hope little friend Chu Feng does not take offense," His bow was not only an expression of his gratefulness toward Chu Feng, it also expressed his deep apology.

"Lord Valley master is being too serious. We are not well acquainted with one another. Furthermore, I am someone who carries a crime to my name. In this sort of situation, it was reasonable for Lord Valley Master to be on guard when I wanted to use your source energy," Chu Feng said with an indifferent expression. What he said was also what he really felt.

"Never would I have expected you to be so open-minded at your young age. It would seem that... Elder Tuoba has truly wrongly accused you this time around," An appreciative expression appeared in the gaze with which the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master looked to Chu Feng.

"Merely, I don't understand. Since you are being wrongly accused, why did you admit that you killed Chu Luyang earlier?"

The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked.

"It's because I indeed killed Chu Luyang," Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, the expression of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master changed slightly. Then, he asked, "Little friend Chu Feng, exactly what is going on? Can you tell me in detail?"

"Even if Lord Valley Master didn't ask about this, I would still tell Lord Valley Master about this matter."

Then, Chu Feng told the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master about what had happened in full detail.

After knowing about the whole matter, the expression of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master turned very serious.

"Little friend Chu Feng, please wait here for a moment," After the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master finished saying those words, he turned and left.

When he returned, two more people returned with him. They were Elder Ning Shuang and Xu Yiyi.

Seeing the different expressions that Elder Ning Shuang and Xu Yiyi had, Chu Feng knew that they must've known what had happened.

"Chu Feng, are you okay?" Upon seeing Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi asked in a deeply concerned manner.

"Be at ease. Aren't I standing here?," Chu Feng said with a smile.

Xu Yiyi knelt onto the ground and said, "Lord Valley Master, Elder Tuoba, he... as the Head Law Enforcement Elder of the Law Enforcement Division, he actually consciously went against the laws in order to settle his personal grudge."

"He deliberately hid the truth, and even forced Chu Feng to take poison. His manner of conduct is truly enough to make one's hair rise in anger."

"This disciple earnestly requests that Lord Valley Master severely punish Elder Tuoba in accordance with our Sunset Cloud Valley's criminal laws."

"Lord Valley Master, Elder Tuoba deliberately trapped me in order to take care of little friend Chu Feng. His actions are truly vile. I hope that Lord Valley Master will be able to give little friend Chu Feng justice," Elder Ning Shuang added.

"Rest assured. I will definitely return justice to little friend Chu Feng," At that moment, although the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had a calm expression, his eyes were surging with anger.

The original term in chinese for what I translated as guarantee is 'military order.' Basically, one will vow that one will succeed in battle. Should one fail, one will be punished according to military law. It is there to strengthen the sense of responsibility for the military commander.

Chapter 2259 – Dead On Refusal To Admit Fault

---

Afterward, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master brought Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang to the entrance of the palace where Li Rui's master and the other Law Enforcement Elders were kneeling.

Due to the fact that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had left to find Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang through a side exit, Li Rui's master and the others did not know about Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang being present beforehand.

As such, once they saw Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang, those Law Enforcement Elders immediately revealed dejected expressions. They felt as if they were about to face an imminent catastrophe.

However, Li Rui's master was comparatively calm. At the very least, he did not reveal too much of a guilty conscience.

From this, it could be seen that he was truly an astute and circumspect individual.

“Head Elder Tuoba, I have revered you and respected you as the Head Law Enforcement Elder in vain.”

“I truly never expected that, for your own personal grudge, you would invert right and wrong, black and white, to plot Chu Feng's death,” Xu Yiyi furiously denounced Li Rui's master.

“Xu Yiyi, as a disciple, you actually dare to speak to the Head Law Enforcement Elder in such a manner?! Do you even have seniority in your eyes?!” Faced with Xu Yiyi's criticism, Li Rui's master actually became furious and started to criticize Xu Yiyi instead.

“Elder Tuoba, are you still going to pretend?” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked coldly.

“Lord Valley Master, this subordinate is slow-witted, and does not understand what I have done wrong,” Li Rui’s master said with a puzzled expression.

“For now, I will not look into the fact that you have deliberately concealed the fact that little friend Chu Feng is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“I will also not yet look into the fact that you used a special method to seal little friend Chu Feng’s speech and spirit power.”

“However, you clearly knew that Chu Luyang had gone against the order from Elder Su Jingrui first, and received a well-deserved death as such.”

“Yet, you still brought little friend Chu Feng here, and asked me to order his execution. This is something that I absolutely cannot let you off for,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said in an extremely furious manner.

“What? Chu Luyang went against orders from Elder Su first?”

“What? Elder Su ordered Chu Luyang to do something?”

“Exactly what is going on here? Lord Valley Master, this subordinate doesn’t understand,” Li Rui’s master said with a puzzled expression.

“Don’t understand? How could you not understand? When my master warned Chu Luyang, your subordinates here were also present. Are you trying to say that they did not report this matter to you?” Xu Yiyi pointed at those Law Enforcement Elders.

“”What? There was actually such a thing? Why did you all not inform me of it?” Li Rui’s master had a furious expression as he turned to berate his subordinates angrily. He acted as if he truly did not know about those things.

“Lord Head Elder, we truly didn’t know about it,” However, those elders actually started to shake their heads repeatedly at the questioning from Li Rui’s master.

Furthermore, with confused expressions, they turned to Xu Yiyi and asked, “Yiyi, what did Elder Su say to Chu Luyang? Why do we not know about it? You have completely confused us here.”

“You all! You all are actually pretending to be confused?!” Seeing that they had refused to admit their faults, Xu Yiyi was so furious that her body started to tremble.

“No, we’re not pretending to be confused, we truly do not know what’s going on. Yiyi, for some things, you should not make irresponsible remarks,” Those Law Enforcement Elders said with innocent expressions on their faces.

“Good, very good. It would seem that you have already planned this in private, and have decided to dead on refuse to admit your faults,” Right at that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master laughed out loud. Merely, his laughter was very cold.

It was so cold that it caused the Law Enforcement Elders’ hearts to shiver and their expressions to change.

They started to panic, but even though their hearts were already panicking, they still did not modify their previous remarks. From this, it could be seen that they had already decided with Li Rui’s master to dead on refuse to admit their faults.

Although this method was very foolish, they felt that it was the only way to get out of this situation.

If they dead on refused to admit their faults, there would still be a chance to take a breath. However, if they were to admit to their faults now, they would likely receive very severe punishments.

While Li Rui’s master might not be killed, as he was highly important and indispensable in the Sunset Cloud Valley, the rest of the Law Enforcement Elders might not necessarily be able to escape death.

That was the reason why they dared to pretend as if they knew nothing before the very eyes of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master. It was not because they were daring or bold. Rather, they were fighting for the opportunity to survive.

“Lord Valley Master, we would not dare to deceive you. We truly do not know what happened between Elder Su and Chu Luyang,” Those Law Enforcement Elders all kowtowed and spoke in unison.

“You all should know that deceiving me is a capital offense? However, I have decided to give you all an opportunity.”

“Thus, I’ll ask you all again. When Elder Su Jingrui told Chu Luyang that he was not allowed to attack the Red Butterfly Society again, that it would be a capital offense should he do so, did you all hear it or not?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Lord Valley Master, we truly did not hear it,” The Law Enforcement Elders said while shivering.

They were afraid, really afraid. However, even though they were feeling extremely afraid, they were determined to insist on not knowing about that matter.

The reason for that was because there was already no path of return for them now.

“Lord Valley Master, our Law Enforcement Department has always been loyal and devoted to the Sunset Cloud Valley. We have never once deceived you.”

“Yiyi, Ning Shaung, exactly what sort of benefit did the two of you receive from Chu Feng for you to wrongly accuse myself and my subordinates like this?” Right at that moment, Li Rui’s master spoke with a furious expression.

This old codger was not only quibbling, he even started to make false countercharges.

“You, you, you’re actually saying that we are wrongly accusing you?!” Hearing those words, Xu Yiyi became even more furious. Thus, she looked to the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and said, “Lord Valley Master, please uphold justice.”

“Lord Valley Master, please uphold justice,” Li Rui’s master as well as the other Law Enforcement Elders actually also dared to request for the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master to uphold justice.

“Very well.”

“What exactly happened will all be known once Elder Su Jingrui comes out from his closed door training.”

“I will also know who exactly among you all have deceived me at that time. As for those who have deceived me, I will definitely not let them off easily!” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master shouted furiously.

“However, even if you all truly didn’t know that Elder Su Jingrui warned Chu Luyang that he was not allowed to attack the Red Butterfly Society, it remains the truth that you all have concealed the fact that little friend Chu Feng is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“It is also true that you all used special methods to seal little friend Chu Feng’s speech, making him unable to speak. Thus, you have indirectly admitted to the false criminal charges you all have planted onto him,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Lord Valley Master, you have wrongly accused us. I never knew that Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, nor did I use any special methods to make him unable to speak,” Li Rui’s master was still dead on refusing to admit his fault.

“You still dare to refuse to admit your wrongdoings?” Right at that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master waved his sleeve and directly knocked Li Rui’s master to the ground. He rolled on the ground for several loops before finally stopping.

At that moment, Li Rui’s master was bleeding from all seven apertures on his head. His complexion had turned pale, and his aura extremely weak. He had been severely injured.

Furious. The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was truly furious. Else, he would not have injured Li Rui's master so heavily.

Even though he had already seriously injured Li Rui's master, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was still furious. He pointed at Li Rui's master and said, "The witness is present, and the evidence is definite. Yet, you dare to still refuse to admit your crimes? Tuoba Shangshui, did you really think that I would not dare to kill you?"

Even though Li Rui's master was already seriously injured, he still hurriedly crawled back up and knelt before the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master again. He kowtowed, but did not dare to say another word.

Only his aged body was shivering in fear.

Chapter 2260 – Number One Expert

---

“I’ll tell you all this; what you have done today is very vile. This is especially true because you all are Law Enforcement Elders. As such, this matter is even more vile.”

“Right now, I will spare your dog lives for the time being. After Elder Su Jingrui leaves his closed-door training, I will properly punish you all then.”

“All of you, scram. Scram back to the Law Enforcement Department and ponder your mistakes. Without my order, you all are not allowed to go anywhere else. Anyone who goes against my orders will be killed without exception,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master shouted angrily.

“Yes, Milord,” Li Rui’s master and the other Law Enforcement Elders left while trembling with fear.

At that moment, both Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang had astonished expressions on their faces.

As people of the Sunset Cloud Valley, they all knew that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master possessed a deep relationship with Li Rui’s master.

Originally, none of them had expected that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley master would truly severely punish Li Rui’s master for Chu Feng’s sake. They thought that he would only lightly discipline Li Rui’s master.

However, they now discovered that they had been mistaken.

Their Lord Valley Master had not only publicly beaten up Li Rui’s master, he even beat him up so ruthlessly. This truly surpassed their imagination.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please rest assured. After Elder Su Jingrui comes out from his closed-door training, I will definitely punish them severely,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said to Chu Feng with a face filled with apology.

“Lord Valley Master is being too courteous,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this is not be being overly courteous. Rather, I cannot allow you to be wronged. Thus, I must definitely return justice to you,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley master said as he patted his chest.

After hearing what the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said, Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang became even more astonished.

After all, with the status that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master held, there was simply no need for him to be this courteous toward a member of the younger generation like Chu Feng.

Afterward, when the Sunset Cloud Valley invited Chu Feng back into his palace and ordered his servant to prepare generous gifts to express his gratitude toward Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang were even more astonished.

However, after thinking about it, they seemed to have realized something. After all, Chu Feng was not an ordinary member of the younger generation; he was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

The two of them had personally seen Three Swords and Grandmaster Pocket, as well as the other grand characters from first tier powers, offering Chu Feng invitations outside of Mount Cloud Crane.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are truly extraordinary,” At that moment, Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang gasped with admiration in their hearts.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I wish to invite you to become a guest elder of our Sunset Cloud Valley. Might you be willing?” Suddenly, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

Once the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said those words, the person that was feeling the most joyous was none other than Xu Yiyi. Even though she did not say anything, she started to shoot meaningful glances at Chu Feng nonstop. She was telling him to hurriedly accept it.

As someone from the Sunset Cloud Valley, she knew that there was not a single guest elder in the Sunset Cloud Valley right now.

It was not that they did not wish to invite people to become their guest elders. Rather, they did not have any suitable people to become their guest elders. The reason for that was because the title of ‘guest elder’ came with a very respectful and high-standing status in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Without sufficient strength, it would simply be impossible for the Sunset Cloud Valley to invite someone to be their guest elder.

“Thank you, Lord Valley Master, for your kind intentions. Merely, I, Chu Feng, truly do not plan to join any power,” Chu Feng said in an apologetic manner.

Hearing those words, not to mention Xu Yiyi, even Elder Ning Shuang was startled. They truly never expected that Chu Feng would refuse.

“Little friend Chu Feng, our Sunset Cloud Valley’s guest elder is actually only a nominal title. It will not bind you,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said with a smile.

His intentions were very clear. If Chu Feng wanted to proceed to a higher elevation, it would be completely fine. This nominal title would not affect Chu Feng from joining other powers in the future.

“Chu Feng, just accept it. You should know that our Sunset Cloud Valley’s guest elder title is not only unfettered to our Sunset Cloud Valley, it is also a very noble status.”

“Let’s say it this way: if you are to become our Sunset Cloud Valley’s guest elder, then... your status would surpass even ordinary management elders. Even Elder Ning Shuang’s status would be greatly inferior to yours.”

“Furthermore, although our Sunset Cloud Valley is a second tier power, both our Lord Valley Master and my master are rank eight Martial Ancestor-level experts.”

“Among the second tier powers, our Sunset Cloud Valley is most definitely among the finest of all. If we are to continue to develop like this, our Sunset Cloud Valley will definitely become a first tier power one day.”

“Even if the Four World Spiritist Emperors wished to create trouble for you in the future, our Sunset Cloud Valley would also be able to back you up,” At that moment, Xu Yiyi spoke to Chu Feng through a voice transmission. This girl was truly anxious. She really wanted Chu Feng to become their Sunset Cloud Valley’s guest elder.

However, even after what Xu Yiyi told him, Chu Feng still shook his head decisively. He said to the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, “Lord Valley Master, I, Chu Feng, truly do not plan to join any power.”

Chu Feng truly did not plan to join any power. Else, he would not have refused Liu Chengkun back then.

Now that Liu Chengkun was dead, Chu Feng inevitably felt guilt in his heart. Thus... he was even more determined to not join any powers.

Even though Chu Feng had already offended some people, and should be finding formidable powers to back him up, Chu Feng would still not agree to join any of them.

Not only was this a decision that he had already made before coming to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, most importantly, if he were to agree to join other powers now, he would have truly let Liu Chengkun down.

“That’s alright. If little friend Chu Feng wishes to join our Sunset Cloud Valley in the future, the doors to our Sunset Cloud Valley will always be wide open for you,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master did not try to force Chu Feng.

“Merely, little friend Chu Feng, I have a request. Might little friend Chu Feng be willing to help me with it?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Lord Valley Master, Yiyi and Elder Su Jingrui are people who have saved my life.”

“Furthermore, Elder Ning Shuang also helped me on Mount Cloud Crane. Although I am not a part of the Sunset Cloud Valley, I am already associated with the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“Thus, Lord Valley Master, there is no harm in making your request. As long as it is within my capabilities, I will definitely help out,” Chu Feng said.

“Since that is the case, I’ll say it bluntly then. Originally, our Sunset Cloud Valley was actually only a small sect. Even among the tier three powers, our Sunset Cloud Valley was only a minor character.”

“In fact, for a period of time, we were on the verge of being exterminated.”

“Do you know how our Sunset Cloud Valley managed to obtain our current standing?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Lord Valley Master, please tell me how,” Chu Feng said.

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master smiled lightly. He said, “Regarding this, we would have to start from fifty thousand years ago.”

“At that time, the founder of our Sunset Cloud Valley was merely a child still.”

“At that time, a peak expert appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. That person declared himself to be someone from the Ancient Era's War Clan. Wearing silver armor and holding a silver spear in hand, he began to challenge the many powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and defeated all of them."

"At that time, he could be considered to be the fully deserving number one expert in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

Chapter 2261 – The Disappeared Tomb

---

“I know, I know. That man held a silver spear and wore silver armor. He proclaimed himself to be from the Ancient Era’s War Clan. His name was Zhan Haichuan.”

“I’ve heard that Zhan Haichuan was the most famous existence to have appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in the last fifty thousand years. He is simply akin to a legend.”

“However, not long after he became famous, he disappeared. From that point on, no one ever heard any news about him,” Xu Yiyi interrupted.

“Indeed, he disappeared for a very long time. After he disappeared, everyone thought that he left the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, that is not the truth.”

“Furthermore, due to a chance encounter, Lord Zhan Haichuan befriended our Sunset Cloud Valley’s second generation Valley Master.”

“Lord Zhan Haichuan bestowed a lot of treasures to our Sunset Cloud Valley. He even taught our second generation Lord Valley Master the method to nurture our disciples, as well as how to choose elites.”

“To tell you the truth, even our Sunset Cloud Valley’s mysterious protection technique, our Sunset Cloud Mysterious Technique, was not something created by our founder. Rather, it was given to us by Lord Zhan Haichuan.”

“Lord Zhan Haichuan felt fond of the name of our Sunset Cloud Valley. As he just happened to possess a special mysterious technique that would give off an abnormal sign as if one had sunset clouds lingering around oneself should one master it, he felt that that mysterious technique suited our Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“Thus, it is all thanks to Lord Zhan Haichuan that our Sunset Cloud Valley was able to obtain our prosperity today,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Lord Valley Master, is that for real? Why have I never heard of this before?” Xu Yiyi opened her mouth wide in shock. Astonishment filled her beautiful eyes.

After all, Zhan Haichuan was an individual with astonishing fame. As such, this was no small matter at all.

In fact, even Elder Ning Shuang had an astonished expression on his face. It would seem that this was not something that everyone in the Sunset Cloud Valley knew about.

“Lord Zhan Haichuan mentioned that it was best to keep this matter confidential. Other than the successive Valley Masters and during moments of necessity, it would be best to not mention this matter to anyone else.”

“However, today, as I have a request for little friend Chu Feng, I would naturally have to be sincere. That is the reason why I have mentioned this matter,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Wow! Chu Feng, your reputation is truly huge. This is something that even we didn’t know about before. Likely, even my master does not know about this. We were only able to know about this today thanks to you,” Xu Yiyi said happily.

“Indeed, there are not many people that know about this matter right now. The few of us here are the only ones that know about it. Thus, we must keep this matter confidential,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master reminded everyone.

“Yes,” Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang said in unison.

“I hope that little friend Chu Feng will help our Sunset Cloud Valley keep this matter confidential too,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said to Chu Feng. His tone was very polite.

“Lord Valley Master, please rest assured. I will definitely not mention this matter to anyone,” Chu Feng said.

“I trust little friend Chu Feng. If I didn’t, I wouldn’t have told you about it,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said with a smile.

Actually, Chu Feng being an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist was only a part of the reason why the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master thought so highly of Chu Feng. Most importantly, it was because Chu Feng had cured his mother’s illness and saved her life.

“Lord Valley Master, then, what happened after that?” Chu Feng asked. He knew that this matter was not resolved.

“Actually, when our Sunset Cloud Valley’s second generation Valley Master became acquainted with Lord Zhan Haichuan, Lord Zhan Haichuan was already in his old age, and nearing the end of his life.”

“Lord Zhan Haichuan said that he had been proud and aloof all his life, and had been unwilling to believe anyone. As such, he had never had a friend his entire life.”

“He said that countless people would think about his inheritance, should he die. As such, he believed that he would not be able to escape his tomb being dug up.”

“However, he did not mind any of that. After all, after death, everything would be gone. Even if what he had accumulated in his entire life was snatched away, what could he possibly do?”

“Lord Zhan Haichuan only hoped that there would be people who would go and offer respects at his grave every year after he died,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Although an exceptional expert like that would be looked up to by others his entire life, it is also destined that he would be lonely his entire life. Perhaps this might not have bothered him in the past, however, when one is about to die, it would naturally change one's frame of mind."

"If I am not mistaken, the Sunset Cloud Valley's second generation Valley Master must have been the person chosen by Zhan Haichuan to offer respects at his grave every year after his death, right?" Chu Feng said.

"Little friend Chu Feng's judgment is truly good," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

Seeing that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had confirmed Chu Feng's guess, the gaze with which Xu Yiyi looked to Chu Feng was immediately filled with little stars. It was a gaze of adoration.

It was not only her; even Elder Ning Shuang looked to Chu Feng with an admiring gaze. The reason for that was because he had been focused on listening the entire time, and hadn't even bothered to think about where the story was going.

As for Chu Feng, he was thinking about all of that at the same time as he was listening. This sort of line of thought was truly not something that ordinary people possessed.

"Could it be that the tomb of that Lord Zhan Haichuan is located in the Sunset Cloud Valley?" Chu Feng asked.

"Indeed," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master nodded. Then, he said, "After that, our Sunset Cloud Valley's successive generations of Valley Masters would always go and offer their respects to Lord Zhan Haichuan's grave every year."

"Furthermore, as per the instructions of our second generation's Valley Master, we would always offer our respects toward the grave at least three times a year."

"However, at the time when our sixth generation Valley Master succeeded the position of Valley Master, a strange thing occurred. Lord Zhan Haichuan's tomb disappeared," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

"Disappeared?" Hearing those words, both Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang were astonished. Although Chu Feng had a relatively calm expression, there was also surprise in his eyes.

"Where was that tomb built? Could it have been discovered by someone and plundered?" Chu Feng asked.

"That tomb was built in our Sunset Cloud Valley's forbidden area. Other than our Sunset Cloud Valley's successive generations of Valley Masters, no one else knew about this matter. Furthermore, no one else had the authority to enter that forbidden area."

"Furthermore, Lord Zhan Haichuan set up many spirit formations in the area. If one were to only offer respects to his tomb, it would be fine. However, if anyone tried to do anything to his tomb, they would trigger those spirit formations guarding the tomb."

"The spirit formations that Lord Zhan Haichuan left behind to guard his tomb are no small matter. If one were to trigger them, our Sunset Cloud Valley's forbidden area would not even be able to withstand the spirit formations. However, our Sunset Cloud Valley's forbidden area is still here. This means that no one has triggered those spirit formations," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

"But, how could a tomb disappear by itself?" Chu Feng said.

"According to our sixth generation Lord Valley Master, he had discovered things that were amiss before he tried to offer his respects to Lord Zhan Haichuan's tomb."

"Thus, our sixth generation Lord Valley Master was determined that the tomb was still inside the forbidden area. Merely, due to the fact that Lord Zhan Haichuan's tomb was too powerful, it might have disappeared because of some unforeseen event."

"However, since the tomb has disappeared, we are thus unable to offer our respects to it. Thus, I wish to request little friend Chu Feng's assistance to see whether or not you might be able to find that tomb again," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

"A tomb that could disappear? That is truly extraordinary. That tomb must have been personally built by that Lord Zhan Haichuan, right?" Chu Feng asked.

"Indeed, it was personally built by Lord Zhan Haichuan," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master nodded.

"Something is definitely fishy regarding this," Chu Feng started to ponder. The reason for that was because a tomb would not disappear without good cause. Chu Feng felt that it might be dangerous if he were to attempt to find the tomb.

Zhan → War/Battle Haichuan → Sea River.

Chapter 2262 – Inside The Forbidden Area

---

At that moment, Eggy's voice sounded. "Chu Feng, how could a tomb possibly disappear by itself without reason or cause?"

"It was either plundered by someone, or that self-proclaimed Ancient Era's War Clan's Zhan Haichuan did not trust the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley, and thus set up some sort of formation on his tomb."

"As soon as the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley possessed an errant heart and intended to open his tomb to obtain his legacy, that tomb would then disappear by itself."

"Thus, it is best that you do not accept this request. You should not involve yourself with this matter,"

"Although that might be the case, it remains that the Sunset Cloud Valley has treated me very well," Chu Feng took a glance at Xu Yiyi.

Chu Feng would never forget that if it wasn't for Xu Yiyi's invitation that day, both he and the Red Butterfly Society would've been exterminated.

Furthermore, if it wasn't for the Death Exemption Title Plate given to him by Xu Yiyi, Chu Feng would have been directly killed by those Law Enforcement Elders at Luyang's Pavilion.

As such, Xu Yiyi could be said to have saved Chu Feng twice. This grace was something that Chu Feng had engraved in his heart.

Furthermore, Chu Feng felt that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master did not seem to be a bad individual. Merely his filial piety toward his mother was already something that Chu Feng admired.

As such, Chu Feng wanted to help them a lot. However, he also felt what Eggy said to be reasonable too.

If the tomb of that Zhan Haichuan had truly concealed itself because the sixth generation Valley Master of the Sunset Cloud Valley had possessed errant thoughts in his heart, if Chu Feng were to find it, it would mean that he had helped evildoers do evil.

However, even though Chu Feng was distrusting of the Sunset Cloud Valley's sixth generation Valley Master, he possessed confidence in the current generation Valley Master.

Thus, Chu Feng said to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, "Lord Valley Master, are you certain that the disappearance of that expert's tomb is unrelated to your Sunset Cloud Valley?"

"Little friend Chu Feng, I understand what you mean by that. Your way of thinking is very normal too."

"However, I will not conceal this matter from you. The sixth generation Valley Master is my master."

"Thus, while I do not dare to vouch for the other Lord Valley Masters, I dare to vouch for my own master."

"With his character, he would definitely not long for Zhan Haichuan's treasures and think of doing things to that tomb."

"Actually, the sixth generation Lord Valley Master, my master, was troubled by this matter the entire time. He felt guilty and depressed for letting the second generation Lord Valley Master and Lord Zhan Haichuan down."

"As such, my master lived for only a short five thousand years before dying."

"Little friend Chu Feng, the final wish that my master had before dying was for me to find Lord Zhan Haichuan's tomb."

"Over the years, I have always been trying to befriend an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. However... Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are truly too snobbish. Truth be told... I do not trust a single one of them."

"However, little friend Chu Feng is different. Even though we have only known one another for a very short period of time, I am able to tell that you possess excellent moral quality.”

“Else, you wouldn’t have risked your life by killing Chu Luyang for the sake of the people from the Red Butterfly Society. After all, no matter what, what flowed in Chu Luyang’s body was the blood of the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Thus, little friend Chu Feng, if possible, I truly hope that you will help me.”

“As long as you are willing to help me, regardless of whether you will succeed or not, I will definitely thank you heavily again,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said to Chu Feng with sincerity all across his face.

“The spirit formations set up by an expert like Zhan Haichuan are most definitely not ordinary spirit formations. A tomb personally established by an expert like Zhan Haizhuan is most definitely an extraordinary tomb.”

“I, Chu Feng, do not have certainty in being able to find the tomb. However, I am willing to give it a try,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, in that case, you’ve agreed to my request?” At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master had an expression of joy all over his face.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded with a smile.

“I will have to inconvenience little friend Chu Feng then,” Upon verifying that Chu Feng had agreed to help, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was immediately overjoyed and unable to conceal his smile.

After that, it was decided that Chu Feng would first stay in the Sunset Cloud Valley to rest for a day, and enjoy the treatment of a distinguished guest.

Early in the morning on the next day, Chu Feng was brought to that forbidden area by the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this is the place where the tomb used to be,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master handed Chu Feng a map.

“Lord Valley Master, you’re not coming with me?” Chu Feng asked.

“Actually, I want to accompany little friend Chu Feng very much. However, it remains that Tuoba Shangshui has committed a crime. As such, I must watch over him.”

“Furthermore, although this is a forbidden area, there are not many dangers inside. Thus, little friend Chu Feng can rest assured.”

“Furthermore, in this period of time, I will give an order telling others that they are not allowed to close off this forbidden area. Thus, you will be able to enter and leave that place at any time.”

“If you are to discover anything amiss, you can come out at any time. I will have Elder Ning Shuang wait for you here. If there is anything, you can inform him about it,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Lord Valley Master, can I accompany Chu Feng inside?” Xu Yiyi asked.

“Cough cough,” Right after Xu Yiyi said those words, Elder Ning Shuang coughed twice. Then, he said, “Yiyi, do not forget that this place is a forbidden area that only Lord Valley Master is allowed to enter.”

“I know, but...” Xu Yiyi revealed a tangled expression. It was not that she didn’t know about the rules of the forbidden area. Merely, she truly wanted to accompany Chu Feng.

“Yiyi, it’s better that you wait for me here,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

Chu Feng didn’t want Xu Yiyi to accompany him because he knew that it would be very likely that he would encounter dangers in trying to find that tomb.

Even if those dangers would only be dangers in terms of world spirit techniques, it remained that Chu Feng would only be able to protect himself. As such, he was worried that Xu Yiyi would encounter dangers should she accompany him inside.

“Okay then,” Seeing that Chu Feng had spoken against it, Xu Yiyi nodded her head in a slightly unwilling manner.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I’ll have to trouble you then,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master clasped his fist toward Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng will definitely do his best,” Chu Feng also returned a clasped fist to the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master.

After that, Chu Feng stepped into the forbidden area by himself.

The forbidden area was very large. It could most definitely be considered an isolated space. It would not be too excessive to say that it was a small world.

Furthermore, it possessed scenery like something out of a painting. Not only were there green hills and clear waters, thick vegetation covered the entire place.

Butterflies were spiraling around flowers as birds sang in the forest.

Occasionally, a little rabbit would leap out from the underbrush, and the silhouette of a sika deer could be seen in the distance.

It had been a very long time since Chu Feng had seen little animals like these. The reason for that was because as Chu Feng’s strength grew stronger, he was only able to see ferocious beasts and monstrous beasts, even in the countryside.

As for those cute little animals, they simply did not possess the ability to survive in those sorts of conditions, and thus had already gone extinct.

“Chu Feng, Chu Feng, let this Queen out,” Suddenly, Her Lady Queen’s voice sounded by Chu Feng’s ears.

Very rarely did Her Lady Queen ask to come out by herself. Chu Feng would naturally not hesitate. He immediately opened his world spirit gate to allow Her Lady Queen out.

Soon, a figure even more beautiful than celestial fairies stepped out from the world spirit gate. She was none other than Her Lady Queen.

At that moment, Her Lady Queen’s hands were on her waist. She closed her eyes and took several long breaths.

Her several breaths caused the butterflies to fly gracefully toward her. They began to revolve around Her Lady Queen.

This sort of scene caught Chu Feng’s gaze. However, Chu Feng’s gaze was mostly focused on Her Lady Queen’s face.

As he looked to the slightly trembling long eyelashes, Chu Feng felt an indescribable sensation.

In short, it was a very pleasant sensation.

“How could this be said to be a forbidden area? This is simply a paradise,” After Eggy opened her eyes, she spoke with a sweet smile.

“The reason this place is deemed to be a forbidden area is precisely because that Zhan Haichuan’s tomb is located here.”

“However, judging from things, it seems that Milady Queen is very fond of this place?” Chu Feng said as he looked at Eggy.

Chapter 2263 – A Cat That Can Speak

---

“I’ve grown tired of looking at rare and unusual plants and flowers. To look at these ordinary plants and flowers gives me a different sort of sensation,” Eggy said. As she said those words, she waved her hand and drove the butterflies hovering around her away.

“Why did you drive them away? They were attracted over by you, you know,” Chu Feng said.

“They’re annoying to see. If it wasn’t for the fact that I’m in a good mood, I would’ve killed them,” Eggy said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s eyebrows narrowed slightly. The reason for that was because he knew that Eggy was not joking with those words. She was truly capable of doing that sort of thing.

At that moment, Chu Feng suddenly recalled that his Queen was not a kind-hearted celestial fairy. Rather, she was a vicious and merciless little demon woman.

“Let’s go. This Queen shall see why a tomb would disappear for no reason,” As Her Lady Queen spoke, she soared into the sky and began to fly toward the depths of the forbidden area.

The direction in which Her Lady Queen flew was the same direction where the tomb had originally been located.

The reason why Her Lady Queen knew about the direction was because she had seen the map that Chu Feng had seen earlier through his eyes.

Although this place was very large, Her Lady Queen’s speed was very fast. On top of that, as they knew their destination, they soon arrived at the place where the tomb had once been.

That place looked excessively ordinary. It was nothing more than a plot of land within the forest.

If it wasn't for the fact that the map indicated that the tomb had been located here, Chu Feng would never have believed that an exceptional expert's tomb would be located in that place.

"Chu Feng, are you able to see anything amiss?" Eggy asked Chu Feng. After arriving here, Chu Feng had been inspecting the surroundings with his Heaven's Eyes the entire time.

And now, Chu Feng had already inspected this place for an entire hour now.

"No, I am unable to determine anything," Chu Feng said.

"Then what are we to do?" Eggy asked.

"I can only use spirit formations to test things out," Chu Feng said as he started to set up a spirit formation.

Meanwhile, in the forest was a large yellow-colored cat. That cat was lying lazily on top of a tree branch.

That cat did not appear to be extraordinary at all; it resembled all of the other animals in the forest. Merely, that cat had been staring at Chu Feng and Eggy the entire time.

When Chu Feng began to set up his spirit formation and unleash a boundless amount of Insect Mark Immortal-level spirit power, the cat's eyes actually started to shine. Then, it began to look at Chu Feng even more earnestly.

As for Chu Feng, he did not notice that abnormal cat. Instead, he continued to wholeheartedly set up his spirit formation.

However, after Chu Feng finished setting up his spirit formation, and after the spirit formation began to flicker with light from its activation, a disappointed expression appeared in Chu Feng's eyes.

It was useless. He was unable to discover where the tomb had gone to with his Heaven's Eyes.

As for his spirit formation, it too was unable to discover where the tomb had disappeared to.

It was as if the tomb has never been there. Chu Feng was simply unable to detect it at all.

“Didn’t work again?” Eggy asked.

“No, I must try again.” Chu Feng was unwilling to give up. He racked his brains and thought up a new spirit formation.

Chu Feng felt that he might be able to find some clues should he use his Heaven’s Eyes alongside that spirit formation.

“Meow~~~ it’s useless,” At the moment when Chu Feng was about to try again, a voice that sounded like a cat’s, yet was still speaking in human speech, suddenly sounded from behind Chu Feng.

Chu Feng hurriedly turned his gaze toward the voice. He discovered that there was a yellow cat lying on top of a large tree branch.

Although that cat’s size was not enormously large, it was very fat. Furthermore, it was a very old cat. Its yellow fur had already faded. Although it was yellow, its fur was more whitish in color.

In short, that cat did not possess a fond-looking appearance. It could be considered to be a relatively ugly cat.

However, that cat possessed intelligence. At that moment, it was looking at Chu Feng and Eggy.

Before Chu Feng could say anything, Her Lady Queen asked curiously, “Were you the one speaking earlier?”

“You don’t say! If it wasn’t this great sir who spoke, could it instead be you, silly girl, who spoke?” That cat-like human-like voice sounded again. Merely, this time around, Chu Feng and Eggy clearly saw that the voice originated from that old cat’s mouth.

“Wow! This is interesting. Such an ugly cat is actually capable of human speech,” Her Lady Queen acted as if she had seen a treasure. She leapt before the cat, grabbed the cat’s tail and held it up.

“Release this great sir, you damned silly girl. Do you know who I am?” That old cat extended its sharp claws and began to frantically claw at Her Lady Queen.

Speaking of it, that old cat was truly ferocious. The place where it aimed its claws at was actually Her Lady Queen’s exceptionally beautiful, fair, soft and tender cheeks. It was simply trying to ruin Her Lady Queen’s face.

However, even though the old cat was capable of speech, it evidently did not possess any cultivation. Apart from being able to speak, it was no different from an ordinary cat.

Thus, it was completely toyed around with by Her Lady Queen, and unable to reach Her Lady Queen with its claws at all. It was truly a miserable sight.

“Chu Feng, this is the first time that I’ve seen a cat that can speak. I wonder what a cat like this would taste like. How about the two of us make it into a stew to test out its flavor?” Her Lady Queen said with a beaming smile.

“Don’t, don’t, don’t!” Hearing those words, that old cat was immediately worried. It hurriedly said to Chu Feng, “Boy, quickly have this damned silly girl release this great sir. This great sir is capable of helping you find that tomb.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s gaze changed. With a cold tone, he asked, “You know that I have come to find the tomb?”

“You don’t say! If you didn’t come here to find the tomb, why did you come to this place to set up a spirit formation to search for the tomb?” The old cat said.

“Exactly what are you?” Chu Feng asked.

“Have this damned silly girl release this great sir first,” The old cat howled.

In response, Chu Feng signaled Eggy with his eyes. After Eggy released the cat, Chu Feng continued to ask, “Go ahead, tell me exactly what you are and why you are capable of human speech. Furthermore, why are you here, and what do you know about that tomb?”

“What am I?”

“Haha, I fear that I will scare you to death if I am to tell you,” At that moment, that old cat revealed a cheshire grin on its face. It was an extremely complacent smile.

“Paa~~~”

However, before it could even finish saying its following words, Eggy slapped down with her palm. Her palm ruthlessly landed on that old cat’s head.

Her palm not only smashed that old cat to the ground, it also caused that old cat’s eyes to flicker with stars. That old cat nearly fainted on the spot.

“When you’re being questioned, answer quickly. Do not bother with superfluous words. Else, do you believe that this Queen will make you into stew?” Her Lady Queen said ruthlessly.

“You damned silly girl. It is only now that you dare to bully this great sir.”

“Had it been before, a single fart from this great sir would have been able to kill a thousand of you.”

“No, not a thousand, but rather ten thousand, a hundred million even,” The old cat said very angrily.

“Aiya, you dare talk back? Watch how this Queen will take care of you,” As Her Lady Queen spoke, she planned to attack the old cat again.

“Eggy,” In response, Chu Feng hurriedly stopped Eggy. As he spoke, he also pulled the cat away from Eggy and behind him.

Regardless of whether or not that old cat knew about the situation there, Chu Feng knew that Eggy was definitely capable of smashing the old cat to pieces with her palm.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng did not want the old cat to die yet.

Perhaps this cat would truly be crucial to finding the tomb.

After all, for a talking cat like this to appear in a place like this was already something extremely strange.

“We actually do not have any malice at all. We merely wish to ask about the state of affairs in regards to that tomb, as well as why you would be here,” Chu Feng asked that old cat.

“Mn, boy, your attitude is pretty decent. Since that’s the case, this great sir shall tell you about it.”

“This great sir has been here for many years now.”

“However, that’s not important. What’s important is... you need to know that this great sir used to be extremely powerful. Furthermore, this great sir knows how to find that tomb,” The old cat said.

Chapter 2264 – Cunning

---

“In that case, may I know what I must do in order to find that disappeared tomb?” Chu Feng asked.

“That is a very simple question. You just need to go there to find it,” The old cat pointed to the southeastern forest.

“There?” Chu Feng was hesitant.

At that moment, the old cat began to walk in that direction. It pointed to the land below its paws and said, “The tomb is located here.”

“It’s best you don’t deceive me. There is simply nothing there,” Chu Feng said.

Chu Feng was not saying those words irresponsibly. Instead, he had already used his Heaven’s Eyes to inspect that area, and did not detect anything strange in that place.

“Boy, this great sir would not deceive you. Merely, your world spirit techniques are truly too weak. With your world spirit techniques, it is simply impossible for you to find the tomb,” The old cat said.

“You are the first that dared to say that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques are lacking after seeing him use his world spirit techniques. Damned cat, you are clearly pretending to understand when you don’t,” Eggy revealed a cold gaze in her eyes. She did not believe what the old cat said.

“Are you saying his world spirit techniques are not lacking? If his world spirit techniques are not lacking, there is simply no need for me to tell him where the tomb is, he would be able to find it himself. Furthermore, he would also be able to summon that tomb,” The old cat said.

“Could it be that you know how to find the tomb?” Chu Feng asked.

“Of course. This great sir will teach you a spirit formation. With that, you will be able to reveal the tomb.”

“Of course, this great sir will not help you without reason. You must first agree to one thing,” The old cat said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“Do you have any cigarettes?” The old cat asked.

“Cigarettes?” Chu Feng was confused.

“From the way you reacted, it seems like you don’t smoke. But, you should have seen a tobacco pipe before, right? Make a pipe for this great sir.”

“Oh, that’s right. Make it according to this dimension, this composition and this appearance,” As the old cat spoke, it began to use its claw to sketch out the appearance and composition of the tobacco pipe. Soon, it finished its sketch.

“Yoh, you’re quite skillful,” In response, Her Lady Queen was unable to keep herself from voicing a bit of praise.

The reason for that was because the old cat’s sketch was not only very detailed, the old cat also finished the sketch very quickly.

Not to mention a cat, even for a martial cultivator, something like drawing a design that detailed would be very difficult to accomplish.

From merely that point, one could determine that this cat was truly extraordinary.

“Boy, what are you still standing there for? Quickly, go and make one such pipe for this great sir,” That old cat began to boss Chu Feng around.

“Hey, damned cat, you’re looking for a beating!” In response, Her Lady Queen was angered. She raised her hand with the intention of beating the old cat.

However, Chu Feng stopped her again. Then, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and a small amount of Immortal-level spirit power appeared. In the blink of an eye, that small amount of spirit power took form of a tobacco pipe.

That tobacco pipe soon condensed into an actual pipe. One simply could not tell that it was formed with spirit power. Furthermore, its measurements and appearance were exactly the same as the sketch from that old cat.

However, when that immaculate tobacco pipe reached the old cat's grasp, "It's decent enough" was the only evaluation Chu Feng received.

"As you're a world spiritist, you most definitely possess Spirit Loosening Herb. Give some to this grand sir," The old cat began to boss Chu Feng around again. It was acting as if it were truly a great sir.

As for Chu Feng, he was not angered by the old cat. He took out several bits of Spirit Loosening Herb and handed them to the old cat.

The old cat placed the Spirit Loosening Herbs onto the ground. Then, it said, "Dry them up."

Chu Feng continued doing as the old cat ordered. After all, to Chu Feng, those things were simply extremely easy to accomplish. At the very least, they were much easier to do than setting up spirit formations.

"Give me a Cosmos Sack," The old cat said.

Chu Feng was not stingy. He took out an empty Cosmos Sack and handed it directly to the old cat.

Then, that old cat hung the Cosmos Sack around its neck and began to remove the leaves from the Spirit Loosening Herb before stuffing them into the Cosmos Sack.

After that, the old cat took a small portion of the Spirit Loosening Herb and stuffed it into the tobacco pipe. Then, it said to Chu

Feng, "Light it."

Chu Feng pointed at the tobacco pipe with his finger, and a spark fell into the tobacco pipe. After the Spirit Loosening Herb's leaves were ignited, a smoke began to rise.

As for that old cat, it began to suck on the tobacco pipe in a very familiar manner. Not only was the old cat sucking on the pipe, it was also blowing out smoke.

The smoke was coming out from both his mouth and his nose. In fact, that old cat was capable of even changing the shape of the smoke to all kinds of different shapes.

As the old cat continued to suck on the pipe, it closed its eyes. It was truly taking pleasure in it.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt even more that the old cat was extraordinary. It was not only because it was smoking like an experienced individual.

For one, although Chu Feng knew that the Spirit Loosening Herb was a medicinal herb, he only knew that its roots were useful and thought the leaves to not be of much use at all.

However, he truly never expected that one could smoke the leaves of the Spirit Loosening Herb like tobacco. Furthermore, the smell of the Spirit Loosening Herb was much more fragrant than tobacco.

"The Spirit Loosening Herb's medicinal usage is not much. However, when smoking it like tobacco, it can barely pass," The old cat said while enjoying the pleasures of his smoking.

"Are you able to tell me how to find the tomb now?" Chu Feng asked.

"Of course not. You still haven't agreed to help me yet," The old cat said.

"Are you to saying that this smoke is not enough?" Chu Feng

said.

“Of course not. It is merely smoke. You wish to obtain the whereabouts of the tomb from me with merely smoke? You are truly getting carried away by your wishful thinking, no?” The old cat cast a gaze of contempt at Chu Feng.

“Very well. Go ahead and tell me what you want me to help you with,” Chu Feng said.

“Is the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple still present?” The old cat asked.

“It is,” Chu Feng said.

“Then go to Buddha’s Heavenly Temple and find their current Abbot. Tell him that their founder, Lord Tiger, is trapped in this place. Tell him to find at least ten Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists and have them come here to save me,” The old cat said.

“Hahaha, Lord Tiger? You’re clearly an old and lousy cat. There’s an enormous difference between you and a tiger, no?” At that moment, Eggy started to laugh at the old cat’s remarks.

However, Chu Feng had a very serious expression on his face. The reason for that was because he felt that the cat’s bearing, as well as the tone that it spoke with, both seemed to indicate that it was not joking around or lying.

Could it be that this cat was truly the founder of the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple? If that was real, wouldn’t it be too ridiculous?

Buddha’s Heavenly Temple was a sacred place devoted to Buddhism. How could its founder be a cat?

At that moment, Chu Feng began to size up the old cat once again. However, no matter how he looked at the cat, it only resembled an ordinary cat to him.

However, the old cat was clearly extremely extraordinary. At the very least, the fact that it could speak was already extremely extraordinary.

This made Chu Feng realize that he was simply unable to see through that cat.

“Are you truly the founder of Buddha’s Heavenly Temple?” Chu Feng asked.

“This great sir would never lie,” The old cat replied.

“Then why are you trapped here?” Chu Feng asked.

“Is there even a need to ask? It’s naturally because of the treasures here,” Eggy said.

“Humph, damned silly girl, you are truly looking down on me too excessively, no?” The old cat laughed disdainfully. Then, it turned to Chu Feng and said, “Boy, if you are to help this great sir, after I get out of here, I will definitely have the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple protect you.”

“Even if what you say is the truth, I am still unable to help you just like this. The reason for that is because I am uncertain if what you are saying is true or false. After all, the current you is without any cultivation at all,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s simple. I’ll tell you some secrets regarding Buddha’s Heavenly Temple,” The old cat said indifferently.

“First, I do not have much of an understanding toward Buddha’s Heavenly Temple. Next, I am not interested in the secrets of Buddha’s Heavenly Temple,” Chu Feng said.

“Then what do you want?” The old cat asked.

“How about this: you tell me how to find the tomb first. If what you tell me is useful, I will then go and find the people from Buddha’s Heavenly Temple to bring them here,” Chu Feng said.

“That won’t do. What if I am to tell you how to find the tomb, but then you decide to refuse to find people from Buddha’s Heavenly Temple?” The old cat had a disbelieving expression on its face. Cunning was written all over it.

Chapter 2265 – Situation Turning Bad

---

“If you refuse to tell me, it would mean that you are deceiving me,” Chu Feng said.

“Are you threatening me?” The old cat’s eyes narrowed as it started at Chu Feng.

“No, it’s not a threat. Rather, I am just waiting for your decision,” Chu Feng also narrowed his eyes as he revealed a slight smile.

At that moment, Chu Feng and the old cat were looking at one another. Neither one of them said anything.

Just like that, the two continued to look at one another for a long time.

After a while, the old cat was finally unable to contain itself. It said, “Forget about it, forget about it. Seeing that you are someone of the younger generation, this great sir will yield to you and help you find that tomb first.”

The old cat began to act immediately after it said those words. After agreeing to help Chu Feng find the tomb, it immediately leapt onto that empty field.

Then, its two claws began to move about in unison. In a very experienced manner, the old cat began to draw the diagram for a spirit formation.

As the saying goes, one would know whether someone was an expert the moment they unleashed their skill. When the old cat unleashed its skill, even Chu Feng’s eyes started to shine brightly.

In fact, even Her Lady Queen, who had been making remarks at the old cat the entire time, revealed an astonished expression in her beautiful eyes.

“I truly couldn’t tell that even though that cat is ugly, its knowledge of world spirit techniques is quite profound,” Her Lady Queen was unable to contain herself, and started to praise the old cat.

Chu Feng nodded in agreement to Her Lady Queen’s praise.

Amazing. The spirit formation diagram the old cat was outlining was that of an extremely powerful spirit formation. It was a spirit formation that even Chu Feng felt he might not be able to see through. The composition of that spirit formation had actually surpassed all of the spirit formations that Chu Feng had previously grasped.

That spirit formation was an extremely powerful unsealing formation. It was a spirit formation that was extremely difficult to set up.

The amazing aspect of that old cat was that it had managed to sketch out the diagram of that extremely difficult-to-set-up unsealing formation into a diagram that was much easier to understand.

If knowing about that spirit formation and being able to outline a diagram to show how to set it up was the old cat’s ability, then the fact that the old cat was able to make the outline diagram for a spirit formation that was extremely difficult to set up much easier would mean that the old cat was extremely skillful.

.....

At the same time. Outside the forbidden area. The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, who had originally stayed in his own residence, had arrived at another forbidden area in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

This place was a special location for the important people in the Sunset Cloud Valley to undergo closed-door training.

The reason why he had come here so urgently was because Xu Yiyi’s master, Su Jingrui, had just come out from his closed-door training.

He wanted to know whether or not Su Jingrui had truly ordered Chu Luyang that he was not allowed to attack the Red Butterfly Society again. He also wanted to know whether those Law Enforcement Elders were present when those words were said.

“Truly outrageous! Their crimes cannot be forgiven!!!”

Suddenly, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master let out a shout of overflowing anger.

Although he trusted Xu Yiyi, Elder Ning Shuang and Chu Feng, he also trusted Li Rui’s master, as well as his Law Enforcement Department’s Elders.

Thus, to a greater or lesser degree, he still had suspicions in his heart, and could not be absolutely certain about the truth of the situation.

This was also the reason why he had not severely punished Li Rui’s master or the Law Enforcement Elders on the spot.

However, after hearing Su Jingrui’s accounting of the matter, the truth had been revealed. As for that result, it was something that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master found difficult to accept.

After all, he had placed enormous trust in Li Rui’s master and those Law Enforcement Department’s Elders.

“I was truly blind to entrust such a heavy amount of power to him.”

“I am fortunate to have discovered this matter. If I didn’t, who knows how many more people he would have ended up killing?”

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master suddenly had a sensation of a sudden realization. The reason for that was because it was not the first time that something like this had happened.

In the past, he had chosen to believe in Li Rui’s master. However, after what had happened today, he suddenly felt that all his previous decisions had been mistakes.

“Lord Valley Master, these things have already happened. Even if you are to blame yourself now, it would be useless. Right now, your top priority should be to punish Tuoba Shangshui accordingly and choose a new Head Elder for the Law Enforcement Department.”

“Someone like Tuoba Shangshui absolutely cannot be allowed to hold heavy responsibility again,” Su Jingrui said.

“Elder Su, how do you think I should punish Tuoba Shangshui?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“You are the Valley Master. Thus, you should be the one to decide,” Su Jingrui smiled lightly.

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master looked to his surroundings. After he confirmed that there was no one in the surroundings, he said to Su Jingrui, “Senior brother, there are no outsiders here. So, just put forth a proposal for your junior brother.”

“You still consider me as your senior brother?” Su Jingrui smiled lightly. However, his smile contained a special meaning.

“Senior brother, it remains that I am currently the Valley Master. As such, for certain things, I must consider the general situation. However, in my heart, you have always been my senior brother,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master actually bowed respectfully to Su Jingrui after he finished saying those words.

In response, Su Jingrui sighed. Then, he said, “I had already told you that Tuoba Shangshui had issues with his character. Yet, you insisted on putting him in an important position.”

“Senior brother, it was you who did not want to bother with the affairs of our Sunset Cloud Valley. Otherwise, the position of the Head Law Enforcement Elder was definitely going to be yours.

How could he possibly have had the chance to become the Head Law Enforcement Elder?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Are you implying that it’s my fault?” Su Jingrui cast a side eye at the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master.

“This junior brother did not mean that,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said with a slightly apologetic tone. Although he was the Lord Valley Master and held a high status, he did not possess the arrogance of a Valley Master before Su Jingrui. Instead, he possessed the humility of a junior brother.

“The rules established by our founder cannot be altered. Not to mention that Tuoba Shangshui had a problem with his moral character, even if he was an outstanding talent, he cannot be tolerated after making this sort of mistake.”

“You should kill him,” Su Jingrui said.

“This...” Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master entered a difficult situation.

He understood all of it. Merely, it was as Su Jingrui had said, he was reluctant to kill Tuoba Shangshui.

“How about this? As long as you’re willing to kill him, I am willing to take on the position of the Head Law Enforcement Elder,” Su Jingrui said.

“Senior brother, you should’ve said so sooner,” Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master immediately revealed an overjoyed expression. He said, “Like this, when little friend Chu Feng comes out, I will immediately execute Tuoba Shangshui, as well as his henchmen, as per the rules of our Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“This would also be the perfect timing to curb the unhealthy air brewing in our Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“It seems that you possess eyesight like Yiyi, and think very highly of that Chu Feng,” Su Jingrui said with a smile.

“Now that you mention it, Yiyi’s eyesight is truly decent. That Chu Feng is truly a rare talent. Unfortunately, he will not be able to be utilized by our Sunset Cloud Valley,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“His talent is indeed decent. However, to say that he’s a talent, wouldn’t that be a bit excessive?” Su Jingrui said.

“Senior brother, you have been in closed-door training the entire time, and don’t know about what has happened in this short period of time. That Chu Feng became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist on Mount Cloud Crane.”

“Have you ever met an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist as young as him?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“He became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Hearing those words, Su Jingrui was very shocked.

“Furthermore, I have personally seen his world spirit techniques. My mother’s illness has been thoroughly cured by him,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“That is truly a good thing,” After knowing that the Valley Master’s mother’s illness had been cured, Su Jingrui revealed a joyous expression. He then said, “In that case, it would seem that Chu Feng is truly a talent.”

“Lord Valley Master, this is bad!” Right at that moment, a management elder rushed over anxiously.

“What has happened?” In response, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master’s expression changed. The reason for that was because that management elder was the person that he had ordered to secretly monitor the Law Enforcement Department.

“Elder Tuoba, he, he charged into the forbidden area,” That management elder said.

“Which forbidden area?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Chu Feng, it’s the forbidden area Chu Feng is in.”

“Not only has he entered the forbidden area, he has also captured Elder Ning Shuang and Xu Yiyi,” That management elder said.

“What?” Hearing those words, the expressions of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui both changed enormously.

Chapter 2266 – Strange Smile

---

“Why would he enter the forbidden area? Furthermore, how did he know that Chu Feng had entered that forbidden area?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Regarding that, this subordinate does not know about it. Merely, after he rushed out, he injured the elder that Lord Valley Master ordered to watch over him, and then began to directly proceed for that forbidden area,” That management elder said.

“Which forbidden area?” Su Jingrui hurriedly asked. At that moment, his face was also covered with nervousness. While he might not be worried for the safety of others, it would be impossible for him to not worry about Xu Yiyi’s safety.

“Follow me,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master did not bother with any more superfluous words. His body shifted as he soared into the sky. Su Jingrui followed closely behind him.

Merely, after the two of them arrived at the forbidden area, their expressions changed enormously once again. The reason for that was because they were surprised to discover that the entrance to that forbidden area was actually sealed.

Furthermore, the management elders in charge of guarding this forbidden area had all been injured.

Upon seeing that, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master hurriedly took out a world spirit key with the intention of opening the sealed entrance. However, it was only when he attempted to open the gate that he discovered that his world spirit key had been rendered useless.

“Damn it! That Tuoba Shangshui actually struck me first,” At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master revealed an even more furious expression. In fact, his surging killing intent had also appeared.

“What’s wrong? Could it be that you’re unable to open the gate?” Su Jingrui asked.

“Back then, there was some issue with this forbidden area’s entrance gate. Back then, I ordered Tuoba Shangshui to request many Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists to repair the gate.”

“Logically, my key should definitely be able to open the gate. However, it is unable to open the gate now. This definitely means that Tuoba Shangshui did something back then,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Regardless of how many Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists there might be, it remains that they are only Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists. As such, how could they possibly repair a gate like this?” Su Jingrui revealed a puzzled expression.

The reason for that was because Su Jingrui truly felt that the forbidden area’s entrance gate was extremely firm, something that even he would not be able to break through.

A gate like that would be impossible for Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists to construct. In fact, they might not even be able to make repairs to it.

“Senior brother, you don’t know about this. There are a lot of secrets concerning this,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master revealed a difficult expression.

Under normal circumstances, it would be true that Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists would not be able to make repairs to such a gate.

However, that expert Zhan Haichuan seemed to know that this forbidden area’s gate would have issues after a long time, so he deliberately imparted a method to allow even Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritists to make repairs to the gate.

Merely, Su Jingrui did not know about the things regarding Zhan Haichuan, and it would not be suitable for the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master to explain this matter to Su Jingrui right now.

“There's no other way around it. As human life is beyond value, we must force our way through.”

“The two of us shall attack it in turn. We will definitely be able to break through this gate. Merely, after we break through the gate, I fear that there will not be anyone capable of making another such gate for this forbidden area,” Su Jingrui said to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master.

In fact, Su Jingrui felt this to be the only method to solve the situation at hand. However, he was worried that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master would disagree to his method. That was the reason why he mentioned it with a consulting tone.

Although the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was his junior brother, Su Jingrui knew that his junior brother was extremely stubborn.

As for this forbidden area, it has been with their Sunset Cloud Valley for a very long time. The entrance gate to that forbidden area could be said to be the remnants of their ancestors.

Although they were tasked with an extremely important task right now, and must charge into the forbidden area, it remained that Su Jingrui was afraid that his junior brother would refuse to agree to breaking the gate.

“There's no other alternative. Senior brother, please step aside; I'll attack the gate first.”

To Su Jingrui's surprise, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master not only did not refuse his proposal, he did not even hesitate in the slightest.

As he spoke, he had unleashed a sledgehammer glimmering with a red sheen, and began to smash it at the forbidden area's entrance gate.

“Boom~~~”

Once that hammer strike was unleashed, rumbles resonated all over. The surrounding space was shattered by the impact of the hammer. The sky turned dusky as a dazzling red light scattered in all directions.

The might of the hammer was truly frightening. It was no longer something that an Incomplete Ancestral Armament could compare with.

The reason for that was because this hammer was simply not an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Rather, it was an Ancestral Armament, an actual Ancestral Armament.

However, an attack that powerful only caused that forbidden area's entrance to tremble slightly. Other than that weak tremble, not even a single crack appeared on the gate.

From this, it could be seen that the gate was extremely firm.

“All of you, step back,” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said to the elders behind him.

Actually, those elders were afraid of being injured by the energy ripples from their Valley Master's attacks, and had already moved far away.

Upon hearing what the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said, they rushed further away. The reason for that was because they knew that their Lord Valley Master might end up using even more powerful attacks now.

“Emperor Taboo Martial Skill: Ten Thousand Beasts Gale Strike!!!”

Sure enough, after the elders moved far away, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master held his Ancestral Armament and drew support from the Ancestral Armament's power to unleash an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

Extremely ferocious beasts formed from gale-force winds began to appear, numbering over ten thousand.

At that moment, those ferocious beasts were pounding themselves against the entrance gate in succession. Their might was so strong and their attacks so imposing that they left this region in a state akin to hell.

Being bombarded with that sort of ferocious attack, tiny cracks finally began to appear on the entrance gate. Furthermore, the cracks began to grow in number.

.....

At the same time. Inside the forbidden area. A dazzling spirit formation appeared.

It was a majestic grand formation. The spirit formation was standing within the forest.

Inside the spirit formation was a pagoda. Surrounding the pagoda were twenty four beastmen holding giant swords in their hands.

They were so vivid and lifelike that they simply appeared no different from actually being alive. However... they were not real. Rather, they were only beings formed by the spirit formation.

The reason for that was because after that spirit formation was activated, both the pagoda and the twenty four sword-holding beastmen began to emit light specific to Immortal-level spirit power. Furthermore, that light was growing brighter and brighter.

“Chu Feng, why am I feeling that this spirit formation is somewhat fishy?” Her Lady Queen sent a secret voice transmission to Chu Feng.

“I also feel it to be somewhat fishy. However, as we have already come this far, we can only give it a try.”

“Eggy, watch that old cat for me. If it tries to do anything amiss, stop it immediately,” Chu Feng replied to Eggy through a voice transmission.

“No problem,” Her Lady Queen extended her hand and grabbed. Immediately, that old cat was within her grasp.

“Meow~, damned silly girl, what are you doing? Release this great sir!” The old cat was displeased, and started to loudly and frantically shout at Eggy.

“Damned cat, this Queen does not trust you. If your spirit formation is capable of summoning that tomb, then it will be fine. If your spirit formation cannot summon the tomb, this Queen will give you a taste of a feeling worse than dying,” Her Lady Queen said coldly.

“Damned silly girl, you dare to threaten this great sir?! You two are simply biting the hand of your benefactor! You two are simply devoid of conscience!” The old cat’s shouts grew louder. Its voice was starting to tremble slightly. It could be seen that it was also very afraid of Her Lady Queen.

“Rest assured, if your spirit formation works, this Queen will not make things difficult for you,” In response, Her Lady Queen revealed a pleased smile.

However, neither Chu Feng nor Eggy noticed that the old cat also revealed a slight smile as the light of the spirit formation grew brighter and brighter.

As for that smile, it was very strange.

Chapter 2267 – Do You Need My Assistance?

---

The spirit formation grew more and more powerful. It was as if a bright sun had appeared in the forest as it illuminated the surroundings.

At that moment, the power of that spirit formation had reached its peak.

“Snap~~~”

Suddenly, the twenty four giant beastmen in the spirit formation waved their enormous swords at the pagoda in the middle of the spirit formation in unison.

“Boom~~~”

As the giant swords struck down, the spirit formation was immediately shattered into a vortex of spirit power that began to spin and revolve in that region as they assimilated into the earth.

“Crap, we’ve been duped!”

Seeing that scene, Chu Feng’s gaze immediately changed. He had already noticed that the situation was amiss.

There was simply no such so-called tomb here. As for the spirit formation that Chu Feng had set up earlier, it seemed to be an unsealing formation. Just then, it seemed to have split open another spirit formation.

What was going to be released by that spirit formation?

“Why did you deceive me?” Chu Feng revealed a furious expression as he asked that damned cat.

“Boy, it seems too late for you to only realize it right now,” The damned cat had a half smile of a successful plot on its face.

“You dared deceive us? I’ll kill you,” In response, Her Lady Queen immediately unleashed overwhelming killing intent. As she spoke, she planned to rip the old cat in her hand to pieces.

“Roar~~~”

However, right at that moment, a roar was heard. Following that, a boundless power surged forth from the ground.

At the moment that boundless power appeared, a boundlessly powerful oppressive might surrounded that region of space.

At that moment, not to mention Chu Feng, even Her Lady Queen was unable to move in the slightest. The two of them had their movements restricted by that strange yet powerful oppressive might.

The next moment, Chu Feng and Eggy were able to see with their naked eyes bodies of energy rushing out from the bottom of the ground and entering that old cat's body.

That sort of situation persisted for two entire hours. That region of space only calmed down after two hours passed.

Chu Feng and Eggy finally regained their ability to move at that point.

However, neither Chu Feng nor Eggy dared to attack the old cat again.

Not only did the two of them not dare to attack the old cat, the always violent Lady Queen actually released the old cat of her own accord.

The reason for that was because they were able to feel an extremely frightening aura from that old cat. It was an inestimable aura.

Powerful, that old cat was extremely powerful. Its strength was many times more powerful than that of the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master. Perhaps that old cat might be a True Immortal-level existence.

It was simply no longer a question of whether or not Chu Feng and Eggy wanted to kill the old cat anymore. Rather, they simply did not possess the strength to kill that old cat.

“Don’t be afraid, I will not kill you two. No matter what, the two of you could be considered to have helped me. If it wasn’t for the two of you, I would not have been able to regain my cultivation,” The old cat said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

As it spoke, it picked up the tobacco pipe that had fallen to the ground earlier and began to draw smoke from it once again.

At that moment, the old cat possessed the strength to instantly kill Chu Feng and Eggy. However, from its appearance, it seemed that the old cat truly did not plan to kill Chu Feng and Eggy.

“What’s wrong? Frightened to a speechless state?”

“Don’t be scared. I said that I wouldn’t kill you two, so I will definitely not kill you two. After all, this great sir always keeps his promises.”

“Although that damned silly girl was very disrespectful towards this great sir earlier, this great sir has decided to spare her by taking you into consideration boy,” The old cat said to Chu Feng.

After it finished saying those words, it smiled a profound smile and said, “Asura World Spiritist, never would I have imagined that an Asura World Spiritist would appear in this place where even birds don’t shit. That is quite rare indeed.”

“Exactly who are you?” Chu Feng asked. He became even more certain that this old cat was extraordinary. Likely, he would be a grand character.

“Humph, if I were to tell you who this great sir is, I fear that I will scare you to death. However, in a place like this where even birds don’t shit, I bet you’ve never heard of this great sir’s accomplishments. Thus, I will not bother to tell you about them.”

“You merely need to know that you have helped this great sir earlier,” The old cat said with a beaming smile.

“Is the disappearance of Lord Zhan Haichuan’s tomb related to you?” Chu Feng asked.

“Of course it’s related to me. His tomb has been plundered by this great sir. However, this great sir had underestimated him, and ended up being caught by his trap.”

“Fortunately, this great sir is very agile. Only my cultivation ended up being sealed, while my physical body managed to escape. Else, I would’ve already been killed,” That old cat said.

The things spoken by the old cat finally allowed Chu Feng to know the truth.

“How did you know that Lord Zhan Haichuan’s tomb was located here?” Chu Feng continued to ask.

“There is no such thing as a wall that doesn’t leak air in this world. Since this great sir wanted to find out where Zhan Haichuan was, I was naturally able to.”

“However, Zhan Haichuan was truly a top tier character. Even though he had already been dead for many years, this great sir was still made a fool of by him. From my moment of carelessness, I actually ended up being sealed here by him for over two thousand years.”

“If it wasn’t for the appearance of you, boy, this great sir might have to be trapped here for even longer,” The old cat looked to Chu Feng with a beaming smile. His tone was filled with gratefulness.

However, facing the old cat’s gratefulness, Chu Feng felt a sensation of guilt. As matters stood, he was certain that this old cat was the tomb raider.

However, even though this old cat had successfully robbed Zhan Haichuan’s tomb, it had also been caught in Zhan Haichuan’s spirit formation. This had led to its martial cultivation being sealed and it being trapped here, unable to escape.

As for Chu Feng, he had been taken advantage of by this old cat, and ended up undoing the seal on its cultivation to allow it to regain its freedom.

Most importantly, this old cat was truly too powerful. Even the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master would not be a match for it.

Thus, even though Chu Feng now knew that Zhan Haichuan's tomb had been robbed by this old cat, there was nothing that he or the Sunset Cloud Valley could do to the old cat.

"Chu Feng, get the hell out here! Else, I will kill Xu Yiyi and Ning Shuang!"

"Speak immediately! I know that you're here! Aren't you a loyal and true individual?! Are you planning to watch as your friends meet miserable deaths by my hand?!"

Right at that moment, thunderous voices began to sound from the distance. At the beginning, the voices were quite indistinct. However, later on, they grew more and more distinct.

Hearing that voice, Chu Feng's expression immediately changed. The reason for that was because he was already able to tell that it was Li Rui's master's voice.

"How could this happen?!"

Upon sensing that the situation was amiss, Chu Feng hurriedly looked into the distance with his Heaven's Eyes. Upon inspecting the situation, Chu Feng grew even more nervous.

Not only did Chu Feng see Li Rui's master, he also saw Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang. At that moment, both Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang were tied up with special chains.

Not only were their limbs restricted, the chains were also over their necks. As for the other end of those chains, they were in Li Rui's master's hand.

At that moment, Li Rui's master acted as if he were pulling dogs along as he pulled Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang around.

“That bastard!” Chu Feng was furious. He planned to soar into the sky to confront Li Rui’s master.

“Chu Feng, don’t go. You will only be throwing your life away,” Her Lady Queen grabbed Chu Feng and advised him against it.

“Eggy, I cannot do nothing,” Chu Feng said.

“But, even if you are to go, you will only be throwing your life away,” Eggy said.

“Mn?” Seeing the argument between Chu Feng and Eggy, that old cat turned its gaze toward the direction of Li Rui’s master. Then, with a beaming smile, it said, “Boy, you seem to have encountered troubles. Do you need this great sir’s assistance?”

Place where even birds don’t shit → extremely desolate place.

Chapter 2268 – Kowtow And Beg For Forgiveness

---

Before Chu Feng could say anything, Her Lady Queen asked, “You’re willing to help?”

“Little girl, as long as you’re willing to apologize for your rudeness earlier, this great sir will be willing to help you all take care of that little trash,” The old cat smiled mischievously as he said those words.

“Lord Tiger, this little girl was in the wrong earlier. I hope that Lord Tiger will not take offense,” Surprisingly, right after that old cat said those words, Eggy bowed to the old cat.

“And here I thought that this great sir was already shameless enough. Never would I expect that you, silly little girl, would be even more shameless than me,” At that moment, black lines ran down the old cat’s forehead. It had truly never expected that the incomparably rude and unreasonable Eggy would have no moral integrity at all.

“Lord Tiger, this little girl has already acknowledged my mistake. Would you be willing to properly teach that old codger a lesson?” Eggy continued. She smiled very sweetly, making it impossible for others to find an excuse to refuse her.

“Little girl, although you are truly lacking in moral integrity, this great sir is fond of that. As such, this great sir will help you,” The old cat laughed mischievously. Then, let out a loud shout, “Hey! The person you’re trying to find is here!”

“What are you doing?” At that moment, Her Lady Queen became anxious.

The reason for that was because she discovered that not only had that old cat betrayed their location, it had also used its oppressive might to restrict their mobility.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Eggie were simply unable to move at all. They could only wait for Li Rui's master to come.

In that sort of situation, not to mention Her Lady Queen, even Chu Feng had no idea what the old cat was planning.

Was the old cat going to help Chu Feng and Eggie, or was it going to bring harm upon them? After all, Chu Feng and Eggie had been deceived by the old cat once already.

.....

At the moment when Chu Feng and Eggie were still unable to ascertain the situation, that Li Rui's master had already heard the voice of the old cat and entered the forest.

"Chu Feng, I've finally found you," Upon seeing Chu Feng, Li Rui's master's old face turned extremely frightening. He had an appearance of itching to eat Chu Feng alive.

"Chu Feng, you've got to run away!!!" At the same time, Xu Yiyi hurriedly shouted at Chu Feng, telling him to run away.

"Run away? Not to mention running, the two of them are unable to even walk," Right at that moment, the old cat spoke. As it spoke, it took a leisurely puff of its tobacco pipe. It was truly unhurried and unrestrained.

"Who are you?" Upon seeing an ugly cat that was actually capable of speaking, Xu Yiyi, Elder Ning Shuang and even Li Rui's master were shocked.

"Who I am is not important. What's important is that I will be the one who will control your fate later," The old cat said to Li Rui's master with a beaming smile.

"What did you say?" Li Rui's master revealed a slightly angry expression.

However, the old cat's expression remained unchanged when faced with the anger of Li Rui's master. It continued, "Little trash, don't say that this great sir is inhumane, for this great sir will give you two options."

"Your first option is to kill yourself right now. By killing yourself, you will solve all your troubles. Not only will you be able to die comfortably, you will also save this great sir the time taken to personally kill you."

"As for your second option, it would be for this great sir to kill you. However, if this great sir is to kill you, you will definitely meet a very miserable death."

"Thus, I'd advise that you choose the first option," The old cat said.

"What is this joke that you're telling? Do you know who I am?" Li Rui's master said.

"Who are you?" The old cat asked indifferently.

"I am Tuoba Shangshui, the Head Law Enforcement Elder of the Sunset Cloud Valley. In the Sunset Cloud Valley, I am someone with a status below only a single person, and above tens of thousands."

"You, a mere stray cat, actually dare to say this sort of thing to me? You should know that I possess ten thousand means to torment you to death," Sure enough, Li Rui's master was furious.

To Li Rui's master, he felt that his grand status had been blasphemed.

It was truly blasphemy. In the Sunset Cloud Valley, Li Rui's master held the highest position other than the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui. As such, he could be said to be the third most powerful individual in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

In fact, other than the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui, there was truly no one else capable of speaking to Li Rui's master in such a manner.

Originally, he had thought that his capture of Chu Feng today would mean that Chu Feng would definitely die, that he would definitely be able to avenge his disciple's death.

However, never had he expected that a stray cat would appear out of nowhere. Furthermore, that stray cat actually dared to boast so shamelessly at him. This was something that he was truly unable to tolerate.

In fact, it was not only Li Rui's master who had a shocked expression, even Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang had shocked expressions.

They truly could not understand where a stray cat would have the courage to speak those sorts of words to Li Rui's master.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Eggy were quiet. The reason for that was because the two of them knew that the old cat truly possessed the means to speak to Li Rui's master in such a manner.

"It seems that you have chosen option two," The old cat said indifferently.

"If I don't teach you a lesson, you will truly not know how powerful I am!" Li Rui's master shouted angrily. Faced with the contempt and provocation from the old cat, Li Rui's master unleashed his attack.

He immediately unleashed his oppressive might of a rank seven Martial Ancestor. The people present all felt a life threatening sensation.

This was especially true because his oppressive might was not merely a threat. It was surging violently toward the old cat. He intended to shatter the old cat into pieces.

However, the old cat's expression remained unchanged. Suddenly, its eyes flickered with coldness.

The very next moment, an extremely powerful oppressive might poured out from the old cat's body.

Once that oppressive might appeared, it immediately created a clear-cut contrast against the oppressive might sent forth by Li Rui's master.

If Li Rui's master's oppressive might was akin to a river.

Then the old cat's oppressive might would be the vast sea.

“Boom~~~”

As the two oppressive mights collided with one another, the old cat's oppressive might immediately devoured Li Rui's master's oppressive might. Then, like ten thousand invisible swords, the old cat's oppressive might pierced through the body of Li Rui's master.

“Puchi~~~”

Li Rui's master's knees grew weak as he fell to his knees.

The expressions of Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang changed instantly. They both revealed astonished and puzzled expressions.

The reason for that was because the old cat's oppressive might was aimed at Li Rui's master. As such, neither of them felt how powerful the old cat's oppressive might was.

Consequently, they did not know why Li Rui's master would suddenly kneel on the ground.

Not only was Li Rui's master kneeling on the ground, his complexion was also deathly pale and without the slightest trace of rosiness. Furthermore, he was trembling nonstop.

“How could this be? How could this be?” Li Rui's master muttered as if he had received an enormous fright.

“You actually dared to attack this great sir? Today, this great sir shall let you know what it means to be unable to live and unable to die,” The old cat said with a trace of anger.

“Milord, please spare me. Milord, please spare me!”

“It is this lowly one who had eyes, but not pupils. It is this lowly one who failed to recognize Mount Tai. Milord, I beg of you, please spare me, please give this lowly one another chance.”

Suddenly, Li Rui’s master began to kowtow and beg for forgiveness. Perhaps it might be because he wanted to express his sincerity, but he was knocking his head onto the ground very forcefully.

As he kowtowed, loud clanks could even be heard. Soil was sent flying into the air. Blood started flowing from his forehead. In fact, energy ripples even formed from him knocking his head onto the ground.

The grand Sunset Cloud Valley’s Head Law Enforcement Elder...

The aggressiveness he displayed earlier was completely gone. All he displayed right now was the petty and lowly character of someone wanting to survive.

Chapter 2269 – The Savage Cat

---

“This...”

Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang’s mouths were both slightly open as their gazes flickered.

They were showing shock and confusion all over their faces. They had been completely muddled by the scene that had occurred before them.

However, Li Rui’s master completely disregarded the expressions that Xu Yiyi and Ning Shuang were looking at him with. At that moment, he continued to ruthlessly kowtow and beg for forgiveness.

He had completely renounced his dignity.

“As you’ve already chosen the path you want to take, there is no leeway to return. Prepare to receive this great sir’s punishment,” The old cat was actually completely unconcerned with Li Rui’s master’s begging.

It extended a fingernail and pointed at Li Rui’s master. Immediately, a ray of light shot into the body of Li Rui’s master.

“Ahhh!!!!!!”

The next moment, Li Rui’s master let out an incomparably loud scream.

It was an anguished wail of pain and misery. His howl resonated throughout the entire region.

Seeing Li Rui’s master acting like that, even Chu Feng’s expression changed slightly. He was able to tell that Li Rui’s master was truly suffering from a pain that ordinary people would be unable to endure.

As for Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang, their eyes were wide open, and their tongues were tied with shock. This was especially true for Xu Yiyi; her little mouth was opened completely round.

As matters stood, regardless of how slow they might be, they were able to tell that the cat before them, that ugly and old cat, was no ordinary cat.

However, why would such a cat appear in the Sunset Cloud Valley's forbidden area?

All kinds of confusion and questions began to hover in their hearts.

After a series of anguished howls, Li Rui's master's voice grew weaker.

Just like that... after he howled in pain for an entire hour, his voice finally stopped completely.

Although his body was still completely fine, he was absolutely dead.

"So weak. He only lasted for an hour," Upon seeing that Li Rui's master had died, the old cat spoke in a disappointed manner.

"....."

Hearing those words, Xu Yiyi, Elder Ning Shuang and even Chu Feng and Eggy started having black lines rolling down their foreheads.

Although Li Rui's master's body had not received any serious injuries, merely from the painful howls, as well as his body movements before death, they were able to guess that the torment that Li Rui's master had felt was a sort of torture to the soul.

As for that sort of torture, it would generally be over a hundred times, a thousand times or even ten thousand times more difficult to endure than the torture of one's physical body.

Earlier, Li Rui's master, the grand rank seven Martial Ancestor, was shouting in pain so much that his voice had grown hoarse. From that it could be determined that the pain he had felt was truly intolerable, something that no one could withstand.

However, that old cat had actually said such a thing. It could be seen how savage the old cat was.

“Chu Feng, now I’ve taken care of that guy, it’s time to take care of you. Although you let out this great sir, this great sir will not repay you. The reason for that is because this great sir is precisely one to kick a benefactor in the teeth.”

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, that old cat suddenly revealed a strange smile. Then, it extended its fingernail and pointed at Chu Feng. Immediately, a ray of light shot forth and entered Chu Feng’s forehead.

Once that strange light entered Chu Feng’s body, a strange motion was immediately felt. The very next moment, Chu Feng let out mournful screams much like Li Rui’s master had let out earlier.

“Ahhh~~~~~”

The mournful screams began to resonate. Chu Feng immediately grabbed his head with his hands and and fell with his knees hitting the ground. Then, he started to roll around. One would feel painful just by looking at the reaction from the enormous pain that Chu Feng was feeling right now.

“You damned bastard! This Queen will dismember your body into ten thousand pieces!”

Her Lady Queen was immediately enraged upon seeing that the old cat had actually attacked Chu Feng. As she spoke, boundless dark black gaseous flames began to spread. The gaseous flames started to rush toward the old cat to attack it.

“Humph, it’s best that you shut up. You are only a mere Asura World Spirit. While others might fear you, this great sir is not afraid of you at all.”

However, that old cat laughed with contempt at Her Lady Queen's attack. Without even lifting its paw, the old cat let out boundlessly powerful oppressive might with only a thought. The oppressive might surrounded Her Lady Queen.

Her Lady Queen stood where she was, uninjured. However, her complexion changed enormously. She was no longer capable of moving. In fact, she could not even utter a single word. She had been completely restricted by the old cat.

"All of you, listen carefully. That Zhan Haichuan's tomb, as well as the treasures that he left behind have all been plundered by this great sir."

"People of the Sunset Cloud Valley, if you all feel displeased by this, you can come and find me for revenge. However, I will tell you all this. This great sir is one who holds grudges deeply."

"As long as a single person from your Sunset Cloud Valley dares to create troubles for this great sir, this great sir will definitely exterminate every single person from your Sunset Cloud Valley, destroying it completely." After the old cat said those words ferociously, its body shifted, and it disappeared.

Although what it spoke was only an ordinary threat, its words caused Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang to turn pale with fear, and their foreheads to be filled with sweat.

In fact, their bodies even began to shiver uncontrollably.

Fear. From the words spoken by the old cat, the two of them felt a fear that surpassed the fear they felt from their Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui.

In fact, the fear they were feeling was the most frightening fear that they had ever felt in their lives.

In that one split second, they felt as if they had seen the people in the Sunset Cloud Valley suffering from a calamity.

Thus, they were firmly certain that what that old cat had said was no joke at all.

“Ahhh~~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s anguished wailing grew even louder.

Even though Her Lady Queen had regained her freedom after the old cat left, the pain that Chu Feng felt did not decrease, and instead increased.

“Chu Feng,” Her Lady Queen hurriedly ran toward Chu Feng’s side. However, no matter what she tried to do, she was unable to alleviate the pain Chu Feng was feeling.

“Chu Feng, what’s wrong, what’s happening to you?” After being woken up by Chu Feng’s screams, Xu Yiyi also revealed an astonished expression.

“Elder Ning Shuang, quickly, find Lord Valley Master. We need him to save Chu Feng,” Xu Yiyi said to Elder Ning Shuang. She was so worried that her tears were flowing from her eyes.

At the same time, outside the forbidden area. For the sake of destroying the gate, Su Jingrui was unleashing taboo martial skills nonstop, and bombarding the entrance gate with them.

Su Jingrui held a gigantic hammer that looked exactly the same as the hammer that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master held. However, they were clearly two different weapons.

Without a doubt, Su Jingrui’s hammer was also an Ancestral Armament. The hammer emitted endless power.

When the hammer was used to unleash Su Jingrui’s ferocious taboo martial skills, he left that region of space in utter chaos.

As the elders looked at the scene, they were all terrified.

When they saw their Lord Valley Master standing behind Su Jingrui, they felt a complicated mood in their hearts.

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had a very ugly expression. His aura was also very weak.

For the sake of breaking through the entrance gate to the forbidden area, he had truly over-exerted his energy. That was the reason why he had switched with Su Jingrui.

However, even with this being the case, that forbidden area's entrance gate was still undamaged. Although it was filled with cracks, it would still take quite some time to completely destroy the gate.

The management elders present were all very scared that the two pillars of support for their Sunset Cloud Valley would end up causing major harm to their vitality for the sake of destroying a gate.

However, they did not dare to voice their concerns. The reason for that was because neither their Lord Valley Master nor Su Jingrui were impulsive people. Since they were willing to disregard all considerations to destroy the gate, the two of them must possess their own reasons for it.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, a loud explosion was suddenly heard. That forbidden area's entrance gate was finally shattered.

However, at that moment, not a single person present revealed a joyous look.

Instead, they all revealed frightened expressions on their faces.

Chapter 2270 – Eagerness To Protect One's Master

---

Invisible oppressive might filled this region. Although the oppressive might could not be seen, it could be felt.

It was as if a Grim Reaper was quietly descending upon this region.

Even the weather was affected by the invisible oppressive might. Black clouds began to surge about as rolling thunder began to be heard.

That oppressive might was not from the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, nor was it from Su Jingrui. The reason for that was because the two of them, and even the management elders present, all knew very well that they did not possess the level of strength to be able to emit oppressive might that powerful.

Furthermore, that oppressive might was coming from inside the forbidden area. It was that oppressive might that had shattered the forbidden area's entrance gate.

Thus, everyone present subconsciously felt that a frightening existence had left the forbidden area.

However, why would the forbidden area possess such a frightening existence?

“Roar~~~~”

Right at that moment, red light suddenly appeared in the sky. The red light surged about and soon filled the entire sky, turning it crimson like blood.

As the crowd looked to the crimson gaseous flames that filled the sky, they felt as if they could smell the dense reek of blood. It was truly frightening and sinister.

As the crimson gaseous flames rolled about, the invisible oppressive might took visible form. In the end, the crimson gaseous flames turned into an enormous crimson face.

That enormous face covered the sky and hid the earth. Its eyes were eerie, and its appearance twisted. It was simply the face of a demon.

Ugly, sinister, gloomy, oppressive and frighteningly cold.

At that moment, that enormous face opened its large mouth and revealed its sharp fangs.

With low ear-piercing howls, it began to move toward the crowd to engulf them. It was planning to devour all of the people present at once.

“What exactly is that?”

As they looked to the enormous and frightening face, the people present all started to panic. Even the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui, the two grand rank eight Martial Ancestor level existences, revealed frightened expressions.

The reason for that was because regardless of who it was, they would only feel one sort of sensation from the enormous and frightening face and those sharp fangs — the sensation of powerlessness.

The aura of death was so very close to them. When death finally arrived, they were simply powerless to resist.

“Could today be the end of our Sunset Cloud Valley?”

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master revealed an expression of despair. It was not that he did not possess any integrity, nor was it because he did not wish to resist. Rather, he simply did not even possess the strength to resist right now.

All of the people present acted as if they were petrified. They had lost all battle power, and could only watch powerlessly as the enormous mouth moved toward them with the intention of devouring their lives.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at the moment when everyone felt they would be killed, that enormous demon-like mouth suddenly turned into a vortex.

The vortex started to surge and rage before finally disappearing into thin air.

It was not only that enormous and frightening face that disappeared, even the suffocating sensation the crowd had felt earlier disappeared along with it.

The shattered space started to fuse together. Soon, that region of space regained its former tranquility. It was as if nothing had ever happened.

However, the hearts of the crowd were unable regain their tranquility.

The reason for that was because they all knew that the enormous and frightening face's enormous mouth that was moving toward them to devour them was no ordinary mouth. Instead, it was simply the gates of hell. As long as they were devoured by that mouth, they would have no hope of survival.

“Lord Valley Master, what was that earlier?” A management elder asked courageously. When he said those words, his voice was trembling slightly.

“I don't know either,” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master shook his head. He truly had no idea what that thing earlier was. He was also pondering it right now.

“Lord Valley Master, why would such a frightening thing appear from the forbidden area? Exactly what is going on?”

Many other management elders began to question their Lord Valley Master. The reason for that was because the scene earlier had truly been too dangerous.

Not only did it concern their own safety, it also concerned the safety of the entire Sunset Cloud Valley. As such, they wanted to know the truth.

“Lord Valley Master has already said that he doesn’t know. Do you all not understand that?!” Right at that moment, Su Jingrui shouted angrily.

Upon hearing his shout, the management elders all shut their mouths. No one dared to ask anything anymore.

Even though they were all very concerned about the safety of the Sunset Cloud Valley, they also knew that they had truly gone beyond their authority earlier. If their Lord Valley Master did not wish to tell them, they did not possess the authority to insist on asking.

“Lord Valley Master, this is bad!!!”

Right at that moment, Elder Ning Shuang rushed out of the forbidden area in a panic.

“Ning Shuang?” Upon seeing Elder Ning Shuang, the expression of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master changed. Together with Su Jingrui, they rushed toward Ning Shuang.

“Lord Valley Master, Lord Elder, please follow this subordinate inside. Little friend Chu Feng is on the verge of dying,” After Elder Ning Shuang said those words, he hurriedly turned around and began to lead the way.

“What?” Upon hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master immediately revealed a nervous expression and followed Elder Ning Shuang into the forbidden area.

On their way there, Elder Ning Shuang began to explain the general situation of what had happened to the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui.

After they found out that Li Rui's master had died, the two of them were both very shocked.

They felt even more shocked when they found out that Li Rui's master was killed by an old cat.

When Ning Shaung explained to them that the mysterious old cat declared that it had plundered Zhan Haichuan's tomb, threatened Xu Yiyi and him about the consequences of going against it and used a mysterious technique to torture Chu Feng, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui immediately recalled the demon-like giant face that had appeared from the forbidden area earlier.

They both felt that the old cat Elder Ning Shuang spoke of was the creator of that giant face.

They felt that old cat was deliberately demonstrating its might to the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley. Like how it had threatened Elder Ning Shuang and Xu Yiyi earlier, the old cat was demonstrating its might to tell the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley to not provoke it.

It was declaring that if the Sunset Cloud Valley were to provoke it, eliminating the Sunset Cloud Valley would be an effortless task for it.

“Why would such a frightening existence suddenly appear in our Sunset Cloud Valley's forbidden area?”

“How did it enter our forbidden area? Exactly what happened in here?” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had a very ugly expression.

After all, what had happened was truly no small matter at all. In fact, it concerned the continued existence of their Sunset Cloud Valley. As such, he had no choice but to be worried.

“Only little friend Chu Feng knows what has happened. No, his world spirit might know about it too,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“Mn,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master nodded. Then, he increased his speed.

As the three men hastened their journey, they finally arrived at the location where Chu Feng had been injured.

At that moment, Chu Feng was still howling in pain. Merely, his voice was no longer loud and clear like before. It was not that he was not in as much pain as before. Rather, he was in so much pain that he did not even have the strength to scream.

“Let me have a look,” As the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master spoke, he moved toward Chu Feng to diagnose his situation.

Unfortunately, after diagnosing Chu Feng’s state, he started to frown, and revealed an expression of helplessness.

“Lord Valley Master, how is it? Exactly what’s going on with Chu Feng?” Xu Yiyi asked anxiously.

“I am unable to tell,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master shook his head helplessly.

“I have a medicinal pellet that could relieve pain. We can give it to him and see if it helps,” Su Jingrui said.

“Do you know what is meant by prescribing the right medicine for one’s illness?! When you want to prescribe Chu Feng medicine when you do not even know what happened to Chu Feng, are you capable of taking responsibility if he dies after taking the medicine?!” At that moment, Her Lady Queen shouted angrily.

She walked over to Chu Feng’s side and shouted, “All of you, move aside. Enough of your fake sincerity and concern here.”

“Don’t you think that I do not know what you all are thinking. You all just want to know what that damned cat was, no?”

“If you all want to know, then wait until Chu Feng wakes up and ask him personally then. However, if Chu Feng doesn’t wake up, don’t think about knowing anything.”

Once Eggy said those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, Su Jingrui and even Elder Ning Shuang started to frown.

They were all able to tell what Her Lady Queen's intention was.

That is, if Chu Feng would be fine, then everything would be fine. However, if something were to happen to Chu Feng, Her Lady Queen would not tell the Sunset Cloud Valley anything.

Although Her Lady Queen's attitude was very vile, they found it hard to blame her.

After all, Her Lady Queen was saying those words out of eagerness to protect her master.

Chapter 2271 – A Bizarre Scene

---

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, Her Lady Queen started to emit a boundless amount of dark black gaseous flames from her body.

Merely, the dark black gaseous flames this time around were very different from how they usually were, they were no longer so wild and domineering; they actually possessed a trace of warmth.

After those gaseous flames were emitted, they covered Chu Feng and began to slowly assimilate into Chu Feng's body.

The very next moment, Chu Feng, who was in miserable pain, started to appear to suffer less pain. Even his screams stopped.

“It was actually capable of retarding Chu Feng's pain?”

“Is this what it means to be an Asura World Spirit?”

Upon seeing the ability revealed by Her Lady Queen, even the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui's expressions changed as they revealed shock in their eyes.

They were all able to tell that Her Lady Queen was healing Chu Feng. However, the pain that Chu Feng had been suffering from was very special, it was something that even they were powerless against.

Yet, Her Lady Queen was actually capable of treating the pain that even they were powerless against.

This gave them a whole new opinion of the legendary Asura World Spirit.

.....

Ever since Chu Feng received the attack from the old cat, he had entered a strange state.

Even though he had been screaming in pain and even rolling and crawling nonstop, demonstrating the overwhelming pain that he felt, all that was only an involuntary display of pain from Chu Feng.

Chu Feng's actual awareness had entered a strange environment.

This place looked like purgatory. Black flames colored the entire place. They were surging and burning Chu Feng, causing him to feel incomparable pain.

However, through the flames, Chu Feng was able to faintly see a bizarre scene. However, as the flames were raging nonstop, and he was in enormous pain the entire time, it led to him being unable to see that scene properly.

After being tormented for a very long time, Chu Feng suddenly felt a warm sensation appearing from his surroundings, covering his body.

Being covered by that warm sensation, the black flames that were surrounding him began to gradually wane. At that moment, the faintly discernable scene grew increasingly clear.

Chu Feng saw the birth of a child. When that child was born, the child actually carried an abnormal sign with it.

Silvery light filled the highest of the heavens, brightly illuminating the night sky.

Suddenly, a silver spear appeared from the depths of the silvery light. That silver spear was so enormously huge that it was simply impossible to describe its dimensions.

It was as if it was simply not a spear, but rather a Divine Armament that carried unsurpassed Divine Might that could bring about the destruction of the world.

However, a weapon that frightening was actually descending from the sky. In the end, it turned into a ray of silvery light and entered into the body of that child.

After that, the child was revered by the people around it, and was deemed to be beloved of the heavens.

In a flash, the scene suddenly jumped. That child had grown into to a boy, and had begun martial cultivation.

That boy's talent for martial cultivation was extremely strong, greatly surpassing others of his age. He was truly superior to the rest.

Once again, the scene jumped. That child had become a youngster. At that time, not to mention the people of his generation, even the people of the older generation were unable to match up to him.

The scene began to jump nonstop. Although it was jumping very fast, Chu Feng managed to see the process of this child growing up.

It was the process of that child growing up to be a hot-blooded man.

Holding a silver spear in hand and wearing silver armor, that man departed from his clan. He entered the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and began to defeat numerous experts.

With an undefeated record, he became the unparalleled legend of a generation.

“Zhan Haichuan?”

Chu Feng's heart was moved. He was certain that the child he was seeing was Zhan Haichuan.

Thus, what he was seeing was actually the growth of Zhan Haichuan.

Merely, those scenes were jumping too quickly. Furthermore, they only recorded until Zhan Haichuan entered the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and defeated numerous experts.

After that, the scenes shattered into countless fragments that drifted before Chu Feng.

“It seems that the place where Zhan Haichuan grew up is extremely extraordinary. Is it a sealed region in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?”

Lingering ripples emerged in Chu Feng’s heart.

Even though the scenes had been jumping extremely quickly, and some of the episodes were incomplete, Chu Feng noticed particularities.

Zhan Haichuan came from a clan. His clan was located in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

However, his clan was a very hidden clan, and their base was a hidden place cut off from the rest of the world.

At that moment, Chu Feng wanted to know that hidden place very much.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng noticed that Zhan Haichuan would always train at a special place whenever he reached a breakthrough in cultivation.

That place possessed an extremely dense amount of Ancient Era’s aura. Although he had only seen images of the scene, Chu Feng felt that place to be a location specially suited for martial cultivation, a place specially set aside for obtaining comprehension.

In fact, Chu Feng felt that place to be even more amazing than the floating island on Mount Cloud Crane where that Exalted had trained.

Chu Feng felt that if he could find that place and train there, he might be able to achieve continuous breakthroughs in cultivation again, that it would allow him to make great progress in his cultivation.

Merely, due to the fact that the episodes that he had seen earlier were all disjointed, missing many of their crucial contents, Chu Feng was only able to ascertain that the place where Zhan Haichuan’s clan was located must be in the Hundred Refinements

Ordinary Realm.

However, as for the actual location of that clan, Chu Feng had no idea.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the fragments scattered about in his surroundings began to rush toward Chu Feng.

In the end, they all entered Chu Feng’s mind.

Unfortunately, Chu Feng did not obtain any new information after those fragments entered his mind.

However, Chu Feng felt that those fragments wouldn’t have entered his mind without cause. He felt that they should possess a special connection with Zhan Haichuan or Zhan Haichuan’s clan.

The very next moment, everything in Chu Feng’s surroundings started to gradually disappear and turned into pitch darkness.

Chu Feng began to hear a voice in his ear. In fact, he was able to feel a familiar aura. It was Eggy’s aura. Eggy was right beside him.

Chu Feng realized that his eyes were actually closed. Thus, he hurriedly opened his eyes.

Sure enough, upon opening his eyes, he discovered that he was currently lying on a special bed. It was a bed especially used for healing injuries. Although it was not very big, it was very comfortable.

As for Eggy, she was sitting on the bedside with her head lying beside him. At that moment, she had fallen asleep.

“Eggy?” Chu Feng immediately felt sour in his heart the moment he saw the current Eggy.

Eggy’s sleeping posture was very beautiful, sweet and enchanting. She was the sort of woman that one would feel attracted to with a single glance.

However, her body was also extremely weak. Her face was extremely pale, and her aura was very weak.

Rather than saying that the current Eggy was asleep, she resembled being unconscious even more.

Chu Feng did not know exactly what had happened. However, he realized that Eggy should have been injured, seriously injured.

Chapter 2272 – Extremely Confused

---

“Little friend Chu Feng, you’ve awakened,” Right at that moment, a familiar voice was suddenly heard.

It was the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master. It was not only him; Su Jingrui had also walked in from outside the room. Judging from the way things appeared, it seemed that the two of them had been keeping watch outside the entire time.

The voice that Chu Feng had faintly heard earlier seemed to be the sound of their discussions.

“Lord Valley Master, Elder Su,” As Chu Feng spoke, he got up from the bed and bowed to the two men.

Not mentioning the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, Su Jingrui was someone that had truly saved Chu Feng’s life at the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters that day.

Thus, even though Chu Feng did not possess much of a relationship with Su Jingrui, he was still very respectful toward him.

In response, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said, “Little friend Chu Feng, you have only just been healed from your serious injuries, there’s no need for you to be overly courteous.”

“Judging from the way things seem, little friend Chu Feng, you’re fine now?” Su Jingrui said with a smile.

“Seniors, please rest assured, Chu Feng is fine now.”

“Merely, seniors, what happened to Eggy? Why did she become so weak?” Chu Feng asked in a deeply concerned manner.

He was not worried about why he was lying here, nor was he worried about what happened during the time when he was half unconscious.

At that moment, what he was concerned about the most was why

Eggy would be in such weak health.

“Eggy? Are you talking about this Asura World Spirit?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“Yes,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you were attacked by that strange cat in the forbidden area. Do you still remember that?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“I do. Merely, I lost consciousness after it attacked me. As such, I have no idea what happened afterwards,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s right. After that strange cat injured you, you were in enormous pain the entire time. Faced with you being tormented by pain, we were unable to do anything.”

“I had diagnosed your injuries and concluded that If we did not do anything about it, you would very likely end up dying.”

“Fortunately, your Asura World Spirit ended up using her special methods to relieve the pain you were feeling.”

“Unfortunately, it seems that her method was very damaging to her. After your injuries were alleviated, she became extremely weak.”

“Furthermore, after you were brought here, she has been standing by your side the entire time. Currently, it has been half a month since she started guarding you.”

“During this half month period, she did not even blink once. In fact... she has only just fallen asleep,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

Upon hearing up to that point, Chu Feng finally realized what had happened. It turned out that he was not able to withstand the pain of the burning black flames because he possessed a strong constitution. Rather, it was because Eggy had acted to help him. That gentle and warm power had been emitted by Eggy.

After hearing what had happened, Chu Feng looked to Eggy again. When he saw that beautiful yet withered face, Chu Feng felt even greater pain in his heart.

It was a truly unbearable pain.

“Eggy, it seems that you have saved me again. I am indebted to you once again.”

Chu Feng extended his hand and gently caressed Eggy’s extremely beautiful yet withered face. He felt extremely pained in his heart.

Afterward, Chu Feng set up a spirit formation on the spot and began to heal Eggy.

With Chu Feng’s exquisite healing formation, Eggy’s complexion grew much better.

However, Eggy did not show any sign of waking up. On the contrary, she began to enter a deeper sleep.

Chu Feng had done that deliberately. He wished to allow Eggy to enjoy a proper rest.

After healing Eggy for some time, Chu Feng opened his world spirit gate and sent Her Lady Queen back into his world spirit space.

“Little friend Chu Feng, your world spirit techniques are truly exquisite. It is already extremely rare for someone of your age to be able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. For someone to have world spirit techniques as exquisite as yours, is even rarer.”

This was the first time that Su Jingrui saw Chu Feng using his world spirit techniques. Although what Chu Feng used was merely a healing formation, Su Jingrui was still able to tell that Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques were exceptional.

“Elder Su, you’re flattering me,” Chu Feng said with a smile. Due to Xu Yiyi, Chu Feng’s impression of Su Jingrui was extremely good.

“Little friend Chu Feng, may I know exactly what happened after you entered the forbidden area?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked. At the same time, Su Jingrui also revealed a concerned expression.

Chu Feng understood the reactions of the two men. After all, this matter concerned the safety of the Sunset Cloud Valley. It would instead be abnormal should they not be concerned about this matter.

Chu Feng did not try to conceal anything, and began to tell the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui what had happened in full detail.

“Never would I have expected that we were still unable to preserve Lord Zhan Haichuan’s tomb in the end.”

“However, the matter of Lord Zhan Haichuan’s tomb being in our Sunset Cloud Valley has been something that only our successive Valley Masters knew about. This information would absolutely not be leaked. Thus, how did that strange cat come to know about it?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master started to frown as he pondered nonstop.

“That’s true. This matter is truly well-hidden. If it wasn’t for what had happened, I likely would have never known that the forbidden area actually contained Senior Zhan Haichuan’s tomb,” Su Jingrui added.

“Lord Valley Master, Elder Su, it is all this junior’s fault. It was because this junior was foolish that I ended up being deceived by that old cat and releasing it,” Chu Feng said with a face filled with an apologetic expression.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you absolutely must not say something like that. You only entered the forbidden area as per my request.”

“Furthermore, you almost ended up losing your life because of it. Because of that, I already feel extremely ashamed. If you are to say it like this, I would feel even more ashamed,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master had an ashamed expression all over his face.

Not only did he not blame Chu Feng, he instead felt a great amount of self-blame. After all, he had seen Chu Feng’s state that day. If it wasn’t for Eggy, Chu Feng might really have ended up dying.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this matter is truly not your fault. You must not bear this matter in your heart,” Su Jingrui also urged. As one of the main pillars of support for the Sunset Cloud Valley, he also did not blame Chu Feng.

“Seniors, regardless of what you say, it remains that I have created more troubles. I will definitely repay you all for my faults in the future.”

“Merely, I, Chu Feng, still possess things that I must do. As such, I will not be staying for too long,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you’re going to leave?” Seeing that Chu Feng planned to leave, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master revealed a shocked expression.

“Lord Valley Master, could it be that you needed something else from me?” Chu Feng asked.

“No, I do not have anything else. Merely, I have yet to properly receive you into our Sunset Cloud Valley,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master still had the intention of having Chu Feng stay.

“Lord Valley Master, I, Chu Feng, have come here as a prisoner. I am already extremely grateful to be able to receive the treatment of a distinguished guest upon coming here,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng has never been a prisoner. It was all caused by that Tuoba Shangshui. However, he has died now. It can be considered that the wrong that little friend Chu Feng has suffered from was avenged.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, you can rest assured. Although Tuoba Shangshui’s subordinates were not killed by that cat, I have personally had them accompany Tuoba Shangshui,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

Chu Feng understood the intentions of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master’s words. Those Law Enforcement Elders must have all been executed by the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master.

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master did such a thing because he wanted to provide justification for Chu Feng.

He was using this method to express how much he valued Chu Feng.

Suddenly, Chu Feng said, “Lord Valley Master, there is one thing that this Chu Feng is confused about.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, what are you confused by? There is no harm in speaking your mind,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Why would Tuoba Shangshui concern himself over the death of his disciple Li Rui that much that he would brave dangers himself to put me to death?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

Chu Feng felt that Tuoba Shangshui was a treacherous and selfish individual that cared deeply for the long-term.

Someone like him would definitely be able to tell whether something was beneficial or detrimental. To make things this big for the sake of a personal disciple was something extremely unworthy.

However, Tuoba Shangshui did precisely that. He even braved dangers himself for the sake of avenging his disciple Li Rui.

Chu Feng was truly confused by why he would do this.

Chapter 2273 – The Appointed Date

---

“The relationship between Tuoba Shangshui and Li Rui is indeed extraordinary. Li Rui was actually Tuoba Shangshui’s biological grandson. He was also the sole heir to the Tuoba Family.”

“Merely, very few people knew about this matter. Even Li Rui himself did not know that his master was actually his biological grandfather,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Even I did not know about this matter. How did you know about it?” Su Jingrui asked in astonishment.

“I believe you were also able to tell that they possessed an extraordinary relationship. Because of that, I had my men secretly investigate the matter.”

“Tuoba Shangshui also possessed his own reasoning as for why he did not want to make this matter public. Thus, I did not reveal the matter either,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“But, even if Li Rui was the only heir to the Tuoba family, there shouldn’t be a reason for Tuoba Shangshui to react like this for him, no? His actions before he died did not resemble his style,” Su Jingrui was still doubtful.

“If Tuoba Shangshui still possessed the ability to create more heirs, he would naturally not react in such a manner over Li Rui’s death,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“There was actually such a thing?” Su Jingrui revealed an astonished expression. He seemed to have thought of something.

“Yes, if that wasn’t the case, he would definitely not have acted in such a manner,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“With his character, I guess this could be considered karma,” Su Jingrui sneered.

At that moment, Chu Feng realized what had happened.

Tuoba Shangshui might have suffered some sort of encounter that caused him to lose the ability to reproduce. As Li Rui was the sole heir to the Tuoba family, it would mean that he was Tuoba Shangshui's sole seed. That was the reason why Tuoba Shangshui had cared so much for Li Rui.

"Little friend Chu Feng, since you plan to leave, I will not insist on making you stay. These are my regards, please accept them," As the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master spoke, he took out a Cosmos Sack and handed it to Chu Feng.

"Lord Valley Master, I have already received your gifts before. As such, I absolutely cannot accept these too," Chu Feng hurriedly refused.

The reason for that was because the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master had indeed presented Chu Feng with a lot of gifts already. Those gifts were very valuable items. Not only were there a lot of world spiritist treasures, there were also many Incomplete Ancestral Armaments.

As for the items in the Cosmos Sack that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master was presenting today, they were even more precious than the items he had given Chu Feng previously.

"Little friend Chu Feng, if you do not accept them, our Lord Valley Master will not let you out of our Sunset Cloud Valley."

"Thus, it is better that you accept them," Su Jingrui said.

"Little friend Chu Feng, Elder Su is not joking around," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said with a smile. Although he said it with a joking tone, it seemed that he truly planned to do this.

That was, if Chu Feng refused to accept his gifts, he would refuse to let Chu Feng leave.

In the end, he was still feeling guilty toward Chu Feng, and wanted to use this method to decrease the guilt that he felt.

“Since that’s the case, Chu Feng will accept them then. Lord Valley Master, thank you,” Chu Feng also knew that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was feeling ashamed. Thus, in the end, he accepted the Cosmos Sack.

“Little friend Chu Feng, let me see you off,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master wished to personally escort Chu Feng.

“Lord Valley Master, before leaving, I wish to go and bid my farewells to Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s no issue at all. I’ll order my men to summon them here,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Lord Valley Master, there’s no need for that. I can go and see them personally,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s good too. I’ll show you the way,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Lord Valley Master, the Three Stars Hall is still waiting. I think it would be unwell to ignore them the entire time, no?” Right at that moment, Su Jingrui said.

“Eh...” Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master immediately revealed a difficult expression.

“Lord Valley Master, if you have things that you must take care of, please go ahead and take care of them. This Chu Feng can go find Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang personally,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master nodded. Although he did not personally lead the way for Chu Feng, he ordered others to guide Chu Feng.

After Chu Feng left, Su Jingrui asked the Valley Master, “Today is the appointed date with the Three Stars Hall. With Chu Feng here, he might be able to help us. Why did you not mention this matter to him?”

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master took a long sigh. Then, he said, “Our Sunset Cloud Valley have already wronged and troubled little friend Chu Feng enormously. For the sake of helping us, he nearly ended up losing his life. I find it truly difficult to inconvenience him again.”

“After all, he is not someone of our Sunset Cloud Valley. Even in coming to our Sunset Cloud Valley, he was forced here after being held prisoner by Tuoba Shangshui.”

“In that case, we can only admit defeat then. After all, the Three Stars Hall invited Daoist Gold Star over to help them. Even though Daoist Gold Star is also only an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it remains that he is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. There is no one in our Sunset Cloud Valley capable of competing against him,” Su Jingrui said.

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master sighed again. Then, he said, “Thus, let me go alone. Senior brother, you do not have to accompany me to receive this humiliation.”

“How could I do that? I also took part in this gamble back then. Even if we must admit defeat, I must still accompany you.”

“Today, us martial brothers shall allow ourselves to be ridiculed by that old fellow from the Three Stars Hall together,” Su Jingrui said with a smile.

Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was at first startled. Then, he looked to Su Jingrui and saw that he had a determined expression on his face. Thus, he smiled lightly and said, “Sure enough, it is only senior brother who is willing to endure trials and tribulations together with me.”

“Of course,” Su Jingrui smiled.

Then, the two men’s bodies shifted. They began to fly toward the northwestern region of the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Located in that direction was the place where the Sunset Cloud Valley would receive their honored guests.

.....

Chu Feng first arrived at Elder Ning Shuang's location to bid farewell to Elder Ning Shuang. Then, he arrived at Xu Yiyi's residence.

"Chu Feng? Why would you be here? How are you? Are you feeling better now?"

"Did you know that you have been unconscious for many days now? I wanted to go see you the entire time. However, your world spirit refused entry to everyone," When Xu Yiyi saw Chu Feng, she immediately revealed an overjoyed expression. Joyfully, she ran toward Chu Feng.

"Yiyi, rest assured, I have recovered completely," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"You've truly recovered completely?" Xu Yiyi was a bit skeptical, and began to personally inspect Chu Feng. Upon discovering that Chu Feng was truly fine, Xu Yiyi revealed a joyous expression and patted Chu Feng's shoulder, "Not bad, you've actually recovered this quickly. That day, you truly scared me."

"Rest assured, I am truly fine now," Chu Feng said with a smile. He was able to tell that Xu Yiyi had been worried for him from the bottom of her heart.

Afterwards, Chu Feng started to chat with Xu Yiyi. After a while, Chu Feng told her about his intention in coming.

"Chu Feng, you're leaving? But you've just recovered from your injuries, shouldn't you...?" Xu Yiyi revealed an expression of reluctance to part.

"I have already mentioned this to Lord Valley Master. I have also met your master. They have already consented to it. Furthermore, Lord Valley Master even sent me an enormous gift," Chu Feng said.

"In that case, it seems that I will not be able to make you stay either," Xu Yiyi said.

Chu Feng did not answer her. Instead, he smiled and shook his head.

“Chu Feng, do you really not plan to become our Sunset Cloud Valley’s guest elder?” Xu Yiyi asked.

“Yiyi, I possess my own reasons. I hope that you can understand,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well then,” Xu Yiyi said no more. Merely, her gaze grew even lonelier.

Suddenly, Chu Feng said, “Someone’s here.”

“Little sister Yiyi, I’ve come to see you,” Sure enough, not long after Chu Feng said those words, a woman ran in.

This woman was rather good-looking. Her age was about the same as Xu Yiyi’s. She wore a long green skirt and appeared very spirited.

As for her cultivation, it was not weak either. She was a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

However, Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that this woman was not a disciple of the Sunset Cloud Valley.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was able to clearly see the words ‘Three Stars Hall’ on the title plate hanging on her waist.

“Little sister Biyu, why would you be here?” Upon seeing this woman, Xu Yiyi had a joyous expression.

“Have you forgotten? Today is the appointed date between our Headmaster, your Valley Master and your master,” The woman said with a smile.

Bee used a different Daoist when referring to Daoist Three Swords and this Daoist Gold Star. In Daoist Gold Star, he literally wrote Daoist (Dao Ren/ Dao Person), whereas for Daoist Three Swords, he wrote Daoist (Zhen Ren/True Person). Zhen Ren/True Person is kinda like an enlightened daoist. Still daoist though...

Chapter 2274 – Marriage

---

“The appointed date?”

Hearing those words, Xu Yiyi was somewhat perplexed. However, her expression soon changed as two rays of light shone from her eyes. Excitedly, she asked, “Could you be talking about that bet?”

“Originally, I was looking forward to a marvelous confrontation between Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. After all, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists are so very rare.”

“However, never would I expect that your Sunset Cloud Valley would actually fail in inviting an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to help them. My anticipation has all been for naught,” The green skirted woman said in a rather disappointed manner.

“Not managed to invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist? How could that be?” Upon hearing those words, Xu Yiyi involuntarily looked to Chu Feng.

Chu Feng noticed that something was amiss from Xu Yiyi’s meaningful gaze.

“I was right over there earlier. I personally heard your Lord Valley Master and your master mentioning that. The two of them have admitted defeat, and were receiving punishment from our Lord Headmaster.”

“However, it remains that they are your Valley Master and your master. Thus, it would be unsuitable for people of the younger generation like myself to be present after they admitted defeat. As such, I was driven out by Lord Headmaster,” The green skirted woman said.

“I understand now,” Xu Yiyi retrieved the gaze that she was looking at Chu Feng with and revealed a somewhat desolate appearance.

She had already managed to guess that their Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and her master must not have requested Chu Feng's assistance.

Although she did not know why they had not requested Chu Feng's assistance, she knew that they must have had their reasons.

Thus, since both their Lord Valley Master and her master had not requested Chu Feng's assistance, it would be unsuitable for her to request his assistance.

“Actually, it was only a joke to begin with. Victory or defeat truly doesn't matter. After all, our Three Stars Hall possesses an extremely close relationship with your Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“Merely, the bet between you and senior brother Dou Kang, I fear that he will not be willing to leave the matter at that,” The green skirted woman said to Xu Yiyi in a concerned manner.

“Aiya, I nearly forgot that. What am I to do about that?” Once that woman mentioned that matter, Xu Yiyi's face was immediately covered with anxiety. She was so nervous that she became unable to sit or stand still, and started to pace left and right. It was as if a major matter weighed on her heart.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng asked, “Yiyi, exactly what sort of gamble was it? May I know about it?”

He was already able to tell that this gamble concerned the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui's honor.

Furthermore, even Xu Yiyi was involved.

However, if it was truly related to world spiritists, then he might be able to provide assistance.

“It's like this. Our Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall are allies. As for our Lord Valley Master and my master, they are also close friends of many years with the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster. Their relationship is extremely close.”

“Our Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall both possess a cherished desire. That is, we both want to invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to become our guest elder.”

“However, although our Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall are strong, we remain only tier two powers. As such, we have not been able to successfully invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist for many years.”

“At this time last year, my master, Lord Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster were drinking together.”

“Originally, they were talking and laughing. However, for some unknown reason, they started to discuss their issue with Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. Furthermore, because of that, they ended up quarreling with one another.”

“Due to drinking, their quarrel grew more and more intense. Then, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster began to belittle our Lord Valley Master and my master. He declared that we simply did not possess the ability to invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“Our Lord Valley Master and my master naturally refused to accept that.”

“As such, they ended up making a bet. Both of our powers were to invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist on this date this year, and have them compete with one another to see whose Immortal-cloak World Spiritist was stronger.”

“However, you also know that our Sunset Cloud Valley has not managed to successfully invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“The only one...” Xu Yiyi sighed, “ I think our Lord Valley Master and my master did not mention this matter to you. Else, you wouldn’t not know about it,”

“The two seniors have indeed not mentioned this matter,” Chu Feng nodded. However, he was feeling sour in his heart.

The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master would have been able to mention this thing to him easily. However, he didn't do so. It was most definitely because he was worried about inconveniencing Chu Feng.

If Chu Feng had not wanted to urgently leave upon waking up, then perhaps the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master would have mentioned this matter to him. That was why Chu Feng felt guilty.

"Then, what will happen if they are to lose the bet?" Chu Feng asked.

Before Xu Yiyi could answer Chu Feng, that green skirt girl interrupted, "They're all old friends, nothing too serious will happen. At the very most, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Xu Yiyi's master will be jokingly insulted by our Three Stars Hall's Headmaster. What's crucial is my senior brother Kou Kang."

"Young lady, may I know what is up with your senior brother Kou Kang?" Chu Feng asked the green skirted woman.

"Regarding senior brother Kou Kang..." When mentioning this matter, the green skirted woman first smiled mischievously. Then, she said, "My senior brother Kou Kang is amazing. Not only is he our Three Stars Hall's number one disciple, he is also our Lord Headmaster's personal disciple."

"Countless girls are in love with my senior brother Kou Kang. However, senior brother Kou Kang does not even take a glance at them."

"It was only when senior brother Kou Kang saw little sister Yiyi that he fell in love at first sight."

"Unfortunately, my little sister Yiyi's vision is higher than even the heavens. She was actually not fond of the personal disciple of our Lord Headmaster, the number one disciple in our Three Stars Hall. Hahaha," The green skirted woman burst into loud laughter. As she spoke, she glanced at Xu Yiyi.

“He’s asking you about the bet, why did you have to mention all that?” Xu Yiyi pouted her lips and cast a ruthless side-eye at the green skirted woman.

“Isn’t the complicated relationship between you crucial to the bet? Thus, I must naturally explain it in detail,” The green skirted girl said while laughing mischievously.

It could be seen that the relationship between her and Xu Yiyi was truly close. It could be seen that she had said all that purely with the intention of making fun of Xu Yiyi.

“Are you going to explain or not? If not, I’ll explain,” Xu Yiyi said.

“I will, I will,” The woman smiled sweetly. Then, she looked to Chu Feng and said, “Not long after our Lord Headmaster and the two seniors set up their bet, my senior brother Kou Kang and little sister Yiyi both found out about it.”

“The two of them both felt that their respective powers would end up winning. As such, they began to quarrel with one another.”

“In the end, my senior brother Kou Kang was truly smart. Seeing that little sister Yiyi had already lost her rationality to anger, senior brother Kou Kang quick-wittedly made a proposal.”

“He said that since little sister Yiyi so firmly believed that the Immortal-cloak World Spiritist invited by the Sunset Cloud Valley would be more powerful, they might as well make a bet of their own.”

“He declared that if the Immortal-cloak World Spiritist invited by the Sunset Cloud Valley were to win, he would no longer bother little sister Yiyi.”

“However, if the world spiritist invited by the Sunset Cloud Valley were to lose to their Three Stars Hall’s world spiritist, then little sister Yiyi would have to marry him,” The green skirted woman said.

“Girl, what were you thinking? You decided to gamble your marriage just like that?”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to smile. Upon seeing Xu Yiyi’s reddened face, the smile on Chu Feng’s face grew even stronger.

Chapter 2275 – Endlessly Excited

---

“Aiya, don’t smile. I am miserable enough.”

“Back then, I was so infuriated by that Kou Kang that I lost my ability to reason. Furthermore, I was confident in our Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“That’s why I thought that I could just gamble, that I wasn’t afraid.”

“However, who would’ve thought that our Sunset Cloud Valley would not be able to find an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist after an entire year passed,” As Xu Yiyi said those words, there was a hint of complaint in her tone. Her complaint seemed to not be aimed at their Lord Valley Master or her master. Rather, it seemed to be aimed at Chu Feng.

As for Chu Feng, he naturally noticed it. He was able to tell that Xu Yiyi was complaining about his refusal to help their Sunset Cloud Valley.

Thus, Chu Feng smiled and said, “Then, do you wish to marry that Kou Kang?”

“Of course not. If I did, why would I make such a bet with him? I merely do not wish for him to continue to bother me. That is the reason why I agreed to the bet,” Xu Yiyi said in grievance.

“I understand then,” Chu Feng nodded. Then, he said to the green skirted woman, “Young lady, may I know at what sort of level the Immortal-cloak World Spiritist invited over by your Three Stars Hall is?”

“Daoist Gold Star that we managed to invite seemed to be an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” That woman replied.

“If that’s the case, then I can handle it,” Chu Feng looked to Xu Yiyi and said, “I’ll battle on behalf of your Sunset Cloud Valley.”

Hearing those words, the woman's expression immediately changed.

Originally, she had thought that Chu Feng was Xu Yiyi's friend. That was why she had spoken to Chu Feng with a decent attitude.

However, after Chu Feng said those words, when he stated that he would be able to handle it, and that he would battle on behalf of the Sunset Cloud Valley, the impression the green skirted woman had toward Chu Feng changed immediately.

She was now looking to Chu Feng with a disgusted gaze. The way she saw it, Chu Feng, someone who was not much older than her, was most definitely boasting.

Furthermore, his boasting was no ordinary boasting.

Who was Daoist Gold Star? When ignoring his cultivation, he was an actual Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

How could someone like Chu Feng possibly be able to handle him?

"Really? Chu Feng, you're really willing to help us?"

However, after hearing what Chu Feng said, Xu Yiyi revealed an overjoyed expression. Her expression and her gaze was simply akin to someone seeing a benefactor. It was filled with gratefulness.

Upon seeing Xu Yiyi's reaction, the green skirted woman's expression changed once again. She was perplexed and confused by what was happening.

Xu Yiyi was no fool. On the contrary, she was very bright. Why would she reveal such an excited appearance toward someone who was boasting like this?

"Little sister Yiyi, I've been here for so long now. Isn't it about time you give me an introduction?" The green skirted woman said.

At that moment, she suddenly wanted to know exactly who this man before her who possessed a decent relationship with Xu Yiyi was.

She wanted to judge from Chu Feng's identity as to whether or not he was truly someone with actual ability, or someone that was only boasting.

"Haha, look at me. I was only concerned about my own worries, and forgot to introduce the two of you," Xu Yiyi said with a beaming smile.

"Little sister Biyu, did you hear about the appearance of a genius world spiritist during Mount Cloud Crane's Immortalization Assembly held by Golden Crane True Immortal?" Xu Yiyi asked in a deliberately mystifying manner.

"I do. There was a youngster who managed to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist on Mount Cloud Crane. Furthermore, he had obtained the good graces of various major powers."

"If I am not mistaken, that person is called Chu Feng. Mentioning it, that Chu Feng is now very famous in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm."

"Likely, in the near future, the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm will know of that youngster by the name of Chu Feng becoming an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist."

"If possible, I truly want to get to know him too. After all, he is the second young Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to have appeared in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," That woman began to talk enthusiastically. Furthermore, an expression of anticipation filled her delicate little face as she said those words.

Hearing what the green skirted woman said, Xu Yiyi covered her mouth with her hand and started to chuckle.

"Why are you laughing? Do you not want to know who Chu Feng is?"

"Oh, that's right. Didn't you also go to Mount Cloud Crane? Did you see that Chu Feng?” The woman turned to ask Xu Yiyi.

“Not only did I meet him, I already knew him before going to Mount Cloud Crane,” Xu Yiyi said proudly.

“Are you for real, or are you lying?” The woman had a skeptical expression.

“Truth be told, this person here is the Chu Feng that you wish to know,” Xu Yiyi said as she pointed to Chu Feng.

“Ah?” Hearing those words, the woman immediately opened her mouth wide in astonishment.

Stunned. Even though she had guessed that the man before her might possess a special identity, she had never associated him with Chu Feng.

However, upon looking at Chu Feng now and recalling what he had said to Xu Yiyi, she realized that it was truly possible for the man before her to be that Chu Feng.

Else, why would he boast about battling Daoist Gold Star?

“You are really Chu Feng? The Chu Feng who defeated the Four World Spiritist Emperors and became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist on Mount Cloud Crane?” The green skirted woman stared at Chu Feng as she questioned him.

“It was indeed I,” Chu Feng nodded.

“You are really Chu Feng?” The green skirted woman asked again. At that moment, her eyes were shining.

“Yes, it really is me,” As Chu Feng spoke, he extended his finger and let out a strand of Insect Mark Immortal-level spirit power from his fingertip. Like a little snake, his spirit power began to revolve around his finger.

“Wow! You are actually that Chu Feng?! Wow!!!” At that moment, the eyes of that green skirted woman that were originally shining were now filled with countless little stars.

Then, the green skirted woman grabbed Chu Feng's hands and said, "Chu Feng, I am a disciple of the Three Stars Hall. My name is Song Biyu. I am extremely pleased to get to know you. So... could we be considered to be friends now?"

"Yes," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Wow! This is truly great! I've become friends with Chu Feng!"

"Chu Feng, did you know that you're simply my idol? It is not only me. After hearing about your accomplishments, everyone in our Three Stars Hall viewed you as their idol."

"You are simply too amazing. You are simply our model. You have truly won honor for us, the younger generation," The green skirted woman was extremely excited. It was as if she had been fed a stimulant.

"Hey, hey, hey, little sister Biyu, be a bit more reserved, okay?" Seeing this scene, Xu Yiyi spoke in contempt.

"Aiya, it's not that I'm not trying to act reserved. Rather, I'm seeing my idol here. Furthermore, I've become friends with my idol. How could I not be excited?" Song Biyu said with a beaming smile.

She had been tightly grabbing onto Chu Feng's hands with her fair-skinned and beautiful lily-white hands the entire time. There was not the slightest trace of embarrassment to be seen. Instead, she was elated.

"I truly do not know what to do with you," Xu Yiyi cast a helpless side eye at Song Biyu. Then, she said to Chu Feng, "Chu Feng, are you really willing to battle on behalf of our Sunset Cloud Valley?"

"Should I watch as you are married to someone that you do not like then?" Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Then there's no time to lose. Let's go over there right now," Xu Yiyi said with a joyous expression.

“Yay, yay, I’m finally able to see a marvelous showdown between Immortal-cloak World Spiritists,” Song Biyu followed after them in great delight.

Seeing Song Biyu’s expression, Chu Feng realized that she was also a simple-minded girl.

Else, as a disciple of the Three Stars Hall, why would she be this happy upon finding out that the Sunset Cloud Valley had found a helper?

However, Chu Feng was fond of her personality. At least, this meant that she did not place much importance on fame and profit.

After that, Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu left directly for the place where the Sunset Cloud Valley was receiving the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster.

Merely, before they arrived at the palace, they were blocked by a man. To be exact, that man had blocked Xu Yiyi.

This man also had a Three Stars Hall title plate hanging on his waist. He was looking at Xu Yiyi with an extremely lecherous expression.

Without needing any introduction, Chu Feng knew that this person should be that so-called Kou Kang.

Chapter 2276 – It's Chu Feng?

---

“Little sister Yiyi, we meet again. Have you missed me?” Kou Kang said to Xu Yiyi.

“Disgusting. Is little sister Yiyi something that you can say?” Xu Yiyi said with a disgusted expression.

Upon hearing what Xu Yiyi said, that Kou Kang's expression turned somewhat unsightly. He who possessed a high status and extraordinary strength was evidently not very used to being spoken down to in such a manner.

However, his annoyed expression disappeared in a flash. Soon, he smiled again and said to Xu Yiyi, “Oh, I've nearly forgotten. I shouldn't be addressing you as ‘little sister’ anymore. Instead, it should be ‘wife’.”

“Kou Kang, don't you act this shameless! You have yet to win our bet!” Xu Yiyi said furiously.

“Yet to win? Your Lord Valley Master and your master have already entered to apologize to my esteemed master.”

“I was only giving you face, so I came out instead of staying in there to see their unsightly appearances,” Kou Kang said.

“You!!!” Hearing what Kou Kang said, the fury in Xu Yiyi's eyes increased. After all, what Kou Kang had said was, to a greater or lesser extent, degrading the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui.

“Yiyi, there's no need to bother speaking with him. It's best that we go and take care of proper business,” Chu Feng grabbed Xu Yiyi's hand, moved around Kou Kang and began to proceed toward the palace.

Seeing that Chu Feng had actually grabbed his beloved's lily-white hand, Kou Kang was immediately furious.

One must know that Xu Yiyi's lily-white hands were something that even he had never touched before.

To Kou Kang, this was equivalent to his beloved's first time being snatched away by someone else right before his face.

This was especially meaningful to Kou Kang right now, as he already considered Xu Yiyi as his future wife.

Thus, the displeasure he felt was several tens of times greater. As such, how could he not be furious?!!!

“Courting death!!!” Kou Kang shouted furiously. Then, he swept forth his oppressive might of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

At the same time, a powerful fist that carried with it the whistling of wind was smashed toward Chu Feng's face.

At that split second, neither Xu Yiyi nor Song Biyu were able to see Kou Kang's movements clearly. However, they both realized that Kou Kang had unleashed an attack.

At that moment, the expressions of the two beauties changed enormously.

The reason for that was because they both knew that not only was Kou Kang a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, he also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation.

In other words, Kou Kang's actual battle power was on par with ordinary rank eight Half Martial Ancestors.

Faced with such a powerful Kou Kang, Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu naturally felt that Chu Feng would not be his match.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

However, at the moment when the Xu Yiyi was worried, lightning suddenly blossomed from Chu Feng's body.

After Chu Feng's body was covered with his Thunder Armor, Chu Feng's cultivation increased from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank five Half Martial Ancestor. Then, he extended his palm and grabbed Kou Kang's fist.

“.....”

Once his fist was grabbed, Kou Kang was immediately startled. Shock filled his eyes.

It was not only him, Song Biyu was also shocked.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had revealed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

Thus, even though Chu Feng currently had the cultivation of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor whereas Kou Kang had a cultivation of rank six Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng was still able to easily receive his attack.

After all, in terms of heaven-defying battle power, Chu Feng surpassed Kou Kang by an entire level.

“Paa~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng waved his sleeve and shook off Kou Kang's fist.

His powerful sweep caused Kou Kang to spin around for half a loop before finally stabilizing himself.

“Great job, Chu Feng,” Seeing Chu Feng beat Kou Kang back, Xu Yiyi was overjoyed.

Even though she already knew that Chu Feng possessed extraordinary battle power, she only knew that Chu Feng was actually that powerful after seeing his ability for herself.

“You damned bastard!” Kou Kang felt that he had been humiliated. Thus, he clenched his fist and planned to attack Chu Feng again.

“Stop!!!” Right at that moment, a furious shout sounded from the distant palace.

Turning toward the direction of the palace, the crowd noticed that the palace's entrance was open, and three extremely imposing figures were standing there.

They were the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Xu Yiyi's master Su Jingrui.

As for the third individual, he was a white-haired old man wearing a hairpiece and a blue daoist robe. That old man was emitting an air of righteousness all over. Likely, he should be the Headmaster of the Three Stars Hall.

"Kou Kang, what are you doing?" The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster asked coldly.

Kou Kang bowed and said, "Master, this person was being rude toward junior sister Yiyi. I was teaching him a lesson on behalf of junior sister Yiyi,"

"Lord Valley Master, master, senior, please do not listen to his nonsense. Chu Feng has not been rude toward me at all," Xu Yiyi hurriedly said.

"Kou Kang, you must be overthinking things. Little friend Chu Feng is our Sunset Cloud Valley's esteemed guest. Not to mention that he will not do anything to Yiyi, even if he really did do something to Yiyi, it shouldn't be you who should attack him," Right at that moment, Su Jingrui said. Furthermore, his tone was very ill-intentioned.

"Senior Su, I..."

After hearing what Su Jingrui said, Kou Kang's expression turned very ugly.

It was not only Kou Kang's expression that turned ugly, even the expression of Kou Kang's master, the headmaster of the Three Stars Hall, changed.

He was not against Su Jingrui publicly reprimanding his disciple.

Rather, he simply did not expect that Su Jingrui would do such a thing for a mere youngster.

With his understanding of Su Jingrui, he felt that Su Jingrui was not someone to do this sort of thing; the fact that he had done such a thing meant that the youngster was no small matter. At the very least, he was someone that Su Jingrui thought very highly of.

Merely, what sort of youngster would be able to make Su Jingrui think so highly of him?

Confused, the Three Stars Hall's headmaster began to carefully inspect Chu Feng.

Upon inspecting Chu Feng, his eyes started to shine.

He discovered that Chu Feng was very young. At least, he was over fifty years younger than his disciple.

Over fifty years younger meant that Chu Feng had trained in martial cultivation for over fifty years less than Kou Kang. However, Chu Feng was able to possess his current cultivation. This was truly remarkable.

Furthermore, Chu Feng possessed a Heavenly Bloodline.

There were two characteristics that wielders of Heavenly Bloodlines all possessed. One, they possessed a heaven-defying battle power three levels above that of ordinary people.

As for that, Chu Feng had already revealed it.

Next, they were capable of unleashing Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings that could increase their cultivations. If both were used, they could increase their cultivation by two levels.

Currently, Chu Feng had only unleashed his Thunder Armor. If he were to also unleash his Thunder Wings, his strength would surpass the current Kou Kang.

The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster was truly astonished by Chu Feng's strength.

“Chu Feng?” Suddenly, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster was astonished by the name Chu Feng. The reason for that was because he recalled someone.

“Brother Su, that little friend is called Chu Feng?”

“Could he be that Chu Feng who instantly became famous on Mount Cloud Crane?” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster asked Su Jingrui.

“Precisely,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui said in unison.

“Ssss~~~”

Hearing those words, the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster immediately sucked in a mouthful of cold air. Unable to contain himself, he looked to Chu Feng again. This time around, he had a marvelous expression.

Even though he had thought that might be the case earlier, he truly never expected that this youngster would truly be that Chu Feng.

Chapter 2277 – Unreasonable Demand

---

“This guy is that Chu Feng?”

Upon seeing the emotional reaction from his master, Kou Kang was startled.

After all, he had also heard about Chu Feng’s famous name. Chu Feng was an extremely renowned individual right now. He had heard that even the four first-tier powers had tossed olive branches at Chu Feng.

Why would someone like him be with Xu Yiyi?

Furthermore, it seemed that the two of them possessed an extraordinary relationship. Wouldn’t this mean that he had a very powerful rival in love?

At that moment, Kou Kang felt an enormous pressure enveloping his entire body.

“Rumors are truly inferior to seeing things for oneself. It turns out that not only does little friend Chu Feng possess extraordinary attainments in terms of world spirit techniques, you are also very much talented in terms of martial cultivation.”

“I am the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster, Ouyang Yuqing. It is a pleasure to meet you, little friend Chu Feng,” Right at that moment, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster walked toward Chu Feng and greeted him of his own accord.

“I am Chu Feng. It is my pleasure to meet Headmaster Ouyang,” Chu Feng replied courteously. After all, this man before him was an existence on the same level as the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui.

As for Kou Kang, he was truly surprised to see his master initiate a greeting toward a member of the younger generation like Chu Feng.

At the moment when Kou Kang was surprised, his master, who had always shielded him, suddenly revealed a serious expression. He said to Kou Kang, “Kou Kang, you were rude toward little friend Chu Feng earlier. Why are you still not apologizing?”

“Master, I...” Kou Kang looked to his master in shock. His gaze was filled with grievance.

As for Chu Feng, he stood to the side and reacted like an observer. He did not say anything. After all, he would not plead for leniency for someone like Kou Kang.

“You what? Yiyi has already mentioned that Chu Feng did not do anything rude toward her. Yet you still attacked little friend Chu Feng. You are the one that is being rude here.”

“Why are you still not apologizing to little friend Chu Feng? Have you forgotten my usual guidance?” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster berated Kou Kang again. His tone was very strict.

Being intimidated by his own master, even though Kou Kang was very unwilling, he still clasped his fist toward Chu Feng and said, “Brother Chu Feng, it was I, Kou Kang, who was impulsive earlier.”

“It’s fine,” Chu Feng reacted very casually to Kou Kang’s apology. It was as if he did not appreciate that apology at all.

The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster did not say anything about Chu Feng’s reaction. After all, his disciple’s apology was not sincere either.

“Say, the two of you are in the wrong here. You’ve clearly managed to invite little friend Chu Feng, why did you two instead tell me that you haven’t managed to invite an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, and stated that you would receive my punishment?”

“Old fellows, could it be that the two of you are deliberately playing with me?” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster looked to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui in a slightly displeased manner.

"That's not the case. Although little friend Chu Feng is our esteemed guest, we have not asked little friend Chu Feng to participate in our matter. As such, he does not know about it," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master explained.

"Lord Valley Master, since I've already heard about this matter now, if you do not mind, I wish to spar against the Immortal-cloak World Spiritist invited by the Three Stars Hall on behalf of the Sunset Cloud Valley," Chu Feng said.

"Little friend Chu Feng, are you serious?" Hearing those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui were overjoyed.

"Chu Feng has just become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. I happen to want to find seniors to swap pointers with. Today would be a rare opportunity for me to do so," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Someone like you think you can spar with me?"

Right at that moment, another figure flew out from the palace in the distance.

It was another old man. Merely, that old man had a head of blonde hair and a face full of blonde beard.

Furthermore, on his head was a headdress with a golden star on it.

That old man's aura was not very strong. At least, his aura was inferior to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster and Su Jingrui.

However, he possessed a different sort of symbol on his body. It was the clothes he was wearing. It was a world spiritist cloak.

Immortal-level world spirit power was hovering around his world spiritist cloak. Although it was only Insect Mark Immortal-level spirit power, he was most definitely an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Evidently, he was that Daoist Gold Star.

After Daoist Gold Star appeared, he immediately cast his gaze at Chu Feng. Merely, his gaze was filled with displeasure and disdain. “Are you certain that you want to spar against me?”

Seeing that the attitude of that Daoist Gold Star was very bad, Chu Feng did not present a good attitude either. Instead, he laughed coldly and then said, “You’re an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist and I’m also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Why can’t I spar against you?”

“Are you implying that you are not an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, but instead a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist? If you are a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, I will concede right now.”

Chu Feng’s words were evidently aggressive. After all, Daoist Gold Star was evidently only an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

“Humph, even if we’re both Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, there is still a difference in how strong one might be.”

“You are merely someone who has just managed to obtain Insect Mark Immortal-level spirit power. You cannot be considered to be an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist yet.”

“Thus, you are still not qualified to spar against me,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“Daoist Gold Star, it is not up to you to decide whether or not little friend Chu Feng is qualified to spar against you. Instead, it is up to our Sunset Cloud Valley to decide,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said. His tone was quite ill intended too.

“Since your Sunset Cloud Valley insists on humiliating yourselves, I am willing to help you accomplish your aim.”

“However, the title of an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist is not something that one can bring dishonor to. This is especially true for a brat like him,” Daoist Gold Star looked to Chu Feng. With a cold tone, he said, “I am willing to spar with you in terms of world spirit techniques. However, if you lose, then you are not allowed to declare yourself an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist again.”

“Then what if you are to lose?” Chu Feng asked.

“It is impossible for me to lose,” Daoist Gold Star said confidently.

“Aren’t you too overconfident? This could no longer be considered confidence, but rather arrogance instead,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Very well, let’s assume that it’s possible that I might lose. I will do whatever you want me to do. How about it?” Daoist Gold Star said confidently.

“If you are to lose, I will not want you to do anything too excessive. I merely want you to apologize to me publicly,” Chu Feng said.

“Apologize to you?” Although he declared that he would do anything if he were to be defeated, Daoist Gold Star revealed a displeased expression upon hearing Chu Feng demanding an apology.

“What, are you afraid?” Chu Feng asked.

“Afraid? Why would I be afraid of someone that I will defeat?”

“Very well, this old man shall agree to your demand. If I am to lose, I will publicly apologize to you.”

“However, if I am to win, I want to add another demand for you,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng said.

“I want you to kneel on the ground and apologize to me,” Daoist

Gold Star said those words one word at a time.

“Gold Star, is this not too excessive?” Su Jingrui’s eyebrows narrowed as he spoke coldly.

“Daoist Gold Star, little friend Chu Feng has not done anything to humiliate you. Why must you demand an apology from him?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was also very displeased.

“Someone of his quality actually wants to spar against me. That itself is an insult toward me,” Daoist Gold Star said.

Xu Yiyi was unable to watch it anymore and declared, “But you clearly put forth a demand earlier. Yet now you want to add another demand. This is simply unfair.”

“He wishes to spar against me with his mere status. Do you think that is fair?” Daoist Gold Star said.

“You!!!” Hearing those words, both the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui were furious. The reason for that was because Daoist Gold Star was truly too conceited.

“Very well, I agree to your conditions,” However, to everyone’s surprise, Chu Feng actually agreed to Daoist Gold Star’s irrational demands.

Chapter 2278 – A Sinister Laugh

---

Everyone was startled by Chu Feng's acceptance of the conditions.

It was not because they felt that Chu Feng would definitely lose.

This was especially true for the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others. They all knew how strong Chu Feng's world spirit techniques were.

They felt that Chu Feng's world spirit techniques were very strong, that even though he had only just become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he possessed the strength to compete against Daoist Gold Star.

They were only feeling confused because they felt that Daoist Gold Star's demands were truly irrational. Yet, Chu Feng had actually agreed to them.

In this sort of situation, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui involuntarily glanced at one another.

After glancing at one another, they seemed to have reached a mutual understanding. They then looked to Chu Feng. The confusion in their eyes had disappeared and was replaced with admiration.

They both felt a possibility. That was that Chu Feng had dared to agree to those demands because he possessed the certainty of absolute victory. At the very least, he was very confident in himself.

It was precisely because of the confidence that Chu Feng possessed that the two grand characters felt admiration for Chu Feng.

They felt that the young needed that sort of drive.

“This is truly what they meant by a newborn calf not being afraid of tigers. Since you have decided, we can start,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“Very well, how do you want to compete?” Chu Feng said.

“How to compete? We shall fight with world spirit techniques until one is defeated,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“Until one is defeated? What sort of ‘defeat’ do you mean?” Chu Feng asked.

“It means me beating you to a state of being unable to fight back,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“You’re planning to use world spirit techniques to compete in an actual battle against Chu Feng?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley master and the other spectators all revealed astonished expressions.

“Precisely,” Daoist Gold Star nodded.

“That isn’t really fair, no?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“How is it not fair?” Daoist Gold Star asked coldly.

“Your cultivation is, after all, that of a rank six Martial Ancestor, whereas little friend Chu Feng is only a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. With how enormous the difference in your cultivations is, how could the two of you possibly battle with world spirit techniques?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Humph,” Daoist Gold Star smiled lightly. He said, “That’s something that you all are ignorant about. I am going to use world spirit techniques to fight against him. I am not using my martial power. So why would my cultivation possibly matter?”

At that moment, Su Jingrui said, “Everyone knows that a world spiritist’s cultivation directly decides the strength of a world spiritist. After all, a world spiritist will also need a powerful build.”

“Although we are not Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, we are, after all, Royal-cloak World Spiritists. As such, we know about that sort of thing.”

“So what? It is he who wants to challenge me. Are you saying that I cannot utilize my advantage?”

“In that case, I might as well not compete. I’ll just admit defeat, okay? After all, no matter what I do, you’ll all say that I’m the one in the wrong. Isn’t that right?” After Daoist Gold Star finished saying those words, he looked to the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster and said, “Headmaster Ouyang, how about we just leave? After all, it seems that your two old friends are unable to take a defeat with grace.”

At that moment, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster had a wry smile on his face. He actually also deeply disliked Daoist Gold Star’s attitude.

However, it remained that Daoist Gold Star was someone that he requested help from. Furthermore, he had exhausted a great amount of effort in order to invite Daoist Gold Star here.

At that moment, he was placed in a very difficult situation because he did not wish to offend either side.

“It turns out, only I alone am an outsider. You’re also with them,” Daoist Gold Star was able to see through the attitude of the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster. Thus, he felt increasingly angry and displeasure filled his face.

In response, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster hurriedly tried to explain. “Brother Gold Star, you’re overthinking things. How could you be an outsider? This is merely a friendly spar. It’s not as serious as you think it is.”

However, before he could finish, Daoist Gold Star laughed coldly. Then, he said, “Ouyang Yuqing, you know best why I agreed to come here.”

“I did not fancy the rewards that you gave me. Instead, it was because I, Gold Star, and your Three Stars Hall both possessed the word 'star.' As such, I considered it fate."

"It was because of that fate that I decided to help you. Else, did you really think that bit of reward you gave me would be enough to make an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist help you?"

Hearing those words, the Three Stars Hall's headmaster revealed a displeased expression. He said, "Gold Star, are your words not too excessive?"

"You have not come here for free. It was also you who declared how much you wanted to be paid. Furthermore, I had already given you your rewards."

"Yet now, you are actually saying those things to me? Do you really think it is appropriate?"

"To put it pleasantly, I have requested your presence here."

"However, to put it bluntly, you were merely hired by me."

"Is there someone who speaks to an employer the way you're speaking to me?"

Anger. The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster's tone was filled with anger. Furthermore, it was also very imposing.

He had revealed all of the displeasure he felt earlier.

"Pah! I gave you face, and you really considered yourself to be someone grand?"

"This is your pay. Today, your daddy I will return it to you. From this point on, your daddy I am not related to you in the slightest."

Daoist Gold Star was truly not someone to be trifled with. He took out a Cosmos Sack and tossed it at the Three Stars Hall's headmaster.

As for the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster, he was not one to be polite either. Not only did he receive the Cosmos Sack, he also opened it to check its contents carefully.

“It’s missing twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster said.

“I have accompanied you here and wasted a lot of my time. Those twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments are my compensation,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“Didn’t you declare earlier that you didn’t care about this bit of reward? That you’ve come here because of fate? Why is there a compensation fee now?” Su Jingrui mocked.

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others present, even Chu Feng and the others of the younger generation, started to sneer.

While Daoist Gold Star might appear to be an extraordinary individual, he was actually extremely petty. He was indeed someone to be sneered at.

“Good, very good.”

“Three Stars Hall, Sunset Cloud Valley, I, Daoist Gold Star, will remember you all.”

“You all will soon know the consequences for going against me, Daoist Gold Star, are.”

Daoist Gold Star’s expression began to distort. However, in the end, he still took out twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments and tossed them at the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster.

Upon seeing the twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, Chu Feng’s heart started to move. The reason for that was because those twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments were all of extraordinary quality.

They could be said to be top quality Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. In fact, their quality even slightly surpassed Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword.

It was no wonder Daoist Gold Star would return everything but keep the twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments.

“I will not bother seeing you off then,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said after putting the twenty Incomplete Ancestral Armaments away.

“There’s no need for you all to see me off,” Daoist Gold Star snorted coldly. Then, he waved his sleeve and prepared to swagger off.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly said, “Why are you leaving? Could it be that you are afraid of competing?”

Daoist Gold Star stopped his footsteps. He turned around and asked, “What? You still want to compete against me?”

“I never declared that I would not compete with you,” Chu Feng said.

“Hah...” Hearing what Chu Feng said, that Daoist Gold Star burst into laughter. Merely, his laughter was very sinister. It caused one to shiver upon hearing it.

Chapter 2279 – A Person's Dignity

---

“If you are to compete with me now, it will no longer be a matter concerning the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley. Instead, it will be a personal matter between the two of us.”

“Thus, the gambling stakes must change,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“How do you want to change it? Go ahead and tell me,” Chu Feng seemed to have already anticipated that Daoist Gold Star would say such a thing. Thus, his reaction was rather calm and collected.

“If you wish to compete with me in terms of world spirit techniques, you must use your life as the price. Unless one's opponent is to die... the match shall never end,” Daoist Gold Star said.

“Daoist Gold Star, you're actually planning to gamble your lives?” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others' expressions all changed enormously.

“Very well, I accept,” However, to the crowd's surprise, Chu Feng actually calmly accepted the extremely excessive demand from Daoist Gold Star.

In response, Xu Yiyi shouted, “Chu Feng!!!” Then, she began to shake her head at Chu Feng nonstop.

Her intention was very clear. She was urging Chu Feng to not be too impulsive, and telling him to not joke around with his life.

At the same time Xu Yiyi was doing that, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, Su Jingrui and even the Three Stars Hall's headmaster were all sending voice transmissions to Chu Feng.

Their intentions were the same as Xu Yiyi's. They too were urging Chu Feng against it, because they did not want Chu Feng to gamble with his life.

Faced with the crowd's urgings, Chu Feng wanted to explain things to them in secret, and tell them what he was thinking.

However, with that moment of hesitation from Chu Feng, that Daoist Gold Star's lips lifted into a mocking smile. He said, "What's wrong? After being incited by the crowd, you do not dare to compete anymore? Sure enough, you're nothing more than a coward."

It seemed that Daoist Gold Star had also managed to guess that the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others were urging Chu Feng against it. That was why he deliberately mocked Chu Feng.

"Chu Feng, do not be incited by him. To begin with, this was merely an ordinary spar. There is no need to raise it to a level of confrontation with one's life on the line. He is evidently just trying to bully you," Xu Yiyi said.

"Bully him? Little girl, you should understand the situation first. It is he who is insisting on competing with me. I am not forcing him to compete with me," Daoist Gold Star said.

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui both opened their mouths. They wanted to speak on Chu Feng's behalf.

However, before the crowd could speak, Chu Feng suddenly gestured with his hand and said, "Seniors, please say no more."

"I know what seniors are all thinking. I also know what this Daoist Gold Star is thinking."

"In his eyes, I, Chu Feng, am merely a member of the younger generation. Not to mention cultivation, he feels that even my world spirit techniques will simply not be a match for his own."

"He feels that I will definitely be defeated should I compete against him, that I would be bringing about my own destruction should I agree to his demands."

After saying those words, Chu Feng turned his sharp gaze to Daoist Gold Star.

He said, “However, a Buddha’s worth is determined by a single incense stick, whereas a person’s worth is determined by their dignity.”

“Although I, Chu Feng, am a member of the younger generation; although I, Chu Feng, possess a cultivation inferior to his, I do not feel that I, Chu Feng, am inferior to Daoist Gold Star.”

“More than that, I do not feel that my world spirit techniques are inferior to Daoist Gold Star’s.”

“I am going to compete against you. Originally, I had only wanted to battle on behalf of the Sunset Cloud Valley. However, from your repeated insults, belittling and provocations, I, Chu Feng, am unable to tolerate it anymore.”

“The reason for that is because I, Chu Feng, do not feel myself to be inferior to you. On the contrary, I feel that I am stronger than you. At the very least, I managed to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist as a member of the younger generation. What about you?”

“Daoist Gold Star, I dare ask, how many years did you train in order to finally become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist? How many years have you trained in order to obtain your current level of cultivation?”

“You!!!” After hearing what Chu Feng said, Daoist Gold Star’s expression changed. The reason for that was because what Chu Feng had said was not without reason. When he was at Chu Feng’s age, not to mention world spirit techniques, even his martial cultivation was greatly inferior to Chu Feng’s.

If one were to compare their current attainments, he would indeed be superior to Chu Feng. However, in terms of talent, his talent was much inferior to Chu Feng’s.

“Thus, I do not feel that I am inferior to you. As such, I refuse to allow your repeated insults toward me.”

“Only I, Chu Feng, know how much effort I’ve exhausted in order to obtain my current standing. That is not something that you can reject.”

“Thus, I am going to fight for myself now. Even if I am to gamble with my life at stake, I am still going to fight,” Chu Feng said.

Once Chu Feng said those words, the expressions of many of the people present changed. They began to look to Chu Feng with gazes of greater admiration.

There were an enormous amount of conceited individuals in this world of martial cultivation. However, the great majority of them were people that would only bully the weak and be afraid of the strong.

Before people weaker than themselves, they would act as if they were gods, and consider everyone else to be beneath them.

However, when facing individuals stronger than them, those people would immediately change completely, and start to act as if they would kneel and lick the other’s shoe.

However, Chu Feng was different. When facing Daoist Gold Star, an existence clearly more powerful than himself, Chu Feng did not show the slightest sign of cowardice.

His moral integrity was extremely rare nowadays.

“Little friend Chu Feng, since you’ve already decided, I will no longer urge you against it. I merely want to tell you one thing...”

“... you must give your all, and battle to your heart’s content,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

After he finished saying those words, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master soared into the sky. After soaring into the sky, he moved far off into the distance.

He was creating an empty space for Chu Feng and Daoist Gold

Star to compete with one another.

In response, Su Jingrui, the Three Stars Hall's headmaster and the others also soared into the sky and moved to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master's side.

Following that, Chu Feng also soared into the sky. He looked to Daoist Gold Star below and said, "Come. It will depend on whether or not you have the ability to take my life."

"Good, very good. Since you are so eager to die, I shall help you accomplish your aim."

Once Daoist Gold Star said those words, he immediately unleashed his attack. His Immortal-level spirit power surged forth from within his body. It was extremely ferocious and incomparably domineering.

"Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~"

His magnificent world spirit power turned into an enormous sledgehammer. Like a mountain peak, it smashed up toward Chu Feng from down below.

Gale-force winds whistled from the hammer, and space itself started to tremble nonstop. It was as if the hammer would be able to smash a hole through the sky.

"Oh no!"

Upon seeing the world spirit hammer, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others all started to frown.

Daoist Gold Star was using his spirit power. However, his spirit power's battle power was definitely at the level of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

As for Chu Feng, his actual cultivation was only that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Even if he were to use the power of his lightning and his heaven-defying battle power, he would only be able to barely contend against ordinary rank nine Half Martial Ancestors.

However, that battle power was something that was only possible when Chu Feng used both his martial power and Heavenly Bloodline.

Right now, the two of them were competing with world spirit techniques, and were not allowed to use the slightest bit of martial power.

Everyone knew that while world spirit techniques could also be used to fight, the strength of one's world spirit techniques would depend on setting up a spirit formation over an extended period of time.

When confronting others head-on, what was most important was the speed and intensity of the attack. Thus, world spiritists simply did not have the time to set up powerful spirit formations, and had to change their attacks according to the situation.

In that sort of situation, the battle power of one's world spirit techniques would generally be much inferior to a cultivator's actual battle power.

“Humph.”

However, right at the moment when the crowd were sweating cold bullets for Chu Feng, at the moment when several experts were planning to act to save Chu Feng, Chu Feng actually let out a slight snort.

Then, Chu Feng's five fingers were clenched into a fist. He pointed his fist downward and shot forth a punch.

“Boom~~~”

In an instant, boundless Immortal-level spirit power shot out from Chu Feng's fist like a waterfall filled with Immortal-level spirit power.

In an instant, the spirit power overflowing from Chu Feng's fist landed on the giant hammer from Daoist Gold Star.

“Rumble~~~”

The two collided. Immediately, extremely loud explosions could be heard. Following that, spirit power spattered everywhere, shattering the space around them in the process.

Originally, Chu Feng’s spirit power had been like water. However, when it collided with the giant hammer, it gained frantic power and smashed the giant hammer apart.

The might of the attack was so strong that it even shook the heavenly dome.

Chapter 2280 – Situation Turning Bad

---

“How could this be?”

Seeing this scene, not to mention the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others, even the expression on Daoist Gold Star’s face changed enormously.

The reason why Daoist Gold Star had been able to unleash an attack with his world spirit technique that possessed a battle power on par with rank nine Half Martial Ancestors was because he was an actual rank six Marital Ancestor.

Thus, even though he was only using spirit power, he was still able to unleash a battle power of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

As for Chu Feng, his actual cultivation was only that of a mere rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

With his low level of cultivation, how could he possibly be able to unleash spirit power with battle power on par with rank nine Half Martial Ancestors?

Furthermore, he even managed to defeat Daoist Gold Star’s attack with one strike?

“Crash~~~”

Right at the moment when Daoist Gold Star was astonished, a torrential rainstorm-like sound was heard from the sky above.

He raised his head to look, and was immediately struck dumb.

The sky was filled with spirit power that was densely packed together. At that moment, it was sweeping toward him.

It was coming at him with an aura of death.

“Buzz~~~”

At the moment when the spirit power that filled the sky began to sprinkle downward, Daoist Gold Star waved his sleeve and sent forth a layer of spirit power that turned into an oval-shaped protective barrier that covered him completely.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

Like a torrential rain, the spirit power began to fall like a myriad of sharp blades.

However, the world spirit barrier created by Daoist Gold Star acted like an indestructible fort.

Even though Chu Feng’s attack was extremely powerful, and caused energy ripples to fly about in all directions, it was unable to break through the fort created by Daoist Gold Star.

“Huu~~~”

Right at that moment, the indestructible fort suddenly disappeared.

Merely, when Daoist Gold Star’s figure reappeared again, a watermelon-sized spheroid was in his hand.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Daoist Gold Star tossed the sphere upward. As the sphere spun, it let out a boundless amount of attractive power.

Chu Feng’s spirit power was rapidly absorbed by that sphere.

As more and more spirit power was absorbed by the sphere, the sphere actually started to emit waves of oppressive might that caused ripples to appear in space itself.

When the spirit power Chu Feng had unleashed was absorbed completely, the ripples created by the waves of oppressive might became so intense that they were frightening.

“That’s a spirit formation,” Upon seeing the strange sphere of light, the eyes of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others shone brightly.

They finally realized why Daoist Gold Star had only blocked Chu Feng's attack with his defensive barrier earlier. It turned out that he had been setting up a spirit formation.

“Not bad, not bad. You were actually able to block my first attack. You're pretty decent.”

“However, the next attack will completely destroy you.”

Suddenly, Daoist Gold Star tossed the sphere out again.

Once the sphere was tossed, a ray of light that contained enormous power began to surge toward Chu Feng.

Most importantly, that sphere itself possessed an extremely powerful might.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Chu Feng did not dare to underestimate the sphere, and began to unleash spirit power to attack the sphere nonstop. He wanted to stop the sphere.

However, the sphere was unstoppable. All of the spirit power Chu Feng had shot toward it was absorbed.

Soon, the sphere was about to reach Chu Feng. However, Chu Feng was unable to stop it.

“Oh no!”

Seeing that scene, the crowd were once again extremely worried for Chu Feng.

This match was a match of world spirit techniques. As such, one could not use martial power.

With how powerful that sphere was, Chu Feng might be able to dodge it should he utilize his martial power to unleash a movement type Taboo Martial Skill.

However, he could not use martial skills right now. As such, how was he to dodge it?

“Woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when the crowd were worried, Chu Feng turned into a ray of light and dodged the incoming sphere.

“Chu Feng, you actually used a martial skill? You have lost this match. Go and kill yourself immediately. Do not force me to personally kill you,” Daoist Gold Star shouted loudly. His voice was filled with complacency.

After all, the two of them had only just started fighting, yet he was already able to force Chu Feng to use a martial skill. This completely demonstrated how powerful he was. As such, he would naturally be pleased.

“Foolish dog, look carefully. Am I using a spirit formation or a martial skill here?” Chu Feng said mockingly.

“This?!!!”

Hearing those words, the crowd all began to carefully inspect Chu Feng. Upon closer inspection, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others were immediately overjoyed, whereas Daoist Gold Star revealed a gloomy expression.

The reason why Chu Feng’s speed was so fast right now was because there was a body of light underneath his feet. That body of light was as fast as lightning. That was how Chu Feng had obtained his lightning fast speed.

However, that body of light was not a martial skill. The reason for that was because it did not contain the slightest bit of martial power. Instead, it contained pure spirit power.

Thus, it was not a martial skill, but instead a world spirit formation.

“Little friend Chu Feng is truly amazing. He has actually grasped such a powerful spirit formation. That speed is simply even faster than Taboo Martial Skills,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, Su Jingrui and the others were all overjoyed.

Even the Three Star Hall’s headmaster began to applaud Chu

Feng. After all, he had already had a falling out with Daoist Gold Star, and thus wanted Chu Feng to win.

However, in terms of being happy, the person that was the happiest right now was none other than Xu Yiyi. Even though she was clearly standing in the air, she was still jumping and hopping in joy. Not only that, she was also cheering for Chu Feng, and even shouted at Daoist Gold Star, “Hey! Daoist Gold Star! You are an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, how could you not tell the difference between spirit power and martial power? Could it be that your vision has been blurred by your old age?”

Although everyone was feeling happy for Chu Feng, there was one exception. In fact, that person’s expression was equally as ugly as Daoist Gold Star’s expression. That person was none other than Kou Kang.

Who was Kou Kang? He was someone who liked Xu Yiyi, and viewed Chu Feng as his rival in love.

It would be one thing for Chu Feng to be in the limelight right now. However, his beloved was actually even cheering for Chu Feng in a love-struck manner.

In fact, even his junior sister Song Biyu had a reaction similar to Xu Yiyi’s. This caused Kou Kang to truly feel stifled.

“Even if that is the case, you will still undoubtedly be defeated.”

After that, Daoist Gold Star grew even more furious. He began to form hand seals with one hand, and that spirit formation sphere actually started to turn again. Once again, it started to chase after Chu Feng.

Furthermore, this time around, its speed was even faster, and its power was even mightier.

“Damn it!”

With the golden sphere coming toward him, Chu Feng started to frown. He did not dare to be careless in the slightest. He began to utilize the spirit formation underneath his feet to wholeheartedly escape.

Chu Feng was shocked to discover that the speed of that sphere was truly too fast. He was no longer able to stop anywhere, and had to run away nonstop.

Else, he would be caught by the sphere. Once he was caught, Chu Feng knew that he would be met with a disastrous fate.

The reason for that was because the sphere was very strong. Furthermore, it was very strange. It seemed to possess the effect of being an antithesis to spirit power. That sphere was no ordinary spirit formation.

Chu Feng felt that it would absolutely be impossible for him to block it should he not use martial power to unleash a taboo martial skill. If the situation was bad, he might even end up being crushed to death by the sphere.

“Humph. You dared insult me as a foolish dog? What are you now? Are you not a running dog fleeing in panic?”

Seeing that Chu Feng was fleeing nonstop without even bothering to turn his head around, Daoist Gold Star started to mock him.

“What do we do? Master, will Chu Feng be able to turn the situation around?”

Seeing that Chu Feng had entered a disadvantageous situation, Xu Yiyi became extremely worried. She looked to her master Su Jingrui.

Faced with this, Su Jingrui started to frown deeply.

He then said, “Although Daoist Gold Star is only an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he remains someone who has meticulously studied world spirit techniques for thousands of years.”

“Although that spirit formation sphere might appear to be simple, it is extremely difficult to deal with. Right now, Chu Feng is only able to dodge that spirit formation, and simply does not have the time to set up a spirit formation to counterattack.”

“If this is to continue, I fear that the situation will be far from good.”

Chapter 2281 – Contrary To Expectation

---

“Ah?” After hearing what Su Jingrui said, Xu Yiyi’s already worried face was filled with even more nervousness.

In fact, it was not only Xu Yiyi who was worried. The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, Su Jingrui, and even the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster, who did not possess much of a relationship with Chu Feng, were deeply worried for him.

Very few people would want a talented genius like Chu Feng to die like so, so easily.

“Continue to run. I shall see how much longer you can run. Today, you will undoubtedly be killed,” Daoist Gold Star grew more and more complacent.

“Undoubtedly be killed? That’s not for certain,” Although Chu Feng appeared to be in a very sorry state as he was escaping the entire time, he did not appear to have the attitude of admitting defeat.

“You are truly one who is reluctant to admit your defeat. Do you know the origins of my spirit formation?”

“This spirit formation of mine was obtained from a remnant of Grandmaster Kai Hong. It is a spirit formation left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong!” Daoist Gold Star said proudly.

“Grandmaster Kai Hong? That is actually a spirit formation created by Grandmaster Kai Hong?!”

“No wonder, no wonder...”

Hearing those words, the expressions of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others all changed enormously.

While Chu Feng did not know who Grandmaster Kai Hong was, they did.

Grandmaster Kai Hong was someone who had died tens of thousands of years ago. However, his legend still circulated throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm even now.

Grandmaster Kai Hong was a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. He was a legend in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

In fact, Grandmaster Kai Hong was deemed to be one of the most powerful world spiritists in the history of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

For the spirit formation Daoist Gold Star had unleashed to actually be something created by Grandmaster Kai Hong, it was no wonder that the spirit formation would be so powerful.

“This spirit formation of mine is capable of absorbing all spirit power. It is simply impossible for Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists to break through my spirit formation.”

“Furthermore, my spirit formation is extremely mighty. Unless you are to use martial power, it is impossible for you to withstand my spirit formation’s attack.”

“Chu Feng, no matter how much spirit power you might possess, sooner or later, you will exhaust it. However, my spirit formation will not stop, nor will it perish until it manages to strike you.”

“Thus, today, you will undoubtedly be killed,” Daoist Gold Star said those words with absolute confidence. It was as if he had truly grasped victory in his hand.

“That’s not for certain,” However, right at that moment, Chu Feng’s figure suddenly shifted. He began to fly toward Daoist Gold Star.

“What? Are you going to walk right into my attack?”

“Or could it be that you are trying to achieve mutual destruction?”

“Haha. I am truly sorry to inform you of this, but you will not be able to cause me harm. You, on the other hand, will be killed by me.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was flying rapidly towards him, Daoist Gold Star was not afraid. He waved his sleeve, and a layer of spirit power appeared. Soon, his spirit power formed a fort that completely protected him within it.

Following that, one of his hands began to change nonstop as he formed hand seals in succession. He was making the defenses of his fort stronger and stronger.

Seeing that spirit formation fort, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others were completely discouraged.

Daoist Gold Star's current spirit formation fort was even stronger than what he had unleashed to block Chu Feng's previous attack. Unless Chu Feng was capable of setting up an even more powerful spirit formation, it would simply be impossible for Chu Feng to break through that spirit formation fort.

If Chu Feng was unable to break through that spirit formation fort and was stopped by it, it would mean that the spirit formation sphere that was chasing after him the entire time would finally be able to strike him.

“I cannot let little friend Chu Feng die like this. I must stop him.”

Thinking of this, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master quietly moved his body toward Chu Feng and Daoist Gold Star.

At the same time, surging martial power began to gather in his palm. He was planning to save Chu Feng.

In fact, it was not only the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master. Su Jingrui was also doing the same sort of thing as him. He too was preparing to save Chu Feng in this moment of imminent peril.

At the very least, the two of them wanted to preserve Chu Feng's life.

However, right at the moment when everyone felt that Chu Feng would undoubtedly be defeated, Chu Feng's lips were raised into an upward curve.

“Puu~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng opened his mouth. Then, a walnut-sized sphere of light shot out of his mouth and flew rapidly toward the fort.

Everything happened too quickly. By the time the crowd noticed what had happened, the sphere of light Chu Feng shot out of his mouth had already landed on Daoist Gold Star's defensive fort.

“Boom~~~”

Rumbles sounded nonstop as energy ripples swept forth. That sphere of light actually managed to shatter Daoist Gold Star's defensive fort instantly.

“That is a spirit formation?!”

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others were all greatly alarmed. The reason for that was because they were able to tell that the sphere of light Chu Feng had spit out was no ordinary spirit formation. Instead, it was a sort of very powerful slaughtering formation.

Else, it would be impossible for him to be able to break through Daoist Gold Star's defensive formation that easily.

“Damn it! I've been made a fool of!”

Daoist Gold Star's expression also changed enormously. The reason for that was because the sphere of light Chu Feng had spit out was already extremely close to him. It was impossible for him to dodge the sphere.

Unable to dodge, he could only wait for the sphere of light to strike his body like a shooting target.

“Paa~~~”

Finally, that sphere of light landed onto Daoist Gold Star's chest. However, to the crowd's surprise, that sphere of light did not let out the expected explosion or ferocious energy ripples. Instead, it landed onto Daoist Gold Star's body like a feather.

"Truly despicable."

Seeing this scene, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others all started to gnash their teeth angrily.

The reason for that was because a layer of spirit formation armor had appeared around Daoist Gold Star. That armor contained a special sort of power. It was that armor that had managed to block the sphere of light Chu Feng had spit out.

However, that spirit formation armor was not a spirit formation that Daoist Gold Star had set up. Rather, it seemed to be a protective treasure that would automatically activate to save its master's life during crucial moments.

That sort of behavior was simply akin to cheating. However, due to the fact that even though that spirit formation armor was created by a treasure, it only emitted spirit power, it could not be said that Daoist Gold Star was cheating.

That was the reason why the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others felt Daoist Gold Star to be despicable.

"Chu Feng, you've lost."

Daoist Gold Star was smiling so strongly that his face became filled with wrinkles like a steamed bun. He was truly overjoyed.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was less than a meter away from his spirit formation sphere. It would simply be impossible for Chu Feng to escape from it now.

"Is that so?" However, Chu Feng's smile remained unchanged after hearing what Daoist Gold Star said.

Seeing that smile, the crowd's hearts all tensed up. They were all unable to make head or tails of it.

Even though a calamity loomed, how could Chu Feng still smile so easily?

“Woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when the crowd was puzzled, the spirit formation sphere that had been chasing after Chu Feng the entire time, that spirit formation created by the legendary Grandmaster Kai Hong, actually brushed past Chu Feng’s side.

The spirit formation sphere did not strike Chu Feng. Instead, it turned into a ray of light that carried frightening might with it as it began to fly toward Daoist Gold Star.

“Boom~~~”

The sphere struck Daoist Gold Star. Immediately, a loud explosion was heard.

Surging energy ripples completely engulfed Daoist Gold Star.

“How could this be?”

At that moment, not only were the people of the younger generation like Xu Yiyi stunned, even the grand characters like the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master were stunned.

That was clearly Daoist Gold Star’s spirit formation. Why would it strike Daoist Gold Star instead?

Chapter 2282 – The Outcome Of The Battle Has Been Determined

---

“Huu~~~”

Suddenly, a stream of boundless martial power turned into a ferocious gale that swept out in all directions, dispersing the violently surging berserk spirit power.

At the same time, Daoist Gold Star's figure once again appeared in everyone's line of sight.

Daoist Gold Star was uninjured. Merely, he no longer had the smile he previously had.

At that moment, extreme unwillingness filled his aged face. His eyes were filled with confusion.

The reason for that was because he was only able to block the attack from that spirit formation sphere by utilizing his rank six Martial Ancestor's martial power at the moment of peril.

However, they had clearly agreed that they were not allowed to use martial power, and only allowed to use spirit power in their match.

The fact that he had used martial power meant that he had lost.

“Daoist Gold Star, you've used martial power. You have lost,” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said with a beaming smile. His tone contained traces of mockery.

He was truly in a cheerful mood. He was feeling happy for Chu Feng. Even though he did not know why Daoist Gold Star's spirit formation would turn to attack him, it remained that the result was that Chu Feng had won.

“Brother Gold Star, although your spirit formation is powerful, it seems that you are incapable of controlling it.”

“As an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, you were actually attacked by your own spirit formation. If this matter were to be known, I wonder how many people would start to talk about it during their leisure time.” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster mocked.

Although he was the one who had asked Daoist Gold Star to come here, Daoist Gold Star’s manner of conduct was truly too vile.

Thus, since the two of them had already had a falling out with one another, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster would naturally not be courteous towards Daoist Gold Star anymore.

Thus, he seized the opportunity to insult Daoist Gold Star to relieve himself of the discontent that he had felt before.

As for Daoist Gold Star, he ignored the mockery from the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster.

Instead, his eyes were fixed onto Chu Feng. He asked, “Brat, exactly what did you do? Why would my own spirit formation attack me?”

“It’s very simple. I saw through your spirit formation and set up a spirit formation that could undo your spirit formation.”

“The spirit formation I used earlier was not to attack you. Rather, its purpose was to attract your spirit formation and make your spirit formation attack it instead,” Chu Feng said.

Once Chu Feng provided his explanation, the crowd came to a sudden realization.

They finally realized why Daoist Gold Star’s spirit formation would move to attack him instead. It turned out that it was all caused by Chu Feng.

Merely, after the crowd realized what had happened, they all felt great disbelief.

After all, the spirit formation Daoist Gold Star had used was extremely powerful, and something created by Grandmaster Kai Hong. It would be one thing if Chu Feng knew about the method to undo the spirit formation. However, exactly how did he manage to set up that spirit formation?

Wasn't Chu Feng being chased by Daoist Gold Star's spirit formation the entire time?

"Nonsense! I clearly did not see you set up your spirit formation."

"Are you planning to tell me that you finished setting up your spirit formation in your stomach?" Daoist Gold Star said.

"That's right, you've guessed correctly," Chu Feng smiled and nodded.

"What? Chu Feng actually finished setting up that spirit formation in his stomach?"

"No wonder, no wonder Chu Feng spat out his spirit formation from his mouth. It turns out that spirit formation originated from his stomach."

The crowd was even more astonished upon hearing Chu Feng's verification. The reason for that was because it was indeed possible for some powerful world spiritists to set up spirit formations using only their thoughts, without needing their hands. They were capable of controlling their spirit power and setting up their spirit formations formlessly.

However, it remained that only a very small amount of people were capable of accomplishing that feat.

Furthermore, even if some people were capable of that feat, they would only be able to do so for simple spirit formations. As for the spirit formation Chu Feng had set up earlier, it was capable of undoing a spirit formation created by Grandmaster Kai Hong. As such, it was most definitely not an ordinary spirit formation.

Therefore, the crowd was astonished by it.

“Enough of your nonsense! How could you possibly be able to set up a spirit formation that could undo my spirit formation in your stomach?!”

Daoist Gold Star’s reaction was very intense. He evidently did not believe that Chu Feng was capable of accomplishing that sort of thing.

“For some things, just because you are unable to accomplish it does not mean that it would be impossible for me to accomplish too,” Chu Feng smiled again. His smile was filled with mocking intent.

“Impossible! You must have used some sort of cheating method! Else, with your world spirit techniques, it is absolutely impossible for you to surpass me,” Daoist Gold Star continued.

“Humph,” Chu Feng felt disinclined to even bother answering what Daoist Gold Star said. He merely snorted. The disdain and contempt contained in his snort was self-evident.

“What are you snorting about?!” Daoist Gold Star asked furiously.

“I am merely sighing with regret that Daoist Gold Star is actually a sore loser,” Chu Feng said.

“You dare call me a sore loser?!” Daoist Gold Star became even more furious.

“Are you not a sore loser?”

“Earlier, it was you who declared that we were to bet with our lives in this match.”

“And now, you’ve used martial power. As such, you have lost. Yet, you have now decided to frame me for cheating to shift all responsibility of your defeat. Are you not a sore loser?” Chu Feng asked coldly.

“Daoist Gold Star, a loss is a loss. Why bother making all those excuses?”

“There’re all these people here. You shouldn’t let yourself be looked down on by the younger generation,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others added to Chu Feng’s mockery.

Faced with the gazes of contempt from the crowd, Daoist Gold Star’s expression grew increasingly ugly.

As matters stood, he truly regretted. He regretted being overly confident and making that sort of gamble.

And now, it was actually him who had ended up losing. This was simply karma.

However, it would be one thing if it was something else. However, the consequence of defeat was his life. He had trained for so many years, and experienced countless tribulations and crises. Yet, was he to die here today just like that?

“Haha...” Thinking of that, Daoist Gold Star actually grew calm. He laughed and said, “I, Gold Star, am indeed a sore loser. What can you all possibly do to me? Could it be that you all think that you can kill me?”

“You all should know that some of my friends knew of my coming to this place. If I do not return safely, it will not only be the Sunset Cloud Valley, but the Three Stars Hall will also have to shoulder this responsibility.”

“I, Gold Star, have journeyed in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for countless years. While I do not have much of anything, I do have a lot of friends. If something is to happen to me, your Sunset Cloud Valley and Three Stars Hall can forget about having peaceful days in the future.”

“This Daoist Gold Star is truly shameless!” Hearing those words, Xu Yiyi was so furious her little face turned deep red.

She had actually already guessed that Daoist Gold Star would not keep his promise, and would go back on his word should he lose.

Merely, she had never expected that Daoist Gold Star would be so confident and bold when saying those words. In fact, he even turned to threaten them. Xu Yiyi was truly unable to tolerate his actions.

“Daoist Gold Star, while it is true that we will not be able to kill you, we are able to trap you in this place.”

“If you do not provide a suitable explanation today, we will not let you leave,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said coldly.

“You dare?!” Daoist Gold Star shouted angrily.

“Why wouldn’t we dare? While you, Daoist Gold Star, possess many friends, how could our Sunset Cloud Valley, a power that has existed for so many years, have less friends than you, a single person?” Su Jingrui said coldly.

Following that, a boundless oppressive might rained down. That oppressive might completely sealed the entire region.

Sensing that fatal oppressive might, Daoist Gold Star started to panic slightly. Although he was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, his cultivation was no match for the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others.

Thus, he asked, “What do you all plan to do?”

“Apologize to little friend Chu Feng,” Su Jingrui and the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said in unison.

Chapter 2283 – Exceptionally Good Opportunity

---

“What if I refuse?” Daoist Gold Star asked with a frown.

“In that case, do not blame us for being impolite towards you,” Su Jingrui and the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master’s voices grew even colder.

“You dare?” Daoist Gold Star snorted coldly, and unleashed his oppressive might of a rank six Martial Ancestor.

“Boom~~~”

However, right after Daoist Gold Star unleashed his rank six Martial Ancestor’s oppressive might, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui’s oppressive might that were lingering in the sky immediately charged towards Daoist Gold Star like a group of ferocious beasts.

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui were two rank eight Martial Ancestors. Thus, their oppressive might was extremely powerful.

As Daoist Gold Star was only a rank six Martial Ancestor, he was unable to withstand a single blow from the oppressive might of the two men.

In no time at all, Daoist Gold Star’s oppressive might was completely crushed. As for Daoist Gold Star himself, he also felt a fatal sensation again.

He knew that if he were to allow the oppressive might to continue to crush down towards him, even if he was able to live, he would definitely be seriously injured.

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui were not joking around. The two of them were truly planning to attack him for the sake of Chu Feng.

Suddenly, Daoist Gold Star shouted, “Stop!!!”

Once his words were heard, the oppressive might that was descending towards him immediately stopped.

Although the oppressive might stopped, it had not disappeared. Like a magnificent army with thousands of men and horses, like a tiger glaring at its prey, the oppressive might surrounded Daoist Gold Star.

It would be one thing if Daoist Gold Star were to concede and apologize. However, if he refused to concede, they would not spare him easily.

Under that sort of situation, Daoist Gold Star was left with no alternative. As such, he said, “Good, very good. I, Gold Star, will firmly remember what has happened here today.”

After Daoist Gold Star finished saying those words, he looked to Chu Feng, clasped his fist and bowed, “Chu Feng, it is I, Gold Star, who was in the wrong earlier. I shall offer you my apology here.”

Although Daoist Gold Star had clasped his fist, bowed and offered his apology, the crowd present were all able to tell that Daoist Gold Star did not mean a single word he said. His apology was absolutely fake.

The tone of his apology was even more vile than Kou Kang’s apology earlier.

This caused Xu Yiyi and the others to feel extremely displeased.

This Daoist Gold Star was truly too excessive.

“It’s alright. I am always a person of great moral stature, and do not remember the offenses committed by others of low moral stature,” Chu Feng said indifferently.

“You!!!” Hearing those words, Daoist Gold Star was so furious that the corner of his lips started to twitch. Although he had indeed apologized to Chu Feng, it was simply a fake apology. He never expected that Chu Feng would actually take it to heart. Not only that, he even spoke such words.

Who was the person of great moral stature?

Who was the person of low moral stature?

If Chu Feng was the person of great moral stature, wouldn't it mean that he, Gold Star, would be a person of low moral stature?

Chu Feng's undisguised insult caused Daoist Gold Star to feel extremely displeased.

Upon hearing what Chu Feng said, Xu Yiyi and the others started to smile.

Regardless of whether or not Daoist Gold Star's apology was sincere or not, it remained that he had, after all, apologized. As for Chu Feng, he gladly accepted that apology.

If news of this matter were to spread, Daoist Gold Star's reputation would greatly decrease.

"That should be enough, no?" Daoist Gold Star turned his gaze to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui. Evidently, he felt very humiliated after apologizing to Chu Feng, as his expression had grown even uglier, and his tone became increasingly unpleasant.

"We won't bother seeing you off," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master waved his hand. As matters stood, he no longer considered Daoist Gold Star a guest.

"Humph," Daoist Gold Star snorted coldly. He brushed his sleeve and then soared into the sky. Merely, before leaving, he suddenly stopped in midair, turned around and cast his gaze at Chu Feng.

Bitter resentment and hatred. There was even killing intent in his gaze.

Evidently, Daoist Gold Star had firmly remembered Chu Feng and this grievance.

“Gold Star, you only have yourself to blame for what has happened here today. If you dare to make things difficult for little friend Chu Feng in the future, our Sunset Cloud Valley will definitely not spare you,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said coldly.

“What happened today is also related to our Three Stars Hall. Thus, if something is to happen to little friend Chu Feng, our Three Stars Hall will also not watch with folded arms,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster spoke loudly.

“Humph,” Daoist Gold Star did not say anymore. He snorted coldly and then left.

As the saying goes, it was a joy to have a guest from a distant place.

For honored guests like the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster, one should naturally properly entertain them.

Originally, as Chu Feng had already bid his farewell, he should be leaving. However, due to the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others urging him to stay, Chu Feng decided that he would participate in the banquet before leaving.

At the banquet, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others were naturally praising Chu Feng nonstop.

In fact, even the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster openly tossed out an olive branch at Chu Feng. Even though he did not say it explicitly, he had revealed his appreciation for Chu Feng.

When even the people of the older generation were acting in such a manner, the two girls Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu were praising Chu Feng to high heaven. This was especially true for Song Biyu; she was looking at Chu Feng as if she were seeing her idol.

There were not many people present at the banquet to begin with. Other than Kou Kang, the others present were all praising Chu Feng. This caused Kou Kang, who was not fond of Chu Feng, to feel extremely awkward.

On one hand, he was extremely fed up with Chu Feng. As such, he naturally did not wish to falsely praise Chu Feng like the others.

On the other hand, the others were all praising Chu Feng, so if he were to not praise Chu Feng, his resentment toward Chu Feng would be too obvious. This would make him appear to be extremely small-minded.

However, when he saw his beloved, his master and his junior sister all thinking so highly of Chu Feng, Kou Kang truly felt as if rage was burning all over his body.

He pondered left and right, and suddenly thought of a brilliant scheme.

He felt that he could not resign himself to fate. Else, Xu Yiyi would definitely fall into Chu Feng's hands. It might even be possible that his master would end up being on Chu Feng's side.

He must strike back. And now, it was the time for him to strike back.

“Brother Chu Feng, let me offer you a toast.”

Thinking about this, Kou Kang stood up and offered Chu Feng a cup of wine. This time around, his attitude was extremely different from before. At the very least, he appeared to be very sincere.

“Cheers,” One does not strike someone who smiles at you. Although Chu Feng knew that Kou Kang's toast was definitely not sincere, Chu Feng must give his master face. Thus, he did not refuse him.

“Brother Chu Feng, you are so young, yet you've already become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Furthermore, you even defeated the long-renowned Daoist Gold Star today. You are truly the pride of us, the younger generation.”

“As a fellow member of the younger generation, I have become a bit itchy after seeing Brother Chu Feng revealing your might today.”

“Unfortunately, my world spirit techniques are lacking because I have been wholeheartedly focused on martial cultivation.”

“Earlier, when I fought against Brother Chu Feng, I discovered that Brother Chu Feng’s battle power is also very strong in terms of martial cultivation.”

“As today is a rare opportunity, I wish to spar with Brother Chu Feng. Brother Chu Feng, what say you?” Kou Kang said with a beaming smile.

“Kou Kang, what is your intention? Chu Feng has just fought against Daoist Gold Star earlier. He has already exhausted his strength. Yet you’re challenging him now? What is your motive with this?” Xu Yiyi immediately stood up and began to lash out at Kou Kang.

She knew very well what sort of character Kou Kang was. With a single glance, she had determined what Kou Kang was thinking. While he declared that he wished to spar with Chu Feng, he was actually just trying to teach Chu Feng a lesson.

Chapter 2284 – The Confident Kou Kang

---

“Junior sister Yiyi, what you’ve said is incorrect. Firstly, Brother Chu Feng’s strength and vigor has not been exhausted.”

“In addition, Brother Chu Feng was only using world spirit techniques earlier. He had not used the slightest bit of his martial power. Thus, if I am to compete against him now, I would not be taking advantage of him in the slightest,” Kou Kang said.

“Chu Feng is a rank four Half Martial Ancestor, whereas you are a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. There are two entire levels of cultivation between you two. As such, how could it possibly be fair?” Xu Yiyi said.

“It is indeed true that my cultivation is above Brother Chu Feng’s by two levels of cultivation.”

“However, Brother Chu Feng is a wielder of a Heavenly Bloodline. If he is to use his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, his cultivation will increase to rank six Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, I will not gain any advantage with my higher level of cultivation.”

“Of course, I am, after all, older than Brother Chu Feng, and have trained in martial cultivation for a longer time than Brother Chu Feng. If we are to spar, I will yield to Brother Chu Feng. After all, it is only a sparring match. I will stop once victory is determined, and not take things too seriously,” Kou Kang said with a beaming smile.

“Master, Kou Kang is clearly trying to bully Chu Feng,” Feeling helpless, Xu Yiyi turned to request help from her master Su Jingrui.

However, Su Jingrui was only smiling without saying anything. It was not only Su Jingrui. Even the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster did not have the intention to say anything to stop Kou Kang.

With their status, if they wanted to stop Kou Kang, they would be able to do so easily with a single word.

The reason why they didn't say anything was because they also wanted to see exactly how talented Chu Feng was in terms of martial cultivation.

After all, Chu Feng's world spirit techniques were already so powerful. If his battle power in the field of martial cultivation would be equally as powerful, he would truly be an exceptional genius.

Kou Kang's strength was not that much stronger than Chu Feng's. Even if he was stronger, he would not be that much stronger. Furthermore, both of them were part of the younger generation. As such, it would be perfect for them to spar.

Thus, the three old fellows were all looking forward to the sparring match.

They were not concerned with the outcome of the match. They were only concerned with how strong Chu Feng's battle power would be in terms of martial cultivation.

Kou Kang was very scheming. Seeing that the three grand characters did not speak to stop him, he realized their intentions. Thus, he grew even more confident. He said to Chu Feng, "Brother Chu Feng, if it is too difficult, please don't worry yourself over this. I was merely giving a suggestion. If you truly do not wish for it, we can forget about it and pretend that I never said anything."

"Since we have already eaten and drunk to one's content, it would be pretty good to stretch my muscles and bones."

"Since Brother Kou Kang is interested, I, Chu Feng, will naturally be willing to keep you company," As Chu Feng spoke, he put the wine cup in his hand down. He then stood up and moved to the center of the palace hall.

Although there were only a few participants at the banquet, the palace hall that the banquet was being held in was not small at all. It was more than sufficiently large for Chu Feng and Kou Kang to spar in.

Right at that moment, Xu Yiyi's voice transmission entered into Chu Feng's ears, "Chu Feng, don't be careless. The reason why that Kou Kang who clearly knows that you are a possessor of Heavenly Bloodline still dares to challenge you is because he is a Divine Body."

"After utilizing his Divine Power, his cultivation will increase from rank six Half Martial Ancestor to rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. On top of that, he possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation. As such, he is capable of fighting against ordinary rank nine Half Martial Ancestors."

"Furthermore, his Divine Power is very powerful. At the very least, of all of the people of the younger generation I've seen so far, there has not been a single person capable of defeating Kou Kang."

"Although I deeply detest him, I must still admit that he is a rare martial cultivation genius among the current people of the younger generation."

Chu Feng did not answer Xu Yiyi after hearing her voice transmission. Instead, he smiled at Xu Yiyi confidently.

Actually, even if Xu Yiyi didn't mention it, Chu Feng would be able to guess that it was something like that.

However, even if this Kou Kang was no ordinary character, and could compete against ordinary rank nine Half Martial Ancestors after using his various techniques, he, Chu Feng, was also capable of contending against ordinary rank nine Half Martial Ancestors after using his various techniques.

Furthermore, with Chu Feng's battle power, ordinary rank nine

Half Martial Ancestors would simply be no match for him.

This was also the reason why Chu Feng was willing to take on Kou Kang's challenge even though he knew that this Kou Kang possessed some abilities.

“Zzzzz~”

As dazzling lightning flashed, Chu Feng's Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared simultaneously. His cultivation directly increased from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, Chu Feng's heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation was also openly unleashed.

Everyone present was able to tell how powerful the Chu Feng standing before them was. They were simply unable to judge Chu Feng's battle power with his martial cultivation.

“Good. Heavenly Bloodlines are truly exceptional. I, Kou Kang, am honored to be able to spar with Brother Chu Feng today.”

Although Kou Kang said those words with praise toward Chu Feng, his gaze was filled with obvious contempt.

As Kou Kang spoke, his gaze started to change. Following that, light blue gaseous flames began to surge from his body.

The light blue gaseous flames were clearly gaseous. Furthermore, there were not a lot of such gaseous flames.

However, the moment the gaseous flames appeared, it brought forth the sensation of a violently surging sea.

Divine Power, it was a special sort of Divine Power.

As the light blue gaseous flames rapidly surged, they soon formed into a light blue armor that covered Kou Kang.

Although the armor possessed an ordinary appearance, it was not even a tenth as imposing as Chu Feng's Thunder Armor. The two of them could simply not be discussed together.

However, that light blue armor formed with Divine Power possessed the same sort of power as Chu Feng's Thunder Armor. That is, it increased Kou Kang's cultivation by one level.

At that moment, Kou Kang was no longer a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. Instead, his cultivation had increased to that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation was also completely revealed. All of the people present were able to sense how powerful he was.

Comparatively, the might that Kou Kang revealed actually even surpassed Chu Feng's.

"Kou Kang is truly Kou Kang. His battle power is truly not something that the disciples of our Sunset Cloud Valley can match up to."

After Kou Kang revealed his Divine Power, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui were unable to stop themselves from praising him.

Kou Kang's talent could not be considered to be the best in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, to the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, Kou Kang was most definitely the strongest genius to appear in the last ten thousand years.

"Brother Chu Feng, regardless of whether or not you possess a Heavenly Bloodline, it remains that I, Kou Kang, possess a higher cultivation than you."

"Thus, I will not go all-out in this sparring match. I will only consider it to be a spar, and stop the moment the outcome of the battle is determined," Kou Kang said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

Although what Kou Kang said might appear to be courteous, his tone was actually filled with provocation and contempt. It was as if he was indirectly telling Chu Feng that he simply did not place Chu Feng in his eyes at all.

As for the so-called stopping once the outcome was decided, it was utter bullshit. If possible, Kou Kang would definitely beat Chu Feng to death.

The reason why he said those things was because he knew that he would not be able to beat Chu Feng to death before all these experts.

Since he would not have the opportunity to kill or seriously injure Chu Feng, Kou Kang decided that he might as well not bother to injure Chu Feng. Like that, it would show that he was even grander.

Chu Feng had already seen through all of Kou Kang's little schemes. However, Chu Feng did not expose him. Instead, he calmly said, "Since it's a sparring match, we will naturally have to stop once the outcome is determined. Brother Kou Kang, there's no need for you to be modest. Go ahead and unleash your attacks."

"Brother Chu Feng, be careful. I, Kou Kang, will be attacking now."

Once Kou Kang said those words, he began to let out successive footsteps. His footsteps were extremely heavy, bringing forth heavy wind. However, his speed was extremely fast. As his palms swung back and forth, countless blurs formed.

Kou Kang did not use any martial skills. Instead, he attacked purely with his physical body. However, his attack instantly stunned both Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu, the two other members of the younger generation present.

The reason for that was because Kou Kang's speed, power and might were simply perfect.

The current Kou Kang was most definitely not the same Kou

Kang who had casually unleashed an attack at Chu Feng earlier. Although he had declared that he would yield to Chu Feng, he was actually taking this very seriously.

He was determined to defeat Chu Feng.

Chapter 2285 – Fire And Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation

---

“Huu, huu~~~”

The wind brought forth by the punch whistled like ferocious beasts, like an army of thousands of men and horses.

Kou Kang’s strength was no small matter. Although his attacks changed continuously, they also arrived instantly.

“Bang, bang, bang~~~”

Chu Feng’s body shifted. Immediately, his aura changed enormously.

His fists were like tigers and his legs were like dragons. They turned into countless blurs as he rushed forth to meet the incoming Kou Kang.

Not only did Chu Feng completely block all of Kou Kang’s attacks, he even began to unleash counterattacks at Kou Kang, suppressing his attacker.

“This guy.”

Seeing that Chu Feng had actually managed to easily block his attacks, and even began to unleash counter attacks at him, Kou Kang started to frown.

One should know that his punches and kicks were all very sharp.

Among the people of his same generation, the majority of them would only be able to produce such sharp attacks using martial skills. Practically none were capable of unleashing such sharp attacks without martial skills.

Thus, his skill with punches and kicks had always been his pride.

That was the reason why he had not used martial skills to begin with. He thought that if he was able to suppress Chu Feng using only his punches and kicks, he would be able to reveal how powerful he was.

However, at that moment, not only did Chu Feng's punches and kicks not appear to be weaker than his own, they instead seemed to be stronger than his own. This completely shattered the scheme he'd had in mind.

"Amazing. Never would I have expected that little friend Chu Feng's punches and kicks have reached this degree of mastery. They are simply unpredictable and unfathomable. If this were a world without martial skills, then merely with little friend Chu Feng's mastery of his martial arts, it was likely that very few people of the same level of battle power as him would be able to contend against him."

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, Su Jingrui and the Three Stars Hall's headmaster all revealed pleasantly surprised expressions.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng's martial arts skills were truly proficient. Even they would not be able to reach Chu Feng's level of mastery.

"Brother Chu Feng, a martial cultivator's battle power is dependent on their usage of martial skills."

"Although your ability with punches and kicks is pretty decent, it remains that what really matters to martial cultivators are their martial skills."

"I will be using martial skills now. Prepare yourself, because what I will be using will be a Mortal Taboo Martial Skill."

"However, you don't have to worry too excessively either. Like my punches and kicks, I will only put forth half of my effort into my martial skills. As long as you prepare yourself, I will not be able to injure you," Suddenly, Kou Kang moved back explosively and shouted at Chu Feng. After that, he began to unleash his martial skill.

“Pah! You clearly went all-out with your punches and kicks, yet you dare to say that you’ve only put forth half of the effort? You are truly shameless!” Xu Yiyi began to curse and mock Kou Kang.

“Haha, Brother Ouyang, although my disciple’s words might be a bit excessive, she was not speaking nonsense. This disciple of yours is truly someone who boasts a lot,” Su Jingrui looked to the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster with a smile.

When even Xu Yiyi was able to tell that Kou Kang’s earlier attacks with his punches and kicks were an all-out effort, how could the experts like Su Jingrui possibly not?

“Young people are always fond of winning. However, it is true that Kou Kang’s behavior isn’t good. I will criticize him about it afterwards,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster could only smile wryly. He was rather embarrassed.

The conversation between Su Jingrui and the others was heard by Kou Kang. Upon hearing his master’s embarrassed laughter, Kou Kang also felt slightly embarrassed.

Thus, he did not immediately unleash the Mortal Taboo Martial Skill that he had completed forming at Chu Feng. Instead, he deliberately removed half of its might before unleashing it at Chu Feng.

“Boom~~~~”

Once the fist strike was shot out, martial power started to surge. The surging martial power turned into a ferocious leopard. With its mouth wide open, the leopard rushed to devour Chu Feng.

Although Kou Kang had deliberately decreased the might of his martial skill by half, it remained that the martial skill he used was a Mortal Taboo Martial Skill. As such, it was still frighteningly powerful.

“Woosh~~~”

However, even though Chu Feng was faced with such a powerful attack, he didn't dodge. Instead, he charged toward Kou Kang's martial skill in a straight line.

Chu Feng's speed was extremely fast. It was because he was not simply running. Instead, he was using a Mortal Taboo-level movement martial skill.

Thus, in merely a blink of an eye, Chu Feng had already arrived at the leopard formed with martial power.

“Bang~~~”

Chu Feng shot forth a punch and destroyed that leopard completely.

The Mortal Taboo Martial Skill Kou Kang had unleashed was like air; it did not give Chu Feng the slightest bit of resistance.

Thus, the might of Chu Feng's punch did not decrease. Showing no quarter, it continued straight toward Kou Kang.

Furthermore, due to the fact that the punch was so fast, Kou Kang simply did not have the time to dodge at all. As such, he ended up being struck by Chu Feng's punch.

“Boom~~~~”

Following a loud explosion, Kou Kang was knocked several meters back.

Even though Kou Kang had managed to block the might of Chu Feng's punch during his moment of imminent peril, he was still knocked back several meters by that punch.

In fact, when he managed to steady himself, a trace of blood began to flow from the corner of his mouth.

“Great! Great ability!”

At that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master actually disregarded his status and started to applaud Chu Feng.

In fact, it was not only the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master who was so exceptionally excited. Even Su Jingrui and Kou Kang's master had the same sort of pleasantly surprised expression.

Chu Feng's punch was a very ordinary Mortal Taboo Martial Skill. It did not contain a lot of power. However, Chu Feng was able to unleash it with a power that surpassed that of the martial skill itself.

If it wasn't for the fact that Chu Feng had managed to unleash that martial skill so perfectly, it would have been impossible for him to injure Kou Kang.

Chu Feng had already proven his battle power to be exceptional with his martial arts earlier. And now, after using his martial skills, he had demonstrated that he was extraordinary.

As matters stood, the three old men were all certain that Chu Feng was not only a genius in terms of world spirit techniques, his attainments in terms of martial cultivation were equally exceptional.

Chu Feng was truly an exceptional genius.

"Brother Kou Kang, I think that it would be best that you stop yielding to me. Else, I fear that I might end up injuring you because I am unable to control my strength," Chu Feng said with a mocking smile.

"You!!!" Kou Kang was already extremely displeased when the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master started to applaud him being injured by Chu Feng in an undisguised manner. However, Chu Feng now actually said such a thing. This caused Kou Kang to feel even gloomier.

Most importantly, Kou Kang was actually unable to find a way to refute Chu Feng. After all, he was the one who had been boasting about not using his full strength earlier. Now, he could only suffer the consequences of his own actions.

However, Kou Kang was a rather shrewd individual. Even though he was burning with fury, he still ended up forcibly swallowing his fury that was about to explode.

With a smile on his face, Kou Kang said to Chu Feng, “Brother Chu Feng is truly extraordinary. I was careless earlier.”

“Since that is the case, I will no longer hold myself back. Merely, the attack that I will use will be extremely powerful. I hope that Brother Chu Feng will not take offense if I end up injuring you.”

Right after Kou Kang said those words, his long hair started to drift. He spread his arms wide open, and waves of boundless martial power began to emit from his palms.

At that moment...

A vortex of freezing cold appeared on Kou Kang’s left palm.

A vortex of blazing flames appeared on Kou Kang’s right palm.

Although the two vortexes were floating above Kou Kang’s palms, they both emitted an aura capable of causing destruction upon the world.

Those were two Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

“That is?!”

Upon seeing that scene, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui immediately stood up emotionally.

Even the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster stood up abruptly. His expression changed enormously. Compared to the two old men from the Sunset Cloud Valley, he was even more emotional right now.

“Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation!!!”

“Kang’er, he, he actually successfully mastered the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragon Transformation?!!!”

The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster exclaimed loudly and emotionally.

Chapter 2286 – Clear Cut Contrast

---

According to a legend, there once appeared two Divine Beasts at a certain region in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. They were two Dragons!!!

One was an ice dragon, whereas the other was a fire dragon.

When the two dragons galloped in the sky, they appeared to be capable of causing the destruction of both the heaven and earth. Their might was truly imposing and intimidating.

By chance, an expert in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm managed to see this scene of the two dragons soaring into the sky.

Seeing that astonishing scene, his martial power surged forth violently. In that very instant, he came to a sudden enlightenment.

As a result, that expert began to devote the rest of his life to comprehend what he had felt that day. In the end, he managed to create two Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

Emperor Taboo: Ice Dragon Transformation.

Emperor Taboo: Fire Dragon Transformation.

The two martial skills were ice and fire. They both possessed incomparable might. Both of them were high quality Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

However, the strongest aspect of the two martial skills were not themselves. Rather, it was when they were fused together.

According to that legend, as long as one could successfully fuse the two martial skills together, the might that one would obtain would surpass that of Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

As for that martial skill capable of surpassing Emperor Taboo Martial Skills, it was the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation.

By pure chance, the Three Stars Hall managed to obtain the two martial skills. Furthermore, they deemed the two martial skills as their most valuable, their hall protection, treasures.

Although the outstanding disciples and elders of the Three Stars Hall were all allowed to cultivate the two martial skills, very few people were actually able to grasp the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation.

However, at that moment, it seemed that not only had Kou Kang grasped the two Emperor Taboo Martial Skills, he had also mastered them, bringing them to the transcendent level of the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation.

“Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation!!!”

Suddenly, Kou Kang shouted loudly. The two vortexes of fire and ice that he held in his palm shot out.

“Roar~~~”

Once the two vortexes left his hand, their size increased rapidly, and they turned into two enormous dragons of fire and ice.

The two dragons possessed devastating power. When the two dragons coiled with one another, the might that they gave off felt akin to a choking sensation.

Not to mention people of the younger generation like Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu, even the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others revealed serious expressions. They were deeply worried for Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because not only had that legendary martial skill, the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation, been successfully unleashed by Kou Kang, the two enormous dragons that formed from the martial skills were also rushing straight towards Chu Feng.

They did not possess the appearance of fighting till victory and defeat was determined. Instead, they were simply planning to take

Chu Feng's life.

“Oh no!”

At that moment, everyone felt that the situation was very bad for Chu Feng. Even though Kou Kang's Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation was confined to the palace hall and not truly world-shaking, its might definitely surpassed that of ordinary Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

Would Chu Feng be able to take on such a powerful Emperor Taboo Martial Skill?

No. No one felt that Chu Feng would be able to take it on.

However, at the moment when everyone was worried for Chu Feng, at the time when experts like Su Jingrui were planning to act to save Chu Feng, no one noticed that Chu Feng had already firmly clenched his right fist.

Furthermore, wave upon wave of frightening martial power was being gathered inside his fist.

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng shot forth his fist.

There was no special prior indication. However, once Chu Feng's fist was shot forth, it immediately revealed world-shaking might.

“Boom~~~”

Surging energy ripples instantly filled the entire palace hall. Enormous power caused even the palace hall to sway left and right. Ear piercing thunder could even be heard outside the palace hall.

Many of the Sunset Cloud Valley's elders that were ignorant of what was happening even thought that something had happened. One by one, they unleashed their weapons and arrived outside of the palace, surrounding it.

While the outside of the palace was very chaotic, quite a major disturbance occurred inside the palace too.

Other than Chu Feng, all of the people present had dumbstruck expressions.

That legendary Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, that Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation, had disappeared.

Everyone was able to clearly see that the overwhelmingly powerful Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation was destroyed by Chu Feng's punch.

"That was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. But, why would it be so powerful? It managed to defeat even the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation with a single strike?"

"It is as if that Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation was simply unable to contend against it."

The Three Stars Hall's headmaster felt great disbelief. As the headmaster of the Three Stars Hall, he knew very well that his disciple Kou Kang had already managed to unleash the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation perfectly with the cultivation that he possessed. It would simply be impossible for ordinary Emperor Taboo Martial Skills to contend against the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation.

Yet, Chu Feng's punch had managed to defeat the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation.

Furthermore, although the might of Chu Feng's punch had disappeared, the Three Stars Hall's headmaster, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui were all able to tell that the might of Chu Feng's punch had not been canceled out by the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation.

Instead, it had been dispersed by Chu Feng.

If Chu Feng had not dispersed the might of his attack, even if Kou Kang managed to live through it, he would have been definitely be seriously injured.

The way they saw it, with the might of that punch, Kou Kang would have most likely died.

“Brother Kou Kang’s strength is truly extraordinary. I, Chu Feng, am truly in admiration.”

“It would seem that our sparring today would have to end in a draw,” Chu Feng clasped his fist.

It was not that Chu Feng did not wish to teach Kou Kang a lesson. Merely, he wanted to give the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster face. Likewise, he also wanted to give face to the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui.

Taking his three seniors into consideration, Chu Feng decided to stop. At the very least, when the outcome of the spar was a tie, it would not be too humiliating for the Three Stars Hall.

After all, Kou Kang represented the Three Stars Hall.

“Chu Feng, this sparring match is still not over. Let’s contin...”

“Cough, cough~~~”

Kou Kang did not plan to stop. Merely, before he could finish his words, he burst into a series of violent coughs.

It could be seen that even though Kou Kang had managed to successfully unleash the Fire and Ice Coiling Dragons Transformation, that martial skill seemed to have brought an enormous burden onto his body.

“Are you certain?” Chu Feng frowned slightly. He was slightly displeased.

Chu Feng discovered that Kou Kang was truly a shameless person that refused one’s good intentions. Chu Feng had already yielded to him, yet he still wanted to continue.

If this Kou Kang insisted on continuing with this spar against Chu Feng, Chu Feng would definitely teach him a lesson.

“Of course. Victory or defeat must be determined from this sparring match,” Kou Kang said firmly.

However, right at that moment, the Three Stars Hall's headmaster shouted loudly, "Kang'er, it's enough!"

"Master, I wish to continue..." Kou Kang was unwilling to give up.

"Quiet!" The Three Stars Hall's headmaster glared at Kou Kang angrily.

The reason for that was because he knew very well that Chu Feng was giving his Three Stars Hall face. That was why he did not defeat Kou Kang earlier.

However, this disciple of his was truly incapable of differentiating good from bad. That was the reason why he was furious.

"Enough, enough, it was only a sparring match to begin with. Let's just stop."

"Come, let's continue to drink wine," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui said with smiles on their faces.

Although the two of them both declared that this match had ended in a tie, their gazes were fixed on Chu Feng.

Those gazes were filled with pleasant surprise.

After all, they knew that the match had not actually ended in a tie. Rather, Chu Feng had won.

They were pleasantly surprised, not because of Chu Feng's overwhelming battle power being at the level of an exceptional genius...

... but also because of Chu Feng's character.

Kou Kang had been aggressive from the beginning. He had been planning to embarrass Chu Feng. They were able to see through all of Kou Kang's intentions.

However, even in such a situation, Chu Feng was actually still able to act leniently toward Kou Kang. This character of his was truly extraordinary.

Especially when compared to Kou Kang's aggressive and indiscriminating behavior. It was simply a clear-cut contrast to Chu Feng's lenient way of handling things.

This not only caused the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui to think even more highly of Chu Feng, even Kou Kang's master began to admire Chu Feng even more.

As for Kou Kang, even though he was feeling unreconciled, he did not dare to say anything after being glared at angrily by his master. After that he became completely silent, and didn't say a single word.

As the focus had turned to Chu Feng, even though Kou Kang was extremely depressed, no one bothered to pay attention to him.

"Little friend Chu Feng, Daoist Gold Star is not someone easy to deal with. He will likely bear grudges for what happened here today for the rest of his life."

"With his personality, he will definitely attempt revenge against you. In the future, it would be best that you avoid places where he is," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said to Chu Feng.

"That's true. Although we have already threatened him, with his personality, he will most likely come to create troubles for you still," The Three Stars Hall's headmaster added.

Chapter 2287 – Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds

---

“Chu Feng understands seniors’ kind intentions.”

“Merely, seniors, there is truly no need for you all to worry excessively for me.”

“Ever since I decided to challenge Daoist Gold Star, I was already aware that I would become his enemy.”

“Thus, I have made preparations for him to come for revenge against me in the future,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng is truly bold,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the others no longer tried to say anything.

“Speaking of it, I truly never expected that Daoist Gold Star would obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s spirit formation. That spirit formation is truly breathtaking,” Su Jingrui said.

“Regardless of how breathtaking it might be, didn’t it still get broken through by little friend Chu Feng? Little friend Chu Feng is truly talented in terms of setting up spirit formations,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Indeed, indeed,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster and Su Jingrui nodded their heads repeatedly.

When making mention of that matter, the two girls Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu revealed idolizing gazes. To them, Chu Feng had already accomplished what was impossible for people of the younger generation.

He had undoubtedly become their absolute idol.

“When mentioning Grandmaster Kai Hong, I remembered something. I think that you all might not know about this either,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“What is it?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui asked in unison.

“Another of Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants have been discovered. Furthermore, this remnant might be the most authentic remnant left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong.”

“Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remains might even be in that remnant. The wealth he gathered over his lifetime, as well as his powerful techniques, might also be in that remnant,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“There’s such a thing? Where was it discovered?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui immediately revealed curious gazes. The two of them became extremely excited.

At that moment even Chu Feng and the other members of the younger generation present revealed curious expressions. Although Chu Feng did not know about this Grandmaster Kai Hong, he was able to guess from the conversation of the crowd that Grandmaster Kai Hong was a grand character when he was alive.

His remnants would definitely be extraordinary.

“Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds!!!” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds?!!” Hearing those words, even the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and Su Jingrui revealed astonished expressions.

Chu Feng did not know about that place. Thus, he quietly asked Xu Yiyi, “What sort of place is the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds?”

“The Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds is a forbidden area in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. That place has existed since the Ancient Era. It is a very dangerous place.”

“Furthermore, it is said that there are still a lot of unsolved mysteries in that place. However, there has not been a single person capable of solving all of the mysteries there.”

“The reason why that place is called the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds is because there are many tombs there. However, all of the tombs are empty.”

“Although those tombs are all empty, there have been a lot of people that have died in those tombs. The majority of them were all people that ventured into those tombs,” Xu Yiyi said to Chu Feng.

“So that’s the case,” Chu Feng now had a rough understanding of the situation with the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.

“Why would it be there? Although the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds is very famous, there has never been any treasure to appear from that place. It is a truly inauspicious location.”

“How could Grandmaster Kai Hong construct his tomb there?”

“Furthermore, how was this whole thing discovered?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked curiously.

“Speaking of it, it is truly fascinating. Reportedly, a demonic woman appeared in the vicinity of the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“Demonic woman?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s eyes immediately started to shine.

“What kind of demonic woman?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master asked.

“It was an extremely ugly demonic woman that feeds on men,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

Upon hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart tightened. An ugly appearance and feeds on men? All of those features greatly resembled the description of the demonic woman that had captured Wang Qiang.

According to the old monk, there should only be one such demonic woman. Thus, Chu Feng felt that the demonic woman that the Three Stars Hall's headmaster spoke of should be the same demonic woman that had captured Wang Qiang.

'No wonder that demonic woman never returned to the Darknight Ghost Forest. It turns out it had gone to that place,' Upon remembering that demonic woman, Chu Feng felt overwhelming fury. However, Chu Feng did not say those words. Instead, with a calm expression, he continued to listen to the Three Stars Hall's headmaster.

"As that woman had caused enormous problems, the surrounding powers began to attempt to capture her. However, that demonic woman was not weak. Even though the many powers had joined hands, they were still unable to subdue that demonic woman."

"Feeling helpless, they ended up requesting reinforcements. After careful preparations, they finally surrounded that demonic woman outside of the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds."

"However, no one would've thought that that demonic woman would actually charge into the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds after being completely surrounded."

"Had it been before, no one would have been willing to enter a forbidden area like the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. Furthermore, those powers that had surrounded that demonic woman were also not very strong. They did not possess the qualifications to explore the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds."

"However, due to the fact that the demonic woman had killed many people, those people decided to clench their teeth, brace themselves and charge into the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds after that demonic woman.”

“As the group pursued the demonic woman, they began to fight her. During their fight, they inadvertently discovered a remnant hidden underground.”

“After entering the remnant, the crowd obtained an astonishing discovery. They discovered that the place that they had excavated was only the tip of the iceberg for that remnant.”

“They discovered that hidden deep underneath the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds was an extremely enormous remnant. Likely, there were a lot of treasures hidden in that remnant.”

“However, due to the fact that the remnant was very dangerous, it was simply impossible for those people that discovered it to penetrate deeply. As such, they could only search for others to help them. That was how the information spread.”

“Afterwards, more and more capable individuals rushed to that remnant in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.”

“There were Immortal-cloak World Spiritists that felt that it was very possible that the remnant was left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong, that the largest of the remnant would be where Grandmaster Kai Hong buried himself.”

“At that moment, the various powers are all proceeding for that place.”

“In fact, I was thinking that we should proceed for the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds together after our appointment is over.”

“After all, if it is truly the remnant where Grandmaster Kai Hong buried himself, it would definitely be a place filled with treasures.”

“Perhaps we might also be able to obtain some benefits,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“If that truly is the case, then we must indeed go and participate in the liveliness,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master was also looking forward to it very much.

“Senior, has that demonic woman been captured?” Chu Feng asked.

“How could those people have the heart to concern themselves with the demonic woman after discovering the remnants and treasures? The demonic woman has fled.”

“However, I’ve heard that, for some unknown reason, even though there were many people trying to capture that demonic woman, she still lingers around the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“Do you know her exact location?” Chu Feng asked.

“That I do. It’s at a place outside of the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds by the name of Fallen Goose Mountain Range. The demonic woman has been appearing in the vicinity of that place constantly.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, why are you so interested in this?” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster asked curiously. The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master, Su Jingrui and the others also cast curious gazes toward Chu Feng.

“I was merely curious. I never expected there to be such a baffling creature in this world, a creature that would only feed on men,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

He had not said the truth. The reason for that was because he knew that the Ying Imperial Clan would soon order his arrest.

As Chu Feng had already made enemies with a lot of people, he did not wish to implicate the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

However, if he were to tell them that there was grievance between him and that demonic woman, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall would likely not sit and watch and remain indifferent. They would most likely try to provide assistance to help Chu Feng take care of that demonic woman.

However, that demonic woman was currently located in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds, a place where many powers were gathered.

Thus, for the sake of not implicating the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, Chu Feng planned to take care of the demonic woman by himself.

Although Chu Feng knew that that demonic woman was very strong, it remained that Chu Feng still had another Immortal Transformation Pellet given to him by the Golden Crane True Immortal.

That last Immortal Transformation Pellet was capable of increasing Chu Feng's cultivation to that of a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Even though he would have increased his cultivation his spirit power, and the power of his Heavenly Bloodline, as well as his heaven-defying battle power, would be sealed, however it remained that he would become a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Chu Feng refused to believe that demonic woman would be so powerful that she could contend against a rank five Martial Ancestor.

The term for extremely remote in chinese is eight desolate. As in, the eight desolate directions away from the center. So... NE, NW, SE, SW, N, W, S, E

Chapter 2288 – Chu Feng's Value

---

“Haha, nothing is too bizarre in this world. Actually, within the territory of our Sunset Cloud Valley, in a place called the Darknight Ghost Forest, there also exists a demonic woman that would only feed on men like the one that has appeared in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.”

“Our Sunset Cloud Valley has even removed the demonic women many times. Unfortunately, we are unable to exterminate them completely. Every so often, another demonic woman will appear,” The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

“I think that those so-called demonic women are only martial cultivators that have trained in a special sort of demonic technique. It is actually not surprising at all,” Su Jingrui added.

Hearing till this point, Chu Feng realized that even though the demonic women have been appearing in the Sunset Cloud Valley's territory the entire time, the Sunset Cloud Valley did not have much of an understanding toward the demonic women.

In fact, they did not even know that the demonic woman in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds originated from their territory.

However, it was understandable, since the strength of the demonic women was always limited. It was only when the powers surrounding the Darknight Ghost Forest were unable to handle the demonic women that they would ask for assistance from the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Likely, the demonic women would immediately be killed once the Sunset Cloud Valley dispatched their experts to take care of the demonic women. As such, it was normal for them to not be concerned with the demonic women. After all, they had never considered the demonic women as a threat.

“Didn’t I said to not disturb me unless there are important matters?” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said in a slightly annoyed manner.

When Chu Feng created a major commotion when sparring against Kou Kang, Elders from the Sunset Cloud Valley had already arrived at the palace to inquire about what was happening.

As they were inquiring out of worry for the safety and well-being of the people in the palace, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master did not lash out at them. Instead, he merely told them that everything was fine and ordered them to withdraw.

However, there was clearly no commotion this time around. Yet, there were elders rushing over here to report something. As such, this caused the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master to become somewhat annoyed.

After all, the topic of their discussion right now was something that deeply interested him – it was concerning Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants. It might even be possible for him to obtain a great amount of benefits from this newest remnant.

As such, he would naturally be displeased to be annoyed at such a time.

“Since you have already informed them not interrupt you unless something important has happened, perhaps something important has truly happened?” Su Jingrui said.

Hearing what Su Jingrui said, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master felt that to be reasonable too. Thus, he waved his sleeve and opened the gates to the palace. He then said, “Come in.”

“Lord Valley Master,” That elder walked in. He did not say anything, and immediately moved before the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master. With his back bent, he presented a letter to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master.

The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master opened the letter and began to view its contents. Su Jingrui and the Three Stars Hall's headmaster who stood beside him also turned their gazes to the letter out of curiosity.

Once they read the contents of the letter, the expressions of the three men immediately changed. After the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master folded the letter and put it away, the three men all looked to Chu Feng.

"Little friend Chu Feng, you've killed the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's son, Ying Liangchen?" The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked Chu Feng.

Once the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said those words, the expressions of Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu changed instantly. They both revealed expressions of panic.

Xu Yiyi, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and the others all knew that Chu Feng had killed Chu Luyang. However, they did not know that Chu Feng had killed the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's son.

Furthermore, the person he had killed was that Ying Liangchen.

Although Chu Luyang was a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan, the Sunset Cloud Valley was not worried about his death, since the Chu Heavenly Clan did not care about the life and death of their members.

However, the Ying Heavenly Clan was different. The Ying Heavenly Clan was a second tier power in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. They possessed strength that was not inferior to their Sunset Cloud Valley.

Furthermore, that Ying Liangchen that Chu Feng had killed was the most beloved son of the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

If that had truly happened, the Ying Heavenly Clan would definitely not let Chu Feng get away with it.

“Yes, such a thing did happen,” Chu Feng nodded.

Hearing those words, the crowd present all grew silent. The reason for that was because this was an extremely important matter.

“Why did you kill him?” Xu Yiyi asked in a very puzzled manner.

“It was Ying Liangchen who extinguished the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters. Although he was asked to do so by Chu Luyang, it remained that he was the culprit. As such, how could I not kill him?” Chu Feng said.

“You... But....” Xu Yiyi didn’t know what to say to Chu Feng, and sighed.

“Exactly what is going on here? Is there anyone willing to explain to me what is happening?” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster asked curiously.

After all, he still didn’t know about the matter regarding Chu Feng and Chu Luyang.

Afterward, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master began to tell the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster about what had happened.

“I do not think that little friend Chu Feng is in the wrong in this matter,” After knowing about what had happened, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said firmly.

“Little friend Chu Feng is naturally not in the wrong. Merely, the crucial aspect is the Ying Heavenly Clan. They will not leave this matter be,” Su Jingrui said with a frown.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master suddenly stood up. He fixed his gaze onto Chu Feng and said in a very serious manner, “Little friend Chu Feng, our Sunset Cloud Valley is willing to protect you.”

“If the Ying Heavenly Clan insists on killing you, our Sunset Cloud Valley is willing to declare war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for you.”

“Boom~~~”

Those words struck down like a sudden clap of thunder. Kou Kang was unable to contain his shock, and nearly sprayed out the wine in his mouth.

What sort of situation was this? The Sunset Cloud Valley was willing to declare war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for Chu Feng? One must know that the Ying Heavenly Clan was not a power that one could easily provoke.

Compared to Kou Kang’s astonishment, Su Jingrui smiled lightly. He seemed to have already anticipated such a decision from the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master.

As for Xu Yiyi, she was not only astonished. More than shock, she was extremely excited and pleased beyond belief.

As she still did not know how valuable Chu Feng was, she had truly never expected that the Sunset Cloud Valley would be willing to go to war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for Chu Feng.

One must know that the Ying Heavenly Clan was an extremely strong power of influence. Compared to the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, the Ying Heavenly Clan was even more difficult to handle.

“Lord Valley Master, this is a personal grudge between the Ying Heavenly Clan and myself. There is no need for the Sunset Cloud Valley to get involved in it” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you do not have to overthink it. Regardless of whether or not you will join our Sunset Cloud Valley, our Sunset Cloud Valley will always consider you to be our distinguished guest, to be our friend.”

“When a friend is met with a calamity, even if we must climb a mountain of blades or dive into a sea of flames, we will still not hesitate to do so. Thus, our Sunset Cloud Valley is determined to involve ourselves in this matter,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said resolutely.

After hearing those words, Kou Kang’s expression grew even more unsightly.

He never expected the Sunset Cloud Valley to value Chu Feng so highly. Even though Chu Feng was not a member of the Sunset Cloud Valley, they were still willing to confront a power like the Ying Heavenly Clan for him.

If that was the case, it would truly be hopeless for him to obtain Xu Yiyi. The treatment Chu Feng had obtained was truly too grand. This indirectly illustrated that Chu Feng’s status in the Sunset Cloud Valley was extremely high.

That sort of status was not something that he could compete against.

However, what brought Kou Kang even more despair was that, during this moment when he was astonished by how much the Sunset Cloud Valley valued Chu Feng, his master, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster, actually also stood up.

“Although I have only just met little friend Chu Feng, I also deeply admire little friend Chu Feng’s loyalty to his friends.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, you were not in the wrong to begin with. It was that Ying Liangchen who deserved to die. If the Ying Heavenly Clan should be too overbearing toward you and insist on killing you for revenge, our Three Stars Hall is willing to direct justice and help you battle against the Ying Heavenly Clan,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

Once the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said those words, Kou Kang had an expression as if he was just fed feces. He was so astonished that he lost his grip on the cup of wine in his hand, dropping it onto the floor and shattering it.

In addition to Kou Kang, even the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui, who had a close relationship with the Three Stars Hall's headmaster, were greatly shocked.

Although the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley were allies, and the Three Stars Hall would provide support should the Sunset Cloud Valley have troubles, the words spoken by the Three Stars Hall's headmaster were clearly not aimed at the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Rather, they were completely meant for Chu Feng.

Especially that 'help you battle against the Ying Heavenly Clan.' That one phrase had completely illustrated his position.

The Three Stars Hall was planning to stand up for Chu Feng regardless of the Sunset Cloud Valley's position.

The reason for that was because this was how much value Chu Feng possessed to the Three Star Hall's headmaster.

Chapter 2289 – Unable To Tell Good From Bad

---

Chu Feng was very surprised by the declaration from the Three Stars Hall's headmaster.

At the same time, he also felt very grateful. After all, the Ying Heavenly Clan would not be easy to deal with at all. For the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall to be willing to help him like this was most definitely an enormous grace and kindness.

However, Chu Feng had already decided that he would take care of his own things himself. He did not wish to implicate the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

Furthermore, even if the two of them might be able to handle the Ying Heavenly Clan by joining hands, Chu Feng's actual enemy was the Infant Soul Sect.

Although Chu Feng did not know much regarding the Infant Soul Sect right now, he felt that, according to what his father had told him, the Infant Soul Sect was very powerful, and most definitely not something the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall could compare to.

Thus, Chu Feng absolutely could not allow others to know that he possessed an extraordinary relationship with the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall. Else, once Chu Feng made even stronger enemies, he might really end up implicating the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

“Seniors, this Chu Feng appreciates your kind intentions.”

“However, it remains that I am the one who has provoked this calamity. As such, I should be the one to shoulder it.”

“I do not wish to rely on others. Furthermore, I am part of neither the Sunset Cloud Valley nor the Three Stars Hall. I do not wish for the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall to end up dying because of me,” Chu Feng said.

“Little friend Chu Feng...” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster opened their mouths in unison. They seemed to be wanting to urge Chu Feng against it.

“Seniors, this is my personal matter. I truly do not want seniors to be involved. If seniors continue to insist, I, Chu Feng will take my leave right now,” Chu Feng stood up.

“Eh...” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster and the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master were both at a loss. They did not expect that Chu Feng would refuse their kind intentions like that.

“Bang~~~”

A loud sound was heard. The table before Kou Kang was shattered into pieces. With a furious expression on his face, he pointed at Chu Feng and shouted, “Chu Feng! You are truly one that is unable to differentiate good from bad! My master and Lord Valley Master are willing to help you out of their kind intentions. And yet, you actually refuse to appreciate their kindness?! Who do you think you are?! Apologize to my master immediately!”

“Shut up!” However, who would’ve thought that right after Kou Kang’s words were spoken, the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster would coldly glare him down.

At that moment, Kou Kang felt as if he had fallen down into a bottomless abyss. He was feeling truly ice-cold.

He was only trying to stand out for his master to retrieve his honor. Yet, never did he expect that his master would instead shout him down.

How could he possibly tolerate this? Kou Kang truly had the feeling of wanting to die.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you have your own decisions to make. We will not be able to force you. However, we also possess our own determination. Since you do not wish to continue to discuss this subject, we shall no longer talk about it,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said with a smile. He had actually made a concession.

Although he had made a concession, his intent was also very clearly stated. While Chu Feng could refuse their intentions to help him, they would insist on helping him. The reason for that was because there was nothing that Chu Feng could do regarding their decisions.

“Senior, I have already made my decision. Farewell.”

However, even though the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster had made a concession, Chu Feng still resolutely turned around and began to walk toward the door of the palace.

Chu Feng’s actions could truly be said to be excessive.

Chu Feng was doing all of this deliberately. He wanted to make the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster give up on helping him. He wanted them to know that they would not be able to move him, nor would they be able to entice him regardless of what they might do.

Even though his actions today might be extremely drastic, although his behavior might be extremely indiscriminating and might even cause a misunderstanding or grudges, Chu Feng still felt that he had to do it.

After all... he was only doing this for the sake of the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall. He was secretly protecting them.

“Chu Feng!!!”

Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu were all stunned by Chu Feng’s departure.

To the two of them, it was an enormously pleasant surprise that the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall were willing to help Chu Feng. It would be one thing for Chu Feng to refuse their goodwill. Yet, he actually even disrespected the two leaders in such a manner. The two of them were truly confused by Chu Feng’s actions.

As for Kou Kang, he had managed to grasp an extremely rare opportunity to retaliate against Chu Feng. He readjusted his frame of mind, and then spoke to the Three Stars Hall's headmaster in a resentful manner.

"Master, that Chu Feng is truly one that is unable to differentiate good from bad. His upbringing is simply lacking. Master, why would you want to help him like this?"

"What do you know?" However, even now, Kou Kang was still berated by his master.

After that, the Three Stars Hall's headmaster ignored Kou Kang and looked to the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master and Su Jingrui, "What do you two think?"

"That boy Chu Feng does not want to implicate us. However, if we insist on helping him, he will still appreciate our kindness," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said.

"Although I have only just met that boy, and do not know him well, I truly feel that he is a brat of character. It has been many years since I've last seen a brat like him, much less one as talented as he is," The Three Stars Hall's headmaster said.

"Your intention is that even if Chu Feng refuses to appreciate our kind intentions, we must still fight against the Ying Heavenly Clan?" The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master asked.

"For a rare genius like Chu Feng, if he is to mature, it will not only be beneficial to our Three Stars Hall and your Sunset Cloud Valley. He might even be an enormous assistance to our entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. We absolutely cannot allow the Ying Heavenly Clan to ruin him," The Three Stars Hall's headmaster said.

"In that case, things will be simple," The Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master said with a light smile.

"That's true. While the Ying Heavenly Clan is not one to be despised, they will still have to make careful consideration should our Three Stars Hall join hands with your Sunset Cloud Valley,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster said.

“Since that’s the case, let’s spread the news,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“What do we say?” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster asked.

“It’ll be that we will fight for Chu Feng, of course,” The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master said.

“Very well,” The Three Stars Hall’s headmaster revealed a smile.

At that moment, Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu were looking at one another. The two of them were completely baffled.

Chu Feng had clearly been extremely excessive earlier. Yet, their three lords were actually not angry. In fact, they even decided to continue to insist on helping Chu Feng. This caused both Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu to feel disbelief.

When the two girls were already feeling like that, one could easily imagine what sort of expression Kou Kang had on his face just then. It was truly as ugly as ugly could be.

However, there was nothing he could do. After all... he was simply unable to interrupt the conversation.

Afterwards, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall began to spread the news.

They had declared the truth of Ying Liangchen massacring the Red Butterfly Society’s headquarters, and then Chu Feng avenging them. With that, they caped themselves with a cloak of righteousness.

After that, they declared that they would uphold justice, and pledge their lives to protect Chu Feng. If the Ying Heavenly Clan were to insist on killing Chu Feng, they would wage war against the Ying Heavenly Clan.

.....

Luyang's Pavilion. This formerly glorious location had been completely ruined since the day Chu Luyang had been killed. Many of the experts that were once part of Luyang's Pavilion had left it. What remained was merely a bunch of scattered remnants. They no longer carried the glory of their golden age.

However, at that moment, several tens of grand characters appeared at Luyang's Pavilion.

There were men and women among them. There were extremely old elderly people, as well as youthful members of the younger generation. Although those people were of both high and low cultivations, no one dared to be disrespectful toward them.

The reason for that was because they all possessed a common identity. That is, they were members of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

They had all arrived for the sake of Chu Luyang's death.

Chapter 2290 – Enormous Shock

---

“We cannot sit and remain indifferent to big brother Chu Luyang being killed. No matter what, he is a member of our Chu Family.”

“The reason why our Chu Heavenly Clan will not concern themselves with this matter is because of the rules set up by our Ancestor stating that we are not allowed to interfere with the matters that occur in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“However, us fellow clansmen who are also tempering ourselves in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm cannot disregard this matter,” A middle-aged man said.

That man was over eighty years old. Although he could still barely be considered a member of the younger generation, his age was comparatively old among the people of the younger generation. As for his cultivation, it was inferior to even Chu Feng’s; he was only a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

“We cannot disregard this matter? How are we supposed to concern ourselves with this matter? Our cultivations are inferior to big brother Chu Luyang’s. As for that bastard Chu Feng, he was able to kill even big brother Chu Luyang. How are we supposed to avenge him?” Another tan-skinned man said.

He was also a member of the younger generation. Merely, his cultivation was even weaker than the other man’s; he was only a rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

“You all are truly lacking in gathering intelligence,” Right at that moment, a white-haired old man stood forth.

This old man’s name was Chu Luotang. His cultivation was that of a rank three Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, he was close to five hundred years old. Among this group of people, he was the oldest member. He was also the most renowned individual among them.

Thus, after Chu Luotang stepped forward, the clansmen of the Chu Heavenly Clan that were ceaselessly debating with one another all quieted down.

“Big brother Luotang, could it be that you’ve received some sort of information?” Someone asked.

“Of course,” Chu Luotang smiled lightly.

Then, he said, “We will naturally have to avenge Chu Luyang. Merely, there is simply no need for us to act at all. The reason for that is because not only has that Chu Feng killed Chu Luyang, he has also killed Ying Liangchen.”

“I believe that brothers and sisters all Know who Ying Liangchen is right? He is the most beloved son of the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.”

“Right now, the Ying Heavenly Clan has already posted an order for Chu Feng’s capture. They are determined to avenge Ying Liangchen.”

“Regardless of how powerful that Chu Feng might be, it would be impossible for him to be a match for the Ying Heavenly Clan. After all, the Ying Heavenly Clan is a clan that wields a Heavenly Bloodline. Although they are incapable of matching our Chu Heavenly Clan, they possess some strength in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Right. I have also heard of that matter,” Once Chu Luotang said those words, many people began to confirm that they had also heard such news.

“Furthermore, Chu Luyang is a member of the Sunset Cloud Valley. The Sunset Cloud Valley will not disregard the death of Chu Luyang. I’ve heard that Chu Feng was arrested by people from the Sunset Cloud Valley that day.”

“If that information is true, it might be possible that there would simply be no need for the Ying Heavenly Clan to act. Not long from now, the news of Chu Feng being killed by the Sunset Cloud Valley will start to spread,” Chu Luotang continued.

“What big brother Luotang says is very reasonable.”

“That’s right, the Sunset Cloud Valley will definitely not remain indifferent. Perhaps there will simply be no need for us to worry about it and the Sunset Cloud Valley will take care of that Chu Feng.”

“In that case, we have truly worried for nothing.”

After Chu Luotang said those words, the rest of the Chu Heavenly Clansmen present all began to voice their agreement. Finally, smiles appeared on their previously worried faces.

Suddenly, someone asked, “Merely, big brother Luotang, you said that Chu Feng was captured by the Sunset Cloud Valley. Is that really true?”

“I have already had my men confirm that matter. Likely, we will know whether or not it is true very soon,” Chu Luotang said confidently.

“Sure enough, it is big brother Luotang who thinks things through thoroughly,” The Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation began to praise Chu Luotang in succession.

After a series of praises, Chu Luotang revealed a complacent smile.

“Milord,” Not long afterward, a shout was heard from afar.

It was a black-clothed man. He was an expert with the cultivation of a peak Half Martial Ancestor. He was not a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan. Instead, he was Chu Luotang’s subordinate.

Thus, even though the black-clothed man possessed a cultivation stronger than many of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation present, he still hurriedly greeted them with a respectful bow after approaching them.

“How was it? Did you manage to gain any information?” Chu Luotang asked. The rest of the Chu Heavenly Clansmen also looked to that black-clothed man with anticipating gazes.

“Milord, I have,” The black-clothed man said.

“Has Chu Feng been captured by the Sunset Cloud Valley?” Chu Luotang asked.

“Yes, that is absolutely certain. Chu Feng was indeed captured by the Sunset Cloud Valley,” The black-clothed man said.

“Good. That Chu Feng deserves to die. Like this, big brother Luyang can be considered to have been avenged.”

“That Chu Feng is truly daring. He actually dared to kill a member of our Chu Heavenly Clan. Likely, he also knew that our Chu Heavenly Clan would not concern themselves with the lives and deaths of our members in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. That is why he dared to act so unscrupulously.”

“Unfortunately for him, he had no idea that big brother Chu Luyang had already obtained a backer in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. As for his backing, it was the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

“Now that Chu Feng has been captured by the Sunset Cloud Valley, he will likely not be able to escape death. He has reaped what he has sown. Serves him right.”

Hearing those words, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan present were all overjoyed. It was as if they had heard the news of Chu Feng’s death.

It was only Chu Luotang that remained calm. He did not urgently come to a conclusion, and instead continued to ask, “Then what is the situation of that Chu Feng now? Has he been killed by the Sunset Cloud Valley?”

“He has not,” That black-clothed man said.

“Chu Feng was actually not killed?” Hearing those words, the expressions of the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan all grew stiff as their smiles instantly froze.

“If the rumors are true, the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley should have arrived promptly that day, and witnessed Chu Feng’s killing of Chu Luyang. With irrefutable evidence, why would the Sunset Cloud Valley still leave Chu Feng alive? Exactly what is up with the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Law Enforcement Department? Do they not know how to do their jobs?!” Chu Luotang asked furiously.

He was unable to understand why the Sunset Cloud Valley would keep Chu Feng alive.

“Milord, as for the exact reasons, this subordinate is also uncertain. Merely... the Sunset Cloud Valley has already made a declaration,” The black-clothed man said.

“What sort of declaration?” Chu Luotang asked.

“The Sunset Cloud Valley claims that Chu Feng’s killing of Ying Liangchen was justified, that Ying Liangchen deserved to die. They have also declared that if the Ying Heavenly Clan insists on killing Chu Feng, the Sunset Cloud Valley is willing to declare war on the Ying Heavenly Clan on behalf of Chu Feng,” The black-clothed man said.

“Boom~~~”

Those words came like a sudden clap of thunder to the people of the Chu Heavenly Clan. They felt as if their brains were about to explode. Some of the members of the younger generation that lacked the ability to endure shock felt their bodies grow soft before falling down onto their butts.

What was going on?

Wasn’t the Sunset Cloud Valley Chu Luyang’s backer?

Why would the Sunset Cloud Valley not avenge Chu Luyang and kill Chu Feng, but instead start to stand up for Chu Feng?

Exactly what was going on?

At that moment, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan were all struck dumb. They were truly unable to understand why such a thing would happen. They felt as if they had received an enormous shock.

“Has the Sunset Cloud Valley gone mad? They are actually willing to declare war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for a mere Chu Feng?”

“Even if the Sunset Cloud Valley possesses a deep background in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the Ying Heavenly Clan is also not a power that one can trifle with. If the two of them are to declare war on one another, both sides will suffer.”

“The Sunset Cloud Valley is actually willing to declare war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for someone that they possessed no relationship with before? Have their heads been kicked or what?!” Chu Luotang gnashed his teeth with rage as he shouted loudly.

“Milord, that declaration was jointly declared by the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall; the Three Stars Hall is also planning to back Chu Feng,” That black-clothed man added.

“Three Stars Hall? The Three Stars Hall is actually also planning to help Chu Feng?”

Hearing those words, the Chu Heavenly Clansmen present that were already shocked by the news earlier received an enormous shock once again.

Chapter 2291 – Must Die

---

“Big brother Luotang, what is going on here? Exactly what sort of origin does that Chu Feng possess?”

“He killed big brother Luyang. It would be one thing for the Sunset Cloud Valley to not avenge big brother Luyang, but why would they instead offer their support to that Chu Feng? Furthermore, why would the Three Stars Hall also be involved in this?”

Feeling confused, the Chu Heavenly Clansmen present all turned their gazes to Chu Luotang.

They all knew that it was not a coincidence that Chu Feng had obtained that sort of treatment, and began to suspect that Chu Feng might be of extraordinary origin, that he was not someone to be trifled with.

After pondering for some time, Chu Luotang said, “It would appear that the news from Mount Cloud Crane is true.”

“What news?” Someone asked in confusion.

“That Chu Feng is a genius world spiritist. On Mount Cloud Crane, in that Immortalization Assembly held by Golden Crane True Immortal, Chu Feng defeated all the expert world spiritists gathered and became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” someone explained.

“Ah? According to the information we have, that Chu Feng should be quite young. He has become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist at such a young age?” After knowing about what happened, many of the Chu Heavenly Clansmen revealed astonished expressions.

The reason for that was because that news was not good news at all.

“But even if he is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, there shouldn't be a reason for the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall to try to win him over like that, no?" someone voiced their confusion.

"If he were only an ordinary Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, that would naturally be the case."

"However, an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist as young as Chu Feng would definitely be worthy. In the eyes of the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the fact that a member of the younger generation is capable of accomplishing what Chu Feng has means that his future potential is so enormous that it cannot be measured," Chu Luotang said.

A female member of the Chu Heavenly Clan who was already several hundred years old yet still had the appearance of a young girl said, "That's right. I have also heard that Chu Feng is not only an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, but also an Asura World Spiritist."

"Asura World Spiritist?"

After hearing that, some of the Chu Heavenly Clansmen revealed even uglier expressions.

No matter what, they were people from the Chu Heavenly Clan. As such, they were all people that had a lot of experience, and had seen great things before. As such, they knew very well that the title of an Asura World Spiritist was much more powerful than that of an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

"Damn it! Could it be that big brother Luyang will have to die in vain like this?"

At that moment, the people of the Chu Heavenly Clan present were all at a loss as for what to do. Although they all wanted to avenge Chu Luyang, they did not possess sufficient strength to do so.

None of them were fools. They all realized that the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall would definitely protect someone of Chu Feng's talent.

After all, the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley were already willing to wage war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for Chu Feng.

Thus, not to mention that they did not possess the strength to kill Chu Feng, even if they were capable of killing Chu Feng, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall would also not be willing to let them get away with it.

At that moment, they all felt that obtaining revenge for Chu Luyang would be hopeless.

“Why are you all panicking? Have you all forgotten the purpose in Chu Luyang's coming to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Chu Luotang said.

“What was his purpose?” The people from the Chu Heavenly Clan expressed their confusion.

“It was for his younger brother, Chu Luxuan,” Chu Luotang said.

“Chu Luxuan,” Hearing that name, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan, regardless of whether they were young or old, all revealed a change in expression.

Although some among them had left the Chu Heavenly Clan for hundreds of years now, they were still extremely familiar with the name Chu Luxuan.

As for the people of the younger generation that ended up coming to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm afterwards, the name ‘Chu Luxuan’ was even more profound in their hearts.

Chu Luxuan was still a member of the younger generation. However, the status that he held in the Chu Heavenly Clan was absolutely not something that they could compare with.

The reason for that was because Chu Luxuan possessed a superb talent for martial cultivation. His extraordinary status had been decided since the moment he was born.

Even in their powerful clan filled with geniuses, Chu Luxuan was someone who was acknowledged.

“The reason why Chu Luyang came to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm was actually because he wanted to pave the road for his brother. The reason for that was because he knew that his brother would, sooner or later, come to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm to conduct missions.”

“Do you all think that Chu Luxuan, Chu Luyang’s blood brother, will ignore the matter of his brother’s death?” Chu Luotang asked.

“He would definitely not. Although I have only met that Chu Luxuan twice, he is certainly not someone to be trifled with,” A member of the younger generation said.

“There we go. Although there is nothing we can do about that Chu Feng right now, when Chu Luxuan arrives in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, it will be the descent of misfortune for that Chu Feng,” Chu Luotang said.

“That’s right. No matter how exceptionally talented Chu Feng might be, how could he possibly be able to match the geniuses of our Chu Heavenly Clan?”

“When Chu Luxuan arrives at this place, there will definitely be countless powers that will try to curry favor with him.”

“At that time, what could that Chu Feng possibly amount to? Once Chu Luxuan gives the order, countless powers will shield Chu Luxuan and attack Chu Feng.”

“At that time, even the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall will not dare to shield Chu Feng.”

At that moment, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan once again saw hope for vengeance.

The way they saw it, if Chu Luxuan wished to take care of Chu Feng, there would be no hope for Chu Feng at all. Without a doubt, he would be killed.

After all, Chu Luxuan was an actual genius of their Chu Heavenly Clan.

To these people, they felt that a genius from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would definitely not be able to compare to a genius like their Chu Luxuan.

Suddenly, a man asked, “Oh, that’s right. Big brother Luotang, I’ve heard that Chu Feng is also a possessor of a Heavenly Bloodline. Furthermore, his talent is pretty decent too.”

“Moreover, he is surnamed Chu. He couldn’t possibly be a member of our Chu Heavenly Clan, right?”

When that man asked those words, he had a slightly worried expression in his eyes.

The reason why he was worried was because Chu Feng was an Asura World Spiritist.

Regardless of how talented that Chu Feng’s talent for martial cultivation might be, his mere identity as an Asura World Spiritist was already extremely extraordinary.

If that Chu Feng were to truly be a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan, then, for no other reason other than the fact that he was an Asura World Spiritist, the Chu Heavenly Clan would focus on his nurture.

As for those people whose nurture was the focus of the Chu Heavenly Clan, they were not people that they could afford to provoke.

“Impossible. How could someone that disgraceful appear in our Chu Heavenly Clan? Furthermore, I’ve never heard of an Asura World Spiritist appearing among our Chu Heavenly Clan’s younger generation,” Chu Luotang said resolutely.

“In that case, that Chu Feng should be a bastard child from a certain Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s Heavenly Clan,” After hearing what Chu Luotang said, that man revealed a relieved expression.

“It is one thing for him to be a bastard child. However, he actually dared to deliberately change his surname to our Chu Heavenly Clan’s surname. He is truly shameless. Exactly how deeply did he want to become a member of our Chu Heavenly Clan?” Some of the people of the younger generation present started to mock Chu Feng.

“There are countless shameless individuals in the world. People like Chu Feng who want to claim a connection to our Chu Heavenly Clan are not rare either.”

“However, regardless, that Chu Feng must pay for his conduct and deeds. Our Chu Heavenly Clan is not a clan that just anyone can provoke,” Chu Luotang said.

The others from the Chu Heavenly Clan all nodded at his words.

Although they were merely a bunch with the lowest tier status in the Chu Heavenly Clan, they still felt great pride in being members of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

They felt that there were no powers capable of contending against the Chu Heavenly Clan.

That there was no one capable of contending against the experts of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Thus, regardless of where they might be, all those that dared to offend the people of the Chu Heavenly Clan must be killed.

Chapter 2292 – Meeting The Demonic Woman Again

---

Chu Feng had no idea what that group of people from the Chu Heavenly Clan were planning.

Chu Feng did not even know about the joint declaration from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had directly proceeded for a location after leaving the Sunset Cloud Valley. As for that place, it was the Fallen Goose Mountain Range.

Although the Fallen Goose Mountain Range was located in the vicinity of the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds, it was also an extremely vast place.

There were many powers around the Fallen Goose Mountain Range. In fact, some among them were not weaker than Luyang's Pavilion and the Red Butterfly Society.

However, even though that demonic woman had lingered around this area the entire time, there had not been any power that managed to capture her.

Reportedly, that demonic woman was only pushed to flee into the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds because of experts whose assistance these powers had jointly requested.

However, after the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds' remnants were discovered, no one had the heart to bother with the demonic woman. Seizing that opportunity, the demonic woman actually returned to the Fallen Goose Mountain Range.

Reportedly, the powers around the Fallen Goose Mountain Range had been attempting to capture that demonic woman the entire time. Merely, like the situation was for them before, they were unable to do anything to the demonic woman.

At that moment, a person was standing at a location in the Fallen Goose Mountain Range by the name of Heavenly Wolf Peak.

That person was Chu Feng.

It had actually been several days since Chu Feng had arrived at the Fallen Goose Mountain Range. After making some inquiries, Chu Feng discovered that even though the demonic woman had been in the Fallen Goose Mountain Range the entire time, there were only a few locations where she would frequently appear.

In the past days, the demonic woman had already appeared several times. Merely, Chu Feng had not had the fortune to encounter her.

After calculating the locations where the demonic woman had appeared, Chu Feng felt that the next location where the demonic woman would appear would be this Heavenly Wolf Peak. Chu Feng had thus arrived here with the intention of waiting to ambush the demonic woman.

While standing on the Heavenly Wolf Peak, Chu Feng was thinking about a question.

Chu Feng felt that it was very possible that the demonic woman lingering around several locations was because she was searching for something. As for her eating men, that was only a matter of convenience for her.

That was why Chu Feng became curious as to what exactly that demonic woman was searching for that caused her to disregard others trying to kill her.

“There’s nothing abnormal?” Chu Feng declared after surveying the surroundings with his Heaven’s Eyes. He became even more puzzled.

Like the many other places where the demonic woman had frequently appeared, there was nothing abnormal about this Heavenly Wolf Peak. Chu Feng was unable to guess what sort of treasure could possibly be hidden in a place like this.

“Could it be that I’ve been mistaken? Could it be that the many locations that demonic woman has frequently appeared in possessed a different purpose, that it was not because there was something hidden here?”

He sighed and muttered to himself, “Milady Queen, if only you were here with me, you would be able to help me analyze this matter.”

Although he was saying those words, he did not hope for Her Lady Queen to wake up quickly.

The spirit formation that he had set up earlier was meant to help Her Lady Queen recover. The longer she slept, the more beneficial it would be for her.

“Mn?”

Suddenly, Chu Feng’s gaze flashed. Through his Heaven’s Eyes, he noticed that a group of people were flying toward his current location from the distance.

There were both men and women in that group of people. They were all members of the younger generation. The oldest among them were only a few decades old, while the youngest possessed an age similar to Chu Feng’s. They were all wearing the same apparel. Likely, they should be from the same power.

Although they were all members of the younger generation, their cultivation, when compared to Chu Feng’s, was enormously lacking.

No matter what, Chu Feng was a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. However, that group of people were composed only of Martial Emperors. Among them, the strongest individual was merely a rank five Martial Emperor.

Those people were talking and laughing. It seemed they were discussing something.

As Chu Feng was bored, he decided to listen to their conversation to see whether or not they might be talking about the demonic woman. Thus, after using some special abilities, the conversations they were having entered Chu Feng's ears.

“Senior brother Liao, I've heard that that demonic woman frequently appears around here. We wouldn't be so unlucky to run across that demonic woman here, right?” The female disciples present were staring at the strongest man in the group.

Furthermore, each and every one of them were all pretending to be frightened little sheep. It was clear that they were trying to gain that man's affection.

“Junior sisters, you all do not have to worry. With me here, even if we were to encounter that demonic woman, she would still not be able to harm you all,” A rather ugly-looking man who walked at the back of the crowd patted his chest and guaranteed their safety.

“You don't have to continue to joke around. You want to take care of that demonic woman with your cultivation? Likely, after seeing the demonic woman, you will be the first to run away,” The women started to laugh loudly.

Then, they turned their gazes to the man leading the group. They said, “We would only trust it if it was senior brother Liao who said that he would protect us.”

After hearing what the women said, that so-called senior brother Liao's lips lifted into a confident smile. He said, “Rest assured. With me here, no one will be able to harm you all.”

Hearing what that senior brother Liao said, those women were overjoyed. They appeared exceptionally excited. Then, they began to praise that senior brother Liao nonstop.

Listening till that point, Chu Feng was unable to contain himself anymore. It was not that Chu Feng disliked flirtatious individuals. But Chu Feng was fed up with individuals who would blow their own trumpet and believe themselves to be infallible.

Chu Feng had already managed to determine that this group of people were most likely disciples of a power around the Fallen Goose Mountain Range. When even their masters were unable to do anything to that demonic woman, they actually had the nerve to declare that they would take care of that demonic woman. They were truly too boastful.

That crowd of people continued in Chu Feng's direction. Originally, Chu Feng had decided to ignore them. He planned to take care of his own business and not pay attention to them.

However, who would've thought that after that crowd of people saw Chu Feng, that man with the ugly appearance pointed at Chu Feng and shouted loudly, "Hey! Who are you?! Who said you could come here?!"

For the sake of showing himself off to those female disciples, that ugly-looking fellow actually utilized his oppressive might when he shouted at Chu Feng.

Merely, the oppressive might of a mere rank three Martial Emperor was simply akin to a joke before Chu Feng.

"This place seems to be an uninhabited location. Why can't I come here?" Chu Feng refuted.

At that moment, those men and women had already descended to the ground. Not only had they landed on the Heavenly Wolf Peak, they had also surrounded Chu Feng as they did so.

At that moment, that senior brother Liao who possessed the strongest strength also revealed an ill-intended expression. With a cold voice, he said, "This place is where that demonic woman frequently appears. For someone like you to be here is simply akin to courting death. Scram immediately. Else, if you are to encounter that demonic woman, we will not bother saving you."

Overwhelming arrogance. That senior brother Liao could be said to have fully displayed the behavior of someone who believed himself to be infallible.

However, his clearly pretentious prick-like behavior actually caused those females to reveal dazed and lovestruck gazes filled with adoration.

Sensing the gazes filled with adoration from the women, that senior brother Liao grew even more complacent. He said to Chu Feng, “Hey, I’m talking to you, are you deaf?”

Faced with such a rude bunch, Chu Feng would naturally not yield to them. Originally, he had planned to teach them a lesson so that they did not disturb his leisure.

However, right at the moment when Chu Feng planned to attack them, Chu Feng’s gaze suddenly flashed. Then, he immediately turned his sharp gaze to the southwest.

Upon seeing what was there, Chu Feng immediately felt extremely excited, and revealed an ecstatic expression. He even began to involuntarily tighten his fists. He felt as if all of the nerves in his body were throbbing.

Filled with excitement, he muttered, “You’re finally here.”

It turned out that Chu Feng had seen a figure in the direction that he was looking toward.

That figure was extremely fast. It was currently flying toward Heavenly Wolf Peak. As for that figure, it was a figure that Chu Feng had seen before; it was precisely that demonic woman who had taken Wang Qiang away.

The enemy that Chu Feng had sought after for so long was finally here. How could Chu Feng not be overjoyed?

Today would be the day that he would avenge Wang Qiang.

“Who? The fuck kinda nonsense are you spouting?” Ignorant to what was happening, that man surnamed Liao still didn’t know that a crisis was approaching them. The only thing in his mind was to continue to show off his might. Thus, he actually walked over to Chu Feng and pointed at Chu Feng's nose.

“Scram immediately!” Chu Feng said in a displeased manner.

At that moment, the only thing in Chu Feng's mind was taking care of that demonic woman. He was no longer in the mood to take care of that bunch of trash.

“Aiyah! You actually dare to speak to me in such a manner? It seems that you've truly grown tired of living!”

Seeing that Chu Feng had actually spoken to him in such a manner, that man surnamed Liao was immediately furious, and actually grabbed Chu Feng's lapel.

At that moment, the others present all started to smile. They were rejoicing in Chu Feng's misfortune.

Regardless of whether they were men or women, they all had anticipating expressions. They were all anticipating the scene of their senior brother Liao ruthlessly teaching Chu Feng a lesson.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right at that moment, a strong gale suddenly arrived. The gale was so strong that it knocked those men and women rolling and crawling on the ground. They nearly even fell down from Heavenly Wolf Peak.

“Why would there be such an enormous wind?!” The men and women all had puzzled expressions.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. There's this much fresh young meat. This is truly an unexpected harvest,” Right at that moment, a gloomy and cold voice sounded from not too far away.

“Heavens!!!”

Seeing that scene, the crowd present, with the exception of Chu

Feng, all had an enormous change in expression. They who had held arrogant expressions earlier were now completely pale with fear. It was as if they have seen a ghost. They were truly terrified.

The reason for that was because that demonic woman was currently standing atop Heavenly Wolf Peak.

Her ferocious gaze was like that of a hungry wolf seeing rabbits. She was using that sort of gaze to run her eyes over every one of the people present on the Heavenly Wolf Peak.

Chapter 2293 – Overwhelming Killing Intent

---

The demonic woman had revealed her actual appearance from the very beginning.

Red skin and long red hair. Sharp fangs filled her beast-like mouth.

That demonic woman was not naked. Instead, she was wearing a long skirt. However, it was precisely because of the matching of that long skirt with her fierce appearance that she appeared to be particularly frightening.

At the moment they saw the demonic woman, the men and women present started to tremble in fear. Not to mention the fact that the demonic woman's oppressive might had locked down the entire place, even if she did not use her oppressive might, those people would not have the courage to run away from her either.

“Sen-senior brother Liao, think of something.”

In panic, those men and women all turned their gazes to that individual surnamed Liao.

“We-we’re screwed.”

“We are definitely screwed.”

However, that man surnamed Liao was so frightened by the demonic woman that he began to make delirious remarks. Not only was he trembling violently, one could even notice that the crotch of his pants was completely wet.

That senior brother Liao who had been acting so arrogantly and boasted about teaching Chu Feng a lesson earlier had pissed his pants in fear of that demonic woman.

At that moment, those men and women all gave in to despair. Facing that demonic woman, they did not even have the courage to beg for forgiveness. Other than waiting for death, they could do nothing.

“Demonic woman, we meet again.”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded.

Once Chu Feng’s voice was heard, those men and women all revealed stunned expressions. They never expected that the man that they were looking down on earlier would actually dare to speak to the demonic woman in such a manner.

Furthermore, he was very calm, and showed not the slightest bit of fear. It was as if the demonic woman was nothing more than an ordinary individual before him.

“Mn?” At that moment, that demonic woman turned her gaze to Chu Feng. Seeing that Chu Feng was actually not scared of her, the demonic woman was also very surprised. Thus, she asked, “You’re not afraid of me?”

“Do you not wish to know when we last met?” Chu Feng asked indifferently.

“We’ve met before?” Hearing what Chu Feng said, that demonic woman was even more astonished. Then, her mouth lifted into a strange smile. She said, “A young and tender boy like you was actually able to live after seeing me? That is truly miraculous.”

“However, this time around, I will not let you, my fine food, escape my grasp.”

After saying those words, that demonic woman extended her lizard-like tongue and licked her lips.

She did not care about when Chu Feng might have met her before. What she was concerned about was the fact that Chu Feng actually managed to escape being eaten by her after encountering her. As such, she was determined to eat him this time around.

“It seems that you truly have absolutely no recollection of me. However, that makes sense too. After all, the last time we met, we did not really fight with one another.”

“However, I will not let you get away this time around,” Chu Feng said.

After hearing what Chu Feng said, that demonic woman’s gaze changed slightly. She said, “You’ve deliberately come to find me?”

“You’ve killed my friend. I must avenge him,” Chu Feng said.

“Interesting. You, a mere rank four Half Martial Ancestor, are actually thinking about killing me?” That demonic woman said with a mocking laugh.

“Rank four Half Martial Ancestor?” The mockery from the demonic woman came crushing down on the men and women that were threatening Chu Feng like an invisible sledgehammer.

The majority of them were Martial Emperors. Even the strongest among them, that senior brother Liao, was only a rank five Martial Emperor.

Yet, the fellow that they were looking down on earlier was actually a rank four Half Martial Ancestor?!

Perhaps a rank four Half Martial Ancestor might not amount to much before the demonic woman, but it was an existence so unsurprisingly frightening for them.

Thinking about how they had actually dared to threaten him earlier, the group of men and women all felt lingering fear.

“You are but a mere rank one Martial Ancestor yourself,” Chu Feng said indifferently.

Chu Feng had already noticed that demonic woman before she had even managed to approach him. At that time, Chu Feng had already ascertained the demonic woman’s cultivation.

Rank one Martial Ancestor. That was the cultivation of this demonic woman. Chu Feng had to admit that the demonic woman was very strong. At the very least, she was much more powerful than him.

However, Chu Feng was daring enough to stand here and wait for the arrival of the demonic woman, and then even declared that he would kill her.

Naturally, the reason for that would be because of the final Immortal Transformation Pellet that he possessed. After taking it, Chu Feng's cultivation would increase to that of a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Although he would lose his Heavenly Bloodline's ability, as well as his heaven-defying battle power because he would have increased his cultivation through world spirit techniques, it remained that he would become a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Compared to a rank one Martial Ancestor, a rank five Martial Ancestor was four entire levels of cultivation above it. Thus, Chu Feng was confident that he would be able to kill this demonic woman here today.

That Immortal Transformation Pellet had been inside Chu Feng's mouth the entire time. Furthermore, Chu Feng had already swallowed it. The pellet was already starting to take effect.

"A mere rank one Martial Ancestor. You said those words quite effortlessly."

"Did you really think that you would be able to kill me, a rank one Marital Ancestor, with your cultivation of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor?" The demonic woman mocked.

"How would we know if I don't try?"

"Boom~~~"

Once Chu Feng said those words, overwhelming oppressive might immediately swept forth. Even that demonic woman was forced back two steps by that oppressive might.

"Rank five Martial Ancestor, you're actually a rank five Martial Ancestor?!”

Astonishment appeared in the demonic woman's eyes as she looked at Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because the aura Chu Feng was emitting now was most definitely not that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor, but a rank five Martial Ancestor instead.

Yes, Martial Ancestor as opposed to Half Martial Ancestor. The enormous gap in cultivation caused even that demonic woman to feel disbelief.

“What? A rank five Martial Ancestor?!”

Hearing what the demonic woman declared, those men and women that had threatened Chu Feng earlier had an enormous change in their expressions once again. Fear filled their eyes as they looked to Chu Feng.

“Do you now know why I am so confident?”

After taking the Immortal Transformation Pellet, Chu Feng did not want to bother to speak superfluous words with the demonic woman. As he said those words, he had already shot his right fist out toward the demonic woman, carrying overwhelmingly destructive power.

Chu Feng's speed was simply too fast. Before that demonic woman could react, Chu Feng's powerful fist had already landed on her face.

“Boom~~~”

The enormous power of his fist shot that demonic woman several thousands of meters out into the distant forest.

As the demonic woman crashed through the forest, she destroyed everything in her path.

“Mn?”

Although the fist connected, and the power of his fist was extremely strong, Chu Feng did not have any joy on his face. Instead, he started to frown.

His fist strike should have been more than enough to shatter that demonic woman into pieces and kill her.

However, that demonic woman's body was not shattered. Instead, she was merely knocked flying. Furthermore, Chu Feng discovered that not only was the demonic woman not dead, she was also uninjured.

However, how could a mere rank one Martial Ancestor be able to withstand the attack of a rank five Martial Ancestor?

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. Interesting. You actually dared to hit me. I am determined to eat you alive.”

Sure enough, a frightening snarl soon sounded from that demonic woman.

“A heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation?”

At that moment, Chu Feng also revealed an astonished expression.

He was able to sense the strength that the demonic woman possessed. Although her cultivation was indeed only that of a rank one Martial Ancestor, that demonic woman possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation; an entire level more than Chu Feng's own heaven-defying battle power.

Thus, even though Chu Feng was a rank five Martial Ancestor now, that demonic woman, by relying on her cultivation of rank one Martial Ancestor and her heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, was evenly matched against him.

“Boom~~~:

Suddenly, a loud explosion was heard. That demonic woman had soared into the sky and was flying toward Chu Feng.

Not only was she very imposing, she was also carrying overwhelming killing intent with her.

Chapter 2294 – Undying And Indestructible

---

“It would appear that I cannot be careless.”

Seeing that the demonic woman’s strength was not weak, Chu Feng hurriedly took out his Magma Emperor Sword. Only then did he begin to fly toward that demonic woman.

The demonic woman was not to be outdone. She shouted, “Did you think that you were the only one with an Incomplete Ancestral Armament?!”

Originally, Chu Feng thought that the demonic woman would take out an Incomplete Ancestral Armament from her Cosmos Sack.

However, to Chu Feng’s surprise, that demonic woman took out her Incomplete Ancestral Armament, not from her Cosmos Sack, but from within her body. It was a pair of crimson daggers. The two daggers extended from that demonic woman’s palms.

Most strangely, the two weapons, after extending from her palms, did not cause the slightest trace of blood. It was as if that demonic woman’s palms were merely a place to store the weapons.

At that moment, what Chu Feng was the most concerned with was not the strange ability of that demonic woman. Instead, it was the might and killing intent emitted by that demonic woman.

Her might was overwhelming, and her killing intent was boundless. Neither one of them could be looked down upon. As such, Chu Feng did not dare to be careless in the slightest.

“Clank, clank, clank, clank, clank~~~”

Sparks began to flutter in the sky like dragons and snakes. Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword and that demonic woman’s dual crimson daggers were colliding in the sky nonstop.

With each collision, they would let out loud rumbles and cause firework-like sparks.

The two fighters were so fast that they would end up colliding over a thousand times in an instant.

Although their attacks were mighty, fierce and exceptionally terrifying, they were a dazzling feast to the eyes.

This was especially true because the sky had already darkened now. Thus, their battle became even more dazzling to the eyes.

“Amazing. That guy is actually capable of fighting against that demonic woman?”

“I’ve heard that even our Lord Sect Master does not possess certainty of defeating that demonic woman.”

At that moment, those men and women had managed to crawl back up. When those women looked at Chu Feng, who was fighting against that demonic woman in the distance, their gazes became complicated.

“Why are you all still standing here to look?! Quickly, get moving! I will not bother with you all once that demonic woman returns!”

That senior brother Liao crawled back up and shouted angrily at the others. After saying those words, he disregarded the others and was the first to leave.

“You’re showing off your authority now? Earlier, when that demonic woman was trying to kill us, we seem to remember that you didn’t try to help us either.”

At that moment, those female disciples no longer had the sort of adoration in their gazes that they’d had previously when they looked to their senior brother Liao. Instead, their gazes were filled with disgust.

“Let’s go. That demonic woman is too powerful. Who knows how much longer that guy can last. It’s best that we hurry up and return to ask for Lord Sect Master to come and help,” The ugly looking man also urged.

It was only after hearing those words that the female disciples began to soar into the sky and fly toward the direction where they had come from.

However, even with that being the case, they would still turn their heads to look at Chu Feng meaningfully. A faint amount of reluctance to part was present in their eyes.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The battle between Chu Feng and that demonic woman grew fiercer and fiercer. The two of them had already utilized a lot of their abilities. This included even taboo martial skills.

Chu Feng was shocked to discover that not only did this woman possess an astonishing battle power, her proficiency in terms of martial skills was also extremely strong.

Even though Chu Feng possessed superb comprehension toward martial skills, he was still unable to suppress that demonic woman.

“Those trash must have gone to find reinforcements. I do not have the time to waste on you here.”

“I will end this senseless battle right now.”

Once that woman said those words, her hands suddenly started to emit dazzling light. Those two rays of light were capable of piercing through even space itself. They shot toward Chu Feng.

Although that technique appeared to be very simple, its might was extremely terrifying. The reason for that was because it was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

“Heeaahh!!!”

In such a situation, Chu Feng was left with no other choice. He clenched his right fist and shot it forth explosively. He had unleashed the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, Heavenly Dome Transformation.

“Boom~~~”

The two Emperor Taboo Martial Skills collided with one another. Their collision immediately brought forth boundless energy ripples. The energy ripples were so strong that the mountains, creeks and forests below were completely razed to the ground. Even space itself was shattered by the impact. As for Chu Feng, he was also knocked back repeatedly.

At the moment when the energy ripples weakened, Chu Feng discovered that he was not the only one knocked back by the impact. That demonic woman was also knocked back by the impact.

Merely, like Chu Feng, she was also uninjured.

“Damn it. This won’t do.”

“Must I really use the Evil God Sword?”

When Chu Feng saw that he was unable to defeat that demonic woman using his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, he entered a predicament.

After all, unleashing the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation with the Magma Emperor Sword could be said to be the strongest ability that Chu Feng possessed right now.

When even that failed to defeat that demonic woman, Chu Feng truly did not know what could be done. As such, that uncontrollable Evil God Sword had become Chu Feng’s final hope.

However, that Evil God Sword was truly unreliable. Firstly, that Evil God Sword would create a backlash against Chu Feng. As Chu Feng did not possess sufficient strength to utilize it, it was very likely that the Evil God Sword would end up taking his life.

And most importantly, Chu Feng was uncertain as to whether or not that Evil God Sword would truly be able to defeat that demonic woman.

Right now, no matter what, he was still equally matched against that demonic woman. However, if he were to change his Magma Emperor Sword to the Evil God Sword, if that Evil God Sword ended up not being as powerful as Chu Feng anticipated it to be, or if Chu Feng was unable to unleash the might of the Evil God Sword, it would be very possible for the Evil God Sword to become a disadvantage for Chu Feng.

After battling that demonic woman, Chu Feng was certain that the demonic woman was no ordinary character. It could be said that she was one of the hardest opponents that he had met so far.

If Chu Feng decided to use the Evil God Sword and ended up putting himself in a disadvantaged state because of it, it would be very likely that he would be giving the demonic woman an opportunity to kill him.

“No, it’s not an absolute predicament yet.”

When Chu Feng thought of that, his body suddenly shifted. Suddenly, a dragon roar sounded from below his body.

Secret Skill. It was the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique. Chu Feng had unleashed the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique, and began to fly toward the demonic woman with rapid speed.

“You wish to attempt close combat after failing to defeat me with martial skills? Very well, I will accompany you with it. I shall let you wholeheartedly accept your defeat.”

The demonic woman was not concerned with Chu Feng. Seeing that Chu Feng wanted to fight against her in close combat again, she did not try to deliberately keep her distance. Instead, she also started to fly toward Chu Feng.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

In a blink of an eye, the two fighters collided with one another again. Merely, this time around, their attacks were even more deadly. It was as if any one of their attacks would be fatal to their opponent should they end up landing.

“Woosh~~~”

After the two of them fought for a moment, a cold crimson ray suddenly flashed past.

Not only did the demonic woman dodge Chu Feng’s fatal attack with his Magma Emperor Sword, the crimson dagger she held with her right hand was also aimed at Chu Feng’s dantian.

Her dagger contained a special sort of martial skill. As long as Chu Feng was struck by it, it would not be as simple as his dantian being damaged. Instead, his body would explode on the spot, killing him in the process.

“Puu~~~”

Following a muffled sound, the dagger was pierced into Chu Feng.

“Bang~~~”

In an instant, a muffled explosion was heard. Chu Feng’s completely intact body immediately shattered on the spot.

“I admit that you are very strong. However, you are still no match for me.”

Seeing that she had successfully killed Chu Feng, the demonic woman’s lips were raised into a complacent smile.

“Are you certain of that?”

However, the very next moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded again. By the time Chu Feng’s voice was heard, he already appeared behind the demonic woman. Furthermore, his right fist was tightly held. Contained within his right fist was overwhelming destructive power.

Chu Feng had unleashed the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation. At that moment, he shot forth that Emperor Taboo at the demonic woman's body.

Furthermore, Chu Feng's fist was so close to her that the demonic woman was simply unable to dodge it.

“Boom~~~”

After the fist strike landed, energy ripples started to spread immediately.

This time around, the demonic woman was struck by Chu Feng's fist completely unguarded.

Chu Feng's fist was no ordinary fist. Instead, that fist strike contained the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation!!!

“Boom~~~”

The might of that Emperor Taboo began to wreak havoc in the sky. The space that was just reformed was once again shattered.

With how mighty that attack was, there was no need to even mention the demonic woman's body. In an instant, her body had already been shattered to dust.

However, even though that demonic woman had been shattered to dust by Chu Feng, Chu Feng did not have a joyous expression on his face. Instead, he had a serious expression, and his eyes were filled with shock. Alarmed, he cried out, “This sensation, could it be?”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. That's right. I am the same as you, I possess an undying and indestructible body.”

The very next moment, energies began to condense at a location not far away from Chu Feng. Soon, that demonic woman's body was reformed. Not only was she completely uninjured, even her skirt was completely undamaged.

Chapter 2295 – The Powerful Demonic Woman

---

“Undying and indestructible?”

“No, you are not truly undying and indestructible. You are merely the same as me, someone who has grasped a secret skill to allow your physical body to be undying and indestructible,” Chu Feng said to the demonic woman.

Although everything happened instantly, and the ability that demonic woman used was clearly different from his own, Chu Feng noticed the existence of a secret skill from that very instant.

And now, Chu Feng was certain that the reason that demonic woman had managed to survive after being struck by him was because of that secret skill.

Originally, Chu Feng was trying to use his Five Elements Secret Skill to protect his body; he was planning to utilize the effect of his undying and indestructible body to mount a sneak attack to kill that demonic woman with a single strike.

However, Chu Feng truly never would have anticipated that that demonic woman not only possessed overwhelming battle power and proficient mastery with her martial skills, but had also grasped a secret skill similar to his own.

“I truly never expected that you would actually see through it.”

“Indeed, I have used a secret skill. However, you’re quite decent yourself. You’ve actually grasped all those secret skills. However, as long as you die, those secret skills will be mine,” The demonic woman said to Chu Feng with a smile.

“Both of us possess undying and indestructible bodies, how are you supposed to kill me?” Chu Feng asked.

Although Chu Feng appeared to be very calm, he was actually slightly panicky. The effect of his Immortal Transformation Pellet would only last for an hour. He would soon return to his actual cultivation.

If Chu Feng was incapable of defeating the demonic woman or escaping from this battlefield, he would return to being a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. At that time, he would not be able to make up for the disparity in battle power.

At that time, he would undoubtedly be killed by that demonic woman.

Thus, Chu Feng was watching that demonic woman carefully. The reason for that was because he did not only use his Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation with his punch earlier.

For the sake of preventing against accidents, Chu Feng had used another method as a security, a method specially used to curb the demonic women.

Merely, that method's effect had yet to activate. That was the reason why Chu Feng was panicky. He was uncertain as to whether or not that method of his ended up working.

“Wuu~~~” Right at that moment, the expression of that demonic woman suddenly changed. Then, her mouth opened as she sprayed out a mouthful of blood with a ‘puu.’

“What is this?” The demonic woman covered her chest with her hands. She had an astonished expression on her face. She was completely at a loss as to what was happening.

The reason for that was because not only was the demonic woman's red skin flickering blue and purple nonstop, her body was also starting to distort.

Most importantly, the demonic woman's aura was growing weaker and weaker. Furthermore, it was still weakening.

“Heh... seems like it's effective,” At that moment, Chu Feng finally revealed a smile of relief.

“It’s you?! You did this?!” Hearing Chu Feng’s laughter, the demonic woman’s expression grew even more sinister.

“You are, after all, a demonic woman. You couldn’t possibly not know about the Demon Subduing Spring Water, right?” Chu Feng mocked.

“Demon Subduing Spring Water, you used Demon Subduing Spring Water? When?!” The demonic woman revealed an astonished expression.

“At the same time when my punch struck you earlier. I used Demon Subduing Spring Water with my punch. Right now, the Demon Subduing Spring Water has already completely filled your body and fused with you,” Chu Feng said complacently.

“So that’s the case. Never would I have expected that you would be this clever. I have truly been made a fool of by you.”

“Haha, this is truly more and more interesting,” After the demonic woman heard what had happened, she no longer had an expression of anger, and instead burst into loud laughter.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s expression turned sluggish. His gaze turned ill as he revealed an extremely confused expression.

He was firstly confused by the fact that the demonic woman did not call him despicable, and instead said that he was clever.

Then, and most importantly, he was confused by why the demonic would say that it was more interesting. She had clearly been struck by the Demon Subduing Spring Water. If this were to continue, her strength would grow weaker and weaker. At that time, she would no longer be able to contend against Chu Feng.

When the difference between the demonic woman’s strength and Chu Feng’s strength grew too great, that demonic woman’s undying and indestructible body would also lose its effect.

Chu Feng knew that there were no true undying and indestructible bodies in the world. At the very most, those abilities would only work on people with about the same level of cultivation.

However, if one were to encounter a much more powerful opponent, one would still end up being killed.

Thus, when the demonic woman's strength grew weak enough to be completely unable to contend against Chu Feng, Chu Feng would be able to break through that demonic woman's secret skill and kill her.

However, even though the demonic woman was already in a crisis, she was not only not scared, but instead started to laugh. It was as if she possessed another hidden trump card that would grant her absolute victory.

This caused Chu Feng to feel extremely uneasy.

"I already have a whole new level of respect for you now. I truly never expected that you would be able to force me to this level."

"However, it would be best that you not think that I will definitely be killed just because you sprinkled some Demon Subduing Spring Water on me."

"The person who will undoubtedly die is still you," Right after the demonic woman said those words, her gaze started to flicker. Immediately afterward, a world spirit gate appeared before her.

"How could this be?" Chu Feng's expression changed enormously upon seeing that world spirit gate.

Chu Feng had truly never expected that not only did that demonic woman possess overwhelming battle power and astonishing techniques, but she was actually also a world spiritist.

Most importantly, the moment she opened her world spirit gate, Chu Feng felt an enormously strong world spirit power.

Not only was that demonic woman a world spiritist, she was an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist like Chu Feng.

The fact that the demonic woman was a world spiritist was already extremely shocking. But the fact that her world spirit techniques were capable of reaching such a level of proficiency shocked even Chu Feng even more.

At the same time Chu Feng was shocked, he became more worried. The reason for that was because it seemed that the demonic woman was going to release her world spirits.

Furthermore, judging from her confident appearance, the world spirits that she would unleash would most likely be no small matter either. Likely, their strength would surpass even Chu Feng.

“Haha, little girl, this is interesting. You actually encountered such a difficult opponent among the people of the younger generation.”

Following the rumbling noises, an enormous figure walked out from that world spirit gate.

Sure enough, that world spirit was very powerful. Although it only possessed the cultivation of rank three Martial Ancestor, it possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

In other words, that world spirit's actual battle power was on par with ordinary rank six Martial Ancestors. He was one entire level of cultivation above the current Chu Feng.

However, to Chu Feng's greatest surprise, it was actually a Fairy Spirit World's World Spirit.

Not only was that demonic woman an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, the world spirits that she contracted were actually from the Fairy Spirit World.

Demonic woman and fairy, this was simply an unimaginable combination.

After releasing her world spirit, the demonic woman did not attack Chu Feng immediately. Instead, she turned to question him,

“Hey, you got any more abilities left that could allow you to contend against this world spirit of mine?”

“What if I do, and what if I don’t?” Chu Feng asked coldly.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s palms were on his Cosmos Sack. He was prepared to use his final trump card, the Evil God Sword.

“If you do, then go ahead and use them.”

“You are a rare opponent to come by. Thus, I am going to battle to my heart’s content today.”

“However, the one who will be defeated in the end will still be you,” The demonic woman said confidently.

Chu Feng frowned. He asked in a skeptical manner, “Are you certain that you are planning to give me time to unleash my abilities?”

“I am not a despicable person. If you have more abilities, go ahead and use them. I will give you the time,” The demonic woman said.

For some unknown reason, when that demonic woman said those words, Chu Feng felt a sort of unfathomable trust in her words.

Even though he felt it to be unfathomable, Chu Feng still moved his hand away from his Cosmos Sack, away from his Evil God Sword.

The reason for that was because if the demonic woman was willing to give Chu Feng time, then Chu Feng possessed another ability that could allow him to fight against that demonic woman. Furthermore, he was even more confident in being able to defeat the demonic woman with this method.

Furthermore, compared to the Evil God Sword, this method was much more secure.

As for that method, it was naturally the Five Elements Secret Skills.

The Gold Immortal Profound Technique.

The Wood Immortal Profound Technique.

The Water Immortal Profound Technique.

The Fire Immortal Profound Technique.

And the Earth Immortal Profound Technique.

At that moment, Chu Feng's cultivation was that of a rank five Martial Ancestor. If he were to utilize the Five Elements Secret Skills and unleash the Gold, Wood, Water, Fire and Earth Immortals, then, with their special ability, the strength of the Five Immortals would be one level of cultivation above Chu Feng's, making them rank six Martial Ancestors.

There was, however, a reason why Chu Feng did not unleash the Five Immortals from the Five Elements Secret Skills, and had even considered using the Evil God Sword before them.

The reason for that was because even though the Immortal Transformation Pellet had increased Chu Feng's cultivation and allowed him to use martial power and martial skills, there were still restrictions to it.

That sort of restriction was something that Chu Feng could not explain.

The reason for that was because secret skills like the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique and the White Tiger Slaughter Techniques were things that Chu Feng could use willingly.

In fact, he would even be able to utilize the characteristics of the Five Elements Secret Skills when being attacked to give himself an undying and indestructible body.

However, if he wanted to unleash the Five Immortals and have them fight for him, it would be very difficult.

It was not impossible, just very difficult.

If an explanation must be made, then perhaps it would be because that method surpassed Chu Feng's cultivation by too much. As such, it was difficult for Chu Feng to unleash them.

After all, the Immortal Transformation Pellet had increased Chu Feng's cultivation from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank five Martial Ancestor. That was a total of ten levels of cultivation. That itself was already extremely miraculous.

Thus, it was reasonable for there to be certain restrictions.

Fortunately, while the Five Elements Secret Skills were hard to unleash, they were not impossible to unleash. It would merely be that Chu Feng would need more time to unleash them.

However, that demonic woman was actually willing to give him the time.

"Since you are willing to give me the time, I will unleash my technique," Chu Feng said.

"Go ahead. I will absolutely not mount a sneak attack at you," The demonic woman said. She even revealed an anticipating gaze.

She was truly looking forward to seeing what sort of ability Chu Feng would use next, and completely disregarded the pain brought upon her by the Demon Subduing Spring Water.

FBT originally translated it to fairy. However, it's actually Xian → Immortal; which is sometimes translated to celestial fairies (generally for the females. I have also translated it as such sometimes). I had kept it as Fairy for consistency.

Chapter 2296 – The Tragic Death Of Wang Qiang

---

Actually, being given the advantage by the demonic woman like this, Chu Feng would feel that it would be an unfair victory even if he did manage to win.

However, this was the only opportunity Chu Feng had at defeating the demonic woman. Thus, Chu Feng must grasp it.

“Haaah!” Thinking of that, Chu Feng did not hesitate any longer. He shouted loudly, and then a majestic aura began to emanate from his body.

At that moment, the demonic woman’s eyes shone. Her lips were actually raised into a smile.

After Chu Feng shouted loudly, he closed his mouth and then opened it abruptly. Then, with a ‘puu,’ scarlet colored blood sprayed out from Chu Feng’s mouth like a pillar.

Seeing this scene, the demonic woman was stunned. Evidently, she was greatly surprised by Chu Feng’s sudden vomit of blood.

However, this was only the beginning.

After spraying out a mouthful of blood, blood began to flow from the corners of Chu Feng’s eyes, as well as his nose and ears.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s expression became exceptionally ugly. His aura also began to weaken and his entire body grew more and more unstable.

It was as if he was under enormous pressure, and was about to explode and die at any moment.

“Hey, what is with your condition?”

At that moment, even that demonic woman was unable to remain calm. The reason for that was because this simply did not resemble Chu Feng using any ability. Instead, he was clearly mutilating himself.

“Girl, do not be careless,” Suddenly, the Fairy World Spirit summoned by that demonic woman warned her loudly.

The very next moment, Chu Feng’s clothes began to flutter. At the same time, five bodies of energy shot out from Chu Feng’s body.

Gold, wood, water, fire and earth.

After the five bodies of energy left Chu Feng’s body, they took humanoid forms. They turned into five enormous and extremely imposing Immortals.

Like celestial soldiers and divine generals, they stood before Chu Feng.

Those five were precisely the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, Wood Immortal Profound Technique, Water Immortal Profound Technique, Fire Immortal Profound Technique and Earth Immortal Profound Technique.

“These... are secret skills?”

When the demonic woman saw the Five Elements Secret Skills, she also revealed a shocked expression. After all, the five immortals currently possessed the cultivation of rank six Martial Ancestors.

Upon seeing the five immortals, that Fairy World Spirit gasped, “This is going to be a bit difficult now.”

“How is it? Can you handle them?” That demonic woman asked.

“They’re merely difficult. It doesn’t mean that I will not be able to handle them.”

“Crash~~~”

Immediately after saying those words, that Fairy World Spirit spread of its hands wide. Two golden-bright and dazzling long whips appeared in his grasp.

“Pa, pa, pa~~~”

Immediately after that, the two golden whips began to whistle and spiral in the sky like two golden dragons.

Although the five immortals all possessed the cultivation of rank six Martial Ancestors now, they were actually unable to prevail against that Fairy World Spirit’s whips in the slightest.

They were completely restricted.

“This is bad. That demonic woman’s world spirit is actually stronger than I had anticipated. The five immortals will likely not be a match for it,” Sensing that the situation was bad, Chu Feng felt that it would be best that he take care of this matter himself.

The reason for that was because if the demonic woman were to be defeated, her world spirit would not be able to do anything anymore.

“Puu~~~”

However, right after Chu Feng took a step, he immediately felt that his blood was surging over. Then, a mouthful of blood sprayed out from his mouth.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt that his surroundings were swaying left and right. He had become dizzy, and his vision blurred. Not to mention fighting, even walking a single step had become extremely difficult.

“Damn it.”

Chu Feng gnashed his teeth angrily. He never expected there to be such an enormous burden on his body after using the Five Elements Secret Skills.

“It seems that you’ve paid considerably in order to unleash those five secret skills.”

“It is impossible for the current you to defeat me. Even though I am being restricted by the Demon Subduing Spring Water, you will still not be able to defeat me,” The demonic woman said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

After hearing what the demonic woman said, Chu Feng’s frown grew deeper. Not only did this demonic woman possess overwhelming strength, her power of observation was also extremely strong. It was as if she had noticed what Chu Feng was planning before he even acted upon it.

“I have a question. Why do you insist on killing me? I seem to have had no conflicts with you before,” The demonic woman said.

“You killed my brother. Naturally, I will have to avenge him,” Chu Feng said.

“I have truly killed many people. However, among them, only a few left an impression. However, that brother of yours should likely not be an ordinary individual, right?” The demonic woman asked. Evidently, as she had a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng, she became interested.

“Of course,” Chu Feng said.

“Then what sort of characteristics did your brother possess? Why don’t you tell me about it,” The demonic woman asked curiously.

Then, Chu Feng began to describe Wang Qiang’s characteristics to that demonic woman.

“It’s actually him?” Hearing those words, the demonic woman’s expression changed slightly. Evidently, she remembered Wang Qiang.

Chu Feng was not surprised. After all, compared to other people, Wang Qiang truly possessed many distinguishing features. He was the sort of person that would leave a deep impression on others.

“Did you eat him?” Chu Feng asked. At that moment, Chu Feng felt that it was impossible for him to defeat the demonic woman. Thus, he wanted to verify whether or not Wang Qiang was truly dead.

“No, I felt that guy to be disgusting,” The demonic woman said.

“In that case, he’s still alive?” Hearing what the demonic woman said, Chu Feng was overjoyed.

“No, he’s dead. Furthermore, due to how vulgar he is, he has no doubt met a miserable death,” The demonic woman said.

“You killed him?” Chu Feng’s expression changed instantly. Boundless rage began to bubble up in his heart.

“I sliced off his flesh piece by piece while he was still alive. Then, I fed them to dogs.”

“After his flesh was all sliced off, I extracted all of his source energy. Thus, he died in miserable pain.”

“Thinking about his heart-tearing and lungs-splitting screams from that day, it is still a very pleasurable feeling.”

As that demonic woman said those words, she smiled in an overjoyed manner. It was as if what she had described was something that gave her immense pleasure.

From the appearance of the demonic woman, it appeared that she was not joking around.

At that moment, the scene of Wang Qiang dying miserably appeared in Chu Feng’s mind.

Anger filled Chu Feng’s heart, and killing intent started to soar.

“I’ll kill you!”

After a loud shout of anger, the weather started to change. Chu Feng’s body moved. He passed by the battle between the five immortals and that world spirit. Like a humanoid beast that carried intense killing intent, Chu Feng rushed rapidly toward that demonic woman.

Chu Feng’s speed was so fast that he arrived before that demonic woman in an instant.

With his Magma Emperor Sword in hand, Chu Feng slashed at the demonic woman.

“You?”

Seeing the current Chu Feng, the demonic woman had an astonished expression.

The way she saw it, it should be impossible for Chu Feng to unleash such overwhelming power with how seriously injured he was.

However, Chu Feng had accomplished exactly that feat. He had managed to accomplish it through anger.

In other words, Chu Feng had forgotten about the enormous pain of his body because of the anger caused by Wang Qiang’s death. He disregarded everything, and unleashed strength what should have been impossible for him to unleash.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at the moment when Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword was about to hack down toward the demonic woman, a world spirit gate appeared before the demonic woman.

At the moment when Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword hacked down toward the demonic woman, a giant hand extended out from that world spirit gate and grabbed Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword.

“This?”

At that moment, Chu Feng was greatly alarmed. Even though it was merely a hand, and had not completely unleashed all of its aura, Chu Feng was able to sense that the world spirit from this world spirit gate possessed strength that surpassed his own.

“Oh no, someone’s coming.”

Suddenly, the demonic woman’s gaze flashed. She took a serious glance toward the distance. Then, she turned to Chu Feng and smiled lightly.

She said, “I have remembered your appearance. I am only letting you live for a while longer. The next time we meet shall be the time of your death.”

“Woosh~~~”

After the demonic woman finished saying those words, she smiled meaningfully at Chu Feng. Then, she turned around and started flying away.

At the same time, the world spirit that the demonic woman let out earlier also left with her.

As for the world spirit that had blocked Chu Feng’s sword strike, it did not appear. Instead, after the demonic woman turned to leave, it returned to its world spirit gate.

Chu Feng looked to the direction where the demonic woman had left. However, he did not give chase.

The reason for that was because he knew he was no match for that demonic woman.

If he decided to chase after her, he would undoubtedly be killed.

Chapter 2297 – Court Cloud Sect

---

The demonic woman left. Her figure had disappeared completely.

However, Chu Feng continued to stand there. He looked to the direction that the demonic woman had disappeared in and remained stunned for a long period of time.

He was defeated. Without a doubt, the result of the battle was Chu Feng's defeat.

Furthermore, according to Chu Feng's observation, the demonic woman didn't seem to be very old; her age was about the same as Chu Feng's.

In other words, today, not only was Chu Feng defeated by a member of the same generation, he was also defeated by a person of similar age to his own.

Although that demonic woman could not exactly be considered to be human, it remained that her age was present right before him.

Thus, being defeated in that battle was a blow to Chu Feng's ego.

However, the greatest blow to Chu Feng was the fact that he was unable to avenge Wang Qiang.

After the effect of the Immortal Transformation Pellet disappeared, Chu Feng would return to his true level of cultivation of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. There was truly too enormous of a difference between him and the demonic woman.

Thus, while Chu Feng could continue to cultivate and meticulously train to increase his strength, the demonic woman possessed a talent that was not inferior to his own. As such, her cultivation would most definitely also continue to increase.

With the performance exhibited by the demonic woman right now, it would truly be very unlikely for Chu Feng to be able to surpass her. At the very least, it would be very difficult for Chu Feng to do so in a short period of time.

At that moment, Chu Feng finally felt the threat of a genius of a fellow member of the younger generation in the Outer World.

Sure enough, there were demon-level geniuses as powerful as or even stronger than Chu Feng in the Outer World.

“Young Hero, are you alright?”

After a short while, several tens of figures arrived from the direction where those men and women escaped to.

These people were all elderly individuals. Their cultivations were generally all at the Martial Ancestor level. The old man who lead the group was even a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Judging from the title plates on their waists, as well as the clothes that they were wearing, Chu Feng knew that these people should be from the same power as those men and women.

“Young Hero, it is a pleasure to meet you. I am the Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master, Guo Shun.”

The old man with the cultivation of rank five Martial Ancestor that led the group was very polite toward Chu Feng as he asked cautiously, “Young Hero, you were the one who beat back that demonic woman earlier, right?”

As for those elders from the Court Cloud Sect, they were all trembling with fear. In fact, they did not even dare to look Chu Feng in the face or show any bit of disrespect toward him.

After all, Chu Feng’s current cultivation was that of a rank five Martial Ancestor. Regardless of how seriously injured he might be, or how strong his battle power might be, his cultivation was still right before their eyes.

As for the five immortals beside Chu Feng, they were rank six Martial Ancestors; they were existences stronger than even their Sect Master. As such, they would naturally be in fear before that sort of power, and not dare to show the slightest trace of disrespect.

“It is I who was fighting against that demonic woman earlier,” Chu Feng spoke the truth. There was no need for him to hide something like that. Furthermore, those disciples from the Court Cloud Sect had also seen the battle between Chu Feng and the demonic woman earlier.

“Young Hero is truly powerful. Our Court Cloud Sect has been chasing after that demonic woman for a very long time. However, we have never been able to capture her. Every single time, we would end up letting her escape without even the opportunity to fight her head-on.”

“Young Hero, you should have just entered this place recently. Yet, you were able to obstruct that demonic woman and even fight against her. You are truly amazing,” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master said.

“That demonic woman is very powerful. It might be fortunate that you all were unable to stop her. Else, if you all were to force her into a corner, none of you would be a match for her,” Chu Feng said.

When Chu Feng mentioned that matter, the Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master sighed. Although he did not say anything, he had an awkward expression on his old face.

As for Chu Feng, he did not say anything more and prepared to leave.

“Wuu~~~”

However, right after Chu Feng took a step, his complexion immediately changed as an unbearable pain rushed through his entire body.

The reason why he had been able to attack the demonic woman earlier was because his pain had been temporarily shadowed by the killing intent to avenge his brother.

However, Chu Feng no longer possessed that overwhelming killing intent. As such, he had returned to a state of being unable to move his body properly.

“Young Hero, it seems to me that you are seriously injured. If you do not mind, what do you think about coming to our Court Cloud Sect to recuperate?” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master said to Chu Feng.

The subordinates of his, the elders from the Court Cloud Sect, were quite discerning individuals. Once their Sect Master spoke, they immediately took out a war chariot. They wanted to use the war chariot to drive Chu Feng around.

“I’ll have to trouble you all then.”

Chu Feng was able to tell that the people of the Court Cloud Sect were sincere. Furthermore, he was indeed extremely weak. When the effect of the Immortal Transformation Pellet ended, Chu Feng would end up in an even more miserable state.

Thus, rather than recovering from his injuries in the wilderness, he felt that it would be better that he recuperate at the Court Cloud Sect. At the very least, the Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master was a rank five Martial Ancestor. In times of crisis, he would be able to protect Chu Feng.

After entering the war chariot, the effects of Chu Feng’s Immortal Transformation Pellet soon wore off.

The people of the Court Cloud Sect were all astonished when Chu Feng’s cultivation returned from rank five Martial Ancestor to rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

“Young Hero, your cultivation?” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master directly asked Chu Feng out of curiosity.

“This is my actual cultivation. However, I possess the means to increase my cultivation to rank five Martial Ancestor instantly. As for the five rank six Martial Ancestors you all saw earlier, they too are one of my abilities.”

Chu Feng did not try to conceal the matter. The reason for that was because he knew that the Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master was no ordinary character. Even if Chu Feng wanted to conceal things from him, he would not be able to.

However, Chu Feng did not mention the fact that he had already lost the ability to increase his cultivation. The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew very well that these people from the Court Cloud Sect were afraid of him precisely because of his earlier cultivation of rank five Martial Ancestor.

Thus, Chu Feng wanted them to think that he would be able to increase his cultivation to what he previously had immediately should he wish to do so.

Only by doing that would he be able to continue to give the people of the Court Cloud Sect a sense of danger. Only by doing that would Chu Feng be able to feel safer.

“Young Hero possesses outstanding strength at such a young age. You are truly worthy of admiration.”

“There have been extremely few people in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm capable of accomplishing what Young Hero has.”

“May I know Young Hero’s distinguished name?” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master asked.

“Chu Feng,” Chu Feng did not try to conceal his name.

“Chu Feng?” Hearing that name, the people from the Court Cloud Sect were all astonished. Involuntarily, they began to carefully inspect Chu Feng.

“Young Hero, are you that Chu Feng that killed Ying Liangchen, and is wanted by the Ying Heavenly Clan?” The Court Cloud Sect’s

Sect Master asked.

“Precisely,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Young Hero is truly a courageous individual. That Ying Liangchen is someone who has done all sorts of evil. It is only because he was shielded by the Ying Heavenly Clan that no one dared to do anything to him.”

“For Young Hero Chu Feng to have killed him, you have truly helped eliminate evil for the people of the world. You have helped many people release their resentments,” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master praised.

After finding out about Chu Feng’s identity, the people from the Court Cloud Sect felt less alarmed and afraid of Chu Feng. Instead, they became more cordial and respectful of Chu Feng.

However, due to the fact that Chu Feng was injured, they did not chat with Chu Feng for long. Instead, they began to take care of Chu Feng more considerately.

After arriving at the Court Cloud Sect, Chu Feng asked that he be left alone to treat his injuries. Thus, the Court Cloud Sect prepared a private location for Chu Feng to recuperate.

At that moment, the disciples of the Court Cloud Sect were already in an utter uproar.

It turned out that the disciples that had encountered Chu Feng just so happened to run into their Sect Master and elders on their way back. That was the reason why they were able to arrive at the battle between Chu Feng and the demonic woman so quickly.

After those disciples returned, while the male disciples were fine, the female disciples were unable to sit tight. They began to proclaim how powerful and great Chu Feng was.

At that moment, practically all of the Court Cloud Sect’s core disciples were discussing Chu Feng. The female disciples began to feel endless adoration for Chu Feng.

Of course, they still didn't know Chu Feng's identity yet.

At the same time. Inside the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master's palace. That Lord Sect Master had a change in expression.

He no longer possessed the cordial and benevolent expression that he had displayed previously. Instead, his eyes were ice-cold as he looked to the direction of the location where Chu Feng was recuperating.

"Lord Sect Master, we have already received the wanted portraits issued by the Ying Heavenly Clan," An elder handed a portrait to the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master.

The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master opened the picture scroll. Upon looking at it, he immediately revealed a joyous expression.

"Sure enough, it is him," At that moment, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master revealed a smile of greed.

"Lord Sect Master, you truly plan to hand that Chu Feng to the Ying Heavenly Clan?" That elder asked.

"That Chu Feng is extremely valuable. I naturally cannot let such a great opportunity slip by," The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said.

"But, Lord Sect Master, other than Chu Feng's portraits that the Ying Heavenly Clan has dispatched to the various sects and schools, we have also just received another piece of news," The elder said.

"What sort of news?" The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master asked casually.

"The Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley have said that they will support Chu Feng. They have declared that if the Ying Heavenly Clan insists on attacking Chu Feng, they are willing to declare war on the Ying Heavenly Clan for Chu Feng," That elder said.

“What?” Hearing those words, the smile on the face of the Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master instantly froze.

Chapter 2298 – Hopeless Situation

---

Silence. Dead silence.

The silence lasted for a very long time. Then, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master finally spoke, "Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley, those two are second tier powers not inferior to the Ying Heavenly Clan. Among the second tier powers, they are extremely well-known."

"That's right. Lord Sect Master, if the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley were to find out that we handed Chu Feng to the Ying Heavenly Clan, they will likely not spare us," That elder said.

"That will indeed be the case if they were to find out about it. However, wouldn't it be fine if they didn't find out about it?"

"Furthermore, how could we allow others to know about something like this? This should be kept a secret to begin with," The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said.

"However, Lord Sect Master, that Chu Feng possesses some sort of ability that allowed him to compete against that demonic woman. I fear that... it will be very hard for us to take care of him," That elder said.

"I know about that even without you telling me about it. However, I already have a thorough plan," The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said.

"Lord Sect Master, what sort of plan do you have in mind?" That elder asked.

"Demonic woman," The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said.

"Demonic woman?" Hearing those two words, the elder revealed a startled expression. However, his expression soon turned to one of astonishment. Worried, he said, "Lord Sect Master, could it be that you're planning to find that demonic woman and have her take care of Chu Feng?”

“Precisely,” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master said.

“But, Lord Sect Master, we are enemies with that demonic woman, how could she be willing to help us?” That elder was unable to think of a reason why that demonic woman would help them.

“Could it be that you’ve forgotten what we were supposed to do today?” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master said.

“How could this subordinate forget that we have already discovered the hideout of that demonic woman? We were planning to inform the other powers so that we could join forces to suppress the demonic woman,” That elder replied.

“Wrong. Not only did we find out the hideout of that demonic woman, we also discovered the reason why she has lingered around this place the entire time.”

“This, this is a cooperation. I believe that demonic woman will agree to help us,” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master said confidently.

“Then, Lord Sect Master, who do you plan to dispatch to discuss this matter with that demonic woman?” That elder asked.

“You do not have to worry about this matter, as I have already sent someone over,” The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master said.

In response, that elder did not continue to ask. However, he was still worried.

.....

By forcibly using the Five Elements Secret Skills when his body was under restrictions, Chu Feng ended up damaging his body considerably.

Even though Chu Feng possessed exquisite mastery in world spirit techniques, it still took him several days to completely heal his injuries.

After he completely cured himself from his injuries, Chu Feng walked out from the private residence provided by the Court Cloud Sect.

Merely, at that time, Chu Feng still didn't know that the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was plotting against him.

Thus, out of courtesy, Chu Feng went to inform the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master of his intention to leave.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, you're planning to leave?" After finding out that Chu Feng was planning to leave, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master started to panic slightly.

After all, the person that he had dispatched to request the demonic woman's assistance had yet to return. If Chu Feng were to insist on leaving now, it would be impossible for them to forcibly detain him.

The reason for that was because he firmly believed that Chu Feng was able to increase his strength from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank five Martial Ancestor at will. As such, he did not dare to forcibly obstruct Chu Feng.

Suddenly, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master thought of a great idea. Thus, with a difficult expression, he asked Chu Feng, "Young Hero Chu Feng, are you an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?"

"I am indeed an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist right now. However, I am only an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist," Chu Feng said modestly.

"Even if you're only an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it remains that you are extremely extraordinary. After all, you are still so young," The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master praised. At the same time, he revealed a complicated expression.

The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master had lived for over ten thousand years. He was someone who had a lot of experience under his belt, and was a master of disguise.

Although he had wanted to take care of Chu Feng the moment he discovered Chu Feng's identity, Chu Feng, who had always judged others by their words and expressions, was simply unable to see through how dangerous this old man really was.

At that moment, Chu Feng noticed that the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was hesitant as he spoke; it was as if he had something to ask of Chu Feng. Thus, out of gratefulness, Chu Feng asked, "Could it be that Sect Master has something that you need my assistance with?"

"There is indeed something that I wish to request Young Hero Chu Feng's assistance with. Earlier, when we were chasing after that demonic woman, we accidentally entered the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. That place is a forbidden area."

"Many of my elders ended up being infected by some sort of strange illness after entering that place. We were unable to cure them no matter what we tried. Right now, their lives are in imminent danger. Thus..." The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said.

"Sect Master, please bring me to them," Chu Feng said straightforwardly.

After that, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master brought Chu Feng to a location. There were indeed several tens of elderly individuals there. All of them were suffering from some serious illness. If their illness was not treated immediately, they would indeed die.

Furthermore, those elders all possessed strong levels of cultivation; they were all Martial Ancestors. Among them were even ten rank four Martial Ancestors.

The strongest person among them was an individual with the same level of cultivation as the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master, a rank five Martial Ancestor. However, his illness was also the most serious among the group.

Later on, Chu Feng discovered that this rank five Martial Ancestor old man was actually the Court Cloud Sect's Head Law Enforcement Elder, one of the strongest battle powers of the Court Cloud Sect.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, how is it? Can they be cured?" The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master asked.

"I can give it a try," Chu Feng said.

After that, Chu Feng began to help treat the illness of those Court Cloud Sect's elders.

After several days of effort, Chu Feng finally managed to develop a method to cure their illness.

He ended up successfully curing the illness of those Court Cloud Sect's elders.

Those people that were cured were all extremely grateful toward Chu Feng. Some even teared up in gratitude. After all, what Chu Feng had done was akin to saving their lives.

For the sake of delaying Chu Feng longer, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master held a banquet. On the surface, it was to express his gratitude toward Chu Feng. However, he was actually stalling for time.

Merely, the banquet was held in secret. In fact, even the news of those elders' illness being cured was not spread out.

This... allowed Chu Feng to notice that something was amiss.

When a good occasion like the one at present happened, why did they not publicize it?

Unless there was something shameful that they could not allow to come to light.

Furthermore, at the banquet, an elder rushed into the banquet hurriedly. He ran over to the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master's side and whispered a voice transmission into his ear.

Not only was he whispering, the distance between them was simply too close. As such, even though Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he was unable to determine the content of their conversation.

However, as suspicion was already present in Chu Feng's heart, he fixed his eyes onto the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master the entire time. With how seriously focused he was, Chu Feng finally found a gap in his expression.

Chu Feng noticed a sinister smile on the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master's face.

That smile immediately caused Chu Feng's heart to tighten.

Chu Feng stood up and asked, "Excuse me. I need to go and relieve myself. Is there anyone that can show me the way?"

"Young Hero Chu Feng, I'll show you the way," An elder walked over to Chu Feng enthusiastically. He had no idea of the plan their Sect Master had in mind for Chu Feng. Furthermore, he was also one of the elders whose illness was cured by Chu Feng. Thus, he was extremely grateful toward Chu Feng.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, you are not only a martial cultivator, but also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. You couldn't possibly be unable to even restrain your urge to urinate, right?" However, right at that moment, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master stood up and intentionally stopped Chu Feng from leaving.

"Heh..." At that moment, Chu Feng laughed. He had verified that the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master did not hold good intentions toward him.

"An honest man will not resort to insinuations. Lord Sect Master, you're planning to hand me over to the Ying Heavenly Clan to receive rewards, right?" Chu Feng asked loudly.

"What?" Once Chu Feng's words were said, many of the elders present revealed a change in expression. This was especially true for those that were cured by Chu Feng. Their expressions turned ugly.

“Sect Master, what is going on?” In fact, that Head Elder of the Law Enforcement Department even spoke to question their Sect Master.

They were all able to tell that something fishy was going on. They realized that their Sect Master seemed to be conspiring against their savior.

Actually, the reason why Chu Feng said those words publicly was also as a means of self-preservation.

No matter what, Chu Feng had saved the lives of these individuals. If those people here possessed a conscience, they would not follow their Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master.

Furthermore, that Head Law Enforcement Elder possessed the same level of cultivation as the Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master. Thus, it was still not yet a hopeless situation for Chu Feng.

Chapter 2299 – Leaving None Alive

---

When it was discovered that the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master seemed to have ill intentions toward Chu Feng, those that were cured by Chu Feng revealed extremely astonished expressions.

This was especially true for that Head Law Enforcement Elder, who possessed the same level of cultivation as the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master; he revealed fury.

However, faced with such a situation, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was extremely calm. He said, "You all have been ill the entire time. Thus, you all do not know about a piece of news."

"That Chu Feng has killed Ying Liangchen. Who is Ying Liangchen? He is the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's most beloved son."

"Right now, the Ying Heavenly Clan has already sent out a wanted order. They are planning to kill that Chu Feng with no regard for anything."

"If anyone is capable of presenting that Chu Feng's head to them, they will be rewarded heavily."

Upon hearing the words spoken by the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master, the expressions of the crowd changed once again. Even that Head Law Enforcement Elder's gaze turned strange.

"That child possesses extraordinary power, and is capable of fighting against that demonic woman. I fear that I will not be able to handle him alone. Elders, are you all willing to help me capture him?" The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master continued.

Upon hearing those words, the elders led by the Head Law Enforcement Elder revealed even more complicated expressions.

"Could it be that you all are truly planning to repay your benefactor with ill?" Chu Feng asked coldly.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, that Head Law Enforcement Elder flipped his palm. Then, an Incomplete Ancestral Armament appeared in his hand.

Merely, that Incomplete Ancestral Armament was not aimed at the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master. Instead, it was aimed at Chu Feng.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I am truly sorry, but the benefits toward our sect surpass everything. Please excuse my offense,” The Head Law Enforcement Elder said.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Immediately after him, all of the elders that were cured by Chu Feng unleashed their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, all aimed at Chu Feng.

“Haha, Chu Feng, your intention to sow dissension is useless against our Court Cloud Sect,” At that moment, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master laughed complacently. He seemed to have already anticipated that such a thing would happen.

“You all are surely jackals of the same tribe. Very well,” Chu Feng had not expected this result. He had not anticipated that the people he had saved would immediately aim their weapons at him after finding out that they would gain enormously from killing him.

At that moment, Chu Feng came to a sudden realization that this Court Cloud Sect was not only a sect that possessed a Sect Master that was an expert at acting, their elders were also expert actors.

When it didn't concern their interests, they would appear to be affectionate and true. It was as if they would definitely show absolute sincerity the moment something happened.

However, when something really did happen, when they were faced with their personal interests, they would immediately expose their true selves. For their own benefit, they were willing to abandon camaraderie. They were a bunch of heartless vile characters, a bunch of hypocrites.

Chu Feng felt hatred. His hatred was not only aimed toward these people, it was also aimed at himself.

He had always been someone with very strong perception. However, this time around, he had misjudged.

However, even with this being the case, Chu Feng did not reveal the slightest bit of panic.

Furthermore, his lips were raised into a mocking smile. He said, "Did you all really think that you would be able to handle me?"

Chu Feng's smile caused not only those elders, but even the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master's body, to shiver. A trace of fear appeared in their eyes.

No matter what, Chu Feng was someone who was able to fight against that demonic woman. They knew very well how powerful that demonic woman was.

Thus, even though the Chu Feng who stood before them was merely a young man, he was actually an existence as frightening as that demonic woman.

Chu Feng was able to see through their cowardice. Thus, he continued on with his attack. He turned around and shouted with overwhelming anger, "All of you, move aside immediately. Else, do not blame me for unleashing a massacre!"

Once Chu Feng's angry shout was heard, the bodies of those guarding the gate all trembled in fear. Then, they actually powerlessly fell on their butts.

In that sort of situation, no one dared to stop Chu Feng. One by one, they hurriedly moved away. Soon, a path was made for Chu Feng.

They were truly scared. Although their acting ability was superb, Chu Feng's acting ability was even better. At the very least, Chu Feng's acting right now was utterly perfect.

It was as if he was truly still capable of increasing his cultivation from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank five Martial Ancestor again.

It was as if he would truly be able to massacre all of them, leaving none alive, should he wish to do so.

“Heh...”

Chu Feng laughed again. Then, he walked slowly toward the outside of the palace hall. However, no one dared to block him.

Of course, Chu Feng had to appear to be calm. He could not fly away immediately. He could not express any intention to leave that place immediately.

Else, he would undoubtedly be killed if any one of the people present decided to attack him. After all... Chu Feng's cultivation was truly only that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor right now.

Even if Chu Feng were to utilize all of his abilities, he would only be able to contend against ordinary rank nine Half Martial Ancestors. He was still unable to match against Martial Ancestors, much less the two rank five Martial Ancestors present.

“Chu Feng, it is true that our Court Cloud Sect will not be able to stop you.”

“However, since I have dared to reveal myself, that means that I have one hundred percent certainty in being able to detain you here.”

“Today, no matter what you try, you will definitely not be able to escape from here!” The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master declared loudly.

Immediately after he finished saying that, he shouted respectfully, “Please reveal yourself and help us take care of that child!!!”

After the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said those words, a figure suddenly appeared. That person stood before the entrance to the palace, blocking Chu Feng's way out.

"It's you?" Chu Feng started to frown upon seeing that person. The reason for that was because this person was none other than that demonic woman.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk. Chu Feng, you must have never expected that we would meet again so soon, right?" That demonic woman looked to Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

Merely, her gaze caused Chu Feng to feel extremely unwell. He felt as if he was a lamb in a tiger's den.

"Hahaha. Chu Feng, do you now know why I said that I would definitely be able to make you stay?" After that demonic woman appeared, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master burst into a loud and complacent laugh.

"You all actually decided to collaborate with this demonic woman for the sake of taking care of me? Or could it be that you all were accomplices of this demonic woman to begin with?" Chu Feng asked coldly.

"You're right. We have joined hands with that demonic woman for the sake of taking care of you."

"However, that is already not important. What is important is that you will definitely be killed," After the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master said those words, he turned to the demonic woman and said, "Please go ahead and take care of that Chu Feng. I will definitely be able to obtain what you want for you."

That Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was extremely respectful toward the demonic woman. In fact, he even appeared to give off a trace of submissiveness.

At that moment, the demonic woman smiled lightly. She turned around, looked to the outside of the palace and said, "Court Cloud Sect's disciples, have you all managed to see the true identity of the Sect Master and management elders that you all revere? What sort of feeling do you all have right now?"

"Mn?" Once the demonic woman said those words, the expressions of the people from the Court Cloud Sect all changed.

"That is?" Chu Feng noticed that something was amiss. He discovered that there was a spirit formation in the direction the demonic woman was speaking in.

Although Chu Feng had a calm appearance, his heart was actually in chaos. That was the reason why he only noticed that spirit formation at that moment.

As for that spirit formation, it should have been set up by that demonic woman. The reason for that was because it was a spirit formation that only an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist could set up.

"Buzz~~~"

Right at that moment, the demonic woman waved her sleeve. Then, the space before her shattered like a mirror.

Sure enough, it was as Chu Feng had discovered, there was indeed a spirit formation there. Furthermore, it was a very powerful concealing formation.

After that spirit formation shattered, over ten thousand silhouettes appeared in a densely packed manner. They were all disciples of the Court Cloud Sect.

At that moment, those disciples all had astonished expressions. Evidently... they had seen what happened in the palace hall. Merely, they did not dare to believe what had happened.

After all, in the eyes of the Court Cloud Sect's disciples, their Sect Master and management elders were people who held righteousness above everything else, people with affectionate and true characters. In their hearts, they were sacred and inviolable.

That was why this truth was so difficult for them to accept.

“Demonic woman, what are you doing?!”

The Court Cloud Sect’s Sect Master had an expression of anger. He was extremely furious.

It was not only because his disciples had found out about his actions. Most importantly, it meant that the matter would most likely be inconcealable. If news of what had happened here today were to spread, his reputation would be completely ruined.

“What am I doing? You will soon find out.”

The demonic woman’s lips lifted slightly into a strange yet sinister smile. Then, a world spirit gate appeared before her.

Following that, a world spirit walked out from the world spirit gate.

It was the same Fairy Spirit World’s world spirit that Chu Feng had encountered that day.

Although that world spirit only possessed the cultivation of a rank three Martial Ancestor, it possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. Its actual battle power was on par with ordinary rank six Martial Ancestors. It was extremely strong.

Thus, when that world spirit appeared, many of the people in the Court Cloud Sect revealed frightened expressions. It was not the first time that they had seen that world spirit. As such, they firmly remembered how powerful that world spirit was.

At the very least, none of them were capable of defeating that world spirit. At the moment when their hearts were suspended with fear, a word from that demonic woman caused their hearts to sink completely.

“Massacre them. Leave none alive,” The demonic woman said indifferently.

He referred to that demonic woman as ‘nin’ instead of ‘ni.’ ‘Ni’ is chinese for ‘you’, whereas ‘nin’ means ‘you’ in a very respectful manner. 您 is basically a compound character composed of 你 ‘you’ and 心 ‘heart.’

Chapter 2300 – Bring Me Away

---

Blood splattered as screams were heard nonstop.

That Fairy World Spirit was currently unleashing a massacre.

Although it was covered with immortal aura, that Fairy World Spirit resembled a demon even more. It was so firm and decisive in its killing that it could simply be said to be ruthless.

The reason for that was because not only was it killing the people present in the palace hall, it had also completely refined all of their source energies.

This Immortal World Spirit was truly too powerful. In the blink of an eye, it had killed over half of the people inside the palace hall. Then, a short moment after that, only a single person remained standing. As for that person, he was the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master.

As he looked at the corpses that filled the ground, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master started to tremble.

Suddenly, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master looked to the demonic woman and shouted hysterically. That voice was so resounding that even the palace hall started to tremble.

“Why?! Why are you doing this?!”

However, contained within his resounding shout was mostly unwillingness to accept.

He was confused. They were clearly going to join hands with the demonic woman to behead Chu Feng. Yet, why did that demonic woman attack them instead?

“Puu~~~”

Right at that moment, a pool of blood splattered across the floor. The Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was cut into two.

He had died. At the moment when his body was hacked into two, that Fairy World Spirit refined his source energy. Thus, the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was completely killed.

Even though the Court Cloud Sect's Sect Master was dead, his eyes were still wide open. He had died with remaining grievances.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, that Fairy World Spirit suddenly turned around. In an extremely imposing manner, it began to slowly walk toward Chu Feng one step at a time.

At that moment, it would be a lie if Chu Feng were to say that he was not scared. After all, that world spirit was capable of killing him with a single thought.

However, that Fairy World Spirit did not attack Chu Feng. Instead, it brushed past Chu Feng and then walked into its world spirit gate.

“You're not killing me?” Chu Feng asked that demonic woman.

“Do you wish to know why? If you do, follow me,” That demonic woman smiled lightly. Then, she soared into the sky.

“Demonic woman, I'll kill you!” Right after the demonic woman soared into the sky, many of the Court Cloud Sect's elders rushed after her with weapons in hand.

“Pu, pu, pu, pu, pu~~~”

Faced with these incoming attackers, the demonic woman did not even bother to move.

A layer of oppressive might came crushing down toward her attackers like an enormous wave. All the people that came in contact with that oppressive might instantly exploded.

Blood filled the sky and began to sprinkle down like a torrential rain.

“Is there anyone else that wishes to die?” That demonic woman turned her cold and ridiculing gaze toward the crowd of the Court

Cloud Sect down below.

Faced with the demonic woman's frightening gaze and the blood rain that was still sprinkling down, not a single disciple or elder dared to look the demonic woman in the face.

"If anyone else wishes to find me to get revenge, you can come and find me any time. However, I will kill all those that come at me," After that demonic woman finished saying those words, she flew away from the Court Cloud Sect. Chu Feng followed after her.

It was truly too strange for that demonic woman to kill those people from the Court Cloud Sect, yet not Chu Feng.

As such, Chu Feng wanted to know exactly why she had done so.

En route, that demonic woman suddenly turned around and said to Chu Feng, "Are you unable to increase your cultivation? This is very slow."

"If you think that I'm too slow, why don't you bring me along? Why must you insist that I follow after you?" Chu Feng said. His tone was not polite. No matter what, that demonic woman was the person who had killed Wang Qiang. He was unable to lessen the hatred he held toward her.

"You dare to speak to me in such a manner? No matter what, I am a demonic woman. Do you not fear that I will eat you?" The demonic woman said with a ferocious appearance.

"You can eat me. However, tell me why you helped me first," Chu Feng said.

"Are you certain that I've helped you?" The demonic woman asked.

"I am certain," Chu Feng replied.

"You will soon know why," The demonic woman smiled. Then, with a thought, a gentle aura enveloped Chu Feng.

The very next moment, Chu Feng felt that his speed had increased enormously. It was the demonic woman; she was bringing him along.

Outside of the Fallen Goose Mountain Range was another small mountain range. There was a very well-hidden concealment formation in that small mountain range.

After passing through the spirit formation, they arrived at a cave. As they followed the path in the cave, they encountered countless traps.

However, the demonic woman managed to effortlessly dodge all of the traps. None of them were triggered.

Chu Feng was able to tell that the demonic woman should be the person who set up those traps.

After entering deep into the cave, another spirit formation appeared.

“That is?!!!”

Upon seeing that spirit formation, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously. An ecstatic expression immediately appeared in his eyes.

The reason for that was because that was a healing formation. Furthermore, it was an extremely powerful healing formation.

The reason why Chu Feng was so ecstatic was because there was an individual laid inside that healing formation. As for that person, it was none other than Wang Qiang.

Wang Qiang had not died. Furthermore, his cultivation had also increased. He was currently a rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

Merely, Wang Qiang’s body was pitch-black. It was as if he was stained by black ink. It seemed that he had been afflicted with some kind of poison. Thus, not only was he unconscious, his complexion was also very bad.

“Didn’t you say that he died? Why did you deceive me?” Chu

Feng asked that demonic woman.

“I wanted to deceive you, that’s why. What are you gonna do about it?” The demonic woman said.

“You!!!” Chu Feng was extremely furious facing such a demonic woman. However, he still continued to ask, “What is he poisoned with?”

“The poison he’s afflicted by is somewhat difficult to deal with. Only the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass will be able to treat him.”

“As for the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass, it only appears in the Fallen Goose Mountain Range. Originally, I had already managed to find one. Unfortunately, it was snatched from me by that damned old fart,” When mentioning that matter, the demonic woman started to gnash her teeth angrily. Her ugly appearance grew even more sinister. It was truly frightening.

“Could it possibly be that you’ve lingered around those areas on the Fallen Goose Mountain Range all for the sake of finding that Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass? Furthermore, your purpose in finding the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was to help save Wang Qiang?” Chu Feng asked in an astonished manner.

“Rubbish! Why else would I be here?” That demonic woman said.

“But, why are you saving him?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

If he were to save Wang Qiang, it would be very reasonable. After all, Wang Qiang could be considered to be his brother.

However, this demonic woman was the person who had captured Wang Qiang to eat him.

The fact that she had not eaten Wang Qiang was already extremely strange. Yet, she had actually disregarded her own safety in braving dangers for the sake of helping Wang Qiang remove the poison. This was something that Chu Feng felt extremely puzzled by.

“Why am I saving him? As he is my husband, I would naturally have to save him,” The demonic woman said with her mouth wide open.

“Wha?” Chu Feng immediately sucked in a mouthful of cold air upon hearing those words. He who was always calm was actually astonished this time around.

He only managed to stabilize his frame of mind after a long time passed. He asked, “You said that Wang Qiang is your husband?”

“Rubbish! Other than my husband, who else could possibly make me treat them in such a manner?” After that demonic woman finished saying those words, she took a glance at Wang Qiang. After that glance, she made an embarrassed and shy motion.

If an ordinary woman did that action, they might appear to be extremely cute. If a beauty did that, they would not only be cute, but also extremely enchanting.

However, when this demonic woman made that action, goosebumps rose all over Chu Feng’s body.

It was for no other reason than the fact that this demonic woman was simply too ugly. It was only because Chu Feng possessed strong tolerance; if it were someone else, they would most definitely have vomited on the spot.

At that moment, Chu Feng involuntarily looked to Wang Qiang. He felt a trace of sympathy for Wang Qiang.

At that moment, compared to finding out about how Wang Qiang had been poisoned, Chu Feng was more interested in knowing how Wang Qiang became this demonic woman’s husband. This matter was truly too intense.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, that demonic woman’s hands crossed with one another. She was forming hand seals for a spirit formation.

Then, a spirit formation core appeared together with that healing formation.

“Chu Feng, it remains that you are an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. If you are to stay here and activate this spirit formation, you will be able to let my husband feel better.”

“I will go and search for the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass,” After that demonic woman finished saying those words, she turned and left. However, she only walked away for a short distance before she turned back toward Chu Feng. With a threatening tone, she declared, “You must look after my husband properly. If something is to happen to him, I will definitely not spare you.”

“Woosh~~~”

After she finished saying those words, that demonic woman turned into a burst of strong wind and disappeared.

After that demonic woman left, Chu Feng had originally wanted to enter the core of the spirit formation to activate the spirit formation to help alleviate the pain Wang Qiang was feeling from the poison.

“Chu Feng,” However, right at that moment, Wang Qiang’s voice suddenly sounded.

Turning his gaze toward the voice, Chu Feng discovered that not only was Wang Qiang awake, he was also looking at him.

With an impatient expression, he said to Chu Feng, “Quickly, bring me away.”

Chapter 2301 – Wang Qiang’s Experience

---

“Wang Qiang, you were pretending to be unconscious?” Chu Feng asked in astonishment.

“B-bullshit. If I d-don’t pretend to be u-u-unconscious, that ugly woman will c-continue to torture me,” Wang Qiang said.

“Ugly woman?” Hearing what Wang Qiang said, Chu Feng was startled. Then, he asked, “Aren’t you her husband?”

“Pah! Pah! Pah! Wh-who is her husband?! C-Chu Feng, q-quickly bring me a-away from her. Else, I w-will definitely die by that ugly w-woman’s hands,” Wang Qiang urged.

“Even if you are not her husband, it is true that you are afflicted with poison.”

“Furthermore, I also cannot find a way to rescue you. If we are to leave like this, you might end up dying to your poison at any time,” Chu Feng said.

“Ah? I-In that case, I w-will really e-end up d-dying by that u-u-ugly woman’s hands?”

Hearing what Chu Feng said, Wang Qiang revealed a dejected expression, and then sat down in the center of the spirit formation. Then, his mouth opened wide and tears began to roll down his eyes. He was truly depressed.

“Wang Qiang, exactly what is going on here? How were you poisoned, and why does that demonic woman address you as her husband? Furthermore, why does she treat you so well?” Chu Feng asked in succession. He was truly curious.

“B-back then, I was c-captured by the demonic woman. I d-did not e-expect her to be so r-r-ruthless. She s-started e-eating people alive!”

“All those c-captured t-together with me ended up b-being eaten, eaten a-alive by her.”

“At t-that time, I w-was extremely terrified, because I c-could not win a-against her, n-nor could I e-escape from her.”

“If it w-were anyone e-else, they w-would definitely end up f-fainting from fear. H-How could t-they possibly be ab-able to think of a way out?”

“H-However, w-who am I? I a-am someone who is highly intelligent. T-The ov-overwhelmingly t-talented and w-wise Wang Qiang! A-at that time, a b-bright idea s-suddenly came to my mind. I i-immediately t-thought of a w-way to t-take care of that d-demonic woman.”

“W-What do you think it was?” When mentioning this matter, Wang Qiang actually became spirited. The depressed expression he had on his face earlier disappeared, and was replaced with excitement as he raised the suspense for Chu Feng.

Extremely curious, Chu Feng asked, “What was it?”

“Hehe, I u-used the ‘whoever this hits shall fall in l-love with me’ on her,” Wang Qiang said confidently.

“Whoever this hits shall fall in love with me?” Chu Feng suddenly recalled that Wang Qiang had declared that he possessed incomparable charm on the day they had met that demonic woman for the first time. Furthermore, he took out a bottle that he declared to be his most valuable treasure.

He declared that as long as he used that treasure, regardless of how proud a woman might be, even if they were fond of women instead of men, they would immediately fall in love with him. As for that treasure, its name was ‘whoever this hits shall fall in love with me.’

“That thing of yours actually works?” Chu Feng asked in a skeptical manner.

“B-bullshit. O-Of course it works. Else, w-why would that d-demonic woman be i-infatuated with me?” Wang Qiang said proudly.

“Isn’t it good then? That demonic woman is extremely powerful. Furthermore, she’s an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. It would be your blessing to have her as your wife,” Chu Feng said with a mischievous smile.

“P-Pah! D-Don’t play around with me. It would be f-fine if t-there was n-nothing good about her. H-however, she is t-that ugly. I, W-Wang Qiang, am such a b-beautiful young man. H-How could I a-allow myself to be defiled b-by her?” When mentioning this matter, Wang Qiang displayed a very depressed expression once again.

“We really can’t leave. Even if we must escape, we must still wait for that demonic woman to return with medicine to cure you from your poison first,” Chu Feng said.

“I-is m-my poison t-that serious?” Wang Qiang asked.

“I am also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist now. Although I am unable to cure your poison, I am able to tell how powerful it is. Thus, I am truly not lying to you,” Chu Feng said.

“Wow! B-Brother, so y-you’re not only a r-rank four Half Martial Ancestor now, y-y-you’ve also become an Immortal-c-cloak World Spiritist?”

“Brother, t-the speed o-of your p-progress is s-simply too f-fast, no? I a-am truly e-envious of you,” While Wang Qiang was saying that he was jealous, he had an excited expression. It was clear that he was feeling happy for Chu Feng.

When Chu Feng and Wang Qiang decided to stay here for the time being and wait until that demonic woman cured Wang Qiang of his poison before leaving, the two of them managed to quiet down.

Afterwards, Chu Feng came to find out that the demonic woman had asked Wang Qiang whether or not he knew of Chu Feng after she returned from fighting against Chu Feng.

When Wang Qiang heard that Chu Feng had actually gone after the demonic woman to fight her, he was immediately worried that the savage demonic woman would kill Chu Feng. Thus, he hurriedly declared Chu Feng to be his best brother, and told the demonic woman that she must protect him.

That was the main reason why the demonic woman ended up killing the people from the Court Cloud Sect. It turned out that it was all because of Wang Qiang.

As for the reason why Wang Qiang had been poisoned, it was because he was unlucky.

That day, when he used his special potion to make the demonic woman fall in love with him, he was immediately tangled around by the demonic woman. The demonic woman even wanted to forcibly do 'that' sort of thing with Wang Qiang.

According to Wang Qiang's vivid descriptions, the demonic woman was truly savage that day. It was so intense and considerably tragic for Wang Qiang.

Wang Qiang declared that if the demonic woman were an ordinary woman, he would accept his fate even if she were an ugly woman.

However, how could that demonic woman possibly resemble a human at all? She was simply an extremely ugly and malevolent monster. As such, how could he possibly accept his fate?

Thus, Wang Qiang began to use his stuttering voice to argue with the demonic woman so that he could stall for time. Finally, he found an opportunity to escape.

Unfortunately, he was extremely unlucky. While escaping, he was afflicted with poison.

As for that poison, it was an extremely rare poison that one would not even encounter in ten thousand years. However, not only did Wang Qiang run into it, he was also afflicted by the poison.

“Wang Qiang, I am not lying here. Your poison is truly intense. If it wasn’t for the fact that the demonic woman promptly discovered you and gave you treatment, you would likely have already died,” Chu Feng said.

“E-even if that is the case, o-once my p-poison is healed, I must s-still escape. Y-You should know how savage that d-demonic woman’s nature is.”

“You w-were not t-there that day. However, I-I saw those people d-dying before me o-one by one. It w-was truly r-reeking of blood.”

“I w-who feared n-nothing in H-heaven or Earth actually felt fear a-at that time,” Wang Qiang recalled the scene of that day and revealed an expression of fear.

When mentioning that event, Chu Feng could not find a reason to refute Wang Qiang. It was true that the demonic woman had caused the deaths of many people, and that there were many innocents among those that had died.

Merely, the reason why that demonic woman would act like that was because of her tragic history. In the end, the demonic woman was actually also a pitiful individual.

It was precisely because of that demonic woman’s history, the fact that Wang Qiang was alive, and the fact that the demonic woman had saved Chu Feng’s life that Chu Feng no longer felt any hatred toward her, and instead felt a great amount of sympathy for her.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked, “Brother, do you know about that demonic woman’s origin?”

Wang Qiang curled his lips and said, “O-origin? There’s an o-origin to that demonic woman? D-don’t tell me t-that there’s a r-reason why t-that demonic woman eats men.”

“Indeed, there is a reason,” Chu Feng nodded.

Then, Chu Feng mentioned the story of that demonic woman to Wang Qiang in full detail.

“I-In t-that case, that d-demonic woman is q-quite pitiful too. B-but, it’s u-unrelated to me. A-after all, the person that c-caused her t-that misery is not me.”

“Furthermore, m-most i-importantly, if the effect of that potion is to l-lessen or d-disappear completely, t-that demonic woman will no l-longer be attracted to me.”

“At that t-time, s-she will come to know that I d-deliberately u-used medicine to m-make her f-fall in love with me.”

“D-do y-you think t-that with t-that demonic w-woman’s p-personality, she would l-let us get away?” Wang Qiang asked.

“She won’t,” Chu Feng said.

“T-there we go! T-That’s why we need to f-find an o-opportunity to escape once my poison is c-cured,” Wang Qiang said.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded.

If Chu Feng was slightly hesitant before, then his hesitation was all gone now.

He felt that what Wang Qiang said was very true. With that demonic woman’s personality, if she were to know about the truth, she would definitely not spare him or Wang Qiang. As such, it would be better that they escape from her.

After several days, the demonic woman returned.

Although the demonic woman was still very ugly and sinister-looking, she was jumping joyously upon her return. Her appearance resembled that of a happy young girl.

If one disregarded her appearance, her actions would be quite adorable.

“Why are you so cheerful? Could it be that you’ve successfully discovered the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass?” Chu Feng stepped forward and asked.

“No, it’s not only that I discovered the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass. Instead, I have discovered something even greater,” The demonic woman said excitedly.

Chapter 2302 – Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower

---

“What else did you discover?” Chu Feng asked.

“Do you know why I have only been searching for the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass at those several designated areas in the Fallen Goose Mountain Range?” The demonic woman asked.

“Why?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s because the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass only grows at those locations. However... they can only be discovered when illuminated by moonlight.”

“However, it remains that it is only ‘could’ and not ‘definitely.’ Searching for the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass is something that depends on luck.”

“In other words, the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass has always existed. However, due to their special nature, they are extremely well-hidden. It is extremely difficult to successfully find them.”

“However, today, not only did I find Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass, I also found Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower,” As the demonic woman spoke, she took out a special medicinal plant excitedly.

Upon seeing that medicinal Grass, Chu Feng’s heart was immediately moved. The reason for that was because the appearance of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass greatly resembled ordinary Saint Spirit Grass.

Saint Spirit Grasses could be considered to be among the lowest level of cultivation resources. However, to the Nine Provinces Continent’s Chu Family, Saint Spirit Grasses were extremely precious items.

As such, when he saw the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass, he involuntarily recalled memories of his childhood. Thinking about it, back when he was in the Chu Family, when he was in the Azure Dragon School's outer court, he was a weak individual with a relatively low level of cultivation.

Chu Feng was only able to become strong and embark upon the path of martial cultivation thanks to the Saint Spirit Grass that Chu Yue gave him.

Thus, at that moment, memories rushed into Chu Feng's head, causing him to feel very emotional.

However, even though they possessed similar appearances, the size of Saint Spirit Grass was only that of a finger. However, this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was several tens of times larger than Saint Spirit Grass; it was very large.

As for their medicinal effects, they were akin to being the difference between heaven and earth. The two of them were simply incomparable. If the medicinal effect of Saint Spirit Grass was akin to a speck of dust, then the medicinal effect of Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was that of a mountain. The difference between the two was Humongous.

Most importantly, the medicinal effect of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was all-inclusive. It could simply be said to be perfect.

The Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass's leaves contained a very strong medicinal effect. Not only could they detoxify poison from one's body, they also possessed the miraculous effect of prolonging one's life span.

Most importantly, the medicinal effects of the leaves were simply too strong. Not only did the leaves seem to be able to remove the poison from Wang Qiang's body, they seemed to be capable of removing all kinds of poisons. Chu Feng had never seen such a powerful medicinal effect.

The roots of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass contained a dense amount of Natural Energy. It was so dense that even Chu Feng felt tempted by it.

Although the Natural Energy the root contained was very berserk in nature, Chu Feng was capable of refining it. If he were to truly refine it, Chu Feng's cultivation might be able to increase further. After all, the Natural Energies were truly dense.

However, what captured Chu Feng's attention the most was the flower on the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass.

That's right. Between the leaves of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was a flower. That flower was very small; it was only the size of a fingernail.

However, that flower was already in full bloom. Furthermore, it contained a sort of miraculously strange light. Even Chu Feng was unable to describe what was so miraculous about that flower.

It was as if there were a vast world inside the small petals.

“Wow! What strong spirit power!”

Right at that moment, a sweet-sounding voice suddenly sounded by Chu Feng's ears.

“Eggy?” Chu Feng was immediately overjoyed upon hearing that voice.

The reason for that was because that beautiful voice was something that only Her Lady Queen possessed.

Filled with excitement, Chu Feng hurriedly cast his awareness to his world spirit space. Sure enough, Her Lady Queen was awake. She was still as beautiful and alluring as she was before.

“Eggy, you've awakened?” Chu Feng was very excited.

“Originally, I planned to sleep for a bit longer. After all, I did not wish to waste your kind intentions. However, that flower is truly too enticing. As such, this Queen is unable to continue to sleep,”

Her Lady Queen said with a beaming smile. It could be seen that her current mood was very good.

The reason why Her Lady Queen was so happy was not only because of the fact that she had slept comfortably.

Most importantly, it was because she was attracted by the flower of that Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass.

The reason for that was because that mysterious flower not only emitted extremely strong spirit power, it also emitted very dense source energy.

In other words, not only was this flower extremely useful to world spiritists, it was also extremely enticing to world spirits.

In other words, the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was capable of increasing one's cultivation, increasing one's spirit power, and increasing one's world spirit's power. It was also capable of curing tens of thousands of poisons, and increasing one's lifespan. That Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass was simply a priceless treasure.

“Chu Feng, let me out. I am going to refine that Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower,” Eggy said impatiently.

“No, this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass is something that that demonic woman has prepared for Wang Qiang. We cannot use it.”

“Furthermore, other than its medicinal effect, the rest of the power contained in the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass is all berserk in nature and difficult to refine,” Chu Feng said.

Eggy sighed. “Okay then,” After hearing what Chu Feng said, Eggy no longer said anymore.

However, Chu Feng was able to tell from Eggy's tone that she was unwilling to give up. Thus, he said, “Eggy, in the future, I will definitely find you treasures that will increase your cultivation.”

“Got it. This Queen believes in you. Don't think too much, and just properly heal that stutterer,” Eggy smiled sweetly and made a gesture of indifference.

At that moment, the demonic woman deliberately asked Chu Feng, “Hey! You’re also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, are you able to tell how powerful this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower is?”

“This Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower contains very strong spirit power. It is extremely useful for world spiritists. Furthermore, if one is able to extract the spirit power properly, it will increase the cultivation of one’s world spirit,” Chu Feng said.

“What you said is only a general idea. The Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower contains enough energy that it could instantly turn my husband into an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” The demonic woman said excitedly.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Chu Feng felt very astonished. Although Chu Feng was able to tell that the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower was very powerful, he did not expect it to be that powerful.

“That’s right, it’s an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. My husband is, after all, a Dragon Mark Royal-cloak World Spiritist. He is but a short distance away from becoming an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“With the power contained in this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, it will be sufficient to allow him to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” The demonic woman said excitedly.

At that moment, Chu Feng finally discovered the reason why the demonic woman would be so excited. It turned out it was because the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower was capable of helping Wang Qiang become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

“Originally, I deeply detested that damned old man. However, it would seem that I would have to thank him now.”

“If it wasn’t for him snatching away my Moonlight Immortal

Spirit Grass, I would not have continued to search for more Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass. If I hadn't continued to search, I would not have encountered this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower.”

“If I didn't encounter this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, my husband would not have obtained the opportunity to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” The demonic woman said in a very excited manner.

“Wait, you said it's an opportunity?” Chu Feng revealed an astonished expression. He asked, “Are you saying that you do not have absolute certainty in being able to help Wang Qiang become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

“Of course not. Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flowers are no ordinary flowers. They possess another name, the Starlit Key,” The demonic woman said.

“Starlit Key?” Chu Feng grew more curious.

“That's right. They're known as Starlit Keys. The reason for that is because it is possible to open a Starlit Gate when using the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flowers,” That demonic woman said.

“Starlit Gate? What is that?” Chu Feng asked.

“The Starlit Gate is the gate that leads to the Starlit Path.”

“As for that Starlit Path, it is a path that can traverse the starry sky, allowing one to move from one Starfield to another.”

“In short, it is a very dangerous place. At the very least, with our cultivation, it will be very difficult for us to survive should we enter that place,” The demonic woman said.

“Never would I have expected that the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower would have such a miraculous effect,” Chu Feng felt that the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower was even more miraculous.

Starfields were extremely vast. A single Starfield would possess countless worlds. For something to be able to allow one to traverse the Starfields in the starry sky, it would most definitely be extraordinary.

“Chu Feng, there’s no time to delay. We must cure my husband of his poison first. After that, we can use the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, and see whether or not my husband will be able to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist with it,” That demonic woman said.

“Very well,” Chu Feng nodded. As he was Wang Qiang’s brother, he would naturally want to cure Wang Qiang from the poison sooner more than anyone else.

“W-wait a mmoment,” However, right at that moment, Wang Qiang, who had been feigning unconsciousness, suddenly sat up and waved his hand.

Chapter 2303 – Rank Five Half Martial Ancestor

---

“Aiya, husband, you’re awake?”

“How are you feeling? Do you feel any better?”

Seeing that Wang Qiang had awakened, the demonic woman became extremely excited. She nearly even tossed away the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower that she held in her hand.

Chu Feng, who knew that Wang Qiang had been pretending to be unconscious the entire time, turned to ask Wang Qiang, “Wang Qiang, what’s wrong?”

“C-Chu Feng, t-that M-moon-moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower’s roots are u-useless to me. H-however, they’re useful for you. They m-might even be a-able to increase your cultivation. Y-you should refine them,” Wang Qiang said.

“Ah? That won’t do,” Hearing those words, the demonic woman was immediately startled, and instantly refused.

“W-w-why not? D-didn’t you get that Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower for me? C-could it b-be that I d-do not even possess the a-authority to decide h-how to use it?” Wang Qiang stood up in an annoyed manner. He had the attitude of a man of the house reprimanding his wife.

Strangely, this ferocious and savage demonic woman actually looked like an obedient little sheep before Wang Qiang.

This was especially true after she saw that Wang Qiang had gotten angry. The demonic woman’s voice grew soft. She said, “It is true that the root of this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower contains Natural Energy, but the Natural Energy that it contains is truly too berserk in nature. Even if Chu Feng is a possessor of Heavenly Bloodline, he will still not be able to withstand it. If he forcibly refines it, even if he doesn’t get killed, his cultivation will end up being crippled.”

It turned out that it was not that the demonic woman did not want to have Chu Feng refine the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower. Rather, it was because she was afraid that its roots would harm Chu Feng.

“Y-you d-don’t g-get to decide something like that, because y-you do not k-know how v-valiant my brother is,” After Wang Qiang said those words, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Brother, just tell me s-straightforwardly. A-are you a-able to r-refine the root or not? R-remember, do not l-lie to me.”

“Indeed, it is possible,” Chu Feng was very moved. Wang Qiang was already seriously poisoned, and his life was in danger. Yet, he was still thinking for Chu Fengs Benefit right now. This camaraderie truly caused Chu Feng to feel warmth in his heart.

“T-there’s still time f-for my poison. However, y-you should increase your c-cultivation first. If y-you a-are able to increase your cultivation, it w-would be helpful to y-you using your spirit power later. Thus, y-you should re-refine it first,” Wang Qiang said.

“Chu Feng, is your cultivation actually that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor, or a rank five Martial Ancestor?” The demonic woman asked curiously.

“My actual cultivation is that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. My rank five Martial Ancestor level cultivation was something temporary that I obtained through special means,” Chu Feng spoke the truth.

“So that’s the case. In that case, go and refine the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower’s roots first,” After the demonic woman finished saying those words, she handed the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower to Chu Feng.

When Chu Feng received the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, the demonic woman deliberately reminded him, “Chu Feng, I am not deceiving you. Although this Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower's root contains dense amounts of Natural Energy, those Natural Energies are truly berserk in nature. Even for ordinary people with Heavenly Bloodlines, it will be impossible for them to refine it."

"Although it is very possible that you are not an ordinary person with a Heavenly Bloodline, I must still urge you to be careful, and not force yourself."

"Got it," Chu Feng smiled and nodded. He knew that the demonic woman was being considerate of him.

Furthermore, he also knew that the demonic woman was not trying to scare him. After all, no matter what sort of nature that demonic woman possessed, she was truly an experienced and knowledgeable individual. Moreover, it was true that the energy contained in the roots of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower was extremely berserk.

However, Chu Feng did not lie either. He was truly confident in being able to refine the Natural Energy contained in the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower's roots.

After receiving the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, Chu Feng was not in a hurry to immediately refine it. Instead, he first set up a concealment formation.

This concealment formation was very special. Chu Feng had set it up for the sake of weakening the power of the Divine Tribulation.

Although Chu Feng was unable to ascertain whether or not he would break through to rank five Half Martial Ancestor after refining the root of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, it remained that it would be better that he prepare himself just in case.

"Why did you set up a concealment formation?" The demonic woman asked in a very puzzled manner.

“You’ll understand in the future,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Tsk~~” That demonic woman curled her large mouth. She no longer continued to question Chu Feng. Instead, she turned around and ran over to Wang Qiang. With a very coy voice, she said, “Hus~~~band!”

Once that demonic woman’s words were heard, Chu Feng noticed the clear change in Wang Qiang’s expression. Fortunately, he had contained himself. Otherwise, Chu Feng would have burst into loud laugh.

Even though that demonic woman was very ugly, so ugly that even Wang Qiang could not accept her, it was the first time since Chu Feng knew Wang Qiang that a woman was fond of Wang Qiang.

Thus, Chu Feng felt happy for Wang Qiang. Regardless of whether or not it was because of his potion’s effect, it remained that the demonic woman was treating Wang Qiang very well right now.

After that, Chu Feng sat cross-legged in the concealment formation and began to refine the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower’s roots.

Everything went on without a hitch. Even though the energy contained within the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower’s roots was indeed extremely berserk, Chu Feng was still able to effortlessly refine all of the Natural Energy from the roots.

At the moment when Chu Feng completely refined everything, he actually brought forth the arrival of a Divine Tribulation.

Although the power of the Divine Tribulation was very strong, much stronger than the last time Chu Feng had reached a breakthrough, Chu Feng still managed to withstand it.

Furthermore, due to the fact that the power of the Divine Tribulation was affected by the concealment formation, neither Wang Qiang nor the demonic woman noticed the existence of the Divine Tribulation.

The two of them only noticed one thing. That is, Chu Feng had successfully reached a breakthrough from rank four Half Martial Ancestor to rank five Half Martial Ancestor.

“You actually really managed to refine it?” The demonic woman was astonished.

“Brother, nice job,” As for Wang Qiang, he was wild with joy.

“Brother, thanks,” Chu Feng stood up and said to Wang Qiang. Then, he looked to the demonic woman and said, “Thanks.”

“You don’t have to thank me. Even if I keep the roots, it will be useless. There is simply no one capable of refining the roots. However, you succeeded in refining it. It would appear that you are not an ordinary wielder of a Heavenly Bloodline,” The demonic woman said. Her tone seemed to be praising Chu Feng.

Chu Feng smiled. He did not wish to have an in-depth conversation regarding this topic. The reason for that was because he would not forget that he was deemed to be trash and banished from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Genius? He no longer dared to consider himself a genius.

At the very least, he was very weak before that demonic woman.

“Let’s cure Wang Qiang’s poison,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn,” The demonic woman nodded.

Then, Chu Feng started to work together with the demonic woman. They set up a spirit formation to draw support from the power of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower to cure Wang Qiang’s poison.

Merely, regardless of whether it was setting up the spirit formation or activating it, Chu Feng listened to the instructions provided by the demonic woman the entire time.

To put it simply, Chu Feng was only an assistant in curing Wang Qiang's poison.

The reason for that was because the spirit formation that the demonic woman was using actually surpassed the spirit formations that Chu Feng knew of.

This caused Chu Feng to have a whole new level of respect for that demonic woman again. Not only was she experienced and knowledgeable, her techniques were also very amazing.

Likely, to a greater or lesser degree, she carried memories of her previous life with her. After all, in her previous life, she was a super genius.

Everything went smoothly. The poison on Wang Qiang's body was successfully removed.

“Buzz~~~”

Merely, to everyone's surprise, at the moment when the poison was removed, Wang Qiang's body suddenly gave off a stage attractive force.

When that strange attractive force appeared, it once again condensed the poison that was just removed from Wang Qiang and absorbed it back into his dantian.

Chapter 2304 – Starlit Gate

---

“What is going on?” Seeing that scene, both Chu Feng and the demonic woman revealed astonished and alarmed expressions.

The reason for that was because that poison used to only pervade Wang Qiang’s body. However, at that moment, that poison had been absorbed into Wang Qiang’s dantian.

“Buzz~~~”

Right when Chu Feng and the demonic woman were worried for Wang Qiang, Wang Qiang’s cultivation actually started to increase. Furthermore, his cultivation was increasing continuously.

In the blink of an eye, Wang Qiang’s cultivation increased to that of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, one level above Chu Feng’s cultivation.

“Huu...” After his cultivation increased, Wang Qiang heaved a sigh of satisfaction.

With a smile on his face, he said to Chu Feng, “Hehe, s-seems like I d-didn’t get myself poisoned for n-nothing. It has h-helped me.”

“Else, I would have n-n-nearly been c-cast behind b-by you, brother.”

Indeed. Even though Wang Qiang’s cultivation had also increased somewhat before, he was still only a rank two Half Martial Ancestor when Chu Feng met him again.

However, Chu Feng’s cultivation had already increased to that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor; he had already long surpassed Wang Qiang.

However, Wang Qiang actually managed to obtain four successive increases in cultivation. From rank two Half Martial Ancestor, he reached rank six Half Martial Ancestor. Once again, he surpassed Chu Feng in terms of cultivation.

It could be said that Wang Qiang had managed to profit from a disaster.

“Brother, congratulations,” Chu Feng was grinning from ear to ear. He did not feel depressed at the fact that Wang Qiang had surpassed him. On the contrary, he was very happy, extremely happy.

“Wow! Husband, you’re so amazing!”

“Even though I’ve heard that poison possesses the effect of increasing one’s cultivation, it is a benefit that only works on those with very strong bodies.”

“Generally... that poison will only increase one’s cultivation by a single level.”

“Even for powerful individuals, their cultivation would only increase by two levels.”

“Reportedly, a continuous increase in three levels of cultivation is already the limit.”

“However, husband, you actually managed to increase your cultivation by four continuous levels. This is simply unprecedented.”

“Husband, you are simply too amazing. I have truly fallen head over heels for you,” The demonic woman was extremely excited. She was reacting like a fan, and looked at Wang Qiang with adoration.

As for Wang Qiang, he did not show the slightest bit of happiness at that demonic woman’s reaction. Instead, black lines appeared on his forehead.

“D-didn’t you s-say that this M-moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower is capable of h-helping me b-become an Immortal-cloak W-world Spiritist? Q-quickly, use it,” Wang Qiang said.

“That is indeed the case. However, husband, you were unconscious earlier. Thus, how did you know about this?" The demonic woman asked in a surprised manner.

"I-I am e-ex-extremely knowledgeable, and h-h-have experienced a l-lot of things. You're n-not the only one t-that knows about the e-effects of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit F-flower," Wang Qiang shouted in a very displeased manner.

"Yes, yes, yes. Husband is truly amazing," Not only was that demonic woman not angry, she instead once again revealed a gaze of adoration. She was truly obedient and cute. Her only flaw was that she was ugly. However, because of her ugliness, it caused her actions to feel extremely disgusting.

That said, the demonic woman soon added, "Husband, since you are that experienced and knowledgeable, you must know about what sort of spirit formation to use to refine that berserk Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, right?"

"My spirit formation is t-too over-overwhelming. You w-wouldn't be able t-to use it even if I were to tell you ab-about it. T-thus, it's b-better that you use your s-spirit formation," Wang Qiang said in a very natural manner.

Chu Feng felt great admiration for Wang Qiang. He clearly didn't know what sort of spirit formation to use. Yet, he was able to make it sound so rational as he found a random excuse for himself. This was simply a type of talent.

"Woosh~~~"

However, right at that moment, the demonic woman suddenly waved her hand. 'Paa,' her hand landed on Wang Qiang's head.

That slap was so ruthless that not only did it knock Wang Qiang to the floor, it also made an enormous bruise on the back of Wang Qiang's head.

"Fuck! It was only because you were poisoned earlier that I decided to treat you nicely."

“Just because I gave you face, you decided that you would start to act arrogant with me, eh?”

“If you’re so talented, why were you captured by me? Why were you poisoned?” The demonic woman put her hands on her hips as she roared angrily at Wang Qiang. Her voice was so resounding that even the cave started to tremble.

“I-I-I wa-was wrong. I a-am truly m-mistaken. Please f-forgive me,” Wang Qiang’s behavior changed immediately. Although he was acting like the man of the house earlier, he actually, with a ‘putt,’ kneeled onto the ground right now. Wang Qiang began to kowtow to the demonic woman to apologize to her.

“Paa~~~”

However, that demonic woman refused to accept his apology, and slapped him once again. Her slap knocked Wang Qiang to the ground. Then, she pointed fiercely at Wang Qiang and yelled, “Call me ‘wife!’”

“W-w-wife, I am m-mistaken.”

“Sit there obediently. Do not move.”

“Y-yes, yes, yes.”

Wang Qiang sat on the ground obediently. He did not dare to move in the slightest.

At that moment, black lines covered Chu Feng’s forehead.

If it were an ordinary woman, they would be known as a vixen if they acted the way the demonic woman was.

However, the demonic woman was no ordinary woman. At that moment, she had a sinister expression, and looked like a man-eating monster.

“Haha, Wang Qiang is so pitiful. I truly pity him,” Eggy began to clap in glee. She was laughing loudly inside Chu Feng’s world spirit space.

Although she said that she felt pity for Wang Qiang, her actions showed absolutely no sympathy. She was simply someone watching a show.

As for Chu Feng, he truly felt pity for Wang Qiang. He muttered in his heart, ‘Brother, I am sorry. I have misjudged that demonic woman.’

‘Persist! If there is a chance, I will definitely help you escape from that demonic woman’s evil clutches.’

After that, the demonic woman began to set up her spirit formation, and Chu Feng began to assist her once again.

Right after the spirit formation was activated, the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower immediately started to blossom with a strange light.

Seeing this scene, the demonic woman immediately shouted “Oh no!” and hurriedly set up another spirit formation. She wanted to stop the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower.

“Boom~~~”

However, before that demonic woman’s spirit formation could cover the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower suddenly exploded.

Furthermore, due to the fact that the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower was very close to Wang Qiang, the energy ripples from the explosion directly knocked Wang Qiang flying. When Wang Qiang landed on the floor, his body was covered with blood, and he had lost consciousness.

“Damn it!” Chu Feng was deeply alarmed upon seeing this scene. He wanted to rush over to Wang Qiang to heal his injuries.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right when he was about to move, an enormous suction energy suddenly emerged from the center of the location where the explosion had originated from.

Upon looking over, Chu Feng discovered that an enormous gate was now open at that place.

Stars filled the sky. It was incomparably bright. The magnificence was simply indescribable.

Inside that gate was a boundlessly vast space. Within it were many worlds, and countless lives.

“Could it be that this is the Starlit Gate?” Chu Feng had an astonished expression on his face. Even though he had seen many spectacles since he had started on the path of martial cultivation, the scene before him still astonished him. This was definitely the most magnificent sight Chu Feng had seen so far.

“Yes, it’s the Starlit Gate. Move further away from it so that you do not get sucked into it. Else, it will be very difficult to escape. If you are to encounter a Interstellar Storm after being sucked into it, you will undoubtedly die,” Fearing that Chu Feng would approach the Starlit Gate, the demonic woman warned him loudly.

Upon hearing the demonic woman’s warning, Chu Feng moved a couple steps away from the Starlit Gate.

However, Chu Feng’s gaze suddenly shone once again. He discovered that there was a strange body of energy before the entrance of the Starlit Gate. It was currently slowly drifting toward the depths of the Starlit Gate.

That body of energy was the energy contained in the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower.

As the energy was flowing, it was difficult to capture it. However, that energy was source energy, something capable of increasing a world spirit’s cultivation.

In the center of the body of energy was a pearl-sized body of light. That was spirit power, the crucial component to let Wang Qiang become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Right now, that body of light was no longer berserk in nature. All that remained was pure spirit power.

Chapter 2305 – He Is My Brother

---

“Demonic woman, look at that, is that the spirit power that is capable of allowing Wang Qiang to become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Chu Feng asked the demonic woman while pointing at the body of light.

Even though he was already certain that it was the case, Chu Feng still wanted to confirm it with the demonic woman. He wanted to be absolutely certain.

“Yes, that is it. Although the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower has opened the Starlit Gate, its energies are still present.”

“Furthermore, that energy is no longer berserk. My husband could use it like it is. Unfortunately, it had already entered the Starlit Gate.”

“It is truly an enormous pity,” The demonic woman sighed and shook her head regretfully.

“No, we might be able to give it a try,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he began to fly rapidly toward the Starlit Gate.

“Hey! Chu Feng! What are you doing? Don’t be foolish. If you are to enter the Starlit Gate and encounter an Interstellar Storm, your body will most definitely be destroyed, and you will be killed. Even the gods will not be able to save you.”

Upon seeing that, the demonic woman shouted loudly. At the same time, she also unleashed a special technique and started to emit boundless suction energy; she was trying to bring Chu Feng back.

Unfortunately, Chu Feng had already managed to approach the Starlit Gate. The attractive force emitted by the Starlit Gate was very strange. While it was not very strong, it created a clear contrast against the attractive force emitted by the demonic woman.

The attractive force emitted by the Starlit Gate was still present. However, the attractive force emitted by the demonic woman was absorbed by it.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng had already entered the Starlit Gate.

Upon entering it, Chu Feng's gaze immediately changed. As he looked to the scene before him, his heart began to beat rapidly like a roaring sea. He was extremely excited.

If one must describe it, then the scene before Chu Feng could be described with one word: astonishing!!!

In the vast starry sky were countless stars. Each of the stars was a world.

All of this was before him. Even though they were clearly incomparably far away, they seemed to be within hands' reach.

That sort of sensation was as if the entire world was within Chu Feng's grasp.

However, at the same time, Chu Feng also felt a completely different sort of sensation; the sensation of being very small.

In that place, Chu Feng felt that he was very small, pitifully small. He felt that he was inferior to even a speck of dust.

Perhaps a strong burst of wind would be able to blow Chu Feng to pieces, killing him in the process.

"Chu Feng, you cannot stay here for long. Quickly, gather that spirit power," Right at that moment, Her Lady Queen's voice was suddenly heard.

Chu Feng did not hesitate any longer. He extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. A burst of suction power shot forth toward to envelope the spirit power and source energy.

It was unknown whether it might be because Chu Feng's cultivation was too weak that made his martial power useless here, or perhaps it might be some other reason.

However, the suction power that he emitted was simply unable to capture that body of light.

“Quickly, get back here! Are you trying to throw your life away?!”

“You are currently drifting! If you do not return now, you will forever fall into that starry sky!” The demonic woman’s voice resonated behind Chu Feng.

Chu Feng was also able to sense that there was an invisible energy that was pushing him toward the depths of the starry sky. He was growing further and further away from the Starlit Gate.

However, Chu Feng did not turn around. Instead, he suddenly moved; he continued onward. He was planning to approach the body of light with his physical body.

“Truly courting disaster,” Seeing this scene, the demonic woman grimaced; she did not even dare to continue seeing what was going on.

Through his efforts, Chu Feng finally managed to approach that body of light. Furthermore, he had successfully captured it with his hand.

“Eggy, I am able to bring the spirit energy back. However, the source energy has already scattered. I am unable to bring it back with me. You should definitely refine it here,” Chu Feng said.

“Hehe, that suits my intentions,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Eggy immediately revealed a glimmering smile.

Then, with assistance from Chu Feng, Eggy directly sucked in all of the source energy and refined it.

This stream of source energy was no small matter at all. It increased Her Lady Queen’s cultivation from rank six Half Martial Ancestor to rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

“Not bad. It would seem that the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower is truly a treasure.”

Chu Feng was able to sense the increase in Her Lady Queen’s cultivation.

Thinking back, it was very difficult for Her Lady Queen to increase her cultivation. Yet, by refining that source energy, she was able to directly reach a breakthrough. This caused Chu Feng to feel overjoyed.

Then, Chu Feng turned around and started to hurry toward the Starlit Gate.

“Damn it!”

However, even though the Starlit Gate was clearly not far away, it now felt so enormously far.

Even though Chu Feng was clearly putting forth all of his strength to run toward the Starlit Gate, the distance between them was growing closer extremely slowly.

“Chu Feng, keep going! That gate seems to be closing!”

At that moment, Her Lady Queen’s heart had jumped into her throat. The reason for that was because she knew very well that everything pointed to disaster should Chu Feng stay here.

Fortunately, Chu Feng managed to get through this daunting brush with disaster. After putting forth great effort, Chu Feng finally reached the Starlit Gate.

After entering the Starlit Gate, Chu Feng took a couple steps, then collapsed onto the ground.

At that time, he was sweating like a pig and His health gotten very weak.

Chu Feng had never been so tired; even fighting for ten days and ten nights straight would not tire him to this degree.

However, escaping from that starry sky had exhausted nearly all of his strength.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, that Starlit Gate closed.

Not a single trace of its existence remained. It was as if the Starlit Gate had never existed.

Seeing that scene, Chu Feng felt a lingering fear. If he had been even a step late in returning, he would have been stuck in the vast starry sky. Furthermore, with the cultivation that he had, he would not have been able to reach any galaxy. Instead, he would only continue to drift in the starry sky. The only thing waiting for him then would be death.

“Have you grown tired of living?” The demonic woman glared at Chu Feng.

“Here, take that to Wang Qiang,” Chu Feng said with a light smile. He tossed the body of light that contained a dense amount of spirit power to the demonic woman.

The demonic woman did not hesitate. She immediately brought the body of light over to Wang Qiang and fed it to him. Then, she set up a spirit formation to help Wang Qiang refine it.

Due to the fact that the body of light was composed only of pure spirit power now, it was quite easy to refine.

Seeing that the demonic woman was walking toward him with a smile on her face, Chu Feng asked excitedly, “Success?”

“Success. When my husband wakes up, he will also become an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” The demonic woman said with a smile.

However, that demonic woman’s expression turned serious immediately after. She looked to Chu Feng and said, “Earlier, you would’ve been trapped in the starry sky if you were a bit slower. I think you know very well what sort of consequence that would mean.”

“Furthermore, you should also know very well that I would definitely use the spirit power on my husband once you obtained it. All the risks you took would only benefit him. Thus, was it really worth it for you to do all that?” The demonic woman asked very seriously.

“Mn,” Chu Feng said without the slightest hesitation.

“Why?” The demonic woman revealed a confused expression.

Chu Feng smiled. He took a glance at the still-unconscious Wang Qiang. Then, he said, “Because he is my brother.”

Once Chu Feng said those words, the demonic woman’s expression turned sluggish. She seemed to be unable to understand the implication behind those words.

At that moment, Wang Qiang, who had his back facing Chu Feng and the demonic woman, slowly opened his eyes. Teardrops were actually glistening in his eyes.

Chapter 2306 – Heroes Appear In Chaotic Times

---

“I have already cured my husband’s injury. He will wake up soon.”

“After my husband wakes, we are to go to the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds together,” The demonic woman said to Chu Feng.

“E-ex-extremely Remote Un-unmarked Burial Mounds? W-Why the h-heck are w-we going there?” Right after the demonic woman said those words, Wang Qiang immediately sat up and spoke in protest.

“Husband, you’ve awakened? How did you wake up so quickly? Were you pretending to be unconscious?” The demonic woman walked toward Wang Qiang and asked him with a skeptical expression.

“W-why w-would I p-pretend? I w-was s-startled aw-awake by you,” Wang Qiang curled his lips and continued to protest, “W-why the heck a-are we going to the Extremely R-remote Unmarked Burial Mounds? Have y-you g-grown tired of living?”

“Husband, that remnant in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds was discovered by me. That is Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnant.”

“It is very possible that that remnant contain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance. As for Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance, it is no small matter.”

“Right now, you, Chu Feng and I, the three of us, are all Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. As such, how could we possibly let the remnant slip by us?” The demonic woman said to Wang Qiang.

“W-while w-what you said is t-true, t-there are that many powers

g-gathered here, t-that many e-experts f-focused on t-the Extremely Remote U-unmarked Burial Mounds. H-how c-could w-we possibly f-fight w-with them?”

“F-furthermore, b-both y-you and Chu Feng a-are w-wanted individuals. It’s t-t-too dangerous,” Wang Qiang shook his head. He truly did not wish to go.

“Seems like you don’t understand. After all, the remnant was discovered by me. Those people might not necessarily know what I know. As long as I go, we will definitely be able to profit from it.”

“As for the so-called being wanted, we could just disguise ourselves. Who could possibly see through us?” The demonic woman said.

“Demonic woman, do you hold certainty of success?” Chu Feng asked the demonic woman.

“Of course. I never do things I have no certainty of.”

“Furthermore, that old fart that snatched away my Moonlight Immortal Spirit Grass is also in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. I will definitely find him and get my revenge. This is a rare opportunity, and I am not planning to let it slip by,” The demonic woman said resolutely.

“Since that’s the case, we can go then. Wang Qiang, you should just listen to your wife and go have a look. That Grandmaster Kai Hong was indeed an extraordinary individual. I also do not wish to miss this opportunity,” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang.

“Brother, you also w-wish to g-go?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Yes,” Chu Feng nodded.

“S-since you a-also wish to go, t-then let’s go,” Wang Qiang said frankly.

“The hell! What is the meaning of this? When I said we should go, you started to give all kinds of excuses. Yet, when Chu Feng said we should go, you immediately agreed to it?” The demonic woman was very displeased, and grabbed Wang Qiang’s lapel.

“N-n-no, I a-am m-mainly obeying y-your desire,” Seeing that the demonic woman was angered, Wang Qiang hurriedly submitted to her.

The current Wang Qiang was no longer poisoned. As such, the demonic woman was no longer gentle toward him all the time anymore.

Once the demonic woman started getting aggressive, Wang Qiang would immediately submit to her. Otherwise, he would end up suffering.

For someone as shameless as Wang Qiang, he would possess that sort of foresight.

“There’s also you, Chu Feng. Enough with the ‘demonic woman,’ ‘demonic woman.’ I have a name, okay?” Then, the demonic woman turned her annoyed gaze to Chu Feng.

“You have a name? In that case, what is your name?” Chu Feng asked.

“Zhao Hong,” That demonic woman replied.

“Zhao Hong?” Hearing that name, Chu Feng’s heart immediately moved.

Wasn’t Zhao Hong the name that demonic woman had in her previous life?

However, according to that mysterious old monk, the demonic woman should not be able to remember her memories from her previous life. Could it be that the demonic woman had regained the memories of her previous life?

“Zhao Hong, who gave you that name?” Chu Feng asked in a probing manner.

“Regarding that, I am also not too certain. Merely, ever since I was born, I knew my name to be Zhao Hong,” The demonic woman said.

“Then, the things regarding the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Flower, your martial skills and world spirit techniques, were they things that you learned afterwards, or did you already know about them since birth?” Chu Feng asked.

“They’re the same as my name,” The demonic woman said.

“So that’s the case,” At that moment, Chu Feng finally realized that the demonic woman had not forgotten all of the memories of her previous life.

She still remembered a bit.

“Chu Feng, this demonic woman is truly pitiful. She doesn’t even remember her previous life’s memories. Should we tell her the truth so that she can live her life as a human and not as a monster?” Right at that moment, Her Lady Queen’s voice suddenly sounded.

“Perhaps knowing about those memories will make her whole, but it might be better for her not to know about those memories. After all... those were not fond memories.”

“Moreover, she might not necessarily believe my words,” Chu Feng said to Her Lady Queen.

“That’s true too. This demonic woman possesses a very violent and unstable temper. It would also be good to not let her know about those things.”

“If she doesn’t believe you and feels that you are deceiving her, you will end up suffering.”

“Even if she believes you, she might also end up going out of control due to shock. At that time, you will also suffer.”

“Since that is the case, it is better to not tell her about it,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Since we’ve decided, let’s get going,” The demonic woman said.

“W-wait. W-with the way y-you look now, y-you’ll scare people to d-death by going out. C-can’t y-you disguise y-yourself s-so that y-you look more normal?” Wang Qiang said.

“What is this? You’re thinking that your wife is ugly?” Hearing those words, the demonic woman was immediately angered.

“N-no, no, no, how c-could I think my w-wife to be ugly? I w-was o-only considering our safety,” Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile.

“Humph, changing my appearance is but a simple task,” As the demonic woman spoke, a layer of Immortal level spirit power covered her body. Then, the demonic woman’s appearance turned into that of a very beautiful-looking woman with an alluring figure.

The appearance that the demonic woman changed to was most definitely that of a decently beautiful woman.

Merely, she was too sexy and too alluring. While she would attract many a men, she was unable to enter Chu Feng’s discerning eye.

“T-too vulgar. C-c-can’t you d-disguise y-yourself as a m-more m-modest woman?” Wang Qiang sighed and said in a dissatisfied manner.

“What? You actually dislike your wife’s aesthetics?” Hearing those words, the demonic woman grabbed Wang Qiang’s ear.

“N-no, no, no, wife, I-I w-was wrong,” Wang Qiang immediately started to cry out in pain. However, it was evident that he was still unsatisfied with the demonic woman’s appearance.

At that moment, Chu Feng involuntarily recalled how the demonic woman looked in her previous life, the appearance of that Zhao Hong.

She was truly a rarely seen beauty.

“Zhao Hong, how about you allow me to change your appearance for you instead?” Chu Feng said to the demonic woman.

Hearing those words, the demonic woman revealed an angry, blade-like gaze toward Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because the demonic woman noticed that Chu Feng was also not fond of the beautiful appearance she had given herself.

However, for some unknown reason, she hesitated, and did not act out violently against Chu Feng. Instead, she nodded and said, “Very well, I’ll give you a chance.”

Then, Chu Feng immediately set up a spirit formation to help the demonic woman change her appearance.

A sweet appearance, a natural and unrestrained flow with extraordinary airs. Although she was wearing a red skirt, she still looked like a celestial fairy.

As for this, it was none other than Zhao Hong’s original appearance.

“How is it? Is it to your satisfaction?” Chu Feng formed a mirror with his spirit formation and reflected the current appearance of the demonic woman.

“However, taking into consideration that you’re attentive, I’ll use this appearance.”

Although the demonic woman only said ‘it’s alright,’ Chu Feng was able to tell that she was very fond of her current appearance.

The reason for that was because the demonic woman was already moving toward the outside. From her lively footsteps and joyful movements, Chu Feng was able to tell that the demonic woman’s mood was extremely good right now.

“How is it? Are you satisfied?” Chu Feng looked to Wang Qiang with a beaming smile. He seemed to be joking around with him.

“W-while I am satisfied, u-unfortunately that is her t-transformed appearance, and n-not her actual appearance,” Wang Qiang said with disappointment.

“No, that is the original appearance of that demonic woman. To be exact, that is Zhao Hong’s original appearance,” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang using voice transmission.

“R-really?” Hearing those words, Wang Qiang’s expression changed. A special sort of light shone in his eyes.

“Why would I deceive you?” Chu Feng asked with a smile.

“Hehe, t-that’s pretty good then.”

“Perhaps an o-op-opportunity will present itself amidst t-the chaos, and we’ll be a-able to escape,” At this moment, Wang Qiang’s mood also became extremely good. Even though he was speaking of escaping, he was rapidly chasing after the demonic woman. Furthermore, while chasing after her, he shouted, “W-w-wife! W-wait for me!”

“Actually, I think that Wang Qiang suits that demonic woman quite well,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Why is that?” Chu Feng asked in a puzzled manner.

“A weirdo fits a weirdo,” Eggy said.

“That seems to be reasonable,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, his body also moved as he began to chase after them.

At this moment, Chu Feng was also excited.

The reason for that was because he was also looking forward to their trip to the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.

After all, there was a huge gathering of experts there. Even if he was unable to obtain anything from going there, he would be able to gain experience. This would be a rare opportunity.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng firmly believed that heroes appeared in chaotic times.

The more chaotic a place was, the greater the chance of the emergence of heroes.

Chapter 2307 – Scouting For Information

---

The Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds was originally a forbidden area.

However, due to the fact that Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants were discovered, people from all of the various powers had gathered there.

At present, that uninhabited location, that place which was deemed a forbidden area, had become extremely lively.

In the beginning, the people that arrived were all of great origin. Practically none of them were ordinary individuals.

However, as the news of what was happening started to spread, more and more people that wanted to enjoy the excitement began to arrive.

None of these people were very strong. Their intentions in coming were also not to obtain the treasures in the remnants. Instead, they came purely for the sake of enjoying the bustling excitement.

Over time, some people discovered commercial opportunities, and began to create food and lodging taverns in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds for the people that were coming here. They provided cozy locations for them to stay, as well as fine foods to eat and beautiful women to serve them.

“W-wow! Wife, l-look over there. T-there's a tavern there. L-Let's go and have a r-rest and s-something to eat.”

Wang Qiang, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were all wearing conical bamboo hats. Originally, they had been proceeding straight for the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. However, upon seeing that tavern, Wang Qiang suddenly stopped.

“You are, after all, a martial cultivator, why are you so insistent on eating, it's not like you will die of hunger if you don't eat,” Zhao

Hong stared at Wang Qiang with a very displeased gaze. Her eyes were filled with disappointment.

“O-o-of course I wouldn’t die f-from hunger. B-but, e-enjoying delicious food i-is o-one’s g-great pleasure i-in living.”

“F-f-furthermore, I-I-I am not s-suggesting this f-for my sake. I-instead, it’s f-for you, wife. W-wife, you have flown w-while leading t-the two of us for so long. You m-must be tired, no?” Wang Qiang said in a very attentive manner.

“I’m not tired,” Zhao Hong said decisively.

“W-wife, look at h-how many people there are here. P-perhaps we will b-be able t-to gather a l-lot of information.”

“A-after all, i-it is b-better to be p-prepared, just in case. P-perhaps by g-gathering some i-information, we w-would have g-greater certainty after e-entering the remnants,” Wang Qiang continued.

“Indeed, there are a lot of people gathered down below. Perhaps we might really be able to obtain some information from them,” Chu Feng said.

“Okay then. However, we’re only going to have a meal. We’ll leave right after the meal,” Zhao Hong said.

After that, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong descended into the tavern. This tavern was created with world spirit techniques. It was very large, and there were a lot of customers.

For the sake of gathering information, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong did not enter into private room. Instead, they directly sat in the spacious main hall.

Although this place was very chaotic, it was also a place with a lot of people discussing various things. As such, if one wanted to know about something, one would be able to gather some information through listening closely to the conversations.

After Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were seated, they ordered a table full of food and drinks.

Wang Qiang was extremely pleased as he ate, and completely forgot about the fact that they were here to gather information. However, Chu Feng had not.

Thus, he sent a voice transmission to Zhao Hong and asked, “Zhao Hong, you said that you would tell us your plan after reaching the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. We are already here now. You should be able to tell us what your plan is, right?”

It was not that Chu Feng did not trust Zhao Hong. Merely, there were truly a lot of people gathered here. Furthermore, experts from the various major powers had already entered that remnant.

With so many experts scrambling for the treasures inside the remnants, if they did not possess a certain level of certainty of success, it would simply be impossible for people of their strength to obtain anything.

Thus, Chu Feng wanted to know exactly what sort of plan Zhao Hong had in mind. By knowing it, he would be able to determine whether or not it was feasible.

As Chu Feng’s voice transmission was toward both Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, Wang Qiang also heard what he asked Zhao Hong. Thus, Wang Qiang asked curiously, “That’s right. Wife, w-w-what sort of p-plan do you have? Y-you should b-be able to t-tell us now, right?”

Of course, he also asked those words using a voice transmission. Only the three of them were able to hear this conversation.

“Actually, I obtained two extremely crucial items upon discovering that remnant. One of them is a map.”

“That map is currently in my mind. By relying on that map, we will be able to evade a lot of the traps and mechanisms in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. Thus, as long as we enter it, we will definitely be able to obtain rewards. It might even be possible for us to obtain the inheritance of Grandmaster Kai Hong,” Zhao Hong said.

“Even if you know how to avoid certain traps and mechanisms, there are already a lot of experts gathered inside. Likely, compared to the traps and mechanisms, the other people will be even more dangerous.”

“Thus, what is actually blocking us are not the traps and mechanisms in the remnants. Instead, it is the other people that have entered the remnants,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re thinking that our battle power is still too weak, right?” Zhao Hong asked.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng nodded.

“That is why I said I discovered two crucial things.”

“Other than the map of the remnants, I also discovered a spirit formation. That spirit formation might be related to Grandmaster Kai Hong, or it might be related to the remnants left by others.”

“However, most importantly, that spirit formation is capable of providing us with battle power. Furthermore, I also know how to make use of that spirit formation’s battle power,” Zhao Hong said.

“What sort of battle power is that spirit formation you’ve discovered capable of providing us with?” Chu Feng asked.

“Is peak Martial Ancestor sufficient?” Zhao Hong asked.

“Peak Martial Ancestor?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng felt extremely shocked.

There were indeed True Immortal-level experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, their numbers were extremely few.

After all, even the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall's headmaster were only rank eight Martial Ancestors.

Thus, peak Martial Ancestor was an extremely powerful level of cultivation.

If it was truly possible to obtain that level of battle power, it would indeed provide an enormous guarantee for them to enter the remnants.

"P-p-peak Martial Ancestor? Is i-it really s-sufficient?" Wang Qiang asked Chu Feng. As he had been captured right after arriving at this place, Wang Qiang did not know much about the situation of the power structure in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. As such, he did not know how strong of an existence peak Martial Ancestors were in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Most importantly, compared to Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang felt greater trust in Chu Feng. As such, he would directly ask Chu Feng about this sort of thing.

"Although the appearance of the remnants in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds has attracted many experts, and even the four tier one powers have dispatched their experts, I feel that no True Immortal-level experts have come here."

"Thus, peak Martial Ancestor is sufficient," Zhao Hong said.

"Indeed, it should be sufficient," Chu Feng nodded.

"Haha. Wife, you are truly amazing," Hearing those words from Chu Feng and Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang heaved a sigh of relief. After he had reassured himself, he started to once again gorge himself with good.

"The Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley actually..."

"They are truly..."

During this period of time, Chu Feng heard some people discussing matters concerning him. When Chu Feng noticed that the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley had actually declared war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for him, he became extremely depressed.

Chu Feng had already made himself clear back then. He had done so all for the sake of distancing himself from the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley so that they would not be implicated by the troubles he would provoke in the future.

However, he truly never expected that even though he was so excessive in his refusal, the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley would still insist on helping him.

This caused Chu Feng to feel emotionally moved, but at the same time, he felt depressed. After all, this sort of camaraderie was not something that anyone could accomplish.

Thus, Chu Feng was unable to get himself to blame them. Yet, at the same time, he was unable to feel grateful toward them. As such, he entered a tangled state of mind.

Chapter 2308 – The Kindhearted Demoniac Woman

---

“You only knew about it now?” Seeing the change in Chu Feng’s behavior, Zhao Hong smiled lightly. She seemed to have already known about this news.

Chu Feng sighed. As things were already like this, there was nothing he could say about it.

Right at this moment, a little boy sneaked into the tavern while the tavern’s guards were not paying attention.

This little boy appeared to only be around eight years old. However, he possessed martial cultivation. Furthermore, his cultivation was not weak; he was actually a Heavenly Realm martial cultivator.

With his cultivation at his age, if he were to be placed in the Nine Provinces Continent, he would definitely be someone astonishing and capable of causing others to worship him for his talent.

Firstly, the Heavenly Realm was already at the peak level of cultivation in the Nine Provinces Continent.

That was because eight years old could not be considered to be an age where people started martial cultivation.

However, the appearance of a child with heaven-defying talent in the Nine Provinces Continent did not cause others to take notice of him.

After all, this place was the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

After the little boy rushed in, he began to look all around. He seemed to be searching for a specific target.

Finally, he found a target. It was a man and a woman with benevolent appearances. They seemed to be a couple.

The little boy ran over to the couple and grabbed that man's sleeve. He shook it left and right and began to plead. However, his tone was neither servile nor overbearing.

“Great sir, great sir, give me something to eat. If you are to do so, I will tell you the most valuable information concerning the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.”

“If great sir is able to provide me with more food and some money on top of that, I am able to tell you about a great secret. It will be of essential assistance to great sir's entrance to Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants.”

The man was annoyed by the little boy. However, upon taking the presence of the woman into consideration, he did not get angry. Instead, he smiled a fake smile and picked up a chicken wing.

He said to the little boy, “Tell me something. I will determine whether or not it is real or fake. If what you say is true, I will give this to you.”

Upon seeing that chicken wing, the little boy hungrily gulped down a mouthful of saliva. He hurriedly said, “Currently, the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's four tier one powers, many tier two powers and even some tier three powers have all dispatched their peak experts into Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants.”

“However, as of right now, they have not managed to obtain anything.”

“If great sir came for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures, then you will still have a high chance of obtaining treasures should you enter the remnants now.”

“You're saying that the Immortal Sword School, Buddha's Heavenly Temple, Zhou Heavenly Clan and Kong Heavenly Clan, the four tier one powers, have also yet to find anything?” The man was rather surprised.

“That’s right. So far, they have yet to obtain anything. However, all of them have suffered some casualties. Some of the tier two powers have already decided to withdraw from the remnants; they do not dare to continue too deep into them.”

“As for the tier three powers, practically all of them have given up,” The little boy said with an earnest expression.

“This brat is truly capable at spouting nonsense. Although I have not entered the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds, I can still well-imagine that it would be impossible for that many experts to not have obtained anything yet,” The woman sitting on the table with the man said.

Hearing what the woman said, the man directly stuffed the chicken wing he was holding into his own mouth. Then, he turned around and no longer bothered with the boy.

In response, the boy hurriedly tried to explain. “Great sir, I did not deceive you. What I said is all the truth.”

“Damned beggar, scram immediately,” However, after the woman had shown disdain toward the boy, the man’s attitude had a hundred and eighty degree change. He waved his sleeve and knocked the boy to the ground.

The little boy seemed to be afraid of creating a disturbance. Thus, he did not continue to tangle with the couple. Instead, he turned to look elsewhere.

However, no one was willing to believe him. In the end, no one was willing to bother with him.

“Damned brat! It’s you again! This time around, I’m definitely going to cripple you!”

“Men! Capture this brat! Break his legs! Turn him into a cripple. I shall see if he will dare to come stir up trouble again.”

Finally, a waiter in the tavern discovered the little boy. After the waiter shouted for assistance, one of the guards outside the tavern rushed in and grabbed the boy.

At this moment, the boy had a frightened expression. He began to beg for forgiveness. However, not a single person was willing to save him.

The majority of the people in the tavern had decided to look on without lifting a finger. In fact, some even had sneers on their faces. It was as if they were enjoying a very entertaining show that was occurring before them.

“Stop!” Finally, Chu Feng spoke. Following his shout, his aura of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor swept forth. Immediately, he caused the tavern to tremble.

Although there were many people gathered in this tavern, the majority of them were only disciples of certain sects and schools. As such, their strength was not very strong.

Among these people here, a rank five Half Martial Ancestor was extremely strong.

Once Chu Feng emitted his aura of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor, he immediately caused the expressions of the crowd to change. The gazes with which they looked to Chu Feng now were filled with reverence.

At this moment, the tavern that was originally bustling with activity was immediately completely silent. The people present were afraid of speaking and offending this grand character.

The guard that grabbed the little boy and the waiter that had cursed at the little boy earlier thought that the boy had some sort of relationship with Chu Feng. As such, they were so scared that they started to shiver in fear, and were unable to stand steadily.

“Release him,” Chu Feng said.

Upon hearing what Chu Feng said, how could the guard and that waiter possibly dare to hesitate? He immediately released the boy. Then, with a 'putt,' they kneeled onto the ground. They started to kowtow toward Chu Feng while begging for forgiveness.

"Milord, we did not know that you knew this young master. Please forgive us."

"You can go," Chu Feng waved his hand casually. He did not wish to bicker with snobs like them.

In response, the waiter and the guard hurriedly left. They no longer dared to appear before Chu Feng.

"Big brother, thank you for saving me," The little boy ran to Chu Feng excitedly.

However, upon hearing what the boy said, Chu Feng's gaze changed slightly.

Although Chu Feng had not deliberately disguised his appearance, he was wearing a special conical bamboo hat. That conical bamboo hat was something that Zhao Hong had given him. It was capable of blocking other people's sight. In fact, not even Immortal-cloak World Spiritists could see through the conical bamboo hat.

Logically, no one should be able to see through Chu Feng's appearance, and no one should be able to determine Chu Feng's age.

However, this little boy addressed Chu Feng as 'big brother' from the get go. It was not 'uncle' or 'grandpa.' It was as if he could see through Chu Feng's appearance. This made Chu Feng feel extremely surprised.

However, upon closer inspection, Chu Feng did not discover anything special regarding the little boy. Even his eyes were simply very clear and vivid.

The innocence of someone his age seemed to all be present in the boy. Furthermore, it did not seem to be fake.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that it was because this boy was feeling grateful toward him that he addressed him as ‘big brother.’ At least, like that, it would make Chu Feng appear to be young.

To put it simply, the little boy had called Chu Feng ‘big brother’ on purpose, and not because he had managed to see through Chu Feng’s appearance.

“You must be hungry. Go ahead and eat.”

Chu Feng lifted the boy onto a chair and pointed at the delicacies that filled the table. He indicated to the boy that he could eat as he wished.

“Really?” The little boy’s eyes were wide open. He did not dare to believe what he had heard.

“Go ahead and eat. Eat as much as you want. If there’s not enough, I’ll order some more,” However, before Chu Feng could respond, Zhao Hong spoke first. Furthermore, the tone that she spoke with was very gentle and soft.

“W-wife, you promised me that you would not eat men again in the future. Moreover, with how small this child is, y-y-you should j-just spare him,” Wang Qiang thought that Zhao Hong was thinking about eating that boy. Thus, he hurriedly urged her against it via voice transmission.

“Who said that I’m going to eat him? I only felt pity for him.”

“Furthermore, I am someone that only eats certain people. I do not eat those that do not feel lustful thoughts toward me,” Zhao Hong cast a ruthless side eye at Wang Qiang. Then, she actually picked up a drumstick with her chopsticks and placed it onto the boy’s plate.

Chu Feng was very shocked upon seeing this scene. He truly never expected this notorious demonic woman to actually have such a kindhearted side to her.

Most importantly, Chu Feng felt that the demonic woman was treating the boy well from the bottom of her heart. She did not seem to be pretending or conspiring anything.

Chapter 2309 – Heaven-startling Secret

---

“Thank you all. You are all good people,” The little boy was wild with joy; he began to unrestrainedly gorge himself with food.

Although his stature was small, his appetite was akin to that of an extremely hungry ghost. The entire table’s worth of food was completely devoured spotlessly by that little boy in no time at all.

As Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong looked to the boy’s deeply bulging stomach, as well as his satisfied appearance, they all revealed satisfied smiles. None of them blamed that boy for eating too much. Instead, they all found the boy to be adorable.

After the boy was done eating, he wiped his mouth and said to Chu Feng, “Big brothers, big sister, you all are truly good people. I cannot eat your food for free. I will tell you all about the situation in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.”

“All those powers have entered that place. Are they truly unable to obtain anything?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“So far, none of them have managed to obtain anything. Instead, they’ve suffered many casualties,” The little boy said.

“Then, do you know how strong the strongest experts that have entered the remnants are?” Chu Feng asked.

“Currently, the strongest would be peak Martial Ancestors,” The little boy replied very straightforwardly. He did not hesitate in the slightest.

“Apart from this, what else do you know? Go ahead and tell us,” Chu Feng said.

“I also know of a piece of news that only a few people know about. That is, the two great geniuses in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm have entered the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. If the two of them are to encounter each other, a fierce battle will definitely occur,” The little boy said.

“Two great geniuses? W-w-who a-are the two g-great geniuses?” Wang Qiang asked curiously.

“Young Master Li Ming. He is the youngest Immortal-cloak World Spiritist in the history of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“He possesses enormous talent, and is deemed to be the number one genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Countless experts wanted to take him as their disciple. However, they were all refused by him.”

“Reportedly, even the greatly renowned Golden Crane True Immortal wanted to take him as his disciple, and was also refused,” The little boy said.

“Oh, h-h-he’s a-actually t-that amazing?” Wang Qiang said in a skeptical manner.

“I have heard of that Young Master Li Ming before. He seems to possess actual ability,” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang.

“I-Is that so?” After hearing what Chu Feng said, Wang Qiang started to believe what the boy said.

“Then, who is the second genius?” Chu Feng asked the boy.

Chu Feng had only heard of Young Master Li Ming, and had never heard of another genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that was comparable to Young Master Li Ming.

“Hun Lian.”

“There don’t seem to be a lot of people that know of Hun Lian. Compared to Young Master Li Ming, this Hun Lian is even more mysterious. However, his overall strength is not inferior to Young Master Li Ming’s, he is a demon-level existence.”

“Reportedly, standing behind Hun Lian to support him is an extremely formidable power.”

“Although I also do not know the name of that power, it seems that power is a very powerful existence that is not categorized as a tier one power,” The little boy lowered his voice as he said those words. It was as if he was afraid that others would hear it.

“Little fellow, I have, after all, let you eat all these delicacies, so don’t you toy around with me,” Zhao Hong said.

“Big sister, I am not toying with you. I am telling the truth,” The little boy said earnestly.

“Forget about it. It’s better that you continue eating,” Zhao Hong was evidently distrustful.

This was not her fault. After all, in the eyes of the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the four tier one powers were already the strongest.

They believed that a power that could contend against the four tier one powers simply did not exist .

However, Chu Feng, on the other hand, had a whole new level of respect for that little boy.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew that there was a power in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that was capable of contending against the four tier one powers, and might even be stronger than the four tier one powers.

That power was the power that had been around for many years, but very few people knew of, the Infant Soul Sect.

That Hun Lian’s name was relatively strange. This caused Chu Feng to feel that he might be related to the Infant Soul Sect.

“Little guy, do you know anything else?” Chu Feng continued to ask.

“While I know a lot of things, not many of them are valuable.”

“Big brother, I can tell that you all are good people. Thus, I’ll tell you all about the heaven-startling secret that I know,” The little boy said with a low voice.

“Yoh, y-you really k-know a heaven-startling secret?” T-t-then, tell us e-exactly what it is,” Wang Qiang said jokingly. Evidently, he did not trust the little boy, and was purely toying with him.

“Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnant is filled with traps and mechanisms. It is practically impossible to obtain treasures from his remnants.”

“However, there are four cloaks that will allow one to evade all of the traps and mechanisms upon wearing them. In fact, upon entering the remnants with those cloaks, one would be undiscoverable by anyone.”

“As for my secret, I know the locations of those four cloaks,” The little boy said proudly.

“Oh? T-then, tell us, w-where are t-those magical c-cloaks?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Wait,” Before the little boy could speak, Chu Feng suddenly stopped him. Then, with a thought, Chu Feng covered their surroundings with a layer of spirit power.

It was a special concealing formation. Being covered by that concealing formation, Chu Feng and the others would appear to still be chatting to the people outside. However, what they saw would only be an illusion.

As long as this concealing formation was present, the contents of Chu Feng and the others’ conversation would not be heard by the people outside.

“B-b-brother, a-aren’t you t-t-too naive?”

“Y-you couldn’t p-p-possibly think that t-this little guy would t-truly know an e-enormous secret, r-right?”

Wang Qiang looked to Chu Feng with an astonished expression. He had never trusted the boy’s words, and was only trying to toy with him. However, never would he expect that Chu Feng would actually be this serious.

However, Chu Feng only smiled dimly at Wang Qiang. Then, he looked back to the little boy and said, “Little fellow, go ahead. Tell us where those cloaks are hidden.”

At this moment, the boy took out a map from his bosom. After opening the map, he pointed at two marks on the map. He said, “Here and here.”

“Haha, l-little f-fellow, you t-truly c-consider us to be fools, right? Even if y-you want to deceive s-someone, you should be m-more earnest, no?”

“T-this m-map of y-yours is truly too f-fake. E-even my drawings w-when I was a year o-old looked better than that,” Wang Qiang burst into laughter. The reason for that was because the map the boy revealed was extremely crude. It appeared to be the drawings of a small child.

However, right at this moment, Zhao Hong’s eyes shone. “Those two places seem to truly exist.”

After all, compared to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, she knew the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds very well.

“Of course they do. I have not deceived you all. The locations of the cloaks are guarded by spirit formations. If one does not know how to break the spirit formations, even Martial Ancestors will not be able to enter those locations, much less obtain the cloaks,” The little boy said.

“E-even Martial Ancestors are unable to enter? R-regardless of w-whether w-what you’ve said is true or not, e-even if it is, how a-are we supposed to e-enter t-those p-places w-when even Martial Ancestors cannot?” Wang Qiang looked to the little boy with a disdainful expression.

“However, I know of the method to undo the spirit formations,” The little boy said.

Hun in Hun Lian’s name means Soul. Lian means temper/refine.

So his name basically means refining soul.

Chapter 2310 – Highlord's Mansion

---

“What sort of method?” Chu Feng asked.

“Those two spirit formations are both hidden below a large tree. That tree looks like this,” As the little boy spoke, he took out another picture scroll.

That picture scroll once again appeared to have been drawn by that little boy. However, compared to the map, the picture scroll was much more detailed. At the very least, one could tell what the drawing was; a tree. It was a tree that did not appear to be special at first glance, and still did not appear to be special even upon closer inspection.

“If it’s a tree like this, they’re everywhere,” Wang Qiang said with curled lips.

“It is true that trees like these are everywhere. However, at the two locations with hidden cloaks, there is only one such tree,” The boy said.

“Then, how are we to break through the formations below the trees?” Chu Feng asked.

“It’s quite simple. You merely need to engrave a symbol on the tree with spirit power,” As the boy spoke, he took out a scroll. After opening the scroll, the expressions of Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong all changed.

The reason for that was because, when compared to the map or the picture scroll, the contents of the scroll were much more trustworthy.

As the three of them were Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, they were able to tell with a single glance that the symbol on the scroll was a sort of spirit formation symbol.

Although it was a small-scale spirit formation, and a very simple one on top of that, it was still an actual spirit formation.

“W-we’ll be a-able to open t-the spirit formations t-that not even Martial A-ancestors could break t-through just by e-engraving such a s-spirit formation s-symbol?” Wang Qiang smiled disdainfully.

Although Wang Qiang was also very astonished by the fact that the boy had taken out such a spirit formation symbol, it remained that that spirit formation symbol was something that any Royal-cloak World Spiritist could easily draw. It was not a profound spirit formation. As such, Wang Qiang did not think that a spirit formation symbol like that would be able to open a spirit formation that not even Martial Ancestors could break through.

“No, if only that spirit formation symbol is engraved, it will indeed not be of any use. Thus, what I am going to tell you all will be the crucial aspect to breaking the spirit formation.”

“These two symbols, must be engraved at the same time. Furthermore, they must be completed at the same time,” The little boy said in a very serious manner.

“You’re saying that the two spirit formation symbols must be started and completed at the same time?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. They must be done simultaneously. Else, they will be ineffective,” The little boy said.

“In that case, it would mean that there will need to be two people working simultaneously,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, y-you c-c-couldn’t possibly really believe t-this little fellow’s words, right?” Wang Qiang looked to Chu Feng in astonishment.

“Zhao Hong, what do you think of this?” Chu Feng looked to Zhao Hong.

“There’s no harm in trying it out. How about this, you go to this place since it’s closer,” Zhao Hong pointed to the location on the map that was closer to the tavern.

“Then, how long would it take for you to reach that place?” Chu

Feng pointed to the other location on the map and asked Zhao Hong.

The place Chu Feng was planning to proceed to was very close to the tavern. He would be able to reach it very quickly.

However, the other location on the map was very far away from here. Even for Zhao Hong, it would take a while for her to reach it.

“Four hours. I will definitely be able to reach there in four hours. Thus, it would be fine for us to set up the spirit formation simultaneously four hours later,” Zhao Hong said.

“We must finish setting up the formations at the same time. When you arrive, let’s use this speed to draw the spirit formation symbol,” As Chu Feng spoke, he began to draw the spirit formation symbol. Soon, he finished drawing it.

“That’s no issue,” Zhao Hong remembered the time Chu Feng took.

“Then, when are we leaving?” Chu Feng asked.

“This matter should not be delayed; let’s set off right away. After that, regardless of the result, we shall return here to meet up with one another.”

“Husband, you should stay here to look after this little fellow. If he is a scammer, I will not spare him,” After Zhao Hong finished saying those words, she flew out of the tavern.

“Then I’ll take my leave too,” After Zhao Hong left, Chu Feng also stood up and prepared to leave.

However, right at the moment when Chu Feng was about to leave, Wang Qiang grabbed Chu Feng’s shoulder. He said, “Brother, y-you’re really going?”

“What’s wrong?” Chu Feng was confused.

“That d-demonic woman has l-left. We s-should be escaping now. T-this is a g-great opportunity,” Wang Qiang said.

“This moment wouldn’t make a difference. Since we have already come, I also wish to experience Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnant. Perhaps we might really be able to gain from it,” Chu Feng said.

“E-even if that is the case, d-do you r-really believe in w-what this little f-fellow has said?”

“W-why d-don’t you a-ask him w-where he obtained t-these things?” Wang Qiang said.

“I am truly not deceiving anyone,” The little boy said resolutely.

“I believe that you have not deceived me,” Chu Feng smiled amiably at the boy. Then, he asked, “Then, can you tell me what your name is?”

“I am called Xiaoshi,” The little boy said.

“Xiaoshi?” Chu Feng had a pensive expression. He seemed to be thinking about something. However, what he had in his mind soon swept past his mind. With a smile on his face, he rubbed Xiaoshi’s little head and said, “Xiaoshi, accompany your big brother Wang Qiang and stay here properly. I will soon return.”

“Mn,” Xiaoshi nodded his head hard. He appeared to be very clever and adorable.

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he began to walk toward the tavern’s exit. However, right after he reached the gate of the tavern, he was blocked by a group of people.

It was a group of people that were coming into the tavern to rest. There were about a dozen or so people. They all appeared to be members of the younger generation. However, their cultivations were all pretty strong. This was especially true for the one leading the group, a handsome man with delicate features. His cultivation was actually that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, judging from their outfits, they should be from the same power.

For there to be so many powerful people of the younger generation, they most likely possessed quite a grand origin. Thus, Chu Feng subconsciously took a glance at the title plates on their waists.

From the title plates, Chu Feng obtained his answer: the Highlord's Mansion.

“Highlord's Mansion?”

“Look! They're disciples from the Highlord's Mansion!”

“Heavens! Isn't that person leading the group t-the number one disciple of the Highlord's Mansion?”

Right at this moment, the tavern that was originally tranquil immediately burst into an uproar. Many of the females present let out screams of excitement.

Hearing the conversation from the crowd, Chu Feng came to know the origin of these people.

Highlord's Mansion. It was the third strongest power among the second tier powers. Its strength surpassed that of the Sunset Cloud Valley and Three Stars Hall.

As for that man with the cultivation of rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, his name was Di Jiuzhou.

Reportedly, Di Jiuzhou was the strongest member of the younger generation among the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's younger generation from the tier two powers.

Evidently, the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion all heard the discussion from the crowd in the tavern, and saw their gazes of reverence as they all revealed extremely proud expressions.

Suddenly, a man from the Highlord's Mansion pointed at Chu Feng and shouted, “What are you looking at?! Can't you see that you're blocking the road?! Why aren't you scrambling still?!”

His attitude was very arrogant and aggressive. It was as if he was berating a beggar. He had completely disregarded Chu Feng.

Based on Chu Feng's attitude, he would definitely not give in to someone that dared to speak to him in such a manner. He would definitely teach them a lesson.

However, that was then and this was now. As Chu Feng had something he had to do, he did not wish to provoke these people and bring attention to himself. Furthermore, they were disciples from the Highlord's Mansion.

Furthermore, after knowing that the name of the man that lead the group was Di Jiuzhou, Chu Feng felt some sort of fate. After all, the Nine Continents Province was the place that Chu Feng had the most profound memories of. [Di Jiuzhou's name Jiuzhou sounds exactly the same as the Nine Provinces(Jiuzhou).]

Thus, Chu Feng did not bother to do anything else. Instead, he smiled and moved aside, creating a path for the incoming group.

“Humph.”

Although Chu Feng had moved aside, the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion still did not express the slightest bit of goodwill toward Chu Feng.

In fact, they started to look down on Chu Feng even more. Their gazes seemed to be mocking at Chu Feng. It was as if they had won this virtual battle, and were going to use their gazes to shame their opponent.

As for Chu Feng, he did not care about those sorts of mocking gazes at all. He acted as if he did not see them.

After those people walked into the tavern, Chu Feng walked out of the tavern. He soared into the air, and began to fly toward the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.

Xiaoshi means Little Master/Teacher.

Chapter 2311 – Wang Qiang Displaying His Might

---

After Chu Feng left, the disciple from the Highlord's Mansion that beated Chu Feng earlier mocked, "Truly trash. If it weren't for master's order, I would definitely have beaten him till he was unable to care for himself. How could I possibly allow him to escape like that?"

"Just let it go. There's no need to bother with trash like him. Beating him would only dirty our hands," The man by the name of Di Jiuzhou said with contempt.

"What senior brother Di says is very true," Once Di Jiuzhou said those words, the disciples with him all nodded their heads in succession and smiled like a bunch of lackeys. Fortunately, they did not have tails; if they did, their tails would definitely be wagging like dogs.

Their ability in ass-kissing had most definitely reached the level of mastery. They were capable of kissing all sorts of ass at any given time.

Even though the personality of these disciples from the Highlord's Mansion could be determined from their words and actions, the people in the tavern did not feel disgust toward them because of that. Instead, they felt those disciples from the Highlord's Mansion to be extremely powerful. Some of the crowd even felt greater admiration for them.

Involuntarily, there were also people that started to feel contempt towards Chu Feng due to his meekness.

Not only that, many among them even started to quietly discuss among themselves, and openly speak words to humiliate Chu Feng.

After all, they had all been very scared of Chu Feng when he had revealed his cultivation of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. They all thought that Chu Feng was very strong, and marked Chu Feng to be an expert in their hearts.

Chu Feng's actions earlier had brought dissatisfaction to them. Involuntarily, they determined that Chu Feng was someone who bullied the weak and feared the strong.

Actually, this behavior from the crowd was reasonable. After all, the world of martial cultivators was a world where might was right. Only powerful experts were able to gain the crowd's respect.

As for their moral character, they were things that not many people cared about.

"Those people are truly excessive. Big brother had already made way for them. Yet they still denounced big brother like that," Compared to the others in the tavern, Xiaoshi cried out against injustice for Chu Feng.

"L-little guy, d-do you b-believe t-that n-none of them are a m-match for my brother?"

"If it wasn't f-for the fact that my brother had a t-task at hand, a-and did not w-want to b-bicker with them, t-these people w-would all be lying and r-rolling on the ground now," Wang Qiang said to Xiaoshi.

"I do, I do," Xiaoshi nodded innocently. He revealed a firmly believing smile.

At this moment, the crowd from the Highlord's Mansion had already taken their seats. Eager to reveal their greatness, they also did not enter a private room, and instead sat in the lounge.

"Senior brother Di, recently, that Chu Feng is truly getting famous."

"He first defeated the Four World Spiritist Emperors on Mount Cloud Crane, and became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist."

"Then, not long after that, he killed Ying Liangchen and became a wanted criminal with a great bounty that the Ying Heavenly Clan was determined to kill.”

“And now, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, those two relatively strong tier two powers, have actually joined hands to support that Chu Feng, and have even waged war against the Ying Heavenly Clan for him.”

“There have been rumors that Chu Feng will become the strongest genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm apart from Young Master Li Ming,” A disciple from the Highlord’s Mansion said.

“He is but trash. If he were to encounter our senior brother Di, he would definitely be beaten so badly by senior brother Di that he’d piss his pants in terror,” A female disciple said with contempt.

After that female disciple said those words, Di Jiuzhou laughed complacently. He said, “That’s to be expected.”

“Right, right, right. Regardless of how powerful that Chu Feng might be, if he is to encounter our senior brother Di, he will be nothing more than trash,” In response, the other disciples also began to kiss Di Jiuzhou’s ass.

Right at this moment, Wang Qiang walked over. With a beaming smile on his face, he turned to ask the woman who had insulted Chu Feng, “B-beauty, p-please e-excuse my interruption.”

“I have a q-question t-that I wish to ask you. I h-hope that it will not inconvenience you t-to answer.”

“What sort of question?” Although that woman was displeased by Wang Qiang’s arrival, she did not decline his request.

“D-do you k-know Chu Feng?” Wang Qiang asked.

“How could I know a guy like that?” The woman shook her head. She reacted as if Chu Feng was scum, that knowing him would decrease her own social status.

“T-then, h-have you met Chu Feng?” Wang Qiang continued to ask. He was smiling the entire time.

“No,” The woman shook her head once again.

“Then, w-what about you all?” Wang Qiang looked to the other disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion.

“No,” Those Highlord’s Mansion disciples all shook their heads.

“M-Motherfucker! S-since you all d-do not know C-Chu Feng, and h-have not met him, who t-the hell t-told you all that Chu Feng w-was trash?!”

Suddenly, Wang Qiang shouted loudly. At the same time, he flipped over the table.

Everything came too suddenly. This caused those people to be unable to dodge, and the food and drink splattered all over their bodies and clothes. This was the worst for that woman. Her relatively beautiful face was covered with vegetable soup. Pieces of vegetable leaf were also hanging on her head. Her appearance was truly sorry.

“Are you courting death?!” The woman shouted angrily. As she spoke, she took out her Incomplete Ancestral Armament with the intention of attacking Wang Qiang.

“Paa~~~”

However, Wang Qiang waved his sleeve, and a resounding slap landed on her face. The power of his slap was so strong that the woman was knocked flying away.

Before the others could react, Wang Qiang once again moved his hand. “Paa, paa, paa, paa,” resounding slaps sounded in succession. Other than Di Jiuzhou, the rest of the Highlord’s Mansion’s disciples present all received a resounding slap from Wang Qiang, and were knocked to the ground.

Finally, those people managed to react. However, at this moment, Wang Qiang had turned into a ray of light and flown out of the tavern.

“A-all of y-you, remember this c-carefully. T-this slap was g-given to you by y-your Grandda-daddy Qiang!”

Although Wang Qiang had left, his voice resounded like thunder. The tone of his voice was filled with mockery.

After his voice was heard, those disciples of the Highlord's Mansion were so furious that their faces turned green. However, not a single person dared to chase after Wang Qiang. Instead, they all turned their gazes to Di Jiuzhou.

The reason for that was because they realized that they were no match for Wang Qiang. At this moment, if they wanted revenge, their only hope would be their senior brother Di.

“Rest assured, he will definitely not be able to escape,” Di Jiuzhou smiled coldly. Then, he soared into the sky. A burst of strong wind arrived, and Di Jiuzhou disappeared.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The very next moment, explosions began to be heard from the direction where Wang Qiang had fled. Surging energy ripples were formed following the explosions. The sky had also changed in color.

Even though the location where the battle was happening was a certain distance away from here, the earth here was also trembling violently.

“That ignorant fool. He actually dared to attack us. Now he knows what sort of opponent he has provoked.”

“Humph, with senior brother Di here, he will definitely be beaten till he pisses his pants in terror.”

“A mere rank six Half Martial Ancestor dared to act all mighty before us? Before senior brother Di, he is nothing more than trash.

His only fate is to be beaten up.”

Those Highlord’s Mansion disciples that were beaten by Wang Qiang were all filled with confidence toward their senior brother Di. One by one, they started to mock Wang Qiang.

Merely, to their surprise, this battle did not end in the time frame they had expected it to end. Instead, the battle grew longer and longer. Furthermore, the intensity of the havoc wreaking the battlefield grew stronger and stronger.

“That stutterer couldn’t possibly be really capable of fighting against senior brother Di, right?”

At this moment, the confidence on the faces of the Highlord’s Mansion disciples was all gone, and was replaced with deep panic.

They were afraid, truly afraid. They were scared that Di Jiuzhou would be defeated by Wang Qiang.

If even Di Jiuzhou was defeated, none of them would be able to defeat Wang Qiang.

If that were to happen, their Highlord’s Mansion would suffer an enormous humiliation today.

Chapter 2312 – The Reveal Of The Answer

---

“That stutterer is actually that powerful?”

Panic. It was not only the disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion that started to panic; many of the bystanders also began to panic. This was especially true for the ones who had been speaking ill of Chu Feng in the tavern earlier. They hurriedly escaped from the tavern and hid themselves among the crowd, watching the battle from a distance.

They were afraid, afraid that Wang Qiang would return to take care of them should he defeat Di Jiuzhou.

Finally, after a long time, the rumbling started to quiet down, and the energy ripples began to wane. The dusky sky also gradually returned to its original appearance.

Although the battle had stopped, the crowd grew even more nervous. The reason for that was because they did not know exactly who had won and who had lost in this intense battle.

“Woosh~~~”

Finally, a figure flew back to the tavern.

Upon seeing this person, the disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion immediately started cheering. They were all beaming with happiness and filled with emotions.

The reason they reacted in such a manner was because the person who had returned was none other than their Highlord’s Mansion’s number one disciple, Di Jiuzhou.

At this moment, Di Jiuzhou’s body was emitting blue gaseous flames. Even his eyes had turned bright blue like sapphires.

As for his cultivation, it was no longer that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, but had instead increased to rank eight Half Martial Ancestor.

It was Divine Power; Di Jiuzhou was a Divine body. Furthermore, his battle power was very strong. As such, he was able to increase his cultivation by a level with his Divine Power.

However, this also indirectly displayed how powerful Wang Qiang was. If Wang Qiang wasn't powerful, he would not have forced Di Jiuzhou to unleash his Divine Power to increase his cultivation.

However, even with that being the case, the disciples of the Highlord's Mansion were still extremely glad. The reason for that was because Di Jiuzhou had not returned alone; he held a person in his hand.

That person was Wang Qiang.

At this moment, Wang Qiang was covered in blood. His aura was extremely weak. Like a dying pig, he was thrown to the ground by Di Jiuzhou.

"Your conical bamboo hat is a treasure. However, that is the only treasure you have on you."

Di Jiuzhou put Wang Qiang's conical bamboo hat into his Cosmos Sack. Although he said that was the only treasure that Wang Qiang had, he still put Wang Qiang's Cosmos Sack into his own Cosmos Sack.

"Speak! What sort of relationship do you have with that Chu Feng? Why are you speaking up for him?" Di Jiuzhou said to Wang Qiang.

"Y-you don't say! C-Chu Feng is m-my brother!" Wang Qiang said unyieldingly.

"That makes things simple then. Tell me where Chu Feng is," Di Jiuzhou grabbed Wang Qiang and lifted him up.

"I don't know," Wang Qiang said unyieldingly.

"You don't know?" As Di Jiuzhou spoke, he gave Wang Qiang a ruthless slap to the face.

That slap was so powerful that it not only knocked Wang Qiang to the ground, but also caused him to spray out a mouthful of blood. Furthermore, half of his face has been distorted by the slap.

“Don’t beat up my big brother!” Right at this moment, Xiaoshi rushed out. His arms were spread wide open as he stood before Wang Qiang.

“Yoh, so you have more accomplices,” Upon seeing Xiaoshi, Di Jiuzhou smiled coldly. He did not have any intentions of acting leniently.

“W-why did you c-come here? T-this is unrelated to you! Q-quickly, get aw-away,” Wang Qiang pushed Xiaoshi aside.

However, at this time, Di Jiuzhou extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. Immediately, a burst of attractive force spread out, and Xiaoshi was sucked into his grasp.

“You wish to clear your relationship with him? Did you take me for a fool?” Di Jiuzhou sneered as he looked to Wang Qiang.

“A-aim w-what you want t-toward me. Do not h-harm the innocent,” Wang Qiang said.

“Yoh, I truly couldn’t tell that you were actually a man of steel. Very well. I’ll agree to your request. As long as you kneel down before me and kowtow to admit your mistake, I will release him,” Di Jiuzhou said.

“Tsk, a-and here I was wondering what y-you would a-ask of me. S-so it’s only t-that. P-piece of cake,” Wang Qiang smiled and stood up with great difficulty. Then, before the crowd, with a ‘putt,’ he kneeled before Di Jiuzhou.

After that, Wang Qiang kowtowed his head to the ground resoundingly ten times in succession. Then, he said, “Great hero, I-I-I h-have eyes, but f-failed to see Mount Tai. I w-was wrong. P-Please, spare t-that little guy.”

Everything happened too quickly. Even though Wang Qiang had a calm expression, the crowd present were at a complete loss for words, and began to feel uncomfortable all around.

From Wang Qiang's behavior earlier, he had truly resembled a tough and unyielding man of steel. Thus, how could he kneel just like this?

Could it be that he was truly that kindhearted, truly kneeled for the sake of saving that little child?

However, that shouldn't be the case. While others might not know about it, the people in the tavern all knew that the little boy was unrelated to Wang Qiang, that they had met one another in the tavern.

Could it be that the unyielding character this guy had displayed earlier was a complete pretense? Could it be that he was actually a weak-minded individual, and that this was who he actually was?

"So you're nothing more than a coward," Di Jiuzhou laughed mockingly. However, he kept his promise and released Xiaoshi.

However, Di Jiuzhou did not plan to spare Wang Qiang. He walked over to Wang Qiang and grabbed his head. He said, "Since you are a coward, I'll give you another chance. Loudly declare that Chu Feng is trash and I'll spare you."

"Hahaha..." Hearing those words, Wang Qiang opened his mouth and burst into loud laughter. However, who would've thought that Wang Qiang's expression would suddenly change? Then, a 'pah' was heard as a mouthful of spit sprayed out from Wang Qiang's mouth.

The distance between the two men was truly too close. As such, that Di Jiuzhou simply did not have the time to dodge. Thus, that spit landed directly on Di Jiuzhou's face.

"Chu Feng is y-your granddaddy!!!"

"N-not even a hundred of you c-could compare to my one brother!”

After Wang Qiang sprayed out his spit, he stood up angrily, held his fist and smashed it toward Di Jiuzhou.

“You are truly courting death!” Di Jiuzhou had managed to react. He felt the spit on his face and became furious. His killing intent began to soar.

His body shifted as he dodged Wang Qiang’s fist. Then, he shot forth a punch, knocking Wang Qiang flying.

“F-fucking hell! T-today, your g-granddaddy will d-definitely eliminate you!”

Wang Qiang stood up with great difficulty. However, he had already lost the strength to continue fighting. However, even with that being the case, he did not plan to give up, and wanted to continue to fight against Di Jiuzhou.

“Since you want to die, I shall help you accomplish your aim,” Di Jiuzhou also moved toward Wang Qiang while fuming with rage. He raised his hand and slapped the extremely weak Wang Qiang, knocking him to the ground. Then, he began to ruthlessly kick Wang Qiang.

However, this time around, even though Wang Qiang was beaten completely bloody and mutilated beyond recognition, he only clenched his teeth and did not beg for forgiveness in the slightest.

.....

Chu Feng had no idea what Wang Qiang was going through right now. At this moment, he had already arrived at the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.

On their way there, Her Lady Queen asked, “Chu Feng, do you really think what that boy said to be true?”

“I have observed that boy carefully. I did not find anything special regarding him. As such, I am unable to be certain whether or not he is lying.”

“However, I still feel what he said to be the truth. If a reason must be given, then I guess you could call it intuition,” Chu Feng said.

“Okay then. It won’t hurt to try,” Her Lady Queen said.

Although the location that Chu Feng was proceeding toward was located in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds, it was at the edge of the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. Thus, he reached his destination not long after entering.

Furthermore, Chu Feng soon discovered that tree.

While it was true that that tree could not be considered to be a special sort of variety of tree in this region, and would not attract attention from others, that tree was actually the only tree like the one drawn by the little boy in this place.

This caused Chu Feng to feel a great sense of confidence in the boy’s words.

“It seems that boy really didn’t deceive you,” Seeing that tree, Her Lady Queen became much more confident.

“We will soon know whether what he said is true or false,” Chu Feng said with a light smile.

He was waiting, waiting for the appointed time with the demonic woman.

At that time, the answer would be revealed.

Chapter 2313 – Raging Flames Of Anger

---

Finally, the time arrived. Chu Feng, who had been waiting in front of the tree, immediately began engraving the spirit formation symbol onto the tree. He finished the engraving at the same appointed time he and Zhao Hong had agreed upon.

“Buzz~~~”

After the engraving of the spirit formation symbol was complete, the tree started to emit a faint flickering light. Soon, a spirit formation gate opened up below the tree.

The spirit formation gate was not very deep, and did not cut off one’s line of sight. Thus, Chu Feng was able to see what was inside the spirit formation gate using the naked eye.

Inside the spirit formation gate was a spirit formation. It was a very powerful spirit formation, so powerful that Chu Feng did not feel that he would be able to break through it. In fact, it was not only Chu Feng who would not be able to break through it; he felt that no one with a cultivation of Martial Ancestor or below would be able to break through it. In fact, he felt that it would be impossible even for ordinary True Immortals.

However, at this moment, that spirit formation was slowly opening. After it opened, two cloaks appeared before Chu Feng.

“It seemed that Xiaoshi did not deceive us.”

Chu Feng retrieved the two cloaks, and was immediately overjoyed.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was able to tell that those two cloaks were amazingly powerful merely by looking at them.

If Chu Feng were to wear one of the cloaks now, he would not appear to be unusual at all.

However, Chu Feng was able to tell that as long as he was at a special location, these cloaks would produce an extraordinary effect.

These cloaks were custom-made treasures. Their effects would only activate when they were worn at special locations.

As for this, it fully verified that Xiaoshi had not deceived Chu Feng. After all, Xiaoshi had stated that the cloaks would allow one to evade traps and conceal one's self when worn into Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants.

Her Lady Queen had a pensive expression on her face as she asked, "Exactly what is the origin of that little fellow? How did he know about these sorts of secrets?"

"We will find the answer to that just by asking about him when we return," After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he soared into the sky and began to fly back toward the tavern.

As for the tree, Chu Feng did not bother with it. The reason for that was because after he removed the two cloaks, the spirit formation closed by itself. Even the spirit formation symbol he had engraved onto the tree disappeared. The tree had completely returned to its original appearance.

Furthermore, the most precious items hidden underneath the tree, those two cloaks, were already obtained by Chu Feng. Even if someone were to find that tree and break through the spirit formation, they would only return empty-handed.

As Chu Feng flew, he soon arrived outside the tavern. Merely, the appearance of the scene outside the tavern immediately froze the joyous expression on Chu Feng's face. In its place was worry and anger.

A lot of people were gathered outside the tavern. It was as if they were watching a show.

However, those people naturally did not notice Chu Feng's expression. The reason why Chu Feng had this sort of expression was because he saw Wang Qiang.

At this moment, Wang Qiang was being suspended upside down in midair by a spirit formation. On his bare chest was a large character written using blood, 'trash.'

As for Wang Qiang himself, he had already lost consciousness. However, blood was still flowing from his body nonstop. It rolled down his cheeks to his hair before finally dripping onto the ground.

"Damn it!"

Chu Feng hurriedly landed from the sky. He cut the grand formation open and rescued Wang Qiang. Then, he immediately set up a healing formation to heal Wang Qiang's injuries.

"Who dares destroy my spirit formation?!"

Right after the spirit formation was cut through by Chu Feng, a loud shout was heard. Following that, a large group of people rushed out. These were all disciples from the Highlord's Mansion. They were led by none other than Di Jiuzhou.

"It's actually you, coward?!"

Upon seeing that it was Chu Feng, the people from the Highlord's Mansion were all surprised. At the same time, they revealed disappointed expressions.

In fact, it was not only the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion that were disappointed, the surrounding crowd also revealed disappointed expressions.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng's outfit was completely the same as when he had left. Thus, many people recognized him.

The crowd all knew very well that Chu Feng had been with Wang Qiang. However, earlier, the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion had provoked him so openly earlier, yet he had chosen to move out of their way.

This caused the crowd to have a label for Chu Feng in their hearts, the label of being a coward.

Thus, if it were someone else that came to save Wang Qiang, the crowd would be looking forward to another spectacular show.

However, as it was Chu Feng, the crowd were all very disappointed. They did not feel that this cowardly fellow would be able to set off any sort of storm.

“Sigh~~~”

Suddenly, sighs could be heard from the crowd all around.

“Was my brother injured by you?”

Chu Feng completely ignored the crowd’s gazes of disappointment. Instead, he looked directly to Di Jiuzhou.

The reason for that was because he knew that only Di Jiuzhou possessed the ability to injure Wang Qiang like this.

“I am the one who injured him, what about it?” Di Jiuzhou smiled with contempt. He completely did not place Chu Feng in his eyes.

Chu Feng’s brows narrowed. Killing intent surged in his eyes as anger filled his entire body.

He said, “Those who dare injure my brother will die!!!”

“Sssss~~~”

Once those words were said, many of the people present were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Although they did not feel that Chu Feng would be a match for the people from the Highlord’s Mansion, they, for some unknown reason, felt a bone-chilling coldness from Chu Feng’s words.

“Quite an arrogant tone you have there. However, the ones who will die today will be the two of you,” Di Jiuzhou said coldly.

However, right at this moment, the man who had provoked Chu Feng earlier stepped out and said to Di Jiuzhou, “Senior brother Di, there’s no need for you to personally take care of this trash. Allow me to take care of him for you.”

“Brat, I already spared you earlier for blocking our path. Never would I have expected that you would dare to return. This time around, I will not spare you.”

“Boom~~~”

Right after he said those words, that man turned into a flash of light and flew toward Chu Feng.

At the same time, he openly revealed his might of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. Surging winds formed. He was so mighty that he caused the surrounding crowd’s eyes to shine.

At this moment, everyone felt that Chu Feng would be out of luck.

At this moment, that man’s fist was already flying toward Chu Feng’s face. What he had in mind was the same as what the crowd thought he would do; he wanted to ruthlessly teach Chu Feng a lesson to show off his ability.

However, he was not only planning to simply teach Chu Feng a lesson. Beating Chu Feng up was merely part of what he planned to do to Chu Feng. His ultimate purpose was to kill Chu Feng. Only by doing so would he be able to reveal how mighty he was.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right when he had all of his plans ready, at the moment when his fist was already shot forth, his expression suddenly changed.

The reason for that was because he was shocked to discover that his fist that should have beaten Chu Feng bloody and knocked him thousands of meters away was actually easily dodged by Chu Feng.

‘How could this be?’

‘This trash?’

‘This coward?’

‘How could he dodge my punch?’

At this moment, astonishment filled that man’s heart. He was completely puzzled by what was happening.

“Pow~~~”

“Wuu~~~”

The very next moment, that man was stunned. The reason for that was because he felt that his throat was locked, and a surging burst of energy was penetrating into his body, wreaking havoc in the process. As that energy wreaked havoc in his body, he lost all ability to fight back.

“This!!!”

In fact, it was not only this man who was stunned. Practically everyone present was stunned.

The reason for that was because they were seeing Chu Feng grabbing that man by his neck. At this moment, Chu Feng had already lifted that man high into the air.

At this moment, that previously overwhelming disciple of the Highlord’s Mansion was like a small sheep in the grasp of a tiger.

Grabbed by Chu Feng and lifted into the air, he was unable to even fight back.

However, they were both rank five Half Martial Ancestors. As such, how could Chu Feng be this powerful?

Chapter 2314 – Emperor Taboo: Highlord's Seal

---

“Heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation!!!” An experienced and knowledgeable old man among the crowd shouted.

“What? He actually possesses a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation?”

Upon hearing those words, the crowd came to a sudden realization as to why Chu Feng was able to easily defeat that Highlord's Mansion's disciple even though they were both rank five Half Martial Ancestors.

A heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, that was no ordinary heaven-defying battle power.

Thus, upon knowing Chu Feng's strength, the crowd had a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng. Once again, they revealed gazes of reverence.

In fact, many people started to feel lingering fear over the fact that they had insulted Chu Feng earlier due to their ignorance. They were afraid that Chu Feng would find them for retaliation.

“Heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation? The two of you both possess quite decent battle power. Unfortunately, your cultivations are too weak,” Di Jiuzhou smiled indifferently. Compared to the others, he remained completely calm.

“Release my junior brother immediately, then kneel and beg for forgiveness. If you are to do that, I can consider sparing your life,” Di Jiuzhou ordered Chu Feng.

Although his tone was very arrogant, the crowd did not feel that Di Jiuzhou was boasting.

After all, Di Jiuzhou's cultivation was before them, and his strength was also present to them. Even if Chu Feng possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, even if Chu Feng was a rank five Half Martial Ancestor, the crowd still did not think that Chu Feng would be Di Jiuzhou's match.

However, right at this moment when everyone felt that this battle would end with Chu Feng's defeat, Chu Feng made an action that stunned the crowd.

Chu Feng suddenly tightened his grip. Then, with a muffled 'bang,' the Highlord's Mansion's disciple that he had grabbed exploded and splattered everywhere. He was completely dead.

"You!!!"

"You dare kill someone from our Highlord's Mansion?!"

At this moment, the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion all revealed dumbstruck expressions. While they were furious, they were more astonished.

They truly never expected that Chu Feng would actually dare to kill their fellow disciple. After all, the person who Chu Feng had killed was a core disciple of the Highlord's Mansion, one of their management elder's personal disciples. Chu Feng's killing of him was equivalent to him stating that he would make an enemy of the Highlord's Mansion.

However, Chu Feng's expression remained unchanged after killing that man.

With a cold voice, he said, "I am able to tolerate those who humiliate me, Chu Feng."

"However, I absolutely will not spare those that humiliate my brother!"

"Boom~~~"

Once Chu Feng said those words, the crowd were all startled. Some people even felt as if their heads were exploding. They were truly shocked.

It was not that they were cowards. Rather, Chu Feng's reputation was truly too renowned.

He was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, an exceptional genius.

Most importantly, he was someone who dared to kill even Ying Liangchen.

"You said that you are Chu Feng?" At this moment, even Di Jiuzhou had a change in expression. The gaze with which he looked to Chu Feng turned serious.

"Precisely," As Chu Feng spoke, he removed his conical bamboo hat and put it away in his Cosmos Sack.

"It really is him?!"

Upon seeing Chu Feng's actual appearance, the already alarmed crowd were shocked shivering.

The reason for that was because the Ying Heavenly Clan had already publicly displayed Chu Feng's portrait to the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Practically everyone knew what Chu Feng looked like.

Upon thinking that the person before them was truly that malignant star who dared to kill even Ying Liangchen, how could the crowd not be scared?

Not to mention the others, the complexions of even the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion had turned pale. Involuntarily, they took several steps back. Not to mention strength, merely Chu Feng's past achievements were already enough to cause them fear.

"Hahaha!!!"

Right at the moment when the great majority of the people were frightened by Chu Feng, that Di Jiuzhou burst into loud laughter.

“Very well. Chu Feng, the person that I am searching for is none other than you,” As Di Jiuzhou spoke, he unleashed his Divine Power. Immediately, his cultivation increased from rank seven Half Martial Ancestor to rank eight Half Martial Ancestor. At the same time, he also revealed his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation.

At this moment, Di Jiuzhou’s actual battle power was on par with ordinary rank one Martial Ancestors.

Even though Di Jiuzhou was not afraid of Chu Feng, he had unleashed his full strength from the very beginning.

The reason for that was because he knew that Chu Feng was a wielder of a Heavenly Bloodline. His true strength was most definitely not as simple as the rank five Half Martial Ancestor cultivation he was currently displaying.

“Zzzzz~”

Right at this moment, Chu Feng unleashed both his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. In an instant, Chu Feng’s cultivation increased from rank five Half Martial Ancestor to rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, Chu Feng completely revealed his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

The current Chu Feng was the same as Di Jiuzhou. His true battle power was on par with ordinary rank one Martial Ancestors.

“Crash~”

Sensing the aura being emitted by the two men, the bystanders immediately soared into the sky and escaped far away.

Even though Chu Feng and Di Jiuzhou’s cultivations were only those of Half Martial Ancestors, everyone felt that they were no longer ordinary Half Martial Ancestors. After all, the two of them possessed strength comparable to that of ordinary rank one Martial Ancestors.

Although they might still not be able to beat rank one Martial Ancestors, they were already capable of fighting against rank one Martial Ancestors without immediately dying.

A battle between people like them was not something that the crowd could bear to watch at a close distance. Even when watching from afar, they must maintain their distance.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at this moment, ear-piercing rumbles were heard. Chu Feng and Di Jiuzhou had started fighting.

Immediately, powerful energy ripples soon engulfed their surroundings.

Those with a low level of cultivation were unable to escape in time, and were engulfed by the energy ripples. Those that were lucky were blown away, whereas those that were unlucky ended up being seriously injured.

As for that tavern formed with a spirit formation, it was completely razed to the ground.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The rumbles grew more and more ear-piercing. It was as if ten thousand thunderbolts were striking. The energy ripples grew more and more powerful. It was as if they would destroy the entire region.

“What do we do? That Chu Feng is too powerful. Senior brother Di will likely not be a match for him. We should quickly return to find reinforcements,” At this moment, the disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion started to panic. Finding reinforcements was merely an excuse. They actually just wanted to flee.

“Can you all not act with some integrity? Right now, senior brother Di is fighting a bloody battle against that Chu Feng. How could we flee at a time like this?” Another disciple from the Highlord’s Mansion said.

“Rest assured, senior brother Di will definitely be able to defeat Chu Feng. Do not forget that our senior brother Di is the strongest genius among the tier two powers.”

“There’s only those couple geniuses in the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that could contend against senior brother Di. Furthermore, those geniuses are all the super geniuses of the tier one powers.”

“You all couldn’t possibly be thinking that this Chu Feng, who has an unidentified origin and might be a bastard child from a Heavenly Clan, will really be able to compare with the tier one powers’ super geniuses, right?” A female disciple said.

She was the person who had declared Chu Feng to be a trash and received a slap from Wang Qiang.

“That’s true. We should be confident in senior brother Di,” After hearing what that female disciple said, the disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion grew confident again.

“Roar~~~”

Right at this moment, a strange roar sounded from Chu Feng and Di Jiuzhou’s battlefield.

Turning toward the direction of the crowd, toward that region covered with energy ripples, a strange purple light could be seen. At the same time, an enormously powerful aura began to be emitted.

“Look! That is our Highlord’s Mansion’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, the Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal!!!”

“Heavens! Senior brother Di, he... he actually managed to successfully master the Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal!”

“Haha, this is truly great. That Chu Feng is truly unlucky to have encountered our senior brother Di.”

At this moment, the disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion all revealed overjoyed expressions. As disciples of the Highlord's Mansion, they knew very well how powerful the Emperor Taboo: Highlord's Seal was.

In their Highlord's Mansion, there was a saying: 'The Highlord's Seal is unequalled in this world.'

Chapter 2315 – The Mansion Master Of The Highlord's Mansion

---

“It’s actually the legendary Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal?”

Upon hearing the shouts from the disciples of the Highlord’s Mansion, the others came to understand what exactly those boundlessly imposing purple gaseous flames were.

As for the Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal, it was truly renowned for its might, and could even be considered the strongest Emperor Taboo Martial Skill from the Highlord’s Mansion. Thus, upon knowing that what Di Jiuzhou had used was the Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal, the crowd was filled with endless shock.

At this moment, a seemingly experienced and knowledgeable old man said, “The Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal is extremely powerful. Very few Emperor Taboo Martial Skills will be able to match its might.”

“Chu Feng and Di Jiuzhou possess the same level of battle power. Yet, Di Jiuzhou has used such a powerful martial skill. It would appear that the outcome of this battle has been determined. It will be Chu Feng’s loss.”

Once the old man’s words were heard, the surrounding crowd all nodded in agreement.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right at this moment, a loud explosion was heard as an overwhelming might instantly smashed the purple gaseous flames apart.

Not only that, the surging energy ripples that covered the battlefield were also dispersed by that attack.

“Heavens! That is?!!!”

At this moment, the expressions of the crowd present all changed.

The reason for that was because they were able to see the figures of Chu Feng and Di Jiuzhou after the energy ripples were dispersed.

At this moment, Chu Feng had the exact same appearance as before. His body was still covered in that majestic Thunder Armor.

However, as for Di Jiuzhou, his Divine Power was no longer present. Like a loose kite, he was falling from the sky.

“Defeated! Di Jiuzhou is the one who was defeated!”

The disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion all had dejected expressions. The surrounding crowd were all stunned. The reason for that was because this result was something that none of them had expected. As such, they were unable to contain their shock.

The one that was defeated was Di Jiuzhou, the strongest genius among tier two powers.

Furthermore, everyone knew that Di Jiuzhou’s reputation as the strongest genius among the tier two powers was well-deserved. He had used his strength to defeat countless geniuses to obtain that reputation.

However, a genius like him was actually defeated. Furthermore, he was defeated after unleashing the extremely powerful Emperor Taboo: Highlord’s Seal.

Wouldn’t this mean that Chu Feng had defeated the Highlord’s Mansion’s strongest Emperor Taboo Martial Skill?

“Buzz~~~”

Right at the moment when Di Jiuzhou was about to fall onto the surface, his body started to float back up.

A strange power started to emit from his body. When that power appeared, the unconscious Di Jiuzhou actually regained consciousness.

“Puu~~~”

After waking up, Di Jiuzhou sprayed out a mouthful of black blood. To be exact, what he vomited from his mouth did not resemble blood, and instead resembled a sort of special substance.

However, when that liquid was vomited from his mouth, Di Jiuzhou's complexion actually improved. At the very least, he no longer appeared to be on the verge of dying as he had earlier.

Soon, that special power began to gather in one location. Then, it took form.

“It's Lord Mansion Master!!!”

Upon seeing that figure the power formed, the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion who had dejected expressions on their faces were immediately wild with joy.

As disciples of the Highlord's Mansion, they were able to recognize with a single glance that the figure standing before Di Jiuzhou was their Highlord's Mansion's Lord Mansion Master.

Although that figure was the Mansion Master of the Highlord's Mansion, Chu Feng did not show any fear. The reason for that was because Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that that figure was nothing more than an image that did not contain any battle power.

“Little friend, might you be Chu Feng?” When the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master saw Chu Feng, he started to frown.

If it were someone else, he would begin to threaten them. After all, with the reputation and might of their Highlord's Mansion, he would be able to easily scare whoever it might be witless.

However, this Chu Feng was someone that was extremely renowned right now. He was well known to be someone that should not be provoked, someone that threats were useless towards.

Thus, when the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master saw Chu Feng, he immediately realized that the situation at hand was very thorny.

"Precisely," Although Chu Feng answered calmly, the killing intent in his eyes did not decrease in the slightest.

This caused the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master to feel nervous. He was even more certain now that the Chu Feng before him was very hard to deal with.

"Little friend Chu Feng, it is a pleasure to meet you. This old man is the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master. I am also Di Jiuzhou's master."

"May I know what sort of grievance you might have with my disciple that caused you to want to kill him?" The Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master asked.

"He injured my brother," As Chu Feng spoke, he took a glance downward. Down below was Wang Qiang, protected by his spirit formation.

Although Wang Qiang's injuries were much better now, and he was nearly completely healed, the word 'trash' written with blood on his bare chest was still present.

Seeing this scene, the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master started to frown. The reason for that was because he could tell by the handwriting that the word 'trash' was written by Di Jiuzhou.

"Jiuzhou, what is going on? Why did you injure little friend Chu Feng's friend?" The Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master turned to question Di Jiuzhou with a stern expression.

"D-don't bother a-asking him. I-it's better t-that I e-e-explain it to you," Suddenly, a voice containing anger sounded from below.

It was Wang Qiang. Not only had Wang Qiang woken up, he also broke through Chu Feng's protective formation and soared into the sky. In the end, he arrived beside Chu Feng.

“Cough, cough, cough...” However, it remained that Wang Qiang’s injuries were not completely healed. After arriving beside Chu Feng, he coughed a couple times, and even coughed blood.

“Wang Qiang, you’re not completely healed yet. Just let me handle this,” Chu Feng said in a deeply concerned manner.

“I-it’s fine,” Wang Qiang smiled. Then, he wiped away the blood at the corner of his mouth and looked to the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master.

He said, “Y-y-y-you wish to k-know what happened? I’ll t-tell you what happened.”

“I’ll l-let you k-know w-whether what your d-disciple did is r-reasonable or not.”

“I w-was e-eating in the t-tavern. W-when my brother l-left the t-tavern, he j-just so happened to r-run into y-your disciples. W-with how w-wide that g-gate is, t-they were clearly capable of walking by one a-another simultaneously.”

“Yet, your d-disciples insisted on m-making my b-brother move aside. As m-my brother had a m-matter at hand that h-he had to take care of, he d-decided to not fuss w-with them, and moved aside.”

“O-originally, this matter s-should have been settled with that. Y-yet, your d-disciples actually started to s-speak ill of my brother a-after he had left, calling him t-trash by name.”

“I w-was unable t-to tolerate t-their actions, and t-thus gave all o-of them a slap e-each. I a-admit that I was t-the one who s-struck first. However, Di Jiuzhou also injured me, seriously in-injured me.”

“A-afterward, Di Jiuzhou u-used Xiaoshi to th-threaten me to kneel and to a-apologize to him. F-for Xiaoshi’s safety, I did as he said.”

“You really kneeled?” Chu Feng looked to Wang Qiang in astonishment.

“Not o-only did I kneel, I a-also kowtowed to h-him. Brother, i-if you were i-in my place, you w-would also have d-done what I did. A-afterall, Xiaoshi’s little life w-was in that Di Jiu-Jiuzhou’s hands,” Wang Qiang said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng asked no more. At this moment, Chu Feng’s feelings were indescribable with mere words.

He looked to Di Jiuzhou again. This time around, the killing intent in his eyes grew even more intense.

“L-logically, as I conceded, t-this matter s-should have been over.”

“Yet, y-your disciple r-refused to let me go, and i-insisted on h-having me d-declare my brother to b-be trash.”

“He w-wanted me to i-insult my brother. N-naturally, I, Wang Qiang did not agree to it. Not o-only did I not say it, I instead t-turned to attack him. B-b-but, I am no m-match for him. That is w-why I w-was beaten like a-a dog by him.”

“However, he d-did not kill me. Instead, h-he only insulted me. His i-intentions were very simple. A-anyone w-with a discerning eye w-would be able to tell.”

“He w-was merely s-seeking the Ying H-heavenly Clan’s r-rewards, and w-wanted to u-use me to l-lure my brother out.”

“Then, he would u-use my brother’s head to o-obtain the re-reward from the Ying Heavenly Clan.”

“T-that’s what ha-happened. If y-you are a person of principle, y-you should know h-how to handle this,” Wang Qiang said coldly.

Chapter 2316 – Loyal And Righteous

---

“Don’t you blabber nonsense! It was clearly you who attacked me first!” Di Jiuzhou refuted.

“That’s right, it was that stutterer who attacked us first. As for that Chu Feng, he even killed senior brother Ma,” The disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion cried out in grievance.

“I e-even said t-that it was me w-who attacked first. H-however, w-what I have said is all t-true. I-if you d-don’t trust me, g-go ahead and a-ask them. T-they a-all saw what h-happened,” Wang Qiang pointed to the bystanders.

“Even if what you say is the truth, it remains that Chu Feng has killed senior brother Ma.”

“Lord Mansion Master, you must avenge senior brother Ma, you must obtain justice for us,” The Highlord’s Mansion’s disciples started to plead to their Mansion Master. It was as if they were truly the victims.

However, at this moment, the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master actually turned around and shouted angrily at those disciples, “All of you, shut up!”

The disciples of the Highlord’s Mansion were all bewildered by that shout.

Originally, they thought that the appearance of their Lord Mansion Master would mean that he would obtain justice for them. Never did they expect that their Lord Mansion Master would not only not immediately take care of that Chu Feng, and would instead become angry at them.

Exactly what was going on?

At this time when the Highlord’s Mansion’s disciples were puzzled, the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master was cursing in his heart.

As Di Jiuzhou's master, he knew best what sort of character his disciple and the others had. He did not doubt what Wang Qiang said at all. He knew very well that was indeed something that Di Jiuzhou and the others would do.

Thus, he simply did not care who was in the right and who was in the wrong in this matter. After all, as he had appeared, he would naturally be planning to help Di Jiuzhou and the other disciples from his Highlord's Mansion.

However, the main problem was...

His appearance was not his actual body at all. Instead, it was only an image. Although he appeared to be very powerful, his image did not contain any actual destructive power.

Unfortunately, his foolish Highlord's Mansion's disciples were simply unable to tell, and even wanted him to take care of Chu Feng for them by pretending to be wronged.

Furthermore, what made him the most depressed was that even though his Highlord's Mansion's disciples were unable to tell, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang seemed to have seen through all of it.

In this sort of situation, the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master had no choice but to politely turn to ask Wang Qiang, "Little friend, may I know your distinguished name?"

Being asked by the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master in such a polite manner, not only were the disciples of the Highlord's Mansion shocked, even the bystanders were extremely shocked.

Exactly what was going on? Chu Feng had already killed a disciple of their Highlord's Mansion. Why would the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Head not directly kill them, and instead question Wang Qiang this politely?

They who did not know the truth were unable to understand why this was happening.

"I h-have b-but o-one name and o-one name o-only. I a-am Wang Qiang,” Wang Qiang said.

“Little friend Wang Qiang, little friend Chu Feng, it was the disciples of our Highlord’s Mansion who were in the wrong. However, it remains that little friend Chu Feng has already killed one of our Highlord’s Mansion’s disciples.”

“In this world, one’s life is the most valuable thing. However, as it was indeed our Highlord’s Mansion that was in the wrong to begin with, we will not bicker with you regarding this. I suggest that we drop this matter at this point. Might the two of you be willing to accept this?” The Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master said.

“Drop? He actually proposed to drop the matter?”

“Heavens! The Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master is actually suing for peace?”

Hearing those words, the bystanders were even more shocked. Whispers began to be heard from the crowd.

“Drop? Haha...” However, at the moment when the crowd were all puzzled, Chu Feng burst into laughter. His laughter was filled with mockery.

“Little friend Chu Feng, no matter what, it remains that you have killed a disciple of our Highlord’s Mansion. Could it be that you’re not satisfied with dropping this matter?”

It remains that the Highlord’s Mansion’s Master Master was the Mansion Master of the Highlord’s Mansion. Thus, even when suing for peace, he could not appear too petty and low. Seeing that Chu Feng seemed to be unwilling to accept his request, for the sake of preserving his image, he finally revealed a trace of displeasure on his face filled with smiles.

“If it wasn’t for the fact that your disciple was no match for me.”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that you are but an image right now, and do not possess actual strength.”

“Would you still drop the matter?”

“In the end, you merely want to use this sort of method to save your disciple’s life.”

“And, if I were to drop this matter today, how can I be certain that you will really leave the matter at that in the future?” Chu Feng said with a sneer. He simply did not believe the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master, and did not have any intention to drop the matter.

“What? An image?”

“No wonder. No wonder the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master did not directly attack Chu Feng and that stutterer. So he was only an image, and he simply does not possess the ability to do anything to them.”

After hearing what the crowd said, the surrounding people came to a sudden realization.

The disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion also realized the situation they were in. When they discovered that their respected Lord Mansion Master was only an image and was simply unable to actually help them, they once again started to panic.

“Hah. Little friend Chu Feng, I know that you’re an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. However, are you really certain that I am only an image?”

“If I am not an image, you should know what the consequences will be if you are to attack my disciple.”

The Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master revealed a cold yet confident smile.

He was gambling. It was his final gambit. He was gambling that Chu Feng was unable to be completely certain that he was only an image. He was trying to scare Chu Feng off with threats.

“I do not have the time to bother with superfluous words with you,” Chu Feng snorted impatiently. Then, he clenched the Magma Emperor Sword in his hand and began to walk toward Di Jiuzhou one step at a time.

“Chu Feng, exactly what are you planning to do?”

Standing before Di Jiuzhou, the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master was unable to do anything as Chu Feng walked toward Di Jiuzhou. At this moment, the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master started to panic.

“I already said it earlier. Those who dare to injure my brother will die!!!” Chu Feng said coldly. His resolute gaze seemed to indicate that no one would be able to change his decision, that no one would be able to save Di Jiuzhou.

“Chu Feng, if you dare to kill my disciple, this old man will definitely not spare you,” Seeing that Chu Feng actually dared to disregard him like this, the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master started to gnash his teeth in anger.

“Step~~~”

Once the Highlord’s Mansion’s Mansion Master said those words, Chu Feng finally stopped his footsteps.

“Could it be that Chu Feng is finally scared?”

Seeing that Chu Feng had stopped, the disciples from the Highlord’s Mansion heaved a sigh of relief.

However, who would’ve thought that right at this moment, Chu Feng’s lips would lift into a cold smile? He said, “I have heard countless threats like that my entire life.”

“However, my answer remains unchanged.”

“Those who dare to injure my brothers will die.”

As Chu Feng said those words, the Magma Emperor Sword in his hand turned into a blaze. Like a flame dragon, it soared toward Di Jiuzhou.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. Then, the fire dragon shattered the body of the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master, proving to the crowd that it was only an image.

“Boom~~~”

Following that, another loud explosion was heard. As that explosion was heard, blood splattered all over the sky.

It was Di Jiuzhou. Di Jiuzhou's body had been smashed to pieces. Not even his soul remained. He had been completely killed by Chu Feng.

“Killed! He really killed Di Jiuzhou!!!”

“Heavens! That is the Highlord's Mansion's number one disciple, an exceptional genius!!!”

At this moment, the surrounding crowd were all tongue-tied and dumbstruck. Even though they had all heard of Chu Feng's reputation, when they saw him doing such a thing with their own eyes, they still felt extremely disbelief.

After all, the person that Chu Feng had killed was the Highlord's Mansion's number one disciple, the strongest genius among the tier two powers' disciples. Furthermore, Chu Feng had killed him even after the Highlord's Mansion's Mansion Master personally spoke to request him to stop. His methods were simply too overbearing.

At the same time when the crowd were astonished by how overbearing Chu Feng was, they involuntarily looked to Wang Qiang.

The reason for that was because they knew very well that Chu Feng had not killed Di Jiuzhou for himself. Rather, it was for Wang Qiang.

This caused the crowd to feel deeply moved. At the same time, they were astonished by how fearless and courageous Chu Feng was.

They were moved by Chu Feng's righteousness and loyalty.

Chapter 2317 – The Mysterious Xiaoshi

---

“Brother, these are yours.”

Although Chu Feng had killed Di Jiuzhou, he kept his Cosmos Sack and his many treasures.

Not only did Chu Feng return Wang Qiang’s possessions to him, he also split half of Di Jiuzhou’s treasures and handed them to Wang Qiang.

“Hehe... y-you’re g-giving me these?”

“W-with this m-many t-treasures, if I-I were to re-refuse them, y-you would be mad, right?” As Wang Qiang looked to those treasures, he smiled very happily.

It was not that Wang Qiang was a greedy individual. Rather, Di Jiuzhou truly possessed an enormous amount of treasures on him. Even for Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, he possessed over twenty of them. Furthermore, they were all high quality ones.

Apart from the Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, there were a lot more treasures. Although that Di Jiuzhou’s world spirit techniques were not very strong, there were many precious world spiritist treasures among his treasures.

Apart from those, there were a lot more treasures.

“If you don’t want them, I wouldn’t force you,” Chu Feng smiled and made to retrieve the treasures.

“Don’t, don’t, don’t. I-it’s better that we split t-them,” In response, Wang Qiang hurriedly pulled Chu Feng’s hand back. Furthermore, he took the initiative to place the treasures Chu Feng held into his Cosmos Sack.

Chu Feng smiled at this scene. Wealth was but mere worldly possessions. Since he was willing to take out those items, it meant that he was prepared to split them with Wang Qiang. His decision to deliberately take them back earlier was only a joke. He had never really planned to take them back.

As for Wang Qiang, Chu Feng felt that his humiliation was inseparably linked to himself. As such, Chu Feng felt that he owed Wang Qiang. Seeing that Wang Qiang was able to be this happy, Chu Feng felt a lot more comfortable.

Right at this moment, Her Lady Queen's voice sounded. "Chu Feng, don't spare those people from the Highlord's Mansion. This Queen also wants their source energies."

Chu Feng turned around and discovered that the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion were currently fleeing.

Speaking of it, it was quite amusing. These Highlord's Mansion's disciples actually didn't know how to flee in different directions. They were actually gathered together.

At this moment, their stupidity was completely revealed.

"A bunch that only knows how to bully the weak and fears the strong," Chu Feng shook his head. Then, killing intent once again emerged in his eyes.

"Woosh~~~"

Chu Feng's body shifted. Immediately, a ray of lightning flashed through the sky. In merely a blink of an eye, Chu Feng managed to catch up to the Highlord's Mansion's disciples. He stood before them, blocking their path.

His boundless oppressive might swept forth, engulfing the disciples of the Highlord's Mansion. Immediately, those disciples lost the strength to continue fleeing.

When they discovered that Chu Feng had blocked their path, their expressions turned ashen. They were so scared that their legs grew soft.

"Chu Feng, please spare us, please spare us."

At this moment, the disciples of the Highlord's Mansion uniformly knelt before Chu Feng. They started to kowtow and beg for forgiveness. Their arrogance when they had first met Chu Feng was completely gone.

Chu Feng coldly swept his gaze over this bunch that only knew about bullying the weak and fearing the strong and asked with an indifferent tone, "I will only ask one thing. If I was the one who was defeated here, would you all have spared me?"

"....." Faced with Chu Feng's question, the Highlord's Mansion's disciples were startled. A trace of hesitation appeared on their faces.

"Woosh~~~"

However, right at the moment when they were prepared to answer Chu Feng's question, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and his boundless martial power turned into an invisible scythe that swept across the bodies of the disciples from the Highlord's Mansion.

With merely a single attack, those Highlord's Mansion's disciples all turned into pools of blood. They were all killed by Chu Feng.

Chu Feng knew very well that they would definitely say that they would have spared him.

However, he knew even better that if he and Wang Qiang were to be defeated by them, then, based on their personality, they would definitely not have spared him and Wang Qiang.

The people from the Highlord's Mansion already had the intention to kill Chu Feng to begin with. Thus, Chu Feng no longer possessed any reason to spare them.

"Geniuses, my ass. Their source energies are so weak. There's simply not enough to fill me," After devouring the source energy from Di Jiuzhou and the other Highlord's Mansion's disciples, Her Lady Queen pouted her little mouth and complained.

The reason for that was because Her Lady Queen's cultivation did not increase even after devouring the source energies from the Highlord's Mansion's disciples.

Suddenly, Wang Qiang loudly shouted at the bystanders, "H-have y-you all not seen enough?!"

In response, the bystanders hurriedly scattered. Today, they had seen for themselves how decisive Chu Feng was in killing others. At this moment, they were truly afraid of Chu Feng. They feared that Chu Feng would still be itching to kill more people and decide to kill them too.

After the bystanders fled, Chu Feng asked Wang Qiang, "How're your injuries?"

"A trifling matter. I c-can handle i-it myself," Wang Qiang said unconcernedly.

"Where's Xiaoshi?" Chu Feng asked.

"Aiyah. T-that's true, w-where is that l-li-little guy?" Hearing Chu Feng's question, Wang Qiang was startled. He began to hurriedly search his surroundings.

Back then, he was beaten unconscious by Di Jiuzhou. As such, he had no idea where Xiaoshi was. However, he clearly remembered that Xiaoshi was pleading for his life when he was beaten up.

The fact that Xiaoshi disappeared now would naturally make Wang Qiang panic. He was scared that something might've happened to him.

"Don't worry. He must've left. He shouldn't have encountered any mishaps," Chu Feng calmly analyzed.

Wang Qiang was a smart individual. Upon hearing what Chu Feng said, he immediately came to a realization. He asked, "C-could it be t-that l-little guy didn't d-deceive us?"

"No, he didn't deceive us. The cloaks really exist," Chu Feng said.

"Sssss~~~~" Hearing what Chu Feng said, even the generally carefree Wang Qiang was unable to help himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. Then, he gasped and said, “T-then, e-exactly what is the o-origin of that little guy?”

Wang Qiang was no longer worried about Xiaoshi’s safety. Like Chu Feng, he felt that Xiaoshi would not know this sort of secret for no good reason.

He felt that Xiaoshi most definitely possessed an extraordinary origin. Likely, he himself was an enormous secret. A mysterious little guy like him was most definitely not someone that they could treat as a normal child.

“He was most likely not harmed by Di Jiuzhou and the others. Instead, he knew that Zhao Hong and I had successfully obtained the cloaks, and deliberately hid himself. Likely, he did not want to explain to us how he knew about those things,” Chu Feng said.

“I-if I k-knew what he s-said was the truth, I w-would’ve a-asked him about it b-back then.”

“T-this is t-truly too f-fucking strange,” Wang Qiang said with regret, “C-Chu Feng, s-say, w-with how determined Xiaoshi is in s-saying that remnant is Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnant, a-and how he k-knew about those secrets, c-could be he related to Grandmaster K-Kai Hong?”

“That sort of thing is hard to tell.”

“In short, I do not feel Xiaoshi is a person with malicious intent. It could be considered to be fate for us to encounter him,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“T-t-t-that’s true,” Wang Qiang shrugged his shoulders.

Then, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang did not urgently leave. Instead, they lingered in the vicinity.

After all, they had agreed to meet up with Zhao Hong at the tavern. If they were to leave now, Zhao Hong would likely not be able to find them.

Fortunately, Zhao Hong returned very quickly. When Zhao Hong found out that Wang Qiang was humiliated by the Highlord's Mansion, she was immediately filled with fury, and declared that she would eliminate everyone in the Highlord's Mansion.

Chu Feng and Wang Qiang urged her against it for a very long time in order to calm her down.

Then, Zhao Hong discussed the matter regarding Xiaoshi with Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. The reason for that was because she had also obtained two cloaks like Chu Feng.

However, Xiaoshi was, after all, of unknown origin. The three of them analyzed this matter for a very long time, but were unable to come to a definite answer regarding Xiaoshi.

Then, Zhao Hong lead Chu Feng and Wang Qiang toward the grand formation that she knew of.

If the three of them wanted to obtain a part of the profits in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds that was filled with experts right now, relying only on those cloaks that could conceal them would definitely not be enough. Their battle power would be a very important matter too.

It just so happened that the spirit formation Zhao Hong knew about was capable of providing the battle power that they needed. Thus, they absolutely could not miss it.

Chapter 2318 – Enjoy The Fruits Of Others

---

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng and the others arrived at the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.

They encountered a lot of people on their way there. There were people from practically all of the powers. Chu Feng even encountered people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

However, Chu Feng did not greet them. Instead, he brushed past them.

Moreover, Zhao Hong's conical bamboo hats were extremely amazing. Not only were they capable of concealing one's appearance, they were also able to change their own appearance. In fact, even though they were wearing conical bamboo hats, others were simply unable to see those conical bamboo hats. Instead, what they saw were only unfamiliar faces.

Thus, even though Chu Feng brushed past the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, none of them recognized Chu Feng.

Finally, Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang arrived at the place Zhao Hong had mentioned.

It was a place far away from the entrance to Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants. Thus, there were practically no people in this area.

"This is bad."

However, right after arriving in this area, Zhao Hong's expression changed.

"What's wrong?" Chu Feng asked.

"I had left a concealment formation here. However, that formation has been broken through by someone," Zhao Hong said.

“What?”

Hearing those words, the expressions on Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s faces also changed. After all, this was no small matter.

However, they did not immediately withdraw from this place because of this. In fact, Chu Feng even activated his Heaven’s Eyes, and looked toward the direction indicated by Zhao Hong. He wanted to investigate what was happening.

At the same time Chu Feng activated his Heaven’s Eyes, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang also using their respective observation method to inspect the region.

“That is?!!!”

Upon looking in that direction, the three of them all started to frown, and their hearts tightened.

They saw a spirit formation. It was a concealment formation. It was the doing of an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Furthermore, it was that of a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were extremely rare. Practically all of the Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were skillful experts.

Furthermore, the person who had set up that spirit formation was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, someone a level above Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

However, upon closer inspection, Chu Feng saw through what was inside the concealment formation. At this time, a smile appeared on Chu Feng’s face.

“This is truly what they mean by encountering enemies on a narrow road,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

The reason for that was because there were four figures inside the concealment formation. Chu Feng recognized those four people; they were the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

The Four World Spiritist Emperors were currently jointly operating a spirit formation. It was an unsealing formation. As for the spirit formation that they were trying to unseal, it was a very ancient and astonishing grand formation.

Without even Zhao Hong saying anything, Chu Feng was able to tell that the Four World Spiritist Emperors were trying to undo the spirit formation that Zhao Hong had spoken about, the spirit formation that could give them battle power.

Merely, to Chu Feng's surprise, the Four World Spiritist Emperors were operating a very powerful spirit formation. It was a spirit formation set up by a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Evidently, that spirit formation was not set up by the four of them. The reason for that was because the four of them were still Royal-cloak World Spiritists. As such, it would be impossible for them to set up such a powerful spirit formation.

However, who would it be that had set up such a powerful spirit formation only to have the Four World Spiritist Emperors activate it?

Chu Feng felt that this spirit formation was most definitely set up by the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother.

Other than their mother, there should not be anyone else who would be able to set up such a spirit formation and then allow them to activate it.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that even though the Four World Spiritist Emperors were only Royal-cloak World Spiritists, they possessed treasures on them.

With the assistance of the treasures, it was not very exhausting for them to activate that spirit formation.

Furthermore, it seemed that they had been operating this spirit formation for a very long time. It seemed that the grand spirit formation capable of granting battle power was soon to be opened.

“T-those f-four fatties a-are s-simply h-helping us,” Wang Qiang had a vile smile on his face. It was as if he had picked up a treasure.

After all, the spirit formation the Four World Spiritist Emperors were operating was something set up by a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. That was a spirit formation that Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were unable to set up even if they were to join hands. The might of that spirit formation was extremely powerful.

At this moment, after the efforts from the Four World Spiritist Emperors, that grand formation was soon to be unsealed.

Thus, as long as Chu Feng and the others were to snatch the authority from them and continue to operate the grand formation left behind by the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother, they would be able to undo that grand formation. It could truly be said that they would be enjoying the fruits of others.

“Chu Feng, it seems that you possess some sort of conflict with those Four World Spiritist Emperors,” Zhao Hong said.

“Indeed, I do,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, you owe me a favor,” Zhao Hong revealed a strange smile.

Chu Feng understood Zhao Hong’s intention. He knew that she was planning to teach them a lesson on his behalf.

“Leave them alive,” Chu Feng said.

“Why?” Zhao Hong was confused.

“B-brother, y-you m-must not be softhearted. To b-be m-merciful toward one’s e-enemy is t-to be cruel toward oneself,” Wang Qiang added.

“With Zhao Hong here, it is true that there is no need for us to be afraid of the four of them. However, I had actually never placed them in my eyes before.”

“If I must say who I am afraid of, it would be their mother. Judging from the way things are now, their mother is most definitely also in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.”

“If we are to capture them alive, they might be useful. After all, judging from the two spirit formations, their mother should be a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

“It’s hard to find a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist,” Chu Feng said.

“Got it. You are truly quite intelligent to think of something like this,” Zhao Hong looked to Chu Feng in astonishment. Contained in her gaze was a trace of admiration.

“He’s my brother, b-being smart i-is only natural,” Wang Qiang said in an admiring manner. It was as if he had done something very amazing.

They both realized Chu Feng’s intention. What Chu Feng meant was that if they were to directly kill the Four World Spiritist Emperors, the only thing that they would accomplish would be killing them. Other than removing threats to Chu Feng, there was no other benefit to killing them.

However, everyone knew that the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother was extremely doting on her four children. If they were to keep the four of them alive, they might be able to make use of their mother.

Although it was uncertain whether or not they would be able to encounter the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother, as long as they had a chance of encountering her, it would mean that Chu Feng and the others would have an additional hidden trump card.

“It seems that the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother is extremely confident. She only set up a concealment formation, and not a protection formation,” Zhao Hong said.

“I-Isn’t t-this b-better? If t-there was a protective f-formation, we m-might not necessarily b-be able to b-break it. However, since th-there isn’t, hehe, w-with only this c-concealment formation, it won’t be a-able to stop us,” Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile.

“Let’s start. Even though it is only a concealment formation, it will still take us some time to break through it,” Zhao Hong said.

“With the three of us joining hands, it shouldn’t take too long,” Chu Feng said.

Then, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, the three Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists began to join hands in setting up a spirit formation.

They first set up a concealment formation together and covered themselves with it. They did that to prevent others from noticing should they end up fighting against the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

After the concealment formation was completed, the three of them began to jointly remove the concealment spirit formation set up by the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother.

It was as Wang Qiang said; even though the spirit formation was set up by a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it remained only a concealment formation, and not a protection formation. Thus, with the three of them joining hands, it was not very difficult for them to break that concealment formation.

“Boom~~~”

Following that loud explosion, boundless spirit power began to surge in all directions. Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had successfully broken through the concealment formation.

“Who is it?!”

The destruction of the concealment formation greatly alarmed the Four World Spiritist Emperors. After all, they felt that only extraordinary individuals would be able to break apart their mother's spirit formation.

“It's actually you?”

However, when the four of them cast their gazes over and discovered that it was actually Chu Feng, their lips immediately lifted into a strange curve.

Chapter 2319 – Within Reach

---

“Hehe.”

After discovering that it was Chu Feng, the alarmed expressions on the Four World Spiritist Emperors disappeared, and were replaced with expressions of being overjoyed.

At this moment, the four of them stopped their operation of the spirit formation. The four of them all stood up and walked out from the four formation cores of that spirit formation. With strangely cold smiles on their faces, they began to slowly walk toward Chu Feng.

Their gazes were like those of four fierce tigers staring at three little sheep.

Why three?

The reason for that was because they felt that Chu Feng’s friends would be as easily handled as Chu Feng.

Thus, they classified both Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong as weak individuals.

“Chu Feng, this is truly what they mean by ‘there’s a road to heaven that you refuse to take, there’s no gate to hell yet you charged in,’” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ eldest said to Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed lightly at the threat from the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

Although the Four World Spiritist Emperors were powerful, that was only true to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. If they were to be compared to Zhao Hong, the four of them would not be a match for her.

Thus, for the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ eldest to threaten them like this, for him to plan how to torture them in his heart, how could Chu Feng not laugh?

“You’re actually still capable of laughing? Brat, do you really not know how the word ‘death’ is written?” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“A-are t-the f-four of you f-fools?” Wang Qiang interrupted.

“Where the hell did this stutterer come from? You actually dare to insult us?!!”

“Boom~~~”

As the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors spoke, he waved his sleeve and unleashed his rank five Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might. With power capable of toppling the mountains and overturning the seas, his oppressive might surged toward Wang Qiang. He was planning to crush Wang Qiang into a pile of meat and kill him.

“Woosh~~~”

However, before that oppressive might could reach Wang Qiang, a figure flew out from beside Wang Qiang and toward the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

“Buzz~~~”

That figure was extremely imposing. In an instant, the oppressive might unleashed by the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors vanished. Immediately afterward, that figure arrived beside the eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

“Putt~~~”

“Putt~~~”

“Putt~~~”

“Putt~~~”

When that figure landed on the ground, the Four World Spiritist Emperors actually all kneeled onto the ground.

It was oppressive might. An extremely powerful oppressive might had forced them to their knees.

As for that oppressive might, it originated from that figure.

As for that figure, it was that Fairy Spirit World's World Spirit that had fought against Chu Feng's Five Elements Secret Technique.

Although that world spirit only possessed the cultivation of a rank three Martial Ancestor, it possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. As such, its actual battle power was that of a rank six Martial Ancestor.

Thus, even the strongest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, their eldest, was unable to match against the world spirit at all.

"This... this..."

At this moment, the Four World Spiritist Emperors started to panic. They were able to sense how powerful that world spirit was. Thus, they realized that their current situation was extremely bad.

"F-f-fools. Even y-your m-mother's spirit formation h-has been br-broken through by us, y-yet y-you all d-dared to still h-hoot at us? D-do you all have no brains or what?" Wang Qiang said as he pointed at the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

"Arrogant bastard, we are the sons of the World Spiritist Saintess. If you all dare to do anything to us, our great mother will definitely not spare any of you," The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors threatened.

"You all are truly brainless fools. Look at what sort of situation you all are in now. Yet you still dare to threaten us?" Zhao Hong frowned and revealed a displeased expression. Then, she said to her world spirit, "Give them a ruthless beating. Make it so that their mother cannot recognize them."

Right after Zhao Hong's order was given, her world spirit immediately started to ruthlessly attack the Four World Spiritist Emperors. As the Four World Spiritist Emperors screamed miserably, they were completely disfigured by that world spirit's beatings.

“Stop! You all are truly tired of living! Stop immediately!” The Four World Spiritist Emperors held their heads with their hands and began to scream nonstop. However, they were actually still threatening Chu Feng and the others.

“It seems that the beating is not ruthless enough. You should increase the intensity,” Chu Feng said.

Surprisingly, that world spirit actually listened to Chu Feng's words, and began to beat up the Four World Spiritist Emperors even more ruthlessly. Its attacks were so ruthless that all of the bones of the Four World Spiritist Emperors were shattered from the beating.

“Chu Feng, remember this carefully. If we four brothers do not die today, we will definitely make you pay for this tenfold,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors shouted.

“You dare to continue to threaten us in this sort of state? Come, feed this to them.”

As Zhao Hong spoke, she took out four strange large bugs from her Cosmos Sack and handed them to her Fairy World Spirit.

Those four bugs greatly resembled earthworms. However, they were all over a meter long, and possessed disgusting appearances. Furthermore, one could tell with a single glance that the four insects were extremely poisonous.

“No. Don't. Stop. What do you all want to know, we'll tell you everything, okay?”

“Big brother, let's just tell them what they want to know.”

“Those insects are truly too poisonous. We absolutely cannot eat them.”

Upon seeing those insects, the Four World Spiritist Emperors were immediately terrified. This was especially true for the three younger brothers. At this moment, they were trembling in fear, and began to beg for forgiveness.

The reason for that was because they were also world spiritists, and were thus capable of determining how powerful those insects were.

“Sp-speak about what? All f-four of you will die,” Wang Qiang said angrily.

However, Chu Feng suddenly said, “Wait.” He then asked, “Where is your mother right now? It is best you all tell the truth. If I am to discover a single lie, I will definitely not spare you all.”

Seeing that Chu Feng actually really began to question them, the Four World Spiritist Emperors, although extremely displeased, still chose to lower their heads and answer his questions.

After interrogating the Four World Spiritist Emperors, Chu Feng came to find out that the person who discovered this place was the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother.

Their mother possessed a special treasure. That was how she managed to break through Zhao Hong’s concealment formation and discover the ancient grand formation. Speaking of it, it could be said to be a coincidence.

When the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother discovered that this was a spirit formation that could grant enormous power, she was also astonished.

However, as she was in a rush to enter Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants and fight over its treasures with the other experts, she was unable to stay here for an extended period of time.

With no other alternative, she decided to set up this formation and have her four sons use treasures to assist them with operating the formation to undo the seal on the grand ancient formation and obtain the battle power of peak Martial Ancestors.

However, who would've thought that right when they were about to successfully break through the seal on the grand ancient formation, they were made fools by Chu Feng and the others?

“Chu Feng, we have told you all that you want to know. Likely, you all have also come for the battle power that this formation will bestow.”

“We are able to give you all the battle power from the spirit formation. However, you all must release us,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“Release you so that you all can go and find your mother to take care of us?” Chu Feng sneered.

“Chu Feng, rest assured. We are people who keep our word. We promise you that as long as you release the four of us, we will write off all of our former grudges,” The eldest of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“Heh...” At this moment, Chu Feng laughed.

Chu Feng believed all of the things the Four World Spiritist Emperors said before. However, he absolutely did not trust them when they said that they would write off all their former grudges.

Even though the Four World Spiritist Emperors had done their best to conceal it, Chu Feng was still able to tell from their gazes that they held intense killing intent toward him.

Today, if he were to release them, they would definitely not spare him should they find the opportunity to kill him in the future.

“Feed them the insects,” Zhao Hong said coldly.

“Noo!!!”

“You three unfaithful bastards!”

“You shall all meet miserable deaths!”

“Ahh!!!!”

Hearing what Zhao Hong said, the Four World Spiritist Emperors immediately started to howl at Zhao Hong, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

However, Zhao Hong’s world spirit simply ignored them, and forcibly fed them the four poisonous bugs.

After being force-fed, the Four World Spiritist Emperors began to scream even more miserably.

“Your screams are too unpleasant to hear,” Zhao Hong said. Then, she took out a special sack and shoved the Four World Spiritist Emperors into it.

While the Four World Spiritist Emperors were extremely large, the sack possessed a special effect. Although it was only the size of an ordinary sack, it was able to contain all four of them.

Zhao Hong then tied her special sack closed and threw it to one side. After that, she looked to the spirit formation and said, “It’s our turn now.”

Hearing what Zhao Hong said, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang looked to one another. Both of them revealed anticipating expressions.

The battle power of peak Martial Ancestors was within their reach right now.

Chapter 2320 – Controlling The Slaughtering Formation

---

Afterward, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong began to use the spirit formation the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother had left behind to continue to undo the seal on the grand formation.

With the strength the three of them possessed and the spirit formation left behind by the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, it should be enough for them to undo the seal on the grand formation.

Furthermore, the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother had left four treasures that were capable of increasing world spiritists' abilities in operating a spirit formation for her sons.

Thus, with the assistance of the treasures, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong used merely an hour in order to undo the seal on the grand formation.

“Crack~~~”

“Crack~~~”

“Crack~~~”

“Crack~~~”

.....

At this moment, the grand formation was changing rapidly. Cracking sounds were being emitted by it nonstop.

Seeing that, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong hurriedly retrieved the world spiritist treasures and moved away from the grand spirit formation.

Soon, that grand formation shattered completely. Then, four enormous figures flew out.

Those four figures were humanoid in appearance. However, they were not humans.

The reason for that was because they were ten meters tall. They looked like small giants. Furthermore, their bodies seemed to be made of crystals.

Not only were their bodies formed with crystals, their limbs and the armor they were wearing were also made of crystals.

That said, the four crystal humanoids emitted auras that Chu Feng and the others did not dare to disregard.

They were rank nine Martial Ancestors, the four crystal giants were all peak Martial Ancestors.

“Sure enough, they were peak Martial Ancestor level battle power. However, never did I expect them to have this sort of appearance,” Upon seeing the four crystal giants, Chu Feng felt awe in his heart.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at this moment, a ray of light suddenly shot out from the foreheads of the four crystal giants.

A total of four rays of lights shot forth. Among them, one shot toward Wang Qiang’s wrist, and the other toward Zhao Hong’s wrist.

As for the final two rays of light, they shot toward Chu Feng’s wrists.

“O-ouch! T-this thing i-is a bit painful!!!” Being struck by the light, Wang Qiang grimaced in pain.

“Wang Qiang, don’t move! They are recognizing their masters!” Chu Feng shouted.

“Ah?!!” Hearing those words, Wang Qiang immediately opened his mouth wide in surprise. Then, he hurriedly grabbed the wrist that was struck by the light with his other hand. He deliberately grabbed it to stabilize it in order to prevent accidents from happening.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, the crystal giant whose ray of light struck Wang Qiang’s wrist turned into a vortex. Its body began to rapidly shrink. In the end, it turned into a ray of light and entered Wang Qiang’s wrist.

At this moment, a special symbol appeared on Wang Qiang’s wrist; it was imprinted on his skin.

That symbol looked like a crystal. However, it did not sparkle. On the contrary, it was very well-hidden. If one did not look for it carefully, one would simply not notice it.

The same sort of thing happened to Chu Feng and Zhao Hong. The crystal giants all turned into rays of lights and entered their wrists.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at this moment, with a thought from Zhao Hong, the crystal symbol on her wrist began to change. It turned into a ray of light, flew out from her wrist and stood beside her.

It was the crystal giant that had entered her wrist earlier.

Its cultivation and imposing aura were exactly the same as before. Merely, the sensation it gave off had changed.

Earlier, it had been masterless. However, it now possessed a master. As for its master, it was Zhao Hong.

It would listen to Zhao Hong’s orders. Not only would it protect Zhao Hong, it would also immediately start to attack enemies for Zhao Hong should she order it to do so.

“It has indeed recognized its master. However, why did two of them recognized Chu Feng as their master?” Zhao Hong looked to Chu Feng with a slight expression of complaint on her face.

“M-my b-brother’s t-talent is exceptional,” Wang Qiang said proudly.

“It might also be random. Perhaps I was just lucky,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“I think that to be the case too,” Although Zhao Hong said that, she revealed an envious gaze toward Chu Feng.

She actually knew that there must be a reason for two of the crystal giants to choose Chu Feng. Merely, she was slightly unwilling to accept that the crystal giants had chosen him instead of her.

That was why she had declared that it must be random so as to comfort herself.

“There’s another spirit formation inside that spirit formation that we can grasp,” Chu Feng walked forward and looked to the unsealed grand formation.

Zhao Hong also walked forward. After a moment of observation, she smiled and said, “That spirit formation is quite interesting. Unfortunately, it is only effective within a certain range. It doesn’t have much significance.”

Like Chu Feng, she had managed to discover the spirit formation left behind in the grand spirit formation.

It was a special slaughtering formation. As long as one grasped that spirit formation, one would be able to obtain extremely strong power within a certain range.

For example, Chu Feng was currently a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. If he were to grasp that spirit formation, Chu Feng’s cultivation will be able to increase within a limited range.

At the very most, Chu Feng would be able to increase his cultivation to that of a peak Martial Ancestor.

However, as it would be a cultivation obtained through the power of a spirit formation, it would have the same effect as the Immortal Transformation Pellets. Chu Feng would not be able to use his Heavenly Bloodline's power.

After increasing his cultivation with that spirit formation, Chu Feng would not be able to use his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, and would lose the heaven-defying battle power of his Heavenly Bloodline.

However, the strongest aspect regarding that spirit formation was not that it would be able to increase Chu Feng's cultivation. Instead, it was the fact that one could directly use that spirit formation to bring about a slaughter. After all, that spirit formation was an extremely powerful slaughtering formation.

Unfortunately, that spirit formation possessed a very limited range. With how enormous the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds, that spirit formation would naturally be of no use.

"It's right in front of you anyways. If you can grasp it, why don't you grasp it? Chu Feng, take it," Her Lady Queen ordered.

"Got it," Chu Feng shouted. Then, he entered that spirit formation. He wanted to seize control of that formation.

"This guy," Seeing that Chu Feng was determined to gain control over the spirit formation, Zhao Hong was somewhat annoyed. However, she did not speak to stop him.

"W-wife, someone's here," Suddenly, Wang Qiang pointed to the distance.

"Why have so many people suddenly appeared?" Zhao Hong looked into the distance and started to frown.

The reason for that was because it didn't seem like people were passing by this place. Rather, it seemed like a lot of people were gathering in this place. Furthermore, their number was increasing.

Although they were all members of the younger generation, they all possessed extraordinary origin. Not to mention disciples from the tier two powers, there were even disciples from the tier one powers among them.

However, due to the fact that their concealment formation was still in place, no one noticed Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong listened to their conversations, and finally realized why they were all gathered here.

It turned out, the information Xiaoshi had mentioned was true.

There were two great geniuses gathered in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. One was the renowned Young Master Li Ming. As for the other one, he was the mysterious Hun Lian.

The two of them seemed to have already encountered one another. It seemed that they had agreed to battle one another to determine who was the actual number one genius.

As for this location, it was the location where the two of them would fight.

“W-w-what a f-freaking c-coincidence! Of a-all places, they d-decided to choose this place,” Wang Qiang declared.

“Isn’t this great? We’ll be able to enjoy a show,” At this moment, Chu Feng had already walked out from the spirit formation.

Seeing that Chu Feng had returned completely unharmed, Wang Qiang asked in astonishment, “Y-you’ve succeeded?”

“Mn. I have gained control of that spirit formation,” Chu Feng nodded.

As the spirit formation was already unsealed to begin with, it was not a difficult task for Chu Feng to gain control of the slaughtering formation with his attainments in world spirit techniques.

“T-then, do you want t-to see this s-show?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Depends on what Zhao Hong wants to do,” Chu Feng looked to Zhao Hong.

After all, only Zhao Hong possessed the map of the remnants. As such, they would have to rely on her to enter the remnants. Thus, Chu Feng would respect Zhao Hong's decision on whether they should leave or stay.

“What Xiaoshi said is most likely true. Even if that old fart is in the remnants, he will not be able to obtain anything.”

“Rather than entering quickly to obtain nothing, it's better that we stay here and watch this show. I also want to see exactly what sorts of characters those Young Master Li Ming and Hun Lian are.”

As Zhao Hong said those words, her lips were raised into a strange curve. A special sort of anticipating expression appeared in her eyes.

Chapter 2321 – Ill Intended Arrivals

---

“Hehe, w-wife, w-with y-you saying that, I-I also w-wish to see,” Seeing the strange smile and the special gaze on Zhao Hong’s face, Wang Qiang’s lips also lifted into a mischievous smile.

The way Wang Qiang saw it, regardless of how powerful that Young Master Li Ming and that Hun Lian might be, the two of them were most definitely only Martial Ancestors, and not True Immortals.

However, the three of them currently had peak Martial Ancestor level battle power. Furthermore, Chu Feng had grasped that slaughtering technique.

Not only was Chu Feng able to control the slaughtering formation to kill countless enemies, his cultivation would also increase all the way to peak Martial Ancestor if he wished for it as long as he was within the range of the slaughtering formation.

Thus, what Wang Qiang had in mind was that since that Young Master Li Ming and Hun Lian were so ignorant as to choose this place as the place for their match, the three of them should use this opportunity to bestow some suffering upon those two so-called super geniuses.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at this moment, several tens of figures suddenly flew over and descended outside of the concealment formation. They were very close to where Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were.

“It’s them?”

Upon seeing those people, Chu Feng’s expression changed. The people who had arrived were disciples from many different powers. Among them, a portion were disciples from the Sunset Cloud Valley, and another portion were disciples from the Three Stars Hall. As for the other powers, Chu Feng was not familiar with them. However, they should all be disciples of tier two powers.

Among the group, Chu Feng saw Kou Kang.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Immediately after that, another group of people flew over and descended not far away.

There were once again disciples from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall among this group of people. From this group, Chu Feng saw familiar faces again.

The Sunset Cloud Valley’s Xu Yiyi and the Three Stars Hall’s Song Biyu were among them.

“Brother Kou Kang, look over there. Isn’t that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s junior sister Xu Yiyi?”

“What’s wrong? Are the two of you having a falling out? Why is she not with you, and instead standing so far away?” A disciple from another power said to Kou Kang jokingly.

“I’ve heard that the Sunset Cloud Valley’s junior sister Xu Yiyi possesses quite a relationship with that Chu Feng. Apparently, she had accompanied Chu Feng when he first revealed his talent on Mount Cloud Crane.”

“I fear that junior sister Xu Yiyi no longer has brother Kou Kang in her heart. Instead, her heart is now filled with that Chu Feng,” Another man said. Merely, his tone was filled with mockery. It could be seen that his relationship with Kou Kang was not good at all. Else, he would not seize this opportunity to make cutting remarks at Kou Kang.

“Mentioning that Chu Feng, I’ve heard that Chu Feng has also arrived at this Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. Perhaps we will have the opportunity to meet this newly emerged genius,” Someone said.

“That’s right. That Chu Feng has indeed come.”

“Furthermore, I’ve heard that Chu Feng seems to have killed the number one disciple from the Highlord’s Mansion, Di Jiuzhou, outside the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds,” Another disciple added.

“Chu Feng killed Di Jiuzhou? For real?” Hearing those words, many of the people present revealed astonished expressions. After all, Di Jiuzhou was no ordinary character. Rather, he was the number one genius among the tier two powers’ disciples. No one was capable of moving his status.

Many of the people present here had been defeated by Di Jiuzhou, suffered in his hands many times. Thus, to them, Di Jiuzhou was an existence that possessed special significance.

“Impossible. I know very well how strong Di Jiuzhou is, and also how strong Chu Feng is. It is absolutely impossible for Chu Feng to be able to match Di Jiuzhou,” Kou Kang said.

“Brother Kou Kang, how could you speak with this much certainty? You couldn’t possibly have fought against that Chu Feng before, right?” Someone asked curiously.

“Truth be told, I have fought against that Chu Feng before,” Kou Kang said proudly.

“Then, what is the result?” The crowd asked together.

“A tie,” Kou Kang said.

“Brother Kou Kang, you actually managed to tie with that Chu Feng?”

Hearing those words, the shocked expressions of the crowd grew even more intense. They also began to have a whole new level of respect toward Kou Kang. This was especially true for the female disciples, who began to reveal admiring gazes as they looked to Kou Kang.

“The rumors of that Chu Feng’s various accomplishments are simply exaggerated. He is simply not that amazing.”

“Back then, in the Sunset Cloud Valley, I sparred with that Chu Feng before my master, the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and senior Su Jingrui.”

“In the end, we ended in a tie.”

“Thus, it is impossible for him to be able to defeat Di Jiuzhou,” Kou Kang said those words with absolute certainty. The reason for that was because he had fought against Di Jiuzhou before, and has been defeated by him.

“In that case, it should be impossible for Chu Feng to defeat Di Jiuzhou.”

“That’s right.”

“It would seem that Chu Feng is simply not as powerful as rumors had him be. Sure enough, the rumors cannot be trusted.”

After hearing what Kou Kang said, many people began to feel that Chu Feng’s killing of Di Jiuzhou was a false rumor.

Right at this moment, a sharp voice sounded. “Kou Kang, how shameless must you be?”

It was Xu Yiyi. She had heard the conversation Kou Kang and the others had. Originally, she had not bothered with Kou Kang. However, after hearing Kou Kang mention Chu Feng, she was unable to contain herself.

Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu walked over together. Before all the people present, Xu Yiyi said to Kou Kang, “Kou Kang, while it is true that the match ended in a tie that day, both the heaven and earth, both you and I, know why that is the case.”

“Junior sister Xu, since the result was a tie, could it be that there is some hidden secret?” That disciple who possessed a bad relationship with Kou Kang said while harboring malicious intentions.

“A tie is a tie, what else could it possibly amount to? Xu Yiyi, even if you like Chu Feng, you shouldn’t speak for him in such a manner.”

“You were also present that day. The match between him and I ended in a tie. That is the undeniable truth!” Kou Kang yelled in dissatisfaction.

As matters stood, he no longer possessed any consideration for Xu Yiyi. As such, his tone was no longer polite.

“While that is the truth, it is also the truth that Chu Feng was going easy on you,” Xu Yiyi said loudly.

“So he was going easy on him?”

“Sure enough, didn’t I say how could Kou Kang possibly be able to tie with Chu Feng?” After hearing what Xu Yiyi said, the crowd burst into an uproar.

Many mocking laughs began to be heard nonstop. Many people began to roll their eyes at Kou Kang. They felt what he said earlier to only be boasting.

“He was going easy on me? Pah! It’s more like I was going easy on him!”

Kou Kang felt humiliated. Thus, he pointed at Xu Yiyi and shouted, “Xu Yiyi, go and call that Chu Feng here. I will personally fight him again before everyone here. I’ll let everyone know whether or not that Chu Feng is really as powerful as he is rumored to be!”

“You... you clearly know that I am unable to reach Chu Feng. That is why you dare to declare such a thing,” Xu Yiyi said.

“You being unable to reach him is your issue,” Kou Kang folded his hands over his chest and said in a disapproving manner.

“You!!!” Xu Yiyi was so furious that she started to shiver in anger.

“Chu Feng, go out and teach that guy a lesson,” Inside the spirit formation, Zhao Hong was unable to watch it anymore.

“That’s what I plan to do,” As Chu Feng spoke, he began to walk toward the outside. He would not allow Kou Kang to bully Xu Yiyi like this.

“Mn?” However, right at this moment, Chu Feng stopped and turned his gaze to a nearby place.

A group of people were approaching from that direction.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

They were people from the Ying Heavenly Clan. Not only were the younger generation present, there were also elders among them. They appeared aggressively, and instantly approached the crowd. When they descended onto the ground, they had surrounded Xu Yiyi and the others.

At this moment, not to mention the others, even Xu Yiyi started to panic.

It would be one thing if it was only the Ying Heavenly Clan’s younger generation as they, after all, possessed strength about the same as their own. However, these elders from the Ying Heavenly Clan possessed powerful martial cultivations.

The strongest among these elders was a rank three Martial Ancestor. With that cultivation, he was completely capable of killing all of them instantly with a mere thought.

If it was before, they might not be afraid. However, right now, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall had already become hostile against the Ying Heavenly Clan due to Chu Feng.

For them to encounter one another at this sort of time, it could be said to be extremely bad for Xu Yiyi and the others.

“The Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley had jointly declared to the world that you all would fight against our Ying Heavenly Clan for Chu Feng.”

“However, looking at things now, you all don’t seem to be united,” That Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder with the cultivation of rank three Martial Ancestor said.

His strange manner of speaking made it clear that he had come with ill intentions.

Chapter 2322 – Craven And Cowardly

---

Even though she was feeling scared, Xu Yiyi still gathered up her courage to ask, “What are you all planning to do?”

“What are we planning to do? Your Sunset Cloud Valley and Three Stars Hall are willing to declare war against our Ying Heavenly Clan for a single Chu Feng. Right now, we are enemies. Yet, you’re actually asking me what we plan to do?” That Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder sneered. His tone was filled with mockery.

“You are an elder, yet you’re planning to bully us, people of the younger generation. Do you not feel that it is beneath your status?” Xu Yiyi asked.

“Little girl, the battlefield is a merciless place. Has your master not taught you that?” As the Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder said those words, the coldness in his eyes grew more and more intense. Killing intent actually emerged in his eyes.

“Senior, while the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall have declared war against your Ying Heavenly Clan, we have not,” A disciple who had been surrounded by individuals from the Ying Heavenly Clan walked forth and bowed with his hands held in front.

Following that person, all of the people present that were not disciples from the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley hurriedly declared, “Senior, this matter is unrelated to us. Please release us.”

“Indeed, it is unrelated to you all. Go ahead and leave,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder waved his hand, and the disciples from other powers hurriedly left.

“Although it is unrelated to them, it is related to you all,” After that, that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder turned his gaze containing killing intent at Xu Yiyi and the others.

At this moment, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall's disciples all felt a chill in their hearts. Merely from the gaze of that Ying Heavenly Clan's elder, they were able to tell that he truly had the intention to kill them.

It would appear that a great catastrophe was truly imminent for them.

“Elder, you’ve also heard it earlier. That Chu Feng and I do not get along. While it is true that our Three Stars Hall has said that we will protect Chu Feng, that is only the desire of our headmaster. I am not in favor of that decision at all.”

“Today, if you all are to kill me because of Chu Feng, my death... would be too wrongful,” Suddenly, Kou Kang stood out and spoke with an innocent expression on his face.

“Kou Kang, you...” Xu Yiyi was immediately furious upon hearing what Kou Kang said. Even Song Biyu's expression changed. They never expected Kou Kang to be such a spineless coward and actually beg their enemy for forgiveness.

“Fellow martial brothers and sisters from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, do you not agree with what I said?”

“We have no association with that Chu Feng to begin with. Why must we throw our lives away for that Chu Feng?” Kou Kang ignored Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu's gazes of contempt and turned to speak to the other disciples.

“That's right. What senior brother Kou Kang said is extremely correct. We should not die for that Chu Feng.”

“Senior, we possess no relationship with that Chu Feng. Please spare us.”

Once Kou Kang said those words, regardless of whether it was the Three Stars Hall or the Sunset Cloud Valley, a portion of their disciples immediately started to declare that they had no relation with Chu Feng.

“You all... you bunch of spineless cowards...” Faced with the begging of those disciples, Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu started to tremble with anger.

What those disciples were doing was not only begging for forgiveness, they were also disgracing their powers. Their actions were no different from desertion.

“It is not that we are spineless. Rather, we merely do not wish to die in vain because of an unrelated individual,” Kou Kang refuted. Then, he continued to speak to the Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder, “Senior, please see this matter clearly, and do not kill us, the innocent.”

“Haha. Good. Our Ying Heavenly Clan are not a bunch of unreasonable people either.”

“Since you all have said it like this, I will spare you all. You all can go too,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder waved his hand again.

Although Kou Kang and the others’ actions were unavoidable since they wanted to survive, they were still met with hisses of contempt from many of the bystanders.

After all, no matter how one looked at it, their actions were simply craven and cowardly. They possessed no moral backbone at all.

However, Kou Kang and the others completely ignored the way the others viewed them. They acted as if they had managed to escape from the tiger’s den, and quickly fled that place.

However, Kou Kang suddenly stopped when he was about to walk out from under the Ying Heavenly Clan’s besiegement. He turned around and sent a voice transmission to Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu, “There is no reason for you all to throw your lives away because of Chu Feng. Come, leave with us.”

“Scram!” Xu Yiyi shouted coldly. Disgust filled the gaze with which she looked at Kou Kang.

In fact, even Kou Kang's fellow disciple Song Biyu looked at him with a gaze filled with contempt.

"The two of you are truly pigheaded. Your deaths are well-deserved," Ruthlessness appeared in Kou Kang's gaze. Then, he waved his sleeve and swaggered off.

However, he did not actually leave. Instead, he entered the crowd. He was actually planning to personally see Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu getting killed.

"What is this? You all are truly willing to die for that Chu Feng?" That Ying Heavenly Clan's elder asked Xu Yiyi and the others.

After what happened earlier, he seemed to be more willing to see these disciples renouncing their relationship with Chu Feng.

After all, it would indirectly indicate that Chu Feng did not possess the support of the crowd.

"We are willing to live and die together with our schools. If you wish to kill us, then go on and do it! Why bother with all these superfluous words!" Xu Yiyi shouted.

"We will live and die together with our schools. Go on and kill us!!!" Following that, Song Biyu and the others disciples also shouted.

Their voices were like thunder and shook the heavens. They were prepared to die.

"Very well, since you all have decided, I will grant you all your wish," That Ying Heavenly Clan's elder once again revealed killing intent in his eyes. As he spoke, he raised his hand.

"Boom~~~"

In an instant, surging winds covered the region as the sky darkened. His rank three Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might swept forth. It was as if doomsday were descending.

At that moment, Xu Yiyi and the others closed their eyes. They were prepared to accept death.

The reason for that was because it was simply impossible for them to survive before that oppressive might.

“I’m afraid that you will not be able to kill them today.”

Right at the moment when everyone felt that Xu Yiyi and the others would undoubtedly be killed, a voice sounded.

That voice came explosively like a thunderstrike, shocking the hearts of everyone.

Most shockingly, after that voice was heard, the crowd was surprised to discover the raised arm of that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder had actually frozen in midair. At the same time, his boundless oppressive might vanished completely.

To be exact, his oppressive might was forced back by an oppressive might even more powerful than his own.

Rank four Martial Ancestor. It was a rank four Martial Ancestor’s oppressive might that saved Xu Yiyi and the others.

‘Could it be that reinforcements from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall have arrived?’

That was what the crowd thought at this instant.

“It’s him?”

However, upon looking toward the direction of the voice, the crowd were tongue-tied and stunned. Disbelief filled their eyes.

A figure was slowly walking toward them from not far away. However, that person was not an elder or senior from the Sunset Cloud Valley or the Three Stars Hall.

Instead, he was a young man, someone much younger than majority of the younger generation present.

As for this man, he was none other than Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng? Isn’t that Chu Feng?”

“Heavens! How did he become this powerful? He’s actually a rank four Martial Ancestor!”

“No wonder, no wonder he was able to kill Ying Liangchen and Di Jiuzhou; Chu Feng was actually as powerful as he was rumored to be!”

“To possess a cultivation of rank four Martial Ancestor at such a young age, he is definitely an exceptional genius, most definitely! An exceptional genius has really appeared in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm!”

At that moment, the surrounding crowd burst into an uproar. All they were saying were praises for Chu Feng.

It was not that they were trying to flatter him. Rather, at that moment, they were truly stunned by how powerful Chu Feng was.

Chapter 2323 – Arrival Of Geniuses

---

“Chu Feng, you actually dared to show your face?” Upon seeing Chu Feng, that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder immediately started to gnash his teeth in anger. Intense killing intent emerged in his eyes.

His current appearance was that of someone who wanted to skin Chu Feng alive, remove his bones, eat his flesh and drink his blood. He truly felt enormous hatred for Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng did not even bother to look at that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder. Instead, he gently raised his arm.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion was heard, and that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder’s body shattered. He had been instantly obliterated by Chu Feng.

“Run away!” Seeing that scene, the others from the Ying Heavenly Clan all turned pale. They immediately turned around and started fleeing.

“Chu Feng, don’t l-let them escape,” At this time, Wang Qiang also ran out from the concealment formation.

“It’s fine. It would suit my intention if they were able to call for reinforcements,” Chu Feng said indifferently. He did not bother with the fleeing Ying Heavenly Clansmen.

“N-now that y-you mention it, that’s true. Y-you’re t-truly smart,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Wang Qiang scratched his head and then laughed foolishly.

Currently, they had the crystal giants. Furthermore, Chu Feng had gained control of that grand formation. As such, he was extremely powerful.

Not to mention the elders from the Ying Heavenly Clan, even if the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief himself were to come, he would not necessarily be a match for them either.

Regardless of the amount of people from the Ying Heavenly Clan that might come, they would all be killed. There was simply no need for them to be afraid.

Thus, if those Ying Heavenly Clansmen that managed to escape were to call for reinforcements and bring back experts from the Ying Heavenly Clan, they would only be coming to throw their lives away.

Chu Feng walked over to Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others. He asked in a concerned manner, “Are you all alright?”

“Chu Feng, your cultivation!!!” Xu Yiyi’s eyes were opened extremely wide. Evidently, she was unable to accept Chu Feng’s current overwhelming strength.

“This is a special method of mine. It is not my actual cultivation,” Chu Feng told Xu Yiyi honestly.

“So it’s actually not your actual cultivation. However, what sort of method could allow you to increase your cultivation to this level?”

“Well, regardless, only extraordinary individuals would be able to obtain that sort of heaven-defying battle power.”

“That Chu Feng is truly amazing.”

After finding out that Chu Feng’s cultivation was not his actual cultivation, the surrounding crowd began to discuss the matter spiritedly. However, no one belittled Chu Feng.

After all, the scene of Chu Feng killing that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder with merely a wave of his arm was something that they all saw.

Although Chu Feng killed that elder so effortlessly, his killing appeared to be extremely overbearing and domineering for these people here.

“Chu Feng, I’ve heard that you’ve killed Di Jiuzhou. Is that matter true?” Song Biyu asked curiously.

“There is indeed such a thing,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Amazing. You must know that Di Jiuzhou is the strongest disciple among our tier two powers,” Upon verifying this matter, Song Biyu was extremely delighted. An admiring gaze once again appeared in her eyes.

At the same time, the surrounding crowd also began to look to Chu Feng with more admiration and reverence in their gazes. Regardless of whether Chu Feng’s current cultivation was his own or not, the fact remained that it was no small matter that Chu Feng was both able to kill Di Jiuzhou and dared to kill Di Jiuzhou.

“Brother Kou Kang, are you certain you managed to tie in your sparring match with Chu Feng?”

At that moment, some people moved toward Kou Kang and began to ridicule him.

“Not to mention their cultivations, merely in terms of courage, he is already enormously far away from Chu Feng. He is simply unworthy of being compared with Chu Feng,” More and more people began to ridicule Kou Kang.

It was not that the crowd were composed of snobs. Rather, seeing was truly the best way of believing.

When they were all faced with that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder, Kou Kang revealed cowardice. He was so interested in saving himself that he even sold out his fellow disciples.

However, what Chu Feng displayed was unrestrained dominance. He was firm and decisive. With merely a wave of his sleeve, he killed that Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder.

The disparity between the two was truly too enormous. They simply could not be discussed together.

“You all...”

At that moment, Kou kang’s complexion turned pale. It was extremely ugly, as if he had been fed feces.

Even if he possessed an extremely thick skin, he would still feel somewhat unable to withstand the ridicule and supercilious looks from this many people. Thus, he turned around and planned to leave.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right when Kou Kang was planning to leave, the distant sky suddenly turned extremely dark. Black clouds were rolling about, and violent wind burst past.

An extremely powerful surge of aura was sweeping toward them, leaving behind waves of trembling everywhere it passed.

Finally, that surge of aura arrived. Finally, the crowd were able to see what the origin of that aura was.

It was a young man. He had a head of black hair, and wore a black gown. On his back was a cloak three meters long fluttering in the wind. As for that cloak, it too was black.

However, that man’s face was extremely pale, strangely pale. It was as pale as paper itself.

Fortunately, that man possessed a delicate and pretty face. However, it was precisely because it was too delicate and pretty that he appeared to resemble a female. As such, he gave off an uncomfortable sensation.

“Rank three Martial Ancestor.”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s gaze shone. He had managed to sense that man’s cultivation. Not only was he a rank three Martial Ancestor, he also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

In other words, that man’s true battle power was on par with ordinary rank six Martial Ancestors.

However, he was clearly still only a member of the younger generation.

It was definitely possible to count the members of the younger generation that were this powerful with one's fingers; they were extremely rare.

"It would appear that that man should be Hun Lian," Chu Feng said.

"W-w-why's that? W-why would he b-be Hun Lian, and n-not that Y-young Master Li Ming?" Wang Qiang asked curiously.

"This man is covered with killing intent. Furthermore, he emits a nefarious air all around. Furthermore, I am able to sense a heinous air from him."

"Although I do not know what Young Master Li Ming is like, I am certain that he should definitely not be like this."

Chu Feng was certain of this man's identity. The reason why he was so certain was because of the heinous air that man emitted.

Heinous, the heinous air from the taking of lives.

That heinous air was created from countless lives dying miserably by his hands.

That heinous air had affected that man. It would make him become even more cruel and vicious, make him become someone who would obtain his goals by fair means or foul.

However, to Chu Feng, what he hated the most was the fact that that man had taken so many lives.

If he were truly someone from the Infant Soul Sect, it would mean that all the lives he had taken were newborns.

With how intense the heinous air he gave off was, he had killed countless newborns, so unimaginably many.

After observing him for a while, Zhao Hong voiced her impression, “His killing intent and his nefarious air are all understandable. However, that heinous air seems to be something that could only be formed through taking countless lives. It seems that that guy has done a great amount of evil things, and is not a good man.” She too had a bad impression of that man.

“W-wife, haven’t y-you also killed a lot of p-people?” Wang Qiang said to Zhao Hong.

“Shut up. All those that I’ve killed were people that deserved to die,” Zhao Hong said coldly.

Although Wang Qiang was unwilling to accept her reasoning, he said no more. While he possessed the protection of the crystal giant now, as he had been tormented by Zhao Hong for a long time, he felt fear towards her from the bottom of his heart.

“Li Ming, since you’re here, why are you not showing yourself?” The black-clothed man revealed a nefarious smile as he cast his gaze toward the north.

“He is calling for Li Ming. It seems that he is Hun Lian,” Once he said those words, everyone became certain of his identity.

He was Hun Lian.

“When you haven’t arrived, why would I be in a rush to show myself?” Right at that moment, a voice slowly sounded from the direction the black clothed man was looking toward.

Following that, a ray of light flashed by. The ray of light approached the crowd and then stopped. At that moment, everyone managed to clearly see that man’s appearance.

Upon seeing that man, the eyes of many people present started to shine.

Chapter 2324 – The Outcome Of The Battle

---

This man wore a white gown and held a folding fan. His appearance was like that of a scholar. As for his appearance, it was even more feminine. Compared to Hun Lian, he looked even more like a woman.

In fact, with the way he looked, if he were to wear female clothing and decorate his hair, he would simply be a beautiful woman.

From this, it could be imagined how delicate and pretty his appearance was. It was truly rarely seen.

In fact, this man could be said to be the prettiest man that Chu Feng had ever met.

Furthermore, his pretty appearance gave off a comfortable feeling, whereas Hun Lian gave off a very uncomfortable sensation.

However, what Chu Feng was more concerned with was his cultivation.

He possessed the same level of cultivation as Hun Lian; he was also a rank three Martial Ancestor, and also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

The two men could be said to be equally matched. That said, Chu Feng was delighted to discover that this Young Master Li Ming possessed a completely different sort of aura to that Hun Lian.

Although his body was also covered with killing intent, he did not emit any heinous air.

This indirectly displayed that this Young Master Li Ming was someone who never willfully slaughtered the innocent, someone who did not seem to be a bad individual.

Of course, it might also be possible that he was a master of disguise, or possessed a treasure on him that could conceal his heinous air. As such, for certain things, Chu Feng could not be absolutely certain.

However, at the very least, Chu Feng's first impression of Young Master Li Ming was pretty decent.

“Wow! So handsome!”

At that moment, many of the women present started to scream wildly.

If the appearance of Hun Lian had stunned them, then the appearance of Young Master Li Ming had completely mesmerized them.

“F-fuck! W-what's w-with the taste these Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's w-women have? I-instead of being m-mesmerized by a manly man like m-me, they a-are a-actually into that sort of f-feminine man?” Wang Qiang said in displeasure.

“What?! You have this lady here! Yet you still dare to think about other women?!” Zhao Hong stared at Wang Qiang in a threatening manner.

“N-no, of course n-not. Y-you are the only one i-in my heart,” Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile.

“That's more like it,” Zhao Hong said.

“Hun Lian, as per your request, I have let news of this match spread. The bystanders are already here. Are we able to fight now?” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Of course,” Hun Lian smiled coldly. Then, he abruptly attacked.

“Boom~~~”

Hun Lian's powerful oppressive might immediately shot forth toward Young Master Li Ming. Furthermore, his oppressive might began to spread in all directions.

Everything happened too quickly. Furthermore, as that oppressive might was so strong, many people were engulfed by it.

“Ahh!!!”

Screams began to sound in succession. Those that were engulfed by the oppressive might were either killed or seriously injured. It was a tragic sight.

“That Hun Lian is actually that vicious? He is simply too excessive!” Seeing that scene, Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others immediately revealed scowls.

Even though their cultivations were not very strong, they knew that if experts wanted to exercise restraint when fighting, regardless of how powerful their oppressive might might be, then they would not cause these sorts of casualties.

The situation at hand was deliberately caused by Hun Lian. He had not bothered to restrain his oppressive might, for he simply did not care about the life and death of the bystanders.

“Humph.”

Young Master Li Ming snorted coldly. His body shifted, and then an equally powerful aura was emitted as he collided with Hun Lian.

Sure enough, it was as the crowd had anticipated, Young Master Li Ming’s strength was not at all inferior to Hun Lian’s.

His attacks were equally world-shakingly powerful. However, although his oppressive might was extremely powerful, it did not bring harm to the bystanders.

Compared to Hun Lian, this Young Master Li Ming had deliberately exercised restraint with his oppressive might so as to not bring harm to the bystanders.

This served as a greater proof of how savage and cruel Hun Lian was.

This, at this moment, it was no longer only Chu Feng and the others who had a bad impression of Hun Lian, many of the bystanders also began to have bad impressions of Hun Lian.

However, even though the crowd were feeling displeased, there was nothing they could do. Even those who had their friends or fellow disciples killed by Hun Lian before them could only restrain themselves.

After all, as Hun Lian and Young Master Li Ming fought one another, their strength became more and more distinctively revealed to the crowd.

Their enormous strength had already surpassed the boundary for people of the younger generation.

In fact, even many of the older generation present were unable to match up against the two of them.

Faced with such a powerful Hun Lian, they truly did not dare to say anything. If they were to enrage him, they would definitely be killed.

“Rumble~~~”

The battle grew more and more intense. At this moment, the bystanders had no choice but to draw back from the battlefield, because they were scared of being implicated by the battle and dying.

However, the crowd were unwilling to distance themselves too much from the battle; they did not wish to miss the confrontation between two peak geniuses.

That said, they were only able to spectate for the excitement. After all, Hun Lian and Young Master Li Ming were simply too strong. The confrontation between the two of them lifted wave upon wave of energy ripples that made it so that the crowd were simply unable to see the details of the battle.

The only thing that they could see were the ferocious energy ripples wreaking havoc through their surroundings.

However, Chu Feng was an exception.

Due to the fact that Chu Feng had grasped control over the slaughtering formation in this area, he was able to increase his cultivation at will all the way to rank nine Martial Ancestor.

Even though Chu Feng's Heavenly Bloodline would be sealed off after increasing his cultivation, causing him to lose his heaven-defying battle power, Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings in the process, the strength of Chu Feng's perception would subsequently increase.

Thus, Chu Feng was able to clearly see the confrontation between Hun Lian and Young Master Li Ming.

After observing the battle for some time, Chu Feng said, "They're quite powerful."

"C-Chu Feng, y-you are able to s-see their battle, right? T-then, do y-you know which one of them is stronger?" Wang Qiang asked Chu Feng.

"Both of them are very strong. Right now, they are equally matched. However, I feel that Hun Lian had nearly exhausted all of his strength, whereas Young Master Li Ming is still holding back slightly."

"Thus, I feel that Young Master Li Ming will have a higher chance of victory," Chu Feng said.

"T-that's good then," Wang Qiang seemed to also want Young Master Li Ming to win.

"Rumble~~~"

The rumbles grew more and more ear-piercing. The battle between the two men grew more and more intense. The abilities the two of them were using to fight one another also became more and more powerful.

However, the development of the battle was as Chu Feng had predicted. The equilibrium of the battle started to shift, and Young Master Li Ming began to gain the upper hand in the battle.

Hun Lian had been injured. He who was proud and arrogant became furious. He began to unleash counterattacks with all his might. However, regardless of what he did, it seemed that the battle was already under Young Master Li Ming's control. No matter how hard he tried to beat Li Ming back, he was unable to, and would only be humiliated by Young Master Li Ming time and time again.

“That Young Master Li Ming is quite interesting,” A light smile appeared on Chu Feng's face.

After hearing Chu Feng saying those words, Wang Qiang immediately asked curiously, “W-what, what? T-tell me what's happening. I can't see.”

Originally, Chu Feng planned to explain. However, suddenly, he smiled even stronger. “There's no need for me to tell you, you'll soon see it for yourself.”

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right after chu Feng said those words, a burst of wind appeared in Hun Lian and Young Master Li Ming's battlefield.

That wind instantly blew away the frightening energy ripples wreaking havoc through the battlefield.

“This...”

At this moment, the crowd were all stunned. They were stupefied by the scene before them.

At this moment, Young Master Li Ming was already gone. Only Hun Lian was still standing in the sky.

At this moment, Hun Lian was holding his Incomplete Ancestral Armament with a furious expression. He was fiercely running his eyes all around, seemingly trying to find Young Master Li Ming.

However, if that were all there was, the crowd would naturally not be so astonished.

The reason why the crowd was astonished was because Hun Lian was not only covered with cuts flowing with blood, even his clothes were tattered. At a glance, he appeared to be in an extremely sorry state. In fact, his appearance was similar to that of a beggar.

His sorry state made the crowd realize that the outcome of the confrontation between the strongest geniuses seemed to have been decided.

Chapter 2325 – Chu Feng Acting

---

“Hun Lian, the outcome of the battle has been decided.”

“I will spare you this once today. However, if you dare to provoke me again, I will take your dog life.”

Right at that moment, Young Master Li Ming’s voice was suddenly heard. However, his figure was nowhere to be seen.

Furthermore, his voice also grew further and further away as he spoke. It seemed as if he was leaving.

“Li Ming, get back here! The outcome of the battle hasn’t been decided yet! I want to continue the battle!” Hun Lian shouted.

Hun Lian’s voice was so resounding that it caused space itself to tremble nonstop. Many people hurriedly covered their ears. Some of the people with low levels of cultivation were unable to withstand Hun Lian’s voice, and ended up vomiting blood and dying.

However, even though Hun Lian shouted like this, there was no response from Young Master Li Ming. It seemed that he had truly left.

However, even with that being the case, Hun Lian still continued to shout.

Evidently, he was unwilling to accept that he had been defeated by Young Master Li Ming like this.

“You should just shut up. Look at yourself, why are you still shouting?” At that moment, Zhao Hong was unable to continue watching anymore, and shouted at Hun Lian with contempt.

“T-that’s right. Y-you’re t-truly shameless,” Wang Qiang added with an expression of displeasure on his face.

Although the two of them had not gained control of the slaughtering formation, and held strength inferior to Hun Lian, they possessed the crystal giants to protect them.

As the crystal giants possessed the strength of peak Martial Ancestors, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were not afraid of Hun Lian. As such, they would naturally dare to say anything they wanted.

“What did you two say?!”

However, how could the conceited and arrogant Hun Lian possibly tolerate others speaking ill of him? He immediately turned a gaze radiating with killing intent toward Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

His gaze was filled with threatening intent.

However, faced with Hun Lian’s threatening gaze, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong’s expressions remained unchanged.

Seeing how unphased the two of them were, many of the bystanders began to have a whole new level of respect toward Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. Furthermore, due to the fact that the two of them were not wearing their conical bamboo hats, the crowd began to remember their appearances.

As for why, it was naturally because the two of them spoke what the great majority of the people present did not dare to say. As such, the crowd felt that the two of them were grand characters too.

“W-what, y-you d-don’t understand what we said?”

“V-very well, this g-great sir s-shall re-repeat what I said for you.”

“I said, you are t-trash,” Wang Qiang said those words vigorously and one word at a time.

“You’re courting death!!!” Hun Lian snorted coldly. Then, he shot forth a punch. His boundless Ancestral-level martial power turned into two bursts of wind. Like two giant ferocious beasts, the wind came crashing toward Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong from above.

The attack of his single punch was extremely strong. If it struck them, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong would definitely die. Even Chu Feng, Xu Yiyi and many of the bystanders would be implicated by the punch.

At that moment, the ruthlessness of that Hun Lian was once again completely revealed to the crowd.

All he cared about was himself, and he did not concern himself with the lives and deaths of others at all.

However, to Chu Feng's surprise, even though Hun Lian had already shot forth his punch, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong did not unleash their crystal giants, and did not seem to plan on doing so.

With their strength, it was simply impossible for them to block Hun Lian's attack. After all, Hun Lian was a powerful existence that could match ordinary rank six Martial Ancestors.

‘These two, they’re forcing me to act.’

Chu Feng felt helpless. He had already managed to tell that the reason why Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang did not unleash their crystal giants after provoking Hun Lian was because they wanted him to take care of that Hun Lian.

“Oh no!”

Even though Chu Feng understood Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang's intention, the others did not. Seeing that Hun Lian had shot forth his punch, but Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong did not do anything to block his attack, they all felt that the two of them would meet certain doom.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right at the moment when everyone felt that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong would be killed by Hun Lian, Chu Feng suddenly waved his sleeve and brought forth a burst of wind that shot upward.

“Boom~~~”

The strong wind was stronger than even the two bursts of wind shot forth by Hun Lian’s punch. It dispersed Hun Lian’s attack easily.

“Mn?”

At that moment, Hun Lian’s gaze changed immediately. A dense amount of shock appeared in his vicious and proud eyes.

“That aura earlier was so strong. Could it be... Chu Feng, he... he’s a rank six Martial Ancestor?”

The very next moment, the crowd present burst into an uproar. Everyone began to fix their gazes onto Chu Feng. Astonishment filling their eyes.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s aura had indeed increased to that of a rank six Martial Ancestor now.

As for that, it was naturally not Chu Feng’s actual cultivation. Chu Feng’s actual cultivation was that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor.

As for his cultivation of rank six Martial Ancestor, it was something that Chu Feng had obtained through the Slaughtering Formation’s effect of increasing one’s cultivation.

By relying on the Slaughtering Formation’s power, Chu Feng was actually able to increase his cultivation even higher. However, Chu Feng had seen Hun Lian’s abilities earlier. As such, he wanted to confront this Hun Lian at an equal strength. After all, a battle like this would be very beneficial to Chu Feng.

“You actually possess the cultivation of a rank six Half Martial Ancestor? Who are you?” Hun Lian said while looking at Chu Feng.

“A-are you a fool or what? Y-you actually d-don’t even recognize my brother C-Chu Feng?” Wang Qiang said with displeasure.

“Chu Feng? You are that Chu Feng who became an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist on Mount Cloud Crane?!” Hun Lian asked in shock. Evidently, he had not yet seen Chu Feng’s portrait. Thus, he was uncertain of Chu Feng’s identity.

“That’s right. It w-was done by my brother,” Wang Qiang nodded immediately. Unconcealed pride covered his face.

“I originally thought that you only possessed attainments in terms of world spirit techniques. Never would I have imagined that your cultivation is actually so powerful. It would appear that stutterer and that girl are your friends? Are you planning to stick up for your friends here?” Hun Lian asked coldly.

Although Chu Feng’s current cultivation was that of a rank six Martial Ancestor, Hun Lian was still looking at Chu Feng with a gaze of slight contempt. It was as if he felt that he would be able to easily take care of Chu Feng.

“No, it’s not only to stick up for them. Rather, it’s because I feel that someone like you, someone who willfully slaughters the innocent, should not be left alive,” Chu Feng said with a light smile.

Although his smile appeared good-natured, killing intent was hidden within it.

Chu Feng suspect Hun Lian to be a member of the Infant Soul Sect. As for the people from the Infant Soul Sect, Chu Feng did not plan to spare them to begin with.

At that moment, even though Chu Feng could not be absolutely certain that Hun Lian was a member of the Infant Soul Sect, it remained that Hun Lian’s methods were simply too ruthless and cruel.

Chu Feng felt that Hun Lian was a scourge. Rather than disregarding him, it would be better to eliminate him and help to destroy evil for the people of the world.

Thus, even without Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's provocation, Chu Feng had not planned to let Hun Lian get away.

"You actually want to kill me? Hahaha. Interesting. You are even more arrogant than that Young Master Li Ming."

"However, you should know that this is a world of martial cultivators. In this world, one must use one's strength to speak," Hun Lian had managed to see through Chu Feng's killing intent. As he spoke, he held his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and charged to kill Chu Feng.

"Naturally, we will have to speak with our strength," Chu Feng smiled indifferently. Then, he soared into the sky. With a flip of his palm, the Magma Emperor Sword appeared in his hand. Then, he collided with Hun Lian.

"Rumble~~~"

At that moment, explosions surged in the sky as martial power burst forth. The scene of the frightening battle between Hun Lian and Young Master Li Ming appeared once again.

Merely, this time around, even though the might of the battle was on par with the battle before, the might of the energy ripples were weaker than before.

It was not that the battle between Chu Feng and Hun Lian was inferior to the battle between Li Ming and Hun Lian.

Rather, Chu Feng was afraid of bringing harm to the bystanders, and had used his power to suppress the energy ripples formed from their battle.

Furthermore, it just so happened that some of the perceptive experts from the older generation managed to see through what Chu Feng was doing.

As such, they were unable to contain themselves from exclaiming in admiration, “A child like that Chu Feng is truly rare. He is a blessing to our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

Chapter 2326 – Straightforward And Upright

---

“Senior, why did you say that?” A curious individual asked.

“For the sake of protecting us, Chu Feng has deliberately contained the energy ripples from his confrontation with Hun Lian, preventing them from becoming too ferocious and injuring us, all while fighting against him.”

“This means that he has a kind heart. Although there are a lot of geniuses, the majority of them are proud and arrogant individuals that only care about themselves, and could care less about the lives and deaths of others.”

“You can take that Hun Lian as a perfect example. He simply does not care about our lives. In fact, he even intentionally brought harm upon us to show us how powerful he is.”

“As for that Young Master Li Ming, even though his strength surpassed Hun Lian’s, and he had not deliberately harmed us, the only thing he cared about was defeating Hun Lian, and thus he did not bother to put a curb on Hun Lian’s overbearing behavior.”

“While it cannot be said that Young Master Li Ming is a bad individual, it could be said that he still possesses the same sort of proud mentality the great majority of geniuses possess. Although he does not do evil, he does not plan to eliminate evil either.”

“However, that Chu Feng is different. I do not feel the same arrogance that other geniuses exhibit from him,” That old man began to praise Chu Feng nonstop. The more he praised, the more intensely passionate his gaze became.

After hearing what that old man said, many of the people from the younger generation realized what Chu Feng was silently doing for them, and began to hold deeper respect toward Chu Feng.

“Merely, with how powerful that Hun Lian is, I truly wonder if Chu Feng will be able to defeat him,” As more people began to think highly of Chu Feng, they also began to become increasingly worried for Chu Feng.

After all, with Hun Lian’s moral character, if Chu Feng were to not be a match for him, he would definitely kill Chu Feng and his friends. In fact, even a portion of the bystanders would most definitely be killed by him.

As for that, it was a result that the crowd did not wish for.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, an ear-piercing rumble sounded from the sky.

Energy ripples surged on as the rumbling continued. Countless spatial cracks began to appear. Then, space and the void shattered, turning the sky pitch-black.

Their power was so strong that even space was shattered by it.

At the moment when space began to reform and the energy ripples began to dissipate, the crowd were finally able to see what had happened.

Chu Feng and Hun Lian were both standing in the sky. While Chu Feng was completely undamaged, Hun Lian’s injuries had grown even more serious. This was especially true for his chest; there was a large hole there. Blood was gushing out of that hole.

At the same time, Hun Lian’s aura had also become increasingly weak. He had already lost the enormous battle power he had displayed earlier.

“He won! Chu Feng actually won!”

“Chu Feng won!!!”

“Chu Feng defeated Hun Lian!!!”

At that moment, cheers sounded from the crowd.

The crowd was extremely excited. It could be seen how much they wanted Chu Feng to win.

“Impossible! How could you possibly defeat me?!” Hun Lian had a sinister expression. He seemed to not be concerned with his injuries at all. Rather, using his unreconciled gaze, he stared at Chu Feng.

He was still unable to accept being defeated by Chu Feng.

“Firstly, I must admit that you’re very powerful. At the very least, you are stronger than the current me,” Chu Feng said.

“.....”

Once Chu Feng said those words, the crowd’s expressions all changed. They were flabbergasted. They did not understand why he would say that he was inferior to Hun Lian when he had defeated Hun Lian.

“Are you insulting me?!” Hun Lian grew even more furious.

Even though he was unwilling to admit that he had been defeated by Chu Feng, he still knew very well that he was defeated by Chu Feng.

Thus, he felt that Chu Feng saying those words after defeating him was simply insulting him.

“Truth be told, the reason why I am able to defeat you so easily is because I had already seen your various abilities when you fought against Young Master Li Ming earlier. Thus, I already knew how I should handle you.”

“If I hadn’t personally seen your abilities in your confrontation with Young Master Li Ming, and had instead fought against you without knowing any of your abilities, it would have been impossible for me to defeat you this easily.”

“Then and most importantly, my current cultivation is not my true cultivation,” Chu Feng said.

“What are you implying? Are you trying to tell me that you concealed your cultivation?” Hun Lian’s expression changed again. It seemed that he was afraid that he would be humiliated again.

“No,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. He shook his head and said, “My actual cultivation is that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor.”

“Rank five Half Martial Ancestor?”

“You said that you’re a rank five Half Martial Ancestor?”

“If that’s the case, then what is this cultivation that you have now?” Hearing those words, Hun Lian’s expression changed enormously. He was completely puzzled.

“My current cultivation is something that I obtained through using a spirit formation,” Chu Feng said calmly. He seemed to not feel disgraced for obtaining his cultivation with special means. After all, it was the truth.

Originally, Chu Feng didn’t have to tell Hun Lian or the others about this. However, he knew very well that if he did not rely on the spirit formation and relied only on his actual cultivation, it would have been impossible for him to defeat Hun Lian.

That was why Chu Feng declared that Hun Lian was stronger than him. After all, if they were to compete with their actual cultivations, even ten thousand Chu Fengs would not be a match for a single Hun Lian.

That was the truth. As for Chu Feng, he did not wish to conceal that sort of truth.

“Look. Didn’t I say that Chu Feng’s character is excellent?”

“Chu Feng is a straightforward and upright man of character.”

However, unexpectedly, Chu Feng’s telling of the truth did not receive denouncements from the crowd. Instead, they started to commend him. They all felt that Chu Feng was a sincere individual.

“Hahahaha...”

However, right at that moment, Hun Lian burst into loud laughter. He laughed very proudly and arrogantly.

“So you were only able to defeat me by using a spirit formation. In that case, you are nothing more than trash.”

Faced with Chu Feng’s candidness, Hun Lian did not feel grateful in the slightest, and instead started to ridicule Chu Feng.

Xu Yiyi was unable to take it anymore and shouted, “How shameless could you be?! Even if Chu Feng’s actual cultivation is inferior to yours, you were still defeated by him when your battle power was on par with one another! This means that when Chu Feng’s cultivation manages to catch up to yours in the future, you will still be inferior to him!”

“That’s right. Little friend Chu Feng was open with you, yet you’re actually ridiculing him like this. You are truly too excessive. I have never seen someone as shameless as you.”

In fact, even some of the people that were unrelated to Chu Feng were unable to watch anymore. They too began to refute Hun Lian.

The reason why they dared to refute Hun Lian like this was because they had personally seen that Chu Feng had defeated Hun Lian. As such, they became more confident, and felt that they were backed by Chu Feng.

Else... they would naturally not dare to contradict Hun Lian.

“Who the hell do you all think you all are to meddle in my business? All of you are simply courting death!”

Hun Lian glowered at the crowd. Then, he waved his sleeve and sent forth layer upon layer of martial power. He wanted to completely obliterate all those that dared to contradict him, including Xu Yiyi.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right after Hun Lian's martial power was sent forth, before it could be an actual threat to Xu Yiyi and the others, an even stronger martial power blocked his martial power.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng had blocked Hun Lian's martial power. Furthermore, using his martial power, Chu Feng sent forth his martial power toward Hun Lian and ended up restricting his movements.

"Chu Feng, what are you planning to do?!" Hun Lian started to panic slightly.

At that moment, he was seriously injured. While he was still capable of bullying Xu Yiyi and the others, he already no longer possessed the strength to fight Chu Feng. Merely Chu Feng's ordinary martial power that had restricted him was sufficient to kill him.

"Hun Lian, although I admit that you are very strong, I cannot find a reason to allow someone like you to live," Chu Feng looked to Hun Lian indifferently. There was not a trace of emotion in his eyes.

"You want to kill me?" The panic on Hun Lian's face grew stronger. He knew that Chu Feng was truly capable of killing him.

"That's right," Once Chu Feng said those words, his killing intent was completely revealed. His ferocious martial power was going to take Hun Lian's life.

Chapter 2327 – Old Demon Rakshasa

---

“Boom~~~”

However, right at that moment, a burst of boundless power suddenly appeared. That power forcibly dispersed the martial power Chu Feng had restricted Hun Lian with.

At that moment, Chu Feng started to frown. The reason for that was because he was shocked to discover that a figure had appeared before Hun Lian. It was that person who had dispersed his martial power.

This person had a head full of white hair. He was wearing a black gown. He was as thin as a matchstick, and his face was filled with wrinkles.

Too old. Chu Feng was unable to determine how long this man had lived for.

He was that sort of individual who at first glance would appear to be a dried corpse that had walked out of a coffin. His appearance was truly terrifying.

This old man was evidently someone who was nearing the limit of his lifespan. In fact, he appeared to be an old monster who had reached the end of his lifespan, and was relying on special means to extend it.

From him, Chu Feng felt a heinous air several times denser than the one he felt from Hun Lian. This made it very apparent that it was very likely that he was a member of the Infant Soul Sect.

However, this old man's strength was something that one absolutely could not look down on. Through relying on the power of the slaughtering formation, Chu Feng was able to sense that this man was a rank nine Martial Ancestor. He was a peak Martial Ancestor, someone who was only a step away from becoming a True Immortal-level existence.

Furthermore, in addition to the dense heinous air that he emitted, the killing intent that this old man emitted was even stronger. The sky immediately darkened the moment he appeared, and his frightening killing intent covered the entire region, causing all the people present to tremble with fear.

“Heavens! This person, could he be the legendary Old Demon Rakshasa?!”

Suddenly, an aged spectator pointed to the old man standing before Hun Lian and cried out in alarm. As he spoke those words, fear filled his face. In fact, even his voice was trembling.

“What? Old Demon Rakshasa? That man is the legendary Old Demon Rakshasa?!”

“The Old Demon Rakshasa is actually still alive?!”

“Everyone, quickly, run away!!!”

After verifying the identity of the old man, many of the people present started to panic. Many others started to tremble in fear before running away from that so-called Old Demon Rakshasa. Their fears were completely revealed.

“Master. Master, save me,” After seeing that old man, Hun Lian was both surprised and overjoyed. As if he had seen hope, he immediately cried out for help.

“Look at your disappointing behavior, stop shouting.”

“With your master, I, here, no one will be able to bring the slightest bit of harm to you,” the Old Demon Rakshasa turned around and glared at Hun Lian. He seemed to be disappointed with him.

Faced with the stare from the Old Demon Rakshasa, although Hun Lian had an expression of shame all over his face, he managed to stabilize his state of mind, and no longer shouted in panic like before.

“What?! No wonder that Hun Lian is this savage and cruel. So he is actually... Old Demon Rakshasa’s disciple!!!”

“Little friend Chu Feng, quickly, escape! That Old Demon Rakshasa is not someone you can handle!”

“Chu Feng, quickly, escape!!!”

After the crowd found out that Hun Lian was actually Old Demon Rakshasa’s disciple, many people started to send voice transmissions to Chu Feng to tell him to escape. Even Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu were warning Chu Feng through voice transmissions.

All of the voice transmissions were filled with nervousness and unrest.

Furthermore, from the conversations of the bystanders, Chu Feng came to realize who this Old Demon Rakshasa was.

Old Demon Rakshasa was one of the strongest characters in the Hundred Refinement Ordinary Realm. As his name implied, he was not a good man. Instead, he was a fiendish demon.

However, it seemed that this man had disappeared for many years. As such, others would naturally be shocked for him to reappear now.

That said, at the same time that he brought shock upon the crowd, he also brought fear upon them. The reason for that was because the vicious reputation of the Old Demon Rakshasa was simply too strong. He was the sort of individual that was extremely powerful, and would commit all kinds of unimaginable crimes.

He was an existence a step away from becoming a True Immortal.

Faced with someone like him, it was no wonder why some of the spectators would be so scared that they immediately turned around to flee. Likely, they were afraid of being implicated.

However, Chu Feng was not afraid. The reason for that was because from the conversations of the crowd and his own observations, he discovered that while this Old Demon Rakshasa possessed an extremely powerful cultivation, he was not someone who possessed heaven-defying battle power.

In other words, both his cultivation and his actual battle power were at the level of a rank nine Martial Ancestor.

To Chu Feng, who possessed two crystal giants and controlled the grand slaughtering formation, that Old Demon Rakshasa's cultivation was not sufficient to bring him fear. At the very least, Chu Feng was confident enough to battle him.

“Chu Feng, he's... not escaping?”

“Could he be stunned with fear?”

Although Chu Feng was confident enough to fight against the Old Demon Rakshasa, the bystanders had no idea of this. Thus, when they saw that Chu Feng was standing there motionlessly, they all thought that Chu Feng was stunned with terror by Old Demon Rakshasa.

“Master, that Chu Feng's cultivation is only that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor.”

“He has grasped some sort of grand formation that allowed him to gain his current level of cultivation. He relied on that spirit formation to bully this disciple.”

“Master, you must definitely uphold justice for this disciple,” Hun Lian said with deep grievance.

“Rest assured. Not to mention Chu Feng, none of the people present here today shall continue to live,” Old Demon Rakshasa said coldly.

Once he said those words, boundless killing intent emerged in his eyes.

Immediately afterward, his boundless oppressive might surged forth from his body like a volcanic eruption. With unimaginable speed, and a power capable of enormous destruction, it swept toward the surroundings.

That Old Demon Rakshasa was not only planning to kill Chu Feng alone. Rather, he was planning to eliminate all of the people present.

His title as an ‘Old Demon’ was truly well-deserved. Sure enough, he was extremely inhumane and savage.

“I fear that you will not be able to do as you wish.”

With Chu Feng here, how could he possibly allow this Old Demon Rakshasa to openly slaughter the crowd?

As Chu Feng spoke, with a thought, he activated the power of the grand slaughtering formation to increase his cultivation once again. He increased his cultivation from rank six Martial Ancestor to peak Martial Ancestor.

After increasing his cultivation, Chu Feng let out his oppressive might to protect the crowd present.

“Boom~~~”

The two streams of oppressive might collided with one another. Immediately, heaven and earth started to tremble, and violent winds were formed.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng had managed to successfully block the Old Demon Rakshasa’s oppressive might with his own.

“How could this be?” The Old Demon Rakshasa’s expression changed enormously.

Being extremely confident, he had thought that he would be able to completely slaughter this bunch of ants with only his oppressive might. However, his oppressive might was blocked. As such, how could he not be startled?

“It’s you?!”

“You’re actually a rank nine Martial Ancestor?”

He tracked down the source of that oppressive might, and determined it to be Chu Feng. Shock, absolute shock was visible as the shock in his eyes grew even stronger.

After all, at that moment, Chu Feng’s cultivation had increased to a level on par with his own.

He had truly never expected that this member of the younger generation who was only able to fight against his disciple by relying on a spirit formation was actually able to block his oppressive might.

“Rank nine Martial Ancestor?”

“Chu Feng’s cultivation actually reached rank nine Martial Ancestor?”

“In that case, it was Chu Feng that saved us earlier?”

The crowd were simply unable to detect Chu Feng’s current level of cultivation. After all, his cultivation had reached an extremely high level that ordinary people were no longer capable of detecting.

However, after hearing what Old Demon Rakshasa said, the crowd realized that it was Chu Feng that had saved them.

But Chu Feng was clearly only a member of the younger generation. How could he possibly possess this level of cultivation, how could he possess the power to confront Old Demon Rakshasa?

At the same time that they were delighted to be saved, the crowd began to have more questions in their hearts.

“It is merely strength that I borrowed from my spirit formation’s power,” Chu Feng replied indifferently.

“Spirit formation? What sort of spirit formation could possibly grant you this sort of power?”

“Furthermore, even if there is a spirit formation this powerful, how could you possibly be able to control it?” Old Demon Rakshasa asked with a cold voice.

What he had asked was also what the bystanders wanted to ask. It was not that they had never heard of powerful spirit formations before. However, those were all only legends that they had heard about, whereas this was the first time that they were actually seeing one. As such, they all felt disbelief.

“That doesn’t seem to concern you, no?” Chu Feng smiled lightly. There was a trace of contempt in his sharp gaze.

Chapter 2328 – Witness A Miracle

---

“You dare speak to me in such a manner? You are truly courting death! Do you really think that you will really be able to contend against me just because a spirit formation has temporarily granted you the power of a rank nine Martial Ancestor?”

As Old Demon Rakshasa spoke, he shot forth a palm strike. Boundless martial power surged toward Chu Feng.

Although his current attack was only a simple attack with martial power, his frightening power was many times stronger than the power of his oppressive might that he tried to kill the crowd with earlier.

This meant that Old Demon Rakshasa was quite serious when he attacked this time around; it was not an ordinary attack.

“Boom~~~”

However, faced with this rather serious attack from Old Demon Rakshasa, Chu Feng was able to neutralize it with merely a lift of his hand.

After neutralizing Old Demon Rakshasa’s attack, Chu Feng said indifferently, “It is not up to you to decide whether or not I am able to contend against you. Rather, it is up to me.”

“You!!!”

“Are you courting death!!!”

Seeing that Chu Feng actually dared to provoke him, the anger on Old Demon Rakshasa’s face doubled. As he spoke, his arms began to move, and wind started to lift his gown. His boundless martial power turned into many martial skills that he shot forth in succession, as if to bombard Chu Feng.

“Humph.”

However, faced with Old Demon Rakshasa’s ferocious attack,

Chu Feng only snorted lightly. He too unleashed equally powerful martial skills as a counterattack against Old Demon Rakshasa's martial skills.

“Boom, boom, boom~~~”

At that moment, the two fighters collided with one another. Merely, the battlefield this time was so ferocious that the previous battlefield was simply incomparable to the current one.

Even though Chu Feng acted to lessen the might of the energy ripples, those energy ripples remained terrifyingly powerful.

In such a situation, the bystanders had no choice but to once again move away from the battlefield and keep their distance. They were deeply afraid of being implicated by the battle and dying.

“This is bad! Even though little friend Chu Feng has grasped that legendary grand formation, his opponent remains that Old Demon Rakshasa!!!”

“I truly never expected Hun Lian to have Old Demon Rakshasa as his backing. It is no wonder he dares to act that arrogantly and willfully slaughters the innocent.”

Even though the confrontation between Chu Feng and Old Demon Rakshasa was equally matched for now, the crowd did not feel that Chu Feng would really be able to win against Old Demon Rakshasa.

As such, the crowd were all worried for Chu Feng, thinking that things would end disastrously.

“Emperor Taboo: Blood Prison Technique.” Old Demon Rakshasa shouted. He had actually unleashed an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

That Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was something that Hun Lian had used earlier. It was extremely powerful, and could be said to be the strongest attack Hun Lian possessed.

Being unleashed by Old Demon Rakshasa, the might of the Emperor Taboo: Blood Prison Technique was many times more powerful than when Hun Lian had unleashed it.

Not mentioning the difference in cultivation, and merely in terms of mastery of the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, if Hun Lian had grasped sixty percent mastery, then this Old Demon Rakshasa had grasped absolute mastery.

Crimson martial power sealed off heaven and earth. It was as if this place had turned into hell, that Old Demon Rakshasa was the one who had power over the lives and deaths of the people here.

Panic and unease filled everyone's heart. At that moment, the people that decided to stay behind to observe the battle began to regret their decision.

The reason for that was because they all felt life threatening danger from that martial skill.

Old Demon Rakshasa didn't seem to only be planning to kill Chu Feng. Rather, it seemed that he planned to use that martial skill to slaughter everyone here.

“Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation!!!”

Right at the moment when the crowd felt that the situation was bad, Chu Feng shouted loudly. Then, he shot forth a punch. Immediately, the sky crumbled, and the crimson fog that had covered the region was beaten back.

Old Demon Rakshasa's Emperor Taboo Martial Skill had been defeated by a single punch from Chu Feng.

“So powerful!”

“Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation, is that the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill Chu Feng used?”

“What a powerful martial skill. Although it does not give off the appearance of being capable of shaking the heaven and earth, its might was powerful enough to disperse Old Demon Rakshasa's Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. It is truly powerful."

"In that case, Chu Feng, he... is truly able to contend against Old Demon Rakshasa?!"

Seeing that Chu Feng had managed to successfully beat back Old Demon Rakshasa's Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, the bystanders were extremely delighted, and began to praise Chu Feng repeatedly.

Originally, they all felt that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to contend against Old Demon Rakshasa. However now, they had changed their opinion.

"You actually managed to destroy my Emperor Taboo: Blood Prison Technique? It would seem that you have some abilities."

"I must admit that you are a rare genius."

"Your talent has surpassed my disciple's."

At that moment, the gaze that Old Demon Rakshasa looked to Chu Feng with had changed. He actually revealed an admiring gaze.

After fighting against Chu Feng, he had no choice but to admit that Chu Feng was extremely talented. It was unrelated to his cultivation. Rather, it was purely his talent for martial cultivation and comprehension for martial techniques.

Else, even if the grand slaughtering formation was capable of helping Chu Feng increase his cultivation, if Chu Feng himself did not possess actual abilities, it would be impossible for him to contend against Old Demon Rakshasa.

"Old Demon Rakshasa actually gave Chu Feng such an evaluation?!"

"It would seem that Chu Feng's talent is truly superb. He is most definitely the peak genius of our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

Once Old Demon Rakshasa said those words, the crowd burst into an uproar again. The reason for that was because Old Demon Rakshasa was someone who very rarely praised others. Moreover, he was praising Chu Feng, his opponent.

At that moment when a majority of the people revealed joyous expressions from Old Demon Rakshasa’s praise of Chu Feng, the expression of Old Demon Rakshasa’s disciple, Hun Lian, turned very ugly.

Being extremely conceited, he never felt that he was inferior to Chu Feng in any aspect. This was especially true after he discovered that Chu Feng had increased his cultivation with a grand formation, and Chu Feng’s actual strength was inferior to his own; Hun Lian had felt even more certain that Chu Feng was inferior to him.

Yet, at that moment, his master had actually personally declared that Chu Feng’s talent surpassed his own. As such, how could he possibly be able to tolerate that?!

“Unfortunately, killing a genius like you is what this old man is most fond of doing,” Soon, the corners of Old Demon Rakshasa’s lips were raised into a strange and cold smile.

As he spoke, Old Demon Rakshasa flipped his palm and took out an Ancestral Armament.

That’s right, what he took out was an actual Ancestral Armament. It was an axe, a dark black axe that emitted a strange crimson gaseous substance. It was as if the axe was telling everyone that it had killed countless people.

“Ancestral Armament, Purgatory Demon Axe!!!”

“That is Old Demon Rakshasa’s Ancestral Armament, the Purgatory Demon Axe!!!”

Upon seeing that axe, cries of alarm sounded from the crowd again. From their reaction, Chu Feng was able to tell that Old Demon Rakshasa's Ancestral Armament was as renowned as Old Demon Rakshasa himself.

“Old Demon Rakshasa, an existence whom countless experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm could do nothing about, was actually forced to unleash his Ancestral Armament by Chu Feng, a member of the younger generation?”

“Exactly what sort of grand formation did Chu Feng grasp? Exactly how talented is he?”

“It seems that Chu Feng's grandness has already surpassed our imagination.”

“The battle today is truly marvelous. We have not stayed to watch this battle with our lives on the line in vain.”

“Chu Feng, fight on! If you are able to kill that demon, you will become the number one genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. No one will be able to be mentioned alongside you.”

With Old Demon Rakshasa unleashing his Ancestral Armament, the crowd, instead of becoming afraid, grew more excited.

The reason for that was because this indirectly displayed that Old Demon Rakshasa would not be able to defeat Chu Feng if he did not use his Ancestral Armament. This once again displayed how powerful Chu Feng was. As matters stood, the people present all wished for Chu Feng to win.

Being so overwhelmingly excited, the crowd were even willing to sacrifice themselves and stay here to continue watching this battle.

The reason for that was because they wanted to witness this member of the younger generation, Chu Feng, defeat Old Demon Rakshasa.

They wanted to witness the occurrence of an impossibility.

They wanted to witness the birth of a miracle.

Chapter 2329 – Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill

---

“How could that guy Chu Feng be so abnormally powerful?”

At that moment when everyone was filled with excitement and cheering for Chu Feng’s greatness, Kou Kang had an expression of displeasure.

He braved the risk of possible death to stay here not because he wanted to witness a miracle. Rather, he wanted to witness Chu Feng meet a violent death. Only then could he alleviate the hatred in his heart.

However, what was with this situation right now? It was one thing for Chu Feng to be able to defeat Hun Lian. After all, he had grasped an extremely powerful spirit formation.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng was capable of fighting against even the renowned Old Demon Rakshasa. This was something that Kou Kang felt truly unable to accept.

Exactly what sort of spirit formation was capable of contending against Old Demon Rakshasa?

One must know that Old Demon Rakshasa was one of the peak experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He was a truly grand character.

Not to mention a mere person from the younger generation, even existences like the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master and the Three Stars Hall’s headmaster would be inferior by an entire level when placed before Old Demon Rakshasa.

Logically, Old Demon Rakshasa should be an existence that people from the younger generation were unable to reach. To them, he should be someone akin to god.

However, it was precisely an existence like him who was currently locked in a hard battle with Chu Feng. As such, Kou Kang was truly incapable of accepting it.

After all, the more powerful Chu Feng was, the weaker he would be by comparison. When the gap between them was this enormous, it would only make Kou Kang feel even more petty and low, making him feel as if he were a clown.

“Boom~~~”

Right at that moment, the Ancestral Armament Old Demon Rakshasa held in his hand started to tremble slightly. Then, a burst of boundless oppressive might was emitted from it. Once that oppressive might was emitted, heaven and earth started to tremble violently.

An enormous commotion was happening at that moment. Even though the people present were all martial cultivators, and many among them were experts, practically everyone apart from Chu Feng was swaying left and right, unable to stand firm. Furthermore, they had lost their ability to fly in the sky.

At that moment, Old Demon Rakshasa’s battle power increased enormously. It was clear how mighty an Ancestral Armament was.

“Sssss~~~”

When sensing the might of an Ancestral Armament for themselves, many of the people present were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air. Furthermore, for people like Xu Yiyi, they revealed worried expressions, and began to sweat cold bullets for Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because a sudden thought came to their minds. While Old Demon Rakshasa had used his Ancestral Armament to increase his battle power, Chu Feng most likely did not possess an Ancestral Armament. After all, Chu Feng’s actual cultivation was that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. With that level of cultivation, it would be impossible for him to subdue an actual Ancestral Armament.

Judging it like that, it would likely be very difficult for Chu Feng to defeat Old Demon Rakshasa. After all, the might of an Ancestral Armament was not something that an Incomplete Ancestral Armament could match up to. The gap between them was no small matter.

Thus, at that time, the crowd all began to feel that they were celebrating too early, and had underestimated Old Demon Rakshasa's true strength.

‘Hehe, Chu Feng, you’re going to panic now, no?’

When everyone else was worried for Chu Feng, Kou Kang was so overjoyed that flowers blossomed in his heart.

The reason for that was because he also felt the might of that Ancestral Armament. It was indeed extremely frightening. Thus, he felt that Chu Feng, who did not possess an Ancestral Armament, would likely not be a match for Old Demon Rakshasa.

Thus, as Kou Kan was taking joy in Chu Feng's calamity, he turned his gaze to Chu Feng's face. He wanted to personally see Chu Feng's ugly expression.

“This guy,” However, upon looking at Chu Feng's face, Kou Kang's heart that had just bloomed with joy was immediately frozen.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng did not have the slightest trace of panic on his face. On the contrary, there was a slight smile on his face. It was a calm smile.

“Did you really think that you would be able to defeat me just because you’ve unleashed your Ancestral Armament?” Chu Feng looked at Old Demon Rakshasa and spoke dully.

Although the appearance of the Ancestral Armament brought forth surging might and greatly increased Old Demon Rakshasa's battle power, Chu Feng was still as confident as ever, as he had grasped the grand slaughtering formation.

Due to the fact that Chu Feng had gained control over the grand slaughtering formation, he was most certain of how frightening the power he held was. Thus, he knew that Old Demon Rakshasa would not be able to defeat him even after unleashing his Ancestral Armament.

“I have a feeling that the grand formation you have grasped is extremely powerful. Likely, even after using my Purgatory Demon Axe, I will still not be able to kill you.”

“However, Chu Feng, I dare to guarantee that what I will use later is enough to consign you to eternal damnation.”

Once Old Demon Rakshasa said those words, his eyes turned crimson in color. Following that, a burst of boundless oppressive might instantly enveloped this region.

When that oppressive might appeared, not to mention the others, even Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously. A life threatening sensation that he had never felt before appeared in his heart.

“This sort of sensation, it’s a martial skill. But... this is most definitely not an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. Could it be that he is unleashing an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill?”

At that moment, Chu Feng was frowning deeply. He had already realized that the technique Old Demon Rakshasa was going to unleash would most definitely be something surpassing Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

As for what would surpass Emperor Taboo Martial Skills, it would naturally be an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

... a martial skill that not even Martial Ancestors would be able to control!!!

“This, this sort of sensation? Could it be?!!!”

When even Chu Feng started to panic, the surrounding crowd were panicking even more. In fact, many people revealed dejected expressions.

They had all realized that the Old Demon Rakshasa's next attack would be extremely frightening.

"This here is this old man's strongest killing technique, Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.... Ancestral Taboo: Soul Killing Formation!" Old Demon Rakshasa said.

"Ancestral Taboo: Soul Killing Formation? Sure enough, it's the Ancestral Taboo: Soul Killing Formation. It would appear that the legend is true, the legend is true!!!"

At that moment, from among the bystanders, an extremely aged old man cried out in alarm. An indescribable sensation of fear filled his face. It was as if he was seeing death itself.

"Senior, could it be that this spirit formation is an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill?" Many people began to question that old man. After all, this matter was extremely important. Furthermore, as that old man was a person with a certain amount of status, the crowd were quite trusting of his words.

"You all, do you know about Half Step True Immortal of the Northsouth Immortal Sea?" The old man asked.

"Of course. Half Step True Immortal was an extremely renowned individual. Reportedly, he was only half a step away from becoming a True Immortal. Back then, he was one of the most renowned experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," The crowd replied.

"Then, do you all know how the Half Step True Immortal died?" The old man asked.

"Died? How could he have died? Didn't the Half Step True Immortal enter closed door training?" Many people asked.

At the moment when the crowd was puzzled, a youngster suddenly said, “I’ve heard from our ancestor that the Half Step True Immortal seemed to have been killed by Old Demon Rakshasa.”

“That’s right, there was indeed such a rumor,” The old man said.

“What? Old Demon Rakshasa killed Half Step True Immortal? How could that be?”

“That’s right. Wasn’t the Half Step True Immortal the one who had been chasing after Old Demon Rakshasa to kill him the entire time? Didn’t Old Demon Rakshasa run all over the place to escape from him? How could he be killed by Old Demon Rakshasa?” Someone felt that to be unbelievable.

Although Half Step True Immortal did not belong to any power, he was a person renowned for righteousness, someone who would consider the people of the world. That was the reason why Half Step True Immortal was that renowned and respected by the people.

Back then, due to the fact that Old Demon Rakshasa had done an enormous amount of evil, Half Step True Immortal made a firm resolution to eliminate Old Demon Rakshasa. He announced the fact that he would chase after Old Demon Rakshasa until he was killed.

As for Old Demon Rakshasa, although he was powerful, Half Step True Immortal was even more powerful. Although both of them were peak Martial Ancestors, Old Demon Rakshasa was miserably hunted by Half Step True Immortal.

In fact, during the period of time when Old Demon Rakshasa disappeared, there were people who felt that he had been killed by Half Step True Immortal.

Even though Half Step True Immortal had disappeared, there were not a lot of people that felt that he had died. Instead, they felt that he had entered closed door training. After all, that was the way Half Step True Immortal did things.

Yet now, it was declared that Half Step True Immortal was killed by Old Demon Rakshasa. This caused the crowd to feel enormous disbelief. They were unable to accept it.

“There is a rumor stating that Half Step True Immortal had finally managed to catch Old Demon Rakshasa after chasing after him for all that time. However, Half Step True Immortal, who had held absolute superiority over Old Demon Rakshasa the whole time, was instead killed by Old Demon Rakshasa.”

“As for the reason why Old Demon Rakshasa was able to kill Half Step True Immortal, it was because he had managed to learn the Ancestral Martial Skill that was very difficult for Martial Ancestors to grasp,” The old man said.

Chapter 2330 – Kneel And Beg For Forgiveness

---

“In that case, the legend is true, and Half Step True Immortal was killed by Old Demon Rakshasa?” Upon hearing what that old man said, the people present were even more astonished. However, they were still somewhat skeptical.

Thus, the crowd all turned their gazes to Old Demon Rakshasa. The reason for that was because the answer to their question was something only Old Demon Rakshasa could give. After all, Old Demon Rakshasa was one of the main characters in that matter.

When they turned to look at Old Demon Rakshasa, the crowd were surprised to discover that he did not have the intention to immediately attack them. Instead, he appeared as if he was deliberately allowing that old man to finish telling his story.

“That is indeed what happened.”

“That Half Step True Immortal was too conceited. He thought that just because we were both peak Martial Ancestors that he would absolutely defeat me.”

“Unfortunately for him, I had already successfully learned the Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill. Thus, Half Step True Immortal was already no match for me a hundred years before that.”

Sure enough, faced with the gazes from the crowd that were longing for an answer, Old Demon Rakshasa revealed a complacent smile on his face.

As he spoke, he flashed his palm over his Cosmos Sack. Then, a silver sword appeared in his hand.

Once that silver sword appeared, another burst of enormous power was emitted. It was actually another Ancestral Armament.

“Heavens! Isn’t that... Half Step True Immortal’s Ancestral Armament, the Demon Subduing Silver Serpent Sword?”

“Old Demon Rakshasa actually really managed to kill Half Step True Immortal! Lord Half Step True Immortal is dead!!!”

If it was only the declaration from the Old Demon Rakshasa, then many people would feel disbelief. However, when they saw the Old Demon Rakshasa revealing the Half Step True Immortal’s Ancestral Armament, practically everyone believed that he had killed Half Step True Immortal.

After all, that was Half Step True Immortal’s Ancestral Armament, his treasure that he would always carry with him. Unless he was dead, it would be impossible for that Ancestral Armament to leave him, much less be in Old Demon Rakshasa’s hands.

When thinking that Half Step True Immortal had died, many people revealed expressions of sorrow. After all, Half Step True Immortal was one of the few people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm willing to uphold justice for the people.

At the same time that the crowd were feeling sorrow, they were once again overwhelmed with unease and fear. If even the renowned Half Step True Immortal was defeated by the Old Demon Rakshasa, it would likely be difficult for Chu Feng to defeat Old Demon Rakshasa today too.

After all, Half Step True Immortal was deemed to be the number one expert underneath the True Immortal realm in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

When even he was no match for Old Demon Rakshasa, it was likely no one below the True Immortal realm would be a match for Old Demon Rakshasa.

“Haha...” Sensing the unease and fear in the eyes of the crowd, Old Demon Rakshasa laughed coldly.

Suddenly, Old Demon Rakshasa said indifferently, “I’ve changed my mind. Right now, as long as you all are willing to kneel before me, acknowledge your mistakes and then shout loudly that Half Step True Immortal deserved his death, I will spare your lives.”

“Really?” Once the Old Demon Rakshasa said those words, someone immediately questioned.

At the same time, the eyes of many people bloomed with light. It was as if they found a ray of light to survive in certain doom.

“Of course. I am always one to keep my word,” Old Demon Rakshasa said with a strange smile.

“Putt~~~”

“Putt~~~”

“Putt~~~”

Once Old Demon Rakshasa said those words, there were immediately people that kneeled onto the ground. Furthermore, their number began to grow more and more.

In response, Chu Feng hurriedly said, “Everyone, do not kneel to such a despicable person. I, Chu Feng, am able to guarantee that you all will not die.”

“What? You can guarantee that we will not die? You are but a mere rank five Half Martial Ancestor, what makes you think that you will be able to guarantee our lives?! If it wasn’t for the fact that you possessed that spirit formation, then not only would you not be able to match Lord Rakshasha, even Hun Lian would be able to kill you many times over!” Someone said.

“Everyone, please trust me,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, shut your mouth! The reason why we are trapped in such danger today is all because of you! We merely wish to survive right now, yet you still want to bring harm upon us? Are you even capable of being considered human?!”

A voice filled with complaint was heard. Turning toward the source, it was actually Kou Kang.

At that moment, Kou Kang was already kneeling on the ground. Not only was he determined to beg for forgiveness, he even began to publicly denounce Chu Feng.

“That’s right, it is all because of you that we ended up in this state!”

After being incited by Kou Kang, more and more people actually began to denounce Chu Feng. At the same time, more and more people began to kneel and beg for forgiveness.

“Half Step True Immortal decided to meddle in another’s business of his own accord. His death was well-deserved.”

“As for that Chu Feng, he dares to go against Lord Rakshasa. His crimes cannot be forgiven.”

“However, we are innocent people. Lord Rakshasa, please distinguish right from wrong and spare our lives. We will definitely spread the news of Half Step True Immortal dying to you to the rest of the world.”

At that moment, over half of the people present had already kneeled on the ground. For the sake of survival, they began to speak words against their convictions.

Faced with this sort of situation, Old Demon Rakshasa started to grin from ear to ear. He looked to the people that had yet to kneel and said, “Are you all truly not afraid of death?”

“We know very well who is in the right and who is in the wrong. Half Step True Immortal was our respected senior. As for Chu Feng, he too fought for righteousness today. We will not say words against our convictions for the sake of survival,” Xu Yiyi spoke loudly.

Following that, the others that had not kneeled also voiced their positions.

Merely, at that moment, the great majority of the people that had not knelt were people from the older generation. Those from the younger generation like Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu were very few in number.

“Very well. Since you all insist on dying, I will help you all accomplish your aim today.”

As Old Demon Rakshasa spoke, the crimson gaseous substance in their surroundings grew even more concentrated. Following that, wave upon wave of heart-tearing and lung-splitting terrifying screams could be heard.

Those were no ordinary screams. Rather, they were the screams of infants. Their voices were so miserable that everyone felt heartbroken upon hearing them.

Furthermore, those screams were sounding from the bloody fog. It was as if there were countless infants wailing miserably in the bloody fog.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly spoke, “Old Demon Rakshasa, I have a question for you.”

“Go ahead and ask,” Old Demon Rakshasa said.

“Are you part of the Infant Soul Sect? Did you manage to grasp this Ancestral Martial Skill using the souls of infants?” Chu Feng asked loudly.

“I truly never would’ve expected that you would know about the Infant Soul Sect,” Old Demon Rakshasa revealed a surprised expression upon hearing Chu Feng’s question.

However, his surprise flashed past very quickly. Soon, a complacent smile appeared on his face. He said to Chu Feng, “You are correct. This old man is one of the Infant Soul Sect’s management elders. As for this Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill of mine, it is also something that I managed to successfully grasp through refining the souls of infants.”

“However, Chu Feng, even if you knew about all this, what exactly could you do about it?” After Old Demon Rakshasa said those words, his smile became even denser.

“Infant Soul Sect? What is that?” At this moment, Xu Yiyi and the others revealed a confused expression. The reason for that was because they had never heard of the Infant Soul Sect.

“The Infant Soul Sect is a hidden demonic sect in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Reportedly, the people of the Infant Soul Sect will kill newborn infants to train their demonic techniques.”

“Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills are extremely difficult for ordinary Martial Ancestors to learn. The reason why that Old Demon Rakshasa was able to learn an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill is because the one he learned was not an ordinary Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill. Rather, it is a demonic technique.”

“Likely, for the sake of successfully learning that demonic technique, he has murdered countless newborn infants.”

“Those infants are truly pitiful. They had just been born into this world, but before they could even have a chance to open their eyes and properly enjoy this flourishing world, they were miserably killed by him and turned into sacrificial victims for others to increase their strength,” Chu Feng explained to the crowd.

Chapter 2331 – Righteousness And Evil

---

“I have also heard of the Infant Soul Sect before. Never would I have imagined that it actually really exists” At that moment, some of the elderly individuals began to voice that they had heard of the Infant Soul Sect.

“Truly despicable! How could a powerful sect that hideous exist in this world? They actually use the souls of infants to increase their cultivation!?”

“Your crimes are simply unforgivable!!!” After finding out about the origin of the Infant Soul Sect, those people that had not kneeled to Old Demon Rakshasa began to lash out at him without holding anything back.

After all, they have already prepared themselves for death. When not even death was scary to them anymore, there would not be anything else that could scare them. As such, they would naturally be daring enough to say whatever they wanted.

In fact, even the people that had kneeled started to waver slightly. After all, the action of using the souls of infants to increase one’s cultivation was truly capable of causing one’s hair to rise in anger.

“Hahaha. The world of martial cultivators is a world where the weak are prey to the strong. Cruel? What a bunch of nonsense! Are you all implying that you have never killed people weaker than you all?”

“If our conduct and deeds are cruel, then which one of you all are not cruel individuals yourselves?” Old Demon Rakshasa said coldly.

“That’s right. What Lord Rakshasa says is completely justified,” Kou Kang said in a flattering manner. Many others began to follow Kou Kang, and started to flatter Old Demon Rakshasa by declaring that he was in the right.

“Kou Kang, never would I have imagined that you would speak on behalf of scum, and would commit all imaginable misdeeds like him just so that you can live. You are simply unworthy of being our Three Stars Hall’s disciple!”

“I feel ashamed to be a fellow disciple of yours!” Song Biyu reprimanded with a cold voice.

“Junior sister, I do not feel that what Lord Rakshasa said to be wrong. After all, everyone here has most definitely killed people before. As for those that they could kill, those people were most definitely inferior to them. When they are inferior, it would mean that they were weak individuals.”

“The weak are prey to the strong. That is the ironclad rule of the world of martial cultivators. Yet, there are people like Chu Feng who insist on distinguishing righteousness and evil. It is people like that that are shameless!” Kou Kang spoke loudly.

Hearing what Kou Kang said, many people began to waver. It was as Kou Kang had said, practically everyone present had killed before. Furthermore, all those that they were capable of killing were individuals weaker than themselves. That verified the principle of the weak being prey to the strong.

“Haha, brat, your name is Kou Kang? You’re a disciple of the Three Stars Hall?” At that moment, Old Demon Rakshasa turned to question Kou Kang.

“Lord Rakshasa, this Kou Kang is indeed a disciple of the Three Stars Hall. However, this junior does not approve of the so-called doctrine of righteousness the Three Stars Hall holds to.”

“Furthermore, this junior has wholly opposed how the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley wanting to join hands to support Chu Feng,” Kou Kang spoke with an extremely respectful tone and a very amiable attitude. He simply did not resemble someone speaking with a grand evildoer. Rather, it was more like he was speaking to his senior.

“Then, tell me, why did you decide to oppose it?” Old Demon Rakshasa asked.

“That’s because I feel that to pay with one’s life for killing another, to return a debt if one owes another, is heaven’s law and earth’s principle.”

“Since Chu Feng killed someone from the Ying Heavenly Clan, it is only reasonable for the Ying Heavenly Clan to want to obtain revenge by killing him.”

“However, the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley insist on saying that Ying Liangchen deserved to die, that Chu Feng was only carrying out justice. That is something this junior does not approve of. I feel that their arguments are nothing more than sophistry,” Kou Kang continued.

“Very good. I highly appreciate your argument. If I were to tell you that our Infant Soul Sect would welcome you, are you willing to cast away your status as a disciple of the Three Stars Hall to join our Infant Soul Sect?” Old Demon Rakshasa asked.

“Lord Rakshasa, truth be told, this junior was unable to accept the manner of conduct of the Three Stars Hall to begin with. If Lord Rakshasa is truly willing to offer shelter to this junior, this junior is more than willing,” Kou Kang was wild with joy.

He knew very well that he no longer possessed the means to continue staying in the Three Stars Hall. For Old Demon Rakshasa to be willing to offer him shelter, it would naturally be the best course of action for him.

“Very well. From this point onward, you are a disciple of our Infant Soul Sect,” Old Demon Rakshasa said.

“For the sake of your survival, you actually wagged your tail to a demonic sect and begged for pity. It is truly a pity for the Three Stars Hall to have raised a disciple like him,” At that moment, that extremely aged old man shook his head and sighed.

“Pity? It is the honor of the Three Stars Hall to be able to raise a disciple like me!”

“I dare ask everyone, is what I said incorrect? What is righteousness? What is evil? What is right and what is wrong?”

“What you all view to be right is what your opponents view to be wrong.”

“What your opponents view to be wrong is what you all view to be right.”

“Exactly who is right and who is wrong, who could possibly distinguish that?”

“Only the powerful experts possess the authority to decide right and wrong. Those that are weak simply do not possess the qualifications to decide at all!” Kou Kang spoke with righteousness.

“That’s right. Right and wrong is something that is truly difficult to determine. However, the weak being prey to the strong is indeed the ironclad rule of the world of martial cultivation.”

“That’s right. I feel that what Kou Kang says is very reasonable. After all, there is no such thing as right and wrong in the world of martial cultivators. The person with the greater strength and harder fist is the person that is right.”

More and more people began to voice their agreement with what Kou Kang said.

“Hahaha...” Right at that moment, Chu Feng burst into cold laughter.

“Chu Feng, what are you laughing about? Are you trying to imply that what I said is incorrect?” Kou Kang asked with a cold voice.

“Kou Kang, everyone possesses the same sort of awareness in their heart. For certain things, we all know very well what is right and what is wrong.”

“If you insist on spouting sophistry here and twisting the truth, I do not have the time to bother debating you.”

“The reason for that is because I know that it is impossible to wake up a person who is pretending to be asleep.”

“However, if you all truly believe that newborn infants being killed and then used as cultivation resource by others is how things are supposed to be, that they have died deservedly, then I could only say that people like you all are no different from those that kill newborn infants and openly slaughter innocents. For people like you all, allowing you to continue to live will only be a waste,” Chu Feng spoke coldly. His tone contained a faint trace of his anger.

“My, what arrogant words you speak. The people that are going to die right now are you all!” Kou Kang mocked.

However, Chu Feng ignored Kou Kang. Instead, he turned his gaze to the crowd kneeling on the floor.

With a loud voice, he said, “I will ask you all this once. Is there anyone else like Kou Kang among you, is there anyone else that feels newborn infants being killed and refined like cultivation resources deserve their deaths?”

Once Chu Feng said those words, not to mention the people that had not kneeled, even those that had kneeled started to hesitate.

After all, everyone knew that newborn infants would not have provoked anyone. Regardless of why they were killed, they would be innocent. No matter how enormous of a hatred there might be, one shouldn’t implicate the children, much less when there wasn’t any hatred or grievance.

However, even though everyone knew that it was wrong for the Infant Soul Sect to kill and refine the souls of newborn infants, for the sake of their survival, many people still declared that those newborn infants deserved their deaths.

“Very well.” Upon hearing the responses from those people, Chu Feng’s gaze grew even more ice-cold. However, he did not unleash any killing intent. Instead, he said, “I will not kill you all. However, what you all have done today is something that everyone here has seen.”

“Regardless of whether you all might be individuals that sold your dignity to survive, or those who truly felt that newborn infants deserve to die, you all will be met with disdain by others in the future.”

“What a joke! You act as if you would truly be able to kill us if you wished it. Chu Feng, don’t you deceive others to deceive yourself. Right now, it is not us who will die. Rather, it is you!” Kou Kang declared.

“Is that so? Are you certain?” Chu Feng smiled coldly. Then, a boundless power suddenly appeared and filled the entire region.

After that power appeared, the expressions of everyone present changed enormously.

That power was so strong that it actually managed to forcibly suppress Old Demon Rakshasa’s Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill. This made everyone realize that the might of that power was stronger than Old Demon Rakshasa’s Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

Most surprisingly, that power was actually controlled by Chu Feng.

Chu Feng had truly grasped a power that surpassed Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills!

Chapter 2332 – The Arrival Of A True Immortal

---

Although the power of the grand formation was invisible, it was surging in the shadows and giving off an extremely domineering air.

Being oppressed by the power of the grand formation, the screams and wailing from the crimson fog began to weaken. Subsequently, the might of the crimson fog also began to weaken.

If the Old Demon Rakshasa was the person who had ruled over the region earlier...

Then, his title as ruler had shifted hands now.

At that moment, Chu Feng... was the ruler of this place.

“This...”

Sensing how powerful Chu Feng was right now, Kou Kang’s complexion turned ashen as he began to shiver. The reason for that was because he had never ever anticipated that Chu Feng would really possess the strength to contend against Old Demon Rakshasa.

But, he had already made things reach such a degree, and even betrayed the Three Stars Hall. If Chu Feng were to win, it would end miserably for him.

“Lord Rakshasa, quickly, you must kill that child, kill that child,” In panic, Kou Kang began to plead for help from Old Demon Rakshasa.

The reason for that was because the only person that was capable of handling Chu Feng was the Old Demon Rakshasa. Thus, Old Demon Rakshasa could be said to be the only hope that Kou Kang possessed.

“Boy, no wonder you were that confident. It turns out this spirit formation you've grasped is actually this powerful."

"However, it remains that this is power you obtained by relying on a spirit formation. It is nothing more than external power."

"Whereas this old man's abilities are things that I have honestly obtained through training. You wish to use external power to defeat the result of my many years of bitter training? You are simply dreaming."

"Aouu~~~"

"Roar~~~"

Once Old Demon Rakshasa said those words, the two Ancestral Armaments he held in his hands gave off ear-piercing snarls. Then, the might of his Ancestral Armaments and the Old Demon Rakshasa's aura began to rise.

That Ancestral Armament of his that was originally being suppressed by Chu Feng once again let out a frightening power. It actually began to be able to contend against Chu Feng's grand formation.

Then, many crimson souls appeared from the crimson fog. Those souls grew more and more numerous. In merely a short moment, their number reached several tens of thousands. Like an army composed of evil spirits, they stared at Chu Feng.

"How would we know who is stronger and who is weaker without trying it out?"

Chu Feng remained completely confident. As he spoke, he clasped his palms together. Then, he pointed at Old Demon Rakshasa.

"Clank~~~"

At that moment, heaven and earth started to shake. It was because of a visible silver ray. It was that grand formation's power.

The power of the grand formation took visible form and condensed into an enormous sword.

The sword was floating across the sky. It looked extremely majestic. It was as if it was capable of penetrating through everything, and possessed the desire to kill evil monsters.

“Damn it!”

Upon seeing that enormous sword floating in the air, Old Demon Rakshasa’s expression immediately changed. The many thousands of souls that were eager to attack did not rush to attack Chu Feng. Instead, they became defensive, and began to gather before Old Demon Rakshasa.

“Woosh~~~”

At this moment, the enormous floating sword formed by the power of the grand formation turned into a ray of light and began to pierce toward Old Demon Rakshasa.

“Boom~~~”

Following a loud explosion, wave upon wave of violent energy ripples began to sweep out in all directions.

Facing the energy ripples, not to mention the experts from the younger generation, even those from the older generation started to frown.

“How powerful must that be for it to give rise to energy ripples this frightening?”

“Presumably, this must be the strongest power beneath the True Immortal realm?” At that moment, the crowd was filled with endless astonishment.

Witnessing all of this with their own eyes, they knew very well how frightening that power was.

Fortunately, Chu Feng had intentionally controlled it, restricting the energy ripples from spreading. Otherwise... the energy ripples would be sufficient to devour a radius of several thousands of miles, killing everyone present.

The crowd also realized that it was Chu Feng that was protecting them. Thus, they involuntarily turned to look at the sky and toward the surging energy ripples. Traces of worry appeared in their eyes.

Many of the people present hoped that Chu Feng would be able to survive.

However, there were also people that wanted the person who won in this battle to be Old Demon Rakshasa. One such individual would be Kou Kang.

“Cough, cough, cough...”

Right at that moment, from within the surging energy ripples came coughing and panting sounds.

Upon hearing that voice, Kou Kang’s nerves immediately tensed up.

He had managed to tell that it was Old Demon Rakshasa’s voice. At that moment, Old Demon Rakshasa’s voice was actually very weak. It made him feel that Old Demon Rakshasa was currently at a disadvantage.

“Impossible! This is impossible! How could Old Demon Rakshasa lose to Chu Feng?!”

“I must be overthinking it. That’s right, I must be overthinking it.”

However, even though Kou Kang felt that the situation was bad in his heart, Kou Kang continued to comfort himself. He felt that even if Old Demon Rakshasa were injured, it remained that he was still alive.

However, there was no sound from Chu Feng. Perhaps Chu Feng had died. If that was the case, it would mean that Old Demon Rakshasa had won.

“W-wife, a-are you a-able to see Chu Feng?” Wang Qiang asked Zhao Hong in a very worried manner.

Once Wang Qiang said those words, Xu Yiyi, Zhao Biyu and many of the others present turned their gazes to Zhao Hong.

If Kou Kang was worried about Old Demon Rakshasa, then Wang Qiang and the others were worried that Chu Feng would be defeated.

“No,” Zhao Hong shook her head. The energy ripples were too powerful; they had surpassed the range of her perceptive ability. Even though she possessed special methods, she was also unable to see anything at that moment.

With no other option, Wang Qiang turned to the sky and shouted, “B-b-brother, a-are you still there?! If y-you’re fine, say something!”

“Huuu~~~”

Once Wang Qiang said those words, a burst of wind immediately appeared. The wind forcibly dispersed the raging energy ripples.

When the energy ripples dissipated, the crowd was overjoyed.

At that moment, not only was Chu Feng standing in the sky, he was also completely uninjured.

As for Old Demon Rakshasa, he was badly mutilated. His aura was extremely weak. Standing in the sky, he appeared to be on the verge of collapse.

“Putt~~~”

Seeing this scene, Kou Kang and the others immediately fell on their butts in shock.

The outcome of the battle had been decided. Not only was a calamity going to befall Old Demon Rakshasa and Hun Lian, they would also definitely suffer from this.

“Master,” At that moment, Hun Lian, who had been hiding behind Old Demon Rakshasa the entire time, immediately ran out and supported him.

Being protected by Old Demon Rakshasa, Hun Lian did not receive any major injuries. However, he was also trembling in fear.

“Don’t panic,” Seemingly sensing Hun Lian’s terror, Old Demon Rakshasa waved his hand to indicate to Hun Lian not to panic.

“Chu Feng, as matters stand, I must admit that you possess some abilities.”

“Although you have borrowed the power of that grand formation, it would be impossible for you to control it if it wasn’t for your outstanding talent.”

“You are indeed a rare genius. It is the first time that this old man has met a genius like you in my lifetime.”

“However, the more it is like this, the more I cannot allow you to live,” Old Demon Rakshasa said with his weak voice.

“T-t-truly s-shameless. M-merely t-the you right now, y-you think that y-you can s-still kill my brother?” Wang Qiang said in a very mocking manner.

Suddenly, Old Demon Rakshasa half kneeled in midair and spoke in a very respectful manner. “Lord Protector, this subordinate is useless. I am unable to defeat this child. I have disgraced our Infant Soul Sect.”

“However, that child absolutely cannot be left alive. I will have to trouble Milord to personally take care of him.”

“Rakshasa, you’ve gone through a lot of trouble. You have allowed me to determine this brat’s strength.”

Right at that moment, a soft voice suddenly sounded from beside Old Demon Rakshasa. Following that, a figure appeared beside Old Demon Rakshasa.

“Oh no!”

Upon seeing this person, Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang and the others all started to frown. They shouted ‘Oh no!’ in their hearts.

The reason for that was because a boundless aura had appeared alongside that individual. It was an aura that surpassed the Martial Ancestor realm.

That person was a True Immortal-level expert.

Chapter 2333 – Protecting One’s Dignity

---

This man was wearing a black gown. His outfit was similar to Old Demon Rakshasa’s.

However, the sensation that this man gave off was completely different from that which Old Demon Rakshasa gave off.

Old Demon Rakshasa emitted overwhelming killing intent. From a single glance, one could tell that he was not a good individual.

As for this man, not only did he have the appearance of a middle-aged man, he also appeared to be very good-natured. This was especially true for his eyes; they gave off a very amiable feeling.

However, upon seeing this person, Chu Feng’s heart began to waver up and down; he felt extremely uneasy.

Chu Feng was able to sense that it was not that this man did not possess any heinous air. Rather, the heinous air this man contained might surpass even that of Old Demon Rakshasa. Merely, he had concealed it extremely well, so well that even Chu Feng was unable to detect it.

If Old Demon Rakshasa was a hungry wolf, than this man would be a tiger in sheep’s clothing.

“Chu Feng, quickly, run away.”

Suddenly, Her Lady Queen’s voice sounded in Chu Feng’s ear. Her voice was filled with panic.

Not only did Chu Feng sense danger, Her Lady Queen also managed to sense the danger.

Even if Chu Feng had grasped control of the grand slaughtering formation and could defeat everyone in the Martial Ancestor realm, he would not be able to defeat this man.

After all, this man was a True Immortal-level expert.

“No, I wouldn’t be able to escape.”

Chu Feng shook his head. Even though his opponent had not unleashed his True Immortal's oppressive might, he had most definitely come with ill intentions. Furthermore, he was truly powerful. His might surpassed that of everyone present.

Before this man, it was simply impossible for Chu Feng to escape. Not a single person present would be able to escape. Although he felt very unreconciled, Chu Feng was already certain that he might end up dying here.

“Hahahaha, Chu Feng, no matter how strong your spirit formation might be, it will still be impossible for you to contend against a True Immortal-level expert.”

“You bunch of fools actually decided to rely on trash like Chu Feng. Look at your stunned expressions now. You must've never expected that the Infant Soul Sect would possess a True Immortal-level expert overseeing them.”

“Right now, even if you all are to regret your decisions, it would be useless. Not to mention attacking you all, a True Immortal-level expert will be able to kill you by merely blowing air.”

Kou Kang became extremely pleased. He actually pointed at the crowd and burst into loud laughter.

At that moment, he was truly overjoyed. Originally, he had thought that Old Demon Rakshasa was the strongest individual in the Infant Soul Sect.

However, he was surprised to discover that there was actually a True Immortal-level expert overseeing things in the Infant Soul Sect.

It was a True Immortal-level expert! They were peak level existences in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Infant Soul Sect, this power that he had never heard of before, actually possessed a True Immortal-level expert overseeing them. This meant that the Infant Soul Sect possessed strength at the level of a tier one power.

This meant that they were one of the strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm!!!

Thinking about it, he, a disciple of a tier two power, had actually managed to become a member of a tier one power out of pure chance. Furthermore, he was chosen by an existence like Old Demon Rakshasa. It would not be excessive to say that he had reached instant success.

At that moment, Kou Kang truly felt more and more overjoyed the more he thought about it. He felt that he was extremely quick-witted.

He felt that his decision to renounce the Three Stars Hall and join the Infant Soul Sect was the smartest decision he had ever made in his life.

“The Infant Soul Sect possesses a True Immortal-level expert overseeing it. In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, they would be considered a tier one power!!!”

“You bunch of ants actually dared to overestimate your abilities to go against a power like this. You all are truly bringing about your own destruction.”

“Chu Feng, although you might be a talented genius, you are actually a beam-jumping clown. You deserve your death. No one will feel pity for you! Serves you right!!!”

After Kou Kang spoke, more and more people began to insult Chu Feng and the others that had not kneeled to Old Demon Rakshasa.

Of course, the ones that spoke to insult Chu Feng and the others were the same people who had gone against Chu Feng and declared that newborn infants deserved to die.

They were people that had already gone to the extreme, leaving no room for maneuver. Originally, they had been worried about what to do as Old Demon Rakshasa had been defeated by Chu Feng.

However, upon discovering that the Infant Soul Sect actually possessed a True Immortal-level expert overseeing it, they started to want to join the Infant Soul Sect.

For the sake of joining the Infant Soul Sect, these people would naturally spare no effort in attacking Chu Feng and the others to flatter the Infant Soul Sect and leave behind a good impression for that Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal-level expert.

As more and more people began to verbally attack Chu Feng, Kou Kang began to feel unhappy. He thought to himself that he could not allow himself to be outdone by these people.

Thus, he pointed at Chu Feng and loudly cursed, "Chu Feng, are you ashamed of yourself yet? Did you really think yourself to be extraordinary? Now you know what it means by there are people stronger than you, that there's a greater sky than the one you..."

"Shut up!!!!"

However, before Kou Kang could finish his words, a loud and resounding voice suddenly exploded from the sky.

When that voice sounded, heaven and earth started to shake, and oppressive might descended from the sky.

This oppressive might was not very powerful. However, it caused forced Kou Kang and all the others that had opened their mouths to curse at Chu Feng onto their knees.

It was that True Immortal-level expert. He did not attack Chu Feng, and instead used his oppressive might to restrict Kou Kang and the others. Although he did not kill them, he made them kneel on the ground. His behavior truly puzzled the crowd.

No one knew exactly what that Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal-level expert was thinking. Why was he not attacking Chu Feng, and instead attacking those people that were speaking for their Infant Soul Sect?

At the moment when the crowd was puzzled, he suddenly turned to Chu Feng and said, “Chu Feng, you’ve truly made me have a whole new level of respect for you. Our Infant Soul Sect needs a genius like you.”

“As long as you are willing to join our Infant Soul Sect, not only will I guarantee you a high position and great wealth, I will also kill all these people who have insulted you.”

“What? He actually wants to entice Chu Feng?!” Once that True Immortal said those words, the crowd were all astonished.

As for Kou Kang, who had been feeling immensely proud of himself, his expression instantly turned dejected. He finally realized the disparity between him and Chu Feng.

Even though he had renounced his dignity, betrayed his school and used all sorts of despicable means to obtain a favorable impression from the Infant Soul Sect, he was completely and utterly defeated by Chu Feng’s talent.

In fact, it was not only Kou Kang who was stunned. All those who were kneeling on the ground were stunned. At that moment, they all realized that the oppressive might that was restricting them was also a sharp sword at their necks.

As long as Chu Feng gave the word, that True Immortal-level expert would immediately kill them.

Thinking about it, they were truly sorrowful. For the sake of their own survival, they had disregarded their dignity, betrayed their schools and lied through their teeth.

However, in the end, they became a bargaining chip for the Infant Soul Sect to entice Chu Feng with.

“Lord Protector, this...” Old Demon Rakshasa opened his mouth. He seemed to want to say something.

“Quiet!” However, before he could say anything, he was shouted down by that True Immortal.

Following that, even though Old Demon Rakshasa was extremely unwilling, he no longer dared to utter another word. Instead, he swallowed down all the grievances that he wanted to voice.

“Join us, and you’ll live.”

“Refuse to join us, and you’ll die.”

“Chu Feng, is there a need for you to ponder such a simple choice?” The Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal-level expert said to Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, accept it. A man must submit or stand tall as required. At that moment, what is most important is for you to survive,” Her Lady Queen said to Chu Feng.

Chu Feng understood all that. When one survived, there would still be hope. However, should one die, one would not have anything left.

But, even though he understood all of that, Chu Feng still firmly shook his head.

With a smile on his face, he said, “Firstly, I, Chu Feng, have pledged that I will not join any sect or school in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Furthermore, even if I did not make such a pledge, I would still absolutely not join the Infant Soul Sect.”

“The reason for that is because I, Chu Feng, will absolutely not wallow in the mire with people like you all, people that will slaughter even newborn infants!”

“Boom~~~”

Chu Feng’s words were like a sudden clap of thunder that exploded in the hearts of the crowd.

They were stunned. Practically everyone present was stunned. Not to mention Kou Kang and the others, even Xu Yiyi and the others did not expect that Chu Feng would refuse that True Immortal-level expert.

At that moment, Xu Yiyi, those older generation's experts and even some of the people that had kneeled to Old Demon Rakshasa all began to feel admiration toward Chu Feng from the bottoms of their hearts.

They were not admiring Chu Feng's talent. Rather, they were admiring Chu Feng's courage and resolution.

After all, what Chu Feng had done was use his own life to protect his dignity and principles.

Chapter 2334 – Sharing Both Trials And Tribulations

---

“Chu Feng, is it me that didn’t mention it clearly, or you who didn’t hear what I said clearly?”

“Or could it be that you feel that my bargaining chip is insufficient?”

“If that’s the case, as long as you are willing to join our Infant Soul Sect, I am able to help you eliminate that Ying Heavenly Clan who has ordered your arrest,” The Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal continued to attempt to entice Chu Feng.

Upon hearing what he said, the crowd was once again startled. After Chu Feng had clearly refused him, this True Immortal actually refused to give up. Instead, he increased the bargaining chip, and continued to attempt to entice Chu Feng. The sincerity he was showing moved even the crowd.

After all, he was a True Immortal-level expert, someone who stood at the apex of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He was an existence akin to legend. It would not be too excessive to even consider him a god.

“If you want to kill me, then go on ahead and do it. However, I have a request. This matter was caused by me. I hope that you will be willing to kill only me, and spare them,” As Chu Feng spoke, he looked to Wang Qiang and the others.

Chu Feng had made his resolution. Even when facing death, he would not change his decision.

The reason for that was because he had promised his father that he would eliminate the Infant Soul Sect. If he were to yield to the Infant Soul Sect today, it would be too humiliating.

Chu Feng felt that if he were to do something like that, he would let down his father, his grandfather and his mother. Thus, even if he were to die, Chu Feng would still not surrender.

“This thing?”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng felt a strange transformation in his Cosmos Sack.

It was the Evil God Sword. That Incomplete Imperial Armament, the Evil God Sword was actually devouring the other weapons in his Cosmos Sack. Not only had it managed to devour and refine all of the Imperial Armaments in Chu Feng’s Cosmos Sack, it did not spare even the Incomplete Ancestral Armaments.

Its speed was so quick that one would simply feel speechless.

It was as if the Evil God Sword was not a weapon, but rather a ferocious beast that devoured weapons. Before it, even Incomplete Ancestral Armaments became extremely weak.

When Chu Feng managed to react, that Evil God Sword had completely devoured and refined all of the weapons in Chu Feng’s Cosmos Sack.

Following that, it began to tremble violently. It was as if it was planning to rush out from the Cosmos Sack. It was as if it was impatient to demonstrate its might.

“Never would I have expected that you would concern yourself with their lives at a time like this. Very well, even if you refuse to join our Infant Soul Sect, I will respect the fact that you are a man of character and agree to this request of yours.”

“However, since you have refused me, it means that I will have to take your life,” As that Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal spoke, his eyes started to flicker with coldness.

At that moment, black clouds began to emerge in large numbers. As they scuttled in the sky, they combined with one another and formed a frightening giant face.

Following that, that True Immortal’s unrivalled oppressive might was completely unleashed. It was as if, with a mere thought from him, his oppressive might would massacre all living things.

“True Immortal, that is the strength of a True Immortal-level expert!!!”

Upon sensing the aura currently being emitted by the Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal-level expert, many people started to tremble involuntarily. Those with weak levels of cultivation were so frightened by his aura that they fell onto their butts, becoming unable to move.

“D-done for. We’re d-done for. W-w-wife, w-what are we to do?” Wang Qiang started to panic. He was truly panicking. The reason for that was because he was able to sense how enormously powerful that True Immortal was.

“You ask me that, but who am I to ask? I too want to know what to do,” Zhao Hong said in a displeased manner. It could be seen that Zhao Hong was also worried for Chu Feng.

“F-fuck! Even if t-there’s n-nothing that can be done, we m-must still do s-something. We c-cannot ignore m-my brother.”

As Wang Qiang spoke, he soared toward the vast oppressive might. Then, he arrived in the sky and stood before Chu Feng.

Upon seeing Wang Qiang, Chu Feng hurriedly said, “Wang Qiang, what are you doing? Quickly, get away from here!”

“Hehe. B-brother, y-you want me to l-leave? You’re l-looking down on me too much. W-what does it mean t-to be brothers? It means t-that while we m-might not be born on the s-same day of t-the same year, we can d-die on the same day of the same year.”

“To e-enjoy fortune together and u-undergo tribulations together, that i-is what it means to be brothers,” Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile.

“You...”

Hearing what Wang Qiang said, Chu Feng felt warmth in his heart. When Chu Feng had obtained success and recognition, there were a lot of people that wanted to curry relationships with him, but when Chu Feng encountered calamities, there were not many people who were willing to take on the calamities together with him or even die alongside him.

Wang Qiang's actions had truly moved Chu Feng.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still do not wish to have Wang Qiang die with him. Thus, he wanted to persuade Wang Qiang against it.

“Woosh~~~”

However, before Chu Feng could finish what he wanted to say, another figure flew over and arrived before him.

Turning toward that figure, Chu Feng was extremely surprised. The reason for that was because it was Zhao Hong.

“What my husband said is correct. We shall undergo trials and tribulations together. Chu Feng, don't think about being the hero alone,” Zhao Hong said with a light smile.

Like Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong had a very easy-going appearance. It was as if she had seen through life and death. Facing death, she actually did not have the slightest trace of fear on her face.

If Wang Qiang's willingness to accompany Chu Feng in death caused Chu Feng to feel warmth in his heart, then Zhao Hong's decision to accompany him in death came as a great surprise to Chu Feng.

After all, Zhao Hong was a demonic woman. The only reason why she became acquainted with Chu Feng and Wang Qiang was because she had originally wanted to eat Wang Qiang.

However, this Zhao Hong was actually able to step forward bravely during the time of Chu Feng's calamity. This truly overturned the opinion Chu Feng had of this demonic woman.

“Chu Feng, we’ll also accompany you.”

Following that, Xu Yiyi and Song Biyu also flew toward Chu Feng and stood beside him.

“Little friend Chu Feng, this old man admires your character. Today, even if a calamity is to befall you, I cannot allow you to die alone.”

Following that, even some of the experts from the older generation began to fly into the sky and stand before Chu Feng.

Soon, there were several tens of figures standing beside Chu Feng.

“You all... everyone...”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart was surging with warmth. That moving sensation filled his entire body.

Although there were only several tens of people willing to die with him...

Although this number was simply unworthy of being mentioned when compared to the tens of thousands of people present.

Many of the people here were individuals that he had only just met. In fact, many among them were people that he had never spoken with before. Yet, they were willing to die with him at this sort of time. As such, how could Chu Feng not feel moved?

“This is truly what they mean by a friend in need is a friend indeed.”

“Chu Feng, you are a very charismatic person. You are truly a genius.”

“It is truly a pity to kill you,” Seeing this scene, that Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal-level expert was also somewhat moved. However, even though he had a pitiful expression, the killing intent in his eyes did not decrease in the slightest. With one word at a time, he said, “However, I will not spare you.”

“You wish to kill me? I’m afraid that you might not necessarily be able to!!!”

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng streaked his palm across his Cosmos Sack. Then, the Evil God Sword was held in his hand.

At that moment, the Evil God Sword did not appear to be peculiar in the slightest. In fact, it appeared to be inferior to even ordinary Incomplete Imperial Armaments. It resembled a lousy piece of wood.

However, as he held it in his hand, Chu Feng was able to sense that the Evil God Sword contained enormous power; it was unimaginably powerful. Chu Feng felt that he might really be able to fight against that True Immortal using the Evil God Sword.

Holding the Evil God Sword, Chu Feng began to walk in the air one step at a time. He walked past Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong and all the others.

He was planning to use the Evil God Sword to fight against that True Immortal.

“What is that?”

“Incomplete Imperial Armament? Why is Chu feng holding an Incomplete Imperial Armament?”

After hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd originally thought that he was going to unleash something grand. However, after they saw the Evil God Sword, they were all tongue-tied with their eyes wide open.

It was not because they were terrified by the Evil God Sword. Rather, they were startled.

The reason for that was because they were truly unable to understand why Chu Feng would take out a weapon like the Evil God Sword at such a crucial time.

“Hahaha. Chu Feng, are you trying to make me laugh? You actually want to use an Incomplete Imperial Armament to contend against the True Immortal? Have you been kicked in the head or what?”

Suddenly, a loud, ridiculing laughter was heard. It was Kou Kang. Even though Kou Kang was enveloped by that True Immortal’s oppressive might, he was still unable to contain himself from ridiculing and laughing at Chu Feng when he saw Chu Feng’s Incomplete Imperial Armament.

In fact, it was not only Kou Kang that was laughing at Chu Feng. Countless others were laughing at Chu Feng in their hearts.

After all, even if Chu Feng were to take out an Ancestral Armament at a time like this, it would still be useless.

Yet, he took out an Imperial Armament, and an Incomplete Imperial Armament on top of that.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, that True Immortal expert suddenly turned around and waved his sleeve.

He brought Old Demon Rakhasa and Hun Lian to his side. Then, his body suddenly moved, and he began to flee.

Chapter 2335 – An Aura

---

That Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal-level expert had left. Rather than saying that he had left, it would be better said that he had escaped.

This completely stunned the crowd. The gazes with which they looked to Chu Feng became even more complicated.

Astonishment, confusion and loss filled their eyes.

What was happening?

An Incomplete Imperial Armament actually scared away a grand True Immortal?

Although that was the truth of what had happened, the crowd found it difficult to accept. After all, this was truly too baffling, too irregular, too ridiculous and too incredible.

It was only because the people present saw it with their own eyes. Else, if they were to hear about this, no one would be willing to believe it.

“What’s happening? Could it be that he sensed the power of my Evil God Sword?”

“But I have clearly not unleashed the power of the Evil God Sword yet.”

At that moment, it was not only the crowd that was puzzled, Chu Feng was also very puzzled. Even though his Evil God Sword was very powerful right now, it was something that only Chu Feng felt. For others, they would simply not be able to determine or sense the power it contained.

“B-brother, e-exactly what did you do?” Wang Qiang and the others all looked to Chu Feng with bewildered expressions.

“It might be because of this sword,” Chu Feng had a smile on his face as he showed the Evil God Sword to the crowd. Then, he returned it to his Cosmos Sack.

Chu Feng was not trying to cause a sensation among the crowd. Rather, he had truly felt the power contained in the Evil God Sword. That power surpassed the power of Martial Ancestors. If he were to use the sword, he would definitely bring enormous harm to himself. However, it would also allow him to fight against True Immortals. That was the truth.

The reason why Chu Feng told everyone that the Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal might have fled because of the sword was because he wanted to use this opportunity to instill deterrence in the crowd's hearts.

Chu Feng felt that he would be able to handle the people he had offended in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm before. However, the Infant Soul Sect was different. They could be said to be the most dangerous existence in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, something that the Ying Heavenly Clan absolutely could not compare to.

Chu Feng had to show his ability so that the people from the Infant Soul Sect and the others that wished to bring harm upon him would feel fear toward him.

Even if he were to encounter extremely powerful individuals in the future, he wanted them to feel some restraining fear toward him. Else, with the strength that Chu Feng currently possessed, it would truly be difficult for him to survive in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

After all, Chu Feng's true cultivation was only that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. Not to mention True Immortals, there were countless Martial Ancestors that were capable of killing him.

"It really is because of that Incomplete Imperial Armament?"

"But, how could that Incomplete Imperial Armament be able to scare away a True Immortal?" After hearing what Chu Feng said, a huge uproar immediately occurred among the crowd.

Even without Chu Feng mentioning it, the crowd already felt that it was very possible that the Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal was scared away by Chu Feng's Incomplete Imperial Armament. Merely, they were truly confused as to exactly how that Incomplete Imperial Armament was capable of possessing such a power of deterrence.

Right at that moment, Wang Qiang said, "I-I re-remember now. Chu Feng, t-that weapon of yours, i-isn't it that legendary D-Demon Armament?"

"Demon Armament?" Hearing those words, the eyes of the crowd immediately shone. The reason for that was because a Demon Armament was no small matter.

Demon Armaments could not be discussed alongside ordinary weapons. There were generally two characteristics that Demon Armaments possessed. One, they exhibited a frightening demonic nature. Two, they possessed heaven-defying might.

If the Incomplete Imperial Armament that Chu Feng possessed was truly a Demon Armament, then it truly could not be considered to be an ordinary Incomplete Imperial Armament.

At that moment, someone asked, "But, even if it is a Demon Armament, isn't it still only an Incomplete Imperial Armament?"

The crowd began to nod their heads toward that question. After all, a lot of famous Demon Armaments had also appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and while it was true that Demon Armaments were extremely powerful, and not something ordinary Ancestral Armaments could compare to, the key point was that those Demon Armaments themselves were Ancestral Armaments. That was why they possessed heaven-defying battle power ordinary Ancestral Armaments couldn't compare with.

However, what was with that Demon Armament Chu Feng possessed? It was merely an Incomplete Imperial Armament. Even if it were a Demon Armament, it shouldn't be able to possess the power to scare away a grand True Immortal.

“Hahaha...” Right at the moment when the crowds' tongues were wagging, Wang Qiang let out a laughter filled with contempt. Then, he turned to the crowd and said, “T-that Demon A-Armament my b-brother possess is no o-ordinary Demon Armament. It's name is the E-Evil God Sword. It was c-created by a Demon God.”

“It c-can split a-apart the heavens a-and d-divide the earth. It is s-so mighty that it can e-extinguish all living things.”

“How could a T-True Immortal p-possibly be able to c-contend against it?”

While Wang Qiang was a stutterer, he possessed an exceptional boasting ability. It was unknown whether he was planning to boost support for Chu Feng or merely boasting, but he had boasted Chu Feng's Evil God Sword all the way to the sky.

Surprisingly, after hearing Wang Qiang's boasting, the crowd looked to one another, and many people actually began to believe his words.

After believing what Wang Qiang said, they began to have a whole new level of respect toward Chu Feng. After all, those that were capable of subduing a Demon Armament were all extraordinary individuals. As for subduing a Demon Armament like the one that Chu Feng possessed, it was even more so.

That being said, there were also many people that remained skeptical. They still felt that the Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal had left for some other reason, and not because of the Incomplete Imperial Armament Chu Feng had revealed.

.....

At that moment, the Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal was still rapidly flying in escape. His speed was speechlessly fast.

Not only was he flying rapidly, he would even turn around every now and then. His gaze was extremely cautious, and there was even a trace of panic in his eyes.

“Seems like he didn’t follow us.”

Finally, that Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal stopped. Although he had always been a calm individual, he actually closed his eyes and took a deep breath at that point.

Seeing that scene, Old Demon Rakshasa and Hun Lian looked to one another. Astonishment and confusion filled their eyes.

The two of them knew this Lord Protector of theirs to be a person who was not startled by anything. It was the first time that they had seen their Lord Protector reveal such a panicked expression.

Furthermore, the panic their Lord Protector revealed had never once been interrupted during their whole escape.

“Lord Protector, why are we leaving?”

Confused, Old Demon Rakshasa stepped forward to ask, “Could it be that the weapon Chu Feng took out is truly an extremely powerful treasure?”

“Weapon? That is merely an Incomplete Imperial Armament. How could it possibly be an extremely powerful treasure?” The Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal chuckled.

“Then, Lord Protector, why did you not kill that Chu Feng? That child is clearly set on becoming our Infant Soul Sect’s enemy. I fear that leaving him alive will be akin to nurturing a tiger that will bring about calamity,” Old Demon Rakshasa said.

“How could I not understand that? Is there even a need for you to teach me that?” The Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal revealed a displeased expression.

“This subordinate wouldn’t dare,” Old Demon Rakshasa hurriedly kneeled in midair. His aged body was actually slightly trembling. From this, it could be seen that he was extremely fearful of this Lord Protector.

“Lord Protector, please quell your anger. My master absolutely did not have that intent,” In response, Hun Lian also hurriedly kneeled before the Lord Protector and began to beg for forgiveness on Old Demon Rakshasa’s behalf.

“I felt an aura earlier. The owner of that aura was able to easily erase me,” The Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal said in a profound manner.

“What? Erase you, Lord Protector? Hearing those words, Old Demon Rakshasa and Hun Lian’s expressions changed enormously.

Their Lord Protector was a True Immortal. He was a true grand character. Only a very few people in the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would be able to contend against him.

Yet, their Lord Protector actually said that someone was capable of erasing him, and erasing him easily on top of that. This meant that individual’s power was extremely strong.

“Could it be that the four tier one powers have, for the sake of obtaining the treasures in Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants, sent out even their strongest experts, those old monsters that have been in closed door training the entire time?” Old Demon Rakshasa said in a panicky manner.

He felt that, in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, only the four tier one powers’ old monsters were capable of causing their Lord Protector to feel this threatened.

“No, it wasn’t them. I have come across all of them before. Thus, I know what their auras feel like.”

“The aura I felt earlier was not from them,” The True Immortal shook his head.

“Lord Protector, are you saying...?” Old Demon Rakshasa’s expression changed once again. Greater shock filled his eyes.

“What I’m saying is that the aura I felt earlier was not from the four tier one powers, nor was it from the Golden Crane True Immortal. Instead, it was from someone that I have never come across before.”

“However, that person was someone who possessed strength that greatly surpassed my own,” The Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal said with a serious expression.

Chapter 2336 – It's You?

---

“In that case, it would mean that another rank two True Immortal has appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Old Demon Rakshasa said with a face filled with astonishment. The reason for that was because this was truly no small matter.

“Rank two True Immortal? It is still impossible to determine the cultivation yet. However, that individual would be at least a rank two True Immortal,” The Lord Protector said.

“Lord Protector, doesn't this mean that our Infant Soul Sect has gotten another powerful enemy?” Hun Lian started to panic.

“It is still difficult to determine whether or not that individual is friend or a foe. The reason for that is because that person should've directly killed us and not allowed us to escape if he was a foe.”

“However, if that person is a friend, he would not have helped Chu Feng,” The Lord Protector said.

“Could it be that that individual is neutral?” Old Demon Rakshasa asked.

“Most likely, that person is someone with some sort of relationship with Chu Feng. However, with that person there, we cannot rashly do anything to Chu Feng. We must first seek Consultation on this matter with Lord Sect Master,” That Lord Protector said.

“Lord Protector, in that case, what should we do regarding the things here?” Old Demon Rakshasa asked.

“Since that individual is keeping a neutral standing, he most likely won't meddle in this. We will continue according to plan,” The Lord Protector said.

“Yes, Milord,” Old Demon Rakshasa said.

.....

Meanwhile. At the grand slaughtering formation. Chu Feng was currently surrounded by everyone. The crowd were still immersed in being overjoyed from Chu Feng scaring away that Infant Soul Sect's True Immortal.

After all, this was truly an earth-shaking battle. The crowd all felt that they had entered and exited the gates to death many times. They felt that it was all thanks to Chu Feng that they were able to survive.

Thus, those people that had not kneeled earlier, regardless of whether they were people from the younger generation or people from the older generation, regardless of which sect or school they might be from, were all expressing their thanks to Chu Feng right now.

As for those people that had knelt earlier, they did not dare to utter a word, and were filled with remorse.

“Brother Chu Feng, brother Chu Feng.”

“I was wrong, I was wrong. Please give me a chance, please help plead to my master for leniency for me .”

“I did not really want to join the Infant Soul Sect. I merely wanted to continue living. Furthermore, I still have a family. I am the hope of my family.”

Suddenly, a figure rushed over, kneeled before Chu Feng and grabbed the corner of Chu Feng's sleeve.

Turning toward that figure, it was actually Kou Kang.

At that moment, Kou Kang no longer held the overwhelming attitude he had held before. He was kneeling before Chu Feng and weeping bitter tears. His appearance was truly petty and low.

“You want me to plead on your behalf? You have truly searched for the wrong person,” Chu Feng smiled coldly. There was not the slightest trace of sympathy in his eyes. With a wave of his sleeve, he flung Kou Kang away.

“Kou Kang, you absolute disgrace! Earlier, you slandered little friend Chu Feng. Yet now, you want little friend Chu Feng to plead for you? You have truly disgraced our Three Stars Hall!”

“No, you are no longer a part of our Three Stars Hall! You damned traitor! Our Lord Headmaster has trained you this many years in vain! You simply possess the heart of a wolf and the lungs of a dog! You are inferior to even dogs and pigs!”

A group of elders from the Three Stars Hall rushed over. Using special treasures, they trapped Kou Kang completely.

Perhaps it might be because they felt resentment in their hearts, but these elders were very ruthless. Not only did they cause enormous pain to Kou Kang, they also completely battered him.

At that moment, Kou Kang began to plead for leniency toward Song Biyu and his other junior brothers and sisters. However, Song Biyu and the others not only did not help him, they instead began to lash out against him in contempt.

It was then, that Kou Kang found himself completely isolated. His situation was truly miserable.

That being said, scenes like the one that was happening to Kou Kang were happening all over the place.

While those that had just kneeled to Old Demon Rakshasa were still relatively okay, those that had kneeled to Old Demon Rakshasa, insulted Chu Feng, spoke on behalf of the Infant Soul Sect, and declared that newborn infants deserved their deaths were all facing a disastrous situation.

However, practically no one sympathized with those people that were being punished. After all, they were reaping what they had sown.

That being said, one thing was without a doubt. That was, after today, Chu Feng would become much more renowned. After all, the people present here were from all over the world, and belonged to all kinds of different powers.

Not only had these people experienced Chu Feng's heaven-defying talent, they had also experienced Chu Feng's character.

Not only were these people going to punish people like Kou Kang that lowered their heads to the Infant Soul Sect, they were also going to help Chu Feng spread word of what happened here today to the rest of the world.

However, at that moment, whilst everyone was praising Chu Feng nonstop for his conduct and deeds, Chu Feng had already left.

It was not that Chu Feng was in a rush to enter Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants. Rather, after seeing how the Ying Heavenly Clan attacked people from the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley earlier, Chu Feng was worried about leaving Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others here.

Thus, Chu Feng wanted to bring Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others to locations with experts from the Three Stars Hall or the Sunset Cloud Valley so that it would be safer for them.

It just so happened that Xu Yiyi and the others knew of a location where the experts from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall were gathered at. Reportedly, Elder Ning Shuang was also there.

While Elder Ning Shaung's cultivation might not be considered extremely powerful, he was still a rank five Martial Ancestor. With a cultivation of rank five Martial Ancestor, he would be able to protect Xu Yiyi and the others.

Thus, Chu Feng planned to bring Xu Yiyi and the others to Elder Ning Shuang's location.

However, no one would've expected that the place where the experts from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall were gathered at, the place where Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others felt to be absolutely safe, had fallen into enemy hands.

It was the Ying Heavenly Clan...

The people from the Ying Heavenly Clan had trapped Elder Ning Shuang and the others. However, the strongest person among the group of people from the Ying Heavenly Clan was not a member of the Ying Heavenly Clan. Instead, it was a familiar individual.

This person not only possessed golden hair and a golden beard, he was also wearing a golden hairpiece. With his rank six Martial Ancestor-level strength, he had completely sealed off all escape for the Sunset Cloud Valley's and Three Stars Hall's experts present.

This person was none other than Daoist Gold Star.

"Daoist Gold Star, are you really going to assist the Ying Heavenly Clan against our Sunset Cloud Valley?" Blood was present on the corners of Elder Ning Shuang's mouth. He was already injured. However, sharpness remained in his eyes.

"Gold Star, you were originally our Three Stars Hall's ally. How could you instead work for our Three Stars Hall's opponent? Do you not fear retribution, do you not fear the ridicule of others for betraying us?" An elder from the Three Stars Hall said angrily.

"Betraying you? Hahahaha... Ridiculous, truly ridiculous!!!" Daoist Gold Star burst into loud laughter. Then, he said, "Back at the Sunset Cloud Valley, wasn't it your Three Stars Hall's headmaster who joined hands with the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master to beat down on me?"

"Now you all remember that you were my allies once? I'm sorry to tell you this, but our alliance has long since been broken! As for the one who broke this alliance, it was none other than you all!" Daoist Gold Star spoke in a very furious manner.

After he finished saying those words, he raised his hand. "Boom!"

Elder Ning Shuang and that elder from the Three Stars Hall were knocked several meters away.

When the two of them landed on the ground, they were covered in blood and seriously injured. They had lost the ability to continue fighting.

“Lord Elders!!!”

Seeing this scene, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall’s disciples started to panic. They wanted to rush to support Elder Ning Shuang and that other elder.

However, right after they took a couple steps forward, a burst of oppressive might descended from the sky and forced them onto their stomachs, making them unable to move in the slightest.

Naturally, that oppressive might was sent forth by Daoist Gold Star.

“Don’t worry. Today, you all will die. None of you will be able to live,” Daoist Gold Star sneered.

“Gold Star, if you feel resentment toward our Sunset Cloud Valley and Three Stars Hall, you can go right ahead and kill me. However, do not harm those children. They have nothing to do with this,” Elder Ning Shuang spoke in an extremely weak voice.

“Nothing to do with this?”

“The fact that they are people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall means that this matter concerns them,” Daoist Gold Star smiled coldly.

Then, he looked to the disciples from the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley, “Remember this. It is because of Chu Feng that you all will die today. If it wasn’t for your headmaster and Valley Master breaking off their relationship with me for the sake of that Chu Feng, you all would not have had to die today.”

“Thus, even if I am to kill you all, you all must not feel hatred toward me. Instead, you should be hating that Chu Feng.”

“It is due to that Chu Feng that you all are going to die here!!!”

After Daoist Gold Star finished saying those words, he raised his hand and unleashed surging killing intent.

At that moment, the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and Three Stars Hall all closed their eyes. Sensing the killing intent emitted by Daoist Gold Star, they knew that they would not be able to survive today.

“Daoist Gold Star, I’m afraid that I’ll have to disappoint you.”

“Today, you will not be able to kill a single person from the Three Stars Hall or the Sunset Cloud Valley.”

Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded.

Following that, a gentle power emerged from the sky. It cut through Daoist Gold Star’s oppressive might and set the people from the Three Stars Hall and Sunset Cloud Valley free.

This sudden scene greatly astonished Daoist Gold Star causing him to immediately look toward the direction from where the voice came from.

Upon looking, his expression changed enormously. In alarm, he cried out, “It’s you?”

Chapter 2337 – Ruthless Character

---

“Who is it?!”

“Did someone come to save us?”

At that moment, the crowd from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall were filled with questions. One by one, they raised their heads and looked toward the sky.

They all wanted to see exactly who it was that was capable of suppressing Daoist Gold Star and saving them.

“It’s him?”

Upon looking, practically everyone present was struck dumb and astonishment filled their eyes.

The reason for that was because the person who came was not someone that they had anticipated. The reason for that was because he was not an expert from the Sunset Cloud Valley or the Three Stars Hall. Instead, it was someone that was completely unexpected.

The reason for that was because the person that came to save them was none other than Chu Feng.

It was not only Chu Feng. Beside him was a crystal giant. The aura of that crystal giant was extremely powerful. No one present was able to see through its cultivation. However, without a doubt, that crystal giant possessed strength capable of suppressing Daoist Gold Star, that grand rank six Martial Ancestor.

Even though the crystal giant was the one that was suppressing Daoist Gold Star, the crowd’s focus was still placed on Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because regardless of how mighty, how powerful and how unfathomable that crystal giant might be, it appeared more like a puppet, a guard.

As for its master, it would be Chu Feng. Thus... the crowd felt that the person that had saved them was Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, you actually dare to show yourself.”

“Very well, you have come at the perfect time. You have saved me time to search for you,” Although Daoist Gold Star was astonished by Chu Feng’s appearance, he immediately gnashed his teeth furiously and revealed a sinister expression. He had completely manifested the hatred he felt towards Chu Feng.

He felt enormous resentment and hatred toward Chu Feng. After all, Chu Feng, a member of the younger generation, had actually defeated him in terms of world spirit techniques. This completely ruined his reputation. As such, he could not tolerate Chu Feng.

“Daoist Gold Star, no matter what, you could be considered to be a somewhat prestigious individual in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Never would I have expected that you are actually such a narrow-minded and petty man,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Narrow-minded and petty? You actually dare to declare that I am narrow-minded and petty?! Do you not remember what you all did to me in the Sunset Cloud Valley?!” Daoist Gold Star said with deep resentment.

“What happened in the Sunset Cloud Valley was but a trifling matter. Yet, for the sake of that trifling matter, you have decided to join forces with the Ying Heavenly Clan to attack the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.”

“Furthermore, you were the one who was being unreasonable back then. Yet, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall did not do anything to you. However, now you want to bring about their deaths. Tell me, are you not a narrow-minded and petty man?”

“I know that the reason why you did all this is actually all because of your hatred toward me. However, since you hate me, you could very well have come and searched for me. There was no need for you to attack the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, no? After all, they are innocent,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Enough of your bullshit. Today, all of you will die!” Daoist Goldstar was completely furious. He did not want to bother speaking rubbish with Chu Feng. With a flip of his wrist, he revealed an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Then, he pointed his weapon toward Chu Feng.

“Boom~~~”

“Roar~~~”

Martial power surged forth, bringing about a strong wind. A dragon-like ferocious beast appeared from the surging martial power. It opened its mouth wide and revealed its sharp fangs as it charged toward Chu Feng.

Once that beast appeared, the weather immediately changed. An unstoppable force soon engulfed the entire region.

That was no ordinary beast. Rather, it was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

Daoist Gold Star seemed to have realized that the crystal giant beside Chu Feng was no small matter. Thus, he did not act carelessly, and unleashed his trump card from the get-go.

After Daoist Gold Star unleashed an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill using his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, the crowd from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall all grew extremely nervous.

The reason for that was because the might of that ferocious beast was truly frightening. They were all scared that Chu Feng would not be able to handle it.

“Boom~~~”

However, right at that moment, the crystal giant beside Chu

Feng slowly raised its arm. Then, it shot forth a punch.

Although that punch appeared to be powerless, it caused heaven and earth to tremble violently the moment it was shot forth. In a split second, that ferocious beast formed by the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was shattered to pieces.

“This?!!!”

At that moment, the crowd from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall discovered that they had been worrying for nothing.

Chu Feng’s crystal giant was too powerful. At the moment that crystal giant attacked, the crowd realized that no matter how strong Daoist Gold Star might be, he would not be able to injure Chu Feng in the slightest. The reason for that was because the strength of that crystal giant most definitely surpassed Daoist Gold Star.

“Why would such a powerful existence appear beside Chu Feng?”

“Exactly what sort of origin does that Chu Feng possess?”

The might of the crystal giant made the crowd realize with greater certainty that Chu Feng’s origin was no small matter. Likely, he possessed an enormous background. Else, how could such a powerful existence protect him like a bodyguard?

At that moment, in terms of feeling the most complicated, it would be none other than a disciple from the Sunset Cloud Valley.

This person was called Jiang Hao. This Jiang Hao was someone who was fond of Xu Yiyi. Due to the fact that Xu Yiyi treated Chu Feng very well, he had tried to deliberately make things difficult for Chu Feng on Mount Cloud Crane, and had even thought about killing Chu Feng.

At that time, he felt that Chu Feng was only a minor character. Thus, he naturally did not take him to heart.

However, as matters stood, he now had no choice but to reevaluate Chu Feng.

In fact, he had already grown a bit scared. He had realized that Chu Feng was not a minor character. Rather, Chu Feng was a grand character that he could not afford to offend.

When recalling all the things he had done to Chu Feng back then, how could he not be scared?

“Damn it!”

Just when the crowd were pondering Chu Feng’s origin, Daoist Gold Star turned around and began to flee. At the same time, the people from the Ying Heavenly Clan also did not dare to stay any longer.

One by one, they either entered into the void, dug underground or flew into the sky. They were using all sorts of methods to escape from that place.

“Buzz~~~”

The eyes of that crystal giant flickered with a red light. Then, an invisible ripple began to spread.

“Aiyoh!”

“Heavens!”

The very next moment, regardless of whether it was Daoist Gold Star or the crowd from the Ying Heavenly Clan, they were all brought back to their original locations. Merely, at that moment, they were no longer standing. Instead they were all lying on their stomachs.

“You all wanted to escape now that you failed to kill others? Is there such an easy thing in this world?” Chu Feng looked to the crowd lying on the ground and spoke with a light smile.

“Chu Feng, what are you planning to do?!” Daoist Gold Star and the crowd from the Ying Heavenly Clan shouted in unison.

“What do I plan to do? Naturally, to kill you all,” Chu Feng said.

“You dare?!!!” Daoist Gold Star and the crowd from the Ying Heavenly Clan shouted in unison again.

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed. Then, he said, “You all will come to know whether or not I dare.”

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

.....

Right after Chu Feng said those words, muffled explosions began to be heard in rapid succession. As the muffled explosions resonated, Daoist Gold Star and the people from the Ying Heavenly Clan all exploded and turned into puddles of blood.

Chu Feng extended his hand and made a grabbing motion, causing Daoist Gold Star’s as well as the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clansmen’s Cosmos Sacks to all enter his grasp. He then placed them into his own Cosmos Sack.

Then, he looked down, and discovered that the reactions from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall’s elders were relatively fine. However, the disciples were somewhat scared.

They were scared not because they had not yet emerged from the time when their lives were in the hands of Daoist Gold Star. Rather, it was most likely because Chu Feng was able to so effortlessly kill Daoist Gold Star and the many people from the Ying Heavenly Clan.

After all, no matter what, those were over a thousand lives. Furthermore, many among them were people of the older generation that had cultivated for many years.

Thus, even though they all felt that those people deserved to die, they still involuntarily began to feel reverence and fear toward Chu Feng. After all, only truly ruthless characters were capable of actually killing those people.

Without a doubt, Chu Feng had become one such ruthless character in their hearts.

The ruthlessness that he possessed was not something that they, fellow members of the younger generation, possessed.

Chapter 2338 – The Dangerousness Of The Remnants

---

Chu Feng did not care about how the others viewed him. The reason for that was because he felt that if he had not arrived when he did, the ones that would have died would have been the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall. Furthermore, if he had not possessed the protection of the crystal giant, even he would have been killed.

Chu Feng was someone who would never keep those that wanted to kill him alive.

The reason was very simple; Chu Feng felt that all those that wanted to kill him deserved to die.

“Elder Ning Shuang!!!”

“Lord Elder!!!”

Immediately afterward, several more figures flew over from the sky. They were Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others.

In fact, they had been there since long ago. Merely, they’d been hiding within the void and not showing themselves. As for the reason why no one was able to sense their existences, it was because of Zhao Hong’s abilities.

After Xu Yiyi, Song Biyu and the others landed on the ground, they joined the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

The people present began to mention to Xu Yiyi and the others the dangers that they had encountered earlier, while Xu Yiyi and the others began to mention to those people their encounter with Chu Feng and the Infant Soul Sect.

When the people there found out that Chu Feng had actually used a heaven-defying spirit formation to defeat the greatly renowned Old Demon Rakshasa, and used a Demon Armament to scare away a True Immortal, the gazes with which the crowd looked at Chu Feng changed enormously.

For many of the disciples from the Three Stars Hall and the Sunset Cloud Valley, they deeply revered their parents, master or their school's headmaster.

However, at that moment, they had changed the person that they revered to Chu Feng instead.

After all, Chu Feng's conduct and deeds were something that their parents, master and even headmaster could not accomplish.

Moreover, Chu Feng was also a member of the younger generation like them. This caused them to feel greater admiration and reverence toward him than anyone else.

However, at that moment, Jiang Hao was feeling even more complicated. After all, he had been extremely excessive toward Chu Feng before, and had even wanted to kill Chu Feng.

At this moment, he was truly filled with remorse. If he knew that Chu Feng would be so powerful, even if he were to be given a hundred sets of balls, he would not dare to deliberately make things difficult for Chu Feng again.

Right at the moment when Jiang Hao was worried about whether Chu Feng would retaliate against him, Chu Feng began to talk to Elder Ning Shuang, completely ignoring Jiang Hao. Chu Feng began to tell Elder Ning Shuang his purpose for being there.

"Chu Feng, you're actually planning to enter the remnants?" After finding out that Chu Feng wanted to enter the remnants, Elder Ning Shuang was deeply shocked. In fact, a dense amount of worry emerged in his eyes.

"What's wrong, could it be that you are looking down on us?" Zhao Hong said in a slightly displeased manner.

"No, this old man does not have that opinion at all," Elder Ning

Shuang knew that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were Chu Feng's friends. Thus, he did not want to offend them, and hurriedly explained with a smile on his face.

"Then what is the meaning of your astonished expression?" Zhao Hong continued to ask.

"Little friend, please don't misunderstand. I am truly not looking down on you all. Merely, the remnants are truly dangerous. It is not a place where ordinary people can explore."

"The majority of the people from our Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall have retreated from the remnants already. The reason why this old man is still here is precisely because I was waiting for Yiyi and the others to come. Now that they're here, I am also planning to withdraw from this place," Elder Ning Shuang said.

"Hehe, t-to speak t-the truth, s-senior, what we f-fear the least is d-danger," Wang Qiang said with a proud expression.

"If you all really plan to continue into the remnants, this old man will not stop you all. However, it remains that our Sunset Cloud Valley's people have been into the remnants before. As such, we know a bit about the situation inside. Might you all be willing to hear me out?" Elder Ning Shuang said.

"Senior, please go ahead," Chu Feng said politely.

"As far as I know, the Immortal Sword School, Buddha's Heavenly Temple, the Zhou Heavenly Clan and the Kong Heavenly Clan, those four tier one powers, have all dispatched peak Martial Ancestor-level experts into the depths of the remnants.

"Furthermore, even a True Immortal-level expert was dispatched by Buddha's Heavenly Temple."

"Furthermore, according to the rumors, even Grandmaster Prophet, who has been withdrawn from worldly affairs for a very long time, was asked over by the Kong Heavenly Clan. Right now, he is also in the depths of those remnants,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“Grandmaster Prophet?” Many of the people present were startled upon hearing that name. The reason for that was because they did know much about the situation in the remnants.

“Who is that Grandmaster Prophet?” Chu Feng asked curiously. From the reaction of the crowd, Chu Feng was able to tell that this Grandmaster Prophet seemed to have an extraordinary origin and was an extraordinary individual.

“Grandmaster Prophet is a godly individual in our Hundred Refinements ordinary Realm. He is able to prophesize many things. Furthermore, till this date, all of the things that he has prophesied have come true.”

“Thus, Grandmaster Prophet possesses an extraordinary status in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. It is generally very difficult to request his help. Likely, the Kong Heavenly Clan has paid a great price to request Grandmaster Prophet’s assistance.”

“However, even though Grandmaster Prophet was asked over, and many experts from all around the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm were inside the remnants, none of them seemed to have been able to make any leeway and gain anything from the remnants yet.”

“Furthermore, it is said that... the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s True Immortal-level expert was seriously injured in the remnants, and has been sent out of this place. As of now, it is uncertain whether that person is dead or alive,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“The True Immortal expert from Buddha’s Heavenly Temple was actually injured? Furthermore, it is uncertain whether he is dead or alive?”

“The traps and mechanisms within those remnants are actually that powerful?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

When Chu Feng had encountered the True Immortal from the Infant Soul Sect, he had experienced how powerful a True Immortal was. The fact that an expert that powerful was actually injured and might even lose his life clearly demonstrated how dangerous the remnants were.

This caused Chu Feng to have no choice but to reevaluate the dangers of the remnants.

“No, it was not caused by traps or mechanisms. Reportedly, he was injured by someone,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“What? He was injured by someone? To be able to injure a True Immortal, it would mean that the person that injured him must be a True Immortal too. Exactly who injured him?” At that moment, the crowd were all confused.

“No one knows who injured the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s True Immortal expert. The only thing we know is that that person is extremely powerful. That being said, one thing is certain. The person who injured the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s True Immortal is not a part of the four tier one powers, but rather, an unknown individual.”

“Furthermore, there was another rumor stating that the person that injured the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s True Immortal was simply not a human, but rather a humanoid monster with a body covered with long red fur,” Elder Ning Shuang said.

“Monster? A monster capable of defeating a True Immortal? Heavens! Never would I have expected the remnants to be so dangerous!”

“Elders, it is better that we leave this place quickly.”

At that moment, the crowd from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall grew more fearful toward the remnants. Many people were itching to leave the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds right away. They were afraid that a monster might appear from the remnants and injure or kill them.

After all, True Immortals were already the strongest experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. They were beings capable of calling upon the wind and summoning the rain. They were the greatest omnipotent individuals.

Yet, that monster was capable of defeating a True Immortal. Naturally, the crowd would be terror-stricken by the news of that monster.

“It would seem that these remnants are quite interesting then,” However, at the moment when the others were afraid, Zhao Hong’s lips were raised into a smile.

It was not only Zhao Hong that was smiling, Wang Qiang was also smiling.

As for Chu Feng, even though he did not reveal an expression of anticipation, there was not the slightest trace of fear on his face.

Seeing the reactions from the three of them, Elder Ning Shuang shook his head helplessly. He knew... he had said all those things in vain.

He had been trying to warn Chu Feng and the others of how dangerous the remnants were so that they would be scared and not enter them.

However, it would appear now that not only did his words not manage to scare them, he instead made them more interested.

At that moment, Elder Ning Shuang realized that one simply could not compare the mindsets of geniuses with those of ordinary people.

The courage and insight that geniuses possessed truly surpassed others.

“Chu Feng, there is no time to lose. Let’s go,” Zhao Hong said impatiently.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded. Then, he bid farewell to Elder Ning Shuang, Xu Yiyi and the others.

After bidding his farewells, Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang immediately began to proceed toward the remnants.

“Chu Feng, wait a moment.”

However, right at that moment, a figure suddenly walked out from the crowd of disciples. That person arrived before Chu Feng and stopped him.

When that person appeared, the expressions of Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang changed slightly.

The reason for that was because that person was not only someone that they knew, he was also someone that Chu Feng knew.

That person was Jiang Hao.

Chapter 2339 – Grandmaster Prophet

---

“Jiang Hao, what are you planning on doing?” Xu Yiyi shouted at Jiang Hao in a very displeased manner.

“Jiang Hao, do not cause troubles! Step down immediately,” At the same time, Elder Ning Shuang also shouted at him with a cold voice.

Both Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang had been present when Jiang Hao had deliberately made things difficult for Chu Feng.

Thus, Elder Ning Shuang and Xu Yiyi were feeling very uneasy to see Jiang Hao to step forward at a time like this. They were afraid that Jiang Hao would try to bother Chu Feng again.

After all, the relationship the Sunset Cloud Valley had with Chu Feng was extremely good now.

Even though they knew that the current Jiang Hao was already no match for Chu Feng, it remained that Jiang Hao was someone from their Sunset Cloud Valley.

Both Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang were very worried that Jiang Hao would say something unpleasant to Chu Feng, and affect his opinion of their Sunset Cloud Valley.

“This...”

However, upon looking closer, the expressions of Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang changed once again.

The reason for that was because they were surprised to discover that Jiang Hao’s current expression was not that of an aggressive individual. Instead, he had a very docile appearance.

No matter how one looked at it, Jiang Hao did not appear to be wanting to cause troubles for Chu Feng.

“That Jiang Hao, he couldn’t possibly be planning to apologize to Chu Feng, right?”

“But, that shouldn’t be the case, no?”

Xu Yiyi muttered. If it were someone else, Xu Yiyi would believe that they might be planning to apologize to Chu Feng.

However, as it was Jiang Hao, she understood his character. Jiang Hao was a proud and arrogant individual. During the many years that she had known him, she had never seen him apologize to anyone.

“Chu Feng, I...” Suddenly, Jiang Hao began to speak.

“Jiang Hao, I am preoccupied with an important matter today. Let’s reminiscence another day,” However, before Jiang Hao could finish, Chu Feng smiled and patted Jiang Hao’s shoulder.

Jiang Hao had a sluggish expression from Chu Feng’s action. He seemed to not understand Chu Feng’s intention.

However, the next moment, Jiang Hao suddenly received Chu Feng’s voice transmission.

“Jiang Hao, I know what you want to say. The things of the past are things from the past. I, Chu Feng, will not look into them any further.”

Hearing those words, Jiang Hao felt as if his soul was trembling. Not only did Chu Feng manage to guess that he wanted to apologize, Chu Feng actually also forgave him.

Furthermore, for the sake of not humiliating him, Chu Feng deliberately stopped him from apologizing, and spoke to him with a voice transmission afterwards.

Regret. At that moment, Jiang Hao felt even greater regret than before. He regretted how thoughtless he had been back then to actually deliberately make things difficult for Chu Feng.

Jiang Hao remained stunned and regretful for a very long time. When he managed to finally react, he discovered that Chu Feng had already left with Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“Senior brother Jiang Hao, never would I have imagined that you were actually friends with Chu Feng. Wow! I truly admire you!”

“Senior brother Jiang Hao, you are my idol!”

At this moment, the disciples from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall had surrounded Jiang Hao. The gazes with which they looked to Jiang Hao were filled with admiration and respect.

At this moment, Jiang Hao was moved. The reason for that was because he knew that it was all thanks to Chu Feng that he had obtained these disciples' adoration and respect. These people had all mistakenly thought Jiang Hao to be Chu Feng's friend. That was the reason why they were adoring and respecting him like this.

At that moment, Jiang Hao involuntarily looked at Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang.

Both Xu Yiyi and Elder Ning Shuang responded with a faint smile.

At that moment, Jiang Hao finally felt at ease.

He no longer regretted. The reason for that was because Jiang Hao had made a resolution. Even though he was only able to accomplish meager things, he had decided that he would support Chu Feng from today on.

Regardless of whether or not Chu Feng might know about it, he would refuse to allow another person to speak ill of Chu Feng before him.

The reason for that was because Jiang Hao had personally experienced Chu Feng's character. Not mentioning other things, merely Chu Feng's broad-mindedness was sufficient to make him admire Chu Feng greatly.

Chu Feng had no idea about the change in Jiang Hao's heart. At that moment, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were rapidly proceeding toward the remnants. They were currently very close to the remnants.

At the same time, a scene was currently playing out in the depths of the remnants.

The people gathered here could all be considered to be renowned individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

The Immortal Sword School, Buddha's Heavenly Temple, Zhou Heavenly Clan and Kong Heavenly Clan were the widely-accepted four strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. At this moment all four of them were gathered at the same location.

Among them were many peak Martial Ancestor-level experts.

Apart from the experts from the four tier one powers, there were also some grand existences that did not belong to any power.

Among them was naturally the mother of those Four World Spiritist Emperors.

However, at that moment, regardless of who they might be and what sort of strength they possessed, all of them had hopeless expressions on their faces.

The reason for that was because they were all stopped by an entrance gate before them.

That gate was a hundred meters tall. However, it was very simple and unadorned. As far as one's eye could see, the gate appeared to be made of wood. There were no special symbols or domineering engravings on the gate. At a glance, it appeared to be a very ordinary gate.

However, it was precisely this ordinary-looking gate that had stopped all of the people present. Not a single person was able to shatter that gate.

"It is a pity that Grandmaster Huai Zhu was injured by that unknown individual.”

“Else, if he were here, how could we be stopped by this gate?” A man from the Zhou Heavenly Clan with the cultivation of a peak Martial Ancestor said.

“No, you all are looking down on this gate. The way I see it, even True Immortal-level experts would not necessarily be able to smash apart this gate,” An extremely thin old man wearing a daoist robe said.

Compared to the people present, this old man’s cultivation was not very strong; he was only a rank seven Martial Ancestor.

However, this old man was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Thus, upon saying those words, many people began to nod in approval.

After all, in a place like this, the visions of world spiritists were generally many times stronger than those of ordinary martial cultivators.

“Grandmaster Prophet, what should we do? Could it be that we really need to wait for some sort of exceptional genius to come here?” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was very anxious as she asked an old man.

When the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said those words, everyone present turned their gazes to that same old man.

That old man was none other than the extremely renowned Grandmaster Prophet.

This Grandmaster Prophet wore a snow-white gown. His gown covered his hair and face. The gown seemed to possess some sort of special effect that made it impossible for others to see his actual appearance. The only thing that others could see was his pair of sharp eyes.

His eyes were very clear. They were as bright as children’s eyes.

However, his pair of hands betrayed his identity as an old man. The reason for that was because not only were his hands filled with wrinkles, they were also covered with age spots. Those were hands that only an elderly individual that had lived for endless years would have.

At that moment, that pair of aged hands was holding onto a glass-like crystal ball. The old man's sharp eyes were fixed onto that crystal ball the entire time.

A scene was present in the crystal ball. The location of that scene was precisely the entrance of this remnants.

"Grandmaster, is that prophecy of yours truly reliable?" An expert from the Zhou Heavenly Clan asked curiously.

"Are you doubting this old man?" Grandmaster Prophet turned around. An enormous change occurred in his previously clear eyes. A frightening expression was present in his gaze.

"No, I wouldn't dare," In response, that Zhou Heavenly Clan's expert hurriedly lowered his head and acknowledged his mistake.

This expert from the Zhou Heavenly Clan was very powerful. He was a rank eight Martial Ancestor.

However, he did not dare to act impudently before this Grandmaster Prophet. This was not only because this Grandmaster Prophet possessed extraordinary status in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Most importantly, it was because this Grandmaster Prophet was a peak Martial Ancestor, someone with strength surpassing his own.

Chapter 2340 – The Key To Force Open The Gate

---

After Grandmaster Prophet arrived at the remnants, he did two major things.

The first major thing Grandmaster Prophet did was to declare that the remnants was indeed that of Grandmaster Kai Hong.

As for the second major thing, Grandmaster Prophet made a prophecy.

He prophesied that Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants would only begin to transform after a fated individual arrived.

Else, regardless of how heaven-defying one's power or abilities might be, they would not be able to obtain the slightest bit of Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance.

Furthermore, that so-called fated individual was not someone to be trifled with either. That fated individual was someone who would shake the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and cause experts from all over to live in endless fear.

Merely, the people present did not believe in Grandmaster Prophet's prophecy too much.

Naturally, there were reasons why they did not believe Grandmaster Prophet's prophecy.

Firstly, they had waited at the entrance for a very long time. Yet, no such fated individual had yet appeared.

And, most importantly, Grandmaster Prophet's prophecy mentioned that that fated individual was a person from the younger generation. Furthermore, that person from the younger generation would obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's personal techniques.

If the person Grandmaster Prophet prophesied about was a renowned individual in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, then perhaps the people present would have believed him.

However, that prophesied individual was a member of the younger generation. How could that possibly be possible?

Even though they had indeed not managed to obtain any inheritance or treasures from Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants, the dangers that they had faced on their way there were still vivid in their minds.

Although they had managed to break through the mechanisms and traps, those mechanisms and traps were capable of restoring themselves. As such, with the strength that individuals from the younger generation possessed, how could a person from the younger generation possibly be able to enter that place?

"I know that you all are skeptical of this old man. However, you all absolutely must not doubt this prophetic crystal ball of mine."

"The reason for that is because till this date, all that my prophetic crystal ball has pointed out has ended up being true."

"It is capable of seeing through mysteries known only to heaven, and finding out about the future," Grandmaster Prophet looked to the crystal ball in his hand as he spoke.

After Grandmaster Prophet finished saying those words, Grandmaster Prophet fixed his gaze onto the prophecy crystal ball. He once again began to stare at the scene inside the crystal ball.

At that moment, his gaze once again turned clear, like the eyes of a child. There was not the slightest trace of impurity.

It was as if he did not dare to use any ill-intended gaze to view the prophetic crystal ball because he felt enormous respect for it.

In response, the crowd revealed helpless expressions.

It was not that they did not wish to look at the prophetic crystal ball. Rather, they had already been staring at it for quite some time now. Many people had appeared in the prophetic crystal ball. However, no one was capable of changing the situation at hand.

At that moment, the crowd had already lost confidence. After all, it had already been many days since they had arrived.

“Creak~~~”

Right at that moment, a sound was suddenly heard from that simple, unadorned and enormous wooden gate.

At that moment, everyone turned their gazes to the wooden gate, with astonishment filling their eyes.

One should know that it was the first sound that they had heard from that wooden gate in the many days they had been there.

“He’s here! The fated individual has arrived! That person who is able to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s personal techniques has arrived,” At that moment, Grandmaster Prophet stood up with excitement. He had an extremely emotional expression in his eyes.

Hearing what Grandmaster Prophet said, everyone present turned their gazes to that prophetic crystal ball.

At that moment, this surroundings became abnormally quiet. The only sound present was the sound of everyone’s breathing and the beating of their hearts.

They all wished to see exactly who that so-called fated individual might be.

At the moment when the various grand characters had fixed their gazes on the crystal ball, three figures finally appeared within it.

The three individuals were extremely fast. They practically flashed by in an instant. However, the people present all managed to firmly capture the appearance of the three individuals.

“It’s actually him?”

At that moment, the people present all revealed astonished expressions.

The reason for that was because the three individuals that had flashed past in the crystal ball were none other than Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

The crowd present did not know Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang. However, they knew Chu Feng.

After all, the Ying Heavenly Clan had already spread Chu Feng's portrait all over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for the sake of capturing him.

Moreover, due to what Chu Feng had done on Mount Cloud Crane, even these grand characters had, more or less, paid attention to Chu Feng. As such, practically everyone present knew that Chu Feng was a newly emerged genius among the younger generation.

"Haha." However, right at the moment when the crowd present were astonished by the fated individual being Chu Feng, the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors let out a cold laugh. She said, "Grandmaster, it is not that I do not trust you. Merely, I fear that your prophecy this time around might be mistaken."

"Why are you so certain that my prophecy is a mistake?" Grandmaster Prophet asked in a slightly displeased manner.

"Not only is that Chu Feng a member of the younger generation, his cultivation is also only at the Half Martial Ancestor realm. As for those two friends of his, I presume that their cultivations will not be much stronger than his either."

"Judging from the scene earlier, only the three of them, three people from the younger generation, have entered. There doesn't seem to be anyone from the older generation protecting them."

"Thus, I am able to be certain that, with the cultivation the three of them possess, not to mention reaching this place, they will not even be able to pass the first half of the remnants."

"I would like to ask, how could someone who is unable to pass through the remnants possibly cause a transformation to the remnants? How could someone like that possibly be able to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance?" The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors asked loudly.

"That is true," The crowd present began to nod at the words spoken by the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother.

"Snap~~~"

"Snap~~~"

"Snap~~~"

.....

However, right at that moment, strange sounds began sound from the simple, unadorned and enormous wooden gate.

At the same time, many strange ripples began to expand from the wooden gate.

"Buzz~~~"

The very next moment, many golden gaseous substances visible to the naked eye began to flow out from the wooden gate.

"Rumble~~~"

After the golden gaseous substances appeared, the entire remnant started to rumble.

The rumbling sound was very strange. It did not sound purely like something trembling. Rather, it sounded more like a ferocious beast letting out a deep growl.

It was as if a ferocious beast had been awakened by the summoning from that gaseous substance.

"It would appear that my prophecy was accurate," Seeing the change before him, Grandmaster Prophet let out a joyous laugh.

At that moment, the crowd asked in unison, "Grandmaster, in that case, it would mean that the fated individual capable of opening this remnant would be Chu Feng?”

“That’s hard to say. After all, three people have entered together. It might also be possible for it to be one of the two other individuals who entered alongside Chu Feng,” Grandmaster Prophet said.

“Grandmaster’s prophecy is truly accurate. Grandmaster, you are simply a godly individual,” The crowd began to praise Grandmaster Prophet nonstop. After all, things were progressing precisely as Grandmaster Prophet had prophesied.

‘It would appear that brat by the name of Chu Feng truly cannot be looked down upon,’ At the same time the crowd praised Grandmaster Prophet, they all had a new opinion of Chu Feng in their hearts.

Even though Grandmaster Prophet had clearly declared that he could not be certain that the prophesied individual would be Chu Feng, it remained that Chu Feng was already famous. Thus, the people present had already come to their own judgement that the person capable of affecting this remnants and obtaining Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance was Chu Feng.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

At the moment when the crowd was gasping with awe, the golden gaseous substance began to gather together, forming a boundless vortex. As the vortex spun, many symbols began to flicker within it. Soon, a grand formation was formed.

That grand formation illuminated their surroundings like a bright sun.

It was extremely imposing, and gave rise to waves of strong wind. Even though the people present were all powerful experts, they were still forced back by the wind.

Finally, the grand formation finished forming. It was an extremely powerful defensive formation. As for that powerful defensive formation, it was not protecting the wooden gate. Rather, it was protecting a coffin.

That coffin was standing straight in the center of the formation. It was sealed, and the crowd was simply unable to see what was inside.

However, on the coffin was aggressively large writing. Three huge words were inscribed onto the coffin...

Gate Opening Key!!!

Chapter 2341 – Undoing The Grand Formation

---

“Haha, it seems that you’re mistaken.”

“Grandmaster Prophet is truly a grandmaster indeed. The result of Grandmaster Prophet’s prophecy is not something that you can question.”

At that moment, many people began to mock the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother.

“Naturally, Grandmaster Prophet’s prophecy will be accurate. Merely, I still do not believe that, that little piece of trash Chu Feng will be able to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance.”

“With his strength, he will not even be able to reach this place. Thus, how could he possibly obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance?”

“Are you trying say that Grandmaster Kai Hong will suddenly appear and personally present his inheritance to Chu Feng?” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“That is somewhat reasonable too. Although Grandmaster’s prophecy is very accurate, it remains that Chu Feng is a member of the younger generation. Even if he is able to cause changes to the remnants, it will likely remain very difficult for him to obtain benefits before us,” The crowd echoed.

“Indeed. At times like this, what is being tested is one’s strength.”

“Those who are capable will be able to gain benefits.”

Suddenly, a peak Martial Ancestor-level expert hefted a giant Ancestral Armament axe. He unleashed a movement martial skill, and began to fly toward that coffin. He planned to use that axe to split open the coffin.

“You wish to be the first? Not so easy!!!”

In response, the other peak Martial Ancestor-level experts rushed forth and unleashed their respective abilities. They all wanted to be the first to split open that coffin and obtain the so-called Gate Opening Key.

At that moment, various powerful abilities were unleashed together. They all attacked at that coffin.

“Boom~~~”

However, before the many and various powerful attacks could approach the coffin, they were all blocked by the grand formation.

“How could this be?”

At that moment, the crowd was stunned.

The people who had attacked earlier were all peak Martial Ancestor-level experts. They were actual rank nine Martial Ancestors, existences a step away from becoming True Immortals.

Furthermore, for the sake of being the first to obtain the Gate Opening Key from the coffin, none of them had spared any effort in their attacks. Not only had all of them attacked with overwhelming Ancestral-level might, they had also attacked with Emperor Taboo Martial Skills from the very start.

Those attacks were already capable of creating massive destruction in a region, and easily killing countless living things. It was pure destructive power.

However, it was precisely that sort of destructive power that was completely blocked by the grand defensive formation. As such, how could the many experts of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm not be astonished?

“You’re kidding. Not only is that gate impossible to break through, even this spirit formation is impossible to breach.”

“Even if there’s a so-called key in that spirit formation, how are we supposed to use it if we cannot open the spirit formation?”

After their series of attacks at the spirit formation turned out to be useless, the experts present were unable to contain themselves from complaining.

“Since it’s a spirit formation, it is naturally possible to be breached. There are world spiritists among the people present, no?” A peak Martial Ancestor from the Immortal Sword School said.

“That’s true. We have this many Immortal-cloak World Spiritists here, how could we possibly not be able to open that spirit formation?” At that moment, the crowd all turned their gazes to the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors and the many other Immortal-cloak World Spiritists present.

It was true that there were extremely few Immortal-cloak World Spiritists in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, about seventy percent of all the Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were gathered here in Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants.

Among them, nine were Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, and five were Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists.

As for those world spiritists, not only were they proficient in world spirit techniques, their cultivations were also very strong.

“It is fine for you all to want us to undo that spirit formation. However, after we undo the spirit formation, how are we to distribute the treasures left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong?” The mother of the Four World Spiritists Emperor turned to ask the crowd.

“You’re not the only Immortal-cloak World Spiritist here. If you wish to help, then do it. If you do not wish to help, then move aside,” An old man with snow-white hair placed the sharp sword he held onto his back and then began to emit spirit power to set up an unsealing formation.

That old man was one of the five Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists present. He was from the Immortal Sword School.

After that, the three Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists from the Zhou Heavenly Clan, the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Buddha's Heavenly Temple also joined that Immortal Sword School's Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. They did not wish to allow the Immortal Sword School's Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist to undo the spirit formation by himself and then reap the Gate Opening Key alone.

"Milords, although our strength is limited, please allow us to lend you all a helping hand."

In response, the nine Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists also joined in.

They did not join purely because they wanted to lend a helping hand. Rather, they wanted to gain a share of the benefits in Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants after undoing that spirit formation.

"If you are to join us right now, you will still be able to obtain a portion of the benefits. Else, I'm afraid Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants will be unrelated to you," An expert from the Immortal Sword School said to the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother.

"Haha, is that so?" However, the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother smiled confidently. Then, she said, "I dare to guarantee that if I don't help out, you all will absolutely not be able to open that spirit formation."

"Humph, what arrogance and conceit," Hearing those words, that Immortal Sword School's expert, as well as many other people present, all scoffed at the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother.

However, the smile on the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother remained unchanged. Just like that, she looked on indifferently at the other world spiritists joining hands to undo the grand defensive formation.

At the beginning, no one cared about the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother.

After all, in terms of cultivation, she was unable to compare to the peak Martial Ancestors present.

As for world spirit techniques, even though she was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, she was not the only Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist present here.

Thus, if she were to join and help out, the crowd would not stop her. However, if she refused to join and help, the crowd would not demand her assistance either.

However, when the undoing spirit formation the world spiritists joined hands to set up, was set up successfully, yet still did not manage to do anything to the grand defensive formation, the crowd inevitably turned their gazes to the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

In response, the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother opened her mouth and said, "Everyone, truth be told, I once obtained a bit of Grandmaster Kai Hong's personal techniques from a different remnant. It is all thanks to Grandmaster Kai Hong that I managed to become a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist."

"Thus, to a greater or lesser degree, I understand Grandmaster Kai Hong's spirit formations. It is useless for you all to attempt to undo the defensive formation like that."

With no alternative, the crowd asked, "You are truly able to undo this formation?"

"Naturally," The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

"Go ahead and tell us, how much do you want?" The crowd asked.

“If this remnant truly contains Grandmaster Kai Hong’s personal techniques, I want to obtain all the personal techniques. As for treasures, I want a tenth of them.”

“If there are no personal techniques from Grandmaster Kai Hong here, I want fifty percent of the treasures,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“You are simply delusional!” The crowd replied in unison.

“There’s nothing that can be done then,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother had a confident expression.

Just like that, many hours passed. Those world spiritists were still unable to do anything to the grand defensive formation.

At that moment, the people present were feeling extremely unreconciled. However, they inevitably turned their gazes to the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors again.

“How about this: if you are truly able to undo this spirit formation, Grandmaster Kai Hong’s personal techniques will be yours.”

“As for treasures, you will not obtain any. After all, Grandmaster Kai Hong’s personal techniques are priceless treasures themselves.”

“If there are none of Grandmaster Kai Hong’s personal techniques in that remnants, you’ll get three tenths of the treasures inside,” After discussing it with one another, the representatives from the four tier one powers spoke in unison.

“Although that proposal is not to my satisfaction, it remains that I am able to see some sincerity from you all. Very well, I shall reluctantly agree to it,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother said with a smile.

“However, if you are unable to undo that spirit formation, do not blame me for being rude,” An expert from the Immortal Sword School said coldly.

“Rest assured, I am most definitely capable of undoing the spirit formation,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother said confidently.

Then, the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors began to set up another grand formation before the crowd.

Right after she began to set up that grand formation, it immediately let out a strange aura.

At that moment, not to mention the others, even the eyes of those Immortal-cloak World Spiritists started to shine.

The reason for that was because the aura emitted by the spirit formation the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother was setting up was identical to the aura of the remnant.

At that moment, the crowd present all believed that the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother would be able to undo that spirit formation.

Sensing the admiring gazes from the crowd, the smile on the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother’s face grew denser.

However, right at that moment, a voice sounded from behind the crowd like a sudden clap of thunder.

“That spirit formation of yours is unable to undo that grand defensive formation.”

Quick maths.  $(9+5)*0.7=9.8$  Total Immortal cloaks. + Chu Feng and friends = 13 Immortal cloaks.

Chapter 2342 – Outstanding Courage And Insight

---

“Who is it?”

The voice that was suddenly heard startled all of the people present.

The reason for that was because they were practically all certain that the spirit formation of the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother would be able to undo that grand defensive formation.

The fact that someone had suddenly declared that the spirit formation of the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother would be unable to undo that grand defensive formation at a time like this meant that they had gone against the opinion of the crowd.

At that moment, the first thing people thought was that the person that had spoken was boasting shamelessly.

Which is why they were curious as to who it was that actually said such a thing at such a time.

“It's him?!”

Upon turning around to look, the already surprised crowd became completely astonished.

Logically, the people present were all grand individuals that had experienced a lot of major things. As such, they were not people that would be easily astonished.

However, upon seeing the people who'd just arrived, they immediately revealed astonished expressions.

The reason for that was because the person who had arrived was someone that they would never have expected.

The reason for that was because the people that had arrived were Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Merely, at that moment, the crowd were focused on one individual, Chu Feng.

‘Chu Feng?’

‘How did he get here?’

‘He is but a person of the younger generation, a mere rank five Half Martial Ancestor.’

‘With that cultivation, it shouldn’t be possible for him to reach this place, no?’

‘Could it be those two?’

After a moment of astonishment, the crowd shifted their gazes from Chu Feng to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

While it was true that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong possessed cultivations above Chu Feng’s, it remained that Wang Qiang was only a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, and Zhao Hong, the strongest of the three, was only a rank one Martial Ancestor.

With their cultivations, it was evident that none of them possessed the capability to reach this place.

“Chu Feng, were you the one who said those words earlier?” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors asked with a cold voice. Her tone was filled with ill-intended tone.

“So what if I am the one who said it?” However, faced with this threat from the Four World Spirit Emperors’ mother, Chu Feng’s expression remained unchanged. He was completely calm.

“Cheeky bastard, you shall be punished!!!” As the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors spoke, her eyes were glowering wide open. She unleashed her rank seven Martial Ancestor-level aura and shot forth a vast oppressive might at Chu Feng.

Her attack was very ruthless. With Chu Feng’s current level of cultivation, if he were to be struck by her oppressive might, even if he didn’t die, he would likely suffer serious injuries and have his future prospects ruined.

“Buzz~~~”

However, before the attack from the Four World Spiritist Emperor’s mother could reach Chu Feng, an even stronger power blocked it.

The person who had acted to block her attack was actually Grandmaster Prophet.

“You are too excessively ruthless. No matter what, you are a senior. How could you bully a junior like this?” Grandmaster Prophet said coldly.

“Grandmaster, it is true that Chu Feng is a member of the younger generation and I am a senior to him, but that is precisely the reason why I should properly teach him a lesson for speaking rudely to me,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“Speak rudely? Since when did speaking the truth become rude?” Chu Feng smiled mockingly.

“You declared that the spirit formation I’ve set up is unable to undo that grand defensive formation, is that not speaking rudely?” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said as she pointed at Chu Feng.

“The spirit formation that you’ve set up is unable to undo that grand formation to begin with. I have merely spoken the truth, how could that be considered speaking rudely?” Chu Feng said with a cold voice.

“You!!!” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother grew even more furious.

Suddenly, an expert from the Immortal Sword School spoke. “World Spiritist Saintess, you should stop before you go too far. What little friend Chu Feng said earlier does not possess any disrespect toward you at all.”

“That’s right. Since you are able to declare that the spirit formation that others set up is useless, little friend Chu Feng is naturally also able to call your spirit formation’s efficiency into question. Since when did something like that become disrespect towards one’s senior? If that is disrespect, wouldn’t that mean that juniors would not be allowed to say the truth before their seniors, and would only flatter them?”

“Furthermore, even if little friend Chu Feng really did speak rudely, you shouldn’t attack him that ruthlessly. You simply wanted to kill little friend Chu Feng.”

“World Spiritist Saintess, are your actions against little friend Chu Feng not excessive? Even if you detest him, you shouldn’t reveal it so obviously, no?”

A scene that the World Spiritist Saintess did not expect actually occurred. Many of the people present began to speak on behalf of Chu Feng and mock her.

There was naturally a reason why the crowd would react like that.

Firstly, Chu Feng was no ordinary member of the younger generation. The crowd present all wanted to become acquaintances with Chu Feng. By speaking on his behalf, they would be able to become closer to Chu Feng.

Furthermore, the attitude the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother had displayed earlier was truly too arrogant and aggressive. Her attitude had caused many people to feel dissatisfied. As such, they were seizing the opportunity to lower her grandeur.

“What? I attacked him maliciously? I detest him? You all are simply babbling nonsense,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother said in a very displeased manner.

“Little friend Chu Feng defeated your four sons on Mount Cloud Crane. That is something that everyone in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm knows about.”

“You, on the other hand, are famous for pampering your sons. Thus, everyone already knows that, in the future, you would most likely attack little friend Chu Feng for your sons.”

“As for what you did earlier, it clearly indicated that what we guessed was correct.”

“World Spiritist Saintess, I must say, you are truly disappointing,” That peak Martial Ancestor from the Immortal Sword School said while shaking his head.

At the same time, many people began to sigh mockingly.

“You all!!!” Being jointly attacked by the crowd, the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother was so furious that her complexion turned pale, causing her ugly old face to begin to twitch nonstop.

Filled with endless anger, she naturally did not plan to drop the subject just like that. Thus, she looked to Chu Feng again, pointed at him and said, “Chu Feng, you said that my spirit formation will be unable to undo that grand defensive formation. If I am able to undo it, I want you to kneel before me and publicly apologize to me.”

“What will you do if you fail to undo the grand defensive formation?” Chu Feng replied calmly.

“If I fail to undo the grand defensive formation, I will publicly apologize to you,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said.

“W-wait a moment,” Right at that moment, Wang Qiang spoke, “Since y-you s-said that Chu Feng needed to kneel w-while apologizing if he l-loses the bet, s-shouldn’t you also apologize w-while kneeling too i-if you lose the bet?”

“That’s right. Since you want to bet, it should naturally be an equal bet,” Zhao Hong added.

“Very well. If I lose, I will kneel and apologize to you. Chu Feng, do you dare accept?” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said to Chu Feng.

“If you dare, then I will naturally dare,” Chu Feng said calmly.

“Brat who doesn’t know about the immensity of the heaven and earth, prepare yourself to apologize to this Saintess,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was filled with confidence. She turned around and continued to operate her spirit formation. She planned to prove herself to the crowd.

As for Chu Feng, his expression remained unchanged. There was not the slightest trace of worry.

Since Chu Feng dared to say something like that, it would naturally mean that he possessed absolute confidence.

The crowd took note of Chu Feng’s fearless behavior. At that moment, they felt even more certain that Chu Feng was an extraordinary individual.

After all, his courage and insight were things that ordinary people from the younger generation did not possess.

“Little friend Chu Feng, I am called Duan Chunchang. I am an elder of the Immortal Sword School,” That peak Martial Ancestor from the Immortal Sword School who had questioned the World Spiritist Saintess many times flew over to Chu Feng and initiated a greeting.

Immediately afterward, the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple, Zhou Heavenly Clan, Kong Heavenly Clan and even that Grandmaster Prophet also moved to greet Chu Feng.

Although they were merely greeting him, it was an extraordinary thing capable of shaking the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for a person of the younger generation like Chu Feng to be able to cause so many grand characters to come and greet him of their own accord.

As for Chu Feng, he politely greeted them back.

After all, these people here were all renowned and powerful individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Regardless of what sort of intention they had in coming to greet him, Chu Feng must still display the sort of politeness and respect that a member of the younger generation should have.

After courteously greeting one another, Grandmaster Prophet asked curiously, “Little friends, how did the three of you manage to reach this place?”

Following that question, the crowd all turned their curious gazes over. They all wanted to know how Chu Feng and his friends, three people from the younger generation, were able to pass through those traps and mechanisms that should be impossible for them to pass through.

Chapter 2343 – Stormwind Edge

---

Before Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong could answer Grandmaster Prophet's question, the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother declared with a strange tone, "Is there even a need to ask? It's naturally because someone was secretly protecting them. Else, how could the three of them, with their strength, possibly reach this place?"

"You don't have to hide yourself anymore. Since you've come, you must have come for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures. Why not show yourself?"

"I'm afraid that we'll have to disappoint you. The three of us do not possess the protection of any senior," Chu Feng said.

"Haha. What a joke!" The Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother laughed out loud.

"Why do you find it funny?" Chu Feng asked.

"Why? Are you saying that I cannot laugh at your boasting?" The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors declared.

"Heh..." At that moment, Chu Feng also laughed.

"What are you laughing about?" The Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother asked with a stern voice.

"I am laughing at you. It is best that you don't mock me this quickly. You should instead focus on your spirit formation, since it will soon be destroyed," Chu Feng said.

"What did you say? You're saying that my spirit formation will be destroyed? Nonsense!"

"Although my spirit formation is an unsealing formation, it remains something created by Grandmaster Kai Hong. Its defense is equally invulnerable!" The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors said confidently.

“Boom~~~”

However, right at that moment, a ray of light shot out from the grand defensive formation. That ray of light flickered with golden brightness. Like an unstoppable sharp sword capable of sweeping everything before it, it shattered the unsealing formation the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother had set up.

“How could this be?!”

Seeing that scene, the crowd present were all astonished.

Although that grand defensive formation was very powerful, it should only possess defensive functions. However, just then, that grand defensive formation had let out a ray of light by itself and shattered the unsealing formation set up by the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors. This meant that the grand defensive formation also possessed an extremely powerful offensive nature.

This being said, what the crowd was the most confused by was why that grand defensive formation would attack and destroy the unsealing formation set up by the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother, as well as how Chu Feng managed to determine that it would do so.

Confused, someone turned to ask Chu Feng, “Little friend Chu Feng, could it be that you’d managed to discover that that grand defensive formation would attack and destroy the unsealing formation set up by World Spiritist Saintess?”

“Seniors, truth be told, this junior has trained in a special sort of observation technique. Although that defensive formation is powerful, its various mysteries have all been seen through by this junior’s eyes.”

“Thus, not only am I able to determine what that grand defensive formation will do, I am also able to undo that grand defensive formation and open the coffin,” Chu Feng said confidently.

“Little friend Chu Feng, is what you said the truth?” Once Chu

Feng said those words, the crowd's eyes immediately started to shine. It was as if they had seen hope in desperation.

“Yes,” Chu Feng had a confident smile on his face the entire time.

Chu Feng did not lie, nor was he boasting.

The reason why he was so certain that the spirit formation the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors set up was not going to work was precisely because he had managed to see through that grand defensive formation.

Since Chu Feng had already managed to see through the grand defensive formation, he would naturally also know about how to undo that grand defensive formation.

However, there was one thing that Chu Feng remained extremely puzzled by.

That was that he had not utilized his Heaven's Eyes to see through the grand defensive formation. Rather, he had managed to see through it with his naked eye.

However, neither Zhao Hong nor Wang Qiang were able to see what Chu Feng saw.

In other words, although they were all observing the grand defensive formation normally, ordinary people would find it to be invulnerable, whereas Chu Feng would find it to be full of mistakes.

It was as if that grand defensive formation was deliberately showing its weaknesses to only Chu Feng.

“What crazy and unfounded ravings! Brat, you are but a mere Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, merely someone who has just stepped foot past the entrance of Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. Yet, you dare to boast so shamelessly?” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked.

“World Spiritist Saintess, all the things that little friend Chu Feng has said since his arrival have come true.”

“He was correct when he said that you would not be able to undo that grand defensive formation.”

“He was also correct when he said that the unsealing formation you’d set up would be destroyed.”

“This means that little friend Chu Feng possesses true abilities, that he is unlike you, who only knows how to boast,” That Elder Duan Chunchang mocked the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

“That’s right. That’s right.”

.....

Many of the people present seized the opportunity to make cutting remarks at the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother.

“You all! Good! Very good!”

“You all have actually fallen so much from grace that you’ve decided to hand the great responsibility of undoing the grand defensive formation to a brat.”

“Very well, this Saintess will satisfy you all. I will let you all find out how ignorant and foolish your decision is,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was so furious that her voice started to tremble. Her tone was filled with complaint.

“I will naturally undo this grand defensive formation. However, World Spiritist Saintess, please honor your previous promise first,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Right, r-right, right. Y-y-you are, n-no matter what, a senior. Y-you cannot go back o-on your word,” Wang Qiang laughed.

Others like Duan Chunchang also joined Wang Qiang and began to urge the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors to apologize to Chu Feng.

In this sort of situation, even though the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was very unwilling, she had no other choice but to do so. After all, there were so many people present who had borne witness to her bet. Even if she wanted to refuse to acknowledge it after the fact, she could not do so.

At that moment, she was filled with regret. She regretted being overly confident. She had not expected that she would actually lose to Chu Feng.

However, although she was very unwilling, she still had to apologize to him.

Thus, with an ugly expression on her face, she looked to Chu Feng and said, "Little friend Chu Feng, I lost my demeanor and attacked you rashly earlier. I hope that you will..."

"H-how could t-this possibly do. W-wasn't it a-agreed upon th-that you'd apologize while kneeling?" However, before the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors could finish, Wang Qiang sighed and interrupted her.

"What did you say? You dare demand that I kneel?!" Hearing those words, the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was extremely furious. Her anger was like that of an erupting volcano. Everyone present was able to sense her anger.

It was only because there were many experts present. Else, the crowd believed that the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors would definitely kill Wang Qiang on the spot.

That said, Wang Qiang was not a person who feared getting into trouble. Thus, he remained completely unmoved by the threats from the Four World Spiritist Emperor's mother. Instead, with a very unreconciled manner, he said, "Pah! It w-was you w-who said you would earlier. A-are you p-planning to consider y-your words as farts a-and forget about t-them j-j-just like that?"

"Did I really say such a thing?" The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors looked to the crowd. She acted as if she had truly forgotten about it.

“Indeed, such a thing did happen,” The crowd nodded their heads.

At this moment, the expression of the Four World Spiritist Emperor’s mother turned purple and then blue. It was as marvelous as could be.

While she was able to apologize, to have her kneel towards a person of the younger generation, and Chu Feng on top of that, before all these people was something that she found truly impossible to do.

“World Spiritist Saintess, it was you who said that. Thus, you should be keep your promise and act accordingly.”

“However, taking your status into considering, it is indeed somewhat inappropriate for you to kneel to Chu Feng.”

Suddenly, Grandmaster Prophet suggested, “How about this, would you be willing to give Chu Feng some compensation to make up for this matter?”

“Compensation? What sort of compensation?” Zhao Hong asked in a somewhat displeased manner. She possessed a very frank temperament. Even though the person who had spoken was Grandmaster Prophet, who possessed a very high status, she would still give him no face if she felt that he was discriminating in favor of the World Spiritist Saintess.

“Little friend, as you are little friend Chu Feng’s friend, what sort of compensation do you think would be suitable?” Grandmaster Prophet asked with a smile.

“An Ancestral Armament. Else, we can forget about it,” Zhao Hong said.

“Impudent!” Hearing those words, the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors was once again overflowing with fury.

“You can either kneel or hand over an Ancestral Armament. You decide what you want to do,” Zhao Hong’s attitude was very ill-intended.

“World Spiritist Saintess, I’ve heard that you just managed to purchase an Ancestral Armament not too long ago. Wasn’t it the Stormwind Edge?” Elder Duan Chunchang of the Immortal Sword School said.

“Stormwind Edge? Could it be that Ancestral Armament that is rumored to be from the Ancient Era?” At that moment, many of the people present all revealed surprised gazes.

Although Ancestral Armaments were rare in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, there were still quite a few of them. However, not many among them were famous. As for that Stormwind Edge, it was a very famous Ancestral Armament.

“That’s right. I’ve heard that World Spiritist Saintess paid an enormous amount to obtain that Stormwind Edge. After all, the Stormwind Edge could be considered a legendary Ancestral Armament,” Elder Duan Chunchang said with a smile.

After this, the crowd began to discuss the Stormwind Edge more intensely.

At that moment, the expression of the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother grew even uglier. The reason for that was because she knew very well how precious the Stormwind Edge was. She absolutely wouldn’t hand it over to Chu Feng.

Thus, after a hard mental conflict, the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother finally came to a decision. She said loudly, “Very well. Chu Feng, as compensation, I am able to hand you an Ancestral Armament. However, the Stormwind Edge is out of the question.”

Hearing those words, the crowd present were all startled.

Agreed? She actually agreed?

Ancestral Armament, one must know that it was an Ancestral Armament. Although the World Spiritist Saintess was unwilling to hand the Stormwind Edge to Chu Feng, ordinary Ancestral Armaments were all considerably valuable items.

A mere bet spoken orally actually allowed Chu Feng to win an Ancestral Armament. This truly caused the crowd to feel endless envy.

However, at the moment when the crowd all felt that the matter would be settled with the World Spiritist Saintess giving Chu Feng an Ancestral Armament, Chu Feng smiled lightly and said, “I only want the Stormwind Edge.”

Chapter 2344 – Another Gamble

---

“I only want that Stormwind Edge,” Chu Feng said calmly.

“You really dare to ask for that? Don’t even think about it!” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother snarled angrily.

“In that case, you can choose to comply with your promise and kneel to me,” Chu Feng said.

“You... you are simply trying to profit off another’s misfortune!” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother was so enraged the corners of her mouth started to twitch.

“That’s right, I am trying to profit off another’s misfortune,” Chu Feng said resolutely. He did not feel ashamed in the slightest.

“You!!!” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors started to shake with fury. However, she was at a loss as for what to do.

“World Spiritist Saintess, you shouldn’t get angry. After all, little friend Chu Feng is not forcing you to do anything. It is up to you to decide what you choose to do,” Elder Duan Chunchang said with a mischievous smile on his face. He had the fearless appearance of someone enjoying a show.

“Chu Feng, an Ancestral Armament is not a small price. I am already being extremely charitable to be willing to give you an Ancestral Armament. I’d suggest you to not refuse the face that is given to you.”

“If you continue to insist on acting this shamelessly, I will definitely not leave this matter as-is,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors threatened Chu Feng fiercely as she gnashed her teeth angrily.

However, the smile Chu Feng had remained unchanged. He did not say anything, and just continued to look at her. He was waiting for her answer.

“Enough of that. Don’t bother with trying to threaten little friend Chu Feng. With your character, even if you didn’t threaten him, we know that you would also not let little friend Chu Feng off. However, right now, you must still fulfill your promise. You should decide on what you plan to do,” Elder Duan Chunchang said in a slightly impatient manner.

“Don’t waste everyone’s time. Make your decision promptly,” Grandmaster Prophet also urged impatiently.

At the same time, the others present also began to urge the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

Not a single person declared that Chu Feng was in the wrong. Rather, they were all declaring that the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother was in the wrong.

In such situation, an invisible pressure enveloped the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother. Even though she possessed an extremely thick skin and strong endurance, she was still unable to withstand the pressure.

“Very well. Chu Feng, you win,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother came to a final decision. Although it was very painful for her to hand over her Stormwind Edge, she was unable to publicly kneel to Chu Feng.

Thus, she placed her hand into her clothes.

“W-what are y-you doing? C-could it that y-you’re trying to flash my brother? S-stop immediately! D-don’t b-blind my eyes!” Seeing this scene, Wang Qiang hurriedly covered his eyes and shouted with a frightened expression.

Wang Qiang’s words caused the crowd to laugh out loud.

As for the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother, her eyes were blazing with fury. However, she did not stop her movement. When she took her hand from her clothes, a pearl-sized substance appeared in her hand.

“That is a Cosmos Concealment Pearl. Could it be that she hid the Stormwind Edge in that pearl?” Upon seeing that pearl, the crowd’s eyes all shone.

Chu Feng had also heard of Cosmos Concealment Pearls before. They possessed the same function as Cosmos Sacks. However, the pearls were much smaller than Cosmos Sacks.

Furthermore, more importantly, Cosmos Concealment Pearls could be hidden within one’s body. Furthermore, they would not bring any pain to their user and would fuse with one’s body and become concealed once that entered the body. At that time, not even world spiritists would be able to detect them.

Thus, Cosmos Concealment Pearls were treasured objects used to store and conceal one’s most valuable treasures.

Not mentioning what the Cosmos Concealment Pearls might be storing and hiding, merely the Cosmos Concealment Pearls themselves were extremely precious treasures.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, a ray of light flashed out from that Cosmos Concealment Pearl. When the light bloomed, a sharp blade appeared in the hands of the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother.

It was an Ancestral Armament. Furthermore, it emitted a very powerful might the moment it appeared. Like the aura that a human ruler would emit, that Ancestral Armament also emitted a ruler-like aura that ordinary Ancestral Armaments could not be compared with.

When that Ancestral Armament appeared, not to mention Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, even the gazes of the people of the older generation present started to shine.

That Ancestral Armament had a crystalline appearance and was visibly transparent. It was seven and a half feet long. It appeared to be a blade, yet not a blade; a sword, yet not a sword. Faintly flickering golden veined patterns were present on the weapon. Those faintly flickering golden veined patterns gave rise to wind visible to the naked eye. Like whirlwinds, those winds surrounded the Ancestral Armament.

It was as if this Ancestral Armament were not a weapon, but rather a God of Wind that was capable of summoning powerful winds to do its bidding.

Most importantly, the aura emitted by this Ancestral Armament was stronger than that of ordinary Ancestral Armaments.

“Stormwind Edge. Its fame is truly well deserved. It is truly a top quality weapon among Ancestral Armaments,” At that moment, many of the bystanders began to praise the Stormwind Edge.

Hearing the praise from the crowd, the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors felt even more pained. Only she knew how many treasures she had used to purchase the Stormwind Edge. It could be said that she had exhausted half of all the treasures she had gathered in her lifetime in order to purchase this one Stormwind Edge.

However, for her own dignity, she had still chosen to hand the Stormwind Edge to Chu Feng.

“Have it,” The Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother raised her hand and tossed the Stormwind Edge to Chu Feng.

Although she was extremely furious and itching to kill Chu Feng, she knew that she would not be able to kill him before all these experts. Thus, for the sake of her dignity, she had no choice but to toss her Stormwind Edge to Chu Feng.

“This is indeed a good weapon,” Chu Feng examined the Stormwind Edge in his hand and revealed a delighted expression. Then, he carefully put it away. After that, he turned to the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother and said, “Saintess is truly generous. My thanks.”

“You!!!” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the expression of the Four World Spiritist Emperors’ mother changed once again. The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s thanks was spoken as a very cutting remark; it was extremely anger-inducing.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you said that you were able to undo this grand formation. Might you be willing to attempt to do so?” Grandmaster Prophet said.

“I have come precisely for the sake of these remnants. Thus, I will naturally give it a try. Merely, this Chu Feng’s world spirit power is limited. I fear that I will have to borrow the strength of the seniors present to help me set up my spirit formation up,” Chu Feng said to the Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists present.

“Humph, and here I thought that you possessed heaven-defying abilities. Turns out that you still plan to rely on us,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors snorted coldly.

“I am afraid that you will deliberately ruin my spirit formation. Thus, there is no need for your assistance,” Chu Feng said with a slight smile. Then, he looked to the other Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, “Seniors, might you all be willing to assist me?”

“Little friend, you are being too courteous. Go ahead and tell us how you want us to help you,” The Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists said to Chu Feng courteously. They clearly revealed their intentions to help Chu Feng.

“You all actually really trust this brat? Utter foolery,” The mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors mocked.

“It would appear that you do not believe in me. Since that’s the case, how about the two of us have another gamble?”

“If I am able to undo that grand formation using my spirit formation, you'll give me another Ancestral Armament. What do you think about that?" Chu Feng said to the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother.

"You!!!" Hearing those words, fury filled the heart of the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother. She nearly vomited blood in her anger.

Chapter 2345 – An Impossible Thing

---

“Haha...”

Seeing the green complexioned World Spiritist Saintess baring a furious expression and itching to kill him, Chu Feng smiled complacently. Then, before the crowd, he outlined the diagram of a grand spirit formation.

Once Chu Feng finished outlining the diagram, the expressions of the world spiritists present all changed. They all revealed a disappointed expression.

“Hahaha...”

“And here I was wondering how amazing the spirit formation might be. It turns out to only be such a rudimentary spirit formation,” The World Spiritist Saintess laughed with contempt. It was as if all of the repressed emotions in her heart were finally being released. Showing no quarter, she began to mock Chu Feng.

“Little friend Chu Feng, are you certain that you want us to set up that spirit formation?” At the same time, the other Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists also began to doubt Chu Feng.

“Seniors, this spirit formation needs all of you to set up. You all merely need to set it up according to this diagram I’ve drawn,” Chu Feng did not explain in great detail. However, he had a confident expression the entire time.

“Everyone, a spirit formation like that is simply child’s play. How could it possibly undo Grandmaster Kai Hong’s grand defensive formation?”

“Furthermore, although the spirit formation Chu Feng proposed possesses very weak power, it requires an enormous amount of spirit power. If you all are to assist him in setting up that spirit formation, you will definitely exhaust an enormous amount of spirit power.”

“Could it be that you all are truly willing to exhaust your spirit power for a completely useless spirit formation?” The World Spiritist Saintess began to sow dissension.

“This...” At that moment, the Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists started to hesitate.

“If this spirit formation of mine is unable to undo the grand defensive formation, I, Chu Feng, am willing to have you all handle my life as you wish,” Chu Feng said.

Chu Feng’s words shocked the crowd.

Confident, he was truly confident. He was so confident that he was willing to put his life at stake.

“Ridiculous! Did you think your life to be very valuable? You are but a mere Half Martial Ancestor. There are people at your level of cultivation all over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Not to mention a single life, even a hundred of your lives would not suffice for these grand world spiritists to exhaust their spirit power,” The World Spiritist Saintess said.

“Regardless of whether or not my life is valuable, I dare to gamble with it. What about you, do you dare to gamble with your life?” Chu Feng asked the World Spiritist Saintess.

“What?” The World Spiritist Saintess was somewhat at a loss.

“I’m saying that I’ll gamble with you. If my spirit formation is unable to open that grand defensive formation, my life shall be yours.”

“However, if my spirit formation is able to undo the grand defensive formation, your life shall be mine.”

“Do you dare to accept my gamble?” Chu Feng asked.

“Ridiculous! Why must I gamble with you?” The World Spiritist Saintess sneered.

“Weren’t you firmly certain that I would be unable to undo that grand defensive formation? If you're so certain, then why do you not dare to gamble with me?" Chu Feng continued.

"What utter nonsense!" The World Spiritist Saintess had a difficult expression. The reason for that was because she truly did not dare to gamble with Chu Feng.

"If you're scared, then you're scared. Stop trying to find an excuse," Zhao Hong remarked.

"T-that's right. S-since you are n-not certain that m-my brother is u-unable to undo the s-spirit formation, it m-means that you a-are trying to m-mislead the public w-with lies. You a-are truly despicable," Wang Qiang insulted.

"Seniors, I, Chu Feng, am actually able to undo the spirit formation myself. If you all do not believe me, and fear that you will end up wasting your spirit power, allow me to do it myself then," After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he began to set up his spirit formation.

"This..." At that moment, those world spiritists were at a loss for what to say.

Like the World Spiritist Saintess, they did not believe the spirit formation Chu Feng had told them to set up would be able to undo the grand defensive formation.

After all, the spirit formations they had used earlier, including the one that the World Spiritist Saintess had set up, were several hundred times more brilliant than the spirit formation Chu Feng had proposed.

When even they failed, how could Chu Feng's spirit formation possibly be able to succeed?

As for the other reason why they did not want to help, it was something that the World Spiritist Saintess had mentioned.

That was, although the spirit formation Chu Feng proposed was very weak, it would consume an enormous amount of spirit power.

Before undoing the grand defensive formation, before obtaining Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance and treasures, no one was willing to exhaust their strength for no reason, much less on a spirit formation that they felt to be destined to fail.

"Chu Feng, I'll help you," Zhao Hong walked over and began to help Chu Feng set up his spirit formation.

"M-me too," Wang Qiang also walked over to assist Chu Feng.

"Those two brats are actually also Immortal-cloak World Spiritists?!"

When Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong unleashed their spirit power, the crowd present were all extremely surprised.

They already knew that Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. However, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were people that they'd never heard of before.

That said, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were extremely rare. Countless world spiritists trained their entire lives, but never managed to become Immortal-cloak World Spiritists.

Generally, all those that were capable of becoming Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were individuals that had obtained great attainments in world spirit techniques. As such, how could they possibly be people of the younger generation?

Chu Feng, a member of the younger generation, becoming an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist was already something that had shaken the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Yet now, Chu Feng's two friends were actually also Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. How could the crowd not be astonished?

At that moment, not to mention the others, even the World Spiritist Saintess, who greatly detested Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, had a change in expression, revealing a serious gaze.

As matters stood, she had no choice but to take Chu Feng, Wang

Qiang and Zhao Hong seriously.

If a single genius was not something worthy of making her afraid, then three geniuses would be something that she would have to take very seriously.

“It’s useless. Although that spirit formation of yours is extremely weak, it consumes an enormous amount of spirit power. With the cultivation the three of you possess, you simply do not possess sufficient spirit power to finish setting up that spirit formation,” The World Spiritist Saintess declared.

Hearing those words, the crowd began to nod. It was true that the spirit formation consumed an enormous amount of spirit power. Even for the Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists present, they would have to exhaust a great amount of spirit power too. As such, there was no need to mention how Chu Feng and his two friends, three mere brats, would not be able to successfully set up the spirit formation.

“There’s no need for you all to worry,” Zhao Hong said.

“T-that’s right. W-whether or not w-we succeed d-does not concern you all,” Wang Qiang said mockingly.

“Truly a bunch that doesn’t appreciate other’s kind intentions,” At that moment, many people revealed discontent. No matter what, both Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were people of the younger generation. As such, they would naturally be unhappy for the two of them to speak to them in such a manner.

As for Chu Feng, he did not even utter a word. Instead, he was completely focused on setting up that spirit formation.

After an hour passed, all those people that were feeling pessimistic of the outcome had a change in expression.

Logically, to set up that spirit formation, after an hour passed, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong should have exhausted nearly all of their spirit power.

However, at that moment, it would appear that Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang still had an abundant amount of spirit power.

The most important aspect was that it was not only Chu Feng himself, as both Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang also still had an abundant amount of spirit power.

“Genius world spiritists. They are truly genius world spiritists,” Many of the Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists present began to utter praise.

While they were also Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, and possessed cultivations much superior to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, they knew very well that the amount of spirit power that they had was greatly inferior to the amount the Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, that spirit formation Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were setting up suddenly blossomed with light.

“Success, they actually succeeded,” When Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong successfully set up that spirit formation, the crowd all revealed expressions of disbelief.

The reason for that was because what Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had accomplished was something they had deemed to be impossible.

“Don’t say that I am pouring cold water on you all. Even though you all have set up that spirit formation using all of your strength, it is still useless. After all, that spirit formation will not be able to undo that grand spirit formation,” The World Spiritist Saintess said.

“A pity,” At the same time, other people also began to sigh. Although Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong possessed spirit power much more abundant than ordinary people, the crowd still did not think highly of the spirit formation they'd managed to set up.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at this moment, with Chu Feng controlling the spirit formation, the spirit formation was activated.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

After that spirit formation was activated, many rays of light shot out of it

At that moment, the crowd felt even more certain that the spirit formation would be useless.

The reason for that was because those lights were simply too weak. It would be impossible for them to breach the grand defensive formation. They felt that it was simply akin to striking a stone with an egg.

“This... how could this be?”

However, the very next moment, those world spiritists that felt Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's efforts to be useless were all tongue-tied with wide open mouths. They were completely stunned.

The reason for that was because the lights shot out by that spirit formation actually managed to easily penetrate the grand defensive formation.

Chapter 2346 – Dismember Into Ten Thousand Pieces

---

Before the gazes of the crowd, Chu Feng's spirit formation began to fuse with that grand defensive formation.

Although the fusion appeared to be very mild and gentle, it was actually a grand battle of spirit formations.

“Crack~~~”

“Snap~~~”

After being frantically attacked by the spirit formation that Chu Feng had set up, the grand defensive formation that was originally impregnable began to let out cracking sounds.

“Rumble~~~”

Soon afterward, a loud explosion rumbled, and that grand defensive formation collapsed.

Success. The spirit formation that Chu Feng had set up managed to successfully undo Grandmaster Kai Hong's grand defensive formation.

“He actually succeeded?”

“That lousy spirit formation actually managed to shatter such a powerful grand defensive formation?”

Seeing that scene with their very own eyes, many of the world spiritists present revealed expressions of disbelief. The reason for that was because what had happened was truly unimaginable, simply unreasonable.

“Although I do not know world spirit techniques, I presume that this might be what they mean by prescribing the right medicine for the illness. Although the defensive formation Grandmaster Kai Hong left was very powerful, little friend Chu Feng evidently saw through its weakness. That is why he managed to destroy it with a single try,” Grandmaster Prophet said.

Hearing what Grandmaster Prophet said, admiration appeared in the gazes with which the crowd looked at Chu Feng. However, their astonishment did not lessen.

After all, that grand defensive formation was something that even the Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists present were unable to break.

Yet now, it had been destroyed by Chu Feng.

In fact, it was not only them who were astonished. Even Chu Feng felt quite astonished. If it wasn't for the fact that he had managed to see through that grand defensive formation immediately after arriving here, he would not have thought that such a powerful spirit formation would be undone by such a simple formation.

Of course, although the spirit formation was simple, it had required an enormous amount of spirit power.

Fortunately Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong all possessed much more spirit power than ordinary individuals. Else, it would truly be difficult for them undo that grand defensive formation even if they were to join hands.

Thinking about it, Chu Feng took a glance at Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. He truly never expected that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong would have as enormous an amount of spirit power as himself.

“It would seem this stutterer and this demonic woman truly cannot be looked down upon,” Even Her Lady Queen was unable to contain herself, and started to praise them.

“Creak, creak, creak~~~”

Right at that moment, noises began to sound from the coffin.

At that moment, the expressions of the crowd all grew serious. They all turned their gazes to the coffin.

The reason for that was because the coffin was currently opening by itself.

Under the gazes of the crowd, the coffin finally opened completely. Then, a figure appeared before the crowd's line of sight.

"How could this be?"

After seeing the figure from the coffin, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong and everyone else revealed stunned expressions.

This was especially true for Chu Feng. At that moment, his heart was wavering.

The reason for that was because the figure that had appeared before them was a child. Furthermore, that child was none other than Xiaoshi.

It was the boy who had told Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong about how to obtain the cloaks.

"It's actually him?"

Right at that moment, someone from among the crowd blurted out in astonishment. Judging from the expressions of the crowd, they evidently also knew of Xiaoshi.

"Xiaoshi, you are the Gate Opening Key?" Chu Feng asked. He knew that it was not a coincidence for Xiaoshi to appear here.

Adding on to the assistance Xiaoshi had provided Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong with, as well as the secrets that he knew, it was very obvious that Xiaoshi possessed an inseparable relationship with the remnants. The best explanation would be that Xiaoshi was that so-called Gate Opening Key.

"That's right. I am the Gate Opening Key that Grandmaster Kai Hong left here. Only I am able to open the entrance gate behind me,” Xiaoshi said with a beaming smile.

“Little friend Chu Feng, you actually know that child’s name?” Someone asked curiously upon hearing Chu Feng mentioning Xiaoshi’s name.

“Actually, all of you had the opportunity to know my name. My clones were present at the various entrances of the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.”

“However, none of you all believed in me. In fact, none of you all were willing to help me. That is why you all missed the opportunity.”

“As for the three of them, they chose to help me. As such... only the three of them were able to undo this grand defensive formation,” Xiaoshi said to the crowd.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng and the others all came to a sudden realization. Chu Feng finally realized why he was able to see through the grand defensive formation. Evidently... it was all caused by Xiaoshi.

Merely, compared to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, the rest of the people present had embarrassed expressions on their faces.

That was because it was as Xiaoshi had said, they had indeed all met Xiaoshi before. Merely, none of them had bothered to concern themselves with a child like him.

Suddenly, Xiaoshi said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, go ahead and do it.”

“Go ahead and do it? Do what?” Chu Feng asked.

“Kill me. Only by ending my life will I be able to transform into the key to open the entrance. Else, you will not be able to enter it,” Xiaoshi said.

“No, how could I kill you for the sake of a treasure?” Chu Feng shook his head.

Although they had merely encountered one another once, although Chu Feng knew that the purpose of Xiaoshi's existence was to open that gate, Xiaoshi was a friend in Chu Feng's eyes. Chu Feng was unable to do something like killing his friend in exchange for treasures.

“Go ahead and kill me. The purpose of my existence has always been to open that gate. It is the responsibility that I hold. Today, I am finally able to fulfill my duty.”

“Furthermore, the things Grandmaster Kai Hong left behind are useful to you all,” Xiaoshi said.

“Is there no other alternative other than killing you?” Chu Feng asked.

“None,” Xiaoshi said.

“Then, I choose to give up,” Chu Feng said.

Hearing those words, Xiaoshi's expression changed. Overflowing emotions appeared in his clear eyes.

However, Xiaoshi was not swayed. He insisted on the decision that he had made. Thus, he said to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, “Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong, the two of you do it.”

Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang glanced at one another. However, neither of them responded to Xiaoshi. Evidently... the two of them also did not plan to kill Xiaoshi.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly arrived before Xiaoshi with lightning speed.

It was the World Spiritist Saintess. Not only did the World Spiritist Saintess arrive before Xiaoshi, her hand had also penetrated Xiaoshi.

“Stop!!!” Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all greatly alarmed by that scene.

However, everything was too late. By the time Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong managed to react, Xiaoshi's body had been destroyed. He had died by the World Spiritist Saintess's hand.

The very next moment, a two meter long sword-like key appeared in the World Spiritist Saintess's hand.

Evidently, that was the Gate Opening Key that Xiaoshi had turned into.

“You damned bastard! I'll kill you!”

Seeing Xiaoshi being killed by the World Spiritist Saintess, violent rage emerged in Chu Feng's eyes instantly causing boundless killing intent to immediately envelop the area.

“What a joke. You want to kill me? You think that someone like you is capable of doing that?” The World Spiritist Saintess smiled with contempt. No matter what, she was a rank seven Martial Ancestor. Thus, she did not place Chu Feng in her eyes at all.

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng's arms flashed with light. After the two rays of light were shot forth, they turned into two crystal giants that stood before Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

“Woosh~~~”

Immediately afterward, two more rays of light flew out and turned into two more crystal giants.

It was Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. The two of them had also unleashed their crystal giants.

“Those are?”

“Could it be that Chu Feng and his friends were able to reach this place by relying on those?”

Upon seeing the four crystal giants, the expressions of the crowd all changed. After all, the aura emitted by the crystal giants were those of peak Martial Ancestors.

“You all, you all actually possess those things?!!!”

At that moment, the World Spiritist Saintess’s expression turned pale. Panic filled her face. The reason for that was because she had truly never expected for Chu Feng and the others to possess that sort of thing.

Most importantly, those four crystal giants all possessed the ability to easily kill her.

“Dismember her into ten thousand pieces!” Chu Feng said with rage fuming between gritted teeth.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

The next moment, the four crystal giants flew toward the World Spiritist Saintess with overwhelming destructive power akin to four death gods.

Chapter 2347 – Must Take Revenge

---

“Buzz~~~”

Right at the moment when the crystal giant was about to approach the World Spiritist Saintess, the key that Xiaoshi had turned into emitted a layer of light that covered the World Spiritist Saintess.

“Boom~~~”

Following closely after that, the four crystal giant’s powerful fists ferociously smashed onto that layer of light.

“Boom~~~”

In an instant, surging energy ripples began to scatter in all directions. The might of the attack was so powerful that it seemed to be capable of devouring everything.

The energy ripples were so powerful that they were capable of instantly killing Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Fortunately, there were many powerful experts present. Before the energy ripples could approach, they were blocked by peak Martial Ancestor-level experts.

However, to the crowd’s surprise, even after a series of attacks from the Martial Ancestor-level crystal giants, that layer of light remained completely undamaged.

Not only did that layer of light protect the World Spiritist Saintess, it had also managed to block the attacks from peak Martial Ancestors.

“Damn it!”

At that moment, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were tightly clenching their fists.

They were already able to tell that layer of light was no small matter. Unless there was a True Immortal-level expert present, it was likely no one would be able to breach it.

“Hahaha. Chu Feng, oh Chu Feng, regardless of how powerful your methods might be, you still can’t kill me.”

“Oh, that’s right. I nearly forgot, it seems that this Gate Opening Key possessed quite a relationship with you. For you to be unwilling to kill him, it would seem that he should be your friend, right?”

“Unfortunately for you, your friend is currently helping me. Hahahaha.”

“You grew furious because your friend was killed. However, that friend of yours instead decided to help me. I truly wonder, how are you feeling right now?” The World Spiritist Saintess laughed mockingly. Her appearance was truly one of someone lost in joy, someone utterly shameless.

“Chu Feng, catch,” Right at that moment, Zhao Hong tossed the sack she carried behind her back to Chu Feng.

Upon receiving that sack, the corner of Chu Feng’s mouth lifted into a strange curve. He said to the World Spiritist Saintess, “Did you really think that there’s nothing I can do about you?”

“You’re implying that you can do something?” The World Spiritist Saintess laughed with contempt. She did not believe that Chu Feng would be able to do anything to her.

“Get the hell out here!!!”

Chu Feng opened the sack and tossed it onto the ground. Immediately, four fat sphere-like giants rolled out from the sack.

Upon seeing those four, the expression on the World Spiritist Saintess’ face immediately changed. The pride that she had displayed earlier disappeared completely, and was instead replaced with astonishment.

The reason for that was because those four sphere-like things were her sons, the Four World Spiritist Emperors.

Upon seeing their mother, the Four World Spiritist Emperors reacted as if they had seen their savior. Immediately, they shouted, “Lady Mother, save us!”

“Lay on the ground!” Right at that moment, Chu Feng shouted. Then, the four crystal giants emitted overwhelming oppressive might, and forced the Four World Spiritist Emperors onto the ground like four dying dogs.

In response, the World Spiritist Saintess shouted, “Stop!”

“That is not up to you to decide,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, exactly what do you want?” The World Spiritist Saintess asked anxiously.

“Hand over the Gate Opening Key. Else, I will take the dog lives of your sons.”

“You dare?!!!” The World Spiritist Saintess said.

“Kill them,” Chu Feng declared.

Once those words were said, the four crystal giants immediately unleashed overwhelming killing intent.

“Stop!” The World Spiritist Saintess shouted. At the same time, she tossed out the Gate Opening Key that she held.

“Paa~~~”

Chu Feng extended his hand and grabbed the Gate Opening Key.

At that moment, the World Spiritist Saintess lost the layer of defensive power that had previously covered her.

However, compared to her own safety, the World Spiritist Saintess was more worried about the safety of her four sons. Her body shifted, and she arrived before the Four World Spiritist Emperors, shielding them behind her.

Seeing that scene, Chu Feng’s heart was moved.

Even though the World Spiritist Saintess was a shameless and despicable individual that would not shrink from any crime, what she displayed right now was the appearance of a mother who was willing to give up everything to protect her children.

Motherly love. Regardless of what sort of individual the World Spiritist Saintess might be, she revealed the greatness of a mother to her four sons.

At that moment, Chu Feng was touched. After all, what he wanted to feel the most in his entire life was motherly love.

At that moment, Chu Feng recalled the mother that he did not know of.

“Lady Mother, quickly, avenge us and kill those three animals!”

“Those crystal giants were supposed to be ours. It was them who snatched them from us,” Ignorant of the situation, the Four World Spiritist Emperors began to cry with weeping tears toward their mother, demanding that she avenge them.

“Shut up!” The World Spiritist Saintess shouted in a disappointed manner. However, she did not punish her sons too excessively. Instead, she said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, if you want to kill someone, then go ahead and kill me. This matter is unrelated to them. Please spare them.”

“As you wish,” said Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. As they spoke, they planned to order their crystal giants to attack.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly shouted, “Wait!”

“What’s wrong?” Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were confused.

“Let it pass. We can settle this debt in the future. Let’s spare their lives today,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn?” Chu Feng’s words shocked not only Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, but even the bystanders.

They were all able to tell that Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had thoroughly set up grudges with the World Spiritist Saintess.

If Chu Feng did not seize this opportunity to kill the World Spiritist Saintess, she would become a danger in the future.

The people present were all shrewd and ruthless individuals. If they were Chu Feng, they would definitely not leave the World Spiritist Saintess alive either. Thus, they were confused as to why Chu Feng, who was overwhelming with killing intent, would decide to not kill the World Spiritist Saintess now.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? You cannot become soft-hearted at a time like this,” Her Lady Queen’s voice sounded in Chu Feng’s ears.

“Chu Feng, give me a reason why I shouldn’t kill her,” Zhao Hong said.

“There are two reasons why I will spare her today.”

“Firstly, we only managed to make her hand over the Gate Opening Key and lose the ability to protect herself because she was eager to protect her sons.”

“Secondly, we only managed to obtain the crystal giants that are capable of killing her this quickly because we utilized the spirit formation that she set up.”

“I do not want to kill her today because I do not want to take advantage of her,” Chu Feng said.

“B-brother, s-since that’s the case, I’ll do as you say,” Wang Qiang said frankly. At that moment, Zhao Hong did not bother to say anymore.

However, the hearts of the people present were all moved. They finally realized that Chu Feng was sparing the World Spiritist Saintess not because he was being lenient. Rather, it was because he was someone who possessed a baseline and principles.

Thus, at that moment, the crowd came to understand Chu Feng's reason for releasing the tiger back into the mountain. At that moment, they felt more admiration toward Chu Feng. This admiration that they felt was unrelated to Chu Feng's talent. Rather, it was toward Chu Feng's courage.

After all, compared to killing an enemy, sparing one's enemy at the time when one could kill them was something even more courageous.

That was something that not even the grand characters present might be able to accomplish.

"Chu Feng, don't you think that I will be grateful toward you just because you've decided not to kill me."

"Those crystal giants are merely spirit formations. Sooner or later, they will disappear. While they are able to protect you for now, they are unable to protect you forever. The next time we meet, I will definitely not spare you," The World Spiritist Saintess threatened with a cold voice. She displayed the hatred that she felt toward Chu Feng without hiding anything.

As for Chu Feng, he started to smile lightly. He said to her, "Rest assured, just because I spared you today does not mean that I will spare you forever. I will definitely avenge Xiaoshi!!!"

Chapter 2348 – Finally Meeting The Grandmaster

---

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he held the Gate Opening Key and arrived at the gate.

Sigh~~~

However, right at the moment when Chu Feng was planning to open the gate, Chu Feng suddenly heard a voice transmission. That sigh was actually from the Gate Opening Key.

“Xiaoshi?” Chu Feng was startled. The reason for that was because that sigh was simply Xiaoshi’s voice.

“Originally, I had planned to personally kill that damned bitch while opening the gate. However, it would appear that I can only rely on you to avenge me in the future,” Sure enough, Xiaoshi’s voice sounded from the Gate Opening Key again.

“Xiaoshi, you’re alive?” Chu Feng asked through voice transmission.

“I am already dead. However, before opening the gate, I possess some more uses. However, that doesn’t matter anymore. Let me just open the gate for you. Remember, there is still a dangerous spirit formation behind the gate.”

“However, as long as the three of you wear those cloaks, you will be able to walk past the dangers. After passing through that spirit formation, you will reach Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants,” Xiaoshi’s voice sounded again.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the Gate Opening Key automatically left Chu Feng’s palm and landed on the gate.

As light shone from it, the two of them fused together.

Immediately after that, rumbles could be heard. The indestructible gate started to slowly open.

At that moment, the people present all revealed excited expressions.

The crowd had been in that place for a very long time. The reason why they were unable to proceed was all because of that gate.

And now, that gate was finally opening. Furthermore, the Gate Opening Key had personally declared that Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance was behind that gate.

Thus, the crowd were all extremely excited. One by one, they were all eagerly waiting for the gate to be opened so that they could rush into it and scramble for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures and inheritance.

“That... that is?!”

However, after that indestructible gate opened, the expressions of joy on the crowd's face instantly froze.

At that moment, their fiery expressions turned extremely cold.

The reason for that was because what was behind that gate was not Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures. Rather, it was a sea of flames, a sea of blue flames.

The blue flames were surging in waves like countless blue fire dragons galloping around.

Although the crowd did not feel a distinct sensation of heat from the blue flames, the crowd felt an aura of death.

This meant that those flames were extremely frightening, and that ordinary people were simply unable to pass through them.

“That sea of flames is truly too frightening. Not to mention us, wouldn't even a rank one True Immortal be turned into dust upon entering it?”

“How could this be? Wasn’t it decided that Grandmaster Kai Hong’s treasures and inheritance were behind the gate?” At that moment, the crowd felt extreme despair. The reason for that was because they were already certain that, with their strength, it would be impossible for them to pass through that sea of flames.

However, the sea of flames just so happened to seal off their path forward.

“Heh...” At that moment, a cold smile emerged on the World Spiritist Saintess’s face. It was a mocking smile.

The way she saw it, even though the entrance gate had opened, the only people who would be able to obtain the inheritance and gain the most benefits from this would be Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, who held the Gate Opening Key.

However, now that the gate had opened and the Gate Opening Key had disappeared, what appeared before them were not treasures, but rather a fierce blue sea of flames.

No one present was able to pass through that sea of flames. Thus, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were evidently also blocked by the flames.

This caused the World Spiritist Saintess, who had been thwarted repeatedly, to feel better.

“Y-you, w-what a-are you laughing about?” Wang Qiang said in a displeased manner.

“I’m laughing at you all. So what if you’ve obtained the Gate Opening Key and opened the gate? In the end, aren’t you all also blocked like us?” The World Spiritist Saintess declared what she thought in her heart without trying to conceal anything.

“I fear that we’ll have to disappoint you,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, you have a way?” Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang asked in unison.

“Use the cloaks,” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. As Chu Feng spoke, he took out a cloak and draped it over himself.

At that moment, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong understood Chu Feng’s intention. The two of them also took out a cloak and draped it over themselves.

As for those cloaks, they were naturally the cloaks that they’d obtained from Xiaoshi’s instructions. There was also no need to doubt the effects of the cloaks.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were able to reach this place this quickly all because of their cloaks. Wearing the cloaks, they were truly able to avoid all of the traps and mechanisms in the remnants.

“What are they doing?” Upon seeing Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong all wearing their cloaks, many people revealed confused expressions.

“Those cloaks!!!” However, at that moment, the expressions of the world spiritists present all changed. They were able to tell that the cloaks Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were wearing were no ordinary cloaks. Rather, they were treasures.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong suddenly disappeared.

“Where’d they go? How did they disappear?” Someone cried out in alarm.

“No, they didn’t disappear. Rather, those cloaks are capable of concealing them,” A Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist declared.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, ear-piercing snarls sounded from the edge of the sea of flames. At the same time, flames began to surge toward either direction, revealing a path in the sea of flames.

“They entered?” Seeing that scene, the crowd were all astonished.

“It seems that those cloaks are not only able to conceal them, they are also able to withstand that sea of flames,” That Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist added.

At that moment, the eyes of the crowd present were all brimming with admiration and jealousy.

They all wished to be able to pass through that sea of flames and reach Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants like Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Unfortunately for them, they did not possess a cloak. Thus, they did not dare to take half a step into the sea of flames.

“World Spiritist Saintess, you are fortunate to have not made a bet with little friend Chu Feng this time. Else, you’d have lost again,” The Immortal Sword School’s Elder Duan Chunchang said to the World Spiritist Saintess.

“Damn it!” The World Spiritist Saintess had an unreconciled expression. However, other than feeling unreconciled, there was nothing she could do.

“Grandmaster Prophet is truly amazing. Your prophecy actually managed to completely come true. Little friend Chu Feng is indeed the individual fated to this remnant,” Elder Duan Chunchang said.

At that time, the others also cast their gazes toward Grandmaster Prophet with admiration filled eyes.

As matters stood, Grandmaster Prophet’s prophecy had once again come true.

“Haha...” Grandmaster Prophet did not bother much with the admiring gazes from the crowd. He only chuckled. Merely, his chuckle was brimming with pride.

At the moment when the crowd was praising Grandmaster Prophet for how amazing he was, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had already managed to pass through the sea of flames. They had reached a vast space.

It was a grand hall constructed with blue crystals.

The construction style of that grand hall could truly be described with the term 'superlative craftsmanship.' Even though Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, it would still be impossible for them to construct such an exquisite and imposing palace.

However, compared to how imposing and grand that palace hall was, the gazes of the three of them were all captivated by a figure before them.

That person was an old man. He wore a blue gown, and had his hands behind his back.

Although he was old, he possessed jade-like skin, and there was not the slightest trace of a wrinkle on his face. Merely, his head of white hair and his face full of white beard betrayed his status as an elderly individual.

At that moment, the old man had a smile on his face as he looked at Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Although the old man had an amiable appearance, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all extremely nervous.

The same thought came to the minds of Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

That was, they felt that the person before them might be Grandmaster Kai Hong.

Merely, what appeared before them was not a coffin, nor was it a corpse. Rather, it was a vivid and life-like old man who gave off a threatening aura.

Could it be that the legendary Grandmaster Kai Hong was still alive?

Chapter 2349 – Not Fight With One's Brother

---

With questions in his heart, Chu Feng respectfully greeted the old man before him and then asked, “Senior, might you be Grandmaster Kai Hong?”

“Woosh~~~”

However, that old man did not answer Chu Feng's question. Instead, he waved his sleeve and caused the area behind him to shine with light. A grand formation appeared there.

That spirit formation was very powerful defensively. However, it was transparent. Thus, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were able to see the situation inside the grand formation.

There were three items inside that spirit formation.

The first item was a sword. The sword was seven feet long and five inches wide. It was entirely red in color. However, the red was not a blood-like crimson. Rather, it was more bright red, and seemed to have been constructed from a gem.

The gem was very special. On it were feather-like veined patterns. It was very beautiful.

While the appearance of the sword made it appear to have been made from a gem, the sword was not only tough, but also extremely sharp. Even though the sword was separated by the grand spirit formation, its grand and domineering aura of a ruler could still be felt.

Ancestral Armament. Not only was that sword an Ancestral Armament, it was also an extremely high quality Ancestral Armament. In fact, the quality of that Ancestral Armament surpassed even Chu Feng's Stormwind Edge.

When the Stormwind Edge was already a top quality Ancestral Armament, one could very well imagine how high the quality of that sword was.

That Ancestral Armament sword was placed on top of an exquisite stone platform. Several large words were carved on the stone platform: Phoenix Feather Sword!!!

As for the second weapon, it was a meter-long blade. To be exact, it looked more like a cleaver.

The reason for that was because it resembled ordinary steel, and looked just like an ordinary cleaver expanded in size.

Although the appearance of that weapon was very unremarkable, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all able to tell that it was also an Ancestral Armament. Furthermore, it had a quality on par with the Stormwind Edge.

Wang Qiang stared at the cleaver-like weapon. With a very excited expression, he said, “My, I l-like t-this weapon.” It was as if he had just seen the weapon that he yearned for even in his dreams.

“That’s your lowly taste,” Zhao Hong said with contempt.

“Wife, w-what’s wrong? C-could it be th-that the w-weapon that I am fond of is n-not good?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Look at that name,” Zhao Hong pointed at the weapon.

That Ancestral Armament was also placed on top of a stone platform. Its name was also carved onto the stone platform: Vegetable Cutting Edge.

“T-the hell! W-what t-the hell is th-this? Who g-gave such a g-good weapon s-such an filthy n-name?” Black lines rolled down Wang Qiang’s forehead.

At that moment, Chu Feng had already cast his gaze to the third weapon, the final weapon.

The final weapon was a block of four-sided metal. There was no blade edge, nor was there a form. In fact, it did not even emit the aura of an Ancestral Armament.

It simply did not resemble a weapon. At the very most, it would be considered to be an incomplete weapon.

However, that weapon just so happened to have a name too: Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler.

"The Phoenix Feather Sword was created with the Phoenix Feather Stone as its core component. A total of a thousand years was spent to create it. It is this old man's best work. Among Ancestral Armaments, it is the best among the best."

"The Vegetable Cutting Edge was created by assembling many exquisite stones. Originally, it served as my kitchen knife when I had idle time. However, over the years, I grew fond of it. As such, I began to polish it, and gradually turned it into an Ancestral Armament. Then, I spent a hundred years to improve it and turn it into a top quality Ancestral Armament."

"The Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler was originally a piece of stone that contained the Divine Dragon's blood. Although the Divine Dragon's blood was incomparably precious, the stone that contained it was, unfortunately, only an ordinary stone. Even though I had meticulously polished it for many years, I was still unable to forge it into an Ancestral Armament."

"However, those three weapons were the most beloved weapons of my life."

"I have hidden a secret in each of those three weapons. Upon knowing that secret, one will be able to learn about a location filled with treasures. That said, the quality of the treasures are all different."

"The Phoenix Feather Sword contains the most optimal treasures, whereas the Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler contains the worst. The three of you can choose one by one. Who shall start first?” After that old man finished saying those words, an opening appeared in the spirit formation behind him. People were able to enter the spirit formation now.

At that moment, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong all came to know that even though the old man before them was so vivid and lifelike and emitted such an imposing aura, he was likely not a living person. Rather, he was not even a strand of remaining awareness. Rather, he was only a spirit formation left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong.

Likely, this spirit formation had special settings that made it say different things based on the amount of people that had arrived here.

However, there was a coincidence. That was, the weapons left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong, the so-called treasures, just so happened to number three.

“Who will choose first?” Seeing that Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong did not respond, the old man urged again.

“I’ll choose first,” Chu Feng said.

“S-sure, you’ll c-choose first,” Wang Qiang agreed frankly.

However, compared to Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong revealed a trace of a strange expression in her eyes.

Likely, she was somewhat dissatisfied. After all, those three weapons were good and bad. The person who got to choose their weapon first would be privileged to choose from among the three first.

Even though she was feeling somewhat dissatisfied, Zhao Hong did not say anything. As such, Chu Feng walked into the spirit formation.

“Hey! Have you gone foolish? Take that Phoenix Feather Sword!” Her Lady Queen’s voice suddenly sounded.

The reason for that was because she was surprised to discover that Chu Feng did not walk toward the best quality Phoenix Feather Sword after entering the spirit formation. Rather, he was walking toward the worst quality Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler that could not even be considered to be an Ancestral Armament.

As Her Lady Queen knew Chu Feng very well, she already knew what he was thinking.

However, this was a very rare opportunity. Her Lady Queen did not want Chu Feng to miss such an opportunity.

Thus, Her Lady Queen continued, "Chu Feng, what do you shoulder? You should know the best. Compared to Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, you need that Phoenix Feather Sword even more. While it is fine for you to hand the weapon to them, you must obtain the treasures."

"Eggy, how could I not understand what you're telling me? However, Wang Qiang is my brother, and Zhao Hong could be considered to be my friend too."

"Regardless of how much I, Chu Feng, need the treasures, regardless of how much I need cultivation resources, regardless of how impatient I am to increase my cultivation, I cannot scramble against my brother or bicker with my friend."

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he disregarded Her Lady Queen and walked toward the Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler and lifted it in his hand.

"Buzz~~~"

Once the Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler entered his hand, information immediately entered his mind.

At that moment, Chu Feng started to feel both grief and happiness.

The reason for that was because what he had obtained was not a treasure. Rather, it was a map.

The reason why he was delighted was because he was able to guess that that map was the location of the treasure.

The reason why Chu Feng was feeling grief was because the location the map indicated was not only the area where the Kong Heavenly Clan was located, it was also within the Kong Heavenly Clan's territory.

What sort of place was the Kong Heavenly Clan? It was one of the strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

In other words, if Chu Feng wanted to obtain that treasure, he would have to brave enormous dangers.

'Sure enough, there's nothing good with easily obtained things,' Chu Feng laughed mockingly in his heart. Then, he placed the Divine Dragon's Blood Ruler into his Cosmos Sack and walked out of the spirit formation.

"B-brother, I t-truly never expected t-that your t-taste would b-be inferior to mine. Haha," Wang Qiang said with a laugh.

Compared to Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong did not say anything. Merely, the gaze with which she looked at Chu Feng was filled with surprise.

After all, she was no fool. Thus, she knew that it was not that there was an issue with Chu Feng's taste. Rather, he had deliberately chosen the worst one, and left the good weapons for her and Wang Qiang.

Chapter 2350 – Greatly Expanding One's Horizons

---

“The remaining weapons are up for the two of you to choose. Go on,” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong while smiling.

“I-I'll choose f-first,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he entered that spirit formation.

As Chu Feng had anticipated, Wang Qiang did not choose that best quality weapon, the Phoenix Feather Sword. Instead, he chose the Vegetable Cutting Edge.

Following closely behind, Zhao Hong also entered the spirit formation. She had managed to have her wish fulfilled, and obtained the weapon that she was most fond of, that Phoenix Feather Sword with a quality superior to Chu Feng's Stormwind Edge.

When she walked out of the spirit formation, Zhao Hong had a rare sweet smile on her face. It could be seen that she was very delighted to be able to obtain the weapon that she was most fond of.

“F-fucking hell. S-so those a-are the s-so called treasures? It turns out, we'll still have to find them ourselves. Furthermore, we d-don't e-even know what e-exactly the t-treasures are,” Wang Qiang cursed as he complained.

“It's the same for me. I'd assume that it's the same for you too, Chu Feng?” Zhao Hong asked Chu Feng, “Mine is located in the Kong Heavenly Clan. What about you all?” Chu Feng asked.

“Mine i-is a-at a location c-called the D-Drought Demon's Damned Pond,” Wang Qiang said.

“The place that I need to go is called the Phoenix Flame City.

That seems to be a forbidden area in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Zhao Hong said.

“Sure enough, they’re all different locations,” Chu Feng said. However, he was able to imagine that the locations Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong needed to go to seemed to be even more dangerous than his Kong Heavenly Clan. After all, merely by hearing the names of those two locations, Chu Feng knew that the places that they needed to go to were very dangerous.

“B-but, w-what about the inheritance? It’s c-clearly stated that there’s an inheritance h-here. Where’d it go?”

“Could it be t-that we’ll have t-to find the inheritance o-ourselves too?”

“F-fucking hell! T-this is t-truly too m-much of a f-fraud!” Wang Qiang started to swear.

“That’s true. What happened to the inheritances?” Her Lady Queen’s displeased voice echoed. After all, with all their trouble, the only benefit they were able to gain were the three weapons.

Such a situation might be alright for Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. After all, the two of them had obtained top quality Ancestral Armaments. However, what Chu Feng had obtained could not even be considered to be a weapon. As such, Her Lady Queen was feeling extremely displeased.

In fact, at that moment, Chu Feng also wanted to know exactly where the inheritance was.

Actually, compared to the so-called treasures, Chu Feng was more interested in Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance. That inheritance was what Chu Feng wanted to obtain the most.

The reason for that was because ever since Chu Feng had arrived in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, experienced Golden Crane True Immortal’s abilities, fought against Daoist Gold Star and then befriended Zhao Hong, Chu Feng had felt more and more certain that the many spirit formations that he had learned from the Nine Spirits Divine Diagram were less than capable when placed in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

The reason for that was because the world spiritists here were truly powerful...

If he were to continue to rely on the spirit formations from the Nine Spirits Divine Diagram, it would likely be very difficult for Chu Feng to continue to survive in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He must obtain more powerful spirit formations. As such, Chu Feng wanted to obtain this Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance the most.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were discussing, that old man suddenly waved his sleeves and pointed his fingers toward the sky. He began to make an outline in the air.

At that moment, the weather began to change as a strong wind formed. Soon, on the space where that old man was making an outline...

A magnificent and bright diagram was completed.

“That is?” Upon seeing that spirit formation diagram, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's eyes all shone.

That spirit formation diagram was no ordinary diagram. It was currently reflecting some images.

A young figure appeared in the spirit formation diagram. It was a little boy. The boy grew up very quickly. Soon, he became a youngster. The youngster soon grew up into a young man. The images in the diagram were changing nonstop.

As Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all able to tell that the figure in the constantly changing scenes in the diagram was most likely Grandmaster Kai

Hong. Although the speed of the changing scenes was extremely fast, they were able to tell that the spirit formation diagram had roughly recorded the entire life of Grandmaster Kai Hong.

The transformation of that diagram grew faster and faster. In the blink of an eye, Grandmaster Kai Hong had grown from a child into an old man.

The current Grandmaster Kai Hong shown in the spirit formation diagram was already someone that was rarely matched in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, he was still growing stronger.

As Chu Feng had anticipated, Grandmaster Kai Hong became the number one expert in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, Grandmaster Kai Hong was somewhat distinctive from other experts.

For ordinary people, their strength was determined by their martial cultivation. While Grandmaster Kai Hong's martial cultivation was very powerful, and he had reached the True Immortal realm that very few people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm managed to reach, Grandmaster Kai Hong would never use martial skills when fighting against others. In fact, he would not even use his Ancestral Armaments. The only thing that he would use were his world spirit techniques.

Grandmaster Kai Hong was someone who relied on his world spirit techniques to become the number one expert in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. It was no wonder he was viewed as a legend by the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's later generations.

Through the spirit formation diagram before them, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were able to tell that even though Grandmaster Kai Hong had become the number one expert in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and was enjoying unsurpassed honor, he was no longer satisfied with staying in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. The reason for that was because his strength had surpassed everyone else in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Not only did his cultivation reach the Heavenly Immortal Realm, even his world spirit techniques had surpassed those of Immortal-cloaked world spiritists and entered a completely new realm, grasping even more powerful world spirit power.

Through the spirit formation diagram, Chu Feng came to know the name of the realm that Grandmaster Kai Hong's world spirit techniques had reached.

That was the Exalted-cloak World Spiritist, the utmost experts among world spiritists, for Exalted-cloak World Spiritists had grasped Exalted-level spirit power.

To Chu Feng's greatest surprise, that spirit formation diagram not only introduced the realm of world spiritists above Immortal-cloak, it also introduced the realm of world spiritists above Exalted-cloak.

Saint-cloak. Above Exalted-cloak World Spiritists were Saint-cloak World Spiritists. Those who were capable of becoming Saint-cloak World Spiritists were all sages. They were all extraordinary individuals akin to gods.

However, Saint-cloak was not the end for World Spiritists. Above Saint-cloak was a legendary realm, the true legend — God-cloak.

God-cloak World Spiritists grasped legendary God-level spirit power. They possessed strength akin to gods. An ordinary spirit formation from them was capable of destroying an entire world. A slaughtering formation from them would be able to destroy multiple worlds at once, bringing about massive destruction and death to a Starfield.

Powerful, they were truly powerful. If a God-cloak World Spiritist were to have the intent to kill, the small and weak beings below them would not even know how they had died. That was the power of God-cloak World Spiritists.

If Saint-cloak World Spiritists were akin to gods, then God-cloak World Spiritists were actual gods. The power God-cloak World Spiritists had grasped allowed them to be able to dictate the lives of all living things.

“Amazing. This is truly a great broadening of my horizons. Never would I have imagined that world spiritists could become so powerful.”

“I wonder, are there martial cultivation realms as powerful as the God-cloak World Spiritist realm?” Chu Feng was filled with amazement. When he found out how powerful Saint-cloak and God-cloak World Spiritists were, he truly realized how weak and small he was.

He had also realized what the saying of ‘there’s heavens beyond the sky, and people beyond the person’ meant.

“There definitely will be,” Her Lady Queen said with certainty.

“Eggy, how do you know?” Chu Feng asked.

“Do you still remember the pair of enormous hands that appeared in the sky of the Eastern Sea Region’s Everlasting Sea of Blood?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“I do. How could I have forgotten it?” Chu Feng smiled meaningfully.

Even now, he would still recall the scene from that time and feel astonishment. The reason for that was because that scene was truly too disturbing.

A pair of enormous hands had appeared out of the highest of the heavens, from beyond the starry sky, and ripped apart the sky. It was a truly frightening sight.

At that time, Chu Feng had thought that it was an illusion.

However, when recalling the scene now, he felt that it was very realistic. The reason for that was because as he grew stronger, he became more and more certain that one would possess the ability to bring ruin upon the world once one's cultivation reached a certain level.

“That pair of hands appeared like someone using pure martial power to rip apart the sky. It did not resemble any spirit formation at all. Thus... the person who did that should be a martial cultivator.”

“With the power of the individual who did that, if that individual so desired, it should be possible for that individual to destroy an entire world,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Indeed. The scene that day was absolutely real. We saw it with our very own eyes,” Chu Feng grew more excited.

Since a martial cultivator was capable of doing something like that, God-cloak World Spiritists were likely not a legend. It was very possible that, in a certain area in the vast starry sky, there would be a God-cloak World Spiritist watching over everything.

Chapter 2351 – Obtaining The Inheritance

---

Suddenly, Her Lady Queen said, “Chu Feng, quickly, continue watching it.”

Chu Feng looked back to the constantly changing spirit formation diagram. At that moment, he discovered that Grandmaster Kai Hong had already arrived at an Upper Realm. Furthermore, he was like a fish back in water in that Upper Realm. He began to give rise to wind and water.

When Grandmaster Kai Hong trained in that Upper Realm for a total of twenty thousand years, he finally broke through the Heavenly Immortal Realm and became a Martial Immortal. Furthermore, his cultivation continued to rapidly progress nonstop. His cultivation progressed so fast that there was a sign of him reaching peak Martial Immortal and breaking through to the Exalted Realm.

However, right at the moment when Grandmaster Kai Hong was widely recognized for his accomplishments, he encountered a young man. That young man was an exceptional genius and issued a challenge toward Grandmaster Kai Hong. That young man wanted to prove to everyone that the battle power from world spirit formations would forever be inferior to martial power.

As Grandmaster Kai Hong was an individual who had been unrivalled his entire life relying only on his world spirit techniques, he would naturally want to teach that inexperienced young man a lesson for provoking him.

However, Grandmaster Kai Hong was actually defeated in that battle. Grandmaster Kai Hong, who had been cultivating for over twenty thousand years, was actually defeated by a young man who had only, at the very most, had cultivated for over a dozen or maybe even only several years.

Perhaps because that young man left behind a very deep impression toward him, Grandmaster Kai Hong left the name of that young man in this spirit formation diagram.

That young man was called Chu Hanxian.

“Chu Hanxian?!”

Upon seeing that name, the expressions of Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang both changed. The two of them remembered that name in their hearts.

The reason for that was because, based on the age of that young man when he was shown on the diagram, he would most likely still be alive now. As long as he was alive, then, with his heaven-defying strength, he must’ve grown up to become an extremely extraordinary individual. Not to mention an Upper Realm, he must’ve become a peak expert in an entire Starfield.

Compared to Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, Chu Feng’s heart was in even greater unrest.

The reason for that was because that young man’s name was his grandfather’s name.

“Could it be that that man is my grandfather?” Chu Feng’s heart was surging with emotions.

“It’s very possible. After all, judging from the timing of things, Grandmaster Kai Hong was defeated by that young man only over ten thousand years ago.”

“While ten thousand years might not be short, it cannot be considered to be long either. This is especially true for martial cultivators that have high levels of cultivation. For them, ten thousand years is not a long time at all.”

“Although the spirit formation diagram Grandmaster Kai Hong left behind did not mention which Upper Realm he arrived at, he most likely did not leave this Starfield. In other words, being in the same Starfield, it is possible for your grandfather to have arrived at the same Upper Realm that Grandmaster Kai Hong was in.”

“Most importantly, although there are a lot of people in this world that share the same name and surname, how many were capable of becoming Martial Immortal level experts in their youth?”

“Someone like that young man is truly an astonishing individual. As such, he does fit the image of your grandfather,” Her Lady Queen analyzed.

Actually, neither Chu Feng nor Her Lady Queen knew Chu Feng’s grandfather’s age. However, they both felt that only his grandfather was most fitting of an exceptional genius that appeared ten thousand years ago with the name of Chu Hanxian.

“My father declared that my grandfather possessed the strength to make our Chu Heavenly Clan become the ruler of our Starfield. It was only after he entered another Starfield that all contact with him was lost.”

“I feel that the person that defeated Grandmaster Kai Hong was most likely my grandfather.”

“Even if that person isn’t my grandfather, I feel that my grandfather would possess strength on par with that individual during his youth. Else, my father would not give such a high evaluation of my grandfather,” Chu Feng said in a very emotional manner.

In the past, Chu Feng only felt that his grandfather was very powerful. However, he had never really bothered to imagine exactly how powerful his grandfather was.

Yet now, after seeing Grandmaster Kai Hong’s experience, he truly realized what an actual heavenly genius, what an actual era’s demon-level genius was.

To be able to defeat a Martial Immortal-level expert in his youth, even if that person was not a Martial Immortal, he would definitely be a peak Heavenly Immortal.

Thinking about it, even though Chu Feng managed to move about unhindered in the Nine Provinces Continent in his youth, what level of cultivation did he possess?

The difference between the cultivation he possessed back then was akin to a drop of water and a vast sea when compared to a Martial Immortal. The difference between them was so great that they were simply impossible to be discussed alongside one another.

Looking at it this way, Chu Feng did not live up to his reputation as a genius at all. The reason for that was because, when compared to actual geniuses, he was truly too lacking.

“It seems that after Grandmaster Kai Hong was defeated by that Chu Hanxian, his heart received a setback. It was truly unfortunate. Grandmaster Kai Hong was actually also a very talented genius himself. It is truly unfortunate that he encountered a true demon-level genius,” Zhao Hong said with a sorrowful sigh.

The reason Zhao Hong declared that was because that spirit formation diagram was still changing. Several hundred years passed by in an instant. However, in those several hundred years, Grandmaster Kai Hong did not make any progress at all. Not only with his cultivation, he made no progress even in his expertise, his world spirit techniques.

This did not correspond with common sense. Thus, it was not only Zhao Hong who thought like that, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Her Lady Queen also thought that to be the case.

With that defeat, Grandmaster Kai Hong’s ego had been thwarted. As such, he began to have an unresolvable knot in his heart. He was unable to get out of the pit that he had fallen into. In the end, he ended up forfeiting his future prospects.

“F-frightening, t-too frightening. T-this is simply f-frightening to the extreme.”

“That y-young man, r-regardless of how ta-talented he might be, even if he were a-able to c-cultivate r-right after being born, h-he would have, a-at the very most, only c-cultivated for over a d-dozen years.”

“Y-yet, a p-person who had o-only cultivated for o-over a d-dozen years a-actually defeated a person w-who had c-cultivated for over t-twenty thousand years. T-this is s-simply too f-frightening! How c-could there b-be such a m-monster in this world? T-this w-world is s-simply too frightening. It p-possesses all sorts of existences!”

“W-with a d-demon-level ex-existence like him a-around, h-how could w-we possibly live i-in this world?” Wang Qiang said emotionally. He was feeling very sorrowful at that moment. He had realized that his talent, when compared to an actual demon-level character, was still far inferior.

“Sigh, Grandmaster Kai Hong has fallen,” Zhao Hong stared at the spirit formation diagram and sighed again.

Over a thousand years after Grandmaster Kai Hong was defeated by Chu Hanxian, he reached the limit of his lifespan. Unlike other individuals, he did not bother to enter closed-door training or find methods to extend his lifespan.

Instead, he quietly returned to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. His return was so subtle that no one knew that the person who had once shaken the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in the past had returned. Furthermore, no one knew that the Heavenly Immortal-level expert from back then had become a Martial Immortal. No one knew that the Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist from back then had become an Exalted-cloak World Spiritist.

Just like that, Grandmaster Kai Hong quietly returned. Even though his accomplishments had already turned into legends, he was not moved in the slightest. In fact, he did not even bother to meet his old friends. Instead, he arrived at the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds and set up his remnants here to quietly wait for his death. Just like that, the curtain dropped on a generation's legend.

However, different from what the people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm knew about, Grandmaster Kai Hong did not die thirty thousand years ago. Rather, he had died roughly ten thousand years ago.

“People who have been brought to me by fate. All that I’ve learned in my life is here. It will be shared with the three of you.”

Right at that moment, that old man suddenly spoke. As he spoke, the constantly-changing spirit formation diagram scattered. It turned into three rays of light that shot toward Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“Puu~~~”

“Puu~~~”

“Puu~~~”

Once the light entered their bodies, Chu Feng and the others immediately closed their eyes. Then, their complexions started to change.

After roughly four hours passed, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong opened their eyes simultaneously. At that moment, the three of them all revealed joyous expressions.

“Thank you, Grandmaster Kai Hong.”

After that, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong looked to one another. In tacit agreement, the three of them all knelt onto the ground and respectfully bowed to that old man.

At that moment, they were firmly certain that this old man was Grandmaster Kai Hong.

As for the reason why the three of them were so cheerful, and even knelt and bowed to Grandmaster Kai hong to express their thanks, it was because the three rays of light from earlier were Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance.

Grandmaster Kai Hong had split the world spirit techniques that he had learned in his entire life into three and imparted them to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong respectively.

Chapter 2352 – Testing One’s Heart

---

In addition to being extremely talented, Grandmaster Kai Hong was actually also a very fortunate individual. That was the reason why he had managed to reach such grand accomplishments in his lifetime.

He had encountered countless opportunities, and obtained inheritances from many of his expert seniors. Those were crucial in how Grandmaster Kai Hong managed to obtain his position and status later on.

And now, Grandmaster Kai Hong had split all of the world spirit techniques he had learned in his lifetime, as well as his experience, into three parts, and imparted them to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. As such, this was naturally an enormous profit for Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“Buzz~~~”

While Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were respectfully kneeling and bowing to Grandmaster Kai Hong, Grandmaster Kai Hong’s body started to suddenly change. His body started to disintegrate, and turned into many firefly-like bodies of light. Then, the bodies of light fused together and turned into a coffin.

It was a very ordinary coffin. Thus, using simple abilities, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were able to tell that there was a skeleton lying in the coffin.

The skeleton was completely undamaged and flickering with light. It was a treasure. After all, that was Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remains, the remains of a Martial Immortal-level expert.

“Wow! The source energy is intact. Chu Feng, if I am to refine the source energy, my cultivation will definitely improve a lot,” Seeing Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remains, Her Lady Queen started to gulp down her saliva in a gluttonous manner. Her appearance was truly adorable.

“Milady Queen, I fear that I cannot allow you to devour Grandmaster Kai Hong’s source energy. Else, I would be an unrighteous and unjust individual,” Chu Feng quietly said to Her Lady Queen.

“I know. That’s why I’m only saying it. After all, it would not only be you who would refuse to allow me to absorb the source energy, even that Zhao Hong and that stutterer will likely not allow me to absorb the source energy either. If you forcibly allow me to absorb that Grandmaster Kai Hong’s source energy, you will likely end up being looked down upon by the two of them.”

“Although this Queen wants to quickly increase her cultivation, I do not want you to be looked down upon by your friends,” Her Lady Queen said.

“My Eggy is truly sensible,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Tsk~~~” Her Lady Queen curled her lips. Then, she closed her eyes. It appeared as if she did not dare to look at Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remains again.

“Chu Feng, Grandmaster Kai Hong has split the world spirit techniques he has learned in his lifetime into three. I think that the world spirit techniques the three of us obtained should all be different,” Zhao Hong said.

“W-wouldn’t w-we know w-whether or not t-they are the same if w-we compare them?” As Wang Qiang spoke, he outlined a spirit formation diagram in the sky.

What he outlined was a slaughtering formation with impressive might.

“I don’t have that spirit formation,” Zhao Hong said.

“Neither do I,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, do the two of you have this spirit formation?” As Chu

Feng spoke, he also outlined the diagram of a spirit formation.

“No,” Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong shook their heads.

“In that case, it would appear that Grandmaster Kai Hong has truly split the spirit formations he learned in his lifetime into three, and imparted them respectively to the three of us. Thus, we have likely all grasped different spirit formations,” Chu Feng said.

“T-that old man i-is truly unkind,” Wang Qiang curled his lips.

Both Chu Feng and Zhao Hong understood Wang Qiang’s intention.

People all possessed selfish hearts. This was especially true for precious items; they would all be unwilling to share them with others.

To world spiritists, Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance was extremely precious. It was something more precious than their own lives.

If the three people standing here were not Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, but rather three selfish individuals, those three people would definitely not share the spirit formations that they had obtained from Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance with one another.

In other words, Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance would not be able to be passed on in a complete manner.

However, it was evident that Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were not selfish individuals. Thus, as long as the three of them shared with one another the spirit formations that they’d obtained, they would all be able to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s complete inheritance.

“This could be considered a trial too. It is a trial that is most difficult for others, a trial of one’s heart.”

“Merely, to the three of us, this trial isn’t an issue at all,” Zhao

Hong said.

She was very confident when she said those words. Not only was she confident in herself, she also trusted Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. When she said those words, she believed that both Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were willing to share the spirit formations that they had obtained with her.

“W-wife, i-in that case, y-you’re saying that you’re willing t-to share the spirit f-formations that you’ve obtained?” Wang Qiang asked with a mischievous laugh.

“Husband, are you willing?” Zhao Hong asked with a mischievous smile on her face.

“Of c-course I am,” Wang Qiang said while patting his chest.

“Chu Feng, what about you?” Zhao Hong turned to ask Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng did not answer. Instead, he chuckled lightly. Then, his arms began to move as he began to draw outlines in the sky.

With an exquisite technique, Chu Feng began to outline one exquisite spirit formation diagram after another. In merely an instant, CHu Feng had managed to outline several tens of spirit formation diagrams.

Chu Feng did not answer Zhao Hong with words. Rather, he answered her with his actions.

Zhao Hong’s expression changed upon seeing Chu Feng’s action. It could be seen that she felt great admiration for Chu Feng’s action.

Then, she said to Wang Qiang, “Husband, it’s your turn.”

“W-wife, l-ladies first,” Wang Qiang said with a mischievous laugh.

“Husband, in terms of being grand, this brother of yours is much better than you,” Zhao Hong mocked Wang Qiang.

“No. I am n-not lacking g-grandness. R-rather, I am showing etiquette. Wife, please go ahead,” Wang Qiang said with a shameless expression. As a thick-skinned and shameless individual, how could Wang Qiang be swayed by Zhao Hong’s mockery?

“I am going to share Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance without holding back anything. If you dare to not share yours, I will tear you apart alive,” Zhao Hong ruthlessly threatened Wang Qiang. Then, like Chu Feng, she began to outline the spirit formation diagrams in this vast palace hall.

After Zhao Hong began to outline her spirit formation diagrams, Wang Qiang also started to outline his spirit formation diagrams to share with Chu Feng and Zhao Hong.

Actually, the spirit formations Grandmaster Kai Hong had left behind were all extremely exquisite. For ordinary people, they would be very difficult to learn.

However, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all people who had obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance. Thus, as long as the others were willing to share, they would be able to learn them easily.

Thus, after the three of them all shared their spirit formations without holding back, the three of them all managed to obtain the complete inheritance of Grandmaster Kai Hong.

“Haha, t-this is g-great. A-although there are a lot of spirit formations that we a-are s-still unable to set up, we a-at least know how to set them up now.”

“Likely, t-there will n-no longer be anyone in t-the Hundred Refinements Ordinary R-Realm th-that would match up to us in t-terms of world spirit techniques,” Wang Qiang had a very happy expression.

The reason for that was because Grandmaster Kai Hong’s complete inheritance could truly be considered to be universally shocking. This was especially true for the slaughtering formations and defensive formations — they were all exceptionally powerful. When used in actual battle, they would reveal overwhelming might.

It was no wonder Grandmaster Kai Hong was able to be undefeated for so long using only world spirit techniques to battle.

“Let’s go. Since we’ve already obtained the inheritance, there is no need for us to stay here anymore,” Zhao Hong said.

“Wait a moment,” Chu Feng said.

“What’s there to wait for?” Zhao Hong asked.

“The people outside, although they are all from open and upright schools, clans and sects, are not good individuals. Perhaps they might not care enormously for Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance. However, for the so-called treasures, they will definitely be filled with expectations.”

“The fact that they have not managed to reach this place means that they will definitely think that the three of us have obtained an enormous amount of treasure. Likely, they will not let us leave so easily,” Chu Feng said.

“So what? The strongest among them are only peak Martial Ancestors. We possess the protection of the crystal giants. How could we possibly fear them?” Zhao Hong said in a disapproving manner.

“While the crystal giants are powerful, it remains that they are formed with spirit formations. As for those people outside, they are all old monsters that have trained for at least ten thousand years or even several tens of thousands of years. I fear that the battle experience that they have are not things that the crystal giants could compare to.”

“Furthermore, did you not notice that after we obtained

Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance, after Grandmaster Kai Hong's image returned to his coffin, our crystal giants are growing weaker, and that even our cloaks are changing?" Chu Feng said.

"Now that you mention it, that is indeed happening. What are we to do?" Both Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were startled upon hearing what Chu Feng said.

They discovered that their crystal giants were indeed weakening, and that their cloaks that had allowed them to avoid the various traps and mechanisms were also changing.

If this were to continue, both the crystal giants and the cloaks would end up having the same result. That is, they would disappear.

Chapter 2353 – Insistent On Throwing Away One's Life

---

“The crystal giants and the cloaks are most definitely related to Grandmaster Kai Hong's spirit formation. Now that Grandmaster Kai Hong's spirit formation has disappeared, they have also begun to gradually disappear. I'm afraid that they will likely not last for much longer,” Chu Feng said.

“What do we do then?” Zhao Hong asked. Although she had had a very calm appearance before, she had started to slightly panic now.

“Have you all forgotten that we have grasped a spirit formation to promote the crystal giants?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“Now that you mention it, I'd nearly forgotten,” Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were both delighted upon hearing what Chu Feng said.

“It is a bit difficult for me to set it up myself. Let's do it together,” As Chu Feng spoke, he let out his two crystal giants.

In response, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong also let out their crystal giants.

After letting out the crystal giants, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong began to jointly set up their spirit formation. They were currently dissolving the four crystal giants.

This grand formation of theirs was very powerful. Not only was it capable of fusing the power of the crystal giants, it was also able to absorb all of the remaining spirit power in this palace hall.

With their joint efforts, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong combined the four crystal giants into one crystal giant.

Merely, not only was this crystal giant three times the size of the previous crystal giants, it also possessed four heads and eight arms.

It had a very majestic and domineering appearance. It was as if it were a divine being. Merely by looking at it, one would feel a sense of reverence.

Most importantly, this four-headed eight-armed crystal giant was no longer only a peak Martial Ancestor.

At this moment, it emitted the same sort of aura as that Infant Soul Sect's Protector.

This meant that the crystal giant's cultivation had reached the True Immortal Realm.

"H-holy! They a-actually b-became a True Immortal. A-awesome!" Wang Qiang exclaimed in astonishment. Evidently, this result had surpassed his expectations.

"It is impossible for the four crystal giants to become as powerful as they are now by themselves. It would appear that there is a lot of remaining spirit power in Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants. That is why the four crystal giants turned into a True Immortal after fusing," Chu Feng said.

"This True Immortal-level crystal giant will last for a period of time. It should be enough to allow us to leave this place. Merely, I wonder, who this crystal giant will listen to?" Zhao Hong said.

The reason she said that was because two of the four crystal giants used to fuse into this crystal giant belonged to Chu Feng. The remaining two belonged to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong respectively.

As for the crystal giant originating from the fusion, it was currently a masterless item. If a single person managed to create it through fusion, it would naturally listen to that person's commands.

However, the crystal giant here was fused through a joint effort from Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. Thus, it would most definitely listen to commands from the three of them. It was very likely that it would chose a master from within the three of them.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, that crystal giant suddenly turned into a ray of light that shot into Chu Feng’s wrist.

“Sure enough, it’s you again,” Seeing that scene, Zhao Hong curled her lips. She had already anticipated that it would be Chu Feng again. However, she still felt uncomfortable when it actually happened.

The reason why she felt Chu Feng would be chosen was because, after all, two of the four original crystal giants had chosen Chu Feng. This indirectly signified that Chu Feng possessed greater charm to the crystal giants than her and Wang Qiang.

Thus, Zhao Hong, who felt herself to be very talented, was unwilling to admit to the fact that her attainments in world spirit techniques would be inferior to Chu Feng’s.

“Let’s go, it’s time to leave this place. Else, if our cloaks disappear completely, even if we possess the protection of this True Immortal-level crystal giant, we will not be able to get past that sea of flames,” Chu Feng said.

Then, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong turned to bow to Grandmaster Kai Hong again. After that, they left this place, entered the sea of flames and returned the same way they came.

When the three of them walked out of the sea of flames, they discovered that everything was as they had anticipated. All of the people that were present before they entered the remnant were all still there; not a single person had left.

However, compared to knowing that the people were all there, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were all feeling an enormous amount of lingering fear for another reason. The reason for that was because their cloaks completely disappeared right after they walked out of the sea of flames.

If they were only several steps slower, they would likely have ended up dying in that sea of flames.

“They’re out, they’re out.”

“Little friends, did you all manage to obtain any harvest?”

“Little friend Chu Feng, did you manage to see Grandmaster Kai Hong? Did you manage to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance? Exactly how many treasures did Grandmaster Kai Hong leave behind?”

The crowd that was waiting were simply not concerned with the safety of Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. They immediately rushed toward them and began to question them excitedly.

Seeing this reaction, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were certain that their guesses were correct.

While these people all appeared to have good-natured attitudes, they might become hostile at a moment’s notice later. For the sake of treasures, they were willing to do anything.

However, even though they knew that these good-natured looking people would soon become their enemies, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were not afraid. After all, they currently possessed a True Immortal level crystal giant.

.....

However, Chu Feng had no idea that there were two groups of people hidden in the remnants. They were currently spying on Chu Feng and the many experts present. All that had happened leading to the sea of flames had been seen by those two groups of people.

These two groups of people were all emitting overwhelming killing intent. Furthermore, the majority of them were wearing black gowns. They were all people from the Infant Soul Sect. Among them were not only many peak Martial Ancestor-level experts, there were also two True Immortal-level experts.

These two True Immortal level experts each led a group of experts, forming two camps that stood on opposite sides.

Among the two True Immortals, one was the Lord Protector that Chu Feng had met. Old Demon Rakshasa and Hun Lian were standing behind him.

As for the other True Immortal, he was a burly man. This burly man had very dark stone-like skin. As for his eyes, they were moss-green in color. Those eyes emitted a peculiar sort of cold light. He had an extremely frightening appearance.

Even though he was dressed like a human, one could tell that he was not. Rather, he looked more like a powerful monstrous beast who took humanoid form. That said, he remained an actual True Immortal-level expert.

“East Palace Protector, when did you become so cowardly to be actually scared by a brat?” That monstrous beast True Immortal said with a mocking expression.

As for the East Palace Protector that he mentioned, it was none other than that Lord Protector Chu Feng had encountered.

“West Palace Protector, I have already warned you. Although that Chu Feng is a member of the younger generation, he possesses at least a rank two True Immortal protecting him. Both you and I are rank one True Immortals. Thus, it is impossible for us to be a match for that individual.”

“Right now, Chu Feng has entered Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants. Most likely, he has obtained the inheritance. However, he just so happens to be someone that we cannot touch. That is why I suggest that we drop this operation,” The East Palace Protector said.

“Haha, someone that we cannot touch? He is but a mere brat, why can’t we touch him? Don’t you forget about the reason why

Lord Sect Master dispatched us here.”

“The bullshit inheritance from Kai Hong is simply of no importance. What’s important is that treasure that Kai Hong obtained in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, that piece of rock with the Divine Dragon’s blood.”

“I do not care what you plan to do. However, since I’ve come, I will definitely seize that stone with the Divine Dragon’s blood,” After the West Palace Protector said those words, he led the people behind him and began to fly toward the direction of Chu Feng and the others.

“Lord Protector, let’s act too. We cannot allow their West Palace to snatch it from us,” A peak Martial Ancestor expert said to the East Palace Protector.

“We know that we are no match for them. Yet, you still want to throw your life away?” The East Palace Protector said coldly.

“This subordinate is foolish,” That peak Martial Ancestor stepped back. He did not dare to say anymore.

“Then, Lord Protector, what should we do?” Old Demon Rakshasa asked the East Palace Protector.

“I have already given my warning. Since he is so insistent on throwing his life away, there is nothing I can do,” The East Palace Protector said.

Chapter 2354 – Attack From The Infant Soul Sect

---

“Little friend Chu Feng, why aren’t you saying anything? Could it be that you all haven’t obtained any treasure?” An expert from the Kong Heavenly Clan asked with a suspicious gaze.

At the same time, the gazes of the crowd also began to change. They were no longer as good-natured as before.

Evidently, they were all unwilling to accept that Chu Feng did not obtain any treasures, and returned empty handed.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk...”

Right at that moment, a burst of sneers following dense chilliness emerged from the entrance of the remnants.

Following that, a burst of enormous oppressive might swept toward the crowd.

“This aura!!!”

Upon sensing the aura that swept toward them, the expressions of the crowd all changed enormously. They, including the many peak Martial Ancestor-level experts, all revealed fear.

The reason for that was because not only did that aura contain a dense amount of killing intent, it also contained power that the crowd were unable to resist.

As such, the crowd involuntarily became scared.

“True Immortal? It’s a True Immortal?”

“There’s a True Immortal present?”

The crowd started to panic. They knew very well that when facing True Immortal-level experts, even if it was only a single True Immortal, none of them here would be a match for that person.

Although there was only a fine distinction between Martial Ancestors and True Immortals, that distinction was enormous.

If Martial Ancestors were the peak of the strength of a person's physical body, then True Immortals were existences that had surpassed one's physical body. They were individuals that had reached a new realm in martial cultivation. They were actual immortals, beings no longer considered mortals.

Soon, the crowd from the Infant Soul Sect rushed in aggressively. They sealed off the path of retreat and trapped everyone here.

“Infant Soul Sect?!”

Upon seeing the people from the Infant Soul Sect, many of the experts present revealed surprised expressions and blurted out the Infant Soul Sect's name.

Evidently... the experts present, compared to other powers, knew of the mysterious Infant Soul Sect.

“What a coincidence. Immortal Sword School, Buddha's Heavenly Temple, Zhou Heavenly Clan and Kong Heavenly Clan, you four old adversaries are all here today.”

“Even Grandmaster Prophet is here. Grandmaster Prophet, it seems like you haven't secluded yourself from worldly matters, but rather, you were just unwilling to work for us,” That West Palace Protector said with a sneer as he stared at Grandmaster Prophet.

“West Palace Protector, we do not have any True Immortals among us here today. Are you planning to bully the weak?” An expert from the Kong Heavenly Clan asked.

“Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants is a very important place. For you all to not dispatch True Immortals over shows your own foolishness.”

“Are you implying that just because you all were fools, that our Infant Soul Sect must be fools with you?” After that West Palace Protector said those words, his oppressive might began to continue to move toward the crowd. Facing that oppressive might, the crowd began to move back repeatedly. Even the peak Martial Ancestor-level experts were unable to stand firm.

At that moment, not to mention the others, even the renowned Grandmaster Prophet started to frown.

However, the expressions of Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang remained unchanged.

“Chu Feng, so you really are not scared of me. It seems that you truly possessed the backing of a True Immortal.”

“Since that is the case, let’s not bother wasting time anymore. Go ahead and call your True Immortal backer out here. I shall measure myself against that person,” The West Palace Protector said to Chu Feng with a strange tone.

“What? Chu Feng possesses the backing of a True Immortal-level expert?” Hearing those words, the expressions of the crowd present all changed.

Many people present revealed expressions of lingering fear. The reason for that was because those individuals were all people that possessed ulterior motives. They were all people that had possessed high hopes for Grandmaster Kai Hong’s treasures, and were not planning to let Chu Feng leave safely.

However, after the Infant Soul Sect’s West Palace Protector made his declaration, they realized that they had underestimated Chu Feng.

At that moment, they were rejoicing at the fact that they had only asked Chu Feng about the treasures, and had not yet attacked him for them. Else, they might have ended up being the ones that suffered.

As for those people who did not have ill intentions toward Chu Feng, they were feeling overjoyed. If Chu Feng truly possessed the backing of a True Immortal, then they would be able to escape a calamity because of Chu Feng.

“Everyone, you all are simply overestimating that Chu Feng. If that Chu Feng truly possessed the backing of a True Immortal-level expert, how could he have allowed me to snatch away that Gate Opening Key and kill his friend?” The World Spiritist Saintess mocked.

“That’s right. Logically, it should be impossible for Chu Feng to have the protection of a True Immortal,” After hearing what the World Spiritist Saintess said, the crowd all came to a sudden realization.

After all, Chu Feng had cared about Xiaoshi so deeply. If he truly possessed the protection of a True Immortal, how could that True Immortal watch and allow the World Spiritist Saintess to kill Xiaoshi?

Upon thinking that it was very possible that Chu Feng did not possess the backing of a True Immortal, the joy that the crowd felt instantly turned to despair.

“What if there is a True Immortal protecting me, and what if there isn’t a True Immortal protecting me?” Compared to others, Chu Feng was abnormally calm.

His question was not only meant for the Infant Soul Sect’s West Palace Protector, it was also meant for all of the people present.

“If you possess the protection of a True Immortal, you might still be able to live. If you don’t possess the protection of a True Immortal, you will undoubtedly die today,” The West Palace Protector said.

“Oh~” Chu Feng smiled lightly. However, his expression did not change much. It was as if he simply did not place that Infant Soul Sect’s True Immortal in his eyes at all.

“Humph,” Seeing that Chu Feng actually showed such a disdainful attitude, the West Palace Protector immediately revealed a furious expression. He said, “Don’t you act stupid. Today, this Protector will make sure whether or not you have a True Immortal protecting you.”

“Boom~~~”

Once those words were said, that West Palace Protector raised his hand. With a motion of his palm, the earth started to quake violently. Everyone started to sway left and right, unable to stand firm.

It was as if this West Palace Protector not only controlled everyone’s lives, but was also able to control everyone’s actions. It was like a divine being controlling the destiny of mortals. Even peak Martial Ancestors were unable to escape such a calamity.

This... was the disparity between True Immortals and Martial Ancestors.

Those that had yet to pass that gate would still be mortals.

Those who passed that gate were Immortals!

The experts present all understood that principle. Thus, practically everyone present revealed expressions of despair. In fact, some among them even closed their eyes to prepare for death.

“Die!!!” Right at that moment, the West Palace Protector smashed his palm downwards. A power capable of massacring the crowd arrived following his palm.

“I’m afraid that I’ll have to disappoint you,” Right at that moment of imminent peril, a purple light suddenly shone on Chu Feng’s wrist.

That light was extremely dazzling. As it shone, even those that had closed their eyes were dazzled by the light and started to feel a sting in their eyes.

That said, apart from Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, there was another individual among the crowd that was able to clearly see through that purple light.

It was the West Palace Protector. He was clearly able to see that there was a crystal giant within the vast purple light.

That giant possessed four heads and eight arms. Its body was enormous, and it looked extremely imposing.

That giant had managed to defeat his oppressive might merely by opening its mouth and letting out a mouthful of air.

“You actually really possess the protection of a True Immortal?” The West Palace Protector stepped back several steps and then spoke in shock.

“True Immortal?!” Hearing those words, the crowd from the Infant Soul Sect all revealed frightened expressions.

After all, the East Palace Protector had clearly stated to them that Chu Feng possessed the backing of a True Immortal, and that True Immortal was at least a rank two True Immortal.

Thus, upon verifying that Chu Feng really possessed the backing of a True Immortal, all of the people from the Infant Soul Sect, including that West Palace Protector, started to panic.

They were not only panicky, they also started to regret. They truly regretted their decision to not trust the East Palace Protector’s warnings and insist on coming to create trouble for Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because their coming was simply akin to bringing about their own destruction.

“True Immortal, it’s really a True Immortal!”

At that moment, the experts present all managed to sense the aura of the crystal giant.

Merely, compared to the people from the Infant Soul Sect, they were overjoyed.

The reason for that was because they knew that they would be saved today.

Merely, they never expected that the one to save them would be Chu Feng.

Chapter 2355 – Battle Between True Immortals

---

“Hahaha!!!”

“Wahahaha!!!”

Right at that moment, that Infant Soul Sect’s West Palace Protector burst into strange laughter. He was laughing so hard that his body started to sway back and forth. He was truly excited.

“And here I thought what the East Palace Protector said was true. But it turns out that he has still lied to me,” The West Palace Protector said.

His words came as a confusion to the crowd. None of them understood what he meant by those words.

“Chu Feng, that thing of yours was created through a spirit formation. Furthermore, it is only a rank one True Immortal. Did you really think that it would be a match for me?” The West Palace Protector declared.

“Rank one True Immortal. In that case, it would mean that Chu Feng’s protector possesses the same level of strength as the West Palace Protector?” At that moment, the crowd came to a sudden realization.

Upon knowing the truth, the crowd started to worry.

Everyone knew that something created with a spirit formation, regardless of how powerful it might be, remained to only a spirit formation.

When fighting against others with identical strength, they would generally be inferior to martial cultivators.

This was even more true as this Infant Soul Sect’s West Palace Protector was a demonic beast that had cultivated for over twenty thousand years. Not only did he possess enormous strength, he also possessed a special bloodline. Although he might be no match for rank two True Immortals, very few people among rank one True Immortals would be a match for him.

“Indeed. I think that you will not be a match for it,” Chu Feng said to the West Palace Protector. His tone was filled with contempt.

“Truly an ignorant youngster. Since you boast so shamelessly and are so slow-witted, this Protector shall let you realize what an actual True Immortal is using my strength,” The West Palace Protector declared. Then, he waved his sleeves and brought forth strong wind.

Two bursts of wind, like two wind dragons, flew out from his sleeves and toward the crowd.

The wind dragons were so ferocious that they appeared to be able to destroy everything. The many peak Martial Ancestors were like a bunch of loose leaves before it; they did not possess the slightest bit of power to resist it.

If an attack that powerful were to be placed in the Holy Land of Martialism or the Nine Provinces Continent, it would truly be a calamity.

If those two wind dragons were to continue to gallop, they would be able to massacre all lives in the Holy Land of Martialism.

This was the strength of True Immortals.

“Roar~~~”

Right at that moment, the crystal giant let out a low roar. Then, it shot forth its fist and caused heaven and earth to sway. At the same time, layer upon layer of gaseous substances that flickered with golden light appeared out of thin air.

It was Immortal-level martial power. Although the Immortal-level martial power was not pure, its strength completely surpassed that of Ancestral-level martial power. It was extremely mighty.

The Immortal-level martial power turned into a bright golden wall. The wall stood horizontally before the crowd.

The two wind dragons surged forth violently and collided with the wall.

“Boom~~~”

Following a loud explosion, heaven and earth started to shake violently. Even though the West Palace Protector’s two wind dragons were blocked by the crystal giant’s martial power wall, the crowd still felt the resulting energy ripples.

Even though the energy ripples were unable to injure the crowd, they made them unable to stand firmly. At that moment, they deeply realized how small they were.

“You’ve got some skills. However, it remains that it is only a spirit formation. I will be able to easily destroy it without even personally attacking it.”

The West Palace Protector seemed to not want to waste time. He flipped his wrist, and then a dark black blade appeared in his hand.

Once the blade appeared, the West Palace Protector’s aura instantly grew many times stronger.

Ancestral Armament. That was an actual Ancestral Armament. Being held by the West Palace Protector, the might of that Ancestral Armament was completely revealed.

“Go. Tear that fake True Immortal into pieces,” Suddenly, the West Palace Protector tossed out his Ancestral Armament.

“Rooarrrr~~~”

Once that Ancestral Armament was tossed forth, it immediately turned into a blade shadow. As that black shadow appeared, surging black clouds began to emerge in large numbers, and lightning could be seen flickering within those clouds.

Those clouds were no ordinary clouds. They were extremely toxic, and they were able to poison all living things.

That lightning was no ordinary lightning. Contained within that lightning was Immortal power. That lightning was capable of striking down everything.

However, what was most frightening remained the black shadow within the black clouds.

That black shadow was rapidly transforming. It was growing larger and larger. In merely the blink of an eye, it grew from a size of three meters to an enormous size of three hundred meters.

It was a ferocious beast. It possessed a wolf-like head, a tiger-like body, leopard-like legs and hawk-like talons.

Its eyes were blue in color. Many layers of lightning flashed in those eyes. Its fangs were red in color, and glistened with a dense blood-red shine.

That ferocious beast was the transformation of an Ancestral Armament. Logically, regardless of how powerful it might be, it would be impossible for it to be a match for a True Immortal.

However, being used by the West Palace Protector, it had managed to obtain power that surpassed what it had originally possessed. It was so powerful that likely not even ordinary rank one True Immortals would be a match for it.

“Rooooaaarrr~~~”

That ferocious beast was exceptionally ruthless and incomparably fierce. With a wave of its talons, it managed to destroy the crystal giant’s martial power wall.

Immediately afterward, it pounced at the crystal giant.

Although the crystal giant was enormous, its body was much smaller than that ferocious beast.

The arrival of that ferocious beast appeared like an enormous wave crashing onto a stream, a mountain falling onto the plain. When looking at them, the disparity between them was truly enormous.

“Roar~~~”

At that moment, the crystal giant let out another low roar. Then, its body started to shine with purple light, and began to grow larger.

In merely the blink of an eye, the crystal giant turned into a hundred meter-tall giant.

Its eight palms all clenched into fists. Like eight small mountains, they smashed toward that ferocious beast like meteors.

As for that Ancestral Armament ferocious beast, it remained vigorous and imposing. It waved its claws, tearing the space before it apart as it continued to charge to attack the crystal giant head-on.

“Bang, bang, bang~~~”

In the blink of an eye, the crystal giant and the ferocious beast collided with one another.

Even though Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants were originally indestructible, it started to shake nonstop from the battle, and countless crushed rocks could be seen tumbling down.

The battle of two huge monsters was truly frightening.

If it wasn’t for the fact that that crystal giant was subconsciously protecting Chu Feng and the others, a lift of that ferocious beast’s leg or a single burst of its oppressive might would have been enough to let Chu Feng and the others meet miserable deaths.

“Chu Feng, this is bad,” Zhao Hong started to frown as she sent a voice transmission to Chu Feng.

After battling for some time, it was clear that the crystal giant was not as powerful as that Ancestral Armament ferocious beast. If this were to continue, the crystal giant would likely be defeated.

“Don’t panic. I still have a last resort that I can use.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he moved his hand toward his Cosmos Sack. The reason for that was because ever since the West Palace Protector started fighting against the Crystal Giant, an item in Chu Feng’s Cosmos Sack had started to become unstable again.

Naturally, that item was Chu Feng’s Demon Armament, the Evil God Sword.

Although Chu Feng was unable to ascertain exactly what sort of usage and capability the Evil God Sword possessed, after the past several occasions, Chu Feng had become increasingly certain that the Evil God Sword should possess the power to contend against True Immortals.

Merely, due to the enormous backlash that the Evil God Sword would cause, Chu Feng was unwilling to use it unless he had no other choice.

“Quite interesting. However, I will have you all experience what true despair is next,” The West Palace Protector laughed coldly. Then, Immortal-level martial power visible to the naked eye was emitted from his body.

Like a flood that had broken through the dam, his Immortal-level martial power began to violently rush out of his body. Then, all of the martial power that rushed out was assimilated into the Ancestral Armament ferocious beast.

As a large amount of Immortal-level martial power entered its body, the Ancestral Armament ferocious beast grew more and more powerful. Its speed grew faster and faster, and its attacks grew increasingly fierce.

In this sort of situation, the crystal giant was evidently no match.

Suddenly, that Ancestral Armament ferocious beast’s two enormous claws grabbed two of the crystal giant's arms. The ferocious beast opened its enormous mouth and bit into half of the crystal giant's upper arm.

“Rip~~~”

Purple light sprayed forth like blood. With merely that one attack, the crystal giant lost two of its arms.

The crystal giant started to move back repeatedly in a manner similar to a human being injured. It was unable to stand firm. Even its aura grew extremely weak.

“Crap!”

At that moment, not to mention the others, even Chu Feng revealed despair in his eyes.

The crystal giant was already much inferior to before. However, the Ancestral Armament ferocious beast was growing stronger and stronger.

A clear-cut distinction was formed in the confrontation between the two. Everyone present knew that the crystal giant would not be able to contend against the Ancestral Armament ferocious beast. Likely, no one would be able to save them.

Chapter 2356 – Infant Soul Sect Retreat In Defeat

---

“Go on and despair. I enjoy seeing your expressions of despair the most,” The West Palace Protector said to Chu Feng and the others complacently.

“You bastard!” Some people were unable to contain themselves and started to curse the West Palace Protector.

The crowd knew very well that they were undoubtedly going to die. Yet, the West Palace Protector refused to kill them right away. The sensation of having their lives in the hands of someone else where that person could do whatever they wished was truly unpleasant.

Torture. What the West Palace Protector was doing was akin to a mental torture to the crowd.

“Buzz~~~” Right at that moment, the crystal giant that was already injured actually started to emit dazzling golden light. Following that, an extremely powerful aura started to emit from the crystal giant. The aura was so powerful that it forced the Ancestral Armament ferocious beast back repeatedly. In the end, that Ancestral Armament ferocious beast was beaten back so hard that it returned to its original weapon form.

“This... this... how could this be?”

Seeing this scene, not only were the others, even that West Palace Protector was struck dumb. Fear filling his eyes.

The reason for that was because he felt a deep threatening sensation from the crystal giant. At that moment, the crystal giant possessed enough power to kill him.

“Bang~~~”

Right at that moment, a loud explosion was heard. Following that explosion, the crystal giant shattered into pieces and turned into crystal fragments and a purple gaseous substance that drifted about in midair.

“Hahahaha!!!” At that moment, the previously terrified West Palace Protector burst into loud laughter.

“With how imposing it was earlier, I had thought that it was going to unleash some sort of enormous attack. Turns out, it was actually destroying itself,” The West Palace Protector mocked.

At that moment, the many experts present all started to sigh. Originally, they had all thought that the crystal giant would counter-attack. After all, the aura it had emitted was so very strong. However, the situation at hand had once again placed them into extreme despair.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the shattered fragments that the crystal giant had turned into began to, like raindrops, fly toward that West Palace Protector as well as the other Infant Soul Sect’s experts.

“Puu, puu, puu, puu~~~” Everything truly happened too fast. Before the crowd could react, the fragments that crystal giant had turned into pierced through the bodies of the West Palace Protector and the many Infant Soul Sect experts. Dead. In merely an instant, the Infant Soul Sect’s experts led by the West Palace Protector were all killed. All of them had been killed by those fragments.

“Self-denotation attack. That is truly a self-denotation attack!”

“Truly never would I have imagined that crystal giant would be stronger after it was destroyed. It actually managed to kill the Infant Soul Sect’s West Palace Protector!” At the moment, the experts present were unable to contain their emotions and started to shout.

None of them had ever expected that the crystal giant would really manage to kill the Infant Soul Sect's West Palace Protector and many experts. Although it had sacrificed itself in the process, it had managed to save the crowd's lives.

"Damn it!!!" Right at the moment when the crowd was wild with joy, a voice caused the crowd to fall back into a state of despair. That voice was actually the West Palace Protector's voice.

Although the body of the West Palace Protector had been destroyed, it was evident that he hadn't died!!!

"How could this be? How could he be alive?" At that moment, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had the same sort of expression of disbelief on their faces as the crowd.

The reason for that was because the West Palace Protector's physical body had been completely destroyed. His dantian had most definitely been blown to pieces at that moment. As such, it shouldn't be possible for him to survive.

"True Immortal-level experts have already surpassed the limits of one's physical body. They cannot be judged with the standards of normal people," Zhao Hong said. Once Zhao Hong said those words, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and even the many experts present revealed a change in expression.

With merely that one sentence, the crowd became certain that this young woman was no ordinary character.

However, at that moment, what the crowd was most concerned about was not Zhao Hong's origins. Rather, it was the situation at hand.

The West Palace Protector did not die. To them, this was an enormous threat.

"I do not know who you are. However, our Infant Soul Sect will definitely not leave this matter of what happened here today as-is!!!"

The West Palace Protector's voice sounded again. Following that, a burst of wind swept past. That burst of wind carried away the West Palace Protector's Ancestral Armament, as well as all of the possessions from the Infant Soul Sect's fallen experts.

"He left?" The crowd were all stunned. The West Palace Protector clearly didn't die. Thus, why did he leave?

"Why did he leave? Judging from his voice, he shouldn't be seriously injured. We shouldn't be a match for him," Even though the crowd rejoiced at the fact that the West Palace Protector had escaped, they were also unable to understand why he did that.

"It is best to not stay here for long. Let's leave first," Grandmaster Prophet said.

"What Grandmaster says is very true. Since that West Palace Protector appeared, there might be more experts from the Infant Soul Sect in this Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. Just because that West Palace Protector left doesn't necessarily mean that he escaped. It might be possible that he has gone to call for reinforcements. It is best that we leave this place first," The others agreed. Then, with Grandmaster Prophet leading the crowd, Chu Feng and the others exited Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants.

The crowd only stopped when they arrived at a place they felt to be safe.

"Seniors, since this place is safe now, we shall take our leave," Chu Feng clasped his fist at Grandmaster Prophet and the others. Then, he planned to leave.

"Little friend Chu Feng, wait a moment," However, right at that moment, a peak Marital Ancestor-level expert from the Kong Heavenly Clan stood forth and stopped Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

"Senior, what matter might you have?" Chu Feng asked.

"Little friend Chu Feng, I'll speak frankly. The three of you have entered Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants. Most likely, you all have obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance."

"Earlier, Grandmaster Prophet declared that you are the fated individual of that remnant. Thus, we have no objection to you obtaining Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance." "However, as for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures, we request that little friend Chu Feng hand over a portion to share with us." "After all, for the sake of that remnant, we have also paid dearly. Little friend Chu Feng, for you to be able to smoothly obtain the treasures, we have also contributed." "I believe that little friend Chu Feng also does not wish for us to return empty-handed, no?" That Kong Heavenly Clan's peak Martial Ancestor expert said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

Zhao Hong was furious. She opened her mouth and cursed, "Utterly shameless."

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng grabbed Zhao Hong's wrist and signaled a gaze at her to calm her down.

Then, Chu Feng revealed a light smile on his face. He did not look only at that Kong Heavenly Clan's expert. Instead, he swept his gaze to all of the crowd present and said, "Firstly, none of you have helped us in any aspect in entering Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnants."

"Even that grand defensive formation was something that the three of us jointly undid. If it wasn't for the three of us, I presume that seniors would not even be able to open that entrance gate. You all would not even be able to see that sea of flames that you all were unable to pass through."

"I truly do not understand what this senior meant when he said contribution," said Chu Feng as he looked at that Kong Heavenly Clan's expert.

"I... this... eh..."

That Kong Heavenly Clan's expert seemed to want to justify himself. However... he was unable to provide a justification. At that moment, his wrinkle-filled face turned deep red.

“Oh, I remember now. When we were trying to undo the grand defensive formation, I had asked senior world spiritists to help.”

“Merely, it seemed that you all declined to help,” Chu Feng turned his gaze to the four Snake Mark Immortal-cloak world spiritists.

At that moment, those world spiritists lowered their heads. They did not dare to look Chu Feng in the face. After all, what Chu Feng said was the truth.

Earlier, Chu Feng had indeed requested their assistance to undo the grand defensive formation. However, they had refused to believe in Chu Feng.

Chapter 2357 – Who Dares Touch Him?

---

“I’ll set aside what happened in the remnants. After all, no matter how you look at it, you all were unreasonable.” “As such, I’ll switch the subject to what just happened.” “All the seniors present here are renowned individuals. All of you are Martial Ancestors, and many among you are also peak Martial Ancestors. “

“I do not have to say how powerful you all are. After all, your overwhelming strengths are publicly known throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“However, I dare ask, is there anyone among you that is capable of defeating that Infant Soul Sect’s Protector?”

“Did any of you stand forth to face that Infant Soul Sect’s Protector during the time when he was acting endlessly arrogant?” Chu Feng continued. At that moment, it was not only those world spiritists; the others also began to lower their heads. Indeed, none of them had dared to stand out to face that West Palace Protector.

“Earlier, if it wasn’t for me activating my crystal giant, I fear that all the seniors present would have been killed by that Infant Soul Sect’s Protector.”

“It is one thing for all you seniors here to not say a word of thanks to me, but you actually wanted to demand for us to share a portion of what we obtained in the remnants with you.”

“If I understand things correctly, everyone here, the renowned and powerful seniors, are planning to disregard righteousness and kick your benefactor in the teeth for the sake of riches, right?” Chu Feng looked to the crowd with a mocking gaze.

At that moment, not only was the crowd lowering their heads, their complexions had also turned even redder.

The reason for that was because what Chu Feng said was the truth. If it wasn’t for his crystal giant, it would have been impossible for them to leave the remnants alive.

Reasonably, they should not demand the treasures that Chu Feng obtained in the remnants.

Actually, even if Chu Feng didn't mention it, they, more or less, already felt ashamed too.

Each and every word that Chu Feng said in his speech were like swords. Each and every one of his words drew blood. As such, they would naturally become endlessly ashamed.

"Everyone, did you all notice one thing?" Right at that moment, the World Spiritist Saintess suddenly spoke. Compared to the others, she did not have the slightest trace of an ashamed expression on her face.

"What thing?" The crowd asked in unison. They all wanted to break free from their awkward situation. The words spoken by the World Spiritist Saintess allowed them to shift the topic of conversation around.

"The crystal giant Chu Feng unleashed earlier greatly resembled the four from before. If my guess is correct, that True Immortal-level crystal giant was formed through the fusion of the four peak Martial Ancestor-level crystal giants," The World Spiritist Saintess said with a strange smile.

"And what about it?" A Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist asked in a disapproving manner.

"This means that Chu Feng and his friends currently do not possess any crystal giants."

"If we want to do anything to them, they will not be able to resist in the slightest. Thus, there is simply no need to bother with superfluous words with them. Just deal with them directly," The World Spiritist Saintess turned her gloomy and cold gaze to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

"You dare?!!!" Zhao Hong shouted furiously.

“Why wouldn’t I? Are you implying that we would be scared of three children?” The World Spiritist Saintess said with a cold and sinister smile.

“World Spiritist Saintess, if it wasn’t for little friend Chu Feng earlier, we would all have been killed. You, what is this that you’re planning to do here?” Grandmaster Prophet said. His tone seemed to be trying to reason with the crowd.

“World Spiritist Saintess, if you plan to bring harm upon little friend Chu Feng, I, Duan Chunchang, will be the first to refuse,” As Elder Duan Chunchang spoke those words, he unleashed his peak Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might. He had revealed his sincerity to protect Chu Feng.

“World Spiritist Saintess, if you are to do something like that, you will truly be kicking your benefactor in the teeth,” Following that, many other experts expressed their disapproval of the World Spiritist Saintess’s proposal.

“Everyone, I believe there is no need for me to mention to you what sort of character Grandmaster Kai Hong is.”

“Could it be that you’re all truly willing to hand all the treasures Grandmaster Kai Hong left behind to three mere brats?”

“Not mentioning whether or not these three brats will be able to properly utilize the treasures left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong, the three of them simply do not possess the strength to safeguard Grandmaster Kai Hong’s treasures.”

“Rather than having the treasures snatched from them later on by the Infant Soul Sect, it’s better that we help them keep those treasures safe today,” The World Spiritist Saintess said.

Once the World Spiritist Saintess said those words, the expressions of the crowd all changed. Not mentioning those that were against Chu Feng earlier, even those that had spoken to support Chu Feng revealed complicated expressions.

While they might not wish to bring harm upon Chu Feng because they felt ashamed... they also did not wish to have Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong hog all of Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures.

"Amazing. To actually be able to provide an excuse for oneself to snatch another's treasure, I truly must admire how thick-skinned you are," Chu Feng mocked.

"Little friend Chu Feng, although you possess conflict with the World Spiritist Saintess, what she said is not without reason."

"The three of you are still very young, and your strengths are also insufficient. It is indeed not safe for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures to be left with you all."

"How about this: we will help you keep them safe for the time being. When you all obtain sufficient strength in the future, we will return the treasures to you," That Kong Heavenly Clan's peak Martial Ancestor spoke again.

"Bull fucking shit! What difference is there between you all and those from the Infant Soul Sect?!" Zhao Hong cursed furiously. Her delicate and pretty face had turned deep red from anger.

"T-the w-way I see it, y-you all a-are even more d-despicable than the I-Infant Soul Sect."

"A-after all, the p-people from the Infant Soul Sect a-are openly s-shameless and savage. W-whereas you are just a bunch of hypocrites who p-pretend to be r-righteous, a b-bunch that would o-only dare to bully the w-weak and a-are afraid of the strong. You a-all a-are truly despicable," Wang Qiang mocked.

"Three little friends, how could you all say that sort of thing?"

"We are truly doing this for your sake. Perhaps you might not be able to understand our kind intentions now, but you will definitely understand in the future,” That Kong Heavenly Clan’s peak Martial Ancestor said.

As he spoke, he unleashed his peak Martial Ancestor’s oppressive might and sealed off the path of retreat for Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“Grandmaster Prophet, Senior Duan Chunchang, do the two of you also plan to wallow in the mire with them?” Chu Feng looked to Grandmaster Prophet and that Elder Duan Chunchang.

“Eh...” Grandmaster Prophet revealed a difficult expression. In the end, he did not say anything.

As for Duan Chunchang, he said with an embarrassed tone, “Little friend Chu Feng, you all are able to keep the inheritance. As for the treasures, we’re not asking for you to hand over all of them. You merely need to hand over a portion of them. As long as you are willing to hand over some, I dare to guarantee that no one will dare to harm you.”

“If I am to tell you all that we only obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance, and that there is simply no treasure, will you believe me?” Chu Feng asked.

“Little friend Chu Feng, in that case, we could only inconvenience you by having you hand over the Cosmos Sack on your waist for us to inspect,” That Kong Heavenly Clan’s expert rushed to speak.

“I understand now,” Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he took out the Evil God Sword from his Cosmos Sack and held it in his hand.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? Don’t tell me this is the treasure that you obtained from Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants,” The World Spiritist Saintess mocked.

“Heh...” Chu Feng chuckled. Then, he said, “You wish to search the three of us? It will depend on whether or not you have the ability to do so first. However, I will warn you beforehand. It is still not too late to pull back right now. If you truly plan to use force, you shall have to bear the consequences of your actions.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, we are very thankful for you saving us earlier.”

“However, we are not three-year-old children. Don’t you think this is very dull for you to try to frighten us like this?” As that Kong Heavenly Clan’s expert spoke, he looked to the others present and said, “Everyone, little friend Chu Feng has declared a threat. Are you all scared?”

“Hahahaha...” The crowd did not answer, but instead burst into ridiculing laughter. That served as the best response.

At that moment, the person feeling the most complacent was none other than the World Spiritist Saintess.

The way she saw it, with how things had stirred up, Chu Feng could forget about leaving safely. Even if he wasn’t killed, he would likely be taught a lesson by the crowd and become seriously injured.

“Little friend Chu Feng, it seems that you are unable to scare us. Then... please excuse my offense,” That Kong Heavenly Clan’s expert narrowed his eyes. Then, his peak Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might swept forth toward Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

He did not unleash any killing intent. However, he felt that his oppressive might would be sufficient to have Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong suffer a crushing defeat and seriously injure them. He was feeling resentment towards how Chu Feng had spoken to contradict him earlier. Thus, he was planning to use this opportunity to discipline the three of them.

“I shall see who dares to touch him today!!!”

Suddenly, right at that moment, a voice filled with imposing might exploded in the sky.

At the same time, an overwhelming aura descended from the sky and covered the crowd. That aura was simply too powerful. Even though there were many peak Martial Ancestors among the crowd, they were unable to withstand that aura.

Chapter 2358 – The Most Dangerous Individual

---

The surging oppressive might sealed off heaven and earth. With imposing power, a figure soon appeared from the sky. That person descended before Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

That person was an old monk.

That old monk was very thin. His clothes were very worn. The patches to mend the holes in his clothes made it seem like they were the clothes of a beggar.

However, when that old monk appeared, not a single person dared to despise him.

This was especially true for those people that had deliberately made things difficult for Chu Feng earlier. At that moment, they were all frowning and shivering in fear.

The reason for that was because everyone present was able to guess that the old monk was the owner of that powerful oppressive might, that the old monk was not only a True Immortal, but also an extraordinary True Immortal.

“Senior, it’s you?” Chu Feng was immediately overjoyed upon seeing that old monk. The reason for that was because he knew that old monk.

That old monk was precisely the same old monk Chu Feng encountered in the Darknight Ghost Forest. Speaking of it, Chu Feng possessed a slight relationship with that old monk.

“Little friend Chu Feng, rest assured. With me here, no one will dare to harm you in the slightest. In fact, no one will be able to harm you in the slightest,” The old monk turned around and smiled lightly at Chu Feng. His attitude was very amiable.

Upon seeing that scene, the World Spiritist Saintess, the Kong

Heavenly Clan's peak Martial Ancestor and the others shouted 'Oh no!' in their hearts. They started to feel that they were on the verge of death.

After all, judging from the way things were, Chu Feng most definitely possessed an extraordinary relationship with that old monk.

"Senior, please don't misunderstand. We never planned to do anything to little friend Chu Feng. We merely..."

Sensing that the situation was bad, that Kong Heavenly Clan's peak Martial Ancestor who acted to attack Chu Feng earlier hurriedly tried to explain.

He had a very attentive expression on his face. He was trying to provide an excuse so as to not be punished by the old monk.

However, before he could finish saying his excuses, the old monk's gaze suddenly changed. Then, a strange light flickered.

"Puu~~~"

The very next moment, that Kong Heavenly Clan's peak Martial Ancestor vomited out a mouthful of blood. Then, he fell to his knees powerlessly.

He started to shiver and was unable to utter a word. His appearance was akin to that of a dying individual. He became so weak that it was strange.

Upon seeing what had happened to the Kong Heavenly Clan's peak Martial Ancestor, the World Spiritist Saintess and the others grew even more frightened.

"This man's cultivation is still present. However, for the rest of his life, he will only be able to stay at peak Martial Ancestor. No longer will he have the opportunity to reach the True Immortal realm."

"What?!"

The crowd were once again frightened upon hearing those words. To be able to seal off a person's future prospects with a single attack, that sort of strength was truly frightening.

The crowd were all scared that they would end up suffering the same fate as that peak Martial Ancestor.

“That is his punishment for attacking little friend Chu Feng.”

“However, I dare to guarantee that if anyone dares to attack little friend Chu Feng again in the future, then their punishment will most definitely not be as light. I will personally make sure that those individuals will suffer a fate worse than death, and live lives inferior to those of pigs and dogs.”

The old monk said those words so very indifferently. There was not the slightest trace of anger in his tone. However, his words possessed unimaginable impact as they entered the crowd's ears.

Everyone knew that he was not joking around. The reason for that was because he truly possessed the strength to do so.

“Three little friends, farewell.”

After he finished saying those words, the old monk turned around and smiled profoundly at Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. Then, his body shifted slightly, and he disappeared into thin air.

After that old monk disappeared, his enormous oppressive might that was stifling the crowd also disappeared.

After the old monk left, that region grew calm again.

However, no one was certain as to whether or not that old monk had truly left. Thus, at that moment, the crowd were all standing there in a stunned manner. They were at a complete loss as for what to do. Their hearts were still restless.

“Little friend Chu Feng, we truly did not have any ill intentions earlier. Please do not take offense.”

After some time passed, the crowd managed to ease their tension and began to apologize to Chu Feng. At that moment, their attitude toward Chu Feng had changed completely.

The reason for that was because they came to know that Chu Feng truly possessed a True Immortal-level expert protecting him. Furthermore, this True Immortal-level expert was no ordinary True Immortal. He was so powerful that the crowd were all terrified of him.

Chu Feng ignored the crowd's apologies and instead asked with a beaming smile, "Seniors, are you all going to continue to prevent us from leaving?" At that moment, the crowd all smiled wryly. They were feeling very awkward.

They all knew that Chu Feng was making cutting remarks at them. However, even though they knew that was the case, they did not dare to show the slightest trace of displeasure. "In that case, farewell."

Chu Feng clasped his fist at the crowd. Even though it was an act of etiquette, it was filled with mockery. This caused the so-called experts present to feel even more ashamed. One by one, they lowered their heads. "Humph," Seeing the shamed expressions of the crowd, the corners of Chu Feng's mouth lifted into a cold grin.

With what had happened here today, Chu Feng had managed to see through these people. This bunch, including that Grandmaster Prophet and Elder Duan Chunchang, were truly a bunch of hypocrites. In short, not a single person from the group present here today was straightforward and upright. After mocking the crowd, Chu Feng's body suddenly shifted. Then, he soared into the sky. Together with Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, the three of them flew towards the distant sky.

Although Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had left, the remaining crowd did not leave after a long time. The reason for that was because they still possessed lingering fear, and were at a loss as for what to do.

However, they were certain of one thing. Their conduct and deeds towards Chu Feng today seemed to have left them quite a large grievance.

“Everyone, I believe you are all feeling very unreconciled right now. However, I urge you all that it is best to not make little friend Chu Feng your enemy.”

“The strength of that individual earlier most likely surpasses your imaginations. Not to mention you all, likely even the powers behind you would not be able to afford to offend that individual,” Grandmaster Prophet said.

Once Grandmaster Prophet’s words were said, the crowd’s hearts shook.

What sort of individuals were the people present? The four tier one powers were all present. As such, what Grandmaster Prophet meant was that that old monk was an existence that not even the four tier one powers could afford to offend. His evaluation was truly high, truly frightening.

Curious, Elder Duan Chunchang asked, “Grandmaster, exactly what is the cultivation of that individual?”

“I possess the same cultivation as you. When you are unable to see through his cultivation, how could I?”

“Merely, I had a premonition earlier. Although that premonition was very vague, that premonition told me that that individual is a very dangerous character,” Grandmaster Prophet said.

“How dangerous?” The crowd asked in unison.

“More dangerous than anyone I’ve encountered in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Grandmaster Prophet said.

“Sssss~~~” Hearing those words, the crowd sucked in a mouthful of cold air. What sort of character was Grandmaster Prophet? In terms of cultivation, although his cultivation was powerful, he was still only a peak Martial Ancestor. When compared to those True Immortal-level experts, Grandmaster Prophet could not be considered to be worth much.

However, Grandmaster Prophet held an unrivalled status. Thus, practically all of the strongest experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would have to give him face. As such, Grandmaster Prophet had met the majority of those experts too.

Thus, the evaluation Grandmaster Prophet gave that monk was truly high.

Grandmaster Prophet's evaluation came like the ring of a bell to the crowd. That said, the one that was feeling most depressed right now was none other than the World Spiritist Saintess. She knew very well that the others present did not have a deep grievance with Chu Feng. As long as they tried to reconcile with him, they would definitely be able to eventually do so.
